However, Zhao Yu was actually completely powerless. He did not even have the strength to truss a chicken. As the scramble for the Immortality Peach continued, not only was Zhao Yu unable to keep his Immortality Peach, his face was also struck by a fist. The strength of that fist was no small matter. It left Zhao Yu with a bloody nose, and knocked him flying several meters away. Furthermore, it had also knocked out three of his teeth.

“Motherfucker! You dare hit me!? Watch as I kill you,” Zhao Yu got back up and charged into the crowd.

However, Zhao Yu’s actions were actually all being manipulated by Chu Feng. The actual Zhao Yu was currently weeping in his heart. He knew that he would undoubtedly be killed today, that he would be toyed to death by Chu Feng.

“Zhao Yu, you actually dared to eat over a thousand Immortality Peaches by yourself. Your sins are beyond repair. Immediately vomit those Immortality Peaches out for me!”

“That’s right, beat that Zhao Yu up. He has most definitely hidden more Immortality Peaches on him. Everyone, search his body for the Immortality Peaches.”

When the crowd discovered that it was impossible to pluck the Immortality Peaches on the Immortality Peach Tree, they all turned their gazes to Zhao Yu. Zhao Yu simply did not have to rush into the crowd at all, as he was already drowned by the crowd.

“A bunch of ants dare to scramble for my Immortality Peach? Watch as I suffocate you all to death with my fart,” Zhao Yu shouted loudly and cursed at the crowd.

Of course, all of this was done by Chu Feng’s manipulation. Suddenly, Chu Feng discovered that he was unable to control Zhao Yu anymore.

However, at this moment, Chu Feng was not nervous at all. Instead, he revealed a cold smile. He knew that it was not that the spirit formation that he had placed onto Zhao Yu had failed. Instead, it was because Zhao Yu had been killed by the crowd.

Chapter 1973 – I Am Going To Kill You

“Hualalala~~~”

Sure enough, the crowd that had ganged up upon Zhao Yu to beat him to death suddenly started to rapidly disperse like a crowd of startled birds.

When the crowd dispersed, many people revealed expressions of fear.

Upon closer inspection, the people who didn't know what had happened were all startled.

At this moment, Zhao Yu was lying on the floor. His clothes were all gone; he was completely naked. He had a swollen face, a bloody nose and a body filled with blood. Zhao Yu had died.

“Why would this happen? Why, why... why would he die like that?”

At this moment, many of the people that were beating Zhao Yu up were deeply frightened. They had clearly not used much strength to beat up Zhao Yu. Thus, why would Zhao Yu, a rank six Martial Emperor, die just like that?

However, they didn't know that although Zhao Yu appeared to be completely fine, he was actually filled with serious injuries. He was already in a state where he would not be able to withstand the beating of a rank one Martial Emperor. As such, when his attackers were rank three, rank four, rank five and even rank six Martial Emperors, how could he possibly withstanding their beatings?

It would instead be strange if he hadn't died.

At this moment, Chu Feng was sneering. He had actually completely controlled Zhao Yu and had totally been capable of making Zhao Yu commit suicide. However, Chu Feng did not do that. The reason for that was because he wanted Zhao Yu to be beaten to death by others.

For Zhao Yu to be beaten to death before all these people, not only would this cast all responsibility away from Chu Feng, it would also establish enemies for the Heavenly Law Palace. After all, the bunch of old monsters who had attacked Zhao Yu earlier were not people with strength that could be neglected.

They were people with a lot of personal strength, and lifespans close to their end. As such, as they were people who were about to die anyways, they would not fear many things.

What sort of people were the scariest? That would have to be those that were not afraid of death.

At this moment, an Heavenly Law Palace's elder suddenly shouted, "Who was it? Who killed our Heavenly Law Palace's Elder Zhao Yu?!!!!"

No matter what, Zhao Yu was their Heavenly Law Palace's management elder. To have their management elder beaten to death by others, it was impossible for them to not be concerned about it.

However, of the Heavenly Law Palace's experts present, the strongest expert, Elder Yue Ling, did not say anything. He was still harboring hard feelings toward the insults that Zhao Yu had said to him earlier.

Of course... he didn't know that those words were actually not spoken by Zhao Yu, and were instead spoken by Chu Feng.

If he were to know that, he would likely become even more enraged. Unfortunately, he would never come to know the truth.

"Humph, with how greedy he is, with how he consumed over a thousand Immortality Peaches himself, even his death will not be able to wipe away his crimes."

"That's right. Ordinary people will die after consuming ten Immortality Peaches. Yet he consumed over a thousand by himself. It would instead be strange if he didn't die. The way I see it, he didn't die from the beating. Instead, he died from the poison from eating too many Immortality Peaches."

"That's right. Even if he possessed the map, it would be impossible for a single person to consume over a thousand Immortality peaches and be fine. We have all seen it with our own eyes. From that Zhao Yu's arrogant, conceited, delirious and abnormal behavior, it is clear that he was already poisoned. At that point, he was just waiting to die."

At that moment, the people who were beating Zhao Yu earlier all began to shift responsibility from themselves. They had decided to place the blame of Zhao Yu's death onto his overconsumption of Immortality Peaches.

At that moment, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace were at a loss as to what to do. Practically all of the grand characters present had attacked Zhao Yu. As such, even if they wanted to look into the matter of who killed Zhao Yu, there was no way for them to determine it. Instead, they would end up offending those old monsters. Was there really a need for them to offend all those old monsters for a single person who was already dead?

At that moment, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace didn't know what to do.

"Ser, ser, serves him ri, ri, right. His de, de, dea, dea, death is well justified," Wang Qiang spit out a mouthful of saliva. He was joyous over Zhao Yu's death.

"What did you say?" Hearing those words, the depressed people from the Heavenly Law Palace immediately turned their furious gazes to Wang Qiang.

"Is what he said not correct? Such a despicable person, if he were to continue to live, he would only bring harm to the world."

"You all saw what he did to me earlier. However, your Heavenly Law Palace, not only did you not plan to punish him, you instead want to avenge him now that he has died. Is this the way that the renowned Heavenly Law Palace that is said to act on behalf of the heavens does things? Pah!!!” Chu Feng said. He aimed his attacks at the Heavenly Law Palace.

“That’s right. We all saw what Zhao Yu did to little friend Chu Feng with our very own eyes. Someone like him deserved to die to begin with. For your Heavenly Law Palace to refuse to kill him and instead want to avenge him; you all have truly disappointed us,” The others also began to attack the Heavenly Law Palace.

Chu Feng was very popular with the crowd, whereas Zhao Yu’s reputation had been completely ruined. Thus, many people were extremely angry, though they didn’t have a way to unleash their anger before. But now, they had found a source, the Heavenly Law Palace, to unleash their anger at.

“You, you, you!!!” At this moment, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace were at a loss as to what to do too. The reason for that was because they were indeed in the wrong here.

“Chu Feng, it is not a pity that Zhao Yu did not manage to kill you. The reason for that was because this old man will personally kill you.”

Right at this moment, a boundless surge of killing intent suddenly swept forth from the crowd. That killing intent was so powerful that it forcibly dispersed the crowd composed of many experts. In the end, it completely covered this vast area.

At that moment, a person appeared. When they saw that person, many people started to frown and immediately move aside. They withdrew themselves from that person as far as possible.

However, at that moment, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace began to reveal smiles of taking joy in someone else’s misfortune.

The reason for that was because that person that had appeared was an Ancient Era's Elf. Furthermore, he was none other than Xian Yuyin's uncle, that rank six Martial Emperor.

"Cra, cra, cra, crap," Wang Qiang also managed to guess the identity of that Ancient Era's Elf. Immediately, panic covered his face.

In fact, even the Underworld Palace's elders that wanted to assist Chu Feng started to reveal uneasy expressions.

How powerful were the Ancient Era's Elves? When even the Underworld Palace did not dare to provoke them, who would possibly dare to provoke them?

If it were the Heavenly Law Palace that wanted to attack Chu Feng, many people would stand up for him. However, if it was this Ancient Era's Immortal Elf that wanted to attack Chu Feng, the crowd would not be able to help Chu Feng even though they possessed the will to do so.

"Today, I'll kill this Chu Feng. If anyone dares to obstruct me, that person will be killed alongside Chu Feng," Sure enough, Xian Yuyin's uncle also knew that there were a lot of people here that wanted to help Chu Feng. Thus, he started by threatening them.

As he said those words, he cast his gaze filled with murderous intentions at the crowd. Not a single person dared to face his gaze.

"Heh..." Seeing that, the crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace started to reveal cold smiles.

They thought to themselves, 'As they say, there's always a curb to everything. That Chu Feng is truly arrogant, and has made us suffer repeatedly. And now... there is finally someone that will take care of Chu Feng for us.'

Surprisingly, right in the moment when everyone felt that a calamity was about to befall Chu Feng, Chu Feng spoke with a smile on his face. "I spared your life once. Yet, never would I expect for you to not treasure your life, but instead actually dare to come here to throw it away.”

“Since you’ve come, I will no longer spare you this time around. You can go and accompany your disappointing nephew, Xian Yuyin.”

“What did you say?! Say it again?!!!!” Not to mention the others, even Xian Yuyin’s uncle was extremely shocked by Chu Feng’s words.

Originally, he had thought that Chu Feng would reveal an expression filled with fear after he appeared. The reason for that was because Chu Feng would not be able to escape in this place. As such, he would undoubtedly be killed.

However, that brat was actually not scared, and even said that he would kill him. Could he have misheard?

Chapter 1974 – Absolute Suppression

Chu Feng said those words without much emphasis. However, when the crowd heard those words, their bodies trembled, and their expressions grew stiff.

Even though many people had not managed to personally see Chu Feng killing Xian Yuyin, they heard about what had happened. After Chu Feng killed Xian Yuyin, he had clearly fled the scene immediately. He fled in terror from Xian Yuyin’s uncle and was only alive because he was saved by the Weaponry Refinement Immortal.

Yet, what was going on right now? Chu Feng actually declared that he had spared Xian Yuyin’s uncle? Was that not boasting shamelessly?

“Chu Feng, are you stupid or what? You actually said those words to me?”

“Earlier, if it hadn’t been for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal saving you, you would’ve already been killed by me. You’re going to kill me? Do you even think you’re qualified?” Xian Yuyin’s uncle said with a loud voice.

“Whether or not I’m qualified, won’t you know when you fight me?” Chu Feng said with a disapproving expression. The gaze with which he looked to Xian Yuyin’s uncle was actually filled with disdain.

“Bastard! If I do not dismember your body into ten thousand pieces today, I am not an Ancient Era’s Elf.”

Suddenly, Xian Yuyin’s uncle unleashed his attack. With a thought, he controlled his surging martial power. With earth-shattering might, it began to engulf Chu Feng.

Everything had happened too quickly. At that moment, apart from the rank six Martial Emperors present, the majority of the others were unable able to react to Xian Yuyin's uncle's attack. At that moment, there were still a lot of people standing beside Chu Feng. Those people all felt an intense killing intent surrounding them.

At that moment, if Xian Yuyin's uncle's attack were to land successfully, it would not only be Chu Feng who would die. Many others would also accompany him in death. The reason for that was because even though Elder Huang Guan and the others possessed the strength to block that attack, none of them dared to act against the Ancient Era's Elves. As such, they could only escape by themselves.

"Disperse," instantly lightning flashed through Chu Feng's eyes, and his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared together.

Chu Feng had not moved. He had only shouted. However, that shout of his had turned Xian Yuyin's uncle's attack into energy ripples. They rumbled before Chu Feng, but were unable to approach him.

Blocked. Xian Yuyin's uncle's attack was blocked by Chu Feng.

At that moment, everyone revealed stunned expressions. They were all startled because they had all discovered that Chu Feng's current aura was that of a rank four Martial Emperor.

They had heard that Chu Feng's Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings were capable of increasing his cultivation by two levels. Thus, judging from that, Chu Feng's actual cultivation was already no longer that of the rank one Martial Emperor that others said he was. Instead, he was a rank two Martial Emperor.

However, even if Chu Feng was a rank two Martial Emperor who had managed to temporarily increase his cultivation to rank four Martial Emperor through a special method, it should still be impossible for him to be a match for a rank six Martial Emperor.

However, at the moment when Chu Feng unleashed his oppressive might, the crowd all felt that Chu Feng's oppressive might was even more frightening than Xian Yuyin's uncle's oppressive might.

Exactly what was going on?

At that moment, Elder Huang Guan was the one who asked, "A heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation? Little friend Chu Feng, could it be that you possess a battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation?"

"That's right. It is as senior suspected, I possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivations," Chu Feng nodded.

"What? A heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation? Chu Feng's battle power is capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation?"

Hearing those words, the crowd that was already extremely shocked became completely stunned. It was not that they were ignorant. Rather, a battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivations was truly too frightening.

Ordinary Martial Emperors only possessed battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. For those capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, they were simply legends. Yet, Chu Feng was actually capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation? That was simply unparalleled.

Not to mention the others, even the gaze with which Xian Yuyin's uncle looked to Chu Feng had changed.

He was a rank six Martial Emperor with a battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

As for Chu Feng, he was a rank four Martial Emperor with a battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.

Even though there appeared to be an enormous gap in strength between the two of them, Chu Feng's heaven-defying battle power had made up for the gap in their martial cultivation. Currently, the two of them possessed the same level of battle power.

“No wonder you're that arrogant. However, you killed my nephew. As such, I must return the debt in blood,” However, even with that being the case, Xian Yuyin's uncle was still unwilling to give up. Instead, he unleashed another ferocious attack at Chu Feng.

But regardless of how he attacked Chu Feng, he was unable to injure Chu Feng in the slightest. Regardless of how fierce his attacks were, they all ended up being blocked by Chu Feng.

In the end, Xian Yuyin's uncle even used an Incomplete Imperial Armament. However, he was still unable to suppress Chu Feng.

“Earthen Taboo: Firmament Slash!!!”

Suddenly, Chu Feng shouted and unleashed the Earthen Taboo: Firmament Slash's nine slashes in rapid succession. As for that ninth slash, not only did it manage to slice through Xian Yuyin's uncle's attack, it had even sliced off one of his arms.

“Heavens, that!!!” Everyone was stunned by that scene. They were at a complete loss as boundless astonishment filled their hearts.

Even if Chu Feng possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation, his actual battle power should only be equal to that of Xian Yuyin's uncle. However, as the two men fought, Chu Feng held absolute superiority in their battle. In fact, even after Xian Yuyin's uncle unleashed his Incomplete Imperial Armament, Chu Feng still fought him without any weapon.

However, it was precisely such a weaponless Chu Feng that had sliced off one of Xian Yuyin's uncle's arms. Not only was his arm sliced off, the Incomplete Imperial Armament that he had held in that hand also fell to the ground.

“Ahhhh!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Suddenly, Xian Yuyin's uncle started to shout. He was not shouting from the pain of losing his arm. Rather, he was shouting due to his overwhelming anger.

After shouting, he flipped his remaining palm. Immediately, heaven and earth started to tremble as a golden-bright and dazzling giant ax appeared in his hand.

Imperial Armament. That was an actual Imperial Armament that emitted an incomparable amount of Emperor's Might. When that Imperial Armament appeared, Xian Yuyin's uncle's aura instantly increased enormously. His aura had actually begun to suppress Chu Feng's.

“Chu Feng, so what if you possess overwhelming power? I possess an Imperial Armament. Your measly little life is destined to be mine,” Ever since the fight begun, Xian Yuyin's uncle had been oppressed by Chu Feng the entire time.

The reason why he had not used his Imperial Armament after fighting for so long was because he had not wanted to publicly shame himself. After all, even if he managed to defeat Chu Feng through the use of his Imperial Armament, he would only appear to have won through an unfair advantage.

However, as matters stood, he no longer possessed any other choice. Regardless of whether he was willing to or not, he had to admit that Chu Feng was very powerful, and had surpassed him. If he still held back on using his Imperial Armament, the person that would end up dying would be him.

And now since he had revealed his Imperial Armament, Xian Yuyin's uncle was once again filled with confidence. He was finally able to explosively release the feeling of being oppressed the entire time.

“This is truly bad!!!”

At that moment, Elder Huang Guan and the others that wished for Chu Feng’s victory all started to frown. The reason for that was because an Imperial Armament’s strength was not something that could be looked down upon.

If two people of equal strength were fighting, and one of them possessed an Imperial Armament, that Imperial Armament would be capable of reversing the entire fight.

‘Chu Feng, you are doomed this time,’ The crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace began to sneer in their hearts. They all wished for Chu Feng’s death. However, the performance Chu Feng displayed earlier caused even them to have a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng, and feel that Chu Feng would not be killed. Originally, they had been extremely disappointed. However, they now managed to see hope again.

Chapter 1975 – You’re Truly Ridiculous

“Roar~~~”

Once the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader appeared, a dragon’s roar immediately resonated through heaven and earth, and a boundless oppressive might surged from Chu Feng’s body. That oppressive might instantly turned the situation of the battle around; it had completely overturned the oppressive might that was suppressing Chu Feng, and even began to oppress Xian Yuyin’s uncle instead.

“Heavens, that is?!”

“Could it be.... That that is also an Imperial Armament?”

“Chu Feng, he actually also possesses an Imperial Armament?!”

At that moment, the expressions from the crowd were truly marvelous. Chu Feng’s weapon was emitting an Emperor’s might. There was no mistake; that unparalleled sensation that they were feeling was definitely that of an Imperial Armament.

However, no one had expected that Chu Feng would actually possess an Imperial Armament. This was especially true of the Heavenly Law Palace’s Elder Yue Ling. At that moment, he was feeling extremely complicated.

He was someone that had managed to become a rank six Martial Emperor and a management elder of the Heavenly Law Palace after training for thousands of years. Yet, he did not possess a single Imperial Armament.

However, that Chu Feng, that brat who had only trained for just over a dozen years, actually already possessed an Imperial Armament. This caused Elder Yue Ling to feel extremely envious and jealous of Chu Feng.

Suddenly, someone from the Heavenly Law Palace shouted, “Furious Coiling Dragon Behader! Milord, look, Chu Feng’s Imperial Armament seems to be the legendary Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader!”

Upon closer inspection, Elder Yue Ling’s face nearly turned green. Wasn’t the appearance of that silver Imperial Armament that Chu Feng was holding in his hand exactly the same as that legendary Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader?

In fact, many people heard the cry of shock from that person of the Heavenly Law Palace. They had also heard of the renowned Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. At that moment, they too had expressions of disbelief covering their faces.

The Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader was a weapon renowned for its might. It was the legendary Imperial Armament of the Beast Emperor, the Black Dragon King.

Thus, how could such an Imperial Armament end up in Chu Feng’s hands? The might being revealed by the Imperial Armament Chu Feng was holding in his hand was definitely real. But, was that weapon really the legendary Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader?

As such, it was inevitable that there would be people who were skeptical of whether or not the Imperial Armament in Chu Feng’s hand was really the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. After all, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader was too famous. It had never appeared in the Holy Land of Martialism since the death of the Beast Emperor. For it to suddenly appear now, it was inevitable that people would find it hard to believe.

“Roar~~~”

Right at the moment when the crowd was shocked, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in Chu Feng’s hand uttered another roar.

“Buzz, buzz, buzz~~~”

After that roar sounded, the Imperial Armament which Xian Yuyin’s uncle was holding began to tremble, as if it were afraid.

At that moment, Xian Yuyin's uncle tried his hardest to conceal his Imperial Armament's trembling. After all, he could not allow himself to lose to Chu Feng in terms of battle deposition before the confrontation had even begun.

However, with only one hand left, how could he possibly conceal the trembling of his Imperial Armament? In fact, even the hand that he was holding his Imperial Armament with started to subsequently tremble.

“Heavens, quickly, look over there! That man's Imperial Armament is actually trembling. It is afraid! Could it be that it's intimidated by the Imperial Armament in Chu Feng's hand?”

“Chu Feng's Imperial Armament is actually capable of intimidating other Imperial Armaments? It is most definitely no ordinary Imperial Armament! Heavens! Could it be that Chu Feng's Imperial Armament really is that legendary Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader?!” At that moment, the crowd exclaimed in succession.

“Fuck! I refuse to believe this!!!”

Seeing that everyone was starting to lean toward Chu Feng and ignore him, Xian Yuyin's uncle shouted furiously. As he spoke, he brandished the giant Imperial Armament axe in his hand.

“Snap~~~”

With the slash of his axe, an enormous crack appeared in the void. His frightening slash caused the expressions of everyone present to stiffen.

The aura of death had never been so close to them before. At that moment, even grand characters like Elder Huang Guan felt that a great catastrophe was about to befall them.

As for all this, it was caused by Xian Yuyin's uncle. That axe of his was truly too powerful. Not only was he planning to kill Chu Feng with that slash, he would also destroy everything and everyone within a ten thousand meter radius of Chu Feng.

“Break!!!”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly waved the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in his hand. “Snap~~~,” another enormous spatial crack appeared.

“Boom~~~”

The two attacks collided with one another and created an enormous explosion. At that moment, this region turned completely black. And everyone’s line of sight was covered.

It was the shattering of space and the void itself. The space and void in this region were shattered by the confrontation between Chu Feng and Xian Yuyin’s uncle.

It was only when the shattered space returned to normal that the crowd’s line of sight managed to see clearly again. When they discovered that they had come out unscathed, the crowd was wild with joy.

No one on Chu Feng’s side was injured. Chu Feng had successfully blocked Xian Yuyin’s uncle’s attack.

“Cough, cough~~~”

However, suddenly ear-piercing coughing noises were heard. They were emitted from the direction of Xian Yuyin’s uncle.

Turning toward the direction of the coughs, the crowd were stunned once again. They had discovered that Xian Yuyin’s uncle had fallen to the ground.

Not only that, his body was also badly mutilated. As he coughed, he continuously vomited out mouthfuls of blood. He was so weak that he simply looked like someone who was on the verge of death.

Defeated. Xian Yuyin’s uncle had been defeated. In the confrontation of Imperial Armaments, Xian Yuyin’s uncle had been defeated by Chu Feng in a single bout.

That said, even though Xian Yuyin's uncle had a very miserable appearance right now, no one other than the people from the Heavenly Law Palace felt any sympathy for him.

The reason for that was because even though he was an incomparably noble Ancient Era's Elf, he was an extremely ruthless individual. When he fought against Chu Feng earlier, he had unleashed many ruthless attacks with no concern for the surrounding people. Had it not been for Chu Feng blocking all of those attacks, countless innocent bystanders would've been killed by him.

Someone like him, someone who would disregard the lives of others for his own purpose, would only be a scourge should he be kept alive. At that moment, many people wished for the death of that Ancient Era's Elf.

"Step, step, step..."

Holding the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, Chu Feng began to walk toward Xian Yuyin's uncle one step at a time. After arriving before him, Chu Feng asked, "Is there anything you wish to say before your death?"

"Chu Feng, you must not kill me. I am an Ancient Era's Elf. If you are to kill me, you will have gone against all of us Ancient Era's Elves."

"While you were able to contend against the Four Great Imperial Clans, I'd advise you to think twice before going against us Ancient Era's Elves. In this Holy Land of Martialism, no one dares to go against us. Even the Three Palaces do not dare to do so. If you dare to go against us, you will not only be sealing your own doom, those with you will also be killed. Even if you escape to the ends of the earth, we will still catch you and kill you," Xian Yuyin's uncle spoke in an extremely fierce manner.

Chu Feng was startled upon hearing those words. He truly did not expect that Xian Yuyin's uncle, with how overflowing his murderous intentions were earlier, was actually also a coward that feared death. It must be said that Chu Feng was truly disappointed in him.

However, Chu Feng's startled look caused the crowd to think that he was scared. Indeed, they were the Ancient Era's Elves. How could anyone possibly not be afraid of them?

While others might not know, the people from the Three Palaces knew very well that Xian Yuyin's uncle was not boasting at all when he made those threats. The capabilities of the Ancient Era's Elves were truly that powerful. If Chu Feng were to offend the Ancient Era's Elves, he would definitely be killed.

'Heh, are you scared now? Come, kill him. I shall see whether or not you dare to kill him. If you kill him, you'll definitely die. If you don't kill him, you'll also die. This is what you get for offending the Ancient Era's Elves,' Seeing Chu Feng's hesitation, many of the people from the Heavenly Law Palace started to sneer in their hearts.

What Xian Yuyin's uncle had said earlier suddenly made the Heavenly Law Palace's crowd realize that Chu Feng had offended the Ancient Era's Elves. No matter what, he would undoubtedly be killed. And they were very willing to see Chu Feng suffer this sort of fate.

"Chu Feng, if you kneel to me, beg for forgiveness and apologize to my dead nephew, I will consider sparing your life," Xian Yuyin's uncle added. Evidently, he also thought that Chu Feng had grown afraid. Thus, when he said those words, he was no longer scared and actually filled with confidence.

"Hahahaha..." At that moment, Chu Feng burst into loud laughter.

"What are you laughing about?" Xian Yuyin's uncle was completely confused by Chu Feng's sudden laughter.

Wasn't Chu Feng afraid?

Why would he be laughing like this at such a time?

Exactly what was he thinking?

"I am laughing at how truly ridiculous you are," Chu Feng said.

Chapter 1976 – Must Kill

“I am ridiculous?” Hearing those words, Xian Yuyin’s uncle was startled. From his expression, it could be seen that he truly did not understand what Chu Feng meant by those words.

It was only after a moment that he realized that it was most likely because Chu Feng did not know the strength of their Ancient Era’s Elves, and thus did not believe his threats.

Thus, he added, “Chu Feng, you must not look down upon us Ancient Era’s Elves. The strength of our Ancient Era’s Elves absolutely surpasses your imagination.”

“Heh...” Hearing those words, Chu Feng laughed once again. Then, he said, “I know the strength of the Ancient Era’s Elves extremely well. However, there is one thing that you seem to definitely not know about.”

“Wha... what is it?” Xian Yuyin’s uncle asked with a voice trembling with fear. From Chu Feng’s confident appearance, he was able to realize that something was wrong. As such, he began to feel worry and unease from the bottom of his heart.

“I have already acted on behalf of the Cyanwood Mountain and entered an alliance with your Ancient Era’s Elves. Furthermore, the alliance is something that your Ancient Era’s Elves’ Majesty, the Elf King, personally suggested,” Chu Feng said.

“Wha... what did you say?!” Hearing those words, Xian Yuyin was immediately alarmed. He was so shocked that he did not dare to believe his own ears.

When even he was acting in such a manner, the expressions of the others present were even more marvelous.

Chu Feng had actually entered into an alliance with the Ancient Era’s Elves? Furthermore, the one who suggested the alliance was the Elf King?!!!

Was that for real? If it was real, it would truly be unimaginable. Chu Feng himself was already this powerful. If the Ancient Era's Elves were to stand behind him, who would dare to oppose Chu Feng in the Holy Land of Martialism?

“Not only does he know that I killed Xian Yuyin, he also told me that if I were to encounter you again, I was authorized to act on behalf of the Ancient Era's Elves and kill you,” Chu Feng said.

What Chu Feng said was the truth. Before he left for the Moonlight Maze, Lord Luokong had especially mentioned to Chu Feng that they would not look into Xian Yuyin's death. He told Chu Feng to not take that matter to heart.

Furthermore, he mentioned that they would assassinate Xian Yuyin's uncle in the future.

The reason for that was because Xian Yuyin's uncle was a sinner to their Ancient Era's Elves. He had been fleeing from them for years. The only reason why he was still alive was because the Elf King was merciful, and had not deliberately tried to kill him.

Else, with the capabilities that they, the Ancient Era's Elves, possessed, how could they possibly not capture Xian Yuyin's uncle? However, the Elf King had personally mentioned to Lord Luokong that Chu Feng's importance was greater than the lives of their Ancient Era's Elves. As such, now that Xian Yuyin's uncle had actually attempted to kill Chu Feng, Lord Luokong had made the prompt decision to eliminate him.

As Lord Luokong was one of the Ancient Era's Elves' Grand Elders, he possessed the authority to make such a decision.

Chu Feng had personally asked Lord Luokong whether or not he could kill Xian Yuyin's uncle should he encounter him. The answer he received from Lord Luokong was ‘Absolutely.’

Thus, at this moment, Chu Feng was truly planning to kill Xian Yuyin's uncle. He was not joking around.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng wanted to demonstrate his might before the crowd. He wanted to let everyone know that, regardless of who they were, he would not spare them should they go against him.

“Wha, what kind joke are you playing here?! You are merely a human, why would our Ancient Era's Elves allow you to kill me?!” Xian Yuyin's uncle spoke those words with a very unyielding tone. However, he was actually panicking.

Firstly, he had managed to sense an enormous killing intent from Chu Feng's gaze. Chu Feng was determined to kill him. He knew that he would not be able to escape death.

Furthermore, he also knew his own status very well. Although he might appear to be a grand Ancient Era's Elf, he was actually a sinner to the Ancient Era's Elves.

He had been fleeing from the pursuit by the Ancient Era's Elves the entire time. To speak it plainly, he could no longer be considered to be a real member of the Ancient Era's Elves anymore.

However, even with all that, he truly did not believe Chu Feng's words. No matter what, he was still an Ancient Era's Elf. Even if he would be punished should he be captured, his crimes should not be enough to be punished with death.

As such, what made Chu Feng, a mere human, qualified to kill him? Furthermore, the Ancient Era's Elves had allowed him to do so? How could that possibly be true?

Chu Feng was the person who had killed Xian Yuyin. There were a lot of people that saw him doing that. There was irrefutable evidence of him killing Xian Yuyin.

Even if he was a sinner, Xian Yuyin was not a sinner. Instead, he was one of the future pillars of the Ancient Era's Elves. Before Xian Miaomiao had appeared, he used to be the strongest among the Ancient Era's Elves' younger generation. Furthermore, the Four Grand Elders had even deduced that Xian Yuyin's future accomplishments would likely not be inferior to those of the Elf King.

Xian Yuyin was an outstanding talent that the Ancient Era's Elves had originally planned to nurture emphatically. In fact, he had helped Xian Yuyin take care of Zhang Tianyi and his father because he thought highly of Xian Yuyin's status among the Ancient Era's Elves. He had wanted to have Xian Yuyin help him remove his pursuit by the Ancient Era's Elves after he emerged in power in the future. As such, he would be able to regain his status.

However, Xian Yuyin was killed by Chu Feng, a mere human. As such, it would already be merciful should the Ancient Era's Elves not dismember Chu Feng's body into ten thousand pieces; how could they possibly spare him, and even give him permission to kill Xian Yuyin's uncle?

Xian Yuyin's uncle did not believe Chu Feng. He really did not believe Chu Feng. Even if he were to be beaten to death, he would absolutely refuse to believe that sort of thing.

"As far as I'm concerned, it doesn't matter if you believe me or not. After all, I insist on killing you."

"Puu~~~"

As Chu Feng spoke, he suddenly waved the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader that he held in his hand. As a silvery light streaked through the air, a ray of blood began to spray forth. Chu Feng had sliced through Xian Yuyin's uncle's dantian.

"Woosh~~~"

Then, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader that Chu Feng held in his hand was waved once more. Another silvery light streaked across, and another ray of blood surged forth, forming an arc in the air.

The very next moment, everybody present was completely stunned. Even the extremely talkative Wang Qiang had his mouth wide open as he stood there petrified.

Xian Yuyin's uncle had died. He had been killed by Chu Feng. Not only did Chu Feng take his life, he even hacked him in half through the middle. He had died without an intact corpse.

After being stunned momentarily, the gazes with which the crowd looked to Chu Feng all changed. Chu Feng had truly killed Xian Yuyin's uncle, killed a rank six Martial Emperor. Could it be that Chu Feng had gone mad?

Chu Feng was truly too daring. Could it be that he really planned to go against the Ancient Era's Elves?

The reason why the crowd thought this way was because they, like Xian Yuyin's uncle, did not believe what Chu Feng had said. They all felt that Chu Feng had provoked an enormous disaster by killing Xian Yuyin's uncle.

“This!!!”

However, upon closer inspection, the crowd were all startled. Chu Feng's expression actually did not change in the slightest after killing Xian Yuyin's uncle. It was as if he had only done what he should do.

This youth's nature was truly too vicious.

“Say, say, Chu, Chu Feng, aren't you a, a bit too dar, dar, daring? He is an An, An, Ancient Era's Elf. You rea, really killed him like that?” Wang Qiang walked over to Chu Feng.

“He wanted to kill me. Why am I not allowed to kill him?” Chu Feng asked instead of answering.

“Ye, yea, yeah, he de, de, deserves to die. Bu, bu, but, he is an An, Ancient Er, Era's Elf, and a ran, rank six Ma, Martial Emperor on to, top of that. His st, sta, sta, status should be pretty h, high," Wang Qiang said.

Chu Feng did not immediately answer Wang Qiang. Instead, he surveyed his surroundings, and discovered that the crowd mostly possessed the same sort of reaction as Wang Qiang. In fact, their expressions were even more exaggerated than Wang Qiang's. It was as if they were saying that it would be fine for Xian Yuyin's uncle to kill Chu Feng, but it would definitely not be fine for Chu Feng to kill Xian Yuyin's uncle.

"Everyone, could it be that you all felt that I should not have killed him?" Chu Feng asked the crowd.

"Eh..." No one answered Chu Feng. Even though the Ancient Era's Elves should not be provoked, it was clear that Chu Feng was not someone to be provoked either. As such, they did not wish to offend Chu Feng.

"You should not be asking us that question. Instead, you should be asking yourself," At this moment, Elder Yue Ling spoke. He spoke those words with a tone filled with mockery.

Chapter 1977 – The Descent Of The Crisis

“Little friend Chu Feng, I will not say much, and will only present you with a bit of advice. When doing things, one should consider the severity of a matter. When conducting oneself, one should know what one is capable of,” Elder Yue Ling added.

After he said those words, many of the Heavenly Law Palace’s elders began to nod to express their approval. As for the others, they grew quiet. However, Chu Feng knew that those people were most likely thinking along the same lines in their hearts.

“Although I, Chu Feng, am of the younger generation, I am not a fish on a chopping block. I will definitely not allow myself to be taken advantage of. Thus, regardless of who it might be, as long as it’s someone who tried to kill me, I will definitely not let that person get away with it.”

As Chu Feng spoke those words, coldness began to radiate all over. Instantly, the temperature in this region dropped by several degrees.

Furthermore, due to the fact that Chu Feng’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings were still on him, the coldness he emitted was not only frigid, but also extremely frightening.

Not to mention the others, even Elder Yue Ling, a rank six Martial Emperor, revealed a frown upon feeling Chu Feng’s cold aura.

At that moment, he felt as if he had been woken up from his dream. When even Xian Yuyin’s uncle was no match for Chu Feng, he would naturally not be a match for Chu Feng either.

When even Elder Yue Ling was acting in such a manner, the others were all drenched in cold sweat. At that time, they all realized how terrifying Chu Feng really was.

Earlier, the only thing on their minds was how powerful Xian Yuyin's uncle's backing was, and they had actually forgotten the frightening strength that Chu Feng himself possessed. Chu Feng was no ordinary member of the younger generation. Instead, he was a member of the younger generation who was capable of killing a rank six Martial Emperor.

Thus, after sensing the coldness emitted by Chu Feng, even Elder Yue Ling did not dare to say another word.

“Actually, I also know that everyone feels that I should not have killed Xian Yuyin's uncle. As for the reason why everyone feels that way, it is only because you all feel that the Ancient Era's Elves should not be trifled with.”

“However, if that is what everyone thinks, then it would mean that everyone feels from the bottom of your hearts that what I, Chu Feng, had said earlier, how the Ancient Era's Elves were my allies and how Lord Luokong personally told me that I could kill Xian Yuyin's uncle, were only lies. You all feel that I, Chu Feng, was lying.” Chu Feng swept his gaze over the crowd once again.

This time around, no one dared to meet Chu Feng's gaze. Even though that was what they were thinking, none of them were daring enough to admit to it.

“Facts speak louder than words. Whether or not I, Chu Feng, was lying, everyone will come to know in the future,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, the crowd all felt startled. Chu Feng had spoken those words so effortlessly. It did not seem like he was lying. Could it be that what Chu Feng said was the truth? However, if all that Chu Feng said was true, then it would truly be too frightening.

At that moment, the gazes with which the crowd looked to Chu Feng contained more than fear. There was also a completely different sort of emotion. Even those experienced old monsters that were about to reach the ends of their lifespan revealed such an expression in their gazes.

Chu Feng had forced them to have a whole new level of respect for him.

After he finished saying those words, Chu Feng no longer bothered to pay attention to the crowd. Instead, he collected Xian Yuyin's uncle's Cosmos Sack and his Imperial Armament.

Those were all things that belonged to the Ancient Era's Elves. Even if Chu Feng didn't plan to keep them himself, he could not ignore them. Chu Feng was planning to return them to the Ancient Era's Elves.

Chu Feng also collected Xian Yuyin's uncle's corpse. No matter what, he was still an Ancient Era's Elf. Thus, Chu Feng planned to return his corpse to the Ancient Era's Elves and have them take care of it.

If the Ancient Era's Elves were to declare that Chu Feng could do as he wished to Xian Yuyin's uncle's corpse, it would naturally be even better. No matter what, Xian Yuyin's uncle was a rank six Martial Emperor. As such, the source energy contained within his corpse was most definitely pretty decent. Therefore, Chu Feng would wait till Eggy awakened and have her refine his source energy.

In short, his body was very useful and valuable.

At that moment, the Underworld Palace's Elder Huang Guan walked toward Chu Feng; he pointed at Chu Feng's Imperial Armament and asked, "Little friend Chu Feng, that Imperial Armament in your hand, could it be the legendary Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader?"

He did so firstly to lift the tension of this awkward situation, and secondly, because he really wanted to know.

"Senior, truth be told, this is indeed the Imperial Armament senior Beast Emperor used when he was alive, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader,” Chu Feng nodded.

Hearing those words, the expressions of the crowd all changed.

“Sss...” Even Elder Huang Guan was unable to contain himself from sucking in a mouthful of cold air. Then, he asked, “Little friend Chu Feng, could it be that you’re the Beast Emperor’s successor?”

“I am not the Beast Emperor’s successor. I merely managed to obtain the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader,” Chu Feng explained.

Once Chu Feng said those words, Yue Ling, who already felt enormous envy for Chu Feng, nearly vomited blood.

He had clearly obtained the Beast Emperor’s Imperial Armament. Yet, he still declared himself to not be the Beast Emperor’s successor?

Furthermore, he even used the word ‘merely,’ to describe the Imperial Armament. That was truly too anger-inducing for Yue Ling, who did not even possess an ordinary Imperial Armament.

Chu Feng had received such an enormous fortunate opportunity to obtain the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. Yet, he made it appear to be so insignificant. It was truly too anger-inducing.

“Little friend Chu Feng, not only do you possess exceptional talent, you are also someone blessed with great fortune. The way I see it, the Holy Land of Martialism’s next overlord is most definitely going to be you,” Elder Huang Guang said.

“Tha, tha, that’s not fo, for certain,” However, at that moment, Wang Qiang refuted him. Then, with an extremely confident expression, he said, “Al, al, al, although Chu, Chu, Chu Feng is my go, good brother, bu, bu, but this er, era’s overlo, overlord will be m, me, me, Wang Qiang.”

Upon hearing those words, the crowd all began to hiss at him. In fact, some people even began to ridicule Wang Qiang for being shameless.

“You, you, you bunch ar, are tru, truly people who po, possess dog ey, eyes and can’t jud, judge. No ma, matter what, I am sti, still Emp, Emperor Chi’s suc, suc, successor,” Wang Qiang said.

Wang Qiang sighed. “Fa, facts speaks loud, louder than words. Wh, wh, whether or not I, Wan, Wang Qiang was ly, ly, lying, you all wi, will know later on,” Wang Qiang used what Chu Feng had said earlier.

However, when Chu Feng said those words, he had spoken with enormous confidence and gave off a very domineering aura. He had caused the crowd to feel deep veneration and fear for him.

Yet, when Wang Qiang said those words, even though they were exactly the same as Chu Feng’s, the crowd burst into loud laughter. They had to admit, even though that Wang Qiang was shameless, he was ridiculously funny.

“Rumble~~~”

At the moment when the crowd was laughing at Wang Qiang and arguing with him, the gate through which the crowd had entered this region suddenly closed.

Seeing that scene, the crowd were immediately stunned. They were at a complete loss.

As for Chu Feng, he started to frown.

That gate had originally been open the entire time. Thus, more and more people began to arrive in this place. Currently, there were not only several million people here. Instead, there were now more than a dozen million people here.

The fact that the gate was open the entire time earlier meant that it was meant to be open. Yet, it had now suddenly closed. This meant that something was wrong. Likely, someone was controlling the gate. As for that, it was very likely to be movement from the Dark Hall.

Suddenly, someone pointed at Wang Qiang and said, “Look, see how you continued to boast. Even the door shut itself because of your shameless boasting,” “Hahaha!!!” After that person spoke, the crowd all burst into loud laughter.

At that moment, Chu Feng suddenly said, “Everyone, now is not the time to laugh. It is very likely that a crisis will descend upon this place.”

Once Chu Feng said that, the crowd’s expressions immediately grew tense. The reason for that was because not only did Chu Feng speak those words very loudly, he also said them with an extremely serious tone.

However, the crowd were all confused. Why would a crisis descend upon them out of nowhere?

Elder Huang Guan asked Chu Feng, “Little friend Chu Feng, what do you mean by that?”

Chapter 1978 – Plan Failure

“Dark Hall? I’ve heard of them before.”

The crowd began to voice their understanding of the Dark Hall. Even though the Dark Hall had always conducted their business in the shadows, everyone knew of the matter concerning the Ximen Imperial Clan. As such, practically everyone knew of the Dark Hall.

“As this matter is extremely important, I will make a long story short.”

“It is possible that the map of the Moonlight Maze that everyone possesses was spread by the Dark Hall. They spread the map with the intention of luring everyone to this place.”

“As for why they did that, it is because they possess a clear-cut purpose. As for their purpose, it is for everyone to die here,” Chu Feng said.

“For real?” At that moment, the crowd burst into an uproar. Panic covered the faces of certain people, while the others revealed dubious expressions. However, regardless, it remained that what Chu Feng had revealed was no small matter.

Death was forever the keenest subject. This was especially true when that death concerned their own lives.

“I am not lying to everyone. There is a killing formation in this place. That killing formation could activate at any moment. If that killing formation is to activate, all of us will die here,” Chu Feng said.

“As matters stand, I might well as tell the truth as it is. The Ancient Era’s Elves already knew of this matter, and I was entrusted by the Ancient Era’s Elves to come to this place and assist everyone in making it through this crisis.”

“Thus, I took the seventh path precisely for this purpose. The gate of the seventh path, even without the map, I would be able to open it.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he took out an enormous world spirit key and inserted it into the seventh path’s gate. “Snap,” the seventh path’s gate opened for Chu Feng.

“It actually opened?!!!” Seeing that, the crowd revealed expressions of disbelief. Then, many among them began to believe what Chu Feng was saying.

After all, it was true that Chu Feng had insisted on taking the seventh path earlier, and it was also true that Chu Feng had managed to open the seventh path’s gate.

However, the crowd didn’t know that enormous key was actually able to open the seventh path’s gate because Chu Feng had hidden his map within the key. Thus, in the end, Chu Feng was only able to open the gate because of the map’s power.

The reason why Chu Feng had opened the seventh path’s gate was to prevent against the unexpected. As the killing formation could only be activated in this area, Chu Feng determined that the killing formation would be useless should the people here be brought away.

Earlier, he had not thought of this because he didn’t know how he was going to leave. However, since the seventh path’s gate could be opened at any time, he would naturally have to use this surefire way to save everyone.

“Little friend Chu Feng would not deceive us. There’s no time to lose. Everyone, quickly, let’s get out of here,” Elder Huang Guan said.

“Le, le, let me go fir, first,” Worrying about his life enormously, Wang Qiang was the first to rush out the seventh path’s gate.

Seeing that, the crowd began to rush through the seventh path’s gate. They did not wish to die here in vain.

Right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded, “Everyone, wait a moment.”

It was Elder Yue Ling. He spoke with an extremely loud voice and stopped the fleeing crowd. Then, he added, “Everyone, I urge you all to calm yourselves and not be deceived by that Chu Feng.”

“Elder Yue Ling, wh, wh, what are you talking about?” Those that entered the seventh path all stood there stunned. Those that had yet to enter the seventh path also stopped their footsteps.

“Everyone, could it be that you all do not feel this to be extremely skeptical?”

“Since this place is so dangerous, why did Chu Feng not mention it to us before we entered? Why did he instead mention it to us now?” Elder Yue Ling asked.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s gaze flashed slightly. His lips were raised into a light curve. He did not answer immediately. Instead, with a smile on his face, he looked to Elder Yue Ling.

“Furthermore, Chu Feng was the first one to enter this place. Evidently, he knew how to get here. In that case, it meant that he already knew that the Immortality Peach Tree was here before he even got here.”

“Since he already knew that the Immortality Peach Tree was here, it is completely understandable that he should know about the other secrets of this place.”

“For Chu Feng to insist on having us leave this place, he must be doing so to deceive us. He wishes to make us leave this place through his deception, and then hog all the treasures in this place for himself,” Elder Yue Ling added.

“This...” Hearing what Elder Yue Ling said, the crowd did not express their approval. However, other than the people from the Underworld Palace and Wang Qiang, many of those people who had already entered the seventh path quietly walked back out from the seventh path and returned to this place with the Immortality Peach Tree.

Even though they did not express their agreement with Elder Yue Ling, their actions already showed that they were thinking the same thing as Elder Yue Ling.

“Chu Feng, you are speechless now, no?” Elder Yue Ling looked to Chu Feng. When he looked to Chu Feng, he revealed a complacent expression. From the very beginning, the crowd had been standing behind Chu Feng and speaking out for him the entire time. And now, he had finally managed to tilt the crowd toward his side.

“Speechless? Why would I be speechless?” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he said, “Firstly, at the time when you all came into this place, I would not have been able to prove anything. If I were to tell everyone to not enter this place because there was a killing formation here, who would have believed me? Ask yourselves, would any of you have believed me if I had mentioned that to you all back then? If there is anyone who would have believed me then, please raise your hand.”

After Chu Feng said those words, there were indeed people who raised their hands. However, there were only about a thousand individuals who did so out of the over ten million people here.

None of those people who kept their hands down said anything. The reason for that was because they knew deep down in their hearts that they would not have believed in Chu Feng should he have mentioned the killing formation to them before they entered this place.

“Humph,” Seeing that even Elder Yue Ling did not raise his hand, Chu Feng smiled. Then, he continued, “At that time, you all would not have trusted me. If I were to tell you all to accompany me into the seventh path, would any of you have done so?”

At that moment, even those thousand plus individuals who had raised their hands lowered their hands in succession. At that moment, there was not a single raised hand.

The reason for that was because they had all managed to sense how frightening the seventh path was from the entrance of the seventh path. They had all felt that they would undoubtedly die should they enter the seventh path. As none of them wanted to toy with their lives, none of them would have accompanied Chu Feng on the seventh path.

“In that case, let me ask you all this. How was I supposed to urge everyone to leave at that time?”

“Since I knew that I would not be able to successfully urge everyone to leave, why would I attempt to do so?”

“Why would I not wait to prove myself to everyone, wait until a time when I could do so?” Chu Feng asked.

The crowd did not answer. The reason for that was because they also knew that it would have been useless for Chu Feng to have advised them at that time.

At that moment, the people who had entered the seventh path earlier and then stepped right back out revealed expressions of self-blame.

“In that case, are you all willing to follow me out of here now?” Chu Feng asked.

Right after Chu Feng said those words, Elder Yue Ling added,

“Everyone, you must carefully think this over. This Moonlight Maze is a place filled with countless treasures,”

Originally, a lot of people were tempted to leave after Chu Feng finished asking his question. However, after Elder Yue Ling said those words, many of the people who were tempted to leave began to hesitate.

In the end, only over ten thousand people stood forth. Although ten thousand people was not a small amount, it was very few when compared to over ten million people.

It would appear that Chu Feng’s surefire method of saving the crowd would be destined to fail.

Chapter 1979 – Meaning Of Brother

“Very well. I thank all the friends that believe in me. Since you have all believed in me, I will absolutely guarantee your safety,” Chu Feng said to the people who had entered the seventh path.

Then, he turned to Elder Huang Guan and Wang Qiang, “Elder Huang Guan, brother Wang Qiang, please bring those people out of the Moonlight Maze for me. You merely need to return via the same path you came in. Even though this seventh path gives off an extremely dangerous aura, it is actually completely safe.”

“Even though they do not believe me, I cannot ignore them and let them die,” Chu Feng said.

“But, if that killing formation really exists, it would be useless even if you are to remain,” Elder Huang Guan said.

“I have another way to deal with it. Merely, I do not dare to guarantee whether or not that method will work for certain. However, it remains that I must give it a try,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu, Chu Feng, they all do, do no, not believe in you. Th, there is sim, simply no an, antidote for th, their foo, foolishness. Ev, even if they are to di, die, it w, would on, only be w, what they deserve.”

“Yo, you sh, should just le, let them die. Wh, why bother with them?” Wang Qiang said. He spoke those words extremely loudly. He did so deliberately to insult those that had decided to stay.

At that moment, the people who remained revealed very ugly expressions. They also felt that they were letting down Chu Feng’s good intentions by refusing to listen to him. However, there was nothing they could do about it, as they did not wish to return empty-handed. After all, all of them were people that possessed selfish desires.

“It is fine for them to not believe in me. However, I absolutely cannot abandon them. The reason for that is because that is my responsibility,” Chu Feng said with a smile. He was not angry. It was as if this was something that he already anticipated happening.

Seeing Chu Feng’s reaction, the crowd grew even more ashamed...

“Responsibility? What a joke. You have clearly been caught red-handed by me. That’s why you decided to stay instead of leaving. You are still unwilling to part with the treasures here.”

“Thus, everyone, do not be deceived by that Chu Feng,” Seeing that the crowd were feeling ashamed, Elder Yue Ling began to sow dissension again.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

Right after Elder Yue Ling finished saying those words, a bolt of lightning suddenly flashed through the air. Like a ghost, Chu Feng appeared before Elder Yue Ling. Both Chu Feng’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings were on display. At that moment, Chu Feng was covered in lightning.

Not only that, Chu Feng was emitting a very fierce oppressive might. His oppressive might caused Elder Yue Ling to back away from him repeatedly.

Sensing Chu Feng’s killing intent, Elder Yue Ling flipped his palm and took out an Incomplete Imperial Armament. He was planning to take the initiative by striking first. As such, he unleashed an attack at Chu Feng.

“Woosh~~~”

“Clank~~~”

However, right after Elder Yue Ling raised his Incomplete

Imperial Armament, a silvery light flashed past him. Chu Feng's Furious Coiling Dragon beheader had hacked Elder Yue Ling's Incomplete Imperial Armament in two. After the pieces of Elder Yue Ling's Incomplete Imperial Armament rapidly spun through the air, they fell to the ground.

Suddenly, Elder Yue Ling had a completely ashen expression on his face. He stood there in a stunned, petrified manner. He was completely motionless, with cold sweat rushing forth from his body and down from his aged face.

From the instant clash earlier, he had sensed how enormous the gap between him and Chu Feng was. If Chu Feng wanted to kill him, he would definitely die. He simply did not even possess the strength to resist Chu Feng.

“Impudent! You dare act this rude toward Lord Elder! Are you planning to go against our Heavenly Law Palace?!” The crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace immediately drew their weapons and aimed them toward Chu Feng.

After seeing Chu Feng's gaze, those people from the Heavenly Law Palace who had been eager to attack Chu Feng began to back away from him. In fact, many among them even started to shiver, with cold sweat rolling down their faces. There were even some among them who were so terrified of Chu Feng that they ended up sitting down on the ground in a paralyzed manner.

Killing intent. Before Chu Feng's intense killing intent, they suddenly felt themselves to be ridiculous.

When even their strongest Elder Yue Ling was no match for Chu Feng, what could they possibly do? If they were to attack Chu Feng, they would only be throwing their lives away.

After all, they all understood the logic that before an actual expert, regardless of how many people you had, it would all be useless. As for Chu Feng, he was one such expert.

“Chu Feng, if you are to kill me, it would prove that you possess a guilty conscience. Even if I am to die, our Heavenly Law Palace would not let you get away with it,” Elder Yue Ling threatened Chu Feng.

“Did you think that I would not dare to kill you?” Chu Feng’s expression remained unchanged. He was not afraid in the slightest. At the same time, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in Chu Feng’s hand grew closer and closer to Elder Yue Ling.

“You, you, you...” Elder Yue Ling grew so nervous that he became unable to speak properly. At that moment, his entire body was drenched in sweat. He was truly afraid of death.

“If I wanted to kill you, it would be as easy as a single slash of my weapon. However, I will not kill you, because killing you will only dirty my hand.”

“As for what we both said to the crowd, the truth will come to light as to which one of us was speaking the truth and which one was lying. As I possess a clear conscience, I am not afraid of waiting.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he removed his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, walked over to the Immortality Peach Tree, sat down in a cross-legged manner and closed his eyes.

As for Elder Yue Ling, he was panting for breath and started to wipe away the cold sweat on his face nonstop. He felt as if he had just escaped from the gates of hell. However, at that moment, he was extremely exhausted and on the verge of collapse.

“Putt~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng opened his eyes. The reason for that was because someone had sat beside him. Upon looking, he discovered that Wang Qiang was actually smiling foolishly at him with his

A mouthful of bad breath assailed Chu Feng's face.

"Why did you come back?" Chu Feng asked.

"You're n, not going. So I, I'm not g, go, going either. Af, after all, we, we're brothers," Wang Qiang said with a smile on his face.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to smile too. He did not say anything. Wang Qiang's mention of the word 'brothers' was already enough for him.

What did he mean by brothers? A brother was someone willing to undergo trials and tribulations together with you during moments of crisis!!!

"Little friend Chu Feng, as you're not leaving, this old man will also stay," Right at this moment, the Underworld Palace's Elder Huang Guan also returned. Following him, the others from the Underworld Palace also returned. They all sat around Chu Feng.

In the end, everyone returned. However, those people who returned all sat beside Chu Feng like the people from the Underworld Palace.

Soon, the seventh path's gate closed up. At that moment, the crowd that remained in this place were separated into two groups.

The first group were people who believed in Chu Feng.

The other group were people who didn't believe in Chu Feng.

This sort of scene caused those who did not believe in Chu Feng to possess an even greater guilty conscience and feel even more ashamed.

"Everyone, if you feel that there are treasures here, you can go right ahead and carefully look around to search for the treasures. There is no need to act this restrained," Elder Huang Guan said with a smile. He was unable to continue watching the way those who did not believe in Chu Feng acted. Thus, he spoke those words to mock them.

Suddenly, a white-haired old man said to Chu Feng, “Little friend Chu Feng, if what you said is the truth, this old man will kneel to you and admit his mistake before his death.”

This old man’s face was covered with scars. On his back was a giant blade wrapped in cloth. That blade was called the Snow Blade. It was an Incomplete Imperial Armament that that old man had reached a superb level of achievement with.

This old man was known as the Snow Blade Mad Demon. This Snow Blade Mad Demon was a rank six Martial Emperor, an old monster.

His name was even more renowned than that of Elder Yue Ling and Elder Huang Guan. He was someone who possessed a lot of prestige. Merely... he was near the end of his lifespan.

After the Snow Blade Mad Demon, many other people began to express their apologies to Chu Feng.

At the beginning, it was only the old monsters who expressed their apologies to Chu Feng, but later on, close to half of the ten million plus people had voiced their apologies to Chu Feng.

“Elder Yue Ling, as the person who distrusted little friend Chu Feng the most, you should make an apology yourself, no?” Elder Huang Guan said to Elder Yue Ling.

“Sure, I’ll express myself. If I have wrongly accused little friend Chu Feng, I will definitely compensate little friend Chu Feng accordingly,” Elder Yue Ling vowed. Even though he said those words unwillingly, he was actually admitting defeat to Chu Feng.

He did not dare to not do so. When Chu Feng had attacked him earlier, Chu Feng had made him realize the disparity between them. He was truly afraid that Chu Feng would kill him.

Elder Yue Ling wiped away his cold sweat and then asked, “Little friend Chu Feng, what are you laughing about?” At this moment, he was truly terrified of Chu Feng.

“Compensation? What sort of compensation could you possibly provide? Are you capable of taking out anything more precious than this?” Chu Feng raised his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader.

“If, if you ha, ha, have wr, wrongly acc, accused Chu Feng, you sh, should apologize wi, with your life,” Wang Qiang interrupted.

“You d, don’t dare? In th, that case, it means that you po, possess a guilty conscience. Yo, you’ve in, in, indirectly ad, admitted that you were wr, wrongly accusing Chu, Chu Feng,” Wang Qiang said.

After Wang Qiang said those words, the gazes of over ten million individuals turned to Elder Yue Ling. Among them, many of the gazes were incomparably ice-cold.

The reason why the crowd felt that guilty and ashamed toward Chu Feng was all because of Elder Yue Ling. If Elder Yue Ling had truly wrongly accused Chu Feng, then, without even Chu Feng doing anything, those people would tear him apart on the spot.

Being faced with this sort of oppression, Elder Yue Ling felt that his hairs were all standing on end. With a heart filled with terror, he could only brace himself to say, “If what little friend Chu Feng said was true, I will kill myself on the spot. I will return little friend Chu Feng’s innocence with my death.”

“Rumble~~~”

Right after Elder Yue Ling said those words, the area they were in started to shake violently.

As the violent quakes began to fill the place, the surrounding walls started to emit crimson rays. The crimson rays criss-crossed with one another and formed an enormous net.

At that moment, other than Chu Feng, the expressions of everyone present changed.

The reason for that was because they sensed a fatal killing intent from the crimson net.

Chapter 1980 – Breaking Through The Killing Formation

“Killing formation, could this be the killing formation?”

At that moment, the crowd all started to panic. The reason for that was because killing intent was emerging from all around them, and that crimson net was flickering with crimson light.

At that moment, they were like turtles trapped in a jar with no way to escape.

“Little friend Chu Feng, it would seem that this old man has indeed wronged you. This old man will apologize to you here,” As the Snow Blade Mad Demon spoke, he planned to kneel to Chu Feng.

“Paa~~~”

However, before he could kneel, Chu Feng arrived before him like a phantom and helped him up, stopping him from kneeling.

“Senior Snow Blade, there’s no need for this. I said that I possessed another method,” Chu Feng said.

“Another method?” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the Snow Blade Mad Demon and the rest of the crowd present all revealed joyous expressions.

They were all able to sense the strength of that killing formation. If the crimson net were to engulf them, they would definitely be killed.

Originally, they all felt that they would lose their lives in this place, and were feeling remorseful for not having trusted Chu Feng. However, to their great surprise, Chu feng actually said that he possessed another method to save them. Furthermore, based on Chu Feng’s appearance, he did not appear to be joking around.

Thus, the crowd all felt as if they had seen the dawn of life when they had reached the place of absolute death. Everyone turned their gazes to Chu Feng. Contained within their gazes was anticipation. Over a dozen million people had placed their lives in Chu Feng's hands.

In fact, as matters stood, they had no choice but to believe in Chu Feng.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng's hands began to change rapidly. Then, his palms clasped with one another and he shouted, “Open!”

“Buzz~~~”

In an instant, golden light filled the ground below the crowd's feet. As the golden light shone, a golden defensive barrier rapidly formed and enveloped the crowd.

“This is great! We're saved!!!”

At the moment when the golden defensive barrier appeared, the crowd was overjoyed. The reason for that was because when the golden defensive barrier appeared, the frightening aura that the killing formation was emitting disappeared in a flash. This meant that the defensive spirit formation was useful.

“Little friend Chu Feng, so you had already set up a spirit formation here,” Elder Huang Guan said. He was also a world spiritist. Even though he was not a very high level world spiritist, he was still capable of telling that Chu Feng's spirit formation should have just been set up not long ago.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you are truly amazing. You are our savior!” The crowd began to express their gratitude to Chu Feng.

“While this spirit formation of mine is capable of withstanding the killing formation temporarily, it is unable to resist it forever. Everyone, if we wish to escape this place alive, we must break through that killing formation,” Chu Feng said.

“Break through the killing formation?” Upon hearing those words, the extremely emotional crowd started to frown. That killing formation was very frightening. It was already unimaginable for Chu Feng to be able to stop it. Would they really be able to break through it?

At the moment when everyone started to express doubt, Chu Feng’s hands began to rapidly change again. Then, boundlessly majestic golden light began to appear outside the golden defensive barrier.

After the golden light appeared, it did not form another defensive barrier. Instead, it turned into many golden blades and began to slice and hack at the enormous crimson net.

“Clank, clank, clank, clank, clank~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng’s spirit formation collided with the killing formation.

“Heavens! Little friend Chu Feng is amazing!” Seeing this scene, the crowd was overjoyed once again. They did not expect that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques would be so powerful, and that he was actually capable of cutting through the ancient killing formation.

That said, that killing formation was even stronger than Chu Feng had anticipated. Furthermore, as Chu Feng had exhausted a lot of his spirit power to set up the two grand spirit formations, his spirit power was currently somewhat insufficient.

If Chu Feng were to only rely on his own strength, he would only be able to control his spirit formation to contend against the killing formation, and would not be able to cut through the killing formation in a short period of time.

Feeling helpless, Chu Feng ended up opening his Cosmos Sack, and began to refine the Dragon Mark World Spirit Stones inside. He was using the power of the Dragon Mark World Spirit Stones to increase the strength of his own world spirit techniques so that they could contend against that killing formation.

Sure enough, after Chu Feng utilized the Dragon Mark World Spirit Stones, the strength of his spirit formation became more powerful. It started to destroy the enormous crimson net created by the killing formation. However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng was only able to cause slight damage, and not complete destruction.

At that moment, Chu Feng became very worried and anxious. He started to sweat profusely. In fact, even his lips started to turn blue. Even though he had utilized the Dragon Mark World Spirit Stones, the consumption of his world spirit power was still too enormous.

Chu Feng wanted to break through the killing formation as quickly as possible. The reason for that was because he felt that something must have happened on the Ancient Era's Elves' side for this killing formation to have activated.

This was a situation that Chu Feng did not wish to see. Thus, he must quickly take care of the problem over here and then go and help the Ancient Era's Elves.

Merely, the current Chu Feng was truly unable to do what he wanted to do. If this were to continue, not only would he not be able to break through the killing formation, he himself might also end up dying here.

Seeing Chu Feng becoming this exhausted by controlling the spirit formation by himself, the bystanders began to feel major heartache.

At that moment, the gratefulness they had toward Chu Feng was something that only they understood.

Right at that moment, Wang Qiang asked, "Chu Feng, t, th, this is n, not going to, to work. Can you cr, create an, another for, formation core so th, that I can hel, hel, help you?”

“Unless they are a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, no one will be able to help me,” Chu Feng said.

“Hehehe...” Wang Qiang laughed complacently. He flipped his palm, and a strand of golden world spirit energy hovered over it like a little snake.

Seeing Wang Qiang’s world spirit power, not only Chu Feng, everyone else present was shocked. What Wang Qiang had revealed was no ordinary world spirit power. Instead, it was Dragon Mark Royal-level world spirit power.

Wang Qiang was actually also a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.

“Haha, great,” Chu Feng was overjoyed upon discovering that Wang Qiang was also a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. The reason for that was because he really did need the help of another Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist at that moment.

Thus, Chu Feng created another formation core beside him. Then he said to Wang Qiang, “Just pour your world spirit power into it. You will be able to assist me that way.”

“N, no, no pro, problem,” As Wang Qiang spoke, he jumped into that spirit formation core and began to pour his world spirit power into it.

When Wang Qiang’s world spirit power entered the formation’s core, Chu Feng’s heart was startled.

At that moment, he felt an enormous power pushing him from behind like a large, vigorous hand.

He knew that sensation was caused by Wang Qiang. Wang Qiang’s world spirit power was actually that powerful. His world spirit power was so powerful that it was on par with his own.

With Wang Qiang’s assistance, Chu Feng was certain that he’d be able to break through the killing formation.

Sure enough, after Wang Qiang began to help Chu Feng, the strength of Chu Feng's spirit formation increased enormously in an instant. The golden blades which Chu Feng's spirit formation had created became even more ferocious. They began to shatter the killing formation in a large-scale manner. In the end, they completely destroyed the enormous crimson net.

Chu Feng and Wang Qiang successfully broke through the killing formation.

“Success?”

When the crowd saw the enormous crimson net being sliced apart by the golden blades, they did not dare to believe this to be real.

After all, that was a Moonlight Maze's killing formation. Chu Feng had really managed to break through it, he had really managed to break through a killing formation in the Moonlight Maze?

Chu Feng's world spirit technique was really that powerful?

Chapter 1981 – Well Deserved Death

“Everyone, we’re safe now,” Chu Feng said after sensing that the crowd was in disbelief over what had happened.

As Chu Feng said those words, he removed the defensive formation he had set up. Then, he walked over to the seventh path’s gate and opened it once more.

“Wooahhh!!!!”

Seeing that the seventh path’s gate was successfully opened, Chu Feng had come out uninjured and they were no longer able to sense that killing formation’s frightening aura, the crowd was overjoyed after a brief moment of silence passed.

They knew that the killing formation really had been destroyed. Even though they found it to be extremely unbelievable, they knew that Chu Feng had succeeded.

After a series of loud cheers, the crowd began to frantically rush toward the seventh path’s gate. Even though there were a lot of them, their speed was extremely fast. In merely a blink of an eye, all twelve million people entered the seventh path.

“Long live Chu Feng, long live Chu Feng!!!”

In excitement, some people began to shout Chu Feng’s name. Following that, more and more people began to shout Chu Feng’s name. Originally, they were members of the younger generation, but later on, even those from the older generation began to loudly shout Chu Feng’s name.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s name resonated throughout the seventh path like thunder.

Suddenly, Snow Blade Mad Demon pointed at a person and shouted, “Hey, Yue Ling, you actually still have the shame to enter the seventh path? Have you forgotten what you said earlier?” His voice was so loud and clear that it overshadowed everyone’s cheering.

At that moment, the crowd all noticed that the Heavenly Law Palace's crowd had actually also entered the seventh path. As for the person leading them, it was precisely that Elder Yue Ling who had wrongly accused Chu Feng earlier.

At that moment, the crowd were not only looking at Elder Yue Ling with cold gazes, their gazes were also murderous.

It was precisely because this old man had sowed dissension that they were nearly killed. If it wasn't for Chu Feng, they would all be mutilated corpses now.

Thus, at that moment, the crowd all felt enormous hatred for Elder Yue Ling.

"Little friend Chu Feng, it was this old man who was in the wrong earlier. Please, I hope that you will have the magnanimity of a great man and forgive me this one time," Elder Yue Ling said to Chu Feng in a very embarrassed manner.

Even though he knew that his actions were very unbecoming of his status, he really didn't wish to die. As such, he could only throw away his aged face and act shamelessly.

"Haha..." However, Chu Feng merely lightly smiled at Elder Yue Ling's apology, and simply did not even bother to respond to him. At that moment, Chu Feng did not even bother to speak with Elder Yue Ling.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew that, even without him doing anything, Elder Yue Ling would undoubtedly die today, for he had enraged everyone here.

As for Chu Feng, he only wished to be an observer right now. He wanted to see how Yue Ling would be hounded to death by the crowd.

"Yue Ling, have you forgotten what you said earlier? You said that if it were proven that you had wrongly accused little friend Chu Feng, you would apologize with your life,” Snow Blade Mad Demon said.

“That’s right. No matter what, you are a management elder of the Heavenly Law Palace. You couldn’t possibly be someone who would go back on his word, right?” Elder Huang Guan added.

After that, more and more people began to criticize Elder Yue Ling. In the end, even many of the people from the younger generation began to criticize Elder Yue Ling. As Chu Feng had expected, the crowd began to hound Yue Ling to death.

“Insolent disciples! Who did you think you are to dare criticize our Lord Elder?!” When the younger generation began to criticize Elder Yue Ling, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace were finally unable to bear it any further.

It was one thing for those grand characters to criticize Elder Yue Ling. However, as they were one of the strongest human powers, the Heavenly Law Palace, they would absolutely not allow those of the younger generation to behave atrociously toward them.

“Snap~~~”

Right after that Heavenly Law Palace’s elder reprimanded the younger generation, a cold light suddenly shone. As blood swirled in the air, that Heavenly Law Palace’s elder was chopped in two.

It was the Snow Blade Mad Demon. He had unsheathed his cloth-covered Snow Blade. Not only that, he had killed that Heavenly Law Palace’s elder who had reprimanded the younger generation with a single slash.

“Snow Blade Mad Demon, you, you, you...” Another Heavenly Law Palace’s elder pointed at the Snow Blade Mad Demon with glaring eyes.

Originally, he had wanted to reprimand the Snow Blade Mad Demon. However, he suddenly did not dare to say anything. The reason for that was because the Snow Blade Mad Demon was emitting an enormous killing intent right now. He was extremely frightening. That Heavenly Law Palace's elder feared that he would also be killed should he reprimand the Snow Blade Mad Demon.

“Heavenly Law Palace, do not bother to threaten me. If I, Snow Blade Mad Demon, feared death, I would not have killed your Heavenly Law Palace's elder.”

“As little friend Chu Feng has saved me, he is my benefactor. Earlier, Yue Ling wrongly accused little friend Chu Feng. This is a matter that I will absolutely not leave as-is. Today... if Yue Ling is to commit suicide, everything will be settled. However, if he doesn't kill himself, I will personally end him. Not only that, I will also make all of the people from the Heavenly Law Palace here accompany him in death,” The Snow Blade Mad Demon said fiercely.

Hearing those words, the crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace grew extremely nervous. Many among them turned pale and shivered from fear.

The Snow Blade Mad Demon had always been someone who would do whatever he said. Since he said those words, it was clear that he was prepared to carry them out.

At that moment, no one bothered to speak for Elder Yue Ling anymore. In fact, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace also began to urge their Elder Yue Ling, “Lord Elder, even though we should not say these sorts of words as we are your subordinates, it remains that you are a management elder. As such, you should do what you declared you'd do. Else, you'll only bring shame upon the reputation of our Heavenly Law Palace.”

“Insolent bastard!!!” Hearing those words, Elder Yue Ling nearly vomited blood from anger. Bring shame upon the reputation of the Heavenly Law Palace? It was clear that they feared being implicated by him, and wished for him to kill himself because of that.

“Good, good, good, you all, great,” Elder Yue Ling pointed to the people from the Heavenly Law Palace with a shaking arm. He truly did not expect that, during the life and death crisis of his life, these people who followed him would actually want him to die.

However, in the end, he did not do anything to his subordinates. After all, it was him who had said that he would kill himself. Furthermore, he knew that he would likely not be able to get out of the Moonlight Maze alive.

However, even so, he was still feeling very unwilling to die. He was unreconciled that he, a management elder of the Heavenly Law Palace, would be hounded to death by Chu Feng, a person from the younger generation.

Thus, he turned his ferocious gaze toward Chu Feng. He pointed at Chu Feng and said, “Chu Feng... remember this, I, Yue Ling, was hounded to death by you today. Even if I am to become a ghost, I will not let you get away with it.”

Hearing what Chu Feng said and seeing his disdainful smile, Yue Ling’s expression immediately changed. It was as if he had woken up from a dream.

Whether or not he would become a ghost after death was one thing. However, as he was no match for Chu Feng when he was alive, even if he were to become a ghost after death, how could he possibly be a match for Chu Feng?

Chu Feng was a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. As for world spiritists, they were generally the nemeses of evil spirits and other such things.

Chu Feng was capable of breaking through even the Moonlight Maze’s killing formation. It was sufficient to show how powerful his world spirit techniques were. As such, even if he were to search for Chu Feng after successfully becoming a ghost, he would only be destined to be tormented by Chu Feng.

At that moment, even he felt himself to be ridiculous. As matters stood, he started to regret. He felt that he should not have tried to deliberately make things difficult on Chu Feng. If he hadn't done that, he would not have been forced to such a state by Chu Feng.

Suddenly, Yue Ling sighed. "Fate, this is fate," After he finished saying those words, 'bang,' Yue Ling's body exploded. He had killed himself.

This Heavenly Law Palace's management elder had died. He had been hounded to death by the crowd.

Even though he was hounded to death by the crowd today, everyone knew very well that his death was all due to Chu Feng.

However, other than the people from the Heavenly Law Palace, there was not a single person who felt sympathy for his death. To the crowd, his death was well deserved.

Chapter 1982 – Sending Charcoal In Snowy Weather

Even though Yue Ling had committed suicide, the Snow Blade Mad Demon was still very angry. Thus, he shouted, “Trash from the Heavenly Law Palace, get out of my sight immediately. I am disgusted just by looking at you all!”

At that moment, how could the people from the Heavenly Law Palace possibly dare to continue staying here? Like rats, they immediately fled with their tails between their legs.

No one felt any sympathy for the people from the arrogant and proud Heavenly Law Palace acting in such a manner. Instead, they felt very emotionally unrestrained, they all felt that the Heavenly Law Palace’s crowd deserved it.

“Putt~~~”

After the crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace left, the Snow Blade Mad Demon suddenly turned around and kneeled to Chu Feng. He said, “Little friend Chu Feng, even though it is Yue Ling who instigated the false accusation against you, I still wrongly accused you. As such, this old man must apologize to you.”

“Chu Feng, please forgive us,” After the Snow Blade Mad Demon knelt, the crowd of twelve million all half kneeled to Chu Feng and requested his forgiveness.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt warmth in his heart. Even though these people had indeed doubted him, Chu Feng only saw it as a pardonable misunderstanding. The fact that they were thankful towards him right now meant that their nature wasn’t bad.

“Everyone, quickly rise. Even though we’re currently safe, the same cannot necessarily be said for the Ancient Era’s Elves,” Chu Feng said.

“The Ancient Era’s Elves? What is going on with them?” Elder

Huang Guan and the others asked.

“The activation of the killing formation means that the people from the Dark Hall are in the Moonlight Maze. The Ancient Era’s Elves have actually also entered the Moonlight Maze. Merely, they did not enter through the same entrance as us.”

“Right now, the Ancient Era’s Elves are likely fighting against the people from the Dark Hall. They are doing so to protect our safety.”

“Thus, at this place, I wish to ask all the seniors who are Martial Emperors whether or not you all might be willing to accompany me to fight against the people of the Dark Hall?” Chu Feng asked.

“Most definitely!!!” The Snow Blade Mad Demon and several other old monsters were the first to respond.

Following closely behind them, Elder Huang Guan and the Underworld Palace’s experts that he led also responded to Chu Feng’s call. Even the Monstrous Beasts responded to Chu Feng’s call.

Chu Feng’s request had been accepted en masse. In the end, practically all of the Martial Emperors present decided to accompany Chu Feng to fight against the people of the Dark Hall.

Seeing the raised arms and the thunder-like voices from the Martial Emperors that responded to his call, Chu Feng felt very gratified. Looking at it now, his decision to put his life on the line earlier had not been in vain.

“Very well, let’s go.”

Thus, Chu Feng led a total of a thousand two hundred and thirty-nine Martial Emperors, an army of Martial Emperors, to provide assistance to the Ancient Era’s Elves.

The Moonlight Maze possessed many entrances. Chu Feng and the others had all entered by the same entrance. The reason for that was because that was the entrance on the map provided by the Dark Hall.

As for the Ancient Era's Elves and the people from the Dark Hall, they had entered the Moonlight Maze through another entrance. Chu Feng led the army of Martial Emperors into that entrance.

Like all the other entrances, this entrance was also filled with layer upon layer of traps and mechanisms. However, with Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, two Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, among them, the crowd was confident, and continued to proceed onwards without being stopped by anything.

Even though nothing had stopped them so far, Chu Feng was feeling more and more uneasy. He felt that the Ancient Era's Elves were most definitely fighting against the Dark Hall.

Finally, a world spirit gate appeared before Chu Feng and the others. After Chu Feng and the others entered that world spirit gate, they arrived in a very vast space.

This place was boundlessly vast. Chu Feng knew that this should be a separate, isolated space. Like the Blood Devouring Killing Formation, this place was enormous.

Furthermore, there was a special sort of power in this place that could interfere with Chu Feng's Heaven's Eyes and perception. As such, Chu Feng could only see the things present in his line of sight.

However, after entering this place, Chu Feng immediately started to frown. The reason for that was because a very intense reek of blood immediately assaulted his nostrils upon entering.

As they continued onward towards the source of the bloody smell, Chu Feng soon discovered bloodstains. There were a lot of bloodstains. They practically covered the entire surrounding area. Even though no corpses were found, those bloodstains were sufficient to show that an intense battle had occurred here.

They were clearly only at the entrance still. Yet, a battle had already happened here. This meant that the people from the Dark Hall had been prepared. It was very possible that they had been lying in wait for the Ancient Era’s Elves to ambush them.

Furthermore, after the first sign of bloodstains was discovered, the following bloodstains became more and more numerous. Later on, corpses that were met with a violent death began to be found. Not only were there corpses of Ancient Era’s Elves, there were also corpses from the people of the Dark Hall.

After seeing those corpses, Chu Feng’s restless heart grew even more restless. The reason for that was because the corpses of the Ancient Era’s Elves greatly surpassed the number of corpses from the people of the Dark Hall.

In other words, more Ancient Era’s Elves had been killed compared to people from the Dark Hall.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

Finally, Chu Feng heard rumbling in the distance. After approaching the source of the rumbling, they discovered Ancient Era’s Elves fighting against the people from the Dark Hall.

Merely, although the number of people from the Dark Hall were not as numerous as the Ancient Era’s Elves, they possessed a very frightening helper.

The Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts.

More than a dozen Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts were with the people from the Dark Hall. They all possessed cultivations of Martial Emperors, and ranged from rank three to rank four Martial Emperor.

Those dozen-plus frightening Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were currently being used by the people of the Dark Hall, and were attacking the Ancient Era's Elves.

Originally, the Ancient Era's Elves had possessed a greater overall strength than that of the Dark Hall, as they had possessed greater numbers.

However, due to the assistance of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts, the Ancient Era's Elves were at an absolute disadvantage, and had suffered disastrous casualties.

"All of you, die!"

Upon seeing the people from the Dark Hall, Chu Feng flared with rage. He brandished his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader and attacked. At the same time, Elder Huang Guan, Snow Blade Mad Demon and the other experts also unleashed their attacks.

Even though the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were very strong, the strongest of them were only rank four Martial Emperors. As such, how could they possibly be a match for Chu Feng and the others? In merely a short instant, all of the people from the Dark Hall had been killed.

Everything had happened too quickly. Before the Ancient Era's Elves could respond, they discovered that the people from the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were all killed.

When they noticed what had happened, they were immediately struck dumb. They discovered that Chu Feng had saved them. Furthermore, there were actually so many human and monstrous beast experts in addition to Chu Feng. They were all Martial Emperors; there were over a thousand Martial Emperors.

These thousand plus Martial Emperors all followed behind Chu Feng like his subordinates. Among them were renowned individuals like the Snow Blade Mad Demon.

This scene truly came as an enormous shock to the Ancient Era's

Elves. For a moment, they were completely stunned and confused as to what was happening.

“Seniors, where are Lord Luokong and the others?” Chu Feng asked two old men. These two old men both possessed a cultivation of rank four Martial Emperor. They were the two strongest individuals among this group of Ancient Era’s Elves.

Chu Feng had met them when he met with Lord Luokong earlier. Thus, he felt that they should know the whereabouts of Lord Luokong and the others.

“Little friend Chu Feng, if you are to continue onwards toward this direction, you will be able to find Lord Luokong and the others,” An old man with a scar on the left side of his face said.

“Thank you,” Chu Feng clasped his fist to express his thanks. He did not bother with superfluous words, and immediately turned to leave. The thousand-plus Martial Emperors followed after Chu Feng and left too.

As they looked to Chu Feng leading all those Martial Emperors away, the two old rank four Martial Emperor stood there stunned. At that moment, their hearts were feeling extremely complicated.

The names of these two old men were Mo Xu and Mo Wen. They had been tasked with guarding Xian Yuyin before. They had accompanied Xian Yuyin and seen Chu Feng at the Gong Ba Plains.

Actually, when they heard that Chu Feng had killed Xian Yuyin, the two of them had possessed some resentment towards Chu Feng. Regardless of how much of a scoundrel Xian Yuyin was, it remained that he was an Ancient Era’s Elf. Furthermore, the two of them had protected Xian Yuyin the entire time before. Thus, they possessed at least some special sentiment toward him.

However, at that moment, the resentment they felt for Chu Feng was being uncontrollably erased from their hearts.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had saved them earlier. Furthermore, they could tell that Chu Feng had most likely also saved the crowd that had been tricked into the Moonlight Maze by the Dark Hall in addition to them. In fact, he had even managed to convince those people to help them fight against the Dark Hall.

All of those accomplishments surpassed their imaginations. If Xian Yuyin were to be compared with Chu Feng, he would end up being worth nothing before Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because every aspect of Chu Feng surpassed Xian Yuyin.

Even though they possessed special sentiments toward Xian Yuyin, they both knew that they must let go of their prejudice against Chu Feng in the current situation. They, the Ancient Era's Elves, needed Chu Feng.

In fact, the battle today would very likely be reversed because of Chu Feng. Even though Chu Feng had only brought a thousand-plus individuals with him, those thousand-plus individuals were all Martial Emperors. With that many Martial Emperors, what Chu Feng was doing was most definitely akin to sending charcoal in snowy weather to the Ancient Era's Elves here.

Providing help in times of need.

Chapter 1983 – Complete Annihilation?

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

Flames reached the skies and rumbling echoed out from all directions in the Moonlight Maze. From time to time, screams would be heard. Then, someone would fall to the ground.

The main army of the Ancient Era’s Elves was gathered in this place.

They were fighting against the Dark Hall here. However, just like the small squadron that was separated from the main army, their main army was also suffering disastrous casualties.

It was not that the Ancient Era’s Elves were weaker than the Dark Hall. Rather, it was that the people of the Dark Hall possessed the assistance of several hundred Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts. These several hundred ferocious beasts ranged from rank three Martial Emperor to rank six Martial Emperor. Existences as powerful as them were truly too frightening.

However, even with that being the case, the Ancient Era’s Elves were still fighting with their all. The reason for that was because they would only be able to survive should they fight. If they didn’t fight, their casualties would be even more disastrous.

“Hahahaha, Luokong, you’re not up to much either.”

At that moment, the person who was fighting against Lord Luokong was an eccentric-sounding yet charming-looking man. This person... was none other than the World Devastator Immortal.

The two men both held Imperial Armaments and were fighting each other intensely. The two of them were fighting far away from the rest of the people.

The reason for that was because their strength was truly too strong, and surpassed everyone by far. The aftermath of their battle, those energy ripples, would bring fatal harm to anyone from either side that got too close.

Thus, they distanced themselves from the others. Only by doing so would they be able to guarantee the safety of the others.

“World Devastator, don’t you act arrogant. Today, it is either your death or mine,” Lord Luokong had an angry expression on his face. He was filled with the will to battle.

The reason for that was because the Ancient Era’s Elves had been ambushed by the people of the Dark Hall right after entering this place. Furthermore, the people from the Dark Hall possessed the assistance of the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts. Even though the number of Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts was not numerous, only several hundred, they were all extremely powerful.

Thus, from the very beginning, the Ancient Era’s Elves were in a disadvantaged situation, thus causing the formation’s core which they had wanted to protect to be seized by the people of the Dark Hall from the very beginning. As such, they had failed to prevent the people from the Dark Hall from activating the killing formation.

Not only had they failed to keep the people from the Dark Hall from activating the killing formation, there were also indications that they’d end up being completely annihilated by the Dark Hall.

“No, no, no, you’re wrong. There is only a single possible outcome today. Other than the people from our Dark Hall, everyone else will die. Tsk, tsk, tsk, tsk...”

The World Devastator Immortal was extremely arrogant. He felt that since he had successfully activated the killing formation, all those people who were lured into the Moonlight Maze would have already died.

And now, as long as the Ancient Era’s Elves were eliminated, they would have successfully accomplished their goal.

As for eliminating the Ancient Era's Elves, the World Devastator Immortal was absolutely confident in being able to do so.

"You're boasting shamelessly," Lord Luokong shouted angrily. Then, he increased the intensity of his attacks towards the World Devastator Immortal.

"Boasting shamelessly? Look at your surroundings. How long can your Ancient Era's Elves continue to last?" The World Devastator Immortal mocked.

Hearing those words, Lord Luokong rapidly distanced himself from the World Devastator Immortal. Then, he cast his gaze to the surrounding battlefield. Upon seeing the condition his people were in, his aged face started to twitch. Even his heart began to tremble.

Devastation. Disastrous devastation. Even though he had not led the most elite of the Ancient Era's Elves with him here, he had brought a very powerful army with him.

Yet, over ninety-five percent of that army of Ancient Era's Elves had been killed. Practically all those below the Martial Emperor level of cultivation had been killed.

As for the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts, their casualties numbered less than half. Currently, the disparity between the two forces was growing wider and wider. There was truly no way for them to emerge from this victorious.

"Bastard, this old man will definitely destroy you today!" Lord Luokong shouted furiously. His surging killing intent shattered space itself.

Then, Lord Luokong's clothes fluttered in the air as layers of deep green light began to emit from him. The Imperial Armament that he held in his hand grew even more powerful. Layer upon layer of visible martial power swept forth toward the World Devastator Immortal.

He knew that he was the only person capable of reversing the situation on the battlefield right now. As long as he could defeat the World Devastator Immortal, he would be able to bring victory to the Ancient Era's Elves.

Thinking these thoughts, Lord Luokong's attacks grew increasingly ferocious.

He hacked downward at the World Devastator Immortal repeatedly, and caused the sky to darken. The might of his attacks was truly heaven-defying.

However, even with that being the case, Lord Luokong was simply unable to injure the World Devastator Immortal.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk, even if you tire yourself to death, you will not be able to defeat me," A mocking smile appeared on the World Devastator Immortal's face.

His appearance seemed as if he was toying with Lord Luokong. It was as if he could defeat Lord Luokong whenever he wanted.

The reason why he hadn't done so was precisely because he wanted to torment Lord Luokong. He wanted Lord Luokong to watch as each and every one of his clansmen were killed before him; he wanted him to feel so much pain that he wished that he was dead instead.

"Father, this is fun, so fun, so very fun! Hahahaha!" Right at that moment, a shout sounded from afar.

Hearing that shout, the World Devastator Immortal cast his gaze toward its source. Then, a satisfied smile appeared on his face. The reason for that was because another battle was being waged in the direction of that voice.

Although that battle was nowhere on par with his battle against Lord Luokong, it was definitely the most intense battle apart from his own.

There were three figures in that battle.

One of them was an Ancient Era's Elves' Protector. That Elf Protector was very strong, and most definitely one of the strongest Elf Protectors. He possessed a cultivation of rank seven Martial Emperor.

As for the other person, he was the Weaponry Refinement Immortal. As for the third person, he was wearing clothes from the Dark Hall while not wearing a mask.

That fellow was two meters tall, and possessed a body covered in muscles. He was more robust than an ox, more robust than a tiger.

However, on that terrifyingly robust body was a soft, tender and fair-skinned youth's face. His disproportionate body was extremely uncomfortable to look at. At a glance, he looked like a monster transformed into a monstrous beast.

As for this monster-like fellow, he was the World Devastator Immortal's son. His name was Luan Jie.

Although this Luan Jie was not as old as his father, he was also an old monster who had already lived for several thousand years.

He was extremely strong. Even though he was clearly also just a rank seven Martial Emperor, he was able to contend against that Elf Protector and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal by himself. Furthermore, he held an absolute superiority over them.

"Hahahaha, the Ancient Era's Elves are all trash. They're simply unable to withstand a single blow."

"The Weaponry Refinement Immortal is also trash. Two trash Martial Emperors are no match against me even when fighting two on one. You are all trash. Hahaha!"

The World Devastator Immortal's son was mocking and ridiculing the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector as he fought against them. His absolute superiority against his opponents was vividly evident.

"Luan Jie, play slowly. It'll be too boring if you are play them to death too quickly,” The World Devastator Immortal said.

“Bastard!” Hearing those words, Lord Luokong started to gnash his teeth in anger. His veins were bulging all over his aged body. His berserk-like killing intent had shattered the surrounding space.

However, even with that being the case, he was still unable to do anything to the World Devastator Immortal. He was shocked to discover that as he increased his strength, the World Devastator Immortal would subsequently increase his strength too. Forever, the two men were at a standstill. Lord Luokong was simply unable to defeat the World Devastator Immortal.

This caused Luo Luokong to become extremely furious and uneasy. The reason for that was because this was sufficient to prove that the World Devastator Immortal was not fighting against him with his actual strength. Like his son, he was merely toying with him.

This sort of conclusion caused Lord Luokong to become discouraged. He thought to himself, ‘Could it be that all of our Ancient Era’s Elves are going to die in this place today? Are we to die at the hands of the people from the Dark Hall again?’

Luan Jie -> Chaotic World.

Chapter 1984 – The Reversal Of The Battle

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when Lord Luokong was about to despair, the sound of a strong wind sounded from afar. Black clouds surged forth. Contained within the black clouds was a majestic and boundless oppressive might. Furthermore, that oppressive might was rapidly approaching them.

Practically everyone fighting sensed that oppressive might. Upon turning their gazes towards the direction of the oppressive might, the expressions of everyone present changed enormously. They were all stunned.

That black cloud was composed of Martial Emperors, over a thousand Martial Emperors. They were Martial Emperors of all different levels of cultivation.

Not to mention rank one, rank two, rank three and rank four Martial Emperors, there were even many rarely-seen rank five and rank six Martial Emperors.

In fact, some among them were people that even Lord Luokong knew. They were grand characters whose names were already renowned in the Holy Land of Martialism, they were old monsters who had long distanced themselves from matters of the Holy Land of Martialism.

Most shockingly, at that moment, the person that stood at the forefront of that group of Martial Emperors was a young man. His appearance was one that everyone recognized. He was Chu Feng.

Upon seeing Chu Feng and those Martial Emperors, regardless of whether it was the Ancient Era’s Elves or the people from the Dark Hall, they were all incomparably shocked.

‘Chu Feng? Why would he be here? Furthermore, he has brought so many Martial Emperors with him? Weren’t those old monsters the ones that entered the Moonlight Maze earlier? How did they all get into this place? Exactly what is going on?’

‘Could it be that we failed to successfully activate the killing formation? No, that shouldn’t be the case. We clearly activated the killing formation.’

After a moment of shock, the World Devastator Immortal turned his gaze towards the distance. Upon seeing what was approaching, his expression immediately changed. He started to gnash his teeth in anger. Then, he shouted, “The killing formation has been broken through?! Who did that?!”

Hearing those words, everyone turned their gaze to the formation’s core. It was only then that they discovered that there were changes to that formation’s core. It currently looked like nothing more than a pile of stagnant water. This phenomenon could only mean one thing — that the killing formation had been destroyed, and that the formation’s core had already lost its effectiveness.

“Hahahaha, Da, Da, Da, Dark Hall’s tra, trash, shi, shiver in fear. Your kill, kill, killing formation has been broken thr, through by I, your da, da, daddy,” At that moment, Wang Qiang who stood beside Chu Feng stepped forward.

“What? That young man was the one who did that? Who is that young man? Why am I unable to see through his cultivation?” Everyone turned to Wang Qiang.

“Cough, cough...” At that moment, both the Snow Blade Mad Demon and Elder Huang Guan coughed and took fierce glances at Wang Qiang.

Suddenly, someone among the crowd said with a loud voice, “It is little friend Chu Feng who broke through the killing formation and saved our lives. Dark Hall, you all are truly ruthless. You actually wanted to massacre us. If it wasn’t for little friend Chu Feng, we would all be at the Yellow Springs now.”

“That’s right. Dark Hall, you all are simply devoid of conscience, worse than pigs and dogs!” Following that, practically everyone started to rain curses upon the Dark Hall.

The words spoken by these Martial Emperors caused Lord Luokong, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others to be wild with joy. Sure enough, they had not misjudged Chu Feng. Chu Feng had actually accomplished it.

Furthermore, what Chu Feng had accomplished was even better than they had anticipated. Not only did he rescue the crowd, he had also managed to bring those experts here to provide assistance to them. This was truly too amazing. Even Lord Luokong would not necessarily be able to rally this many supporters.

“Brat, it’s actually you who meddled in my matter?” The World Devastator Immortal’s mouth was raised into an ice-cold smile.

“Revenge?” The World Devastator Immortal smiled disdainfully. Then, he looked to the Snow Blade Mad Demon and the others, “Since you all managed to escape, I will give you all a chance. As long as you choose to join our Dark Hall, I will guarantee you all glory and splen...”

“Pah! You damned sissy. You tried to kill us earlier. Yet now, you want to win us over with bribes? Do you take us for fools?” However, before the World Devastator Immortal could finish his words, the Snow Blade Mad Demon interrupted him with an insult.

As the Snow Blade Mad Demon held great seniority in the Holy Land of Martialism, he naturally knew the World Devastator Immortal. However, at the same time, he was not afraid of the World Devastator Immortal.

“World Devastator Immortal, so you were also someone from the Dark Hall. Your title of Immortal is truly in vain. You have truly disappointed us.”

“That’s right. After leaving this place, I will definitely spread this matter about, and have your reputation become completely ruined. I will make you go down in history for your infamy,” Following that, more and more people began to insult the World Devastator Immortal.

“You bunch of trash! You all are simply courting death!”

“Did you really think that you mob of trash would be able to contend against me?”

“I am able to completely destroy all of you using only one hand,” Being insulted by the crowd, the World Devastator Immortal’s complexion turned green. Then, he raised his hand, and the Imperial Armament that he held immediately started to overflow with golden light. He swept his Immortal Armament and unleashed a slash toward Chu Feng and the others.

At the moment when the World Devastator Immortal unleashed his attack, everyone started to frown. Their expressions all changed. Even Chu Feng reacted in such a manner.

The World Devastator Immortal was a rank eight Martial Emperor, and truly powerful. Indeed, he possessed the strength to massacre all of them in an instant.

Although Chu Feng was capable of easily killing a rank six Martial Emperor, he could not contend against a rank seven Martial Emperor, much less a rank eight Martial Emperor.

“Woosh~~~”

“Rumble~~~”

However, another slash appeared the moment right after the World Devastator Immortal’s slash shot forth. That slash actually managed to block the World Devastator Immortal’s slash.

It was Lord Luokong. He had intercepted the World Devastator Immortal's slash.

“World Devastator, now is not the time for you to be distracted.”

Lord Luokong smiled coldly. Not only did he manage to intercept the slash that the World Devastator Immortal had sent towards the crowd, he had also seized the opportunity to unleash several ferocious attacks at the World Devastator Immortal. Each and every one of his attacks were fatal.

In this sort of situation, the World Devastator Immortal started to frown. He did not dare to act carelessly. He hurriedly wielded his Imperial Armament and confronted Lord Luokong's attacks with all his strength. He simply did not have the peace of mind to bother with Chu Feng and the others.

At that moment, the World Devastator Immortal wanted to break free from Lord Luokong as quickly as possible. As such, he was going all out. The reason for that was because he knew that the appearance of Chu Feng and the others was not a good sign for them.

After all, Chu Feng's side possessed several rank six Martial Emperors. As for those below rank six Martial Emperor, they were numerous. All of those fellows were old monsters. They were people who would not bother with the affairs of the Holy Land of Martialism, and had only been attracted to the Moonlight Maze by the Immortality Peaches. However, without a doubt, all of them possessed strength that one could not look down upon.

With the assistance of those old monsters, the Dark Hall also ended up feeling enormous pressure. Even though they possessed the assistance of several hundred Ancient Era's ferocious beasts, they would not necessarily be able to hold a superior position against the reinforcements Chu Feng had brought with him.

However, when Lord Luokong and the others saw the appearance of Chu Feng's thousand-plus Martial Emperors, their morale increased enormously. In this sort of situation, Lord Luokong's strength actually increased. As such, it had become impossible for the World Devastator Immortal to defeat Lord Luokong in a short amount of time.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng shouted, "Everyone, there should be no need for me to say this. Spare no one from the Dark Hall!"

"Kill!!!!"

Once Chu Feng shouted those words, the thousand-plus Martial Emperors behind him unleashed their killing intent explosively and charged towards the people from the Dark Hall and those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

These thousand-plus Martial Emperors were all very clever. Not only did they possess strong power, they were also very experienced in battle. As such, they knew how to fight in a melee.

Even though they were fighting together, they did not attack blindly. Instead, they went to search for those with strength equal to their own to attack, for only by doing so would they be able to reduce the pressure on the Ancient Era's Elves and their own casualties in the most efficient manner.

In fact, they accomplished that feat flawlessly.

The Yellow Springs is the Chinese equivalent of the underworld.

Chapter 1985 – Emergence Of The Moon Demon

As for Chu Feng, he specifically targeted the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. The reason for that was because he knew that the people from the Dark Hall were only able to suppress the Ancient Era's Elves because of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

As for those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts, they were very powerful. Especially those rank six Martial Emperor Ancient Era's ferocious beasts, ordinary rank six Martial Emperors were no match for them. However, Chu Feng possessed confidence in being able to kill them.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng collided against that bunch of fierce Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. Furthermore, he was fighting against many by himself.

“Little friend Chu Feng, be careful. Those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts are exceptionally fierce,” Seeing that Chu Feng had challenged that many Ancient Era's ferocious beasts by himself, the Ancient Era's Elves started to worry about Chu Feng's safety. The reason for that was because they had suffered numerous casualties from those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

The Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were different from the ferocious beasts in the Holy Land of Martialism. Although they did not possess any intelligence, they were equipped with fighting techniques and special powers. They were simply akin to natural born wild fighting demons and were extremely difficult to take care of.

“Roar~~~~”

However, right after Chu Feng began fighting against the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts, several Ancient Era's ferocious beasts began to emit miserable cries as they were killed by Chu Feng.

Suddenly, not to mention the people from the Dark Hall, even the Ancient Era's Elves who were worried for Chu Feng were struck dumb.

It was one thing for Chu Feng to easily kill rank four and rank five Martial Emperor-level Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. However, of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts that he had just killed, one was a rank six Martial Emperor.

At that moment, Chu Feng did not hold back his strength, and had instead gone all-out. Thus, everyone managed to sense Chu Feng's actual cultivation and his heaven-defying battle power.

Furthermore, the weapon in Chu Feng's hand was an Imperial Armament. However, that Imperial Armament was exceptionally powerful. Furthermore, why was its shape so familiar?

"Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. That Imperial Armament little friend Chu Feng holds in his hand, could it be that legendary Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader?" After observing Chu Feng's weapon, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal cried out in shock.

"Weaponry Refinement Immortal, you are correct. What little friend Chu Feng holds in his hand is indeed the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader used by the Beast Emperor," The Snow Blade Mad Demon said with a loud voice.

"Heavens!" After hearing what the Snow Blade Mad Demon said, many people sucked in a mouthful of cold air uncontrollably. They did not expect that Chu Feng would actually possess a legendary Imperial Armament.

Suddenly, no one was worried for Chu Feng's safety anymore. The reason for that was because Chu Feng's strength had increased. He was currently a rank two Martial Emperor. Using his special lightning power, he had increased his cultivation to rank four Martial Emperor. Adding on his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation, Chu Feng was extremely frightening.

Furthermore, he actually possessed a legendary Imperial Armament, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. With that, Chu Feng's strength was simply overwhelmingly heaven-defying.

Likely, there would not be anyone underneath rank seven Martial Emperor who could defeat Chu Feng. Not to mention bringing over a thousand Martial Emperors with him, it was likely that Chu Feng himself would be able to turn the battle around.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. That little bastard Chu Feng is quite interesting," At that moment, the World Devastator Immortal's son was also focused on Chu Feng. A cold smile appeared on his face.

"Kill Chu Feng!" Seeing that Chu Feng was wantonly killing the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts, the people from the Dark Hall grew anxious. Those rank seven Martial Emperors and rank six Martial Emperors among them all began to think of ways to escape their own battles to kill Chu Feng.

Unfortunately, the Ancient Era's Elves' peak experts refused to give them a chance to break free. Earlier, it was them who had been curbing the Ancient Era's Elves' peak experts the entire time. This was what led to the others from the Dark Hall being able to massacre the rest of the Ancient Era's Elves with the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

And now, it was finally their turn to massacre the crowd from the Dark Hall. Yet, these Dark Hall's experts actually wanted to rescue the others? Naturally, the Ancient Era's Elves' experts would not give them the chance to do so.

Suddenly, Luan Jie shouted excitedly, "All of you, stand down. That Chu Feng is mine. I'll take care of him myself." Then, he turned into a ray of light and flew toward Chu Feng.

"Where are you escaping to?!" Seeing that, the Weaponry

Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector hurriedly charged forth to stop Luan Jie with their Imperial Armaments.

The two of them knew very well how strong Luan Jie was. Even though Chu Feng had become extremely powerful, he was still definitely not a match for Luan Jie. They could not allow Luan Jie to approach Chu Feng.

“Two persistent fellows. Did the two of you really think that you could stop me? I’ll kill you two first,” Luan Jie revealed a ferocious gaze. He shouted, and then purple light began to emit from his body. In an instant, violent wind began to surge with lightning striking about. Soon, a purple spear appeared in the sky.

That spear came striking down from above the moment it appeared and brought an enormous amount of pressure to the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector. It turned out that Luan Jie was actually a Divine Body. Furthermore, his Divine Power was extremely frightening.

It could be said that his Divine Power was the most frightening one that Chu Feng had seen so far.

“Ahhh!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

However, right at that moment, from the sky, from all around and even from deep underground, an ear-piercing snarl was heard.

Once that voice was heard, everyone’s bodies started to shiver. They felt as if their hair was standing on end. It was truly too frightening. That voice was truly too frightening. It sounded like the snarl of a malicious spirit, and brought a great sense of intimidation to the crowd.

“Moon Demon, the Moon Demon is awake!” Suddenly, the World Devastator Immortal cried out in alarm and revealed an overjoyed expression.

“Moon Demon? Why would the Moon Demon be awake? The killing formation was clearly broken through and destroyed.”

“No, even if the people that entered the killing formation escaped, a lot of Ancient Era’s Elves and people from the Dark Hall have died. The aura of blood from those people was sufficient to draw out the Moon Demon.”

Even Chu Feng revealed an expression of unease. The reason for that was because that snarl sounded like a ferocious spirit’s snarl, and was filled with killing intent. That was the most frightening sound that Chu Feng had ever heard.

Chu Feng felt a premonition that the appearance of the Moon Demon likely signified that all of them would have to suffer a calamity, for that Moon Demon was a very frightening existence.

“Luan Jie, what are you standing there for? Quickly, go,” Right at that moment, the World Devastation Immortal spoke to his son with a stern voice.

“Rest assured father, when have I ever disappointed you?” Luan Jie smiled complacently. At that moment, he was feeling extremely excited.

As purple light flickered in his eyes, that enormous purple spear turned into two spears that swept respectively at the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector.

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector did not dare to be careless. They both clenched tightly onto the Imperial Armaments which they held and unleashed devastating Heaven Taboo Martial Skills to receive Luan Jie’s attack.

It was not that the two of them were making a big fuss over a minor issue. Rather, Luan Jie was truly not someone to be looked down upon. If they were to be careless, they would be the ones killed by the spears formed by Luan Jie’s Divine Power.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

The two Heaven Taboo Martial Skills used with Imperial Armaments collided with the two spears formed with Divine Power. Violet energy ripples surged violently from their collision. Many people that were very far away from them were also implicated.

He was shocked to discover that Luan Jie had disappeared after they blocked his attacks. It turned out that Luan Jie’s attack from earlier was only bait. His intention was precisely to cast them off of him.

After discovering that Luan Jie had disappeared, the first thing that the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector did was rush to Chu Feng. They were most afraid of Luan Jie attacking Chu Feng.

However, after they arrived beside Chu Feng, they were surprised to discover that Luan Jie had not attacked Chu Feng. Instead, he had disappeared just like that.

Chapter 1986 – Dying Together

“Find the Moon Demon? Could it be that they really have a way to control the Moon Demon and make the Moon Demon be of use to them?” Hearing those words, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal revealed an expression of disbelief.

“Even though it is very unbelievable, I’m afraid that would most likely be the case. I am able to faintly sense the direction of the Moon Demon. Earlier, I noticed that the direction in which Luan Jie’s aura disappeared is also the same direction in which the Moon Demon is at.”

“He has most definitely gone to find the Moon Demon. Furthermore, don’t forget, they have managed to even control the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts that do not possess any intelligence,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s right. The Dark Hall knows a lot of the Holy Land of Martialism’s secrets. Their knowledge is even greater than the Ancient Era’s Elves.”

“Furthermore, Luan Jie is a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist like his father. He is also one of the most exceptional geniuses in the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“It was only because his father ended up hiding him away that no one knows exactly how powerful he has become now.”

“Today, he reappeared again, and his cultivation is already capable of contending against the two of us. I’m afraid that his world spirit techniques will have already surpassed my own,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I’m afraid that we’ll have to trouble you with leading us there. We absolutely cannot allow that Luan Jie to have his way,” The Elf Protector said.

As for Chu Feng, he swept his gaze over the current situation of the battlefield. After discovering that although the Ancient Era’s Elves had not obtained an absolute superiority, they were no longer in a disadvantageous state against the Dark Hall, and were even holding a certain superiority over them. Chu Feng felt relieved.

Thus, Chu Feng’s body shifted, and he began to fly towards the direction that Luan Jie had headed to.

In response, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector also followed closely after Chu Feng.

“Ahhhh!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

At that moment, the Moon Demon’s savage, malicious-spirit-like roars were continuously resonating from all around. It was as if the Moon Demon was present all over the Moonlight Maze. However, Chu Feng was able to accurately determine the location of the Moon Demon.

Although there appeared to be three people chasing after Luan Jie, it was actually five people. The reason for that was because Su Rou and Su Mei had been behind the Weaponry Refinement Immortal the entire time. They were protected by a defensive barrier created with many treasures.

That defensive formation barrier was very powerful. Even if the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was injured, that defensive barrier would still remain undamaged. From that, it could be seen how concerned for Su Rou and Su Mei the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was.

“Wuuu~~~”

Suddenly, Su Rou and Su Mei’s expressions turned ugly, and they revealed painful expressions.

“Lil Rou, Lil Mei, what happened?”

Even though Chu Feng was leading the group, after he heard Su Rou and Su Mei's pained voices, he immediately turned around and arrived behind the Weaponry Refinement Immortal to Su Rou and Su Mei's side.

"Chu Feng, we, we are fine," Su Rou said as she resisted the pain. However, she was clearly drenched in cold sweat from the pain, and her complexion had also turned pale.

At that moment, Chu Feng discovered that a blue light and a red light were shining from Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies respectively. It was the Fire and Ice Pearls that were causing their grievance.

"With how you are now, how could you two be fine?" Chu Feng realized that it was the Fire and Ice Pearls that were tormenting Su Rou and Su Mei. They were starting to lose control over the Fire and Ice Pearls.

"Crap! The Fire and Ice Pearls are the possessions of the Moon Demon. It is most definitely the appearance of the Moon Demon that has caused the Fire and Ice Pearls to become unstable. Little friend Chu Feng, we must extract the Fire and Ice Pearls immediately. Otherwise, I fear that Su Rou and Su Mei might be met with fatal danger," The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said in a very worried manner.

As he spoke, he released his defensive barrier around Su Rou and Su Mei and released them.

"Seniors, the location of the Moon Demon is still the same. If you continue straight in this direction, you should be able to find the Moon Demon," Chu Feng pointed ahead.

"Little friend Chu Feng, you're planning to stay behind by yourself?" The Weaponry Refinement Immortal asked in surprise.

"This matter is extremely urgent. We cannot disregard Luan Jie. Even though we do not know what sort of method he might have, he most definitely came prepared."

“Right now, the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts have been controlled by them. If even the Moon Demon is controlled by them, even the Ancient Era’s Elves would not be a match for the Dark Hall. Thus, we absolutely cannot allow them to have their way,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. Little friend Chu Feng, in that case, we’ll hand this place to you,” The Ancient Era’s Elves’ Protector knew how serious the situation was. Thus, he did not hesitate and immediately chased after Luan Jie.

“Little friend Chu Feng, these items will be able to help you,” As for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, he handed a Cosmos Sack to Chu Feng. Contained within that Cosmos Sack were all sorts of precious materials and treasures for world spirit techniques.

Furthermore, before the Weaponry Refinement Immortal left, he sent a voice transmission to Chu Feng, “Little friend Chu Feng, the strength of the Fire and Ice Pearls is boundless. Su Rou and Su Mei have been unable to unleash the true strength of the two pearls this entire time.”

“From the influence of the Moon Demon, they have already lost control of the Fire and Ice Pearls. As such, extracting them will not be that easy, and might even implicate you.”

“Although there are some words that this old man should not say, when considering the general situation, I hope that you can save yourself during a critical moment.”

“The reason for that is because the Holy Land of Martialism needs you right now,” When those words entered Chu Feng’s ears, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal had already disappeared.

His intention was very clear. The Fire and Ice Pearls could go out of control at any moment. Should they really go out of control, they would unleash their true power, a power capable of bringing about destruction to the world. Not to mention Su Rou and Su Mei, even Chu Feng would be killed by their powers.

However, as Chu Feng was an outstanding Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, he would be able to detect the moment before the Fire and Ice Pearls went out of control. Thus, what the Weaponry Refinement Immortal wanted to tell Chu Feng was to give up on Su Rou and Su Mei and escape by himself should he discover that the Fire and Ice Pearls were about to go out of control.

However, how could Chu Feng possibly give up on his lovers? Even though he knew that the Weaponry Refinement Immortal had told him those words with good intentions, he decided to completely ignore those words.

“Chu Feng, I am able to sense that the pearl in me is extremely unstable. An uncontrollable power is bubbling out. We will not be able to contain the pearls anymore. Quickly, leave us. Do not worry about us,” Su Rou grabbed Chu Feng’s hand and said in a very reluctant manner.

“Big brother Chu Feng, listen to big sister. Quickly, leave us,” Su Mei also urged Chu Feng to leave. When she said those words, she was unable to control herself as tears began to form in her eyes.

Evidently, these two girls were both able to tell that the Fire and Ice Pearls were about to go out of control. Thus, they wanted Chu Feng to leave.

“Don’t say nonsense like that. When the Fire and Ice Pearls appeared, I was unable to protect you two. I hope that I will be able to do so this time around,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he disregarded everything that Su Rou and Su Mei tried to tell him.

Right now, Chu Feng only wanted to accomplish one thing. That was to wholeheartedly devote himself to setting up his spirit formation so that he could extract the Fire and Ice Pearls from Su Rou and Su Mei safely.

With Chu Feng’s current world spirit techniques, it was actually a very simple task for him to remove the Fire and Ice Pearls from Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies.

Merely, due to the fact that the Fire and Ice Pearls were on the verge of going berserk, Chu Feng did not dare to be careless in the slightest. He had to proceed with extreme caution.

“Buzz~~~”

However, even with that being the case, the Fire and Ice Pearls suddenly emitted dazzling fiery and icy radiances. Following that, they began to emit a fatal aura.

Chu Feng had already managed to detect that the Fire and Ice Pearls were on the verge of going out of control and their powers were about to explode. Once that happened, everyone within a perimeter of a thousand miles, including even Martial Emperor-level experts, would likely be killed. Those within ten thousand miles would definitely suffer injuries.

With Chu Feng's current speed, he was able to escape from the perimeter of the Fire and Ice Pearl's eruption. However, how could he possibly escape? How could he possibly disregard his lovers?

Chapter 1987 – Virtuous Thought, Evil Thought

“Eggy, I’m sorry. Due to my stubbornness, you’ll be forced to die with me.”

“Merely, I truly cannot abandon Lil Rou and Lil Mei,” Chu Feng did not escape. Instead, he hugged Su Rou and Su Mei tightly.

As for Su Rou and Su Mei, the two of them also managed to sense the changes in the Fire and Ice Pearls. Seeing that Chu Feng did not leave, they stopped urging him to leave. Instead, like him, they also tightly hugged Chu Feng. As silent tears were shed, they buried their little faces into Chu Feng’s bosom.

To them, if they were to die like this, it would be worth it.

It was the same for Chu Feng. He was willing to die together with his lovers.

Merely, at this moment, Chu Feng was still feeling very complicated. His heart was filled with the sensation of falling short and letting down someone.

After all, Chu Feng was not alone. Contained within his world spirit space was Eggy. He possessed the means to release Eggy from his body.

However, as Eggy was currently asleep, even if Chu Feng were to release her, Eggy would not be able to escape. Thus, Eggy was destined to die together with them. That was the reason why Chu Feng felt very guilty and ashamed.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly felt that his awareness started to grow fuzzy. When he looked to his surroundings, he was shocked to discover that, even though he remained where he previously was, Su Rou and Su Mei who he’d been hugging had disappeared. Furthermore, a vast white mist covered his surroundings and blocked his line of sight. He was unable to see more than a distance of ten meters.

“You’re actually not afraid of death?” Right at that moment, a woman’s voice sounded from the thick mist.

Turning toward the voice, Chu Feng saw a woman slowly walking toward him from the vast mist. That woman was wearing a snow-white skirt, and had a very beautiful appearance. Furthermore, she gave off an extremely extraordinary aura. A celestial fairy. From merely a single glance, Chu Feng had the sensation that the woman before him not only appeared like a celestial fairy, rather, her incomparable aura was simply that of a celestial fairy.

“Are you the Moon Immortal?” Chu Feng asked. Chu Feng felt that the person before him was very likely the Moon Immortal. In other words, the legendary Moon Demon.

“Answer my question. Are you not afraid of death?” That woman asked. Even though she looked like a celestial fairy, her tone was extremely ice-cold and without a trace of emotion.

“I am. Who wouldn’t be afraid of death? I still have a lot of things that I need to finish. I naturally do not wish to die,” Chu Feng said with a smile. What he said was the truth.

Upon hearing Chu Feng’s words, that woman’s long, shapely eyebrows narrowed slightly. A trace of misgiving flashed through her eyes. She asked, “Since you’re afraid of death, why didn’t you escape?”

“Even though I’m afraid of death, I cannot disregard my lovers. Since I cannot protect them, I can only accompany them in death,” The smile on Chu Feng’s face did not decrease. However, when he said those words, he revealed an expression of ease.

Even though Chu Feng did not wish to die, he was delighted to die alongside his lovers.

Chu Feng's words caused that woman's expression to turn slightly stiff. Then, she gently lifted her snow-white sleeve.

“Rumble~~~”

In an instant, the earth started to quake violently and a crimson gate rose from the ground. That gate appeared before Chu Feng.

That gate was a hundred meters tall. After it opened up, overflowing crimson light filled the gate. Anguished wailing sounded from within the gate nonstop. There were countless silhouettes being tormented within that gate. It was an appalling sight of devastation.

“Since you treasure your lovers so much, I'll give you a chance. As long as you enter that gate, your soul will be subjected to torment. You will die after your soul is completely refined by me. However, that process will bring you so much pain that you will wish you were dead.”

“However, as for the two of them, they will be able to continue living because of you,” That woman pointed to the purgatory-like gate.

“Originally, we were all going to die. However, senior is willing to spare my lovers' lives. Naturally, I have to thank you,” Chu Feng said with a smile. Then, his feet started to move. Soon, he leapt forward. Like an arrow that was just shot from a bow, he jumped into that purgatory gate.

For his lovers, Chu Feng had chosen the path of no return without the slightest hesitation.

“Buzz~~~”

However, after Chu Feng entered that gate, he was surprised to discover that he had returned to reality. Su Rou and Su Mei were still in his bosom. The vast mist that had surrounded him and blocked his sight had also disappeared.

However, compared to before, this place had changed slightly. That is, the Fire and Ice Pearls that were on the verge of eruption had calmed down.

Seeing that, Chu Feng hurriedly continued to set up his spirit formation. He wished to seize this opportunity to remove the Fire and Ice Pearls from Su Rou and Su Mei. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had discovered that the two pearls were time bombs. He absolutely could not allow them to remain in Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies.

“Big brother Chu Feng, wait a moment,” However, right when Chu Feng was about to remove the two pearls, Su Mei suddenly spoke to stop him and grabbed his arm.

“Big sister, you too?”

“Little sister, you too?”

At that moment, Su Rou and Su Mei looked to one another.

Chu Feng sensed that something was wrong. Thus, he asked, “Exactly what happened?”

“It would seem that I am the same as little sister. In that case, let me explain,” Su Rou smiled. Then, she said, “Contained within the Fire and Ice Pearls was a voice. That voice doesn't seem to be from the Fire and Ice Pearls. Rather, it seems to be from their actual owner, the Moon Demon."

"Moon Demon?" Chu Feng was startled. He had already met that Moon Demon earlier. Thus, he trusted what Su Rou said completely.

"The Moon Demon said that her virtuous thought had remained in the Fire and Ice Pearls the entire time. Merely, her evil thoughts still remained in the Moonlight Maze."

"As long as you are capable of subduing her evil thoughts, she is willing to bestow her power to us sisters," Su Rou said.

"I understand now," As Chu Feng spoke, he stood up. Then, he set up a very powerful spirit formation that covered Su Rou and Su Mei. After that, he proceeded toward the location of the Moon Demon while bringing Su Rou and Su Mei with him.

He had truly understood. It turned out that the so-called Moon Immortal and Moon Demon were merely the virtuous thoughts and evil thoughts of the same person. The virtuous thoughts were the Immortal part, whereas the evil thoughts were the Demon part.

Currently, the virtuous thoughts were with them inside the Fire and Ice Pearls. It was that celestial fairy-like woman that Chu Feng had met earlier.

As for the evil thoughts, they were the Moon Demon that was currently letting out those frightening snarls.

Originally, Chu Feng had no idea how to contain the Moon Demon. He merely wanted to prevent the Dark Hall from controlling the Moon Demon.

However, the situation had now changed. With the assistance of the virtuous thoughts, Chu Feng knew that there must be a way to contain the Moon Demon.

After all, Qing Xuantian had said that the Fire and Ice Pearls were capable of turning the Moon Demon into the Moon Immortal. And now, he finally realized why the Fire and Ice Pearls possessed that usage.

Most importantly, if the virtuous thought were capable of honoring its promise, Su Rou and Su Mei would be able to make unprecedented progress in their strength.

It might even be possible for the two of them to surpass him, and enter a whole new realm of cultivation. Not only would that be a blessing to Su Rou and Su Mei, it would be a blessing to the entire Holy Land of Martialism. As long as they obtained the Moon Immortal's power, even the Dark Hall would have to fear them.

Furthermore, even if the virtuous thoughts did not keep her promise, as long as Chu Feng assisted her, she would still become the Moon Immortal. Out of gratefulness from eliminating the Moon Demon, she should be willing to help him. In short... this would be a matter with only benefits and no harm.

Chapter 1988 – Stellar Key

Chu Feng sped forth. Enroute, he heard many explosions. Later on... he finally saw the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, as well as that Elf Protector.

However, at the same time, he also saw Luan Jie. Luan Jie was currently fighting against the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector. Furthermore, this time around, Luan Jie was serious. He had become exceptionally fierce. To a greater or lesser degree, both the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector were injured by Luan Jie. If this were to continue, the two of them would undoubtedly be defeated by Luan Jie.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng's gaze was fixed onto the sky above the location where the three men were fighting. There was an enormous silhouette in the sky. She had a snow white skirt and long fluttering hair. Her appearance was exactly the same as the Moon Immortal that Chu Feng had seen.

Merely, her face was exceptionally sinister, and her eyes were emitting a crimson, murderous shine. It was as if she wanted to kill all the living things in the world. In fact, the killing intent that she emitted was many times more frightening than that of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

Most importantly, her aura was extremely frightening. She was an existence even more powerful than the Elf King.

That frightening silhouette covered that entire region of the sky. It was a truly frightening sight.

Moon Demon. That was most likely that so-called evil thoughts, that Moon Demon.

Merely, that Moon Demon was trapped in the sky. Even though she was struggling violently, she was unable to break free.

It turned out that seven keys had trapped the Moon Demon in the sky. Upon seeing those seven keys, Chu Feng's expression changed.

Those seven keys were like the starry sky. They were extremely special. They were the Stellar Keys.

Chu Feng also possessed one such Stellar Key. He had obtained it from the Beast Emperor, the Black Dragon King's inheritance.

Originally, Chu Feng had been curious the entire time as to what use that Stellar Key possessed. And now, he finally realized what its use was.

"Chu Feng, get away from here! Those Stellar Keys are actually capable of controlling the Moon Demon! If this is to continue, the Stellar Keys will end up completely controlling the Moon Demon!"

"Quickly, get away from the Moonlight Maze! Have everyone else escape from the Moonlight Maze too!" Upon seeing Chu Feng's arrival, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector began to shout at Chu Feng.

"Hahaha, you won't be able to escape. All of you will die. Even if you manage to escape today, you will not be able to escape tomorrow," Luan Jie laughed loud and sinisterly.

"That's not for certain," As Chu Feng spoke, he took out his deep blue treasured bow and aimed it at Luan Jie.

"What are you trying to do? You couldn't possibly be thinking about shooting me with that bow, right?!"

"You damned fool. Even if you used that Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, you would still not be a match for me. Yet you actually want to shoot me dead with an Incomplete Imperial Armament? Chu Feng, have you gone retarded or what? Hahahaha!" Upon seeing Chu Feng's deep blue bow, Luan Jie laughed even more wildly. His laughter was filled with mockery.

He truly found Chu Feng to be ridiculous. Especially after he saw how confident Chu Feng was, as if he could really shoot him dead, Luan Jie was unable to contain himself from wanting to ridicule

Chu Feng.

“That, could it be?!!!”

However, upon seeing the deep blue bow that Chu Feng took out, both the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Elf Protector’s expression changed. They seemed to have thought of something. Immediately, the two of them revealed joyous expressions.

The very next moment, Chu Feng’s right hand streaked across his Cosmos Sack. Then, the Qilin Arrow appeared in his hand. He placed the arrow onto the deep blue bow and pulled the bowstring fully back.

“That... that arrow?” Upon seeing the Qilin Arrow in Chu Feng’s hand, Luan Jie was startled. Fear emerged in his previously complacent face. Evidently, he realized that that Qilin Arrow was a remarkable item.

The very next moment, Chu Feng shouted, “Rank seven Martial Emperor, Luan Jie, die!!!!”

“Whoosh~~~”

Once Chu Feng shouted those words, the Qilin Arrow shot forth from the bow. As golden light streaked across the sky, it instantly arrived before Luan Jie.

Everything happened too quickly. “Boom!” That Qilin Arrow pierced Luan Jie and completely shattered his body.

“That arrow is actually that powerful?”

After personally seeing Chu Feng shoot Luan Jie to death with a single arrow, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Elf Protector were feeling both fear and joy.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at this moment, Chu Feng leapt forth. He waved his sleeve at the empty space before him. Then, a layer of boundless world spirit power turned into an enormous net and enveloped over half the sky.

“Condense!” Chu Feng shouted. Then, that enormous net began to condense in size. After condensing, the net formed a silhouette in the space before him that was originally without a single soul.

“Chu Feng, if you dare to kill me, my father will definitely not let you get away with it,” Right after Chu Feng spoke, Luan Jie’s voice was actually heard. Soon, Luan Jie appeared in the net. Merely, the current Luan Jie already no longer had an actual corporeal body. Instead, he had turned into an awareness. In other words, he was in his spirit form.

Furthermore, his cultivation was greatly inferior to before. He was no longer a rank seven Martial Emperor, and had become a rank five Martial Emperor. With such a cultivation, he would naturally not be a match for Chu Feng.

The reason why his cultivation had decreased this much after he turned into a spirit was actually also because of that Qilin Arrow. The fact that he had managed to escape in spirit form before the Qilin Arrow hit him was already very remarkable.

Unfortunately, his plan to escape in spirit form was unable to bypass Chu Feng’s eyes. In the end, he was captured by Chu Feng.

“My ass!” Seeing how Luan Jie actually dared to threaten him in such a state, Chu Feng raised his leg and ruthlessly and repeatedly kicked Luan Jie, who was contained in the net.

“Stop, stop,” Luan Jie was currently in spirit form. Thus, he was unable to vomit any blood. However, to be kicked repeatedly by Chu Feng caused him to vomit out green gaseous substances nonstop. His state was truly miserable.

“Remember, even if I don’t kill you, your father will not have planned to spare me anyways. Thus, do not use your bastard father to threaten me. I am not someone who's afraid of threats," Chu Feng pointed at the shivering Luan Jie who he had just ruthlessly beaten.

"Yes, yes, yes," While shivering nonstop, Luan Jie nodded his head. At that moment, he no longer possessed any arrogance. He was like a timid little mouse. The reason for that was because he did not wish to die, as Chu Feng was someone who dared to kill him.

Afterward, Chu Feng did not bother with Luan Jie anymore. Instead, he turned his gaze to the Moon Demon. He discovered that while the Moon Demon had been fixed to the sky by those seven Stellar Keys, those seven Stellar Keys would not be able to control the Moon Demon for an extended period of time.

"Chu Feng, what are you planning to do?" The Elf Protector asked.

"I am going to contain the Moon Demon," Chu Feng said.

"Chu Feng, Luan Jie used those seven Stellar Keys to capture the Moon Demon. Likely, he was planning to use those seven Stellar Keys to contain the Moon Demon."

"However, even after all this time has passed, the Moon Demon's strength had not weakened in the slightest. Furthermore, it does not seem to have the intention to obey those seven Stellar Keys."

"The way I see it, those seven Stellar Keys are simply unable to subdue that Moon Demon. How about we think of a way to eliminate the Moon Demon's resentment? We should use the Fire and Ice Pearls in Lil' Rou and Lil' Mei's bodies to turn the Moon Demon into the Moon Immortal," The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said. As for that... it had been their plan from the very beginning.

"No, I have another method," Chu Feng said.

As matters stood, Chu Feng no longer planned to remove the Fire and Ice Pearls from Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies. He had an even better plan.

"Hehe..." Hearing what Chu Feng said, Luan Jie laughed mockingly. He had laughed very secretly, and actually did not emit any sound of laughter.

However, his laughter was still heard by Chu Feng. Thus, Chu Feng turned to him and asked, "What are you laughing about?"

"I didn't laugh," Luan Jie shook his head repeatedly.

"Thump~~~"

Chu Feng raised his leg and kicked Luan Jie in the face, causing him to grimace in pain. Even though he was currently a spirit, Luan Jie was still able to feel pain.

After that kick, Chu Feng asked again, "Did you laugh or not?"

"I laughed, I laughed," Luan Jie nodded his head repeatedly.

"What are you laughing about? Are you laughing at how I'm unable to control that Moon Demon?" Chu Feng asked.

"No, no," Luan Jie shook his head repeatedly.

"Thump~~~"

Chu Feng raised his leg and unleashed another kick. Once again, the kick landed on Luan Jie's face. Then, he asked, "Is it?"

"Yes, yes, yes," Luan Jie nodded repeatedly. However, immediately afterward, he shook his head repeatedly. He said, "What the Weaponry Refinement Immortal said is actually very correct. Those seven Stellar Keys have been unable to weaken that Moon Demon's strength even after so long. This means that it is impossible to contain her with only those seven Stellar Keys. You will not be able to subdue that Moon Demon, much less control her."

"Oh? What if I use this?" As Chu Feng spoke, he took out an item.

“That... how could that be?!!!” Upon seeing the item in Chu Feng’s hand, Luan Jie was struck dumb. Even the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Elf Protector, Su Rou and Su Mei were also stunned.

The reason for that was because, according to the legends, there were only seven Stellar Keys. Three were scattered throughout the Holy Land of Martialism, and the Four Great Imperial Clans each possessed one for a total of seven.

It was already a very miraculous feat for the Dark Hall to be able to gather all seven Stellar Keys.

Yet now... Chu Feng actually took out an eighth Stellar Key.

Chapter 1989 – Sealing The Moon Demon

“An eighth Stellar Key? How could that be? According to the records, the Moonlight Maze should only have seven Stellar Keys,” Upon seeing Chu Feng’s eighth Stellar Key, Luan Jie spoke in utter disbelief.

What Luan Jie had just said was actually also what the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Elf Protector wanted to say.

After all, according to rumors, there were only seven Stellar Keys to the Moonlight Maze. As such, how did Chu Feng obtain an eighth Stellar Key?

Most importantly, the Stellar Key in Chu Feng’s hand appeared to be real. It was clearly not a fake.

As for Chu Feng, he had a smile on his face as he faced the crowd’s astonished gazes. He did not immediately answer them. Instead, he put a strand of his aura into his Stellar Key and then shot it toward the Moon Demon in the sky.

Chu Feng knew very well that the Moon Demon was the most important thing to take care of right at that moment.

“Roarr~”

When the eighth Stellar Key entered the Moon Demon’s body, the Moon Demon immediately let out an incomparably mournful scream. She looked to Chu Feng with a gaze filled with anger and resentment. Her gaze caused Chu Feng to feel his hair stand on end.

However, everyone was able to sense that the Moon Demon’s power had greatly decreased at the exact moment the eighth Stellar Key had pinned her body. Her frightening aura was gradually dissipating.

Chu Feng was currently capable of subduing the Moon Demon. However, he was still unable to control the Moon Demon. In fact, if Chu Feng wanted to control the Moon Demon right now, he would have no way to do so.

Merely, Chu Feng felt that he would only be able to temporarily seal the Moon Demon with the power of the eight Stellar Keys. If the power of the Stellar Keys were to decrease one day, the seal on the Moon Demon would be lifted. At that time, the person that the Moon Demon would want to kill the most would be Chu Feng.

Furthermore, it would not only be Chu Feng who would suffer a calamity. Likely, at that time, all those who were with Chu Feng would end up suffering a calamity.

That would be too dangerous. Thus, considering the long term, Chu Feng still wished for help from the Moon Immortal. The reason for that was because Chu Feng felt that the Moon Immortal who was originally one with the Moon Demon must have a way to subdue the Moon Demon.

After all, she had said those sort of words earlier.

“Chu Feng, the Moon Immortal said that she will teach you a spirit formation. With that spirit formation, you will be able to increase the power of the Stellar Keys to the maximum and completely seal away the demonic nature of the Moon Demon.”

“Then, you must use spirit formations to separate the sealed Moon Demon’s power into two parts, and instill them respectively into my and Lil Mei’s Fire and Ice Pearls. At that time, she will have a way to take care of the Moon Demon,” Su Rou said. After she finished saying those words, she placed her mouth beside Chu Feng’s ear and began to tell him how to set up that spirit formation.

Su Rou was simply unable to understand what was so amazing about that spirit formation. She was merely passing on the words from the Moon Immortal. However, the more Chu Feng listened, the more astonished he became. Before he even began to set up the spirit formation, he already knew that this spirit formation would be extremely powerful. Likely, it was from the Ancient Era.

After Su Rou finished telling Chu Feng what the Moon Immortal wanted her to say, she asked Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, did... you understand all of that?”

At that moment, Su Mei was also looking at Chu Feng with the same sort of expression. While the Moon Immortal was telling Su Rou how to set up the spirit formation, Su Mei was also able to hear her.

It was precisely because they knew what she said that Su Rou and Su Mei felt worried for Chu Feng. The reason for that was because what the Moon Immortal told Chu Feng simply did not seem like a spirit formation at all.

Even though their world spirit techniques were greatly inferior to Chu Feng’s, it remained that the two of them were world spiritists. It shouldn’t be that they were unable to make sense of what they heard at all.

When the two of them were unable to make sense of the method of setting up that spirit formation, was Chu Feng... really able to make sense of it?

Chu Feng thought that it was the Moon Immortal that was asking him Su Rou’s question. Thus, he said confidently, “Tell the Moon Immortal to rest assured. I am capable of setting up that spirit formation,” “Wow! Big brother Chu Feng, you are truly too amazing!” Seeing that Chu Feng was actually able to understand how to set up the spirit formation, Su Mei opened her little mouth wide in shock. As for Su Rou, she had the same sort of reaction. The two of them truly did not expect that the disparity between them and Chu Feng would be this enormous.

At the same time, the two beauties revealed joyous smiles on their faces. They were truly happy. After all, Chu Feng was their man. When their own man was that powerful, who wouldn't be happy?

"Lil Rou, help me ask the Moon Immortal a question," Chu Feng said.

"What is it?" Su Rou asked.

"Why does she want to help us?" Chu Feng said.

"She said... it is fate," Su Rou said.

"Understood," Chu Feng did not ask anymore questions. After saying those words, Chu Feng began to set up the spirit formation according to the Moon Immortal's instructions.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew that it would be useless even if he were to ask further. As such, he could only choose to believe in the Moon Immortal.

"Lil Rou, Lil Mei, exactly what is going on? What exactly did you all talk about?" Suddenly, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal walked over with confusion written all over his face. The Elf Protector was acting the same as him.

They had heard the conversation between Chu Feng, Su Rou and Su Mei, and discovered that the contents of their conversation were very fishy. Chu Feng was clearly speaking with Su Rou. Yet, it seemed like he was speaking to someone else. The two of them were very confused by it.

In response, Su Rou and Su Mei did not try to conceal anything. Instead, they told the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector the truth.

After all, the two of them possessed a very good relationship with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal. Furthermore, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was equivalent to being their master. Even though this sort of thing was inconvenient to talk about, it was also unsuitable for them to conceal it.

After learning of what happened, even the experienced Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Elf Protector opened their mouths wide in shock. They both sucked in a mouthful of cold air before asking again, “Is that true?”

“A great fortune! This is truly a great and fortune-changing opportunity! Little friend Chu Feng is truly outstanding!” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal spoke in a very excited manner. As for the Elf Protector, even though he did not say anything, he also had an extremely excited expression on his face.

The Moon Immortal, the legendary Moon Immortal was actually willing to help them. This was much better than controlling the Moon Demon.

However, as for that Luan Jie, he was completely stunned. Exactly what had happened here? Weren’t the Moon Immortal and the Moon Demon the same existence? Why would there be another Moon Immortal in those two girls’ bodies?

Furthermore, that Moon Immortal was helping Chu Feng and the others subdue the Moon Demon? Furthermore, she was going to pass on her power to those two girls? Exactly what was going on here? How could there be such a wonderful thing in this world?

While extremely astonished, Luan Jie was also extremely skeptical.

Thus, he began to fix his gaze onto Chu Feng. He planned to see exactly what sort of spirit formation Chu Feng was going to set up.

One must know that Luan Jie had actually come prepared to subdue the Moon Demon. Not only did he possess the seven Stellar Keys, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had also personally taught him a powerful spirit formation, a taboo demonic formation.

Although that formation was evil, it was indeed capable of controlling the Moon Demon.

When Luan Jie saw that spirit formation for the first time, he was unable to help himself from exclaiming in astonishment. He had never expected such a spirit formation to exist in this world. Furthermore, he spent a total of half a year in order to master that spirit formation.

With his attainments in world spirit techniques, to spend half a year to learn a single spirit formation could be said to be an extremely long time.

And now, Chu Feng was actually going to use a spirit formation to completely control that Moon Demon. Thus, he wished to see whether or not Chu Feng's spirit formation would be as amazing as the one that the Dark Hall's Hall Master had taught him.

Furthermore, if what they said was true, Luan Jie was also skeptical as to how Chu Feng could possibly grasp a spirit formation that he had just been taught. Luan Jie was truly skeptical.

Chapter 1990 – Wang Qiang Displaying His Might

“This!!!”

After continuing to look at Chu Feng, Luan Jie was stupefied. Although the spirit formation that Chu Feng was setting up was completely different from the one which the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had taught him, the profoundness of Chu Feng’s spirit formation, as well as how powerful it was, were both superior to the one that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had taught him.

Astonished, Luan Jie muttered, “Is it really true that he just learned how to set up that spirit formation?”

The reason for that was because he could not believe that someone would be able to set up such a powerful spirit formation right after hearing about the method to do so. This was simply an impossibility.

It was not only Luan Jie who was this astonished. The Weaponry Refinement Immortal, a fellow Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, also revealed a grave expression. His aged eyes were flickering nonstop. The reason for that was because even he was unable to grasp such a powerful spirit formation in such a short period of time.

At the moment when Luan Jie and the others were astonished, Chu Feng had finished setting up that spirit formation. Furthermore, the spirit formation had assimilated into the Moon Demon’s body.

“Roarr~”

At that moment, the already weakened Moon Demon emitted a roar in even greater pain than before. In the same moment in which she roared, her body started to assimilate into that spirit formation.

In the end, after the sky had grown peaceful once again, the Moon Demon and the eight Stellar Keys had all disappeared. They had all entered that bowl-sized spirit formation.

Even though the Moon Demon had been successfully subdued, Chu Feng did not stop at that. Instead, he did as the Moon Immortal had instructed, and split the Moon Demon's sealed power into two. Then, he sent those two halves of its power to the Fire Pearl and Ice Pearl.

Such a spirit formation was very easy to make for a world spiritist like Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng was worried that the Fire and Ice Pearl would go out of control again. Thus, he was very cautious when he instilled the Moon Demon's power into them. Fortunately, neither the Fire nor the Ice Pearl had any abnormal reactions. Likely, the Moon Immortal was controlling the Fire and Ice Pearls.

In the end, Chu Feng successfully instilled the power of the Moon Demon into the Fire and Ice Pearls.

“Wuuu~~~”

The very next moment after Chu Feng succeeded, Su Rou and Su Mei's expressions abruptly changed.

Seeing that, Chu Feng immediately became nervous, and asked, “Lil Rou, Lil Mei, are you two okay?”

“We're fine. We were just a bit dizzy. Apart from that, we're completely fine,” Su Mei said with a beaming smile.

“Chu Feng, don't worry about it. The Moon Immortal said that she is currently absorbing the strength of the Moon Demon so that she can have the Moon Demon disappear completely. Then, she will keep her promise and hand the complete ownership of the Fire and Ice Pearls to the two of us.”

“However, during that period of time, we will have to sleep for some time. When we wake up, everything will be done,” Su Rou said.

“You two are really fine?” Chu Feng was still worried. After all, this was no small matter. He had instilled the extremely dangerous Moon Demon into his lovers’ bodies.

Even though the Moon Immortal was contained within their bodies, it remained that the Moon Demon was an incomparably frightening existence.

“We are really fine. Don’t worry about us,” Su Rou narrowed her eyes. Then, she used her fair-skinned hand to gently caress Chu Feng’s face. Her movement was extremely gentle. As for Su Mei, she was smiling sweetly at the side.

Sensing Su Rou’s warm and soft hand, as well as Su Mei’s brilliant smile, Chu Feng felt much more at ease.

Sure enough, not long afterward, Su Rou and Su Mei lost consciousness. They had entered a coma-like state.

The Moon Demon had fallen into their hands, and Luan Jie had lost his ability to battle. When the three of them returned to the battlefield again, the Dark Hall would likely be powerless to reverse the situation. This battle was destined to be the Dark Hall’s loss.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

At that moment, rumbles were sounding from that battlefield nonstop. The energy ripples from the many ferocious martial skills were devastating the entire region. Each and every one of those martial skills was capable of causing enormous destruction.

Even though Chu Feng had left, a figure had caused the crowd to be taken greatly aback.

That person was Wang Qiang.

Every since Wang Qiang appeared, he had declared himself to be Emperor Chi's successor.

The crowd had all rolled their eyes at him and insulted him for being shameless. However now, he had finally revealed his strength to them.

It turned out that he was not only a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, but also a rank six Martial Emperor.

Although Chu Feng was capable of killing rank six Martial Emperors through the use of his various abilities, his actual cultivation was only that of a rank two Martial Emperor.

However, Wang Qiang's cultivation of rank six Martial Emperor was his actual cultivation. Inevitably, the crowd were astonished by his strength.

"Wayayaya, a b-b-b-bunch of l-l-l-little trash, w-w-w-w-watch as your gr-gr-gr-granddaddy ta-ta-takes care of you all," Wang Qiang brandished the weapon in his hand and attacked nonstop. His every blade strike was incomparably ruthless.

"Never would I have imagined that Wang Qiang was this powerful. If Chu Feng is the fully deserving number one member of the younger generation in the Holy Land of Martialism, then this Wang Qiang is definitely the fully deserving number two member of the Holy Land of Martialism's younger generation."

"My, that is truly the case. Not only is he a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, his martial cultivation is actually also so powerful. Although his battle power is not as frighteningly heaven-defying as Chu Feng's, it remains that he is an actual rank six Martial Emperor."

"For me to have insulted him earlier, I have truly failed to recognize Mount Tai."

When Wang Qiang revealed himself to be a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist earlier, many people had a whole new level of respect for Wang Qiang.

And now, the crowd's treatment of Wang Qiang had changed completely. Even though the person that they admired the most in their hearts was still Chu Feng, Wang Qiang had become the member of the younger generation with the highest standing in their hearts besides Chu Feng.

Merely, they did not know that the Ancient Era's Elves' Little Princess Xian Miaomiao possessed a heaven-defying battle power on par with Chu Feng.

“Merely, since he's Emperor Chi's successor, why is his weapon a cleaver?”

Although their hearts were filled with admiration for Wang Qiang, there were also people that were confused. The reason for that was because Wang Qiang's weapon was truly too strange. It was a rusty cleaver.

That's right, the shape of Wang Qiang's weapon was precisely that of a kitchen cleaver, the sort of thing that people used for cooking.

However, Wang Qiang's cleaver was most definitely no ordinary cleaver. It emitted a very intense Emperor's might. That cleaver was an actual Imperial Armament.

Merely, who was Emperor Chi? He was the first person to become an Overlord after the Ancient Era.

Even though the person publicly recognized to be the strongest among the Five Emperors, the five overlords, was Emperor Qing, in terms of seniority, Emperor Chi would be the true head of the Five Emperors.

How could such a powerful existence use a cleaver as his Imperial Armament?

“But, exactly what sort of weapon did Emperor Chi use?”

Someone asked.

“This!!!” The crowd were unable to answer that question. The era where Emperor Chi existed was truly too distant. There were a lot of legends regarding him. However, no one was able to determine whether they were true or false.

Even his legendary Imperial Armament possessed several tens of different appearances according to the different sorts of legends. Thus, no one was able to determine exactly what sort of Imperial Armament Emperor Chi used.

As such, no one could declare that Emperor Chi's Imperial Armament was not a cleaver.

Technically, it is a chinese chef knife. Same appearance as a cleaver, just much thinner. The most versatile cooking utensil for chinese people.

Chapter 1991 – Killing Your Son

Regardless, at that moment, the crowd had already determined Wang Qiang to be Emperor Chi's successor.

There was no need for Wang Qiang to take out any proof. Merely his strength was sufficient to make the crowd believe him to be Emperor Chi's successor.

After Chu Feng left, at least half of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were killed by Wang Qiang. As for the people from the Dark Hall that died by his hands, they were simply too many to count.

Wang Qiang had actually contributed greatly to helping the Ancient Era's Elves obtain superiority in this battle.

"Old P-P-Pervert W-W-World Devastator, j-j-j-just you wait. Once y-y-y-your gran-gran-granddaddy mast-mast-ers his d-d-divine attack, I'll t-t-turn you into a me-meat bun."

"Bu-But, res-rest assured, I am n-n-n-not planning to eat you. I'm ju-ju-just going to feed you t-t-to the dogs," Not only was Wang Qiang killing the Dark Hall's army, he was also publicly insulting the World Devastator Immortal.

"Damned stuttering brat, I'll make you shut up!" The World Devastator Immortal was deeply enraged by Wang Qiang. Wang Qiang had been insulting him nonstop ever since Chu Feng had left. His heart and mind were both distracted by Wang Qiang's insults. After all, Wang Qiang was quite excellent with his insults.

"Old Pervert W-W-World D-D-Devastator, do you kn-kn-know why I won't ea-ea-eat you? It's be-be-because your gr-gr-granddaddy is a ma-ma-macho man wh-who d-doesn't eat eunuchs. Hehe," As if he couldn't hear the World Devastator Immortal's threats, Wang Qiang continued to insult him.

Wang Qiang's insults caused the World Devastator Immortal's complexion to turn red with anger. He gnashed his teeth and wanted to bite Wang Qiang, that stutterer, to death.

“World Devastator, even Emperor Chi’s successor has come to assist us. It would appear that your defeat is inevitable,” Lord Luokong said with a smile on his face.

“What a joke. Luokong, have you gone senile? Do not forget the true purpose that we have come here for. It is that Moon Demon.”

“As long as the Moon Demon enters our grasp, how could you all possibly have any hope of victory?” The World Devastator Immortal disapproved of what Lord Luokong had said. Even though they had entered a state of absolute disadvantage, even though the people from the Dark Hall were being killed nonstop, the World Devastator Immortal was still confident.

“Don’t forget that little friend Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal have gone after Luan Jie. Are you that certain that your son will be able to control the Moon Demon?” Lord Luokong asked.

“What? Chu Feng? You said Chu Feng? Hahahaha!!!” After hearing what Lord Luokong said, the World Devastator Immortal burst into loud and frantic laughter.

As he possessed a very eccentric voice to begin with, everyone noticed his laughter. Even though they were still fighting, the crowd still turned their focus toward the World Devastator Immortal.

The World Devastator Immortal continued to laugh for some time. Then, he said, “That trash Chu Feng? I know exactly how strong he is. He is only capable of being trampled underneath my foot. Him, against my son? He is also only capable of being trampled underneath my son’s foot.”

“As for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and that Elf Protector of yours, they are only on par with Chu Feng. Even if they join hands, they are still nowhere near my son.”

“Is that so?” Right after the World Devastator Immortal’s voice landed, a voice sounded explosively from afar.

It was Chu Feng. When Chu Feng appeared, everyone turned their gazes toward him. Upon seeing him, the crowd all revealed astonished expressions.

Chu Feng, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Elf Protector were all completely unscathed.

Not only that, there was also a giant net in Chu Feng’s hand. Contained within that net was a spirit body. As for that spirit body, it was none other than the World Devastator Immortal’s son, Luan Jie.

Upon seeing the World Devastator Immortal, Luan Jie reacted as if he had seen his savior. He immediately shouted, “Father, save me!!!”

“!!!” Suddenly the World Devastator Immortal’s complexion turned ashen. In fact... he was so stunned that he became speechless.

Irony. What an irony this was. Earlier, he had bragged of how amazing his son was, and how Chu Feng, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Elf Protector combined would not be a match for his son.

Yet, what was this now? The son that he had believed to be so amazing had actually been imprisoned. Furthermore, even his corporeal body had been destroyed. All that remained of him was his soul, his spirit body.

Like an animal, he had been captured by Chu Feng within a net that was held in his hand.

“Damn it!!!!!!!!!!!!!!” At that moment, the World Devastator Immortal was both shocked and enraged. He was shocked that his son had been defeated. He was enraged that his son had shamed him by losing.

However, even with this being the case, it remained that Luan Jie was his treasured son. For the sake of nurturing the growth of that son, he had exhausted a great amount of meticulous care and effort. He would absolutely not allow his son to die just like that.

Thus, the World Devastator Immortal pointed at Chu Feng and shouted, "Release my son! Else, I'll dismember your body into ten thousand pieces!"

The World Devastator Immortal was an extremely awe-inspiring individual. He was ranked second among the Holy Land of Martialism's Ten Immortals. Anyone who heard those sorts of words coming out of his mouth would be frightened. In fact, they might even be scared to death.

However, when those words entered Chu Feng's ears, Chu Feng started to laugh. Then, he asked, "What makes you think that you're qualified to say those words to me?"

"Enough of your nonsense! I said, release my son! Are you deaf or what?!" The World Devastator Immortal shouted again.

At that moment, he was truly furious. When he first saw his son in such a state, he had immediately unleashed an extremely frightening power to break away from Lord Luokong and rescue his son.

However, Lord Luokong had refused to give him the opportunity to do so. Thus, this vexed him enormously.

"World Devastator, do you still remember how you treated me that day?" Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Chu Feng, what are you planning to do?" Hearing those words, the World Devastator Immortal's mind tensed up. He would naturally not forget the humiliation that he gave Chu Feng that day.

It was precisely because he had humiliated Chu Feng like that that day that he was scared right now. After all, his own son was now in Chu Feng's hands.

Chu Feng did not immediately answer him. Instead, he reached into the net and grabbed Luan Jie's neck. Like grabbing a chicken's neck, he pulled Luan Jie out of the net.

Then, with a beaming smile on his face, he said to the World Devastator Immortal, "The only reason why I kept him alive till now is so that you could personally see how your son dies."

After Chu Feng said those words, a flash of ruthlessness shone through Chu Feng's narrowed eyes. Then, his hand tightened. "Bang!" Luan Jie's soul was destroyed before the crowd.

"Nooo!!!!!"

Seeing his son being killed before him, the World Devastator Immortal let out an incomparably painful roar.

However, Chu Feng did not have the slightest bit of sympathy toward such a World Devastator Immortal.

What Chu Feng could not tolerate the most was being humiliated by others. That World Devastator had relied on the fact that he had cultivated for a very long time, and his martial cultivation was very strong, to humiliate Chu Feng. As such, how could Chu Feng possibly tolerate that humiliation? After all, a warrior could be killed, but not humiliated.

Thus, ever since Chu Feng had survived the hands of the World Devastator Immortal, he swore that he would return the suffering that the World Devastator Immortal had inflicted on him two-fold.

As for the World Devastator Immortal's son, he was exactly like his father. He had relied on the fact that his cultivation was stronger than Chu Feng's to look down on him.

However, this was the consequence. The World Devastator Immortal's son, Luan Jie, could only die by Chu Feng's hands.

Furthermore, Chu Feng had killed him right in front of his father.

Luan Jie had become the means for Chu Feng's revenge against the World Devastator Immortal.

Chapter 1992 – The End Of The Battle

Overwhelmed with pain, the World Devastator Immortal roared, “Chu Feng, I really should have killed you then, you little bastard!!!!” His killing intent was overflowing, and caused even the sky to turn pitch-black. Black clouds surged in the skies like countless savage demons gathered in one place.

His killing intent was truly terrifying.

At that moment, many people felt their hair stand on end. They were feeling very uneasy.

However, Chu Feng did not show the slightest bit of fear. With a smile still on his face, he said, “Back then, you wanted to kill me. Merely, you didn’t dare to do so.”

What Chu Feng said was the truth. Back then, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had personally given the order telling the World Devastator Immortal that he was not allowed to kill Chu Feng.

Even though the World Devastator Immortal was very strong, he did not have the courage to go against the orders of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“I will definitely kill you! I will definitely kill you!!!”

The World Devastator Immortal roared once more. He truly regretted that he had not killed Chu Feng. If he knew this sort of thing would happen, he would have killed Chu Feng without the slightest bit of hesitation.

Merely, he also knew that there was no way for him to repeat the past. Even if he regretted his decision, there was nothing he could do about it.

“Ahhhh!!!!!!!!!!!!!!” Overwhelmed with incomparable anger, the World Devastator Immortal turned his face to the sky and shouted.

This time around, an even stronger power surged from his body.

In this sort of situation, Lord Luokong did not dare to lower his guard. He closely guarded where Chu Feng stood in fear that the World Devastator Immortal would attack Chu Feng.

“Woosh~~~”

Sure enough, after snarling at the sky, the World Devastator Immortal unleashed an extremely frightening explosive power. This was the most frightening power that the World Devastator Immortal had unleashed since fighting against Lord Luokong.

He had placed all of his power into his speed.

Merely, he did not fly toward Chu Feng. Instead, he flew in the opposite direction from Chu Feng.

The World Devastator Immortal was actually escaping. After his son was killed, he knew that he was destined to be defeated. Thus, in the end, he chose to escape.

“Chu Feng, remember this! I will absolutely not let you get away with this! Not only you, but all of your relatives, all of your acquaintances, I will kill every single one of them! I will make you regret your actions today for the rest of your life!”

While the World Devastator Immortal had escaped, he had left threatening words. Everyone was able to tell that those words of his didn't seem to be said jokingly.

“You won't escape!” Lord Luokong shouted angrily. He started to chase after the World Devastator Immortal. He was not willing to give the World Devastator Immortal the chance to escape.

Unfortunately, of all the Ancient Era's Elves present, only Lord Luokong chased after the World Devastator Immortal. After all, only Lord Luokong possessed the strength to fight against the World Devastator Immortal.

Hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd from the Dark Hall started to shiver. They were not afraid when Lord Luokong spoke those sorts of words toward them before. However, when Chu Feng said those words now, they were afraid. The reason for that was because they knew that a great catastrophe was about to befall them.

Unfortunately, Chu Feng would not spare them just because they were afraid. Holding the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in his hand, Chu Feng began to ruthlessly massacre the people from the Dark Hall.

Chu Feng loathed the people from the Dark Hall enormously. He did not understand why these experts would be willing to serve the Dark Hall. However, he knew that these people that were willing to serve the Dark Hall were people that were willing to harm the innocent. As such, they absolutely could not be spared.

After some time, the people from the Dark Hall and the remaining Ancient Era's ferocious beasts that were with him were all massacred by Chu Feng and the others.

Finally, those malicious individuals from the Dark Hall paid for their actions with blood.

Not long after everyone from the Dark Hall was eliminated, Lord Luokong returned. From his appearance, it could be seen that he had not managed to successfully catch up to the World Devastator Immortal.

In other words, Lord Luokong had not dared to chase after the World Devastator Immortal too far. After all, the Dark Hall possessed an unfathomable strength. If he were to chase too far, he would be worried about the situation on this side. Thus, he had no choice but to give up on chasing after the World Devastator Immortal.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this is all thanks to your prompt arrival. Else, with the situation here today, it would not only have been a disaster. Rather, we would all have been killed.”

“Thus, little friend Chu Feng, please accept this old man’s salute,” After Lord Luokong returned, he led the Ancient Era’s Elves and bowed to Chu Feng.

“Lord Luokong, quickly stand up. We are allies. There is no need for you to be this courteous.”

“Furthermore, with your seniority, this junior is truly unable to bear you acting in such a way,” Chu Feng hurriedly lent Lord Luokong an arm to help him back up.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this old man also understands that. Merely, if I do not do this, I will feel uneasy in my heart,” Lord Luokong said with a smile.

He had always been an individual that was high and above everyone else. When had he ever bowed this respectfully to someone? Even to His Majesty the Elf King, he would not have to bow due to his seniority. As such, there was no need to mention a member of the younger generation. Yet today, he had bowed to Chu Feng. Furthermore, he had done so in a very undisturbed manner. In fact, he felt better after bowing to Chu Feng.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng smiled. There was nothing he could say. After all, he knew that he had indeed indirectly saved the lives of everyone here. Thus, Lord Luokong and the others were grateful to him, and wanted to use this sort of method to express their thanks, as only by doing this would they feel more comfortable.

Seeing how the Ancient Era’s Elves’ Lord Luokong had actually led the other Ancient Era’s Elves to bow respectfully to Chu Feng, Snow Blade Mad Demon and the other experts were shocked. At the same time, they were feeling even more uncomfortable.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had not lied to them. He had really formed an alliance with the Ancient Era’s Elves. Else, as one of the Ancient Era's Elves' Four Grand Elders, how could Lord Luokong possibly bow to Chu Feng like this?

Yet, they had actually been skeptical of Chu Feng's claims earlier. As such, they truly felt ashamed of themselves.

Suddenly, an old man stepped forth and spoke. "Little friend Chu Feng, if you don't mind, I would like to become a nominal elder of the Cyanwood Mountain," This old man was wearing black clothes, and possessed the same level of cultivation as the Snow Blade Mad Demon. He was a rank six Martial Emperor.

He was also one of the many people that had been skeptical of Chu Feng. However, Chu Feng had saved him. Thus, he was feeling ashamed in his heart, and wanted to use this sort of method to reciprocate with Chu Feng.

"If senior is willing, our Cyanwood Mountain will absolutely welcome you," Chu Feng said.

"Little friend Chu Feng, I also wish to become a nominal elder of the Cyanwood Mountain," Following him, all the people that did not belong to any sect or school began to ask if they could also become nominal elders of the Cyanwood Mountain.

As for Chu Feng, he accepted all of their requests. Firstly, the weakest among them were Martial Emperors. Should they join the Cyanwood Mountain, each and every one of them would be able to increase the overall strength of the Cyanwood Mountain.

Next and most importantly, all of these people were people that had fought with Chu Feng. They were people who had killed members of the Dark Hall together with Chu Feng. As such, Chu Feng trusted them.

In the end, the Snow Blade Mad Demon stood forward and said, "Little friend Chu Feng, as this old man has killed that elder of the Heavenly Law Palace, I will not be joining the Cyanwood Mountain."

“However, if little friend Chu Feng needs my assistance in the future, I am available at any time. Remember, little friend Chu Feng, your enemies are also this Snow Blade Mad Demon’s enemies.”

“As long as this old man is still alive, I will absolutely not let anyone make things difficult for you, little friend Chu Feng.”

“Seniors, those words of yours are sufficient for me,” Chu Feng said with a smile. Even though the Snow Blade Mad Demon had questioned him before, he had discovered that the Snow Blade Mad Demon was a hot-tempered and honest man. As such, Chu Feng possessed an excellent impression of the Snow Blade Mad Demon.

Chapter 1993 – Telling The Truth

The battle in the Moonlight Maze ended with the Dark Hall's crushing defeat. Everyone present knew that the crucial person that had turned the battle around was not the Ancient Era's Elves' Lord Luokong, Rather, it was Chu Feng.

Even though this battle had ended in Chu Feng's victory, the Ancient Era's Elves did not dare to relax. They immediately returned to the Elf Kingdom. After all, the Dark Hall could be said to be completely at war against the Ancient Era's Elves right now.

Thus, the Ancient Era's Elves had to return as quickly as possible. Likely, they would have no time to rest after their return. Instead, they would have to battle against the Dark Hall again.

However, the Ancient Era's Elves were not the first to leave. The first one to leave was Wang Qiang. Wang Qiang had slipped away without anyone noticing. He did not even bother to bid farewell to anyone.

After the Ancient Era's Elves left, the various human and monstrous beast experts also began to leave in succession. Those that were planning to join the Cyanwood Mountain left directly for the Cyanwood Mountain. As for the others, they too left this dangerous location as quickly as possible.

After this event, they had experienced how powerful the Dark Hall was. They were also afraid that reinforcements from the Dark Hall would arrive. As such, they decided to leave the Moonlight Maze as quickly as possible.

Just as the crowd were all leaving, a somewhat timid voice sounded. "Y-Young hero Chu Feng."

Turning toward the source of the voice, Chu Feng discovered that it was a Ximen Imperial Clan's Utmost Exalted Elder. It was not only him; there were also Utmost Exalted Elders from the Nangong Imperial Clan, the Beitang Imperial Clan and the Dongfang Imperial Clan.

Originally, they had come to the Moonlight Maze to search for treasures while representing their respective Imperial Clans. Like the others, they had failed to obtain any treasures, and nearly died in the area with the Immortality Peach Tree. They had been saved by Chu Feng, and then later accompanied the crowd to this place to fight against the people from the Dark Hall.

Originally, it was only natural for them to do these things, as they were grateful after being saved by Chu Feng. After the battle was over, they should be happy.

However, at that moment, other than the Nangong Imperial Clan's Utmost Exalted Elder, the Utmost Exalted Elders from the other three Imperial Clans all possessed somewhat of an abnormal expression on their faces. To put it simply, they were scared.

The reason for that was because they had experienced for themselves how powerful Chu Feng was today.

Back then, they had been high and above, and had not placed Chu Feng in their eyes. They felt that they were capable of drowning Chu Feng, a nobody, with only a mouthful of spit.

However, looking back now, they discovered how foolish they had been before. With Chu Feng's current strength, he was already someone who could completely erase their Four Great Imperial Clans by himself. They would be lying if they declared that they were not afraid of Chu Feng. They were truly afraid that Chu Feng would retaliate against them.

Chu Feng knew what these Utmost Exalted Elders were thinking. Thus, he smiled and said, "Seniors, there's no need to mention things from the past again. Right now, we only have a single enemy, the Dark Hall. As for us, we are allies."

The Nangong Imperial Clan's Utmost Exalted Elder said, "Little friend Chu Feng is truly a great person of great stature. Back then, this old man was truly blind and narrow-minded. I..." he sighed, "I am truly ashamed." He revealed an ashamed expression on his face.

The other three Great Imperial Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders revealed the same sort of expression. They had merely reconciled with Chu Feng before because they had been forced to by Nangong Longjian. As such, they did not feel that they had wronged Chu Feng.

But now, Chu Feng clearly possessed the strength to erase their entire clans. Yet, Chu Feng was standing before them in such a calm manner. Not only was he not hostile toward them, he instead treated them as his allies.

Chu Feng's actions had won them over completely. As such, they were unable to help themselves from feeling ashamed of their previous actions.

"Seniors, you all should return quickly. The Dark Hall is vicious and merciless. I think it is best for you all to be on guard against them," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Thank you, little friend Chu Feng, for your warning. In that case, we will take our leave," After hearing what Chu Feng said, the Utmost Exalted Elders came to a sudden realization.

Today, they had gone against the Dark Hall. If the Dark Hall was unwilling to let things go, they would most likely attack them. As such, they had to be on guard against the Dark Hall's attack. At least, they had to make sure that their clansmen were safe.

As the Dark Hall was powerful enough to contend against the Ancient Era's Elves, it would absolutely not be a small matter should they attack them. Thus, they needed to immediately return to their respective Imperial Clans first.

only Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal remained.

“Chu Feng, you are truly a person of great stature. With how broad-minded you are, this old man has truly not misjudged you.”

“Merely, even with this being the case, the speed of your growth still has me taken aback,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal walked toward Chu Feng with a smile on his face.

“Senior, you are flattering me. This junior is even blushing now,” Chu Feng pretended to be embarrassed and covered his face. As Chu Feng was an old acquaintance of the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Chu Feng did not act reserved toward him.

“Oh, you. You’re clearly one of the peak experts of the Holy Land of Martialism. Yet, you’re still acting this haughty? If those girls who worship you were to hear of this, I truly do not know how they would react,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal laughed.

He began to recall the first time he met Chu Feng. At that time, Chu Feng had been so small and weak. Countless people in the Holy Land of Martialism would have been able to kill him.

However, Chu Feng had now not only become a grand character known by everyone in the Holy Land of Martialism, he also possessed the strength of a peak expert.

From Chu Feng’s techniques earlier, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal knew that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques had already surpassed his own. With Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques, it would not be impossible for Chu Feng to refine an Imperial Armament.

As for martial cultivation, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal knew that Chu Feng would soon surpass him.

This era was an era with countless geniuses rising from the younger generation. If an overlord were to truly emerge from among them, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal felt that it would definitely be Chu Feng.

Suddenly, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal's expression turned unnatural. "Chu Feng, there is one matter that I wish to ask you about. It is merely a casual question of mine. You do not have to overthink it."

"Senior, might you be wanting to ask about Baili Xinghe's death?" Chu Feng managed to guess what the Weaponry Refinement Immortal wanted to ask from his expression.

"Precisely," The Weaponry Refinement Immortal hesitated for a moment before nodding. He asked, "Did you kill him?" When he asked that question, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal's eyes were fixed onto Chu Feng's the entire time. Even though he did not have any hostility in his eyes, he longed for the truth.

At that moment, Chu Feng's heart felt extremely complicated. In the end, he decided to not conceal anything, and to tell the Weaponry Refinement Immortal the truth. "Baili Xinghe was not killed by me. However, his death is related to me. Senior, I..."

Chu Feng wanted to apologize. Even though he did not feel that causing Baili Xinghe's death was wrong, he still felt guilt toward the Weaponry Refinement Immortal. Chu Feng was able to tell that the Weaponry Refinement Immortal possessed a very deep affection for his disciple Baili Xinghe.

"Chu Feng, thank you. This old man feels very relieved that you were able to tell me the truth."

"However, you absolutely must not apologize," Before Chu Feng could apologize, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal interrupted him. He continued, "I actually knew very well what sort of character that disciple of mine had. He was fond of Zi Ling and Su Rou, and had bothered them repeatedly, only to be rejected in the end. From these repeated rejections, he started to detest you. I knew about all that."

"Thus, even if his death is related to you, I know that it was definitely not your fault."

“That’s true. Thus, I have gotten over it, and decided to not avenge his death,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng knew that the Weaponry Refinement Immortal possessed the desire to avenge Baili Xinghe. However, he was struggling in his heart. As for Chu Feng, he did not know what to tell the Weaponry Refinement Immortal.

Chu Feng actually did not wish for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal to avenge scum like Baili Xinghe. This was especially true because the Weaponry Refinement Immortal would have to kill Leng Yue to avenge Baili Xinghe. As for Leng Yue, she was the number one disciple of the Heavenly Law Palace. The Heavenly Law Palace was nurturing her as if she would be their future pillar. As such, if the Weaponry Refinement Immortal were to kill Leng Yue, the Heavenly Law Palace would definitely not leave the matter at that.

Truly, the gains would not make up for the losses.

Chapter 1994 – Physical Bodies Seized

“Wuuu~~~”

Right at that moment, Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies shivered. Simultaneously, the two of them let out a light groan.

Upon seeing that, both Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal revealed worried expressions, and hurriedly stepped forward to check on Su Rou and Su Mei.

After carefully inspecting Su Rou and Su Mei, and discovering that both of them were fine, Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal heaved a sigh of relief.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked, “Senior, where is Zi Ling right now?”

Su Rou and Su Mei were still unconscious. Thus, even though Chu Feng was not very worried, he was still worried. However, apart from the two of them, Chu Feng was also equally concerned about Zi Ling.

Actually, compared to Su Rou and Su Mei, Chu Feng’s feelings for Zi Ling were actually a bit deeper. After all, Chu Feng and Zi Ling had experienced more things together.

Merely, after leaving the Nine Provinces Continent, due to various reasons, Chu Feng had not accompanied Zi Ling for much time. As such, his guilt toward Zi Ling became even deeper.

“Zi Ling was taken away by that great sir. Beside him, Zi Ling should be absolutely safe. Thus, Chu Feng, you do not have to worry about Zi Ling,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said to Chu Feng.

“Taken away?” Chu Feng was startled. He asked, “Why was she taken away?”

“He didn’t say. He only said that it was a good thing,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said. Seemingly worried that Chu Feng would be worried, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal added, “Rest assured, the way I see it, that great sir’s strength is not inferior to the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal. Thus, it is very safe for Zi Ling to be with him. You do not have to worry about her.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng was startled.

The Elf King was an extremely powerful individual. Chu Feng had felt that he should be the fully-deserving number one expert in the Holy Land of Martialism.

Yet now, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal had actually compared that senior, as well as the number one Immortal of the Ten Immortals, the Heaven Reaching Immortal, to the Elf King.

Could it be that the Holy Land of Martialism really did possess existences on par with the Elf King? In other words, they were peak Martial Emperors, existences infinitely close to Half Martial Ancestors.

“Could it be that the Elf King is not the only peak Martial Emperor in the Holy Land of Martialism?” Chu Feng asked.

During the time when he was with Xian Miaomiao, he came to know the Elf King’s cultivation. He was a rank nine Martial Emperor, a peak Martial Emperor.

If that Heaven Reaching Immortal and that mysterious blind old man possessed the same cultivation as the Elf King, it would mean that they were also rank nine Martial Emperors.

“As far as I know, the Heaven Reaching Immortal is indeed a peak Martial Emperor. As for that great sir, truth be told, I do not know what his cultivation is,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

However, I do not know much about him. In fact, I do not even know his name,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal shook his head with a wry smile.

“That senior is truly mysterious. However, never would I have expected the Heaven Reaching Immortal to also be that powerful, to have strength that is actually on par with the Elf King.”

Chu Feng was shocked by the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s cultivation. Originally, he had thought that the Heaven Reaching Immortal was a rank eight Martial Emperor like the World Devastator Immortal. To his surprise, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was actually a peak Martial Emperor.

“The Heaven Reaching Immortal has been a renowned expert since the time of Emperor Qing. Merely, he is not someone who fights for fame and personal profit. As for his strength, he is extremely powerful,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“In that case, how is the character of the Heaven Reaching Immortal? Would he end up joining the Dark Hall too?” Chu Feng asked worriedly.

The strength which the Dark Hall had revealed right now was truly too frightening. They already possessed many experts who had joined them. As such, Chu Feng was truly afraid that the Heaven Reaching Immortal would also join the Dark Hall.

After all, hearing what the Weaponry Refinement Immortal said, the Heaven Reaching Immortal should be over ten thousand years old. As a human, living for that long was already inconceivable. Likely, he was near the limit of his lifespan.

As the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was from the Outer World, he knew a lot of things that the people in the Holy Land of Martialism did not. Thus, if he were to declare that he possessed a method to extend one’s lifespan, the Heaven Reaching Immortal might also end up serving the Dark Hall.

“Regarding that, you can rest assured. The Heaven Reaching Immortal will not serve anyone,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said with certainty.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, the unconscious Su Rou and Su Mei suddenly opened their eyes and stood up.

“Lil Rou, Lil Mei, you’ve woken up?” Seeing that his lovers had regained consciousness, Chu Feng was overjoyed. He hurriedly walked toward them and hugged them.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng’s eyes suddenly shrank back. His expression took a huge change. Then, he abruptly pushed Su Rou and Su Mei aside. Then, with a stern voice, he shouted, “Who are you?”

“Mn?” Seeing Chu Feng asking who Su Rou and Su Mei were, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was startled. He hurriedly walked over to them and discovered that it was truly Su Rou and Su Mei who stood beside Chu Feng.

Thus, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal asked Chu Feng in a very confused manner, “Chu Feng, what’s wrong? Aren’t they Lil Rou and Lil Mei?”

“No, they’re not,” Chu Feng shook his head. Then, he shouted with a stern voice again, “Who exactly are you? Quickly, speak!”

At that moment, Chu Feng was panicking. Su Rou and Su Mei’s physical appearance remained the same. However, he was able to determine that something was wrong with them with a single glance. Even though he was clearly standing before Su Rou and Su Mei, he felt that they were incomparably distant from him.

“You are called Chu Feng, right?” Suddenly, Su Rou and Su Mei uttered the same voice from their mouths at the same time. Not only were their sentences exactly the same, even their voices were exactly the same.

“Who are you?” Hearing those words, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was deeply alarmed. He also realized that it was not the actual Su Rou and Su Mei before them.

“Apologies. I will have to borrow your lovers’ bodies for a while,” Su Rou and Su Mei said.

Right after the two of them said those words, they soared into the sky and turned into a gale that rapidly flew away.

“Stop!!!”

Seeing that, Chu Feng started to thoroughly panic. He did not dare to hesitate, and immediately unleashed all of his strength to chase after Su Rou and Su Mei.

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal also chased after them.

It was very clear that Su Rou and Su Mei’s physical bodies had been seized. It was uncertain whether their souls were still alive or dead.

“Stop! Are you the Moon Immortal?!”

“You have deceived me! You clearly said that you would bestow your powers to them. Yet, you decided to seize their bodies. I have trusted you in vain!” Chu Feng shouted with incomparable anger.

Chu Feng knew that it should either be the Moon Immortal or the Moon Demon who had seized Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies. Furthermore, based on their reaction, it was very likely to be the Moon Immortal. The reason for that was because the voice that Su Rou and Su Mei had spoken with was exactly the same as the Moon Immortal’s voice Chu Feng had heard in his dreams.

“You do not have to continue to chase after me. I said that I will only borrow their bodies for a while. The two of them are still alive. After I finish what I want to do, I will return them to you,”

That person said.

After leaving those words, that person began to accelerate. As Su Rou's and Su Mei's dresses fluttered in the wind, they disappeared from Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal's line of sight. Their speed was simply speechlessly fast.

“No, no, nooooooooo!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

After Su Rou and Su Mei disappeared, Chu Feng started to roar frantically. Without slowing down in the slightest, he continued to chase after them. Unfortunately, no matter how frantically he chased after them, he was unable to catch sight of Su Rou and Su Mei's silhouettes.

“Chu Feng, don't chase anymore. Our opponent is too strong. They're at the very least a peak Martial Emperor. We are not able to catch up to them,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal urged.

“No, no, I cannot abandon Lil Rou and Lil Mei, I cannot!!!” Chu Feng did not slow down in the slightest.

Soon, they flew out of the Moonlight Maze. However, he was still unable to catch sight of Su Rou and Su Mei. Chu Feng began to fly aimlessly. His eyes were blood red. He was simply on the verge of being driven mad.

Seeing that, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal grabbed Chu Feng and forcibly stopped him. He said, “Chu Feng, calm yourself. This won't do. You will not be able to catch up to them.”

“The way I see it, the Moon Immortal should not have any malicious intentions in seizing Lil Rou and Lil Mei's bodies. Else, with her strength, she would be totally capable of killing us. There would be no need for her to bother explaining her intentions to you,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal urged. Chu Feng's current state of mind was truly too much of a mess.

In the Weaponry Refinement Immortal's impression, Chu Feng was someone that would not be scared, no matter how enormous the incoming wave was. Even if the heavens were to collapse, he would still be able to confront it with calmness.

However, the current Chu Feng was not only panicking, he even appeared to be nearly driven mad. If this were to continue, he did not know what sort of thing Chu Feng would end up doing.

Chapter 1995 – The Public’s Will

After being advised by the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Chu Feng did not continue chasing after Su Rou and Su Mei. However, at the same time, he had also not said anything.

Chu Feng’s current frame of mind was extremely unstable. After all, they were his beloved women, Su Rou and Su Mei.

Most importantly, he was the one who had personally instilled that Moon Demon into Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies. Thus, Chu Feng blamed himself enormously. He felt that he was the one who had brought this upon Su Rou and Su Mei.

Due to the fact that Chu Feng had rushed out, he had not conceal himself within the void. Furthermore, as they were outside of the Moonlight Maze, the two of them were noticed by countless individuals. At that moment, the bystanders were spiritedly discussing the two of them. In fact, there were even people that were waving to them with smiles on their faces. Those were people that were trying to worm their way into befriending Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal.

After all, regardless of whether it was the Weaponry Refinement Immortal or Chu Feng, they were both truly grand individuals in the Holy Land of Martialism.

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal was urging Chu Feng to leave not because he was afraid of the bystanders. Rather, it was because he was worried for Chu Feng.

He had never seen Chu Feng’s mind this unstable, and did not know what sort of effect this would have. Thus, in order to prevent against anything unexpected happening, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal felt that it was better to distance themselves from places with a lot of people.

“Chu Feng, I’ve finally found you.”

Right at that moment, an angry, thunder-like shout exploded from within the crowd.

Following that, a group of people majestically walked through the crowd and arrived before Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal. They had actually surrounded Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal.

They were people from the Heavenly Law Palace. A portion of them were people that Chu Feng was familiar with. They were people that had entered the Moonlight Maze together with Chu Feng and the others.

However, there was also a portion of people that Chu Feng had never met before. They were most likely reinforcements from the Heavenly Law Palace. The reason for that was because the person leading them right now was a black-faced old man with long sideburns.

That old man had a fiendish appearance. Furthermore, his cultivation was that of a rank six Martial Emperor. He was also a Heavenly Law Palace’s management elder. His name was Kuang Kui.

As for this Kuang Kui, he had possessed an exceptionally good relationship with Elder Yue Ling. Rumor had it that the two men started in the Heavenly Law Palace as disciples together. Furthermore, it was said that they were sworn brothers.

Thus, at this moment, Kuang Kui had an extremely furious expression on his face. He seemed to want to stare Chu Feng to death with his furious gaze. Evidently, he had come to know that Elder Yue Ling had been hounded to death, and he had come to cause trouble for Chu Feng.

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal discovered that Kuang

Kui's behavior was abnormal. Thus, he said coldly, "Kuang Kui, I'd urge you to not cause trouble."

Furthermore, he not only spoke with words, he also emitted very strong coldness as he spoke. He had an attitude of attacking the crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace should Kuang Kui continue to tangle with them.

It was not only Chu Feng who was in an extremely bad mood right now. In fact, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was also in an extremely bad mood. After all, Su Rou and Su Mei had stayed in his place for quite some time. As such, he possessed affection for them.

And now, Su Rou and Su Mei's physical bodies had been seized; it was impossible for him to not be worried.

"....."

Upon hearing those words spoken by the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, that Elder Kuang Kui started to frown. However, he did not cower. After all, if he were to cower, he would not only shame himself, he would also shame the Heavenly Law Palace, and would be punished upon his return.

Thus, not only did he brace himself, he even pretended to be powerful as he said to the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, "Weaponry Refinement Immortal, I respect you as an Immortal. However, this matter is between Chu Feng and our Heavenly Law Palace. I hope that you will not interfere."

"Little friend Chu Feng's business is my business," The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said, unyielding.

"You!!!" Elder Kuang Kui did not expect the Weaponry Refinement Immortal to be this stubborn. Evidently, he was planning to stand up for Chu Feng regardless of what the situation might be.

"Weaponry Refinement Immortal, not only did that Chu Feng indirectly cause the death of our Heavenly Law Palace's Elder Zhao Yu, he also hounded our Heavenly Law Palace's Elder Yue Ling to death. Are you certain you wish to interfere in this matter?" Elder Kuang Kui knew that they were no match for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal. Thus, he could only bring up the Heavenly Law Palace to scare the Weaponry Refinement Immortal.

"What? Chu Feng caused the death of Elder Zhao Yu and hounded Elder Yue Ling to death? Aren't those two elders both rank six Martial Emperors? How could their deaths both be related to Chu Feng? Exactly what happened in the Moonlight Maze?" At that moment, the people who didn't know what had happened were all confused.

Right at that moment, a loud shout was heard from the crowd. "Heavenly Law Palace, do not lie through your teeth. Back in the Moonlight Palace, little friend Chu Feng wanted to bring us away the moment he discovered that there were dangers. It was that Elder Yue Ling who insisted on saying that little friend Chu Feng was deceiving us because he coveted the treasures in the Moonlight Palace all for himself. He was the one who insisted that we stay."

"Later on, he swore that if he had wrongly accused Chu Feng, he would publicly kill himself."

"After that, a killing formation appeared in the Moonlight Maze. It was little friend Chu Feng who saved our lives. As for Elder Yue Ling, he found it difficult to go back on his word and committed suicide."

"As for that Zhao Yu, he was overcome by greed for the Moonlight Maze's Immortality Peaches and rendered little friend Chu Feng unconscious with poison. If it were not for the fact that we came promptly, it would likely be little friend Chu Feng who would have encountered mishaps."

"As for Zhao Yu's death, he died from poison from eating over a thousand Immortality Peaches by himself. His death is not related to anyone.”

“Heavenly Law Palace, you all proclaim yourself to be righteous people who uphold the heavenly law, but in the Moonlight Maze, you all performed absolutely no righteous deeds whatsoever.”

“Not only did you all not do anything righteous, you all instead did malicious deeds, and nearly caused the deaths of all the people there. Yet now, you all actually want to frame little friend Chu Feng, who saved us? How much more shameless can you get?!”

Turning toward the source of the voice, the crowd saw that it was not a human who had shouted those words. Rather, it was a lizard-like monstrous beast. Although he only possessed a cultivation of peak Half Martial Emperor, he dared to refute the Heavenly Law Palace. Evidently, he was someone who was in the Moonlight Maze earlier, and experienced what had happened in there.

“You dare frame our Heavenly Law Palace? Lizard Monstrous Race, are you trying to go against our Heavenly Law Palace?!” Elder Kuang Kui narrowed his sword-like eyebrows and shouted angrily.

Once those words were spoken, the sky started to change. The coldness of his aura caused all those below rank six Martial Emperor to shiver. This was especially true for that lizard monstrous beast. At that moment, he was pushed back repeatedly by that oppressive might.

Evidently, this Elder Kuang Kui was planning to use the strength of their Heavenly Law Palace to suppress the crowd. He was planning to forcibly invert right and wrong.

At that moment, that lizard monstrous beast who spoke out against the Heavenly Law Palace earlier started to hesitate. While he was not afraid of death, he could not disregard the fate of his Lizard Monstrous Race.

Suddenly, a thick-browed and large eyed burly man shouted among the crowd. “Facts speak louder than words. What happened in the Moonlight Maze earlier was seen and experienced by countless people. It is not something that your Heavenly Law Palace can forcibly change.”

“Brothers who were saved by little friend Chu Feng in the Moonlight Maze earlier, we all owe little friend Chu Feng our lives! While little friend Chu Feng declared that he would not need us to pay him back, this Heavenly Law Palace is actually trying to invert right and wrong to wrongly accuse little friend Chu Feng. At this sort of time, we should speak out for little friend Chu Feng, no?!”

“If we are afraid of even speaking out for our benefactor, we would be people with no moral integrity at all! As such, it would have been better if we had died in that Moonlight Maze!”

He was also someone who was saved by Chu Feng in the Moonlight Maze. He had questioned Chu Feng’s intentions in the Moonlight Maze. However, Chu Feng did not blame him for that, and instead saved the lives of everyone in the Moonlight Maze.

Afterward, Chu Feng had called for the help of the crowd to fight against the Dark Hall. Due to the fact that he was not strong enough, the large burly man had been unable to join the crowd.

This caused him to feel enormous guilt toward Chu Feng.

And now, the Heavenly Law Palace was actually wrongly accusing Chu Feng. As such, he could not sit by and remain indifferent.

Chapter 1996 – Killing With One Strike

“That’s right. Facts speak louder than words. We have all seen for ourselves what happened in the Moonlight Maze.”

“It is your Heavenly Law Palace that is in the wrong with regards to everything. Yet, not only are you all not planning to apologize to little friend Chu Feng, you actually want to invert right and wrong to frame little friend Chu Feng. Heavenly Law Palace, you all are truly shameless, truly unqualified to proclaim yourself to be a righteous sect that upholds the heavenly law!!!!”

“The Heavenly Law Palace is despicable and shameless, unworthy of being upright. Get the hell out of our Holy Land of Martialism!!!”

.....

All of a sudden, countless people stood forth. Not only were they speaking out for Chu Feng, they also began to insult the Heavenly Law Palace.

This scene completely stunned all those who did not know what happened in the Moonlight Maze. None of them expected Chu Feng to have such enormous crowd-rallying power.

One must know that all those people who spoke for Chu Feng were people that were unrelated to Chu Feng.

Yet now, they actually dared to go against the Heavenly Law Palace for Chu Feng. In fact, they were even insulting the Heavenly Law Palace. This was clearly an attitude of becoming enemies with the Heavenly Law Palace.

“You all!!!”

“You all!!!” Elder Kuang Kui was so enraged that his face turned red. He was gnashing his teeth and his body was shivering.

It was one thing for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal to go against their Heavenly Law Palace. Yet, this trash actually also dared to go against their Heavenly Law Palace. This was extremely humiliating for them.

“All of you, you’re truly courting death here!!!” Sure enough, Elder Kuang Kui was unable to endure the humiliation. After a shout of anger, he suddenly lifted his right hand and spread open his palm. Immediately, a violent gale began to form.

His majestic oppressive might turned into an enormous vortex. As that vortex surged, it covered this region of space. Then, killing intent began to engulf the people who were cursing at their Heavenly Law Palace.

He was not only planning to threaten the crowd. Rather, he was planning to massacre them. He was planning to publicly kill those who dared to go against their Heavenly Law Palace so as to establish their might.

“Zzzzzzz~~~~”

However, right at that moment, a figure suddenly flashed through the sky. Like a phantom, that figure arrived beside Elder Kuang Kui.

It was Chu Feng. Not only did Chu Feng arrive before Elder Kuang Kui, he also possessed a murderous-looking gaze. Without saying a word, he suddenly waved the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in his hand. “Snap!” Blood bubbled out. Elder Kuang Kui had been hacked in two.

Silence... everything became deathly quiet. Even the Weaponry Refinement Immortal stood there in a stunned manner.

Astonished. They were all incomparably astonished. Those who did not know how powerful Chu Feng was simply did not dare to believe what had just happened.

Chu Feng, a member of the younger generation, had actually killed a management elder of the Heavenly Law Palace, a renowned rank six Martial Emperor, with only a single strike.

When ignoring one's cultivation, the crowd also did not expect that Chu Feng would dare to kill a Heavenly Law Palace's management elder before all these people.

“Chu Feng, you are truly bold! You actually dared to kill our Heavenly Law Palace's management elder, you...” Suddenly, a Heavenly Law Palace's elder managed to react to what had just happened. He pointed at Chu Feng and started to curse at Chu Feng.

If he was facing Chu Feng alone, he would absolutely not dare to say those sorts of words to Chu Feng. However, at that moment, they were in front of this many people, and their Heavenly Law Palace was a place that possessed impressive fame and power. Furthermore, it was also Chu Feng who was in the wrong for killing Kuang Kui. As such, he became confident and lashed out at Chu Feng without any fear.

“Puu~~~”

However, before he could finish his speech, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in Chu Feng's hand was waved once again. As a silvery light streaked across the sky, the void itself started to shiver. Like Elder Kuang Kui, that elder was also hacked in two. He was dead, killed by Chu Feng.

“Those who wish to die can continue to speak,” At this moment, Chu Feng's voice was incomparably cold. It was as if there was not the slightest trace of emotion in his voice. Instead, contained within his voice was only killing intent.

Sensing Chu Feng's dense killing intent, and seeing how Chu Feng had killed two of their Heavenly Law's Elders before their eyes, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace hurriedly shut their mouths. One by one, they possessed flustered appearances. They were all clearly deeply afraid. In fact, no one dared to even look at Chu Feng.

The people from the Heavenly Law Palace that had tried to create trouble for Chu Feng earlier all lowered their heads, afraid to even speak.

It was not only the people from the Heavenly Law Palace. The bystanders were also terrified. Even though they had heard about how renowned and powerful Chu Feng was, they had not expected the rumored Chu Feng to be this ruthless and fierce.

While anything could be fake, the strength which Chu Feng had revealed was definitely not fake; the killing intent that the crowd was feeling was definitely not fake.

“All of you, listen carefully. Regardless of whether you are the Heavenly Law Palace or the Dark Hall, if you want to make me, Chu Feng, an enemy, then feel free to come and find me. I, Chu Feng, am absolutely not one that is afraid. If you send one, I will kill one. If you send two, I will kill two. However many people come for me, I will kill that many people.”

Chu Feng’s voice was like thunder as it resonated through heaven and earth. His voice caused space and the void itself to tremble intensely. It was as if the firmament itself was scared of Chu Feng’s declaration.

When even the firmament was acting in such a way, there was no need to mention what the crowd was feeling. Not to mention those that had not been present in the Moonlight Maze, even the people that were defending Chu Feng were terrified by Chu Feng.

As for Chu Feng, after he finished saying those words, he walked off without a second thought. He was truly in no mood to bother speaking with the crowd anymore.

“Heavenly Law Palace, I urge you all to act tactfully. Although Chu Feng is only a member of the younger generation, he is not someone that you all can bully.”

“I urge you all to not make Chu Feng your enemy. Else, you all will end up regretting it,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal warned in a serious manner.

He was telling the truth. The current Chu Feng dared to make the Dark Hall his enemy and possessed the Ancient Era’s Elves as his ally.

While the Heavenly Law Palace was indeed one of the human race’s three strongest powers, they were much inferior when compared to the Ancient Era’s Elves.

If the Heavenly Law Palace insisted on making Chu Feng an enemy, they would only be courting disaster.

However, the Heavenly Law Palace remained a power that had continued for countless years, one of the Holy Land of Martialism’s oldest powers. As someone from the Holy Land of Martialism, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal also did not wish for the destruction of the Heavenly Law Palace.

However, if the Heavenly Law Palace ignored his advice and insisted on making Chu Feng their enemy, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal would also not spare the Heavenly Law Palace.

“Chu Feng, have you managed to calm yourself?” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal asked after catching up to Chu Feng.

“I am fine. I am merely afraid that something will happen to Lil Rou and Lil Mei,” Chu Feng had calmed down a lot. However, his worry for Su Rou and Su Mei had not decreased in the slightest. Likewise, his self-blame had not decreased in the slightest. Instead, it had increased. Furthermore, he had a very serious expression on his face.

Seeing Chu Feng acting in such a manner, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal heaved a long sigh. He knew that it was useless for him to say anything to Chu Feng at such a time, because Chu Feng was a wise person that knew what to do. Thus, he did not try to console Chu Feng. Instead, he asked, “What’s your plan now?”

“Return to the Cyanwood Mountain?” Hearing those words, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal’s expression changed. He said, “Chu Feng, the Cyanwood Mountain is the place that you should not go to the most right now.”

“Right now, we have made the Dark Hall our absolute enemy, and the World Devastator Immortal has escaped. Likely, after the Dark Hall’s Hall Master comes to find out that it was I who ruined his plan, he absolutely will not spare me.”

“Since you know all that, then why do you want to return to the Cyanwood Mountain?” The Weaponry Refinement asked.

“What else should I do then? Am I to go to the Elf Kingdom and have the Elf Kingdom protect me while exposing all my friends in the Cyanwood Mountain to the Dark Hall so that they can slaughter them willingly?” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, that is not what I meant. Merely, one must consider the greater good. The greater one’s capability, the greater one’s responsibility. And you...” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal continued to advise Chu Feng.

“Senior Weaponry Refinement Immortal, if your kinsmen were in trouble, would you ignore them?” Chu Feng asked.

“I know that senior would not. I, Chu Feng, am the same. I will also not ignore them,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well then,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal sighed, but had nothing more to say. He knew that Chu Feng was very stubborn. In the most crucial moment, Chu Feng was someone who would value his friends with loyalty and righteousness.

When asking himself honestly, it was also because of Chu Feng's loyalty and righteousness that the Weaponry Refinement Immortal admired and appreciated Chu Feng. Thus, he said, "Since you insist on returning, I will accompany you to the Cyanwood Mountain."

Chapter 1997 – Chu Feng Entering Closed Door Training

After Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal left, the curtains dropped completely on the Moonlight Maze's battle.

Although the great majority of the people that had entered the Moonlight Maze had returned empty-handed, there were also many that had obtained treasures in the Moonlight Maze.

The treasures from the Moonlight Maze were no ordinary items; they were all invaluable and priceless treasures. Some among them were even capable of starting wars.

However, to the people, the matter that was the most inconceivable were not the treasures that had been obtained from the Moonlight Maze. Rather, it was the major events that had occurred in the Moonlight Maze.

The first major event was the battle between the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era's Elves. Even though those experts that fought against the Dark Hall all left after the battle, it remained that there was no wall in the world that didn't leak air. As such, news of the battle would eventually be spread. Furthermore, once it started, it spread like a wildfire.

When the crowd found out that the Dark Hall was a power capable of contending against the Ancient Era's Elves, and that the map of the Moonlight Maze was spread by them with the intention of killing all those that entered in order to summon the Moon Demon, the crowd all began to feel enormous fear of the Dark Hall.

They all realized that the mysterious power that had suddenly emerged was an extremely dangerous power.

The Dark Hall had declared themselves to be the power that would rule over the Holy Land of Martialism. And now, they actually did this sort of thing. As such, the crowd could not help but feel fear toward the Dark Hall.

As for the second major event, it was the resentment between Chu Feng and the Heavenly Law Palace. Even though the Heavenly Law Palace's Elder Yue Ling and Elder Zhao Yu had indeed wronged Chu Feng in the Moonlight Maze, it remained that Chu Feng had killed Elder Kuang Kui without bothering to say a single word to him when he questioned Chu Feng.

Chu Feng's action was absolutely looking down on the Heavenly Law Palace.

Although there were people declaring that the Ancient Era's Elves were allies with Chu Feng, to many humans, the Heavenly Law Palace was not an existence inferior to the Ancient Era's Elves. Thus, they felt that a great catastrophe would befall Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because, with the nature of the Heavenly Law Palace, they would absolutely not leave the matter at that.

At the moment when this news was rapidly spreading throughout the Holy Land of Martialism, Chu Feng and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal had arrived at the Cyanwood Mountain.

After returning to the Cyanwood Mountain, Chu Feng entered closed-door training. He was going to use his world spirit techniques to study a grand spirit formation that not even peak Martial Emperors could break through.

That grand spirit formation was extremely difficult. Furthermore, with Chu Feng's world spirit techniques, it was even more difficult to successfully set up that spirit formation.

However, Chu Feng still had to study it. The reason for that was because the Cyanwood Mountain was no longer the same as before. After what had happened in the Moonlight Maze, even Zhang Tianyi and his father had arrived at the Cyanwood Mountain.

It could be said that all the people related to Chu Feng were practically all gathered in the Cyanwood Mountain right now. As the battle against the Dark Hall had already begun, Chu Feng had to put forth all of his strength to protect the people important to him.

During this time when Chu Feng was in closed-door training, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Baili Xuankong, Nangong Longjian, Zhang Tianyi and his father Zhang Ming, Bai Ruochen, Jiang Wushang and the others were all closely guarding the gate of Chu Feng's closed-door training location.

They were all worried for Chu Feng. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had looked like a completely different person ever since he had returned. They all knew that Chu Feng was acting like this because of Su Rou and Su Mei.

“Has little friend Chu Feng still not left his closed-door training?” An old man walked over to the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and asked worriedly.

Not only did this old man possess the same powerful cultivation as the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, his reputation was also on par with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal. That old man was the Immeasurable Immortal.

“Why is that boy Chu Feng so stubborn? It would be one thing to protect one person. But he wants to protect the entire Cyanwood Mountain. The Cyanwood Mountain is such an enormous place. Yet, he wants to set up a spirit formation capable of withstanding peak Martial Emperors? Isn't that simply indulging in fantasy?”

“If he continues on with this, he might go haywire and become possessed by a devil,” A snow-haired woman said.

This person was also one of the Holy Land of Martialism's Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists. She was the person that had wanted to make Chu Feng her disciple, the Snow-haired Immortal.

Both the Immeasurable Immortal and the Snow-haired Immortal possessed a decent relationship with the Ancient Era's Elves. After finding out about the battle between the Ancient Era's Elves and the Dark Hall, they had immediately proceeded to the Elf Kingdom to assist them.

However, they were instead asked by the Elf King to come to the Cyanwood Mountain. Furthermore, they brought back news upon their arrival to the Cyanwood Mountain.

As the Dark Hall had suffered enormously in the Moonlight Maze, those Dark Hall's forces that were attacking the various strategic locations held by the Ancient Era's Elves had all retreated.

However, the Ancient Era's Elves did not relax just because of that. Instead, they were increasing the defenses at all these strategic locations so that they could face the Dark Hall's next assault.

At the same time, the Ancient Era's Elves were worried for the Cyanwood Mountain. Thus, this time around, they had not only requested that the Immeasurable Immortal and the Snow-haired Immortal go to assist the Cyanwood Mountain, they had also dispatched a lot of their own forces to the Cyanwood Mountain as well.

"Snow-hair, you can't say it like that. Little friend Chu Feng's world spirit techniques have surpassed our own. Likely, in the Holy Land of Martialism, only the Heaven Reaching Immortal possesses world spirit techniques comparable to little friend Chu Feng," The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

After personally seeing Chu Feng grasping the spirit formation capable of sealing the Moon Demon in an instant, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was fully aware of how powerful Chu Feng's world spirit techniques were.

"Little friend Chu Feng's talent is truly exceptional. Furthermore world spirit techniques are the strongest defensive method in this world. In fact, there are even rumors that say that world spiritists are actually the strongest experts in the world.”

“Merely, no one was capable of using only world spirit techniques. This is why the people in the Holy Land of Martialism ended up choosing, without the slightest hesitation, to master martial cultivation instead of world spirit techniques.”

“However, little friend Chu Feng’s attainments in world spirit techniques are greatly superior to our own,” The Immeasurable Immortal also praised Chu Feng.

“Isn’t that evaluation a bit too high?” Hearing those words, the Snow-haired Immortal revealed a disbelieving expression.

Even though she held great appreciation and admiration for Chu Feng, she did not feel that only the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s world spirit techniques would be comparable to Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques.

The reason for that was because she knew very well that the World Devastator Immortal was capable of ranking second amongst the Ten Immortals not only because of his martial cultivation. Most importantly, his world spirit techniques were exceptionally powerful.

However, based on what the Weaponry Refinement Immortal had said, Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques had already surpassed those of the World Devastator Immortal. She felt very skeptical of that.

“Snow-hair, don’t forget that little friend Chu Feng is an Asura World Spiritist. Without mentioning anything else, merely the fact that he could make Asura World Spirits serve him is already something that no one can compare with,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“Indeed. Chu Feng’s strength back then cannot be compared to his current strength.”

“Back then, Chu Feng was merely a rank one Half Martial Emperor. However, he released a rank one Martial Emperor-level Asura Evil Spirit in the Nangong Imperial Clan.”

“Although that Asura Evil Spirit was only a rank one Martial Emperor, it nearly razed our Nangong Imperial Clan to the ground. Even though I managed to beat it back afterwards, I was also injured in the process.”

“Furthermore, I felt that Asura Evil Spirit’s strength to not have been completely revealed. Else, even I would not have been a match for it.”

“.....” At that moment, the Snow-haired Immortal grew silent. The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s past accomplishments were truly astonishing and unbelievable.

In fact, after hearing what Nangong Longjian said, it was not only the Snow-haired Immortal that was astonished. All the other grand characters present sucked in a mouthful of cold air.

There were not many people that knew exactly what had happened in the Nangong Imperial Clan with the Asura Evil Spirit. This was also the first time that they had heard that story.

Even though they already knew that Chu Feng was very powerful, what Chu Feng had revealed was only his heaven-defying battle power, as well as his powerful Inherited Bloodline. Thus, the crowd was focused mostly upon the martial aspect of Chu Feng’s cultivation. By comparison, they did not focus as much on Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques.

Yet now, the crowd finally realized that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques were actually his most frightening aspect.

Chapter 1998 – Completing The Spirit Formation

This time around, Chu Feng was in closed-door training for a very long time. Since he started his closed-door training, two months had already passed. Yet, Chu Feng had yet to come out of his closed-door training.

With Chu Feng not coming out of his closed-door training, this caused an increase instead of a decrease of the people standing guard outside the gates to his closed-door training location. Some among them had even let go of their work to stand outside the gate.

Even though the crowd all knew that Chu Feng possessed outstanding talent, they were still very worried for Chu Feng. After all, Chu Feng's goal this time around was truly too difficult.

To create a spirit formation that not even peak Martial Emperors could break through was something that none of the World Spiritists in the Holy Land of Martialism dared to think about. Yet, Chu Feng was actually attempting it.

It was not that the crowd wished for Chu Feng's failure. Rather, they were worried that Chu Feng would make things difficult for himself and hurt himself in the process.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Two months and three days since the day Chu Feng entered closed-door training, rumbles slowly sounded.

Then, the tightly shut gate was finally opened.

“Chu Feng.”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, the crowd were all extremely emotional. Immediately, they swarmed around Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, are you alright?” After seeing Chu Feng, the crowd became extremely nervous.

At that moment, Chu Feng's complexion was deathly pale. He appeared to have become much weaker. Compared to when he had entered closed door training, he was three sizes skinnier. At that moment, he looked like skin on bones without any flesh. Even his appearance had changed.

However, although the crowd were all extremely worried for Chu Feng, Chu Feng had a smile on his face. He looked to them and said, "Seniors, I-I succeeded."

After Chu Feng said those words with a weak voice, his eyes closed, and his body shifted. He had fainted before the crowd.

"Chu Feng!!!" Seeing Chu Feng fainting before them, the crowd were extremely worried.

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other world spiritists immediately caught Chu Feng to prevent him from falling. Then they began to inspect Chu Feng for injuries.

Furthermore, as they began to inspect Chu Feng for injuries, they took out countless rare treasures and medicinal herbs that could heal injuries. For the sake of saving Chu Feng, not to mention those treasures, they would even be willing to use their own cultivations without the slightest hesitation.

To them, Chu Feng was simply too important.

Unable to contain themselves, Nangong Longjian and the others asked, "Exactly what's going on with Chu Feng?"

"There's no fatal danger."

"Merely..." The Weaponry Refinement Immortal started to frown. A pained expression appeared on his aged face.

"Merely?" The crowd asked. They were so worried that their hearts were about to jump out from their bodies. They truly feared that something had happened to Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng’s body is too weak. It is as if he has exhausted himself completely. He has injured his core. As such, he will likely not be able to recover within a short period of time,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“Most likely, for the sake of researching that spirit formation, Chu Feng disregarded his own health, and overloaded himself in using his spirit energy to communicate with world spirit power. This child, he has truly disregarded consequences,” Zhang Tianyi’s father Zhang Ming said.

Although Zhang Ming was not one of the Ten Immortals, he was also a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. His world spirit techniques were very powerful. Thus, he was able to tell what had caused Chu Feng’s current state.

Hearing those words, Baili Xuankong and the others from the Cyanwood Mountain, as well as Chu Feng’s good brothers Jiang Wushang and Zhang Tianyi all lowered their heads.

They knew that Chu Feng had done that for their sake, he had done it all in order to protect them. Chu Feng had decided to study that spirit formation precisely so that he could protect the Cyanwood Mountain’s elders and disciples, as well as his brothers.

Currently, the several strongest Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists in the Holy Land of Martialism were gathered in the Cyanwood Mountain. Their healing abilities were very exceptional.

However, even with this being the case, the several Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists unanimously believed that it would take at least a month for Chu Feng to regain consciousness and half a year to recover. If things were bad, this might even end up affecting Chu Feng’s future prospects.

However, Chu Feng had caused them to feel disbelief once again. In merely a short two days, Chu Feng regained consciousness.

After waking up, although Chu Feng was still weak in health, his health was much better than the crowd had anticipated. His core that was injured earlier had completely recovered. As such, there would be no effects to his world spirit techniques or martial cultivation in the future.

Furthermore, judging from Chu Feng's appearance, there was simply no need for half a year to recover. With the assistance of the various medicines, Chu Feng would be able to completely recover in only several days' worth of time.

Most importantly, after Chu Feng woke up, even though his health was still weak, he was extremely excited.

"Seniors, I've succeeded. I've truly succeeded. As long as seniors are willing to help me, I will definitely be able to set up a grand spirit formation that is capable of protect everyone in the Cyanwood Mountain. That spirit formation will be sufficient to accommodate everyone in the Cyanwood Mountain," Chu Feng said excitedly.

"Chu Feng, did you really?" Hearing those words, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others did not dare to believe their ears.

Even though they were confident in Chu Feng, it remained too inconceivable for Chu Feng to be able to successfully research a grand formation that could withstand peak Martial Emperors within a period of only two months.

"Seniors, please look," Chu Feng did not bother with superfluous words. Instead, he got up from his bed and arrived at the palace hall.

"Chu Feng," At that moment, a lot of people were gathered in the vast hall. These were all Chu Feng's acquaintances and friends.

Due to being worried for Chu Feng, they had all rushed over.

Merely, the current Chu Feng did not greet the crowd. Instead, he rolled up his sleeves and then began to use his hand as the writing brush and his world spirit power as the ink to draw the formation diagram for his spirit formation.

His golden-bright and dazzling Royal level spirit power soon filled the entire palace hall. It was like a golden, dazzling starry sky.

Not to mention the world spiritists present, even those who didn't understand any world spirit techniques and those with low levels of accomplishment in world spirit techniques were fascinated by the scene before them.

Merely by looking, they were able to tell how miraculous and exceptional the formation diagram that Chu Feng was outlining was.

“Amazing, truly amazing. Chu Feng, he really succeeded.”

“If it wasn't for him outlining it, I truly would not dare to believe that world spirit power could be used in this sort of manner. This sort of method of setting up world spirit formations is simply something that I had never before imagined,” The Snow-haired Immortal was exceptionally emotional upon seeing Chu Feng's outline.

She was the world spiritist that had doubted Chu Feng the most earlier. However, the world spiritist that was most emotionally moved right now was also her. She who was always cold and ruthless when facing others was actually brimming with tears of excitement right now.

However, her reaction could not be blamed on her. Merely, the formation diagram that Chu Feng had outlined was truly too amazing.

At that moment, the Snow-haired Immortal felt as if she had obtained something that she had formerly only yearned for in her dreams, something that she should not have been able to obtain.

Even though Chu Feng was merely outlining a formation diagram, it was simply akin to a piece of art to the Snow-haired Immortal, a piece of art which she could not create herself.

“This spirit formation’s complexity greatly surpasses my imagination. For Chu Feng to be able to create it is truly unimaginable.”

“Yet, Chu Feng was actually able to demonstrate it for us in such a concise manner so that we can understand it just by looking at it. Chu Feng, you are truly a genius, a genius that surpasses my imagination.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, you have truly made me feel ashamed of being inferior,” At that moment, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was also praising Chu Feng nonstop. Not only did Chu Feng manage to create an impossible spirit formation through research and study, the formation diagram which he had outlined was equally exceptional. It was something that they were unable of outlining themselves.

“Indeed, I also feel ashamed of being inferior,” The Immeasurable Immortal and Zhang Ming also expressed their views while exclaiming with admiration and excitement.

Chapter 1999 – Settlement

“In that case, Chu Feng really succeeded? He is now capable of setting up a spirit formation that not even peak Martial Emperors can break through?” Baili Xuankong asked with excitement.

After Baili Xuankong asked that, everyone present grew silent. At this moment, the palace hall became so quiet that the crowd’s heartbeats could be heard.

“Yes, we are capable of that now,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists nodded in unison.

“Woooahhh!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

Hearing those words, explosive cheering sounds burst forth from the quiet palace hall. Everyone was endlessly moved. In fact, some people even started to brim with tears of excitement.

Through the various events that had happened, they already realized how frightening the Dark Hall was. Originally, they felt that they would definitely meet a tragic death should the Dark Hall attack them.

However, now that they possessed that grand spirit formation, they were safe. As such, how could they not be excited?

Overwhelmed with excitement, Zhang Tianyi and Jiang Wushang began to lift Chu Feng up high. Compared to the experts from the older generation, the two of them were even more excited. As Chu Feng was their brother, they felt even more proud of Chu Feng.

“Hey, what are you all doing? Chu Feng’s body is still very weak. Quickly, put him back down.”

However, upon seeing that scene, the Snow-haired Immortal shouted at them angrily. In fact, she even directly snatched Chu Feng away from Jiang Wushang and Zhang Tianyi.

Even though she had already snatched Chu Feng away from them, she still stared ferociously at Jiang Wushang and Zhang Tianyi, “Have you all gone crazy? Chu Feng has finally woken up. If he becomes unconscious again because of you, I’ll slaughter you all.”

The Snow-haired Immortal’s eyes were deep red. She appeared extremely ferocious and murderous-looking. Zhang Tianyi and Jiang Wushang were so stunned with fear that they didn’t know what to do.

At that moment, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others started to snicker up their sleeves. When Chu Feng was in his closed-door training, the Snow-haired Immortal had spoken in doubt of Chu Feng. Yet, after she saw his injured health, she was more worried for him than anyone else. She was truly a sharp-tongued but soft-hearted person.

No, she was a genuine stone-hearted, vicious, and merciless demon.

However, when it came to Chu Feng, she became very tenderhearted.

“Really,” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out a healing medicinal herb and swallowed it. Then, with a thought, his Supreme Secret Skill, the Vermilion Bird Resurrection Technique, was activated.

Once the Vermilion Bird Resurrection Technique was activated, Chu Feng’s complexion began to become much better. In merely an instant, his appearance and complexion returned to normal.

“Chu Feng, what is that technique? It’s truly magical,” The Snow-haired Immortal’s eyes were wide open. She had an expression of amazement on her face.

At that moment, the others were also astonished by Chu Feng's technique that he had revealed. However, they all had joyous expressions on their faces. They were overjoyed by Chu Feng being able to completely recover from his injuries.

“Lord Assembly Master, this is bad!” Right at that moment, a Cyanwood Sacred Assembly's elder rushed into the palace hall in panic.

“For you to panic and shout like this, what has happened?” Originally, Baili Xuankong had been in a superb mood. However, the sudden shouting from this person caused him to become extremely displeased.

“The Heavenly Law Palace's army has entered the Cyanwood Domain. They are currently coming to attack our Cyanwood Mountain,” That elder said.

“Humph, so they've actually come. They truly have the nerve,” After hearing those words, Lord Lianghua started to narrow his sword-like eyebrows, and a burst of chilly air began to pervade his surroundings.

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal, Nangong Longjian and the many other grand characters were also reacting in the same manner.

They did not feel surprised by that news. Instead, they appeared to be ready to face the incoming enemies.

Unable to contain himself, Chu Feng asked, “Heavenly Law Palace's army? Could it be that something happened during the time I was in closed-door training?”

Even though Chu Feng had publicly killed Kuang Kui outside of the Moonlight Maze in a burst of rage, and already knew that the Heavenly Law Palace would come to retaliate against him, it remained unnatural for the people here to react as if they already knew of the Heavenly Law Palace's arrival.

For them to be this prepared, Chu Feng knew that something must've happened during the time he was in closed-door training.

"Chu Feng, the Heavenly Law Palace is truly shameless. Since they dared to come, we must teach them a lesson."

"Else, they'll think that their Heavenly Law Palace is the ruler of the Holy Land of Martialism," Lord Lianghua said.

After that, Chu Feng came to know about what had happened during his closed-door training...

It turned out that news of Chu Feng's killing of Kuang Kui spread like wildfire throughout the Holy Land of Martialism. As the Heavenly Law Palace cared deeply about their face, they would naturally not leave the matter at that.

Thus, the Heavenly Law Palace declared to the world that Chu Feng had a time limit of a month to proceed to their Heavenly Law Palace and give an account of his actions.

If Chu Feng were to fail to show up, their Heavenly Law Palace's army would flatten the Cyanwood Mountain.

When that news was spread, the entire Holy Land of Martialism burst into an outrage.

However, the Cyanwood Mountain was very calm to the whole threat, and simply did not even bother to respond to the Heavenly Law Palace.

The reason for that was because the current Cyanwood Mountain was completely different from before. Countless experts were now gathered in the Cyanwood Mountain.

Furthermore, Lord Lianghua, this rank eight Martial Emperor, was overseeing the Cyanwood Mountain. Thus, even though the Cyanwood Mountain remained one of the Nine Powers, their strength already surpassed that of the Four Great Imperial Clans.

Furthermore, they possessed the backing of the Ancient Era's Elves. As such, how could they possibly fear the Heavenly Law Palace?

In fact, for the current Cyanwood Mountain, not only were they not afraid of the Heavenly Law Palace, they instead wished for the Heavenly Law Palace to attack them. They wanted to show the people of the world what sort of strength their Cyanwood Mountain possessed right now.

That battle would not only be for their Cyanwood Mountain's honor, most importantly, it was a battle to defend Chu Feng's dignity.

"Lord Lianghua, your intention is to face the Heavenly Law Palace?" Chu Feng asked.

"What else? We're not scared of them. Thus... it's only natural that we must face them in battle," Lord Lianghua said with a smile.

"I understand," Chu Feng also smiled. With those words from Lord Lianghua, Chu Feng became confident.

Thus, Chu Feng's body shifted and turned into a ray of light. He flew out from the palace hall and soared high into the sky. He was flying toward the main entrance of the Cyanwood Mountain.

Following Chu Feng, the many experts also soared into the sky. Like reverse meteors, they followed after Chu Feng.

"Little friend Chu Feng!!!"

When Chu Feng flew out from the Cyanwood Sacred Assembly and reached the main entrance of the Cyanwood Mountain, several powerful figures flew towards him and began to greet him.

These people were all Martial Emperors. They were people that Chu Feng had saved in the Moonlight Maze. They abided by their promise and had become nominal elders of the Cyanwood Mountain. Currently, all the experts from the Cyanwood Mountain were gathered here to face the incoming Heavenly Law Palace.

“Senior Snow Blade, you’ve also come?” Chu Feng was delighted by the appearance of an old man among the crowd. That old man was none other than the Snow Blade Mad Demon.

Snow Blade Mad Demon did not join the Cyanwood Mountain. Evidently, he had rushed to the Cyanwood Mountain after finding out that the Heavenly Law Palace planned to attack the Cyanwood Mountain.

“I’ve said it before. Your business is my business. The Heavenly Law Palace waging war against you is equivalent to them waging war against me. I will definitely not leave this matter be,” said the Snow Blade Mad Demon as he patted his chest.

There was not the slightest trace of fear in this old man. Contained within him was a dense amount of excitement. He was prepared to fight against the Heavenly Law Palace.

“Very well, today, together with everyone here, we shall face that so-called righteous and upright sect,” Chu Feng spoke with a loud voice.

“Hahahaha!!!” Hearing those words, the crowd burst into loud laughter. Chu Feng’s ‘righteous and upright sect’ was spoken with such mockery.

As Chu Feng spoke, he reached the front of the crowd.

After carefully inspecting the scene before him, Chu Feng discovered that the current Cyanwood Mountain was truly bustling with noise and excitement.

In the distance, regardless of whether it was the sky, the ground or even the void of space itself, countless silhouettes were gathered. None of those people were from the Cyanwood Mountain, nor were they people from the Cyanwood Domain. Rather, they were from all over the Holy Land of Martialism.

Evidently, after the news of the Heavenly Law Palace planning to attack the Cyanwood Mountain spread, these people had come to watch the excitement.

However, having people come to watch the battle was precisely what Chu Feng wanted.

He wanted to let everyone know that he, Chu Feng, was no longer that weak boy from back then, that he was not someone who could be easily bullied.

Not even the renowned Heavenly Law Palace that had existed for tens of thousands of years would be able to bully him.

Today, he would reach a settlement with the Heavenly Law Palace before all these people.

Chapter 2000 – Duanmu Feiyu

Chu Feng and the others were prepared to face the Heavenly Law Palace head-on.

However, the bystanders that came from all over the Holy Land of Martialism were unable to see Chu Feng and the others at all.

The reason for that was because the Cyanwood Mountain was currently a place with countless experts. These experts had already set up a spirit formation that covered the entire Cyanwood Mountain.

Although the people from the Cyanwood Mountain were able to see everything outside through the spirit formation, the people outside of the spirit formation were simply unable to see the battle formation of the Cyanwood Mountain.

“Roar~~~”

Suddenly, roars were heard from the distant sky. Those were the sounds of ferocious beasts. Like rolling thunder, they echoed from afar.

As the crowd turned their gazes toward the direction of the sound, their eyes all started to shine. A vast amount of white clouds were arriving from far away. It was like a white wave moving about in the clear sky.

After the vast white clouds approached, banners could be seen within the surging white clouds. Those banners were fluttering with the wind. They were the banners of the Heavenly Law Palace.

Soon, the troops of the Heavenly Law Palace appeared. It was an orderly army. Each and every one of them was holding a weapon. Not only were they equipped for battle, they gave off a soaring air of arrogance. It was as if celestial troops and generals had descended upon the mortal realm.

However, along with the appearance of the Heavenly Law

Palace's troops was an innumerable amount of powerful monstrous beasts. Those monstrous beasts had also arrived on the clouds.

Those monstrous beasts were not only ferocious in appearance; their bodies were also several tens of meters long. The largest ones were several hundred meters long. As they galloped in the sky and above the clouds, they truly appeared to be earth-shattering beings. The roars from those monstrous beasts were capable of shaking heaven and earth, and bringing fear to the hearts of countless individuals.

However, those ferocious and enormous monstrous beasts were nothing more than mounts. Not only were they ridden by the Heavenly Law Palace's experts, they were also pulling enormous war chariots.

On those war chariots was the army of the Heavenly Law Palace.

"Sure enough, the Heavenly Law Palace has come. Everyone, quickly, look. The person leading the Heavenly Law Palace, his aura is truly frightening. It's as if he can kill me with merely a glance."

"I-I-Isn't that the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master?"

The Heavenly Law Palace's troops were emitting a majestic and imposing vigor. As for the person leading them, he caused the crowd to become extremely excited. At the same time they felt their blood boiling with excitement, the crowd's hair was also standing on end.

He was an old man wearing snow-white clothes. His long white hair looked like a snow white waterfall that sprinkled gracefully down from the sky.

Apart from his tidy outfit, that old man also possessed an extremely handsome appearance. Although he was clearly an old man, there were no wrinkles to be seen on his face. His skin was akin to that of an infant.

With that sort of infant-like skin being matched with his thick, snow-white brows, he looked like a handsome old man that could cause one's hackles to rise.

As for that old man, he was greatly renowned in the Holy Land of Martialism. He was the Palace Master of the Heavenly Law Palace. His name was Duanmu Feiyu.

Standing to either side of Duanmu Feiyu were two old men wearing headdresses. Their headdresses had the characters 'heaven' and 'law' on them. They were the two most powerful individuals in the Heavenly Law Palace apart from Duanmu Feiyu.

They were, respectively, the Heaven Palace Master and the Law Palace Master. They were the Heavenly Law Palace's two Deputy Palace Masters.

"Heavens, it's one thing for those powerful Heavenly Law Palace's management elders to be present."

"That the Heaven Palace Master and the Law Palace Master, the two Deputy Palace Masters, have also come is truly unexpected.."

"Even the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master, Duanmu Feiyu himself, has come. Practically all of the strongest Heavenly Law Palace's experts have arrived."

"Isn't this simply mustering up an enormous force? Will the Cyanwood Mountain be able to withstand them?" Seeing the battle formation of the Heavenly Law Palace, the crowd became worried for the Cyanwood Mountain.

Even though the Cyanwood Mountain had been increasing in strength in recent days, the crowd felt that it had not been long enough since the Cyanwood Mountain had started to emerge in strength. Thus, no matter what, they would not be able to contend against the Heavenly Law Palace, a power that had continued for tens of thousands of years and was deemed to be one of the strongest human powers.

It would be one thing if the Heavenly Law Palace had only dispatched their management elders and the two Deputy Palace Masters. Yet, even their Palace Master, Duanmu Feiyu, had come. It was evident that they planned to completely eradicate the Cyanwood Mountain. As such, the crowd all felt that the Cyanwood Mountain would not be able to withstand them.

After all, the Heavenly Law Palace's two Deputy Palace Masters were already rank six Martial Emperors. As for their Palace Master, Duanmu Feiyu, he was a rank eight Martial Emperor, someone incredibly close to becoming a peak Martial Emperor.

Against such powerful existences, even if the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Nangong Longjian, the Snow Blade Mad Demon and all the other experts were all in the Cyanwood Mountain now, they would still be no match for them.

After all, Duanmu Feiyu was one of the utmost experts of the Holy Land of Martialism. He was a true peak expert.

In an era without an overlord, who could possibly contend against Duanmu Feiyu? Likely, it would only be the Mortal Prince Palace's Palace Master, the Underworld Palace's Palace Master, and the Ancient Era's Elves' Elf King.

"Chu Feng, I know that you're in the Cyanwood Mountain. If you don't wish for the Cyanwood Mountain to be exterminated alongside you, get out here and receive your death."

"Else... today, I shall flatten the Cyanwood Mountain," Duanmu Feiyu spoke with a cold voice.

"Flatten the Cyanwood Mountain? What arrogance."

At that moment, Chu Feng's voice suddenly sounded. Following closely behind him, countless silhouettes began to fly out from the Cyanwood Mountain's spirit formation.

"Look, the Cyanwood Mountain's army is coming out. Sure enough, they are prepared for battle.”

Seeing the Cyanwood Mountain’s elders and disciples flying out from the Cyanwood Mountain in an orderly manner holding the banners of the Cyanwood Mountain, the excited crowd became even more fired up.

The reason for that was because the Cyanwood Mountain’s strength surpassed their imagination. Merely their Martial Emperors numbered more than a thousand. Furthermore, it seemed that they were all renowned experts. However, at that moment, those Martial Emperors all possessed one distinctive feature. That was, they were all wearing the outfits of the Cyanwood Mountain.

The person leading this group of experts was Chu Feng. At that moment, Chu Feng had already unleashed his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. Furthermore, he was holding the Coiling Dragon Furious Beheader in his hand. His majestic aura was spread far and wide. As such, everyone was able to sense how powerful this member of the younger generation was.

Furthermore, standing to either side of Chu Feng were the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal, Nangong Longjian, the Snow Blade Mad Demon, the Snow-haired Immortal and many other renowned experts. As such, Chu Feng appeared to be even more imposing, even more domineering.

“Never would I have expected that so many people would join the Cyanwood Mountain. We have underestimated the Cyanwood Mountain.”

“Could it be that the rumors are all true? That those people have all joined the Cyanwood Mountain because they were saved by Chu Feng? Chu Feng’s rallying power is truly too frightening, no? One must know that those people are all extremely stubborn old fellows that were unphased by any power’s invitation before.”

After seeing the experts that were standing to either side of Chu

Feng, the crowd was unable to contain themselves, and gasped in admiration. Chu Feng's battle formation was truly too frightening.

To the crowd, they felt that there were only four powers that could contend against this battle formation. They were the Heavenly Law Palace, the Mortal King Palace, the Underworld Palace and the Ancient Era's Elves.

Not even the many monstrous beast races and the Four Great Imperial Clans would be a match for Chu Feng.

Even though the strength revealed by the Cyanwood Mountain had caused the crowd to become speechless, and many of the Heavenly Law Palace's elders to frown, the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master, Duanmu Feiyu, still possessed an expression of disdain on his face.

He snorted coldly, then looked to Chu Feng, "You are that Chu Feng?"

Chapter 2001 – Two Armies Joining Hands

“Since you know, why bother asking?” Chu Feng said.

“Did you truly think that you’d be able to stop this Palace Master with only those people?” As Duanmu Feiyu said those words, he took another look at the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others. Then, he shouted, “Did you all truly think that you can stop me?”

His shout brought forth a strong wind. Not only did his ferocious power sweep through the region, he had also created an upheaval in the hearts of the crowd.

Their opponent was a rank eight Martial Emperor, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master, Duanmu Feiyu. He was a super expert whose fame had been renowned in the Holy Land of Martialism for many years.

Although a lot of experts were gathered in the Cyanwood Mountain now, in terms of their reputation and strength, none of them were comparable to Duanmu Feiyu.

Would the Cyanwood Mountain really be able to withstand the Heavenly Law Palace?

In fact, it was not only the bystanders who were thinking that way. Even the people from the Cyanwood Mountain had that question in their minds.

With the Cyanwood Mountain’s strength, they would not be able to withstand the Heavenly Law Palace.

“What if you add this old man? What do you think then?” Suddenly, a figure flew out from the spirit formation that covered the Cyanwood Mountain.

It was one of the Ancient Era’s Elves’ Four Grand Elders, Lord Lianghua.

“That person is?!”

Once Lord Lianghua appeared, the crowd’s expressions all changed. The reason for that was because they were all able to tell from Lord Lianghua’s appearance that he was an Ancient Era’s Elf.

Furthermore, most importantly, Lord Lianghua did not conceal his aura, and instead revealed his strength. Thus, everyone was able to sense that Lord Lianghua’s aura was not inferior to Duanmu Feiyu’s.

“Rank eight Martial Emperor. His aura is identical to Duanmu Feiyu’s. He’s a rank eight Martial Emperor!”

“Who is that person? How could he be that powerful? Could he be the Ancient Era’s Elves’ Elf King?”

Many people did not know Lord Lianghua, nor did they know the Ancient Era’s Elves’ true strength. Seeing how powerful Lord Lianghua was, the crowd all felt that he should be the strongest amongst the Ancient Era’s Elves, their Majesty, the Elf King.

In fact, even Duanmu Feiyu started to frown upon seeing Lord Lianghua.

While others might not recognize Lord Lianghua, he knew who Lord Lianghua was. Thus, he knew that Lord Lianghua was not inferior to him.

“Duanmu Feiyu, what’s wrong? Could it be that you don’t recognize this old man?” Lord Lianghua asked with a loud voice. The gaze with which he looked to Duanmu Feiyu contained a trace of disdain.

“Haha...”

“How could I possibly forget one of the Ancient Era’s Elves’ Four Grand Elders, Lianghua?” Duanmu Feiyu said with a smile.

“One of the Ancient Era’s Elves’ Four Grand Elders, Lianghua?”

“I’ve heard of that person before. However, I’ve never seen him before.”

“Could that Ancient Era’s Elf there really be Lord Lianghua? But, if Lord Lianghua, one of the Four Grand Elders, already possesses this level of strength, how powerful would the Elf King be?”

The crowd all heard what Duanmu Feiyu said. At that moment, they were extremely shocked and terrified. They suddenly realized that the Ancient Era’s Elves seemed to be more powerful than the Heavenly Law Palace.

“Since you know who I am, why are you not retreating? Could it be that your Heavenly Law Palace wishes to make an enemy of our Ancient Era’s Elves?” Lord Lianghua spoke coldly.

“Lianghua, it seems that your Ancient Era’s Elves are truly planning to shield that Chu Feng?” Duanmu Feiyu asked.

“Little friend Chu Feng has already entered into an alliance with our Ancient Era’s Elves. If you dare to touch little friend Chu Feng, you will be making an enemy of our Ancient Era’s Elves.”

“I believe you know very well the strength that we Ancient Era’s Elves possess. Not to mention your Heavenly Law Palace, even if the Mortal King Palace and the Underworld Palace were to join hands with you, you all would still not be a match for us Ancient Era’s Elves,” Lord Lianghua said.

Once those words were spoken, the crowd that did not know about how powerful the Ancient Era’s Elves truly were began to have a whole new level of respect for the Ancient Era’s Elves.

The reason for that was because someone of Lord Lianghua’s status would absolutely not be one to boast. Furthermore, Duanmu Feiyu did not refute Lord Lianghua. Thus, this led the crowd to feel that what Lord Lianghua had said was the truth.

The Ancient Era’s Elves possessed a frightening power that not even the Three Palaces could take on even if they were to join hands.

They suddenly realized that their former beliefs that the Three Palaces could compare to the Ancient Era's Elves was simply a foolish thought.

It turned out that the Ancient Era's Elves were the true strongest power in the Holy Land of Martialism.

“Hahahaha...” However, after hearing what Lord Lianghua said, not only did Duanmu Feiyu not show signs of fear, he instead burst into loud laughter.

His laughter could be said to be filled with provocation. This came as a surprise to Lord Lianghua. Had it been before, Duanmu Feiyu was someone that would have acted reserved upon seeing him. Yet, what had happened to him today?

Thus, Lord Lianghua asked with a cold voice, “Duanmu Feiyu, are you trying to court death?”

“Lianghua, truth be told, if it was before, I would definitely have given you face should you have wished to protect that Chu Feng.”

“However, the current situation is different. Your Ancient Era's Elves are powerless to defend yourselves. And yet, you still dare to come and involve yourself in the grudges between our Heavenly Law Palace and Chu Feng. The way I see it... the ones courting death are not our Heavenly Law Palace. Instead, it is you Ancient Era's Elves,” Duanmu Feiyu said.

Hearing those words, Lord Lianghua was immediately enraged. He began to tightly clench his fists. He finally knew why Duanmu Feiyu dared to act this arrogant toward him. It turned out that he already knew that their Ancient Era's Elves were fighting against the Dark Hall. That was why he dared to act this arrogant.

“No no no, it is beneath our Heavenly Law Palace's dignity to work together with that sort of power. However, I must admit that the Dark Hall has helped me enormously. At the very least, our Heavenly Law Palace no longer has to fear your Ancient Era's Elves."

"Duanmu Feiyu, even if our Ancient Era's Elves are fighting against the Dark Hall, it would still be an easy task for us to eradicate your Heavenly Law Palace," Lord Lianghua was angered. He refused to let anyone look down on them, the Ancient Era's Elves.

As he spoke, he stepped in front of the Cyanwood Mountain's army. His earth-shattering and boundlessly powerful oppressive might swept forth to engulf the Heavenly Law Palace's army.

"Rumble~~~~"

However, before his oppressive might could reach the Heavenly Law Palace, it suddenly exploded in midair. The energy ripples from the explosion only wreaked havoc through the Cyanwood Mountain's region, and were simply unable to approach the Heavenly Law Palace's army.

It was as if there was an invisible wall that had blocked everything.

At that moment, Lord Lianghua shouted angrily, "Who is it that is hiding sneakily? Get out here!" He knew that the person that had blocked his attack was not the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master. Instead, it was someone else.

"Hehe, Lord Lianghua, I had always thought you to be amazing before. It is only today that I have discovered... that you are only of this level," Sure enough, after Lord Lianghua's angry shout, a figure appeared before that invisible wall.

This man possessed a head of black hair that trailed over his shoulders, and the clothes he wore were fluttering in the wind.

Although he had the appearance of a middle-aged man, everyone felt enormous shock upon seeing him.

The reason for that was because he was the Palace Master of the Mortal King Palace, Xuan Fengyang.

Furthermore, that was not all. After the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master appeared, white clouds began to surge around the Heavenly Law Palace's army. Banners became visible in the vast white clouds.

It was the Mortal King Palace's army. Not only did the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master show up, they had actually, like the Heavenly Law Palace, dispatched all of their experts here.

Chapter 2002 – Battle Begin

“Xun Fengyang, are you planning to join hands with Duanmu Feiyu?” Lord Lianghua started to frown.

If it were only a single Heavenly Law Palace, he, with his strength, would not be afraid of them. However, there was now the addition of the Mortal King Palace. As such, even he felt enormous pressure.

“I’ll borrow what little friend Chu Feng said. Since you can already tell, why bother asking?” Xun Fengyang said with a beaming smile.

“What sort of grudge do you have against Chu Feng? Why have you also come to attack Chu Feng?” Lord Lianghua asked.

“Neither I nor our Mortal King Palace possess any grudges with Chu Feng. But, Lord Lianghua, don’t you also have no grudges with the Heavenly Law Palace? In that case, why are you helping little friend Chu Feng? Why are you helping the Cyanwood Mountain?” Xun Fengyang said with a smile on his face.

“In that case, your Mortal King Palace and Heavenly Law Palace are determined to battle our Cyanwood Mountain today?” Chu Feng asked.

“Little friend Chu Feng, what you said is correct. However, it is not all correct,” Xun Fengyang said with a smile. Then, he added, “I have come here with the same intention as the Heavenly Law Palace. It is not to battle the Cyanwood Mountain. Rather, I have come just so that I can take your life.”

“Boom~~~”

After saying those words, Xun Fengyang suddenly attacked. He extended his hand and pointed at Chu Feng. Immediately, a strand of martial power turned into a golden ray and shot forth like a golden arrow.

It was not aimed at Lord Lianghua. Rather, it was aimed at Chu Feng.

If that attack was to land, Chu Feng would undoubtedly be killed. After all, regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might be, he was absolutely no match for a rank eight Martial Emperor.

However, before Xun Fengyang's attack could even reach Chu Feng, it was blocked. With Lord Lianghua present, Xun Fengyang's attack would naturally not be able to injure Chu Feng.

“Courting death!”

At that moment, Lord Lianghua did not bother with superfluous words. He revealed his Imperial Armament and charged to attack Xun Fengyang.

Had it been before, neither Xun Fengyang nor Duanmu Feiyu would have dared to act in this sort of manner.

However now, not only were they daring to do such a thing, they actually did it. It was all because they, the Ancient Era's Elves, were curbed by the Dark Hall. That had led to Xun Fengyang and Duanmu Feiyu finding the opportunity to attack them, the Ancient Era's Elves.

As such, Lord Lianghua had seen through the characters of Xun Fengyang and Duanmu Feiyu. Even though they had not yet joined hands with the Dark Hall, they would sooner or later join hands with the Dark Hall. The reason for that was because they had always wanted to eliminate the Ancient Era's Elves.

Upon thinking of how they acted so timid towards the Ancient Era's Elves before, yet dared to act in this manner now, Lord Lianghua became extremely furious.

“Come, allow me to experience exactly what abilities the Ancient Era's Elves' Grand Elder, Lord Lianghua, possesses,” Xun Fengyang was not afraid. With a flip of his palm, he also took out an Imperial Armament. Then, he collided with Lord Lianghua.

As the two men were both rank eight Martial Emperors, they both possessed overwhelming power. As such, the energy ripples created by their battle were extremely ferocious.

Upon seeing the battle between the two of them, many of the bystanders hurriedly ran far away. They were deeply afraid that they might be hit by the energy ripples and be turned into dust.

After all, that was a battle between two of the most powerful experts in the Holy Land of Martialism.

“Lianghua, I am determined to kill Chu Feng today. Those who dare to block my path shall be killed. Even you, an Ancient Era’s Elf, will not be spared.”

Right at that moment, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master Duanmu Feiyu also revealed his Imperial Armament. Then, he joined the battle.

“Kill!!!!!!!!!!”

After the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master joined the battle, a rallying shout sounded from the Heavenly Law Palace’s army. They started their attack. Even though they appeared to be righteous and just individuals, they were acting like a pack of wolves and tigers. They planned to kill everyone related to the Cyanwood Mountain.

“Kill!!!!!!” At that moment, Chu Feng also shouted and rushed to face the incoming Heavenly Law Palace’s army.

In response, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal, Nangong Longjian, the Snow-haired Immortal, and the numerous other experts all set off to battle against the Heavenly Law Palace’s army.

Even though the Heavenly Law Palace possessed overwhelming fame for their fighting prowess, the current Cyanwood Mountain was no longer the same as before. The thousand-plus Martial Emperors of the Cyanwood Mountain were not something that could easily be taken care of by the Heavenly Law Palace's ten million-plus fighters.

Although they possessed fewer numbers, the Cyanwood Mountain was faintly holding the upper hand in the battle.

“Kill!!!!”

Right at that moment, the Mortal King Palace's army also joined the battle.

Once the Mortal King Palace's army joined the battle, the Cyanwood Mountain that was originally winning against the Heavenly Law palace immediately entered a state of being suppressed.

“Sure enough, this won't do. No matter how powerful the Cyanwood Mountain might be, they are no match for the combined forces of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.”

“That's not all there is. That Ancient Era's Elves' Lord Lianghua is fighting one against two. He is also at a disadvantage. After all, his opponents are no ordinary Martial Emperors. Instead, they are the two Palace Masters of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.”

The battle had just begun. Yet, one side already held an overwhelming advantage in the battle. This caused the crowd to become worried for the Cyanwood Mountain.

Even though they had originally come here to watch the show, they had all heard about the grudges between Chu Feng and the Heavenly Law Palace.

Deep in their hearts, they all felt that Chu Feng did nothing wrong. Instead, it was the Heavenly Law Palace that had deliberately made things difficult for Chu Feng.

Thus, they did not wish for Chu Feng's defeat. After all, he was the person, the young sapling, with the greatest possibility of becoming this era's overlord.

Furthermore, there were even people that felt that the Heavenly Law Palace's deliberate provocation of Chu Feng had only been made because they wished to eliminate Chu Feng.

They were afraid that Chu Feng would become the next Qing Xuantian and threaten their position as one of humanity's strongest powers.

In fact, before Chu Feng even became an overlord, his rallying power was already exceptionally astonishing. At the very least, he had caused the current Cyanwood Mountain to not be inferior to the Heavenly Law Palace by much.

Suddenly, a shout sounded from afar, "To bully few with many is simply no ability at all. If you're truly men, then you should fight an equal battle." Then, a black blaze surged forth. Like a shooting star, it entered the battlefield.

Anywhere it passed, the people from the Cyanwood Mountain would be fine. However, the experts from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace would end up in a complete mess. Those with light injuries would end up vomiting blood. Those with serious injuries would explode and die on the spot.

Finally, that lump of black blaze shot toward the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace master, Duanmu Feiyu.

"Clank~~~"

Duanmu Feiyu hurriedly used his Imperial Armament to slash down at the incoming black blaze. He wanted to use his Imperial Armament's power to hack that black blaze in two.

"Boom~~~"

Sure enough, his slash was extremely ferocious. It caused the black blaze to flutter about everywhere.

"Heavens, that is?!!!"

However, when the black blaze scattered and dispersed, those who were able to see what was contained within the black blaze all revealed a huge change in expression.

The reason for that was because a figure had appeared in the location where the black blaze had dissipated. It was a middle-aged man.

However, that middle-aged man not only emitted maturity, he was also emitting a dense amount of nefarious nature. He wore black clothes, had red phoenix eyes that were searing with killing intent, and black lips that were curved into a mischievous smile. He was simply and purely nefarious in appearance.

Many people in the Holy Land of Martialism recognized that man. He was the Underworld Palace's Palace Master, Hun Jingtian.

"Senior Lianghua, junior Hun Jintian shall provide senior with a helping hand," After the Underworld Palace's Palace Master appeared, he first smiled at Lord Lianghua with a benevolent smile. Then, he took out a long, black sword and unleashed ferocious attacks at the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master.

"Haha, Hun Jintian, you've arrived at the perfect time," Lord Lianghua had originally been feeling extremely gloomy. However, after seeing Hun Jintian, he started to laugh heartily.

By himself, he was indeed no match for both the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master. However, after the Underworld Palace's Palace Master appeared, it was now a two-on-two. If it was a two-on-two, the pressure on him would be reduced enormously.

Chapter 2003 – Chu Feng’s Massacre Show

“Hun Jingtian, you actually also came to involve yourself in this matter? Are you planning to use this opportunity to kiss the Ancient Era’s Elves’ ass?”

“Or, could it be that you’re planning to use this opportunity to win favor from that boy Chu Feng?” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master asked coldly.

Clearly, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master felt extremely displeased. Originally, he had grasped victory in his palm. However, with the addition of the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master, their battle would enter a stalemate once again.

“I merely think that this is the best opportunity to get rid of your Heavenly Law Palace,” Hun Jingtian had a smile on him the entire time. However, the Imperial Armament that he held in his hand grew more and more ferocious. He simply wanted to take the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master’s life.

“Today, it’s not our Heavenly Law Palace, but rather your Underworld Palace that will be eradicated!” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master shouted. His each and every attack was also extremely ferocious.

There had been grievances between the Heavenly Law Palace and the Underworld Palace for many years now. Today, they would finally fight a battle to the death. It must be said, after the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master joined the battle, the battle became even more intense.

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

At the moment when the four rank eight Martial Emperors were fighting one another, many blasts of wind began to echo continuously. Countless black flames were surging forth from the distant horizon like a black meteor shower.

In the end, those black flames landed on the battlefield.

Upon entering the battlefield, those black flames turned into black-clothed individuals. Ruthlessly, those people began to attack and kill the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

They were the Underworld Palace’s army. It turned out that the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master Hun Jingtian was not the only person that had come. Hun Jingtian had also arrived with the Underworld Palace’s army.

“Little friend Chu Feng, per the order from our Palace Master, we have come to provide you with assistance.”

Right at that moment, an old man appeared beside Chu Feng. This person was the Underworld Palace’s management elder that had helped Chu Feng many times in the Moonlight Maze, Elder Huang Guan.

“Seniors, you all have come at the perfect time,” At that moment, Chu Feng was overjoyed by the appearance of the Underworld Palace’s army. This was something that he and the great majority of the people present had not expected.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng did not possess a familiarity with the Underworld Palace.

However, regardless, the arrival of the Underworld Palace’s army was akin to sending charcoal in snowy weather.

With the addition of the Underworld Palace’s army, the Cyanwood Mountain that had been in an absolutely disadvantaged state against the Mortal King Palace and the Heavenly Law Palace's armies was able to once again seize dominance in the battle.

“Rooarrr~~~”

Not long after the Underworld Palace joined the battle, dragon-like roars suddenly sounded from afar. Then, enormous black monstrous dragons came galloping towards the Cyanwood Mountain, killing their way onto the battlefield.

Their enormous bodies created a complete mess out of the places where they passed!!!

“Little friend Chu Feng, we are sorry to have come late.”

It was the King Monstrous Dragon Race. The King Monstrous Dragon Race's Clan Chief had led the King Monstrous Dragon Race army to assist Chu Feng.

Chu Feng was overjoyed to see the King Monstrous Dragon Race. After all, he possessed a deep relationship with the King Monstrous Dragon Race and was allied with them.

The King Monstrous Dragon Race had dispatched all of their elites here to assist Chu Feng. Chu Feng could tell that the King Monstrous Dragon Race were sincerely trying to help him.

“Kill! Even if our Four Great Imperial Clans merely possess the splendor of fireflies, we must still assist little friend Chu Feng today and fight alongside the Cyanwood Mountain.”

To Chu Feng's surprise, after the arrival of the King Monstrous Dragon Race, the Four Great Imperial Clans' Utmost Exalted Elders personally led a group of elites from the Four Great Imperial Clans and killed their way onto the battlefield.

Although it was only a group of elites, and only a single Utmost Exalted Elder had been dispatched from each of the clans, it remained that both Chu Feng and the bystanders were shocked by their arrival to help Chu Feng. After all, they had been insistent on killing Chu Feng before.

Some of the crowd even began to rub their eyes nonstop, not daring to believe what they were seeing.

Even though the crowd were all very shocked by the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace joining hands, they were even more shocked by this many powers coming to assist Chu Feng.

They truly managed to experience what it meant by ‘a hundred answers to a single call.’ Furthermore, Chu Feng had not even called for those people. Instead, those powers had come to help Chu Feng of their own accord.

Although Chu Feng was very shocked by this, he soon smiled a relieved smile.

No matter what, the Four Great Imperial Clans’ Utmost Exalted Elders had personally experienced Chu Feng’s strength in the Moonlight Maze. They also knew that Chu Feng possessed a deep relationship with the Ancient Era’s Elves.

Likely, they had carefully considered their actions, and ultimately decided to stand with Chu Feng. They wished to seize this opportunity to board the Ancient Era’s Elves’ great vessel in order to obtain steadiness for their future.

However, regardless, it remained that they had acted upon their beliefs, and had dispatched elites to help Chu Feng. Thus, Chu Feng felt equally grateful toward the Four Great Imperial Clans.

It could be said that the grudges between Chu Feng and the Four Great Imperial Clans were completely settled as of that moment. From today hence, they would be true allies.

What did it mean to be allies? They were people or powers that would come to assist one another at their most critical moments.

“Mere King Monstrous Dragon Beasts and Four Great Imperial Clans actually dared to come contend against our Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace? After this battle is over, the next to be exterminated will be you all!”

The people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace were already furious because of the participation of the Underworld Palace. When the Four Great Imperial Clans and the King Monstrous Dragon Beasts also arrived to help Chu Feng, they became filled with anger.

Even though the King Monstrous Dragon Beasts and the Four Great Imperial Clans possessed strength greatly inferior to their own, it remained that they were great powers.

This was especially true now that they were fighting the Cyanwood Mountain and the Underworld Palace. They were already caught in a disadvantaged state. And now, the appearance of the Four Great Imperial Clans and the King Monstrous Dragon Race would only cause their battles to become even more difficult. As such, how could they not become enraged?

After all, both the Four Great Imperial Clans and the King Monstrous Dragon Race were afraid of them before, and would not dare to cause trouble for them.

The fact that they dared to do so now was only because they were borrowing the imposing power of the Cyanwood Mountain and the Ancient Era’s Elves. Because of that, the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace were all filled with endless rage.

“Puu...”

“Ahh~~~”

Right after the threatening words aimed at the Four Great Imperial Clans and the King Monstrous Dragon Race were spoken by that Heavenly Law Palace’s elder, a silvery light suddenly flashed through the air. Then, that man started to scream in pain. His blood swirled in the air as his physical body was destroyed by

Chu Feng.

As for that man, he was already the thousandth person to die after threatening the Four Great Imperial Clans and the King Monstrous Dragon Race.

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng was the one that had ended up killing them.

“You dare to boast shamelessly when you’re powerless to defend yourself?” After killing a thousand individuals in the blink of an eye, Chu Feng turned his chilly gaze to his surroundings.

Upon hearing what Chu Feng said and seeing his gaze, the troops from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace started to shiver. At that moment, no one dared to speak any more threats.

The reason for that was because those with cultivations above rank six Martial Emperor were all contained by the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal and the Underworld Palace’s experts.

As for those below the cultivation of rank six Martial Emperor, there was simply no one capable of being Chu Feng’s opponent. Thus, to the current Chu Feng, he felt as if he was like a fish released back into the water in the battlefield.

The existence of Chu Feng was simply a nightmare to the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

“Humph,” Even though the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace had both grown afraid of him, Chu Feng did not stop his attacks.

With a cold smile, Chu Feng unleashed his attacks again. With each attack, a crimson light would flash through the air.

In order to bring about absolute superiority in this battle, Chu Feng did not fight with rank six Martial Emperors. Instead, he was killing those below rank six Martial Emperor without any restraint. With Chu Feng’s strength, those below rank six Martial Emperor simply did not even possess the power to fight back against him. Thus, this was most definitely a massacre.

Chapter 2004 – Angrily Fighting Three Evildoers

“That guy!!!”

At that moment, the crowd whose gazes were focused on Lord Lianghua and the three Palace Masters’ battle all turned their gaze to Chu Feng.

Those four rank eight Martial Emperors were truly too powerful. As such, the crowd were simply unable to see their battle clearly. At the very most, they could only enjoy the excitement of the battle. However, Chu Feng was different. They were able to clearly see a portion of his attacks and movements.

“Chu Feng, isn’t he too ferocious? Those Martial Emperor-level experts are actually being sliced apart like watermelons. They simply have no way to fight back.”

Seeing Chu Feng’s massacre with their very own eyes, the crowd started to have a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng.

“Little friend Chu Feng, let us assist you too.”

In this sort of situation, there were actually people among the bystanders joining the battlefield unceasingly. They joined to assist Chu Feng and the others in their battle against the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

Some of these people were those whom Chu Feng had met in the Moonlight Maze. Others were strangers who had never met Chu Feng before.

However, regardless of whom they might be, it remained that their decision to join the battle on Chu Feng’s side meant that they stood with Chu Feng.

Regardless of what sort of intentions these people might have, the fact that they were willing to fight with him and create a threat to the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace meant Chu Feng would welcome them.

Of course, since there were people that chose to assist Chu Feng, there were also people that chose to assist the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace. Merely, the ones that chose to assist Chu Feng greatly outnumbered the ones that chose to assist the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

Right at that moment, a shout sounded from afar, “Chu Feng, do you dare to fight against us?”

Turning towards the direction of that shout, Chu Feng’s eyes shone. In that direction were three fiendish-looking old men. Not only did those three old men possess cultivations of rank six Martial Emperors, they were each holding an Imperial Armament and wantonly killing the people from the Cyanwood Mountain.

Most importantly, those three old men all reeked very strongly of blood. This meant that they had killed countless people, that they were true fiends.

Suddenly, someone shouted from the crowd, “It’s them, the Holy Land of Martialism’s Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong!”

Furthermore, upon seeing those three old men, many people began to express overwhelming anger. They were itching to kill those three old men themselves.

After all, the Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong were people who had done all sorts of malicious deeds. Many people possessed deep hatred and grudges towards them. They were the most notorious existences in the Holy Land of Martialism.

“This is strange, how did they become this powerful? Even the strongest of the three, Evildoer Jin, was only a rank four Martial Emperor before. How did the three of them suddenly become rank six Martial Emperors?”

“Furthermore, they are all holding an Imperial Armament. None of them had an Imperial Armament before. Exactly where did they obtain their Imperial Armaments?”

At that moment, some of the people that knew about the Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong began to express confusion. They had disappeared for some time. Their reappearance with their new strength shocked the crowd.

“Come, let me, Snow Blade, take on you three Evildoers.”

Right at that moment, the Snow Blade Mad Demon charged toward Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong. With each slash of his Snow Blade, cold rays would radiate all around, and snowflakes would dance in the air.

With each slash, a slaughter within snowflakes.

The Snow Blade Mad Demon’s reputation was well-justified. Among the rank six Martial Emperors, he could be considered to be a mid-to-upper ranked expert.

The reason why he dared to fight against the three Evildoers by himself was because he despised the Three Great Evildoers from the bottom of his heart.

He knew that the current cultivations of Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong were not obtained by themselves through martial cultivation. Else, it would be impossible for their cultivations to increase this quickly. Snow Blade Mad Demon was planning to personally experience exactly what shenanigans the three Evildoers’ cultivations possessed.

He wished to see whether or not they had obtained some treasures or used some special method to gain their current cultivations.

“Puchi~~~”

“Ahhh~~~~”

However, not long after the Snow Blade Mad Demon began to battle against Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong, his arm was hacked off.

One against three, he was absolutely no match for Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong.

“Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong are actually this powerful? The old Senior Snow Blade Mad Demon is actually no match for them?” Personally seeing the Snow Blade Mad Demon’s arm hacked off by the three Evildoers in a blink of an eye, the crowd were all astonished.

Even though the crowd all felt that the Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong had obtained their cultivations unnaturally, and that there was something strange with their Imperial Armaments too, it remained that they had shown the crowd that they possessed the strength of rank six Martial Emperors with their skills, and had completely unleashed the strength of their Imperial Armaments.

“Snow Blade Mad Demon, what did you think you were? You actually dared to bring your lousy blade to fight against the three of us, who possess Imperial Armaments? Today, we’ll send you to your death,” The Three Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong seemed to be furious from the contempt that the Snow Blade Mad Demon had shown for them. At that moment, after having obtained absolute dominance over the Snow Blade Mad Demon, they were planning to kill him.

After alternating their attacks at the Snow Blade Mad Demon, Evildoer Jin raised his enormous Imperial Armament blade and swept it at the Snow Blade Mad Demon. If that attack were to land, the Snow Blade Mad Demon would be cut in half on the spot. Most importantly, the Snow Blade Mad Demon was unable to dodge the incoming attack.

“Clank~~~”

However, at the moment of imminent peril, a silvery light suddenly flashed through. As sparks formed from the collision, the silvery light knocked back Evildoer Jin’s Imperial Armament.

Following that, two more silvery lights shot forth and knocked back both Evildoer Yin and Evildoer Tong.

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng had promptly arrived to save the Snow Blade Mad Demon.

“Chu Feng!!!” Upon seeing Chu Feng, Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong all revealed overflowing hatred in their eyes. At that moment, one could even hear the sound of them grinding their teeth in anger.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, three of the Underworld Palace’s management elders all left their own locations and flew to Chu Feng’s side. It was Elder Huang Guang and the others.

“Senior Huang Guan, there are already grudges between me and those three Evildoers. Allow me to settle this grudge today. I will take care of them myself,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well,” Elder Huang Guan knew very well how powerful Chu Feng was. Thus, he did not hesitate, and led the two other Underworld Palace’s management elders to return to the battlefield to kill the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

“Chu Feng, you have killed our disciples. Today, we shall have our vengeance,” Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong all brandished their respective Imperial Armaments and charged toward Chu Feng.

“Ever since the day I killed those three, I knew that such a day would come. Merely, aren’t the three of you far too cowardly? I’ve waited for you three for so long,” Chu Feng had a smile on his face as he effortlessly received his enemies while mocking them.

“Where’s Zhan Cangtian? That so-called leader of the Five Great Evildoers? I have also killed his disciple, Zhan Qiankun. Why did he not come to take revenge against me here?”

“Heh, a bullshit leader of the Five Great Evildoers. Turns out that he’s a coward too,” Not only was Chu Feng insulting the three Evildoers, he was also insulting Zhan Cangtian, the leader of the Five Great Evildoers.

Truth be told, if it was back then, if these notorious Evildoers were to come create trouble for Chu Feng back then, Chu Feng would have been afraid of them. However, now, he simply did not place them in his eyes anymore.

Not to mention Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong, Chu Feng wouldn’t even fear their leader, the person with strength that surpassed these three Evildoers, Zhan Cangtian.

Chapter 2005 – Emperor Qing’s Successor

“The three of us are more than enough to take care of you. There’s simply no need for Lord Zhan Cangtian.”

Even though they were all known as Evildoers, Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong were extremely respectful towards the leader of the Five Great Evildoers, Zhan Cangtian.

“So you all actually have someone you’re afraid of? It would appear that I have underestimated you all. Not only are you all cowards, you’re utter cowards. Even in here, you’re still flattering Zhan Cangtian. Could it be that Zhan Cangtian is actually your daddy?”

Chu Feng continued to mock them. As these three Evildoers had done all sorts of malicious things, it was greatly insufficient for him to just kill them. As such, Chu Feng was determined to insult and humiliate them.

“Chu Feng, you little brat. Continue to talk, I’ll take care of you!”

“Chu Feng, regardless of what sort of ability you might have, you are only able to increase your cultivation to rank four Martial Emperor.”

“You, with your strength of a mere rank four Martial Emperor, did you really think that you would be able to contend against us? Brat, you are truly too arrogant.”

“Today, we shall let you know how high the sky is, and how vast the earth is,” At that moment, Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong were all filled with confidence. They felt that they would absolutely be able to kill Chu Feng. Thus, their attacks grew more and more ferocious, and they began to mock Chu Feng back.

“It seems like the three of you have simply not determined the situation before you.”

Chu Feng sneered. Indeed, Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong now possessed the strength of rank six Martial Emperors. Furthermore, they were able to unleash the might of their Imperial Armaments.

However, to Chu Feng, none of these three Evildoers possessed strength comparable to the YinYang Immortal.

Furthermore, even if the YinYang Immortal were still alive, he would not be a match for Chu Feng. As such, how could these three Evildoers possibly be a match for Chu Feng?

“Earthen Taboo: Firmament Slash.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng continuously slashed with the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in his hand. With each slash, a crimson light shot forth. Chu Feng had unleashed an Earthen Taboo Martial Skill.

— the Earthen Taboo: Firmament Slash.

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

.....

The nine slashes were all shot forth in succession. As the nine crimson slashes were finished, Evildoers Jin, Yin and Tong’s bodies were dead with their bodies badly mutilated.

They had been defeated. When fighting against them, there was simply no need for Chu Feng to use any Heaven Taboo Martial Skills. With merely an Earthen Taboo Martial Skill, he had managed to easily defeat them and take their lives.

“Those are quite decent Imperial Armaments. Merely, when used by you all, they are simply being wasted,” After Chu Feng killed the three Evildoers, he placed their Imperial Armaments into his own Cosmos Sack. It was not only their Imperial Armaments, even their Cosmos Sacks and all the treasures they held on them were seized by Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, he... he actually managed to kill Evildoers Jin, Yin, and Tong so easily?”

Even though Chu Feng had already returned to the battlefield to kill the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace and had completely disregarded the matter concerning the three Evildoers, the surrounding crowd were filled with endless astonishment.

No matter what, when the Evildoers Jin, Yin, and Tong had fought against the Snow Blade Mad Demon, they had already exhibited their strength to the crowd.

That said, it was precisely because of that that Chu Feng’s killing of the Evildoers Jin, Yin, and Tong demonstrated how much more powerful he was.

That said, even if Chu Feng had already revealed his renowned ability, his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, it remained that his cultivation had only increased to that of a rank four Martial Emperor.

A heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation. Chu Feng possessed a battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation. That child was, without a doubt, a demon-level character.

Earlier, regardless of what the rumors of Chu Feng might be, they had remained only rumors, since only a portion of the people present had seen Chu Feng’s strength.

However, today, there were countless bystanders present. When these people finally saw that Chu Feng possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation, all of them were astonished.

“Rumble~~~”

In the moment when the crowd was filled with astonishment,

Chu Feng began to massacre his enemies ruthlessly.

Not only was he slaughtering his foes himself, he had also unleashed his two Supreme Secret Skills, the Water Immortal Profound Technique and the Fire Immortal Profound Technique.

“The two Supreme Secret Skills are actually both with him?”

“According to rumors, the Five Elements Secret Skills cannot coexist in the same host because one’s body cannot withstand them.”

“However, Chu Feng, he... he accomplished that. He’s actually that heaven-defying. That child is truly too frightening,” Upon seeing the two Supreme Secret Skills, the Water Immortal Profound Technique and the Fire Immortal Profound Technique, the crowd became even more amazed by Chu Feng.

“Roar~~~~”

However, that was merely the beginning. After revealing the Fire Immortal Profound Technique and the Water Immortal Profound Technique, Chu Feng unleashed...

... the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique, the White Tiger Slaughtering Technique, the Vermilion Bird Resurrection Technique and the Black Tortoise Armor Technique, his Four Great Supreme Secret Skills.

Furthermore, those Four Great Supreme Secret Skills were all unleashed in their complete form, their Divine Beast appearance. Their roars were capable of shaking the heavenly dome. They were filled with dominance.

“Heavens, what are those?! This sensation, could they also be secret skills?!” Sure enough, at the moment when the crowd were all astonished by the Water Immortal Profound Technique and the Fire Immortal Profound Technique, the appearance of four more Supreme Secret Skills caused the crowd to be so astonished that they became stunned.

No matter how they looked at it, those four Supreme Secret Skills Chu Feng had unleashed were existences even more frightening than the Fire Immortal Profound Technique and the Water Immortal Profound Technique.

“Those four Divine Beasts look exactly the same as Lord Emperor Qing’s legendary four guardian beasts. Could it be... Chu Feng is Emperor Qing’s successor?!”

“What?!!!!!!”

Many experts from the Holy Land of Martialism were present to witness this battle. There were many among them that were experienced and knowledgeable. They managed to recognize that Chu Feng’s Four Great Supreme Secret Skills were Qing Xuantian’s guardian beasts.

After the first person spoke out, another person spoke out as well. Gradually, practically everyone felt that Chu Feng’s Four Great Supreme Secret Skills were Qing Xuantian’s four guardian beasts.

“And I wondered how Chu Feng was so heaven-defying. It turns out that he’s Emperor Qing, Qing Xuantian’s successor.”

At that moment, the crowd were all astonished by this news.

If it were someone else that was declared to be Emperor Qing’s successor, the crowd would all be skeptical of it. In fact, they would simply not believe it.

However, when it was Chu Feng, the people were simply not skeptical at all. After all, Chu Feng was truly heaven-defying. There were people who had felt that Chu Feng might be some great almighty being’s successor to begin with. Some had even felt that that great almighty person would be Emperor Qing, Qing Xuantian.

After all, Chu Feng’s heaven-defying manner was exactly the same as how heaven-defying Qing Xuantian was.

And now, when the crowd personally saw the Azure Dragon, the White Tiger, the Vermilion Bird and the Black Tortoise, they were certain that Chu Feng was Emperor Qing, Qing Xuantian's successor.

"That brat is truly filled with surprises," Not to mention the bystanders, even the Underworld Palace's Palace Master took notice of this.

Evidently, he also felt that Chu Feng was Qing Xuantian's successor. Thus, a smile of ease appeared on his face.

He had decided to help Chu Feng as a gamble. And now, he knew that his gamble was a success. Even disregarding currying favors from the Ancient Era's Elves, merely Chu Feng's own strength was sufficient for them, the Underworld Palace, to provide him their full assistance.

"Damn it!" However, this news that caused the Underworld Palace's Palace Master to burst with joy caused both the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master to frown deeply.

The complacency they had earlier had disappeared completely. It was clear that the two of them were both regretting their decision.

Qing Xuantian's influence was enormous. Even though ten thousand years had passed, Qing Xuantian's name still remained as a fear to countless people.

This was especially true for the huge monsters like the Three Palaces. They knew very well how frightening Qing Xuantian was. He had been a true overlord, an existence that surpassed all others in the Holy Land of Martialism back then.

As for that Chu Feng, he was actually Qing Xuantian's successor? It was no wonder Chu Feng possessed such heaven-defying strength.

Truth be told, if they had known that Chu Feng was Qing

Xuantian's successor, the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace might not have joined hands to attack the Cyanwood Mountain.

Chapter 2006 – The Arrival Of Reinforcements

“Heavenly Law Palace, Mortal King Palace, you all truly have enormous dog’s guts!!!”

Right at that moment, a loud shout exploded from the distant horizon.

When that voice was heard, the expressions of practically everyone changed enormously. The reason for that was because they were all able to feel the power behind that voice. It was a rank eight Martial Emperor that had shouted.

Unexpectedly, another rank eight Martial Emperor had appeared.

Sure enough, soon an old man appeared. It was another Grand Elder of the Ancient Era’s Elves, Lord Luokong.

Not long after Lord Luokong appeared, several hundred thousand soldiers in green armor arrived in the sky in an orderly manner.

They were the elites of the Ancient Era’s Elves. Lord Luokong had led an army of elite Ancient Era’s Elves here.

“Heavens!!!”

At that moment, not only were the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace stunned, even the bystanders were stunned. At that moment, they did not know how to describe their current state of mind.

They were all stunned by the scene before them. Although the army of hundreds of thousands from the Ancient Era’s Elves were greatly inferior to the Three Palaces’ armies of millions in terms in numbers, the Ancient Era’s Elves’ army of hundreds of thousands were their true elites.

Their overwhelming might immediately suppressed the Three Palaces' armies the moment they appeared on the scene.

At that moment, the crowd was finally able to realize how powerful the Ancient Era's Elves were.

Sure enough, the Ancient Era's Elves were the strongest power in the Holy Land of Martialism. They were an existence that the Three Palaces could not compare with.

Not to mention the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace, even if the Underworld Palace were to join hands with them, they would likely not be a match for the Ancient Era's Elves.

"It's over. The Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace's decision this time around was truly a mistake."

"Making Chu Feng an enemy was their greatest mistake. Likely, they will suffer a calamity today."

After the Underworld Palace joined the battle, the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace had already entered a disadvantaged state. And now, the Ancient Era's Elves had arrived with a large force to assist the Cyanwood Mountain. Without a doubt, this would force the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace into desperate straits.

Not to mention the others, even the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Masters had dejected expressions on their faces. They both knew that they were powerless to reverse this battle now.

Suddenly, the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master shouted, "Stop!!!"

He turned to his subordinates and spoke with a loud voice. "Everyone from the Heavenly Law Palace, cease your attacks."

"Everyone from the Mortal King Palace, cease fighting," In response, the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master also ordered his subordinates to stop fighting.

Not only were they ordering their subordinates to stop fighting, they themselves did not dare to continue fighting against Lord Lianghua and the Underworld Palace's Palace Master. Instead, the two of them began to withdraw.

“Puu~~~”

“Puu~~~”

Although the two of them did not dare to fight back, Lord Lianghua and the Underworld Palace's Palace Master did not act leniently toward them at all. As the two of them continued to attack the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Masters, they both managed to find gaps in their defenses. Ruthlessly, they managed to slash the bodies of their opponents.

Lord Lianghua directly hacked off the Mortal King Palace Master's arm.

As for the Underworld Palace's Palace Master, he was even more ruthless. Not only did he managed to hack off one of the Heavenly Law Palace Master's arms, he had also hacked off his shoulder.

That said, even though they were feeling pain from having their arms hacked off, the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master merely bit down on their teeth to endure the pain without uttering a sound.

“Well then, let's stop.”

At that moment, the Underworld Palace's Palace Master and Lord Lianghua had originally wanted to continue attacking them. However, Lord Luokong suddenly arrived beside them and stopped them.

“Lord Luokong, what Lord Lianghua says is entirely correct,” The Underworld Palace's Palace Master began to add oil to fire.

“I am under orders from His Majesty that we must not eliminate the Heavenly Law Palace,” Lord Luokong said to Lord Lianghua through voice transmission.

Lord Lianghua was startled upon hearing those words. Then, still angry, he said via voice transmission, “Then we’ll eliminate the Mortal King Palace.”

“Lianghua, calm yourself. Do not forget what we Ancient Era’s Elves promised Lord Qing Xuantian,” Lord Luokong urged against it.

Lord Lianghua started to gnash his teeth in anger. His fists were clenched so tightly that cracking sounds could be heard. Originally, someone like Lord Lianghua would have great control over his state of mind.

However, this time around, he was unable to control his state of mind. He was truly enraged by the actions and conduct of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace. However, he was not allowed to eliminate them. This caused him to feel extremely sullen.

“Everyone from the Underworld Palace, stop attacking,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master was an intelligent individual. He was able to tell that the Ancient Era’s Elves did not plan to eradicate the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace. Thus, he ordered his men to stop.

In fact, after the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace ceased their attacks, Chu Feng had already ordered the Cyanwood Mountain’s people to stop attacking. At that moment, the battle was halted.

“Little friend Chu Feng, please come over here,” Lord Luokong waved at Chu Feng with a smile on his face.

He knew that while the Cyanwood Mountain’s leader was actually Baili Xuankong, the person that actually possessed the authority to speak was Chu Feng.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I know that your mood is extremely bad right now. Truth be told, I have come here with the orders from His Majesty that we must not eliminate the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.”

“It is not that His Majesty is being lenient and merciful toward them. Rather, there is a reason behind it. To put it simply, Qing Xuantian asked our Ancient Era’s Elves to, regardless of how excessive the human powers might act, not eradicate those human powers that had existed for tens of thousands of years, and only to teach them a lesson.”

“You are a very smart individual. I believe you should understand what I mean,” Lord Luokong said to Chu Feng in a very apologetic manner. Of course, he spoke to Chu Feng through voice transmission. Thus, only Chu Feng heard him.

“Junior understands,” Chu Feng replied through voice transmission. Then, Chu Feng said openly, “Lord Luokong, today, the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace have not only attacked our Cyanwood Mountain, they have also looked down upon the Ancient Era’s Elves. If it wasn’t for the assistance from the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master, they might really have dared to kill Lord Lianghua.”

“As you are the senior, I will not concern myself with that matter. You and Lord Lianghua can handle it,” Chu Feng said.

“Two dogs, why are you still standing there? Immediately kneel down and apologize to little friend Chu Feng and Lord Lianghua,” Lord Luokong pointed at the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace’s Palace Masters.

At that moment, in order to survive, the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace's Palace master knelt in midair toward Chu Feng and Lord Lianghua without the slightest hesitation.

This scene was visible to all the crowd. It was also because of this scene that the crowd realized how powerful the Ancient Era's Elves really were.

The Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace's Palace Masters were akin to gods in the minds of the people of the world.

However, these two gods were now kneeling and apologizing. They knew that this was not due to Chu Feng, nor was it due to Lord Lianghua. Rather, it was due to the strength of the Ancient Era's Elves.

Chapter 2007 – Compensation

“You all truly have enormous nerves. Speak honestly, are you all colluding with the Dark Hall?” Lord Lianghua asked coldly.

Earlier, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master were really trying to kill him. Thus, the fury in Lord Lianghua’s heart was not something that would decrease with merely their fake apologies.

“Milord, we truly haven’t colluded with the Dark Hall. Although we were momentarily foolish, we truly did not collude with the Dark Hall.”

“Lord Luokong, Lord Lianghua, please give us another chance,” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master said in unison.

Even though the two of them were Palace Masters, they were actually cowards who were afraid of dying. Furthermore, they knew that if they were to die, their Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace would be ruined too. Thus, even while at death’s door, they still had to struggle to survive.

As long as they survived, there would still be hope. In the end, people would only remember your glories, and not your shameful past.

“We Ancient Era’s Elves are a benevolent race. We will not eradicate you.”

“However, today, you all were trying to kill little friend Chu Feng and eradicate the Cyanwood Mountain. As such, whether or not you all will be spared should not be determined by we Ancient Era’s Elves. Instead, it should be up for little friend Chu Feng to determine it,” Lord Luokong said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I apologize for how I wronged you earlier. Moreover, I truly did not know that you were Lord Qing Xuantian's successor.”

“If I knew that you were Lord Qing Xuantian's successor, I would have taken Lord Qing Xuantian's contributions to our human race into consideration, and would absolutely not have attacked you.”

“But, regardless of what I say now, it's already too late. I am the one in the wrong. Little friend Chu Feng, you can punish or kill me. However, little friend Chu Feng, please spare my Heavenly Law Palace's elders and disciples. They have only come here on my orders. It is not because they wanted to come and attack you,” The Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master said.

Afterwards, the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master also said similar words to Chu Feng.

They were very smart. In front of the Ancient Era's Elves, they acted in an absolutely petty and inferior manner because they were afraid of the Ancient Era's Elves.

However, when before Chu Feng, although they were apologizing to Chu Feng, they still acted with the boldness and integrity that Palace Masters should possess.

The reason for that was very simple. Even though they had been humiliated, they could not allow themselves to be utterly humiliated. Before the Ancient Era's Elves, they had no choice but to act low and petty. However, Chu Feng remained a member of the younger generation. As such, they could not achieve the same sort of pettiness and lowness when facing Chu Feng. Else, if this matter were to spread, they would have no face to face the people of the world.

In fact, the words spoken by the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace's Palace Masters managed to obtain some sympathy from the crowd. This was especially true because the two of them were seriously injured right now. But, although they were injured, they did not try to tend to their wounds. This caused the crowd to have some sympathy for them.

After all, the two of them were the strongest experts among the humans. If they were to truly die, it would be a loss for all of humanity.

As for Chu Feng, he knew very well what sort of character the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master have. If he had the choice, he would have definitely killed them without the slightest hesitation.

However, Lord Luokong had spoken to Chu Feng earlier through voice transmission because he didn't want Chu Feng to act too excessively and kill them. As for Chu Feng, he had to give Lord Luokong and the Ancient Era's Elves face.

"Even if there are ten thousand reasons why you all have attacked our Cyanwood Mountain, the people from our Cyanwood Mountain that died in battle were all innocent," Chu Feng said.

"Little friend Chu Feng, your intention is?" The two men looked to Chu Feng.

"While you can be spared death, you must be punished for your crimes. As such, your Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace must compensate our Cyanwood Mountain," Chu Feng said.

"That's no issue. We will definitely compensate your Cyanwood Mountain for its losses in double," The Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Masters nodded and accepted Chu Feng's condition without any hesitation.

This was the best resolution for them. As their Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace had existed for thousands of years, they possessed robust foundations. If it was only compensation, it would be extremely easy for them to do.

"I will be the one to determine the compensation," Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, both the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Masters started to frown. However, the two of them still accepted without the slightest hesitation, “No problem, tell us what you want.”

“Firstly, if it hadn’t been for the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans’ arrival today, our Cyanwood Mountain might really have ended up being trampled to the ground by your Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace. All the people in our Cyanwood Mountain would have ended up being killed by you all.”

“Thus, their appearance has not only saved our Cyanwood Mountain, they have also saved the lives of countless innocents.”

“However, for the sake of helping our Cyanwood Mountain, those powers have paid bitterly.”

“As such, while you all can refuse to compensate us our Cyanwood Mountain’s losses, you must compensate them for their losses.”

“As such, I demand that your Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace compensate the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and Four Great Imperial Clans in the form of an Imperial Armament and twenty Incomplete Imperial Armaments each,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, the nerves of the crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace all tightened.

It was one thing to compensate with Incomplete Imperial Armaments. But, Imperial Armaments were extremely precious. Not even all of the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace’s management elders possessed an Imperial Armament. From that, it could be seen how sparse their Imperial Armaments were.

Yet now, Chu Feng demanded that they compensate the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans, a total of six powers, with an Imperial Armament each. In other words, Chu Feng wanted the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace to hand over six Imperial Armaments as compensation. This was most definitely an extravagant demand.

“Very well. Little friend Chu Feng’s demand is reasonable and fair. We are willing to compensate,” Even though the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace’s Palace Masters were also very unwilling, they still accepted Chu Feng’s demand without the slightest hesitation.

“Remember, the compensation that I demand is for both the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace. It is not to be made jointly,” Chu Feng added.

“What?” Hearing those words, both the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace’s Palace Masters were startled.

Respectively? Not to be compensated jointly? In other words, both the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace must hand over six Imperial Armaments and a hundred and twenty Incomplete Imperial Armaments. When added together, this was a staggering amount of twelve Imperial Armaments and two hundred and forty Incomplete Imperial Armaments.

At that moment, it was not only the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace who were stunned. Even the bystanders were stunned. Their eyes were wide open and their tongues tied. Their current expressions were truly marvelous. They had truly never expected Chu Feng to be this ruthless.

The reason for that was because after surveying the entire battlefield and adding the Imperial Armament that their Palace Master held, it seemed the Mortal King Palace only possessed six Imperial Armaments in total.

As for the Heavenly Law Palace, they were a bit better. Adding the Imperial Armament that their Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master held, they totaled seven.

However, if they were to hand over six Imperial Armaments each, the Heavenly Law Palace would only have a single Imperial Armament left, and the Mortal King Palace would not have a single Imperial Armament.

How could this possibly be considered to be an extravagant demand anymore? Chu Feng was simply planning to bite the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace to their deaths.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you’ll be forcing us to our deaths here. In that case, it is better that you kill us,” The Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master smiled wryly.

“You’re the one who said that. If you’re unwilling to hand over the Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments, I will extinguish your Mortal King Palace,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. I am the one who made this decision today. You can kill me. However, please spare my Mortal King Palace’s elders and disciples, for they are innocent,” The Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master suddenly spoke with a loud voice.

Was he truly not afraid of death? No, not at all. He was merely trying to use the will of the people to force Chu Feng to be lenient toward them.

Chapter 2008 – Deliberately Making Things Difficult

“Are you implying that while your Mortal King Palace’s people are innocent, our Cyanwood Mountain’s people are not? That your lives are valuable, whereas our lives have no value? That you all can kill us as you wish?”

“If it wasn’t for the Ancient Era’s Elves, the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans coming to assist us today, our Cyanwood Mountain would have been razed to the ground by your Mortal King Palace. All the people of our Cyanwood Mountain would have been killed by you all.”

“At that time, who would have felt sympathy for us?” Chu Feng asked in succession. He appeared to be very emotional. If possible, he truly wished to kill the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master, this shameless old bastard.

“What little friend Chu Feng says is correct. The way I see it, there is simply no need for compensation. We should just directly eliminate them,” Elder Huang Guan from the Underworld Palace said loudly.

“That’s right, we don’t need any compensation. No matter how much you compensate us, you will not be able to bring back our brothers who died at your hands. What use is compensation? We merely want the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace to pay this debt of blood with blood.”

Following that, the crowd from the Underworld Palace, King Monstrous Dragon Race, Four Great Imperial Clans and Cyanwood Mountain all began to loudly shout in unison.

Their voices were like thunder, and their killing intent was overflowing. They were not joking around. They truly wanted the death and destruction of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

Faced with this sort of situation, the expressions of the crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace became very ugly. Many among them were shivering in fear. They truly did not wish to die, and were deeply afraid of death.

“.....” This sort of situation left the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master speechless. He had not expected Chu Feng to be this powerful. He had not expected Chu Feng to be able to stir up the will of the crowd even more skillfully than him.

The current situation was simply akin to being the will of the crowd. Even if Chu Feng were to order the eradication of their Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace, no one would blame Chu Feng for it.

Thus, the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master ended up gritting his teeth. Feeling enormous pain and unwillingness, he said, “Fine. I agree to little friend Chu Feng’s demand. I will compensate them.”

Chu Feng smiled coldly at the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master’s compliance. He had already seen through the nature of the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master, and knew that he was a coward that was afraid of death. Thus, Chu Feng already knew that he would have this sort of response. Thus, Chu Feng did not bother much with the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master. Instead, he turned directly to the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master and asked, “What about the Heavenly Law Palace?”

“Our Heavenly Law Palace also accepts little friend Chu Feng’s demand,” With the prior case of the Mortal King Palace, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master naturally would not dare to go against Chu Feng’s demand.

The winner was the king and the loser was the thief. And now, he could only admit his defeat and suffer the consequences.

“Our Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments are all mastered items right now. If we are to hand them over now, even if they are to obtain them, they would not be able to master them,” The two Palace Masters said in unison.

“Do you not know how to sever the connection? It’s alright if you don’t. I am able to help you all. Merely, I might be a bit harsh, and might even kill someone through severing their connection to their weapons,” Chu Feng said.

“Snap~~~”

Hearing what Chu Feng said, the two Palace Masters clenched their fists tightly.

Threatening. Chu Feng was openly threatening them. However, even when faced with this sort of threat, they had no choice but comply.

“Very well, we’ll do as little friend Chu Feng said,” In the end, the two of them decided to comply with Chu Feng’s demand.

Thus, the experts from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace began to publicly sever their connections with their weapons. This was the most disastrous for the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master. Due to the fact that the Mortal King Palace only possessed six Imperial Armaments altogether, they had to hand over all six of their Imperial Armaments. As such, even the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master had to sever his connection with his weapon. At the moment when he handed over his Imperial Armament, he truly felt as if his heart was bleeding.

While the reaction from the Underworld Palace’s crowd was still calm, when the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans all received two Imperial Armaments and forty Incomplete Imperial Armaments each, they felt extremely excited.

The Incomplete Imperial Armaments that the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace possessed were all of extremely high quality. They were all top quality weapons.

It was not that the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace did not want to hand over low quality Incomplete Imperial Armaments. Rather, it was Chu Feng who had refused the low quality Incomplete Imperial Armaments.

As for the Imperial Armaments, they were incomparably precious to the Four Great Imperial Clans and the King Monstrous Dragon Race. For them to suddenly obtain two Imperial Armaments each, they were truly overjoyed.

Merely those two Imperial Armaments and forty Incomplete Imperial Armaments had made their assistance to the Cyanwood Mountain completely worth it.

At the moment when the six powers were feeling joy, many people from the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace were crying. Yes, they were truly crying with tears.

By handing over those weapons, they had completely emptied their foundations. Likely, they would never again be able to obtain their former heights.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng said, “Next, it should be time for you all to compensate our Cyanwood Mountain,”

‘What? More compensation? Didn’t you say that it would do to just compensate the six powers? That the Cyanwood Mountain doesn’t need compensation? Why are you requesting compensation now?’

Hearing those words, the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace’s Palace Masters were terrified. However, regardless of what they thought in their hearts, they could not say it out loud. As such, they could only smile wryly.

“What’s wrong? Do you all not wish to compensate us? Are you implying that the casualties that our Cyanwood Mountain suffered should be disregarded?” Chu Feng asked with a stern voice.

“No, that’s not our intention at all. Little friend Chu Feng, what do you wish in compensation?” The two Palace Masters asked with bitter smiles on their faces. If it wasn’t for the fact that they would have to consider their status, the two of them would have cried with tears at this time.

“It’s very simple, just compensate our Cyanwood Mountain with the same compensation you gave the six powers,” Chu Feng said.

“What? Little friend Chu Feng, you’re... you’re making things difficult for us. We have already handed over all that we can as compensation.”

“You want the same sort of compensation? Not only are we unable to offer that sort of compensation now, we will not be able to offer that sort of compensation in the future either.”

“After all, what we had handed over as compensation earlier were things that we accumulated through several tens of thousands of years. Right now, we have already handed all of them over,” The Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master said.

“You can’t hand over the compensation? That’s fine, you can do it slowly.”

“However, you all must write a certificate of indebtedness,” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out two bamboo slips. He wrote some things on them and then said, “Done. You all can sign them now.”

At that moment, the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Masters were speechless. Chu Feng had done all these things in a very natural and flowing manner. Evidently, he had prepared this to begin with.

At that moment, they truly regretted their decisions. If they knew that Chu Feng would deliberately make things difficult for them in such a manner, they would have chosen their deaths instead.

Of course, this was merely what they thought. If they could survive, they would naturally do everything to survive. As such, before the eyes of countless individuals, they signed Chu Feng's certificates of indebtedness and imprinted them with their fingerprints.

"That's strange," Chu Feng said.

"What's strange? We have already signed the certificate of indebtedness according to your demands. What else do you demand from us?" The two Palace Masters said in an annoyed manner.

"You two have written your own names, and not the names of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace. If the two of you are to die without paying off the debt, who am I supposed to find to collect the debt?" Chu Feng asked.

At that moment, the two Palace Masters were so angry that their faces turned ashen. They did not expect for Chu Feng to be such a cautious individual. However, to them, Chu Feng's cautiousness was simply deliberately making things difficult for them.

Chapter 2009 – Vomiting Blood From Anger

Although they felt extremely displeased, they had no choice but to comply. As such, they added the names of their Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace to the certificates of indebtedness.

With that, it was no longer they who owed Chu Feng. Instead, it was the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace that owed Chu Feng. As long as the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace remained, they had to pay the debt.

“Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master, while it is true that the Mortal King Palace doesn’t have any more Imperial Armaments, don’t you have one in your hand?”

“Why are you not handing that over?” said Chu Feng as he looked to the Heavenly Law Palace Palace Master’s Imperial Armament.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I still need this Imperial Armament. Would you mind waiting until later when I find another Imperial Armament to hand to you?” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master pleaded. He was truly reluctant to part with his Imperial Armament.

After all, Imperial Armaments possessed awareness. As he had used that Imperial Armament for so long, he already gained feelings for it.

“To refuse to hand over an Imperial Armament when you have one, what sort of logic is that?”

“Everyone, tell me, isn’t this considered a refusal to pay one’s debt?” Chu Feng asked with a loud voice.

“Heavenly Law Palace Palace Master, I have heard of a phrase. Refusal to pay one’s debt, your anus faces the south. Refusal to return one’s money, your anus faces the north.”

“I-I-I-I’ll give it to you” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master started to shiver with anger. Without saying anything further, he immediately severed his relationship with his Imperial Armament and tossed it to Chu Feng.

“Puu~~~”

After that, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master vomited out a mouthful of blood. This was not only caused by his injuries from the connection with his Imperial Armament being severed, but rather, it was mainly because of his anger.

“What else do you want? I have compensated you with all that I can and written you a certificate of indebtedness for what I cannot compensate. What else do you want from me?”

“If that is still not enough, you might as well just kill us!” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master shouted in a very displeased manner.

Even his last bits of patience had been grinded off by Chu Feng. Chu Feng was truly too ruthless. Although Chu Feng did not kill any of them, he had snatched away all of their most valuable Imperial Armaments. Furthermore, he had left them with an enormous debt.

Although their Heavenly Law Palace had escaped from extermination, they had been completely curbed by Chu Feng. At that moment, Duanmu Feiyu felt as if he wished he was dead.

“You all still haven’t handed over the Wood Immortal Profound Technique and the Gold Immortal Profound Technique,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“What? Hand over the Wood Immortal Profound Technique and the Gold Immortal Profound Technique? Chu Feng, what kind of joke is this? You did not mention those two in the compensation that you wanted earlier,” The two Palace Masters said in unison.

The Three Palaces had existed for a very long time. Apart from Imperial Armaments, their most precious possessions were the three Supreme Secret Skills that they possessed.

They were already extremely unwilling to hand over the Imperial Armaments. And now, Chu Feng wanted them to hand over their Supreme Secret Skills too? How could they possibly be willing to agree to it? Furthermore, Chu Feng had indeed not mentioned any secret skills in the compensation he had requested before.

Thus, they would definitely not hand over their secret skills. The reason for that was because Chu Feng was the one being unreasonable here. Even if they were to dispute with him, even if they were to find people to determine who was wrong, they would not be afraid of Chu Feng.

“Indeed, I did not mention it in the compensation earlier. However, they were clearly written on your certificates of indebtedness.”

“Everyone, have a look, have a look. See and judge for yourselves,” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out the two certificates of indebtedness that the two Palace Masters had signed. Using his world spirit techniques, he had enlarged the words written on them. As such, everyone was able to see their contents.

After carefully reading the two certificates of indebtedness, the crowd was shocked to discover that, sure enough, there was a clause stating that the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace could use their Wood Immortal Profound Technique and Gold Immortal Profound Technique as a replacement for two weapons. However, they had to hand over the two secret skills to Chu Feng on the spot. Otherwise, they would be breaching the contract.

However, the matter that caused the crowd to not know whether to laugh or cry was that it was written on the contract that the two weapons that the two secret skills could replace were not Imperial Armaments, but rather Incomplete Imperial Armaments.

In other words, both the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace could give Chu Feng one less Incomplete Imperial Armament. However, they must use their Supreme Secret Skills as a replacement.

It would be one thing if they were to replace Imperial Armaments. However, they were actually only able to replace Incomplete Imperial Armaments. This caused the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace to become completely speechless.

“Bastard, Chu Feng, you are simply scamming people here!” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master felt as if he was going to be angered to death by Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, your actions are simply unreasonable!” The Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master was shivering with anger.

Due to their carelessness, they had not carefully read over the so-called certificate of indebtedness. However, they had not expected Chu Feng to scam them like this.

“Ah? Scam? This condition was clearly written on the certificates of indebtedness before the two of you signed them. It was your mistake to not carefully read them over. Yet now, you are actually blaming me for it?”

“Lord Luokong, Lord Lianghua, please preside over this matter. How could they refuse to admit their debt?” Chu Feng looked to the two Ancient Era’s Elves’ Grand Elders.

“We should not spare the lives of vile and lowly characters who refuse to recognize their losses,” Lord Lianghua said with a cold voice.

“The two of you should just admit to what you’ve signed. After all, little friend Chu Feng is already extremely tolerant to be willing to spare your lives,” Lord Luokong added.

“But, the secret skills’ original owners are already dead. Right now...” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master wanted to provide an excuse.

“Although I do not know who the previous owners of the two secret skills are, if my guess is correct, the two secret skills should be with the two Palace Masters, no?”

“It is best that you two do not deny it. Else, I have the means to make your secret skills reveal themselves. At that time, it would be extremely embarrassing for you all,” Chu Feng interrupted before the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master could finish.

“You!!!” Hearing those words, the faces of the two Palace Masters immediately turned ashen. Chu Feng had hit the bullseye. The two secret skills were indeed with them right now.

“Hand them over. Although your bodies might suffer some damage from a forced removal of the secret skills, you can have confidence in my world spirit techniques.”

“I am able to make it so that the two of you will suffer the least amount of damage from the removing of the secret skills,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“Take them,” The two Palace Masters said while gnashing their teeth. Today, they had truly suffered at the hands of Chu Feng.

Afterward, Chu Feng began to set up a spirit formation on the spot and removed the two secret skills from the two Palace Masters’ bodies.

Merely, after the two secret skills were removed, the two Palace Masters’ bodies started to tremble uncontrollably. Their complexions turned blue, and their lips turned green. They needed to be supported, or else they would not be able to even stand.

At that moment, the two men's vitality were deeply injured. Likely, they would not be able to recover in a short period of time.

Seeing that scene, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and Zhang Ming, these Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, all started to snicker up their sleeves.

They who were proficient with World Spirit Techniques all knew that it was not impossible to remove secret skills from one's body. Mainly, it would depend on the strength of one's world spirit techniques.

Actually, with their abilities as Dragon mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, all of them were capable of accomplishing that.

Furthermore, Chu Feng's mastery of World Spirit Techniques surpassed their own. Thus, even if the two Palace Masters were to be injured from the removal of the secret techniques, they should not be injured to such a degree. In fact, even if they were to be the ones removing the secret skills, the two Palace Masters would not have been injured to such a degree.

Yet now, the two Palace Masters had been so deeply injured. It was clear that there was only a single possibility as to why; Chu Feng had made a fool of them.

Chapter 2010 – Releasing Tigers, Pulling Out Teeth

After Chu Feng sealed the two Supreme Secret Skills with his world spirit formations, he spoke to the two Palace Masters with a beaming smile, “Seems like you two are still capable of complying with your promises.”

However, the two Palace Masters had no heart to answer Chu Feng. At that moment, they were still feeling enormous pain, as if their hearts were bleeding.

Especially when they saw Chu Feng’s beaming smile. They truly wanted to use their own hands to tear Chu Feng’s face apart. The reason for that was because they felt that Chu Feng was a truly vile and low person.

“Oh, that’s right. I have something else to tell you,” Chu Feng said again.

“What is it?” The two Palace Masters asked.

“I actually did not have the means to determine whether or not you two possessed secret skills. Thus, if you were to refuse to acknowledge that you had the secret skills, there would have been nothing that I could do about it,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

Hearing those words, the two Palace Master’s’ eyes were wide open with rage. Their faces started to distort. It was as if their hearts, livers, lungs and spleens were about to explode.

“Let’s go,” In the end, the two Palace Masters angrily shouted toward the sky. Then, they led their respective armies and left.

When they had arrived, they had been overwhelmingly imposing. However, when they left, they were completely spiritless.

Not long after the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace left, when they were still not far into the distance, Chu Feng spoke with a loud voice. “Everyone, the curtain has dropped on this battle. However, there is no need to leave this urgently.”

“Our Cyanwood Mountain wishes to invite everyone to a feast,”

“Very well!!!” Hearing those words, the crowd was overjoyed. One by one, they started to cheer frantically.

The crowd present had all attained a great experience. Not only did they find out that Chu Feng was overwhelmingly heaven-defying, they also found out that he possessed the backing of the Ancient Era’s Elves, an unparalleled matter.

As such, they all wished for an opportunity to befriend Chu Feng. And now, Chu Feng had actually invited them to a feast. Naturally, they would be overjoyed.

However, when this sort of cheering sound reached the ears of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace, it was undoubtedly an enormous attack at them.

If his previous vomiting of blood could be excused with the severance of his connection with his Imperial Armament, then his current vomiting of blood was completely because of being enraged by Chu Feng.

“Humph,” Chu Feng was observing the crowd from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace’s with his Heaven’s Eyes. When he saw the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master vomiting blood, there was not the slightest trace of sympathy in his eyes. Instead, the coldness in his eyes increased.

The hatred he had towards the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master was something that he would remember for the rest of his life.

Even though he had obtained complete victory today, it remained that their Cyanwood Mountain, the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race, and the Four Great Imperial Clans had all suffered casualties.

It was a bitter battle. However, this battle was one that did not have to happen.

However, because the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace felt that Chu Feng was a threat, they decided to create all kinds of difficulties for him. In fact, they even found an excuse to kill him.

Today, if it wasn't for the assistance from various powers, the Cyanwood Mountain would definitely have been razed to the ground. Regardless of whether it was the experts that had lived for close to ten thousand years, or the kids that had just embarked upon the path of martial cultivation, those who were related to Chu Feng would all have been killed by the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace's armies.

This was the cruelty of war. The victor was king and the loser was the thief. The victor would forever not sympathize with the loser.

In fact, if possible, even if he didn't eradicate the entire Heavenly law Palace and Mortal King Palace, Chu Feng would eliminate all of their elites.

The seed of resentment had already been sown. This was something that would be very difficult to remove. The result of cutting down weeds, but not pulling out their roots, would be facing retaliation in the future.

This was just like how the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace had been suppressed by the Ancient Era's Elves for so long. On the surface, they appeared submissive and did not dare to disrespect the Ancient Era's Elves.

However, once the opportunity presented itself, such as now, they immediately started to attack Lord Lianghua. This was their ambition. From that, it could be seen that the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace were most definitely not trustworthy powers.

Thus, if it wasn't for the fact the Ancient Era's Elves had promised Qing Xuantian that they would not extinguish human powers that had existed for tens of thousands of years, Chu Feng would definitely not have spared the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

In fact, Chu Feng did not agree with Qing Xuantian. So what if it was an old power that had existed for tens of thousands of years? If its existence would only bring harm to the world, why let it continue to exist?

Without being ruthless, one would not be able to stand steadily. This was especially true for the world of martial cultivators. If one did not try to kill others, they would instead become the fish on the chopping block for others to kill.

However, it remained that Qing Xuantian was a senior. When even the Ancient Era's Elves decided to comply with that promise, Chu Feng should also show respect for Qing Xuantian and spare the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace.

However, if Chu Feng were to just let the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace go like this, he felt that they would one day return for retaliation.

That was why Chu Feng had seized their Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments. Furthermore, by using the excuse of taking away their secret skills, Chu Feng had heavily damaged the two Palace Masters so that they would not be able to recover in a short period of time.

Furthermore, with what he had done, the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace would find it very difficult to regain their former strength unless they were given assistance by some sort of grand expert.

Perhaps what Chu Feng had done might appear to be despicable in the eyes of some people. However, Chu Feng must avenge those who were killed. At the same time, he must also consider those who were still alive.

At this moment, Lord Lianghua walked over to Chu Feng. “Little friend Chu Feng, your talent in martial cultivation has already left me speechless. However, your conduct today has truly made this old man gain a whole new level of respect for you yet again.”

“In the past, Duanmu Feiyu and Xun Fengyang were both extremely respectful towards me. This caused me to think that they truly respected me with sincerity, that they truly respected us, the Ancient Era’s Elves.”

“However, what happened today came like a club to my head. I was beaten awake by it.”

“It turned out that they both possessed ambitions. They were unwilling to be suppressed by my Ancient Era’s Elves forever.”

“Truth be told, I am very worried that they will join hands with the Dark Hall. In fact, I am unable to ascertain whether or not they have come here today under the directions of the Dark Hall.”

“Today, we have done an extremely frightening thing — we have released two fierce tigers back into the mountain, tigers that dream of biting us to death.”

“Fortunately, you have taken care of things beautifully. You have pulled out several of the two fierce tigers’ sharpest teeth. Like this, even if they were to bite us again in the future, it would not hurt that much,” Lord Lianghua said. He was feeling admiration for Chu Feng from the bottom of his heart.

“Chu Feng, what Lord Lianghua said is correct. You have taken care of this beautifully,” Lord Luokong also walked over.

“Indeed. Although it is said to only be compensation, you have managed to rattle the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace’s foundation. Like this, even if they were to attack us again in the future, they will not be as fierce as they were today,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master also nodded his head repeatedly.

Although what Chu Feng had done today might be seen as excessive for some people, to these wise men, Chu Feng had done everything perfectly.

With the situation today, they must release the people from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace alive even though they had killed a lot of innocent people.

However, Chu Feng had not left them leave in peace. Even if they were to be allowed to leave, Chu Feng made sure that they would pay the consequences for their actions. He had made sure that he would make up for the deaths of those innocents.

Two Supreme Secret Skills, thirteen Imperial Armaments and two hundred and forty Incomplete Imperial Armaments.

Although this compensation appeared to be a great amount, it was merely a small amount to them.

For certain people, Imperial Armaments surpassed everything. For a single treasure, they were willing to kill millions and millions of people. In this world of martial cultivation, this was what the great majority of people thought. Before one’s own interest, people’s lives were akin to grass.

However, to others, people’s lives were the most important. If one’s close kin were to be killed, so what if one possessed countless treasures?

Why Chu Feng wanted all those Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments today was not because of greed.

He didn't really care about compensation. Like Lord Lianghua had said, he merely did not want to release the tigers back into the mountain like that. He was merely pulling out their sharp teeth before releasing them back into the mountain.

Chapter 2011 – Only You

Today, these tigers must be released. Even though they were unwilling to do so, they had no choice but to release them.

As Chu Feng had pulled out the fierce tigers' sharp teeth, the crowd felt a whole new level of respect for him.

However, at the moment when all the grand characters were praising him, Chu Feng was unable to smile at all. Standing high in the sky, he looked to his surroundings.

He looked to the people with broken arms, broken legs, mutilated bodies or open wounds. Looking at them, Chu Feng felt as if his heart was bleeding.

These people didn't have to be injured. They were injured and left in this state all because of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

However, when compared to those who had died in this battle, these people who were only injured were extremely fortunate.

“Even though I have managed to obtain compensation and pulled out the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace's sharp teeth, I am unable to bring those who died back to life. I am unable to comfort their relatives through the pain of losing their loved ones.”

“If I had the choice, I would definitely personally avenge them, and kill all those from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace that came to invade us today.”

“Unfortunately, I am incompetent...”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he flew down from the sky and began to help heal the injured.

At that moment, the crowd was completely startled. The word ‘incompetent,’ caused their hearts to twitch.

Seeing Chu Feng saving the crowd, seeing him letting go of his status and healing even the unremarkable Martial Kings, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Immeasurable Immortal, Snow-haired Immortal and the others looked to one another.

Then, one by one, they descended to the surface and began to help heal the people injured in the battle.

Actually, healing the injured from a battle was not something that they, the grand characters, should be doing. Merely, as Chu Feng was doing so, they could not find any reason not to do so with him.

Afterwards, Chu Feng invited everyone to a feast. However, the crowd from the Cyanwood Mountain did not immediately start to celebrate.

Instead, under Chu Feng's guidance, they first attended a memorial service for those who had died in this battle. In fact, Chu Feng was simply in no mood to celebrate.

However, it remained that they had obtained a great victory. As such, he could not appear to be spiritless. For the sake of boosting the crowd's morale, the Cyanwood Mountain not only invited the outsiders to a feast, they themselves also hosted a feast.

With the experts from the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans, they jointly celebrated their victory in this battle.

"Little friend Chu Feng, these Imperial Armaments are too precious. We cannot accept them." At the feast, the King Monstrous Dragon Race's Clan Chief tried to hand the two Imperial Armaments and the many Incomplete Imperial Armaments to Chu Feng.

"Lord Clan Chief, for you all to have come here to assist us today, I, Chu Feng, am truly grateful. I do not know how to thank you all. As such, those are things that you all deserve, that you all should keep.”

Chu Feng would naturally not accept the Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments. While the people from the Cyanwood Mountain did not deserve to die, this was even more the case for the people from the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans.

They had suffered casualties in order to assist Chu Feng. Thus, Chu Feng was determined to hand those Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments to them. Only by doing that would Chu Feng feel a bit more at ease.

“Everyone, let’s stop with this back and forth. I have a proposal,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master said.

“Lord Palace Master, what sort of proposal might you have?” The Dongfang Imperial Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder asked.

“If we are to try to hand all of the Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments to little friend Chu Feng, he would definitely refuse. But, we can each hand an Imperial Armament and twenty Incomplete Imperial Armaments to the Cyanwood Mountain.”

“Like this, we would be enjoying the profits together.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, you must not refuse this. We came to help you out of camaraderie. There is no need to consider compensation in such a case.”

“As for the reason why we are returning a portion of the Imperial Armaments and Incomplete Imperial Armaments, it is not because we find it difficult to accept them. Rather, it is because we want to share the profits. We were able to seize total victory this time around mainly because of you. As such, you should naturally receive a share of the gains from this battle,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master said.

“What Lord Palace Master says is very correct. Little friend Chu Feng, you must not refuse this,” The King Monstrous Dragon Race’s Clan Chief said.

“That’s right. Little friend Chu Feng, you must accept them. If we cannot even share the gains from a battle, how are we an alliance?” The Four Great Imperial Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders added.

They spoke those words willingly. The reason for that was because they had not sent a lot of troops to assist Chu Feng in this battle. As such, if they were to take away that many Imperial Armaments, they would feel distressed about it. However, it would be different if they were to share a portion of their profits with Chu Feng.

“Very well. Since everyone insists, I, Chu Feng, will also not refuse it anymore. We managed to win this battle today all because of you all. As such, in the future, we shall share both our prosperity and our difficulties,” Chu Feng raised his wine cup.

The crowd raised their wine cups in response. Merrily, they shared a cup of wine.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I have another gift that I wish to present you. You must accept it,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master said.

“You will definitely be interested in this gift,” As the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master spoke, he took out an item from his Cosmos Sack. It was a cube-shaped box that emitted flickering light. It was a spirit formation.

Upon seeing that spirit formation, Chu Feng’s eyes immediately shone. Contained within that spirit formation was a secret skill.

To be exact, it was one of the Five Elements Secret Skills, the Earth Immortal Profound Technique!!!

“This gift is too precious. I absolutely cannot accept it,” Upon seeing the Earth Immortal Profound Technique, Chu Feng felt as if his blood was boiling.

Currently, he had already obtained the Fire Immortal Profound Technique and Water Immortal Profound Technique. Although he had yet to grasp the Gold Immortal Profound Technique and Wood Immortal Profound Technique, they remained in his possession. If he were to obtain the Earth Immortal Profound Technique too, he would have obtained all five of the Five Elements Secret Skills.

If Chu Feng were to grasp all five of the Five Elements Secret Skills, he would be able to obtain the treasure left behind by the Five Elements Old Ancestor.

No one knew exactly what that treasure was. However, as it was a treasure, Chu Feng naturally wanted to obtain it.

Merely, it was one thing to obtain the two secret skills from the Mortal King Palace and the Heavenly Law Palace. But, as for the Underworld Palace, they did not owe him anything. As such, Chu Feng found it improper to accept the Earth Immortal Profound Technique, an extremely precious treasure.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I have wanted to become allies with the Cyanwood Mountain for a long time now. Today, this Earth Immortal Profound Technique shall be used to express my good faith. I hope that little friend Chu Feng will accept it,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master seemed to know that Chu Feng would be reluctant to accept the Earth Immortal Profound Technique. Thus, he gave a reason to make Chu Feng accept it.

“If it wasn’t for senior’s prompt arrival with the Underworld Palace’s army, our Cyanwood Mountain would truly have been in imminent peril. From that moment, we were already allies.”

“Since we are allies, there is no need for this. Senior, please take back the Earth Immortal Profound Technique. I will not accept it,” Chu Feng still found it difficult to accept the Earth Immortal Profound Technique.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this is my sincerity. If you are to refuse to accept it, you would be refusing my request to become allies,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master said.

At that moment, Lord Lianghua also added, “Chu Feng, the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master only possesses good intentions. You should just accept it.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master is already saying it like that. Thus, you should stop refusing it.”

Following that, many of the people present all began to urge Chu Feng to accept the Earth Immortal Profound Technique. They were able to tell that the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master truly wanted to gift that secret skill to Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng smiled and shook his head. Even though he deeply wanted the Earth Immortal Profound Technique, he did not plan to accept it.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I will tell you the truth today. Although this Earth Immortal Profound Technique has been with our Underworld Palace for many years, our Underworld Palace is simply unable to unleash its full strength.”

“I believe everyone knows of the strength of the Five Elements Secret Skills. When they are unleashed, they come out as a body with a cultivation one level higher than that of their owner.”

“However, the people that are truly capable of accomplishing that feat are extremely few. Over the tens of thousands of years, only six individuals have been capable of accomplishing that feat. And now, in the Holy Land of Martialism, only little friend Chu Feng is capable of it,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master said.

“Of course. Otherwise, why would Duanmu Feiyu and Xun Fengyang, those two fellows, not use the secret skills when they possessed them?” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master said.

Chapter 2012 – A Grand Gift

“That’s true. Why didn’t they use them?” Many people were surprised. Both Duanmu Feiyu and Xun Fengyang were rank eight Martial Emperors. If they were to use the Gold Immortal Profound Technique and the Wood Immortal Profound Technique, they would be able to unleash two rank nine Martial Emperors to assist them. As such, Lord Luokong’s arrival with the Ancient Era’s Elves’ army would not have been able to stop them either.

“It’s not that they didn’t use them. Rather, it’s that the two of them are simply unable to use them. Else, why would they wait until the Dark Hall’s appearance, wait for the Dark Hall to pin down us Ancient Era’s Elves to finally fall out with us? If they were able to use them, they would’ve fallen out with us long ago.”

“After all, the two of them have possessed the secret skills since long ago,” Lord Lianghua said with a sneer. His tone was filled with contempt.

“Indeed, they are unable to use them. The Five Elements Secret Skills are extremely extraordinary. The stronger their master is, the more difficult it will be to unleash them.”

“In fact, for little friend Chu Feng to be able to so effortlessly unleash the Water Immortal Profound Technique and the Fire Immortal Profound Technique, those two secret skills, could be said to be truly miraculous,” Lord Luokong added.

“That is why after the previous owner of the Earth Immortal Profound Technique, Lord Zhan Jing, died, I merely kept the Earth Immortal Profound Technique with me, and did not attempt to learn it. The reason for that is because I knew when Duanmu Feiyu and Xun Fengyang were unable to unleash their respective secret skills, I too would not be able to unleash the Earth Immortal Profound Technique,” The Underworld Palace’s Palace Master said.

He had a smile on his face and walked toward Chu Feng as he spoke. He forcibly opened Chu Feng's palm and placed the sealed Earth Immortal Profound Technique in Chu Feng's hand. He said, "Little friend Chu Feng, it is not that I do not value this secret skill. Rather, the Five Elements Secret Skills should be yours exclusively."

"This..." At that moment, Chu Feng did not know how to react.

"Little friend Chu Feng, just accept it. Else, this treasured secret skill will have been wasted," The crowd began to urge Chu Feng to accept it.

"Very well. However, I will not accept this grand gift for free," Chu Feng accepted the Earth Immortal Profound Technique. Then, he said to the crowd, "Today, I, Chu Feng, will also give each and every senior here a grand gift."

"Chu Feng, in terms of seniority, all of us here are your seniors. I wonder, what sort of grand gift are you planning to give us?" Lord Lianghua said jokingly.

Although all of the people enjoying the feast with Chu Feng here were all the people with the greatest status and strength, they numbered quite a few, totalling thirty-five.

Since Chu Feng said 'grand gift,' it meant that what Chu Feng planned to give them should be something extraordinary. If he were to give a gift to each of the thirty-five people, it would be something that no ordinary person could afford to do.

Thus, Lord Lianghua's intention was very clear. He wished to see whether or not Chu Feng's grand gift was actually a grand gift.

In fact, many of the people present were all looking at Chu Feng with beaming smiles. They did not have too enormous of a hope. After all, there were too many people here. Furthermore, they were all extraordinary individuals. Very few things could be pleasing to their eyes. While they knew that Chu Feng possessed things that could please their eyes, they did not feel that Chu Feng would be able to take out so many of such things.

“It’s this. Seniors, are you all interested?” As Chu Feng spoke, his palm was extended from his sleeve. Then, a massive peach appeared before the crowd’s eyes.

“Heavens! That peach!!!”

Upon seeing that peach, everyone’s eyes started to shine. Even though many people did not know that that peach was the Immortality Peach, they were able to sense dense power from the peach.

Especially for Baili Xuankong, the Four Great Imperial Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders, the Snow Blade Mad Demon and the others who were near the end of their lifespan, they felt as if their nearly dried-up bodies were moistening upon smelling the fragrance of the peach.

At this moment, other than the Ancient Era’s Elves’ Lord Lianghua and Lord Luokong, practically everyone else stood up excitedly.

While countless people had contributed to the battle today, the people who were gathered here were the representatives of the various major powers, and those that Chu Feng had carefully chosen. They were all people who had lived for a very long time, and were near the ends of their lifespans. In fact, there were many like the Snow Blade Mad Demon who would not live for ten more years, people who had one foot in the coffin already.

Chu Feng had chosen them because he wanted to share a portion of his Immortality Peaches with them so that they could extend their lifespan.

Thus, they were all attracted by the Immortality Peach, for the attraction that the Immortality Peach had for them was truly enormous.

“Everyone, it would seem that little friend Chu Feng is truly going to present you all with a grand gift today. That peach he’s holding is the Immortality Peach that can increase one’s lifespan by a hundred years after eating it,” Lord Lianghua said with a smile. As a Grand Elder of the Ancient Era’s Elves, he naturally recognized the Immortality Peach.

Merely, even he had not expected Chu Feng to be willing to share such precious Immortality Peaches with the crowd. One must know... that even for them, the Ancient Era’s Elves, the Immortality Peaches remained extremely precious items. Items that not just anyone could enjoy the benefits of. Apart from the Ancient Era’s Elves, there was no one else that was able to enjoy the benefits of the Immortality Peaches.

“They’re really the Immortality Peaches. But... little friend Chu Feng, how did you manage to obtain that many Immortality Peaches? Didn’t...”

At that moment, the Snow Blade Mad Demon, the Four Great Imperial Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders and the other experts that had entered the Moonlight Maze that day were all unable to keep their calm.

On the one hand, it was because they were extremely excited upon verifying that what Chu Feng possessed was an Immortality Peach. On the other hand, they had been in the Moonlight Maze and seen the Immortality Peaches. Merely, they did not dare to ascertain whether or not what Chu Feng held was really an Immortality Peach.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had said that all of the Immortality Peaches were eaten by the Heavenly Law Palace’s Elder Zhao Yu.

“Seniors, I actually lied when we were in the Moonlight Maze. Zhao Yu did not eat all of the Immortality Peaches. Instead, they were all with me.”

“Merely, there were also not over a thousand Immortality Peaches either. They only numbered over five hundred.”

“As for why I lied, it is because I wanted to borrow your hands to eliminate that Zhao Yu.”

“After all, I was not very familiar with the seniors here. Thus, I hope that seniors can be understanding of me not being honest,” Chu Feng said to the crowd apologetically.

“Little friend Chu Feng, what sorts of words are those? The fact that you’re willing to act forthcoming with us now means that you trust us,” the Snow Blade Mad Demon and the others would naturally not blame Chu Feng. They were all intelligent people. Thus, they knew that Zhao Yu must have been schemed against by Chu Feng.

“Seniors, catch,” At that moment, Chu Feng waved his sleeve. Then, Immortality Peaches began to fly toward the crowd. They landed into Baili Xuankong, the Snow Blade Mad Demon and the others’ hands.

Everyone present received a share of the Immortality Peaches. For Nangong Longjian and the others who were still capable of living for a very long time, they received an Immortality Peach each.

For the Four Great Imperial Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders, whose lifespans were nearing their end and Chu Feng did not have too good of a relationship with, they received two Immortality Peaches each.

As for Baili Xuankong, the Snow Blade Mad Demon and the others whose lifespans were nearing their end and also possessed an excellent relationship with Chu Feng, they received three Immortality Peaches each

Everyone present, other than Lord Lianghua and Lord Luokong, all received Immortality Peaches from Chu Feng.

They knew that it was unsuitable for them to accept such a grand gift from Chu Feng. However, they truly did not wish to miss out on it. The reason for that was because the Immortality Peaches were items capable of extending their lifespan.

In this world, what could possibly be more precious than one's life? Especially for them, people who were about to die, although a single Immortality Peach would only be able to extend their life for a hundred years, they were more precious than Imperial Armaments to them.

“Little friend Chu Feng, we will deeply remember your enormous grace in our hearts,” At that moment, the Snow Blade Mad Demon and the others were truly endlessly grateful toward Chu Feng. In fact, there were even some people who were tearing up.

They had originally thought that they would not be able to continue to live for long. Thus, when Chu Feng gifted them Immortality Peaches, he had simply allowed them to have a rebirth. That sort of sensation was something that only they understood.

Chapter 2013 – The Unfavorable Battle Situation

After the banquet, the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans all began to leave in succession. After all, apart from the Four Great Imperial Clans, both the Underworld Palace and the King Monstrous Dragon Race had dispatched all of their troops to assist the Cyanwood Mountain. As such, they were afraid of retaliations from the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace, and had to return in order to guard their homes.

At that moment, Lord Luokong called for Lord Lianghua and Chu Feng.

“Lord Luokong, might something have happened?” Chu Feng asked. He was already able to tell that Lord Luokong seemed to be occupied with something in his mind. For Lord Luokong to call for Lord Lianghua and him, Chu Feng knew that something must’ve happened.

“Actually, it’s hard for me to say this. However, when considering the general situation, I must say it”

“Could it be that the battle between the Ancient Era’s Elves and the Dark Hall has become unfavorable?” Chu Feng asked.

“Before the Moonlight Maze, the Dark Hall was merely trying to pin us Ancient Era’s Elves down. However, after that battle in the Moonlight Maze, they have unleashed their true strength against us.”

“The Dark Hall is very powerful; so powerful that they have surpassed our imagination. Furthermore, the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts are being thrown onto the battlefield nonstop. As such, we urgently need Lianghua's return to assist with the defense," Lord Luokong said.

"Didn't the Ancient Era's Elves possess a method to curb the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts? Are they not effective anymore?" Chu Feng asked.

The Ancient Era's Elves had suffered at the hands of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts in the Moonlight Maze. Chu Feng felt that it was mainly because they did not expect the appearance of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

However, the Dark Hall had now unleashed an all-out attack against the Ancient Era's Elves, and were attacking various strategic locations nonstop.

Furthermore, after the events in the Moonlight Maze, they had begun to widely utilize the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts in their attacks. In that sort of situation, the Ancient Era's Elves should have already started to use the golden bells that could contain the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

Yet now, the battle was still extremely unfavorable for them. This could only mean one thing — that the golden bells were no longer effective against the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

"They're no longer effective. We don't know what the Dark Hall has done to the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. Right now, we Ancient Era's Elves no longer possess any way to contain them. As such, we can only fight them head-on," Lord Luokong shook his head and sighed.

"It turns out that we have underestimated the Dark Hall," Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to frown.

In the past, they had thought the entire time that the Dark Hall was afraid of the Ancient Era's Elves. However now, it was the Dark Hall that was attacking the Ancient Era's Elves.

If even the Ancient Era's Elves could not withstand the Dark

Hall, how could anyone in the Holy Land of Martialism possibly be able to withstand the Dark Hall?

Seeing Chu Feng's sullen expression, Lord Luokong thought that what Chu Feng was worried about was there not being anyone to protect the Cyanwood Mountain after Lord Lianghua left.

Thus, he said to Chu Feng, "Little friend Chu Feng, I have led all these people here because I was ordered by His Majesty to bring everyone from the Cyanwood Mountain into our Elf Kingdom. There is a grand formation from the Ancient Era in our Elf Kingdom. In there, you all will be absolutely safe."

"Lord Luokong, there's no need for that. While the Ancient Era's Elves could protect our Cyanwood Mountain temporarily, they cannot protect us forever. You can take Lord Lianghua with you without worrying about us. As for the Cyanwood Mountain, I will be able to protect this place," Chu Feng said.

"You can protect the Cyanwood Mountain?" Hearing those words, Lord Luokong was startled.

Although Chu Feng's current strength was very strong, Lord Luokong knew the strength of the Dark Hall after having fought them several times. Not to mention Chu Feng, if the Dark Hall's Hall Master were to attack the Cyanwood Mountain, even Lord Lianghua would not be a match for him.

They were currently in a passive state, and did not even know the location of the Dark Hall's headquarters.

Yet, the various strategic locations of the Ancient Era's Elves were all openly known.

The Dark Hall was able to attack them at any time they wished. They could attack any one of those many locations they wished.

As such, the Ancient Era's Elves could only act passively, and allow themselves to be attacked without actually being able to attack the Dark Hall.

Therefore... if the Dark Hall's Hall Master were to personally attack the Cyanwood Mountain, the Cyanwood Mountain would definitely be extinguished.

“Lord Luokong, I have managed to create a spirit formation. That spirit formation is capable of withstanding attacks from peak Martial Emperors.”

“And now, with seniors Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Immeasurable Immortal, Snow-haired Immortal and Zhang Ming here to assist me, I am ninety percent certain that I will be able to successfully set up that spirit formation.”

“Truly? You've managed to create such a powerful spirit formation?” Hearing those words, Lord Luokong was astonished.

“Little friend Chu Feng, exactly how many more abilities do you have that I do not know of?” Lord Luokong gasped in admiration. He was able to tell that Chu Feng was not joking. However, it was precisely because Chu Feng wasn't joking with him that he exclaimed in admiration at Chu Feng's talent.

A spirit formation capable of withstanding attacks from peak Martial Emperors. While their Elf Kingdom possessed such a spirit formation, it was something that only their Elf Kingdom possessed.

That spirit formation was set up by the ancestors of the Ancient Era's Elves, and was said to have originated from the Ancient Era. However, Chu Feng had actually managed to create such a spirit formation. This was truly an unimaginable feat.

“If that spirit formation is successfully set up, our Cyanwood Mountain will also do what an ally should do. We will go and assist the Ancient Era's Elves," Chu Feng said.

As the battle had already started, although Chu Feng was worried for his friends' safety, he knew that they could not turtle up in here. As allies, they should go and fight alongside the Ancient Era's Elves.

Although there would be casualties by joining the battle, and those who were close to Chu Feng might even be killed, Chu Feng had to participate in this battle.

Furthermore, as long as Chu Feng joined the battle, those who were related to him would also join the battle.

This was an unavoidable battle, for this battle would determine the life and death of all beings in the Holy Land of Martialism.

Chu Feng knew very well that if the Dark Hall wasn't eliminated, there would be many more people dying in the Holy Land of Martialism.

If the Dark Hall were to win the battle, it was likely that a calamity would engulf the entire Holy Land of Martialism.

"Little friend Chu Feng, then we Ancient Era's Elves shall await your arrival," Lord Luokong patted Chu Feng's shoulder. He was moved from the bottom of his heart.

He had come to the Cyanwood Mountain straight from the battlefield. Thus, he knew very well what sort of situation they, the Ancient Era's Elves, were in.

Although the Cyanwood Mountain was incomparable to the Ancient Era's Elves, it was still a place filled with experts. If the Cyanwood Mountain's experts were capable of joining the battle, it would be of great assistance to the current Ancient Era's Elves.

After this matter was decided, Lord Luokong and Lord Lianghua left with the Ancient Era's Elves' army.

After all, they were currently in a critical battle against the Dark

Hall. Thus, they did not wish to delay their return.

After Lord Luokong and Lord Lianghua left, it was already very late into the night. However, Chu Feng was unable to sleep. He was still worrying about Su Rou and Su Mei.

With his heart distracted and his thoughts in turmoil, Chu Feng walked to the outside of the Cyanwood Mountain to find a peaceful place to calm his heart.

When Chu Feng arrived at a lakeside, he discovered a familiar silhouette. It was the Snow Blade Mad Demon.

The reason for that was because not only was the Snow Blade Mad Demon standing by the lakeside, he also had several memorial tablets placed before him. Before the memorial tablets were many offerings.

Evidently, the Snow Blade Mad Demon was holding an offering to some people.

But... that was not the important aspect. Most importantly, Chu Feng discovered that the Snow Blade Mad Demon, this old man who had lived for thousands of years, actually had tears streaming down his cheeks.

Chapter 2014 – Snow Blade Mad Demon's Past

“Chu Feng?”

Chu Feng had not wanted to disturb the Snow Blade Mad Demon. However, right at the moment when Chu Feng planned to leave, the Snow Blade Mad Demon suddenly noticed him.

In response, Chu Feng immediately descended beside Snow Blade Mad Demon and asked, “Senior, you are...?”

“These are all for my family. Today is the anniversary of their deaths. Thus, I am holding an offering to them here,” the Snow Blade Mad Demon wiped his tears away and forced a smile.

With this many memorial tablets, it was clear that it was an entire family, a clan. The Snow Blade Mad Demon said that it was the anniversary of their deaths. This meant that his family had all died on the same day.

There could only be one possibility for why this many people had died on the same day– they were killed.

“Zhan Cangtian? Are you talking about the leader of the Five Great Evildoers, that Zhan Cangtian?” Chu Feng asked to confirm.

“Back then, Zhan Cangtian was yet to be infamous throughout the world. I was also young. As I traveled the world, I accidentally came across Zhan Cangtian doing an evil deed. He was trying to massacre a family. Seeing that the family was not full of malicious people, I acted to prevent Zhan Cangtian from ruthlessly killing them.”

“As we fought, he was no match for me. After being injured by me, he suddenly asked whether or not I dared to declare my name to him.”

“At that time, I thought that since he was no match for me, and that I would be killing him on the spot, even if I were to tell him where my family was, I would still not have anything to worry about.”

“As such, I ended up telling him my name. However, never did I expect that Zhan Cangtian was actually a world spiritist, and possessed a treasure on him. Using that treasure’s power, he managed to escape from me.”

“After he escaped, I did not concern myself about it too much. However, when I returned home, I discovered that all the people in my family had been killed.”

“That day, my oldest son was only four and a half years old,” the Snow Blade Mad Demon gently caressed a memorial tablet with shaking hands.

“As for my younger son,” Then, Snow Blade Mad Demon looked to another memorial tablet. Glistening teardrops appeared in his aged eyes once again. With a trembling voice, he said, “he was only a month old newborn. I did not even have the chance to see him since he was born.”

“Yet, my first meeting with him would be his corpse that was hacked into eight pieces. Not even an intact corpse remained.”

“Furthermore, all of my family’s young women, before they were killed, they were all raped by Zhan Cangtian. Especially my wife and my little sister, they...” the Snow Blade Mad Demon started to choke with emotions.

“Damn it!” Hearing those words, coldness filled Chu Feng’s eyes. Even though Snow Blade Mad Demon had not finished his words, Chu Feng was able to guess that not only were his wife and little sister raped, they had most certainly also met miserable deaths.

Chu Feng detested those who bullied women, children and the elderly the most. That Zhan Cangtian could be said to have killed all that he shouldn’t have. Furthermore, he killed them in such a cruel manner.

Furthermore, that was only what Zhan Cangtian did to the Snow Blade Mad Demon. Over the years, the people that Zhan Cangtian had killed were innumerable. One could very well imagine how numerous his malicious deeds were.

Evildoer, he was most definitely an enormous evildoer. His crimes could not be forgiven.

“I have; how could I not? Ever since that day, I have remained unmarried, and did not bother to come into dealings with others. Other than training, the only thing I did was search for Zhan Cangtian.”

“However, never would I have expected for my search to be this long. It has been thousands of years, but I have yet to find Zhan Cangtian,” the Snow Blade Mad Demon said.

“How could this be? Isn’t Zhan Cangtian the leader of the Five Great Evildoers? He should have done countless malicious deeds over the years. Furthermore, he also has a disciple. How could there be no trace leading to him?” Chu Feng found it very unbelievable.

The Snow Blade Mad Demon was a very old man. Furthermore, his family being massacred by Zhan Cangtian had happened when he was young. This meant that he had searched for Zhan Cangtian his entire life, yet was unable to find him. Furthermore, in this period of time, Zhan Cangtian had continued to do malicious deeds in the Holy Land of Martialism. This was truly unbelievable.

“He has appeared in the Holy Land of Martialism countless times. With every single appearance, he would do something so evil that it would cause people’s hair to stand up in anger. After he finished his malicious deeds, he would leave his name behind. However, he would never leave any clues that would lead to him.”

“When I first met him, he was still a nameless and obscure individual. However, he has now become extremely notorious, the leader of the Five Great Evildoers, whose infamy is known throughout the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“The innocents that were killed by him are simply too many to count. Even the family that I saved from Zhan Cangtian the first time I encountered him ended up being killed by him later. Furthermore, their deaths were like...”

“That is why I detest myself for being incompetent,” Resentment filled the Snow Blade Mad Demon’s eyes. It was not only hatred toward Zhan Cangtian. There was an equal amount of hatred for himself.

“Since you’ve met him, you should know his appearance, right? You can tell me his appearance, I’ll help you search for him,” Chu Feng said.

After hearing about what Zhan Cangtian had done, Chu Feng felt that he absolutely could not be forgiven. As long as Chu Feng knew of his appearance, even if that was his appearance when he was young, Chu Feng would be able to recognize Zhan Cangtian when he saw him.

“No, I don’t. When I first met him, he was wearing a mask. I simply do not know what he looks like.”

“How could this be?” Chu Feng was extremely shocked. Then, he sighed in his heart, ‘It would appear that Zhan Cangtian is a very cautious person. He conceals his appearance when he plans to do malicious deeds. This is indeed hard to deal with.’

“However, little friend Chu Feng, as long as I am still alive, there will be a chance for me to find that Zhan Cangtian. There is still hope in my heart.”

“Originally, I was someone who was soon to die. It is all thanks to you that I am able to continue to live. Thus, I am truly grateful.”

“If you do not mind, I am willing to join the Cyanwood Mountain. I wish to join the Cyanwood Mountain, not as a nominal elder, but rather an actual elder,” the Snow Blade Mad Demon said.

He had not joined the Cyanwood Mountain before because he had publicly killed an elder from the Heavenly Law Palace. Thus, he was afraid that he would implicate the Cyanwood Mountain should the Heavenly Law Palace seek vengeance against him.

And now, with how the relationship between the Cyanwood Mountain and the Heavenly Law Palace has changed, there was no need for him to worry about that anymore. Thus, he could join the Cyanwood Mountain without any apprehensions.

“If senior Snow Blade is willing to join our Cyanwood Mountain, it would be our Cyanwood Mountain’s blessing. How could I possibly mind?” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng is thinking too highly of me. However, as I am now a part of the Cyanwood Mountain, I will definitely guard the Cyanwood Mountain’s dignity. I will not allow anyone to do anything to the Cyanwood Mountain.”

“Merely... I still need to search for Zhan Cangtian. Thus, even though I've joined the Cyanwood Mountain, I will likely not be able to remain in the Cyanwood Mountain forever. I hope little friend Chu Feng can excuse me on this," Snow Blade Mad Demon said.

"Zhan Cangtian has done all sorts of evil. His continued existence is only a harm to everyone in the Holy Land of Martialism. If he is to be eliminated, it would be a blessing for the people of the Holy Land of Martialism."

"Thus, senior Snow Blade, you do not have to stay in the Cyanwood Mountain. You can go ahead and continue with your search for Zhan Cangtian. That is your most important mission."

"I have two more Immortality Peaches here. Please consume them," Chu Feng took out two more Immortality Peaches and handed them to the Snow Blade Mad Demon.

Chapter 2015 – Merging With The Three Immortal Profound Techniques

“Little friend Chu Feng, you absolutely cannot do this. The Immortality Peaches are extremely precious. Earlier, you already gave me three. I already can’t thank you enough for that. As such, I absolutely cannot accept these two Immortality Peaches,” the Snow Blade Mad Demon refused repeatedly.

“Senior, I am not giving you these two Immortality Peaches because I feel sympathy for you. Rather, I am doing so to express my thanks,” Chu Feng said.

“If you didn’t uphold virtue and condemn evil by saving a family that was unrelated to you, your family would not have met their tragic deaths.”

“You are a kindhearted man. Else, you would not have courted that disaster. I am thanking you on behalf of the people of the world,” Chu Feng forcibly pushed the two Immortality Peaches into the Snow Blade Mad Demon’s hands.

Then, Chu Feng turned around to leave. He was afraid that the Snow Blade Mad Demon would refuse again.

After Chu Feng left, Snow Blade Mad Demon held the two Immortality Peaches in his hands and stood there motionlessly for a very long time. Then, he wiped away the tears on his face and looked to the many memorial tablets behind him. He said, “I will definitely avenge you all.”

The next morning, Chu Feng called for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and Zhang Ming, the several Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists in the Cyanwood Mountain.

“What? Chu Feng... you plan to merge the Gold Immortal Profound Technique, Wood Immortal Profound Technique and the Earth Immortal Profound Technique into your body all at once?" At that moment, the Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists present were all startled.

"The Five Elements Secret Skills contains a treasure. I need to obtain it," Chu Feng said.

"But, the Five Elements Secret Skills cannot coexist in one body," The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

"It is not that they cannot coexist. Rather, they have a relatively high requirement for a person's soul."

"I wish to give it a try. The reason why I called seniors here is because I wanted seniors to help me with one thing," Chu Feng said.

"What is it?" The Weaponry Refinement Immortal asked.

"If I am to fail, seniors, please help me set up that protective barrier around the Cyanwood Mountain so as to ensure the safety of our Cyanwood Mountain," Chu Feng said.

"Little friend Chu Feng, why must you put yourself through this? Even if you wish to fight against the Dark Hall, there is no need for you to be this impatient," The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others tried to urge Chu Feng against it. None of them wished for Chu Feng to take this risk.

The reason for that was because this was truly too dangerous. Even though Chu Feng had successfully managed to have the Water Immortal Profound Technique and the Fire Immortal Profound Technique coexist in his body, it did not mean that he would be able to have all Five Elements Secret Skills coexist in his body.

Since ancient times, many people had attempted to assimilate the Five Elements Secret Skills into their bodies. However, even for the person who had managed to accomplish the best result, he had only managed to contain three of the Five Elements Secret Skills. Furthermore, not long after he succeeded, his body exploded and he died. As such, in the end, he had still failed.

Right at that moment, the Immeasurable Immortal said, “Everyone, since little friend Chu Feng is already determined, it is useless for us to continue urging him against it. Rather than pressuring him, it’s better that we support him and give him some motivation,”

“Immeasurable, you can’t say it like that. Naturally, we will support Chu Feng. However, we couldn’t possibly support him with everything regardless of what it might be, no?”

“We clearly know that this is an extremely dangerous matter. If we still allow Chu Feng to do it, wouldn’t it be us harming him?” The Snow-haired Immortal was insistent on not having Chu Feng merge with the other Secret Skills. In fact, when the Immeasurable Immortal voiced his support for Chu Feng, she even displayed a displeased expression toward the Immeasurable Immortal.

As for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others, they were not as emotional as the Snow-haired Immortal. However, it remained that their expressions were slightly ugly. Like the Snow-haired Immortal, they also did not wish for Chu Feng to do such a dangerous thing.

“While others cannot accomplish it, that doesn’t mean that it would be impossible for little friend Chu Feng. Before this, has there ever been anyone capable of creating a spirit formation that could safeguard against attacks from peak Martial Emperors? No one was able to accomplish that. However, little friend Chu Feng accomplished it!!!”

“Furthermore, why did the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master insist on giving little friend Chu Feng the Earth Immortal Profound Technique? It’s because he wanted Chu Feng to undo the mystery of the Five Elements Secret Skill,” The Immeasurable Immortal said.

“The hell do you know,” The Snow-haired Immortal was so angered that she actually cursed out at the Immeasurable Immortal.

“You are beyond redemption,” The Immeasurable Immortal snorted coldly. Then, he turned to Chu Feng and said, “Little friend Chu Feng, this old man supports you.”

“Thank you senior,” Chu Feng clasped his fist toward the Immeasurable Immortal. Then, he turned to clasp his fists toward the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and the other Dragon Mark World Spiritists, “Seniors, if I am to fail, I will have to depend on you all for that spirit formation.”

Then, Chu Feng did not bother with their reactions. He took out the outline of that grand defensive spirit formation, and began to explain the various essential aspects of that spirit formation to the several Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists present.

In response, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal and the others began to carefully listen to Chu Feng’s explanation. Even though Chu Feng’s outline diagram had already simplified the grand spirit formation enormously, it was still extremely difficult for them to set it up.

However, after listening to Chu Feng’s explanation, everything became clear to them. Soon, they understood the various aspects of the spirit formation that they were unable to understand before.

The reason why they listened to Chu Feng’s explanation so earnestly was not only because they wanted to grasp that spirit formation. In addition to that, it was because they knew that Chu Feng was determined, and they would not be able to stop him.

They were truly afraid that Chu Feng would fail. As such, they did not wish for the Cyanwood Mountain to be unprotected after Chu Feng’s death.

Thus, although they did not accept Chu Feng's request, if something were to happen to Chu Feng, they would still set up that grand defensive spirit formation over the Cyanwood Mountain to protect the people of the Cyanwood Mountain.

After two entire days and nights, Chu Feng finally finished explaining the essential aspects of that grand defensive spirit formation to the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others.

The reason why Chu Feng did this was merely because he wanted to guard against the unexpected. He did not really think that he would definitely die should he attempt to assimilate with the remaining three secret skills. In fact, Chu Feng felt a great certainty of success.

After all, when Chu Feng assimilated the Fire Immortal Profound Technique into him, he did not feel any pressure whatsoever. This led him to know that his spirit and soul were extremely powerful. He was certain that they would be able to withstand the pressure from the Five Elements Secret Skills.

After the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others left, Chu Feng did not hesitate. He immediately closed the doors to the room and took out the Gold Immortal Profound Technique, the Wood Immortal Profound Technique and the Earth Immortal Profound Technique.

However, Chu Feng used a special method to remove Her Lady Queen from his world spirit space.

This was also because Chu Feng wished to prevent against the unexpected. If he were truly unfortunate enough to fail, then he would die.

Chu Feng did not wish for Her Lady Queen to die together with him.

“Milady Queen, if I am to truly die, I hope that you will not blame me.”

“It is not that I am shortsighted and only seeking instant benefits. It is merely that the current situation is truly bad. If the Ancient Era’s Elves are unable to hold back the Dark Hall, even if I am able to set up a spirit formation that could defend against peak Martial Emperors, it would not be able to defend against the Dark Hall forever.”

“I must increase my strength quickly so that I can help the Ancient Era’s Elves defeat the Dark Hall. This is my responsibility. After all, that Dark Hall’s Hall Master is my fellow clansman.”

“And now, these Five Elements Secret Skills are the greatest opportunity for me to increase my strength. I cannot miss out on this opportunity,” Chu Feng looked to the sleeping Lady Queen and spoke with a beaming smile on his face.

Then, before Her Lady Queen, Chu Feng removed the seals on the Gold Immortal Profound Technique, the Wood Immortal Profound Technique and the Earth Immortal Profound Technique.

“Hualalala~~~”

The unsealing of the three Supreme Secret Skills in unison caused the palace hall that Chu Feng was in to tremble, and boundless might to appear out of nowhere.

Soon, three boundlessly imposing figures appeared before Chu Feng.

These three silhouettes were all emitting ample auras of immortality. They were the Gold Immortal, Wood Immortal and Earth Immortal.

Chapter 2016 – Assimilation Failure

“Boy, are you planning to challenge us Five Immortals?”

After the three Immortal Profound Techniques were revealed, they looked to Chu Feng without much surprise. It seemed as if they all knew that they had fallen into Chu Feng’s possession. Furthermore, they knew what Chu Feng was planning to do.

“Seniors, please lend this junior your strength,” Chu Feng clasped his fist. Although the three figures before him were all secret skills, they were seniors in Chu Feng’s eyes.

After all, they were beings that had existed since the Ancient Era.

“Boy, this Immortal will not bother with superfluous words. That said, I do admire your courage.”

“Since you are determined, and have already assimilated the Water Immortal and Fire Immortal, you possess the qualifications to challenge us Five Immortals.”

“Thus, if you truly wish to attempt the challenge, you can start with this Immortal. I also wish to see exactly how qualified you are, and whether or not you will be able to withstand the pressure of three secret skills,” The Gold Immortal Profound Technique said. It wanted Chu Feng to attempt to merge with it first.

“Seniors, I plan to assimilate all three of you at the same time,” Chu Feng said.

“What did you say?” Hearing those words, the three great secret skills were all startled.

“After all, there are two possibilities. Either I succeed, or I fail.”

“Boy? What are you talking about? This sort of thing cannot be joked around with!!!” At that moment, the three great secret skills were astonished.

If they were to assimilate with Chu Feng in succession, Chu Feng would have the chance to give up midway. However, if the three of them were to assimilate with Chu Feng together, Chu Feng would be betting everything in one go. It was truly dangerous.

“Seniors, it has been tens of thousands of years since the Ancient Era. Do you all not want to know exactly what sort of secret the Five Elements Old Ancestor left in your bodies?”

“I am certain that you all wish to know. And I... wish to know even more. I plan to undo this mystery. As such, I need seniors’ assistance.”

“Very well. Since you are this courageous, we shall help you accomplish your aim.”

At that moment, determined gazes appeared in the eyes of the three great secret skills. Then, the three of them turned into three rays of light and entered Chu Feng’s body at the same time.

“Woosh~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng’s closed eyes suddenly opened.

Chu Feng felt as if his body were undergoing a chaotic storm. Five boundlessly powerful energies were now gathered in his body.

The power emitted by the fusion of these five energies was extremely frightening. They were flowing through Chu Feng’s entire body, and had even entered Chu Feng’s dantian.

It was as if the five energies could cause Chu Feng’s body to explode, and shatter his soul at any moment.

Chu Feng clenched his teeth tightly. He was unwilling to give up. He knew that success or failure would be determined by this test.

There were two reasons why Chu Feng continued to stubbornly persist.

Firstly, he deeply wished to succeed.

Secondly, he was absolutely confident in himself.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, a loud explosion sounded from Chu Feng's body. Following that, an enormous body of energy formed with the different powers of gold, wood, water, fire and earth instantly engulfed the palace that Chu Feng was in.

The materials used to construct the palace were very special. Furthermore, they were reinforced with spirit formations. As such, the palace was extremely sturdy. However, before the five elemental energies, the building was extremely weak. Like a bubble, it was turned to dust in an instant.

Furthermore, the five elemental energies were still spreading and devastating everything in their path.

Fortunately, the place where Chu Feng lived was a large isolated territory.

Furthermore, Chu Feng's mood was not good. Thus, he did not have any servants in his palace.

All the buildings in Chu Feng's territory were destroyed. However, fortunately, there were no deaths caused by the five elemental energies.

Suddenly, a boundless body of energy soared into the sky. This scene astonished all of the people in the Cyanwood Mountain. They were afraid that they were being attacked.

After all, the battle between them and the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace had just ended. No one could be certain whether or not the armies of the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace had truly left.

At that moment, everyone started to panic. Some elders were even shivering in fear.

This could not be blamed on them. Rather, the five elemental energies were truly too frightening.

“Crap!” However, when the grand characters such as the Weaponry Refinement Immortal saw this scene, they immediately started to fly toward the five elemental energies without the slightest hesitation.

They all guessed that this was most definitely caused by Chu Feng’s assimilation of the Five Elements Secret Skills. However, the current state of affairs appeared to be extremely bad.

Unfortunately, when the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others approached Chu Feng’s territory, they were unable to enter the five elemental energies. The five elemental energies blocked heaven and earth. They turned into an enormous vortex that spun around through heaven and earth.

The five elemental energies were fatal. Even for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others, they were unable to charge their way into them. If they were to forcibly enter, they would undoubtedly die.

“What’s going on? Could it be-?!”

Soon, Baili Xuankong, Nangong Longjian and the others also arrived. Although Chu Feng did not mention his plan to assimilate with the Five Elements Secret Skills to them, they managed to guess what had happened from the frightening energies before them.

“Indeed, it’s Chu Feng. Chu Feng had just told us that he would assimilate the Five Elements Secret Skills. Furthermore, before that, he also explained the method of setting that grand defensive formation up to us.”

“He wanted us to set up the grand defensive spirit formation to protect the Cyanwood Mountain should he fail in the assimilation,” the Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“Chu Feng, he actually did not mention such an important matter to me, that child...” After verifying what had happened, Baili Xuankong felt extremely pained.

“Chu Feng didn’t tell you all because he was worried that you would all attempt to stop him out of worry. After all, what he’s trying to do is extremely dangerous,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“But...” Baili Xuankong did not continue. He knew very well what Chu Feng had in mind. Merely, Chu Feng had still considered the safety of their Cyanwood Mountain even when attempting to do such a dangerous thing. As the person in charge of the Cyanwood Mountain, this caused him to feel extremely ashamed, extremely guilty.

“It’s enough. Let’s not talk about it anymore. Right now, what’s most important is Chu Feng’s safety,” The Snow-haired Immortal shouted.

At that moment, everyone turned quiet. They all focused on the frightening five elemental energies.

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other world spiritists began to use their various observation methods to search for Chu Feng’s silhouette within the frightening energy.

As for Nangong Longjian and the other martial cultivation experts, they were using their special perception abilities to try and sense Chu Feng’s existence.

Merely, the more they tried to find Chu Feng, the more uneasy the crowd became. The reason for that was because, other than the frightening five elemental energies, they were unable to sense anything else. They were simply unable to find Chu Feng’s aura.

In this sort of situation, they ended up having no other choice but to wait for the dissipation of the five elemental energies.

Finally, after persisting for an entire day and night, the five elemental energies began to dissipate.

They dissipated very fast. It took only a short moment for them to dissipate completely.

“This!!!”

“.....”

Merely, when the five elemental energies dissipated, the crowd present all revealed dejected expressions. Despair filled their eyes.

For Baili Xuankong and the others with superb relations with Chu Feng, they suddenly fell to their butts in midair with stunned expressions on their faces.

After the five elemental energies dissipated, an enormous crater was left in the ground.

Although heat was surging from the depths of the crater, they were simply unable to see Chu Feng’s silhouette.

Not only did they fail to find traces of Chu Feng, they were unable to even sense Chu Feng’s aura.

This conclusion was something that they were unable to accept. For this only meant one thing...

Chu Feng had failed!!!

Chapter 2017 – Undying And Indestructible

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when everyone felt that Chu Feng had failed in his assimilation of the Five Elements Secret Skills and died, a violent gale suddenly appeared.

The gale was so strong that even the many experts present were feeling enormous pressure. Those with lower levels of cultivation were blown back repeatedly by the wind.

Furthermore, soon, five energies appeared within the violent gale. They began to mix with the wind. It was extremely domineering.

They were the five elemental energies of gold, wood, water, fire and earth.

Like a vortex, the five energies gathered in one location. Soon, they turned into the form of a person. As the facial appearance of that person began to appear before the crowd, they were all astonished.

The reason for that was because that person was Chu Feng!!!

“Chu Feng, it’s truly you?”

“You didn’t die?!!!!”

The crowd were overjoyed to see Chu Feng. One by one, they rushed toward him and began to carefully inspect him. They didn’t believe their eyes. After all, Chu Feng had indeed disappeared earlier. It was not only his physical body that had disappeared, his aura had also disappeared without a trace.

“Exactly what happened? Didn’t you disappear earlier? Furthermore, your physical body...” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal wanted to ask why Chu Feng's physical body would be formed through the condensation of the five elemental energies of gold, wood, water, fire and earth.

“Senior, you meant... this?” As Chu Feng spoke, his body suddenly split into the five elemental energies of gold, wood, water, fire and earth. Soon, the five elemental energies took humanoid forms.

They were the Gold Immortal Profound Technique, the Wood Immortal Profound Technique, the Water Immortal Profound Technique, the Fire Immortal Profound Technique and the Earth Immortal Profound Technique; the Five Elements Secret Skills.

“Woosh~~~”

Soon, the Five Elements Secret Skills fused with one another and returned to the appearance of Chu Feng.

Exactly what was going on here? How could Chu Feng turn into the Five Elements Secret Skills?

Most importantly, Chu Feng had managed to unleash Gold, Wood, Water, Fire and Earth, all five of the Five Elements Secret Skills. Could it be that Chu Feng had successfully assimilated the Five Elements Secret Skills?!

“I think that the Five Elements Secret Skills have been upgraded. As long as I wish for it, I am able to change into the Five Elements Secret Skills. Likewise, I am also able to coexist with the Five Elements Secret Skills.”

“In other words, the Five Elements Secret Skills are not just offensive abilities; they are also an ability to protect me. Unless I am up against someone with a cultivation much higher than my own, my body is now like the Five Elements Secret Skills, undying and indestructible,” Chu Feng said.

“Heavens, they’re actually this amazing?!” Hearing those words, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and Baili Xuankong revealed even greater astonishment and joy.

“Wait a moment,” Right at this moment, the Immeasurable Immortal suddenly spoke. He asked, “In that case, you have successfully assimilated the Five Elements Secret Skills?”

“Mn,” Chu Feng smiled and nodded. He had indeed succeeded. That was why his current mood was extremely good.

“My god! Chu Feng, you brat, you have truly made this Immortal have a whole new level of respect for you,” Hearing those words, the Snow-haired Immortal hugged Chu Feng. As for the others, they were also overjoyed.

The Five Elements Secret Skills had existed in the Holy Land of Martialism since the Ancient Era. There had never been anyone who had managed to contain all five of the Five Elements Secret Skills even after so much time had passed. Even the Five Emperors, the five overlords that ruled over five different eras, were unable to accomplish that feat.

Yet now, Chu Feng had actually succeeded. As such, how could they not be overjoyed?

“Chu Feng, you are truly my pride,” At that moment, Baili Xuankong, this man who had lived for close to ten thousand years, was actually so emotionally moved that glistening teardrops appeared in his eyes.

Back then, before Chu Feng had matured, before Chu Feng became strong, he had viewed Chu Feng as their Cyanwood Mountain’s hope, and staked his all to support Chu Feng. In fact, he had not even feared making enemies of the Four Great Imperial Clans.

And now, not only had Chu Feng not disappointed him, he had even surpassed his expectations by far. That sort of sensation was something that only he understood. He was truly feeling proud of Chu Feng.

In fact, it was not only him. Practically everyone present felt proud of Chu Feng. They were feeling proud of having helped Chu Feng before.

“Chu Feng, in that case, exactly what sort of secret is contained in the Five Elements Secret Skills? Exactly what sort of treasure is it?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked.

“I am also uncertain to what sort of treasure there is for now,” Chu Feng shook his head.

“How could that be? Could it be that the legend of the Five Elements Secret Skills was only a scam?” Hearing those words, the crowd were all shocked.

“It’s very possible. After all, a lot of the Holy Land of Martialism’s legends are fake,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“The fact that the Five Elements Secret Skills cannot coexist in a single body is true. For that treasure, countless people braved the dangers of the Five Elements Secret Skills only to end up losing their lives. Exactly who is it that spread that false rumor? They have simply caused harm and deaths,” The Snow-haired Immortal said angrily.

“No, it is absolutely not fake. The legend of the Five Elements Secret Skill must be real. Chu Feng, carefully think again. Did you really not manage to obtain any new information?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked.

In response, the others said, “That’s right. Chu Feng, carefully arrange the information in your mind. See if you missed anything.”

Even though Chu Feng had successfully assimilated the Five Elements Secret Skills, it remained that he had braved fatal danger. As such, none of them wished for Chu Feng to come out of this empty-handed.

“Seniors, it is as I said. I do not know about it right now. However, I believe that I will soon know what the treasures are,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he added, “Seniors, follow me.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he began to proceed toward the Cyanwood Mountain’s Ancient Era’s Remnants, and the others followed him.

After entering the Ancient Era’s Remnants, Chu Feng set up a spirit formation. That spirit formation was very simple. Not to mention Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, even Gold-cloak World Spiritists would be able to easily set up that spirit formation.

However, after such a simple spirit formation was set up, it formed a giant wave in the Ancient Era’s Remnants.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

At that moment, many bodies of energies visible to the naked eye began to gather from all around the Ancient Era’s Remnants and into that spirit formation.

This scene stunned everyone present. Even though the bodies of energy did not possess berserk offensive natures, they were still no small matter.

Furthermore, after the bodies of energies stopped gathering, a symbol-like item appeared in the spirit formation Chu Feng had set up.

Upon seeing that symbol, everyone started to hold their breath. No one recognized that symbol. Although the symbol appeared to be very unremarkable, it contained a dense amount of ancient aura.

Chu Feng took the symbol out and said to the crowd, “After obtaining four more of such symbols, I will be able to solve the mystery contained in the Five Elements Secret Skills.”

“That... that symbol is actually able to solve the Five Elements Secret Skills’ mysteries? But... why would it appear in our Cyanwood Mountain?” Baili Xuankong was very shocked.

The Cyanwood Mountain have had control over this Ancient Era’s Remnant since the founding of the Cyanwood Mountain. Yet, they had never noticed anything related to the Five Elements Secret Skills here.

“Chu Feng, in that case, do you know where the other four symbols are located?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked.

“I do,” Chu Feng smiled. Then, he said the locations of four places:

“Golden Armor City!”

“Jadewater Temple!”

“Firerain Hall!”

“Cursed Soil Sect!”

Soil and Earth use the same character.

Chapter 2018 – A Whole New Level Of Respect

“What?”

After hearing those four powers’ names, everyone was shocked.

“Those four powers...”

“I understand now,” Baili Xuankong was stunned for quite some time. Then, after he managed to calm himself, he sighed and said, “While I do not know about the Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and the Cursed Soil Sect...”

“...I have heard my master mention that the founder of our Cyanwood Mountain had named this place the Cyanwood Mountain for a special reason.”

“Furthermore, as far as I know, of the Nine Powers, only our Cyanwood Mountain and those four other powers possess Ancient Era’s Remnants.”

“Merely, I did not expect for all of this to not be a coincidence, that five of our Nine Powers hid an Ancient Era’s treasure deposit,” At that moment, Baili Xuankong was extremely excited. All of this truly surpassed his imagination. However, after coming to know about it, he came to a sudden realization.

“That’s true. No one would have thought that the Nine Powers would be related to the Five Elements Secret Skills. Moreover, the Nine Powers are so far away from one another,” At that moment, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others were also extremely astonished.

“It’s simple. Seniors, did you all manage to remember that spirit formation that I set up earlier?” Chu Feng asked.

“That spirit formation is truly simple. I have remembered it just by seeing it once,” the Snow-haired Immortal said.

“Chu Feng, is it like this?” Nangong Longjian set up a spirit formation. It was exactly the same as the spirit formation that Chu Feng had set up earlier. Even though his world spirit techniques were inferior to those of Chu Feng and the others, and he was not a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, it remained that he was also a Royal-cloak World Spiritist. As such, that spirit formation Chu Feng set up would not cause him any difficulty.

“There’s no need for anything else. As long as one enters the Ancient Era’s Remnant and sets up that spirit formation, the Ancient Era’s Remnant will condense a symbol,” Chu Feng said.

“That is quite simple. In that case, let’s move about separately and proceed for Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and the Cursed Soil Sect respectively,” the Immeasurable Immortal said.

“But, the Ancient Era’s Remnants are forbidden areas. We cannot just enter them, no?” the Snow Blade Mad Demon said. Even though he acted very aggressively, he was actually a very reasonable person.

“It’s actually very simple. The relationship the Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and Cursed Soil Sect have with our Cyanwood Mountain is already different from before. As such, our Cyanwood Mountain possesses some authority over them.”

“As long as I write a letter to them, they should be willing to allow us to enter their Ancient Era's Remnants," Baili Xuankong said.

"Then you should write the letters now," The Snow-haired Immortal said.

In response, Baili Xuankong started to write the letters. Furthermore, he prepared special Cyanwood Mountain title plates.

After that, it was decided that Nangong Longjian, the Snow Blade Mad Demon, Baili Xuankong and Dugu Xingfeng would proceed for Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and the Cursed Soil Sect respectively to obtain the special symbols.

As for why Chu Feng, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others did not go, it was because the journey was very far, and would require some time. Chu Feng did not wish to waste time, as he needed to quickly set up the defensive spirit formation capable of withstanding attacks from peak Martial Emperors around the Cyanwood Mountain to protect it.

Before leaving, Nangong Longjian asked one last time, "Chu Feng, do we really only need to set up that spirit formation in the Ancient Era's Remnants to obtain the symbols?"

"That is correct," Chu Feng verified.

"In that case, does that mean that the secret of the Five Elements Secret Skills would be solved upon gathering those five symbols?" The Snow-haired Immortal asked.

"It would only be solved after those symbols assimilate with my body," Chu Feng said.

"So that's the case," The crowd nodded in ease.

If one could solve the mystery merely by obtaining the five symbols, it would be too undependable.

After all, Chu Feng only possessed the Cyanwood Mountain's symbol in his hand, and not the other four.

They felt much more at ease after knowing that only Chu Feng could solve the secret to the Five Elements Secret Skills. After all... even if an accident were to happen that caused the other four symbols to end up in the hands of others, they would not be able to solve the secret of the Five Elements Secret Skills. As such, those symbols would be useless to them.

“Senior Nangong, please wait a moment,” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out four Imperial Armaments. Those four Imperial Armaments were the spoils of war he had obtained from the Heavenly Law Palace.

That day, the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace had handed over a total of thirteen Imperial Armaments. Originally, twelve of them had belonged to the Underworld Palace and the other five powers that had come to assist Chu Feng and the Cyanwood Mountain. However, they insisted on sharing them with Chu Feng, and had each handed Chu Feng an Imperial Armament. Thus, Chu Feng had six additional Imperial Armaments.

Of those six Imperial Armaments Imperial Armaments, Chu Feng gave one to Baili Xuankong and one to Dugu Xingfeng. After all... neither of them possessed Imperial Armaments.

As for the remaining four Imperial Armaments, they were all with Chu Feng.

Now, Chu Feng gave the four remaining Imperial Armaments to Nangong Longjian, Snow Blade Mad Demon, Baili Xuankong and Dugu Xingfeng respectively.

“Those four symbols belong to Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and the Cursed Soil Sect respectively.”

“Although you would not be able to obtain those symbols, and would not be able to have any use for them even if you did, I still do not wish to take them for free.”

“Chu Feng, is there really a need for that? With how small and weak Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and the Cursed Soil Sect are, they would give us the symbols should we ask for them. As such, is there really a need to use such precious Imperial Armaments in exchange?”

The Imperial Armaments were extremely precious things that none of the Nine Powers possessed.

In fact, even for the grand characters present, Imperial Armaments were also extremely precious items. After all, not all of them possessed an Imperial Armament.

“Senior, we are not bandits. As such, how could we threaten others to hand things to us? Just give it to them. Only by doing this would I feel at ease,” Chu Feng said.

“What little friend Chu Feng says is very true. I agree with him,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“As do I,” Baili Xuankong also voiced his opinion. Afterward, practically everyone other than the Snow-haired Immortal expressed their approval of Chu Feng’s action.

They also knew that what the Snow-haired Immortal had said was a fact. After all, the Cyanwood Mountain was currently much more powerful than Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and the Cursed Soil Sect. Before the Cyanwood Mountain, they were existences akin to shrimps, small fry. They simply did not even possess any authority to speak of. If the Cyanwood Mountain wanted anything from them, they could just take it from them directly.

However, what Chu Feng said was even more true. If they were to snatch the symbols from them, they would be akin to bandits. As such, what difference would there be between them and the Dark Hall?

Therefore, they all approved of Chu Feng's way of handling things. Furthermore, when Chu Feng was willing to use such precious Imperial Armaments to compensate Golden Armor City, Jadewater Temple, Firerain Hall and the Cursed Soil Sect, those powers that were currently extremely small in their eyes, the crowd felt a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng.

This time around, their respect towards Chu Feng was not towards his talent. Rather, it was towards his manner of conduct; his personal character.

Before Chu Feng grew in strength, countless people had tried to beat down on him. The Cursed Soil Sect had been one of them.

Yet now, after Chu Feng had matured in strength, which power in the Holy Land of Martialism would dare to not give Chu Feng face?

Yet, Chu Feng did not use his strength to bully others. That was something very rarely seen in this world of martialism, where the strong ruled.

Likewise... this was something extremely praiseworthy.

Chapter 2019 – Plan Success

After it was decided, Nangong Longjian and the others set off for the four powers on the same day.

As for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others, they began to prepare the materials needed to set up the grand defensive formation.

Furthermore, due to the fact that Chu Feng had just assimilated the Five Elements Secret Skills and was the main force in setting up the defensive spirit formation, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others did not wish for Chu Feng to become too exhausted. Thus, they decided to take the task of gathering the materials needed entirely upon themselves.

At that moment, Chu Feng was finally able to enjoy some leisure time. He turned his awareness into his world spirit space and looked to the still-sleeping Eggy. Then, Chu Feng smiled a relieved smile and turned to leave.

“It would seem that the harvest this time around is destined to be large,” After Chu Feng cast his awareness back into his body, the smile on his face grew wider.

The enormous power of those five elemental energies had destroyed Chu Feng’s territory completely. It was not Chu Feng who had willed that to happen. Rather, it was caused by the Five Elements Secret Skills.

Although Chu Feng had obtained a new understanding of the usage of the Five Elements Secret Skills after they were all assimilated into him, Chu Feng’s cultivation had not increased. Thus, that frightening energy that caused the destruction of his territory was indeed caused by the Five Elements Secret Skills.

Indirectly, it demonstrated the frightening power of the Five Elements Secret Skills. Merely, Chu Feng had yet to completely grasp their strength.

However, one thing worthy of mention was that, although the five elemental energies were so frightening and had destroyed Chu Feng's entire territory, they did not harm Eggy. Instead, they brought Eggy into Chu Feng's body. That was truly miraculous and unbelievable.

After all, Chu Feng's world spirit gate needed to open for Eggy to enter his world spirit space. Logically, this should be impossible for anyone other than Chu Feng to accomplish. However, the energies that the Five Elements Secret Skills turned into had managed to accomplish it.

Furthermore, they had brought Eggy into Chu Feng's world spirit space while wreaking destruction all over. It was as if they were deliberately protecting Eggy.

It was precisely because of all of this that Chu Feng felt that the Five Elements Secret Skills themselves were an enormous treasure. The reason for that was because they contained immeasurable power.

However, if the five symbols were gathered, he would be able to open another treasure. In other words, Chu Feng would obtain two treasures.

That was why Chu Feng felt that he had profited enormously this time around.

After the materials were gathered, Chu Feng began to set up that spirit formation capable of defending against attacks from peak Martial Emperors together with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others.

That grand formation was too complicated. Even though Chu Feng and the other Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists were working together to set it up, they still took quite some time to set it up.

.....

Time shuttled past. In a flash, two months had passed.

At that moment, a shocking scene appeared in a forbidden area of the Heavenly Law Palace.

Not only was the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master in this forbidden area, the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master was also here.

However, at that moment, those two peak experts of humanity were half kneeling on the ground in a petty and low manner.

Before them stood three individuals. The person to the left was the World Devastator Immortal. The person to the right was that mysterious woman. As for the person in the middle, he was the man that possessed the same Inherited Bloodline as Chu Feng... the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

"Lord Hall Master, we are incompetent. We have failed in our attack on the Cyanwood Mountain. We have failed to kill Chu Feng. Lord Hall Master, please bestow us our punishment," The two Palace Masters seemed to have already consulted with one another as to what to say, as the two of them were both saying the same words.

"If you all had managed to successfully raze the Cyanwood Mountain to the ground, my plan would have failed," The Dark Hall's Hall Master started to laugh from behind his mask.

Hearing those words, the two Palace Masters' bodies started to shiver. Then, their expressions changed greatly. It was as if they had just suffered an enormous injury. However, in the end, they restrained their emotions and asked servilely, "Lord Hall Master, this subordinate does not understand what you mean."

"It's fine if you two do not understand. However, do not ask about it," The Dark Hall's Hall Master said.

"But..." At that moment, the two Palace Masters' expressions grew more and more ugly. After all, the two of them had suffered disastrous losses from attacking the Cyanwood Mountain.

“Rest assured. In the future, I will return everything you have lost to the Cyanwood Mountain twofold,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“That Chu Feng, would you mind leaving him to me? I wish to personally kill him,” The Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master said in a very fierce manner. He truly loathed Chu Feng to the bones. Even in his dreams, he would dream about killing Chu Feng.

“I’m afraid that will not be possible. His life belongs to me. Only I am allowed to kill him,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“.....” Hearing those words, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master took a glance at the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master. They were both at a loss as to what to say. They were truly confused. Since the Dark Hall’s Hall Master did not wish to kill Chu Feng, why did he have them attack the Cyanwood Mountain?

With that, wouldn’t it mean that he had wasted his military strength in vain?

At that moment, the expressions of the two Palace Masters did not improve. After all, they were grand characters. Yet, they were being toyed around with by someone, round and round. As such, the two of them felt extremely unreconciled.

“Did you not hear what I just said?” Seeing that the two Palace Masters were still here, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s voice sounded once again. Merely, this time around, there was a faint coldness in his voice.

At that moment, the bodies of the two Palace Masters shivered once more. Being stimulated by the coldness they felt, the two of them recalled how powerful this Dark Hall's Hall Master before them was. Thus, the two of them bowed to the Dark Hall's Hall Master while kneeling and then got up, "Lord Hall Master, Milord, Milady, we shall take our leave."

After the two Palace Masters left, the World Devastator Immortal's womanly voice sounded, "Lord Hall Master, I have received a secret letter." Then, he handed a letter to the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

The Dark Hall's Hall Master opened the letter. There was not a single word written on it. However, he was not flustered by that. Instead, he began to form a spirit formation. As the spirit formation enveloped the letter, a strand of gaseous substance flowed out from the letter and entered his mask.

"Hahahaha..."

The very next moment, the Dark Hall's Hall Master suddenly stood up from his seat and started to laugh. It was a resounding laughter that echoed throughout the vast palace hall that they were in.

At that moment, the mysterious woman remained completely composed. There was not a single trace of change to her expression. However, the World Devastator Immortal looked to the Dark Hall's Hall Master with a shocked expression, seemingly as if he wanted to know what the contents of the letter were.

After his wild laughter, the Dark Hall's Hall Master said, "Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, as expected of a person from the Outer World. You have surpassed my expectations, and given me a pleasant surprise."

"Lord Hall Master, could it be... it's a success?" The World Devastator Immortal asked.

“Mn, Chu Feng had successfully assimilated the Five Elements Secret Skills. Our plan is a success.”

“Not long from now, we will be able to know exactly what the treasure hidden in the Five Elements Secret Skills is,” said the Dark Hall’s Hall Master with a nod. Even though he was wearing a mask, his joy could still be felt.

“Chu Feng is actually that surprisingly valiant?” Hearing those words, the World Devastator Immortal revealed an ugly expression. His own son was killed by Chu Feng. Thus, he detested Chu Feng to the bones. Yet, Chu Feng had actually managed to assimilate the Five Elements Secret Skills. To him, this was not good news at all.

The reason for that was because he knew very well that this Lord Hall Master before him had attempted to assimilate the Five Elements Secret Skills too. For that, he had even killed the previous owners of the Gold Immortal Profound Technique, the Wood Immortal Profound Technique and the Earth Immortal Profound Technique.¹

Although the Dark Hall’s Hall Master succeeded in assimilating two of the secret skills, his body was unable to contain a third secret skill.

However, in the heart of the World Devastator Immortal, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was an existence akin to a god.

Yet, Chu Feng had accomplished what was impossible for even the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. This caused the World Devastator Immortal to feel extremely uneasy.

After all, after encountering Chu Feng several times, he now had a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng. He feared that Chu Feng would surpass him sooner or later if this were to continue. At that time, not only would he not be able to kill Chu Feng, he would instead be killed by Chu Feng.

Chapter 2020 – Eternal Pride

“World Devastator, what’s wrong? Could it be that you’ve grown afraid?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master asked.

“Lord Hall Master, that Chu Feng is hard to deal with. If we are to ignore him like this, this subordinate is afraid that we will invite a calamity on ourselves in the future,” The World Devastator Immortal said.

“There’s no need to be afraid. Chu Feng has been within my grasp all along. If I wish to kill him, I can do so at any time.”

“Furthermore, he will not be able to live for long. At that time, I will allow you to kill him for me so that you can avenge your son,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“Thank you, Lord Hall Master.”

Hearing those words, the World Devastator Immortal was overjoyed. He truly wished to kill Chu Feng himself. Merely, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had said that only he was allowed to kill Chu Feng. This caused the World Devastator Immortal to feel very depressed.

The reason for that was because the World Devastator Immortal was determined to kill Chu Feng himself. Only by doing so would he be able to avenge his son. However, he was afraid that he would be punished by the Dark Hall’s Hall Master should he kill Chu Feng. As such, the matter of killing Chu Feng had been in his mind, tormenting him the entire time.

However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had now allowed him to kill Chu Feng. As such, he was finally unshackled from that worry. He was now able to torture and kill Chu Feng without worrying about anything. To him, this was a truly joyous matter.

“Lord Hall Master, this subordinate has one more thing that I don’t understand,” The World Devastator Immortal said.

“It is one thing for the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace to hand their secret skills to Chu Feng. After all, they were defeated and forced to do so.”

“But, how are you so certain that the Underworld Palace would hand the Earth Immortal Profound Technique to Chu Feng?” The World Devastator Immortal asked in a confused manner.

The World Devastator Immortal knew that the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace would be defeated in their invasion of the Cyanwood Mountain. The reason for that was because it was the Dark Hall’s Hall Master that had ordered their attack.

Before the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had ordered his attack, he already knew that the Underworld Palace and the Ancient Era’s Elves would proceed for the Cyanwood Mountain. In addition to that, Lord Lianghua was in the Cyanwood Mountain. Thus, it was destined that the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace would be defeated.

The very premise of this plan was so that Chu Feng could obtain the Five Elements Secret Skills and assimilate them into his body.

However, there was one question regarding this plan that the World Devastator Immortal did not understand. That question concerned the Earth Immortal Profound Technique. Why would the Underworld Palace present the Earth Immortal Profound Technique to Chu Feng without any reason to do so?

“It’s actually very simple. It’s useless for the Underworld Palace to keep the Earth Immortal Profound Technique. Furthermore, Chu Feng has already obtained the other four of the Five Elements Secret Skills. As such, since the Underworld Palace wishes to become allies with the Cyanwood Mountain and the Ancient Era’s Elves, they will naturally present the Earth Immortal Profound Technique to Chu Feng so that all five of the secret skills would be in his possession,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“Hall Master is truly a person with deep plans and distant thoughts. This subordinate is filled with admiration. Merely... how did you know that Chu Feng would be able to assimilate the Five Elements Secret Skills?” The World Devastator Immortal asked.

“I didn’t know whether or not he’d succeed.”

“Merely, it remains that he is from the Outer World. As such, he is stronger than the people from the Holy Land of Martialism. Therefore, there was a trace of hope that he would be able to successfully assimilate the Five Elements Secret Skills. I didn’t expect that he would truly be able to accomplish that,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“So even Lord Hall Master was uncertain as to whether or not Chu Feng would succeed. But, if Chu Feng were to fail, wouldn’t he...?” The World Devastator Immortal was extremely astonished.

“Failure would only mean death. But he will die sooner or later in any case. As such, why would I fear his death?”

“Hahaha...” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master burst into loud laughter. As he laughed, he began to enter the void and left the palace.

Following behind him, that mysterious woman also left.

At that moment, only the World Devastator Immortal remained. He had a somewhat complicated expression on his face.

Suddenly, he felt that he was increasingly unable to see through the thoughts of this Lord Hall Master. However, because of that, he felt even more delighted to serve him. He felt that only someone like the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was worthy of his servitude.

.....

Time passed quickly. In the blink of an eye, half a month passed.

After spending two and a half months, Dugu Xingfeng finally returned from the Cursed Soil Sect.

Actually, the Cursed Soil Sect was very close to the Cyanwood Mountain. The reason why Dugu Xingfeng was tasked with going to the Cursed Soil Sect, the closest of the four powers, was also because his cultivation was the weakest.

Merely, due to the fact that Dugu Xingfeng was the person with the lowest cultivation among the four that were tasked with obtaining the symbols, things happened on the journey, and he was delayed. However, he eventually managed to successfully obtain the symbol and return to the Cyanwood Mountain.

After returning to the Cyanwood Mountain, Dugu Xingfeng rushed straight for the Cyanwood Mountain's core region. However, before he even approached it, he suddenly stopped flying. As if petrified, he stood in midair.

At that moment, a dense expression of admiration appeared on his previously anxious face.

Before him was a place that used to be a vast plaza. However, it had been turned into an enormous fort.

Not only did that fort cover the vast plaza, it also shot straight into the clouds, and looked very extravagant.

The fort was completely golden in color, and enormous dragon-veined patterns were moving about through the fort. It was as if there were countless enormous dragons sealed in the fort. At the same time, it looked like countless enormous dragons were protecting the fort.

As far as the eye could see, that fort looked like a divine shrine.

Most importantly, as he stood before the fort, Dugu Xingfeng seemed to have realized what was meant by 'truly impregnable.'

Actually, as the Cyanwood Mountain had existed for so long, they also possessed a very powerful defensive formation. Merely, when compared to the spirit formation before him, that spirit formation they had was simply inferior in all aspects other than size.

And this... it was the grand defensive spirit formation that Chu Feng and the others had set up.

“Xingfeng, you’ve finally returned. If you were any later, I would’ve gone out to find you.”

Suddenly, several figures soared into the sky and stood before Dugu Xingfeng. The person leading them was Baili Xuankong. Other than Baili Xuankong, the others that had left to obtain the symbols were all present.

“My apologies. A small inconvenience appeared on the journey. I have made everyone wait,” Dugu Xingfeng said in a self-blaming manner.

After all, the crowd had been considerate of him, and deliberately sent him to the Cursed Soil Sect that was closest to the Cyanwood Mountain. However... he was still the last one to return. This caused him to feel very ashamed.

“Yes, I did” Dugu Xingfeng took out an extremely exquisite box from his Cosmos Sack. After opening the box, a symbol appeared. That symbol’s shape was different from the one that Chu Feng had obtained from the Cyanwood Mountain. However, it was emitting the same sort of dense ancient aura.

“This is great,” Seeing that Dugu Xingfeng had also succeeded, the crowd present all started to smile in joy.

“Ancestor, is that the grand spirit formation that Chu Feng and the other Immortals worked together to set up?” Dugu Xingfeng asked.

“That’s right. Xingfeng, this grand spirit formation could be said to be the most extraordinary spirit formation that I’ve ever seen.”

“Not only is it capable of withstanding attacks from peak Martial

Emperors, it also possess thirty-eight different offensive formations. It is capable of both attacking and defending. It is truly powerful.”

“Most importantly, it was created by one of our Cyanwood Mountain’s disciples, Chu Feng,” When Baili Xuankong introduced the grand defensive spirit formation to Dugu Xingfeng, both his manner and tone were extremely excited.

The reason for that was because he knew that not even the Heavenly Law Palace, the Mortal King Palace or the Underworld Palace had a spirit formation like that one. As for all of this, it had all been bestowed to them by Chu Feng. Like Chu Feng, this grand spirit formation would become the Cyanwood Mountain’s eternal pride.

Chapter 2021 – Wonderstone Dao Ground

“It is truly our Cyanwood Mountain’s blessing to have Chu Feng as our disciple,” At that moment, Dugu Xingfeng was also extremely excited. At the same time, he was gasping with admiration.

Back then, when Chu Feng had first entered their Cyanwood Mountain, he had been so small and weak. Not to mention the huge monsters outside of the Cyanwood Mountain, even the many elders within the Cyanwood Mountain would have easily been able to kill Chu Feng.

At that time, even though he had been attracted by Chu Feng’s talent, he did not imagine that Chu Feng would grow up this much and become this powerful in a period of a few short years.

“Mn?” Suddenly, Dugu Xingfeng’s expression changed. As the grand spirit formation had already been set up, and even the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others were here, why was Chu Feng nowhere to be seen?

Puzzled, Dugu Xingfeng asked the crowd, “Milords, where’s Chu Feng?”

“Little friend Chu Feng exhausted practically all of his spirit power in order to set up this spirit formation. His health is very weak right now. Likely, he will have to rest for some time in order to recover,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

When the Weaponry Refinement Immortal said those words, the Immeasurable Immortal and Zhang Ming revealed ashamed expressions.

In terms of seniority, they were both Chu Feng’s seniors.

In terms of qualifications, they had become famous thousands of years ago.

Yet, they knew very well that they had completely relied on Chu

Feng to set up that grand defensive spirit formation.

Even with all of their contributions combined, it was still inferior to what Chu Feng had done for the spirit formation. It was all due to Chu Feng's contributions that they had managed to successfully set up that grand spirit formation.

That was why Chu Feng's health became extremely weak, and his spirit power nearly completely exhausted after they finished setting up the grand formation.

"May I go check on Chu Feng?" Dugu Xingfeng asked.

"Of course. Little friend Chu Feng was also worried about you the entire time. If you had not returned, we would've really gone out to search for you," Nangong Longjian said.

"Milords, please," Hearing those words, Dugu Xingfeng's expression turned serious. He held tightly to the symbol he had procured and began to fly toward Chu Feng's residence. He wanted to personally hand the symbol to Chu Feng.

Seeing that, Nangong Longjian, Baili Xuankong and the others also followed after him. They were also worried about Chu Feng. However, more than that, as the five symbols were all gathered, they wanted to know exactly what the treasure hidden by the Five Elements Secret Skills was.

Merely, when they arrived at Chu Feng's palace, they were all shocked.

Chu Feng was chatting with the Snow-haired Immortal like a lively dragon, an animated tiger. How could he possibly appear like a person in extremely weak health?

"Lord Headmaster, you've returned? I had thought about going to the Cursed Soil Sect to receive you," Chu Feng was overjoyed to see Dugu Xingfeng.

When he had found out that Dugu Xingfeng had yet to return, he had become very worried. After his health improved, he had planned to go find Dugu Xingfeng. Merely, he was stopped by the Snow-haired Immortal. He was just explaining to the Snow-haired Immortal that he was fine and could go to search for Dugu Xingfeng when Dugu Xingfeng arrived.

“Chu Feng, you... you’re fine now?” At that moment, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others all walked over. They were looking at Chu Feng like they were looking at a monster.

Chu Feng had finished setting up the grand defensive spirit formation two days ago. After that, he had directly fainted from nearly exhausting all of his spirit power.

It was a major taboo for world spiritists to completely exhaust their spirit power, because they would not be able to recover in a short period of time, and it might even cause permanent damage that stopped the progress of their world spirit techniques. In the most serious cases, their spirit power might not be able to recover at all. Even if other world spiritists were to forcibly instill their spirit power into them, it would still be useless.

However, what was this with Chu Feng? Not only was there no harm, he had even recovered so quickly and thoroughly?

“Seniors, you don’t have to worry about me. I am fine now.”

“If you don’t believe me, look at this,” Chu Feng said with a smile. Fearing that they would not believe him, Chu Feng began to unleash his own world spirit power.

Upon seeing Chu Feng’s fluent command over the abundant Dragon Mark Royal-level spirit power, the crowd all came to believe that Chu Feng had recovered.

It was true that Chu Feng had exhausted his spirit power. If he were an ordinary person, he would have indeed needed a long time to recuperate.

However, Chu Feng’s spirit power recovered extremely fast.

Furthermore, with the recovery of his spirit power, Chu Feng's health also recovered.

“Demon-level character, truly a demon-level character,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal muttered. He mocked Chu Feng's astonishing composition.

That being said, everyone was smiling. They were all feeling happy for Chu Feng.

In fact, even Chu Feng himself was very surprised by what had happened. This time around, he had truly exhausted his spirit power, and had not expected that he would be able to recover so fast.

In other words, after what had happened, Chu Feng discovered that not only was his Inherited Bloodline powerful, his spirit power seemed to be even more powerful than his Inherited Bloodline.

“Chu Feng, since you're fine, then should we solve the mystery of the Five Elements Secret Skills?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked.

Following that, Baili Xuankong, Nangong Longjian and the Snow Blade Mad Demon also handed their respective symbols to Chu Feng.

“Very well,” After receiving the symbols, Chu Feng took out the symbol that he already had. Then, he began to form hand seals with one hand and spoke some incantations. The five symbols began to fuse with one another.

After the five symbols fused completely with one another, they turned into a firefly-sized body of light.

Although that body of light was very small, everyone could tell that it was amazing.

Although the five symbols had disappeared, countless characters that the crowd were unable to understand were hovering within that body of light.

The crowd present were all able to tell that the characters present in that body of light were characters from the Ancient Era.

Each single character possessed a special meaning and extraordinary power.

When looking at those characters, one would feel delighted in one's heart. It was as if the more they looked at them and the more they understood, the more their cultivation would be able to make progress.

Right at the moment when everyone was about to be fascinated by the characters, Chu Feng spoke another incantation. Then, he shouted lightly, "In!"

"Woosh~~~"

That body of light was beckoned by Chu Feng's incantation. It turned into a ray of light that shot into the area between Chu Feng's eyebrows.

At that moment, the crowd began to hold their breaths. They were extremely tense, and unable to take their eyes off Chu Feng.

They knew that it was very possible that Chu Feng now knew about the secret of the treasure left behind by the Five Elements Old Ancestor.

"Chu Feng, how was it?" The Immeasurable Immortal asked.

"It's a success. Sure enough, Five Elements Old Ancestor did leave items behind," Chu Feng said.

"What are they?" At this moment, the crowd asked in unison.

"I'm not sure. But I'll know once I reach the Wonderstone Dao Ground," Chu Feng said.

"Wonderstone Dao Ground?" The crowd were all startled upon hearing those words.

“Seniors, do you all know where the Wonderstone Dao Ground is located?” Chu Feng asked. He did not know anything about the Wonderstone Dao Ground.

“We do. Merely, that place has been abandoned for a very long time. Furthermore...” The Immeasurable Immortal did not finish his sentence.

Dao Ground is literally the same word as the japanese ‘dojo.’ It is a place for enlightenment of the dao.

Chapter 2022 – Act Separately

“Furthermore?” Chu Feng asked.

“Furthermore, that place has been pillaged. Practically all of the treasures there were snatched away. If the Five Elements Old Ancestor left his treasures there, they might have already been pillaged by others,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal interrupted.

“What? What happened?” Chu Feng asked. He was already able to tell that the Wonderstone Dao Ground was an extraordinary place.

“The Wonderstone Dao Ground is known for its various wonderstones. However, the reason why it was famous was because, many years ago, there was a power called the ‘Wonder Sect’ in that place.”

“During its peak, the Wonder Sect was capable of contending against the Three Palaces. In fact, for a short duration, the Wonder Sect surpassed the Three Palaces, and became the number one power in the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“Unfortunately, the glorious days of the Wonder Sect were short lived. Due to the fact that the first Sect Master of the Wonder Sect had offended too many people and there was no expert capable of contending against the Three Palaces’ Palace Masters after him — all of the Wonder Sect’s other experts were inferior to the Four Great Imperial Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders — the Wonder Sect suffered a sudden, devastating decline after the death of the Wonder Sect’s first Sect Master.”

“Countless enemies came to take revenge on them.”

“Not only was the Wonder Sect eradicated, the people even dug ten thousand meters underground to search for the treasures in the Wonder Sect. They completely turned the Wonder Sect upside down.”

“After the pillaging, not only was the Wonder Sect in an utter mess, countless corpses were also scattered all over to be exposed to the scorching sun.”

“Later, a monk was unable to put up with the scene of devastation. He buried all of the deceased from the Wonder Sect and filled up the Wonder Sect’s land that was dug up by the pillagers.”

“With that, even though the Wonder Sect no longer exists, the Wonderstone Dao Ground was, at the very least, not that frightening and sorrowful to look at.”

“Furthermore, the Wonderstone Dao Ground did possess a special sort of power that protected it. That place could be said to be a blessed land.”

“Thus, after many years had passed, many people tried to set up sects and schools in the Wonderstone Dao Ground. However, whenever night arrives, anguished wailing would sound from underneath the Wonderstone Dao Ground. This caused those who tried to start sects and schools there to feel their hair stand on end and their blood run cold. In fact, strange things would often take place in the Wonderstone Dao Ground too.”

“The people all felt that it was caused by the lingering ghosts of the Wonder Sect that had died tragically; they felt that all of the strange occurrences were caused by the lingering ghosts.”

“Most importantly, there was no way to solve those strange happenings. Even Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists were unable to do anything about it.”

“Gradually, no one bothered to go to the Wonderstone Dao Ground. The Wonderstone Dao Ground ended up being abandoned. From the time it was abandoned till now, a hundred thousand years have passed,” The Immeasurable Immortal said.

“For something from so long ago, are we sure that it’s true?” Chu Feng asked. After all, a hundred thousand years was a very long time. There could be a lot of false rumors after so much time passed.

“The major rumors might be fake. However, the matters regarding the Wonderstone Dao Ground are definitely true. The reason for that is because those strange phenomenon are still present even now,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said.

“I have also been to the Wonderstone Dao Ground to check things out before, and returned with no harvest. However, I can ascertain one thing. That is, that those strange phenomenon do exist,” The Snow-haired Immortal said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng looked to the Immeasurable Immortal and Zhang Ming, the two other powerful world spiritists present.

“Indeed, I’ve been there too. The Wonderstone Dao Ground is a mystical place. All world spiritists wish to solve the mystery of that place. If someone manages to solve the mystery of that place, they will become famous overnight with their name spread through the entire world.”

“Actually, even if you did not mention the Wonderstone Dao Ground, I would have recommended that you check that place out,” Zhang Ming said.

“It’s actually that mystical?” After learning about the Wonderstone Dao Ground, Chu Feng was very surprised by it. At the same time, he started to yearn for that Wonderstone Dao Ground even more. Thus, he said, “In that case, the Wonderstone Dao Ground is truly a place that I must go to. Furthermore, I feel that the secret of Five Elements Secret Skills is definitely still hidden there.”

“That’s true. After all, those five symbols were that well-hidden. The true treasure must be even more hidden. Even though the Wonderstone Dao Ground has already been upturned by others, the treasures the Five Elements Old Ancestor left behind might not necessarily have already been taken,” said the Weaponry Refinement Immortal with a nod.

“Chu Feng, in that case, when do you plan to proceed for the Wonderstone Dao Ground?” The Snow-haired Immortal asked.

“I believe that seniors are all like me, impatient to know what sort of treasures the Five Elements Old Ancestor left behind, no?” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Indeed,” The crowd smiled and nodded. Although they were surprised by Chu Feng wanting to go right now, that was actually also what they wanted to do.

“Senior, I can go alone this time around. I would not have to inconvenience everyone,” Chu Feng said.

“The battle between the Ancient Era’s Elves and the Dark Hall is certain to be even more intense than before. As allies, we cannot stand by and watch with folded arms.”

“Thus, I wish to ask seniors to assist the Ancient Era’s Elves. As for the treasures, I can go and obtain them myself. After I have obtained them, I will meet with everyone in the Elf Kingdom,” Chu Feng requested earnestly. Although the Cyanwood Mountain was safe, Chu Feng was worried for the Ancient Era’s Elves.

“The Cyanwood Mountain’s grand defensive formation is already complete. There is no longer a need to fear being invaded anymore. Indeed, it is time for us to join the battle between the Ancient Era's Elves and the Dark Hall."

"But, if little friend Chu Feng is to go to the Wonderstone Dao Ground alone, we will be worried for your safety. How about this, little friend Chu Feng, I'll accompany you there," The Immeasurable Immortal said.

"That's right. Chu Feng, have the Immeasurable Immortal accompany you," Baili Xuankong said.

Even though Chu Feng was already extremely powerful right now, Chu Feng remained a child in the eyes of Baili Xuankong. Thus, he would be unable to feel at ease if Chu Feng were to go alone.

Merely... the current him no longer possessed the capability to protect Chu Feng. If he were to accompany Chu Feng, he would only become Chu Feng's burden should something really happen.

However, the Immeasurable Immortal was different. Not only was he a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, he was also a rank seven Martial Emperor. With his strength, he would be able to protect Chu Feng.

"Chu Feng, the Immeasurable Immortal is familiar with the Wonderstone Dao Ground. It would be good for him to accompany you," At this moment, Nangong Longjian and the others also voiced their approval.

"Very well. In that case, senior Immeasurable, let's set off," Chu Feng said.

"Sure, let's go," The Immeasurable Immortal nodded.

After this matter was decided, Chu Feng immediately left for the Wonderstone Dao Ground with the Immeasurable Immortal.

As for the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal, the Snow Blade Mad Demon, Nangong Longjian and the other grand characters, they led the thousand-plus Martial

Emperors, the nominal elders of the Cyanwood Mountain, and proceeded for the battlefield where the Ancient Era's Elves and the Dark Hall were fighting to reinforce the Ancient Era's Elves.

After those experts left, Baili Xuankong and the others immediately called for all of the Cyanwood Mountain's elders and disciples to enter the grand defensive formation.

It was currently a time of war. Even the Ancient Era's Elves were engulfed in the chaos of war. Thus, it was destined that the Cyanwood Mountain would not be able to live peacefully.

After all those experts left, the battle power of the Cyanwood Mountain had suffered enormously. The people that remained were simply unable to protect the Cyanwood Mountain.

In this sort of situation, the best solution would be to have all of the elders and disciples hide in the grand defensive formation.

Chapter 2023 – Acquiring the Scroll

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng and the Immeasurable Immortal finally arrived at the Wonderstone Dao Ground.

“This is the Wonderstone Dao Ground? It is truly extraordinary.”

Seeing the scene before him, Chu Feng’s expression changed. The corners of his mouth raised into a slight smile.

Before him was a vast plain. However, on the plain were stones of varying sizes. Those stones were all different shapes. Some looked like humans, and some looked like beasts. Even though there were a lot of wonderstones in the Holy Land of Martialism, Chu Feng had a special feeling from merely a single glance at the wonderstones in this place.

These stones were most definitely not ordinary stones.

These sorts of stones covered the entire vast plain. They numbered several hundred thousand. It was truly a magnificent sight.

“Indeed, they are extraordinary. The reason why the stones of this place are known to be wonderstones is because they are indestructible. Furthermore, none of them can be moved,” The Immeasurable Immortal said.

“They’re actually this miraculous? Could it be that those stones are treasures?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng was also very surprised.

“No, they’re not treasures. Since the Ancient Era, there have been many people who have researched the stones here. Even I myself have researched them.”

“Although the stones here give off a very special sensation and are indestructible, they are actually only ordinary stones, and not treasures,” The Immeasurable Immortal said.

“Ordinary stones? How could ordinary stones be indestructible and unable to be moved?” Chu Feng was even more shocked.

“According to my master, the reason why this Wonderstone Dao Ground was known as a Dao Ground was because there is a special sort of power in this place. It is that power that protects the wonderstones in this place.”

“Although no one knows why that special power would protect these stones, it remains that it exists for those stones. Perhaps it is because of that that this place became the Wonderstone Dao Ground,” The Immeasurable Immortal explained.

“Chu Feng, now that we’ve arrived at the Wonderstone Dao Ground, have you managed to sense the treasures?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked.

“No, I am unable to sense anything. I would have to set up a spirit formation. After that spirit formation is formed, it would form a treasure map. As for that treasure map... it records the location of that treasure,” Chu Feng said.

“So this place only contains a treasure map, and the treasures themselves are hidden elsewhere?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked.

“That should be the case,” Chu Feng said.

“The Five Elements Old Ancestor is truly cautious. Originally, I thought that the secret to his treasure would be solved should one assimilate the Five Elements Secret Skills. Never would I have expected it to be this troublesome,” The Immeasurable Immortal said.

“However, since we’ve already arrived, we should still give it a try. Chu Feng, go ahead and set up your spirit formation. I will protect you here,” The Immeasurable Immortal said.

“Senior, thank you,” Chu Feng nodded. Then, without hesitation, he proceeded toward the center of that Wonderstone Dao Ground and started to set up a spirit formation in midair.

Chu Feng set up the spirit formation very quickly. However, watching Chu Feng setting up the spirit formation, the Immeasurable Immortal exclaimed in astonishment. The spirit formation that Chu Feng had set up was too complicated.

If Chu Feng were to explain the spirit formation to him, then perhaps he would understand it. However, Chu Feng did not bother to explain the spirit formation. Thus, he was unable to make sense of what Chu Feng was doing.

Although he was unable to make sense of it, he was able to sense the frightening power contained within the spirit formation.

It was precisely because that spirit formation was so frightening and complicated that the Immeasurable Immortal exclaimed in admiration. He was pondering how Chu Feng had managed to accomplish that. If it were him, it would simply be impossible.

“That child’s talent is truly frightening. He might even become the first Immortal-cloak World Spiritist since the Ancient Era,” Looking at the majestic grand spirit formation in mid-air, the Immeasurable Immortal was unable to contain himself from praising Chu Feng.

The way he saw it, Chu Feng’s world spirit technique had not only surpassed them, he might even be the number one world spiritist in the entire Holy Land of Martialism, above all world spiritists.

The way he saw it, even the first among the Ten Immortals, the remarkable Heaven Reaching Immortal, might not necessarily be able to compare with Chu Feng.

However, how old was Chu Feng? He was already able to attain such a level of accomplishment at such a young age; how frightening would his accomplishments be in the future?

Upon thinking about it, the Immeasurable Immortal felt a deep amount of disbelief. Truly, he had no choice but to feel admiration for Chu Feng.

In truth, the spirit formation that Chu Feng was setting up was indeed extremely complicated; it had completely surpassed the Immeasurable Immortal's imagination. Even for Chu Feng, it took him an entire month to finish setting up that spirit formation.

"Huu..." At that moment, Chu Feng finally arrived beside the Immeasurable Immortal. He was dripping with sweat and his complexion was also slightly unwell. However, he had a smile on his face as he said, "Senior, I've succeeded."

"Succeeded? Then, what about the map? Where is the map?" The Immeasurable Immortal inspected the spirit formation Chu Feng had set up. He carefully inspected it from top to bottom. He was searching for the whereabouts of the map.

"Senior, please look," The corners of Chu Feng's mouth rose into a light smile again. Then, he began to form hand seals with one hand and spoke a special incantation.

"Rumble, rumble~~~"

The earth started to tremble. Then, energies visible to the naked eye began to fly out from the surface of the Wonderstone Dao Ground and entered the spirit formation in midair.

In this sort of situation, that spirit formation in midair started to shine with increasingly brighter light. In the end, its bright light was like that of a full moon, illuminating their surroundings. It was a truly magnificent sight.

"Chu Feng, that spirit formation, it... it is actually the power of this place," Seeing this scene, the Immeasurable Immortal became increasingly astonished.

Although the special power of the Wonderstone Dao Ground was said to be there to protect the stones in this area, it had always been a mystery. The reason for that was because no one had been able to successfully capture that power. As such, they were unable to confirm whether or not that power really existed.

However, Chu Feng had now verified its existence. Not only had he verified the existence of that power, he had also used his spirit formation to gather the special, powerful and mysterious energy.

In other words, Chu Feng had managed to undo the mystery of the Wonderstone Dao Ground that no one else had managed to do.

It turned out that mystery was related to the Five Elements Old Ancestor.

“Buzz~~~”

Finally, all of the mysterious power that was protecting the enormous Wonderstone Dao Ground was sucked dry.

The Wonderstone Dao Ground no longer possessed any special power. Although the stones of this place remained extremely fantastic with all kinds of different stones, they had become very ordinary.

This place... had become an ordinary field.

However, the Immeasurable Immortal's heart was unable to calm down. His gaze was fixed upon the grand spirit formation floating in midair like the bright moon.

After it finished absorbing all of the special power contained in the Wonderstone Dao Ground, that grand spirit formation that was emitting silvery light became even more frightening. It was as if there was an explosive power rolling about within it. As for that explosive power, it could explode at any moment.

However, the silvery light that was illuminating their surrounding was dissipating. As the dazzling silvery light dissipated, the Immeasurable Immortal was able to clearly see that there was a scroll in the center of that grand spirit formation.

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng continued to form hand seals with one hand. Then, he extended his other hand toward the grand spirit formation and made a grabbing motion. Then, that scroll flew out from the spirit formation and entered Chu Feng’s hand.

Chapter 2024 – Two Identities

“Success?” The Immeasurable Immortal exclaimed in astonishment as he looked at the scroll in Chu Feng’s hand.

The Immeasurable Immortal did not open the scroll. Instead, he asked Chu Feng, “The location of the treasure is recorded on this scroll?”

“Hahaha, great, this is great,” At that moment, the Immeasurable Immortal burst into loud laughter. This was the first time Chu Feng had heard him laugh so happily. He had already forgotten himself in joy, and revealed an image that was different from how he always conducted himself.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the Immeasurable Immortal shot out a palm strike at Chu Feng’s dantian.

“Zzzzz~”

However, Chu Feng seemed to have already expected the Immeasurable Immortal to attack him. His Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings both appeared. He had managed to dodge the Immeasurable Immortal’s palm strike.

“You’re actually on guard against me?” Upon seeing this, the Immeasurable Immortal’s eyes narrowed. Deep surprise emerged in his eyes.

“Heh... I’ve doubted you since long ago,” Chu Feng smiled. His smile was filled with contempt.

“Your reactions earlier were all very normal. However, you were especially concerned about the treasure of the Five Elements Secret Skills. This let me realize that you deeply longed for that treasure.”

“Normally, it would be fine if you longed for the treasure. However, it was precisely because of the fact that you’ve conducted yourself so righteously that it seemed strange.”

“Truth be told, I was unable to ascertain whether or not you wanted to obtain the treasure. Thus, I decided to test it out.”

“In other words, I deliberately told the others to not follow me. The reason for that was because you would only reveal your true identity should you follow after me alone,” Chu Feng said.

After hearing what Chu Feng said, the Immeasurable Immortal stood there in a startled manner. He did not dare to believe all that he had heard.

After some time had passed, the Immeasurable Immortal finally managed to alleviate his heart. With a wry smile, he said, “I must admit, you are truly intelligent. You are the first person to see through me.”

“That’s true. No one would have expected that the renowned Immeasurable Immortal would be nothing more than a fake, a hypocrite. Truth be told, someone like you is even more vile and repulsive than your junior brother, the Avaricious Immortal.”

“Although the Avaricious Immortal is bad, he is at the very least openly bad. As for you... you display yourself as righteous while doing all sorts of despicable things behind people’s backs,” Chu Feng said.

“Despicable things? How do you know that I’ve done despicable things?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked with a beaming smile on his face.

“All crows are equally black. Furthermore, with how good of a disguise you’ve given yourself, it means that you are not just ordinarily evil. Thus, when even ordinary evildoers have done tons of evils, someone like you would have naturally done a whole lot more,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s right. You’ve guessed correctly. I have indeed done a whole lot of evil. I could be said to have done every sort of evil known to man.”

“I might as well tell you the truth. In the Holy Land of Martialism, I have another identity,” The Immeasurable Immortal said in a rather proud manner. When he spoke those words, he stuck up his chest. It was as if he was immensely proud of his other identity.

At this moment, Chu Feng started to frown. He asked, “Who are you?”

“Zhan.”

“Cang.”

“Tian.”

The Immeasurable Immortal spoke out his name one word at a time.

“What?!”

“You are Zhan Cangtian?!”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s expression changed to one of shock.

Even though Chu Feng’s impression of the Immeasurable Immortal had decreased enormously ever since the moment he suspected the Immeasurable Immortal, and he had determined that the Immeasurable Immortal was not a righteous person, but instead a vile and repulsive one the moment he determined that the Immeasurable Immortal wanted to seize the treasures of the Five Elements Secret Skills...

... Chu Feng had never suspected that the Immeasurable Immortal was actually Zhan Cangtian.

Who was Zhan Cangtian? He was the leader of the Holy Land of Martialism's Five Great Evildoers, the most notorious existence in the Holy Land of Martialism.

Countless innocent lives had died tragically at his hand. The Snow Blade Mad Demon's family were all killed by him.

"You said you are Zhan Cangtian? Then, do you know how senior Snow Blade's family died?" Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng felt a bit of disbelief at the Immeasurable Immortal's words. Thus, he wanted to verify that the Immeasurable Immortal was Zhan Cangtian. If he was, then this Immeasurable Immortal's significance in Chu Feng's eyes would be completely different.

"Snow Blade Mad Demon, was it? That nosy fellow, yeah? That's right, I killed his family. I left not a single person alive."

"As for him, he is truly a fool. He has searched for me in the Holy Land of Martialism for so long and still hasn't managed to find me."

"Furthermore, the funniest aspect of all this is that he has seen me many times over the years. Yet, he did not attempt to do anything to me, and was instead very respectful toward me."

"Hahahaha..." The Immeasurable Immortal laughed crazily. His laughter was truly repulsive.

Then, he added, "However, this is not his fault. After all, my disguise is too perfect. No one would have expected that the benevolent Immeasurable Immortal would be the malicious evildoer Zhan Cangtian."

“You damned animal! I will kill you to avenge senior Snow Blade’s family!” At that moment, dense killing intent appeared in Chu Feng’s eyes.

Affected by the killing intent, the region of space around him suddenly grew colder explosively. Black clouds rolled about, and thunder boomed in the sky. Even the weather was affected.

After verifying that the Immeasurable Immortal was Zhan Cangtian, Chu Feng was unable to control his state of mind. Originally, he had wanted to spare the Immeasurable Immortal’s life and hand him over to the Elf King to take care of.

However, he now decided that there was no need for that. Zhan Cangtian’s crimes were countless. He truly could not be pardoned. Chu Feng would absolutely not let such an animal get away.

“Clank~~~”

As Chu Feng spoke, his Furious Coiling Dragon beheader appeared. It turned into a silvery light as it slashed at the Immeasurable Immortal.

“Woosh~~~”

However, the Immeasurable Immortal was also prepared. After Chu Feng unleashed his attack, he flipped his palm and took out an enormous black axe.

Even though the axe was clearly black in color, it was emitting an intense reek of blood. This meant that countless people had died by that axe. Furthermore, those that had died by that axe were mostly people with low levels of cultivation, or people who were not even martial cultivators.

As for that axe, it was not the Imperial Armament that the Immeasurable Immortal normally used. Rather, it was Zhan Cangtian’s Imperial Armament.

“It is you! Today, I shall dismember your body into ten thousand pieces so as to appease the hatred in my heart!”

Upon seeing the enormous black axe, overflowing killing intent filled Chu Feng's eyes. The Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in his hand began to move about in rapid succession as it unleashed continuous fatal attacks at the Immeasurable Immortal.

As for the Immeasurable Immortal, he brandished his enormous black axe domineeringly. Furthermore, the killing intent which his black axe emitted was not at all weaker or inferior to Chu Feng's. In fact, it even surpassed Chu Feng.

Faced with Chu Feng's ferocious attacks, he was completely composed and calm.

With confidence, he said, "My my my, quite imposing eh? No wonder you're daring enough to lure me out to reveal my true identity by yourself."

"However, Chu Feng, who did you take me, Zhan Cangtian, to be? Countless people in the Holy Land of Martialism want to kill me, but are unable to do so. Did you really think that you could kill me?"

Chapter 2025 – Lamentable

“Enough rubbish. Today, I shall avenge the innocent!” Chu Feng possessed enormous hatred for Zhan Cangtian to begin with. Regardless of how notorious Zhan Cangtian might be, regardless of how much he deserved to die, it remained that none of the crimes that Zhan Cangtian had committed affected Chu Feng.

Thus, if it was before, Chu Feng would kill Zhan Cangtian upon his encounter, but would not feel this enormous amount of bitter hatred for him.

However, after hearing the tragic story of the family of Snow Blade Mad Demon, after finding out that Zhan Cangtian killed even a child that was just born, how he would tarnish even a little girl, Chu Feng felt enormous hatred for that animal Zhan Cangtian.

He was unable to tolerate such an animal. Being a person of this world, he must eliminate evil for the people of this world.

“Hahaha, good, good courage. Come.”

“Today, I shall end the Holy Land of Martialism’s strongest genius.”

The Immeasurable Immortal laughed loudly. To him, fighting against Chu Feng wasn’t anything dangerous at all. Instead, it was a very happy matter.

That said... while the Immeasurable Immortal was laughing, he did not show any leniency with his enormous axe.

He would unleash a martial skill with each and every slash of his axe. Furthermore, they were not ordinary Martial Skills. Instead, they were Taboo Martial Skills.

Furthermore, he was able to unleash thousands of swings in an instant. In other words, in a split second, he unleashed thousands of Taboo Martial Skills to attack Chu Feng.

Faced with such a ferocious barrage of attacks, Chu Feng was forced to retreat little by little. Even though he had unleashed the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise, the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills, to assist him, he had still ended up at an absolute disadvantage.

At that moment, Chu Feng was frowning deeply. Unable to contain himself, he cursed, "Damn it!"

Chu Feng's actual cultivation was that of a rank two Martial Emperor. With his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, his cultivation had increased to that of a rank four Martial Emperor.

Adding on Chu Feng's heaven-defying battle power, ordinary rank six Martial Emperors would simply be no match for him. Even against rank seven Martial Emperors, Chu Feng could fight against them after utilizing his various techniques.

This was also the reason why Chu Feng had dared to lure out the true Immeasurable Immortal by himself when he was already skeptical of him.

However, it was obvious that the Immeasurable Immortal was no ordinary rank seven Martial Emperor. Before him, Chu Feng felt the same sort of pressure he had felt when he had fought against the YinYang Immortal.

"Not bad, not bad. You're clearly only a rank two Martial Emperor, but are actually able to fight against me, a grand rank seven Martial Emperor, for so long. I must admit, Chu Feng, you're very powerful. Other than Lord Hall Master, I have truly never met someone as powerful as you. Sure enough, those from the Outer World are different from us," Although the Immeasurable Immortal's words seemed to be praising Chu Feng, they were actually filled with mockery.

"Lord Hall Master? You actually serve the Dark Hall's Hall Master?" Hearing those words, Chu Feng's expression changed again.

“Hahaha, Chu Feng, did you really think that the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace would come to present their secret skills to you of their own initiative?”

“I might as well tell you the truth. All of this was planned by Lord Hall Master. Lord Hall Master was using you to solve the treasure of the Five Elements Secret Skills.”

“Do you know how small and weak you are now? Although you are indeed a genius blessed by the heavens when compared to the others in the Holy Land of Martialism, you are nothing more than a minor character when compared to Lord Hall Master. You were clearly being toyed with by Lord Hall Master, yet you still thought yourself to be amazing. Truly lamentable, truly lamentable.”

“The most lamentable thing is not the fact that you are mediocre and useless.”

“Rather, it is that you possess extraordinary strength that ordinary people cannot compare with. Yet, you are still being suppressed wholly by another, and are completely in the grasp of their palm.”

“Chu Feng, do you know how pitiful you are now?”

As the Immeasurable Immortal suppressed Chu Feng with his ferocious attacks, he began to humiliate Chu Feng with words.

“No wonder he didn’t kill me. So he had planned to use me to begin with,” Chu Feng gnashed his teeth in anger. His complexion turned deep red. He was simply about to go mad with anger.

“Woosh~~~”

“Puchi~~~”

Right at that moment, one of the Immeasurable Immortal’s slashes swiped by Chu Feng’s left shoulder. The enormous black axe hacked out a large piece of Chu Feng’s flesh, and left him drenched with blood.

“Ahhh!!!!”

That axe was too ferocious. Even Chu Feng shouted in pain. He moved back explosively and turned to escape.

“Woosh~~~”

However, at that moment, light flashed underneath the Immeasurable Immortal’s feet. Like a phantom, he arrived before Chu Feng and blocked his path.

“Heaven Taboo: Black Axe Soulbinder.”

The Immeasurable Immortal raised the enormous black axe he held in his hand, and a formless power immediately enveloped Chu Feng, restricting his movements.

“What did I do? Humph, this here is my Imperial Armament, the Black Axe’s special Heaven Taboo Martial Skill. Its name is Heaven Taboo: Soulbinder. However, I’ve named it the Black Axe Soulbinder instead.”

“Within a certain distance, as long as you are hit with my Black Axe Soulbinder, you will not be able to escape and move. You can only allow yourself to be trampled upon by me.”

“Thinking about it, it is truly a pity. If the people of the world were to know that the exceptional genius Chu Feng died by my hands, oh how pleasant that would feel.”

“Unfortunately, I cannot mention this matter, since I will have to return to the Ancient Era’s Elves after killing you. I will stand beside the Elf King and watch personally as the Ancient Era’s Elves slowly walk toward their destruction.”

“Hahahahaha!!!!!!” The Immeasurable Immortal laughed crazily.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s expression grew even uglier. He finally knew why the Ancient Era’s Elves were also a move behind the Dark Hall, why they were also pinned down by the Dark Hall.

It turned out that the Immeasurable Immortal, this fellow who possessed a deep relationship with the Ancient Era's Elves, was actually a spy from the Dark Hall.

If he were truly allowed to return to the Ancient Era's Elves, it would be extremely detrimental to the Ancient Era's Elves.

Seeing that Chu Feng had no response to his mocking laughter, the Immeasurable Immortal asked, "Chu Feng, do you have anything that you wish to say?"

"The victor is the king and loser is the thief. I have nothing to say," Chu Feng said.

"Although you have nothing to say, I have things to say. Did you know... that the person you killed on the Gong Ba Plains was not only my disciple, he was also the only son I've ever had?" Suddenly, the Immeasurable Immortal stopped laughing. Dense killing intent emerged in his aged eyes.

"Hahahahahaha!!!!!!" In response, not only was Chu Feng not afraid, Chu Feng who had had an ugly expression earlier actually burst into loud laughter. He was truly laughing in joy. It was as if he was the one who was holding absolute superiority in this battle.

"What are you laughing about?" The Immeasurable Immortal asked with a frown. He did not know what Chu Feng was doing.

"I had originally thought that I'd only killed your disciple, But it turns out that I've actually killed your son. This is truly satisfying."

"Oh, that's right. Before your son died, he tried to use your name to threaten me. Unfortunately, he was still killed by me. Furthermore... he met a miserable death," Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

Chapter 2026 – Confidence

After hearing what Chu Feng said, the Immeasurable Immortal started to tremble, and his gaze began to flicker nonstop. It was as if he was seeing the sight of his son being killed by Chu Feng. The more he imagined that scene, the more furious he felt.

Nearly driven insane by anger, he shouted, “You little bastard! You truly deserve to die!!!”

After he said those words, the enormous black axe that was raised high up in the air hacked down toward Chu Feng with overwhelming destructive power.

“Boom~~~”

In an instant, a black crescent slash landed on Chu Feng’s body, splitting him into pieces.

However, Chu Feng’s split body did not shed blood. Instead, it turned into bodies of energy that shot toward the Immeasurable Immortal.

Everything happened too suddenly. By the time the Immeasurable Immortal, who had thought that he had grasped victory, managed to react, the five elemental energies had gathered in one place and fused together into a body that stood behind him. It was none other than Chu Feng.

“Heaven Taboo: Void Splitting Blade.”

Chu Feng suddenly brandished the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in his hand and unleashed a slash.

Although that slash appeared to only be an ordinary slash, the region of space around it immediately turned pitch black the moment that slash was unleashed.

Suddenly, from the pitch black sky, a dazzling silver body of light streaked across that pitch black sky like a meteor.

However... it was not a meteor. Rather, it was an incomparably ferocious strike.

Its might was even stronger than Chu Feng's Profound Firmament Annihilation.

Finally, the pitch black sky returned to normal. Chu Feng was still standing in the sky, However he was not injured in the slightest. The location where he was injured by the Immeasurable Immortal earlier had already completely recovered. Not only was his body healed, even his clothes were restored.

At that moment, Chu Feng was looking down at a boulder below expressionlessly.

On top of that boulder was a person. To be exact, it was a spirit body. That spirit body was the Immeasurable Immortal.

The Immeasurable Immortal had not died. At the crucial moment, he had used special methods to escape Chu Feng's fatal attack.

However, not only was his physical body destroyed, he was also incomparably weak. Not to mention Chu Feng, any random rank one Martial Emperor would be able to easily kill him.

"You're quite devoted," Seeing the state of the Immeasurable Immortal, who had abandoned his physical body, his Cosmos Sack and his Imperial Armament Black Axe, but was still holding onto the scroll that recorded the location of the treasures, Chu Feng felt that he was very loyal and devoted to the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

"Why would this happen? Why would I be defeated by you?" The Immeasurable Immortal looked to Chu Feng in disbelief. Even now, he did not believe what had happened earlier. He could not accept that he was defeated by Chu Feng.

As he already knew how powerful Chu Feng was, he had not underestimated Chu Feng at all. He had used his Imperial Armament and his strongest offensive attacks from the very start.

He had even used his strongest fatal attack to kill Chu Feng.

Victory should have been completely within his grasp. How was it that he was defeated by Chu Feng? After all, there was such an enormous gap between their true cultivation levels.

“If I did not have certainty in being able to defeat you, did you think I would have lured you out to reveal your true self by myself?” Chu Feng smiled coldly.

That’s right, Chu Feng had dared to come alone because he possessed absolute certainty in being able to defeat the Immeasurable Immortal.

Although the assimilation of the Five Elements Secret Skills had not increased Chu Feng’s cultivation, they had bestowed Chu Feng with an unkillable body.

Unless Chu Feng’s opponent possessed a strength capable of suppressing him completely, unless his opponent was so powerful that it was simply impossible for Chu Feng to contend against them, no one could kill Chu Feng.

Chu Feng... was undying and indestructible.

Evidently... the Immeasurable Immortal belonged to the ranks of people that were unable to kill Chu Feng.

“But... earlier, I...”

“You’re trying to say that you injured me earlier, isn’t that right?”

“I deliberately allowed you to injure me. Otherwise, how would you lower your guard? How would I be able to defeat you with one strike?” Chu Feng sneered.

“You’ve deceived me! So all of this was a disguise! You despicable little bastard!” After hearing the truth, the Immeasurable Immortal was extremely furious.

“No, the killing intent that I displayed earlier was not a disguise,”

After saying those words, killing intent emerged in Chu Feng's eyes once again. Then, he unleashed a slash with his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, and a silvery light descended from the sky. It targeted the Immeasurable Immortal.

Facing that slash, the Immeasurable Immortal closed his eyes. He knew that Chu Feng's slash was only an ordinary slash, that he had not used any martial skills with it.

However, the current Immeasurable Immortal was simply too weak and unable to withstand that flash. Chu Feng's ordinary slash was more than sufficient to take his life.

Even though he knew that he would definitely be killed, and that he would not be able to resist, the Immeasurable Immortal still clenched his fists tightly. He was unreconciled, unwilling to die by Chu Feng's hands like this.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a figure suddenly appeared before the Immeasurable Immortal. That person waved his sleeve and unleashed a stream of ordinary Emperor-level martial power.

“Boom!” Following a loud explosion, that ordinary Emperor-level martial power forcibly blocked Chu Feng's slash.

It was the World Devastator Immortal. He was standing before the Immeasurable Immortal.

“Chu Feng, you'd never expect for us to meet one another this soon, no?”

After the World Devastator Immortal appeared, he fixed his gaze onto Chu Feng. His expression was extremely malevolent. It was completely different from his usual handsome appearance. He currently looked like a demon.

The World Devastator Immortal wanted to kill Chu Feng even in his dreams. He possessed extreme hatred for Chu Feng.

And now... Chu Feng was before him. Finally, he was able to achieve what he had dreamed of doing. Finally, his hatred and killing intent that he had held back for a very long time was able to be unleashed.

“Hahaha, Chu Feng, so what if you’ve destroyed my physical body?”

“Before I came here, I had already reported this matter to Lord Hall Master. With the World Devastator Immortal here, how are you able to kill me now?”

“Today, the one that’ll die in the end is you,” The Immeasurable Immortal laughed loudly and viciously.

“Oh, you’re talking about the first night after we set off?” Chu Feng said.

“You!!!” Hearing those words, the Immeasurable Immortal’s expression stiffened. Then, he said, “You know that I let out news at that time?”

“Although Golden Flash Birds are extremely fast, they are not so fast that I cannot see them,” Chu Feng said.

“Since you already knew, why did you still dare to come here alone? Could it be that you’ve already notified the Ancient Era’s Elves?!” At that moment, not only was the Immeasurable Immortal panicky, even the World Devastator Immortal started to panic. The two of them started to look all around.

For Chu Feng to be this confident, it was clear that he had come prepared. However, he, the World Devastator Immortal... had come here by himself.

It would be one thing if others came as reinforcements. However, if the Elf King were to come, he would undoubtedly be killed.

After all, the Elf King was so powerful that even the Dark Hall's Hall Master would have to be wary of him for now.

“Don't look anymore. I have not notified the Cyanwood Mountain or the Ancient Era's Elves.”

“They are all fighting against the people from your Dark Hall right now,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

Chapter 2027 – Five Elements Treasures

Although Chu Feng had not informed the experts of the Cyanwood Mountain or the Ancient Era's Elves, he was still filled with confidence.

This caused the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal to feel even more uneasy. Even though the World Devastator Immortal was stronger than Chu Feng, and it would be very easy for him to kill Chu Feng, Chu Feng was currently looking at him with a gaze that held no fear.

Instead, Chu Feng's eyes were filled with disdain. It was as if Chu Feng was the tiger and he was the sheep, that Chu Feng could kill him at any moment.

Feeling extremely uneasy, the World Devastator Immortal shouted at Chu Feng, "Chu Feng, exactly what are you planning?"

"Hehe..." Chu Feng laughed lightly. He leapt forward and arrived at the grand spirit formation in the sky. His hands began to interweave with one another as he formed a special hand seal. Then, he said, "You two wish to know? Very well, I'll let you know right now."

"Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh ~~~"

Suddenly, that grand spirit formation started to emit bright silvery light. At that moment, silver bodies of light shot out from the spirit formation like a meteor shower.

Those silver bodies of lights all descended onto the wonderstones.

"Crack, snap~~~"

Soon, those wonderstones started to shatter. Merely, it was only the surfaces of the wonderstones that shattered. The insides were still intact. Not only that, many different beings were revealed from within the shattered wonderstones.

Some possessed humanoid appearances, whereas others possessed beast-like appearances. Although their bodies were all made of stone, all of them possessed a pair of ferocious crimson eyes.

Most importantly, those stone monsters were not only all alive, they all possessed Martial Emperor-level cultivations.

Furthermore, the amount of stone monsters that Chu Feng had awoken with the spirit formation numbered several tens of thousands.

“This... this... this!!!”

At that moment, not to mention the Immeasurable Immortal, even the World Devastator Immortal was shocked speechless.

There were no less than a hundred thousand stone monsters with cultivations of Martial Emperors. The weakest among them were rank one Martial Emperors. The great majority of them were between rank three and rank six Martial Emperors.

Although there were not a lot of stone monsters above rank six Martial Emperor, there were still quite a bit. Among them, the strongest possessed the same level of cultivation as the World Devastator Immortal; they were rank eight Martial Emperors.

“How could this be? How could this be?! Exactly what is going on? What the hell are these things?!!!”

The World Devastator Immortal did not dare to believe the scene before him.

This was truly too shocking. Even though all of the wonderstones here had existed since the Ancient Era, no one had ever thought that the wonderstones would be such powerful existences.

“Didn’t you all want to know what sort of secret was contained in the Five Elements Old Ancestor’s Five Elements Secret Skills?”

“I shall allow you all to experience the secret contained in the Five Elements Secret Skills.”

“Rooarrr~~~~”

Once Chu Feng’s order was given, the hundred thousand stone monsters immediately emitted ear-piercing roars.

Following that, like an army following a command, the hundred thousand stone monsters began to surround the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal.

Among them, the two stone monsters with the cultivation of rank eight Martial Emperor bore the brunt of the attack. In a flash, they arrived before the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal.

These two stone monsters were both a hundred meters tall. They were like two small mountains. Not only were they humanoid in appearance, they were also donned in armor like two generals.

Standing before the World Devastator Immortal, the two of them were truly giants.

Furthermore, although their weapons were only stones, they would always emit dazzling sparks when they collided with the World Devastator Immortal’s Imperial Armament. They were extremely powerful.

In this sort of situation, the World Devastator Immortal did not dare to fight against them at close range. Instead, he escaped into the sky, and began to unleash martial skills to fight against the two stone monsters.

However, not only were those two stone monsters very ferocious in terms of close range combat, their long range attacks were also extremely strong. They opened their mouths and shot out clouds and mists. Furthermore, they possessed full control over the power of the five elements. In fact, during the times when they released their most frightening attacks, their attacks were able to reach the level of Heaven Taboo Martial Skills.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The World Devastator Immortal collided with the two stone monsters.

One thing worthy of being mentioned was that the stone monsters with weaker strength stopped attempting to fight and instead stood to the side the moment the battle between the World Devastator Immortal and the two rank eight Martial Emperor stone monsters started fighting.

Actually, if they were to attempt to join the battle, they would only cause trouble for themselves. After all, it was impossible for them, with their strength, to kill the World Devastator Immortal.

Thus, it was most sensible for them to move to the side and simply spectate.

All of this was seen by the Immeasurable Immortal. Then, he looked to Chu Feng who was standing in the sky.

He thought to himself that, if all of this was controlled by Chu Feng, it would be understandable. However, if those stone monsters acted that way by themselves, it would be too frightening.

A total of a hundred thousand stone monsters, with the weakest among them being rank one Martial Emperors. If they were to join the battle between the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era's Elves, the Dark Hall's superiority in the battle would be obliterated completely. Furthermore, they would definitely enter a disadvantaged state.

“Wuuahh~~~”

Right at that moment, the World Devastator Immortal suddenly vomited a mouthful of blood.

He was injured. The World Devastator Immortal, a grand rank eight Martial Emperor, was injured by those two rank eight Martial Emperor stone monsters.

“Let’s go.”

Sensing that the situation was bad, the World Devastator Immortal did not dare to stay any longer. He grabbed the Immeasurable Immortal and began to escape.

“After them.”

How could Chu Feng possibly allow them to escape? He gave the order, and the two armored stone monsters began to pursue them relentlessly on foot.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

With each step, they caused the heaven and earth to tremble. Their speed was extremely fast.

Unfortunately, although the World Devastator Immortal was no match for the two armored stone monsters head-on, his speed when fleeing was truly not to be reckoned with. Even though the two stone monsters were extremely fast, they were still unable to catch up to the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal.

Seeing that, Chu Feng had no choice but to order the two stone monsters to return.

Even though the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal had escaped and taken that scroll with them, Chu Feng did not feel any trace of sadness other than a bit of regret. Instead, he was feeling extremely joyous.

“The true treasures of the Five Elements Secret Skills are here.”

As Chu Feng looked to the hundred thousand stone monsters, he was truly unable to contain his happiness.

The strength of those stone monsters were truly not weak. In fact, they could even be said to be extremely strong.

Earlier, Chu Feng had merely given a single order telling them to attack. They complied with Chu Feng's order without Chu Feng having to control them the entire time.

In other words, it was the stone monsters' own decision to not interfere in the battle between the World Devastator Immortal and the two rank eight Martial Emperor-level stone monsters.

Although they were not actual living beings, and were only weapons formed by the Five Elements Old Ancestor through special methods, they were extremely high-level and truly frightening.

Treasures. Who would dare to say that they were not treasures? As long as one gained control of those stone monsters, even the Three Palaces would have to submit to them.

And now, Chu Feng was the ruler of these treasures.

“Follow me into battle.”

“Roar~~~~~”

Once Chu Feng gave the order, the hundred thousand stone monsters let out a roar. Then, they followed Chu Feng in the direction of the Ancient Era's Elves.

After Chu Feng left leading the majestic army of a hundred thousand stone monsters, the sky in the distance suddenly started to distort. Soon, a figure appeared from that place.

That person... had a naked upper body, and only wore a large pair of underpants on his lower body. On his feet were two different-colored straw sandals. It was none other than Wang Qiang.

Merely, at that moment, Wang Qiang had a serious expression on his face. He smiled lightly, then said, “I-It w-w-w-would appear that my decision to f-f-follow him h-here was n-not required.”

After he finished saying those words, Wang Qiang started to laugh. He placed his hands into his underpants and, while still in midair, swaggered off into the distance.

Although his each and every step appeared to be very slow, he actually traveled a distance of a thousand miles with a single step.

Chapter 2028 – Unfavorable Battle Situation

The Ancient Era's Elves, that huge monster, possessed territories all over the Holy Land of Martialism.

Other than the Elf Kingdom itself, there were a total of twenty-one important territories.

Currently, the Ancient Era's Elves had dispatched their top experts from the Elf Kingdom to guard the twenty-one territories.

However, even with that being the case, they were still forced to an extremely passive and a very hopeless state against the occasional attacks from the Dark Hall.

Although the Cyanwood Mountain's army of Martial Emperors led by the Weaponry Refinement Immortal had joined the battle and alleviated a lot of the pressure from the Dark Hall, the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts that the Dark Hall had deployed grew stronger and stronger.

In fact, many of the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were no longer the same as they had been when they were unsealed from the Blood Devouring Killing Formation — they had evolved. Not only had their outward appearance become more ferocious, their strength had also increased.

Thus, in the battle between the Ancient Era's Elves and the Dark Hall, the Ancient Era's Elves were still in a disadvantaged state.

In this sort of situation, the Little Elf Princess Xian Miaomiao was unable to sit tight and do nothing. She requested to go and guard a territory closest to the Elf Kingdom herself.

Originally, the Elf King did not accept her request. However, Xian Miaomiao continued to insist. In the end, the Elf King agreed to her request.

However, it was as if the Dark Hall knew about this beforehand. Right after Xian Miaomiao arrived at that territory, the Dark Hall launched an attack against that territory with their army. This was the most ferocious of all the Dark Hall's attacks.

“Damn it! It's clear that the Dark Hall were prepared, and have come for Your Highness.”

At this moment, the Elf Lord of that territory was standing inside a grand formation on top of the city wall. He looked to the experts from the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts that were attacking the grand formation. His brows were furrowed tightly, and he was feeling extremely uneasy.

They had fought with the Dark Hall tens of times since the war against them had started. Although they were mostly defeated in the tens of battles, they would always face the Dark Hall head-on.

The reason for that was because they needed to defend their Ancient Era's Elves' honor. As such, they had to confront their enemies without cowering.

However, this time around, the Dark Hall had truly dispatched an enormous amount of Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. There were even ten rank seven Martial Emperor-level Ancient Era's ferocious beasts among them.

As for the Ancient Era's Elves here, the strongest among them was an Elf Protector. This Lord Elf Protector was dispatched to protect Xian Miaomiao.

However, even that Lord Elf Protector was only a rank seven Martial Emperor. By himself, it was clear that he would not be able to contend against ten rank seven Martial Emperor-level Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

Thus, this time around, it could be said to be the most ferocious offensive the Dark Hall had dispatched against them. It was simply impossible for them to contend against the Dark Hall. The only thing they could do was guard against the attacks.

As for that grand formation, it was the final line of defense for the Ancient Era's Elves here. If that grand spirit formation was breached, they would be met with a disaster.

It would be one thing if the territory were to fall. However, if Xian Miaomiao was killed, this would not be something that the Elf Lord of this territory could shoulder.

The Elf Lord of this territory suddenly kneeled to the Elf Protector beside him. With a very sincere expression, he requested, "Lord Protector, if the grand formation is to be breached later, please do not concern yourself with us, and escape with Her Highness."

"What are you..." Seeing that Elf Lord kneeling before him, the Lord Protector felt sour to his heart. However, in the end, he nodded. The reason for that was because he also knew how important Xian Miaomiao was to the Ancient Era's Elves.

However, right at that moment, a sweet-sounding yet very powerful voice sounded. "Open the entrance to the grand formation. I will go out and kill that bunch of animals!"

Turning their eyes toward the source of the voice, the Ancient Era's Elves on the city wall all revealed expressions of shock. The person who had appeared before them was a beautiful young girl. Her blue eyes were clear like water and were extremely charming.

However, those clear eyes were filled with fiery rage.

This person was the Ancient Era's Elves' Little Princess, Xian Miaomiao.

"Your Highness, you absolutely must not do that," Seeing that Xian Miaomiao wanted to go out, the Elf Lord of this territory was so scared that his complexion turned green. Feeling helpless, he turned his gaze to the Elf Protector.

Although he was the Elf Lord of this territory, there was an enormous gap in status between him and Xian Miaomiao. As such, he simply did not possess the qualifications to speak to Xian Miaomiao. Only that Lord Elf Protector was qualified to urge Xian Miaomiao against it.

The Elf Protector understood tactily. Like the Elf Lord, he also did not wish for Xian Miaomiao to go out. Thus, he urged, “Miaomiao, don’t mess around now. This is not the time to...”

However, before that Elf Protector could finish, Xian Miaomiao interrupted him. “Uncle, why did we come here? We have come to protect this territory. But, what are we doing now? We are actually being protected by the territory’s grand formation!”

“Miaomiao, I know that you detest the Dark Hall. I am like you, I also detest them. However, His Majesty has ordered that your safety surpasses everything else. I absolutely cannot allow anything to happen to you,” The Elf Protector said.

“I’ll say it again, let me out.”

“Else, this grand formation will not be able to stop me,” As Xian Miaomiao said those words, her eyes flashed. Immediately, her blonde hair started to flutter wildly.

At that moment, not to mention the Elf Lord and the soldiers here, even that rank seven Martial Emperor Elf Protector was knocked back.

At that moment, Xian Miaomiao had unleashed her aura. A rank six Martial Emperor. Even though Xian Miaomiao was clearly only a young girl, she possessed the cultivation of a rank six Martial Emperor.

“Miaomiao, you’ve reached a breakthrough?”

Sensing Xian Miaomiao’s current cultivation, the Elf Protector was startled.

“Uncle, let me out. I have come here in order to teach those people from the Dark Hall a lesson. You cannot make me travel so far to this place just to turtle inside the grand formation and resign us to fate.”

Seeing how determined Xian Miaomiao was, the Elf Protector felt awkward. After hesitating for some time, he said to the Elf Lord, “Open the gate.”

“Open the gate! We shall battle against the Dark Hall!!!” The Elf Lord did not dare to hesitate. However, he was also unwilling to have Xian Miaomiao go out by herself.

Thus, he prepared to lead the Ancient Era’s Elves here to battle against the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts together with Xian Miaomiao.

After his order was given, an opening appeared in that grand formation.

It was a gate, the only gate in that grand formation. They were prepared to go all-out to fight the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right after that opening appeared, a figure charged out. It was Xian Miaomiao.

Not only was Xian Miaomiao the first to rush out, she waved her sleeve the moment she rushed out. Then, a ray of golden light landed on that grand formation’s exit.

“Your Highness, you!!!”

Seeing this scene, the Ancient Era’s Elves were both shocked and frightened.

It turned out that that ray of golden light was an enormous golden bell. That golden bell was extremely large, and had sealed off the exit, forcing all of the Ancient Era’s Elves within the grand formation to stay inside.

No matter how hard the Ancient Era’s Elves tried to attack the enormous golden bell, they were unable to cause any damage to it.

That golden bell was even sturdier than the grand formation.

At that moment, the Elf Lord of this place started to panic. Due to the fact that this grand formation was the final line of defense for this territory, there was only a single exit. Now that the exit was blocked, they were unable to go out.

However, Xian Miaomiao had already gone out. How could he allow Xian Miaomiao to fight against so many experts from the Dark Hall alone?

Chapter 2029 – Dangerous Woman

“Lord Protector, what are we to do now? Please think of something. We cannot expose Princess Miaomiao to the Dark Hall’s army by herself,” In panic, the Elf Lord looked to the Protector.

“It’s useless. That bell is something that His Majesty bestowed to Princess Miaomiao so that she could use it to protect herself at a crucial moment.”

“Never would I expect that Princess Miaomiao would use that bell to block us in here.”

“It would seem that girl does not wish for us to sacrifice our lives in vain. She wants to take care of the Dark Hall’s army by herself,” The Protector said.

“What? Her Highness actually wants to-?!!!” Hearing those words, the expressions of the Ancient Era’s Elves all took a huge change.

Regardless of how powerful Xian Miaomiao might be, they all felt that it would be absolutely impossible for her to take care of several tens of thousands of Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts and the Dark Hall’s army by herself.

After all, no matter what, Xian Miaomiao was only a rank six Martial Emperor. However, the ones outside were rank seven Martial Emperor-level Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts. Furthermore, there were a total of ten of them.

“Wuuuahh~~~”

“Eeaahhh~~~”

At the moment when the Ancient Era’s Elves were worried, wave upon wave of screams could be heard from outside the grand formation.

When they turned their gaze's toward the direction of the screams, all of the Ancient Era's Elves, including even that Elf Lord, were stunned.

At that moment, the Dark Hall's army of elites and the many Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were being trampled upon. Dead and injured filled their ranks.

As for the person that was causing all those casualties, it was none other than the Elf Princess, Her Highness Xian Miaomiao that they were so worried about.

At that moment, Xian Miaomiao was holding a sword in her hand. With each wave of her sword, she would cause a vast massacre.

Not to mention those with low levels of strength, even those ten rank seven Martial Emperor-level Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were absolutely no match for Xian Miaomiao.

In merely an instant, two of the ten Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were killed by Xian Miaomiao's Imperial Armament.

“Her Highness is actually this powerful?”

“Even rank seven Martial Emperors are no match for her? But her cultivation is clearly only that of a rank six Martial Emperor. What's going on here?”

“Could it be that Her Highness's battle power is actually capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation instead of four?” The Ancient Era's Elves were all very skeptical at first. However, after watching Xian Miaomiao's battle, they verified it to be true.

Although Xian Miaomiao was only a petite young girl, the strength that she displayed was truly valiant. As she moved back and forth within the Dark Hall's army, there was no one capable of stopping her.

Not to mention the people from the Dark Hall, even those enormous Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were unable to withstand a single blow from her.

“We’re saved. We have been saved from this crisis! Never would I have expected Her Highness to be this powerful. Likely, she will be able to take care of the entire Dark Hall’s army by herself.”

Seeing how ferocious Xian Miaomiao was, the Ancient Era’s Elves that were deeply worried for her earlier started to have a whole new level of respect toward her. In fact, they even began to beat their war drums to cheer for Xian Miaomiao.

“Roar~~~”

Unfortunately, good things do not last for long. Right after Xian Miaomiao began to massacre the Dark Hall’s army, an ear-piercing roar was heard.

Following that, an enormous black dragon appeared in the distance. It was flying toward Xian Miaomiao with its fangs bared and its claws brandished.

That enormous black dragon was formed of black gaseous flames. It did not possess a physical body. However, it possessed a pair of bloody eyes.

From the moment that black dragon appeared, the Ancient Era’s Elves became extremely nervous. Even though they were within the grand formation, they were still able to sense how frightening that black dragon was.

“Earthen Taboo: Chaotic Leaf Sword.”

Xian Miaomiao had also realized that the black dragon was no ordinary being. She did not show any carelessness, and instead brandished the Imperial Armament in her hand to unleash an attack at the black dragon.

Once the sword attack was unleashed, chaotic leaves began to swirl about in the wind. Those leaves were no ordinary leaves, as they managed to pierce countless holes through the black dragon.

However, after the black dragon was beaten back, it turned into black gaseous flames and disappeared into thin air.

It turned out that black dragon was not an actual beast. Rather, it was only a martial skill.

“Girl, you’re pretty good.”

After that black dragon was defeated, a beautiful woman appeared out of thin air. She stood far across from Xian Miaomiao.

After that woman appeared, even the Ancient Era’s Elves’ expression took a huge change. That woman was truly alluringly beautiful. Most importantly, they were unable to fathom that woman’s cultivation.

Furthermore, after that woman appeared, both the Dark Hall’s army and the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts all retreated behind that woman in an orderly manner and revealed extremely respectful appearances.

It was clear that that woman was the leader of the Dark Hall’s army.

After seeing that woman, the expression on the Elf Protector’s face became extremely frantic. He had not revealed such an uneasy expression even when Xian Miaomiao rushed out to fight against the Dark Hall’s army by herself and sealed them within the grand formation.

The reason why he reacted like this was because this was the first time since he had started fighting against the Dark Hall that he saw those Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts acting so respectfully. They did not act that way even when before the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

However, that woman had accomplished that feat. Furthermore, he was unable to determine that woman’s cultivation at all. Yet, he was able to sense that that woman was extremely dangerous.

All of this allowed him to know that that woman was someone extraordinary.

If he was still at ease when Xian Miaomiao faced the Dark Hall's army by herself earlier, then he was extremely worried right now.

"It's you!!!" After Xian Miaomiao saw that woman, the killing intent in her eyes immediately increased explosively.

The reason for that was because Xian Miaomiao had seen that woman before. She was that mysterious woman who had appeared beside the Dark Hall's Hall Master together with the World Devastator Immortal at the Blood Devouring Killing Formation.

"You recognize me? Your memory's quite good," The woman said with a light smile. Even though her voice was pleasant to hear, it was also extremely strange.

"Even if you are to turn to ash, I will still recognize you," Xian Miaomiao said while gnashing her teeth.

After hearing Xian Miaomiao's words, not only was that woman not angry, the smile on her face grew even stronger. Her smile was truly charming. She was truly a person of bearing. After smiling, she said to Xian Miaomiao, "Girl, you should have died in the Blood Devouring Killing Formation last time around. Yet, you are still alive."

"Thus, our Hall Master is interested in finding out how you managed to survive."

"He wanted me to bring you back. Are you going to follow me yourself, or must I capture you and take you back?"

"Oh, I forgot to tell you this: if you follow me yourself, I can spare those Ancient Era's Elves. However, if you fight against me, they shall die," That mysterious woman looked to the Ancient Era's Elves in the grand formation behind Xian Miaomiao.

Although she said those words with a smile on her face, the Ancient Era's Elves all trembled upon hearing her words. Even that Lord Elf Protector's body also trembled.

In merely an instant, cold sweat filled their faces.

For some unknown reason, they felt as if that woman's words were not an empty threat. Instead, she was actually capable of doing it.

The reason for that was because that woman emitted too powerful of a dangerous aura. The more one interacted with her, the more one would become afraid of her.

“To boast shamelessly, you are courting death!” Coldness flashed through Xian Miaomiao's eyes. Then she slashed out with the Imperial Armament sword she held in her hand.

“Roar~~~”

However, right after that slash was shot forth, an ear-piercing roar sounded from the space before her. Soon, a huge monster appeared out of thin air. It opened its gigantic mouth and brought forth violent wind.

That wind was extremely powerful. It turned into wind blades that blocked Xian Miaomiao's attack.

After that huge monster appeared, Xian Miaomiao started to frown. That monster was also an Ancient Era's ferocious beast. However, it possessed the cultivation of rank eight Martial Emperor.

Most importantly, that Ancient Era's ferocious beast gave off a completely different sort of sensation when compared to the other Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. The sensation it gave off had nothing to do with its strength. Rather, it was as if that Ancient Era's ferocious beast had undergone a special sort of transformation.

“Little girl, you are not qualified to fight against me.”

“This slave of mine is more than sufficient to take care of you,” The corners of the mysterious woman's lips lifted into a fascinating yet dangerous smile.

“Woosh~~~”

Then, she pointed her finger at the Ancient Era's ferocious beast, and a strand of black gaseous flames entered that Ancient Era's ferocious beast's body.

“Roar~~~”

The very next moment, black gaseous flames emerged from all over that Ancient Era's ferocious beast. It appeared like a black demon.

Being engulfed by black gaseous flames, that Ancient Era's ferocious beast appeared even more imposing, even more vicious. With intense killing intent, it began to unleash ruthless attacks at Xian Miaomiao.

“Humph.”

Xian Miaomiao snorted coldly. She did not fear that huge monster. Instead, she brandished the sword in her hand and began to collide with that Ancient Era's ferocious beast.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The battle between the two of them was extremely intense. It was as if they were the sole rulers of this region, and could bring about the destruction of the entire region.

Chapter 2030 – Powerful Reinforcement

“Crap, that Ancient Era’s ferocious beast is too powerful. If this is to continue, Her Highness will not be able to withstand it.”

After fighting for some time, the expressions of the Ancient Era’s Elves grew increasingly ugly. Even though Xian Miaomiao was very powerful, that Ancient Era’s ferocious beast was growing increasingly fierce.

At that moment, that Ancient Era’s ferocious beast had taken the advantage in the battle. Furthermore, its dominance was growing larger and larger. It had begun to completely suppress Xian Miaomiao and trample upon her.

Sure enough, that Ancient Era’s ferocious beast was different from all the others. Its attacks were not made absent-mindedly. Instead, it was more like an intelligent being, filled with battle experience. Otherwise, with Xian Miaomiao’s strength, it would be impossible for her to be beaten to such a degree.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, that Ancient Era’s ferocious beast unleashed a fist explosively. Xian Miaomiao hurriedly lifted up her sword to block its fist.

“Wuaah~~”

However, the might of that fist was truly too powerful. Even though Xian Miaomiao had blocked it with her sword, she was still knocked several meters back. By the time she managed to steady herself, blood was already flowing out the corners of her mouth.

“Damn it! Think of a way to get me out there!” Seeing Xian Miaomiao injured, the Elf Protector started to panic.

“Lord Elf Protector, there is simply nothing we can do,” At that moment, the Elf Lord revealed an expression of helplessness.

There was only a single exit to that grand formation. However, it was blocked by Xian Miaomiao's golden bell. As such, they were simply unable to leave.

“Roar~~~”

Right at that moment, that Ancient Era's ferocious beast let out a roar again. Then, its attacks grew even fiercer.

After being injured, Xian Miaomiao was evidently weaker than before. This time around, she was forced into an absolutely passive state against the ruthless onslaught of that Ancient Era's ferocious beast.

“What do we do now?!”

At that moment, the Ancient Era's Elves were truly panicking. Some among them were on the verge of collapse.

The reason for that was because if this were to continue, Xian Miaomiao would definitely be killed.

However... they, the Ancient Era's Elves, absolutely could not lose their genius, Xian Miaomiao.

“Girl, I urge you to concede. It is still not too late for you to admit defeat now,” The mysterious woman said with a light smile.

She was like a spectator watching a show with a calm and composed expression on her face.

“You're quite stubborn,” Hearing those words, that woman smiled once more. Then, she said, “In that case, I must teach you a lesson.”

After saying those words, ruthlessness flashed through the eyes of that mysterious woman. She shouted, “Cripple her!”

“Rooarrrr~~~”

Once those words were said, that Ancient Era's ferocious beast appeared as if it had received a command. It began to roar. Then, its attacks grew even more ferocious. Each and every attack became fatal. It seemed to be trying to kill Xian Miaomiao.

"I'm afraid that you'll be disappointed. Today, you will not be able to kill anyone."

Right at this moment of imminent peril, a man's voice sounded from the sky.

"Boom~~~"

"Boom~~~"

After that voice was heard, two enormous stone humanoids appeared out of thin air. They descended from the sky and ruthlessly stomped that Ancient Era's ferocious beast deep into the ground. Then, they brandished their stone weapons and began to hack that Ancient Era's ferocious beast to death.

"Wh-What are those?"

Everything happened too quickly. Not to mention the people from the Dark Hall, even the Ancient Era's Elves turned pale with fright.

The reason for that was because those two stone giants were truly too frightening. Even though they were also emitting the aura of rank eight Martial Emperors, they managed to kill that Ancient Era's ferocious beast in merely a couple strikes.

Even though they had sneak attacked that Ancient Era's ferocious beast when it was distracted with attacking Xian Miaomiao to kill it instantly, it remained that what they did was impossible to accomplish unless they possessed absolute strength.

Most importantly, where did those two stone giants appear from? Could they be monstrous beasts? But, there had never been any record of this sort of monstrous beast in the Holy Land of Martialism.

“Step~~~”

Just when everyone was astonished by the two stone giants, a figure suddenly descended from the sky and landed beside Xian Miaomiao. He placed his palm on Xian Miaomiao's shoulder and transmitted a gentle energy into her body and began healing her injuries.

Xian Miaomiao was also focused on the two enormous stone giants that had appeared out of nowhere when the sudden gentle energy entered her body. That energy caused the pain she felt from her wounds to immediately lessen by a lot. She turned her head and discovered that Chu Feng was standing beside her.

“Chu Feng,” When she saw Chu Feng, Xian Miaomiao reacted as if she had seen a close relative. Immediately, a brilliant smile blossomed on her little face.

“My apologies. I've come late,” Chu Feng said.

“.....” Hearing those words, Xian Miaomiao was startled. She had come a realization. Regardless of where those two stone monsters came from, they were definitely related to Chu Feng and were brought here by Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, you're actually alive?” However, upon seeing Chu Feng, that mysterious woman revealed a shocked expression.

“Are you very disappointed that I am alive?” Chu Feng asked.

“I won't say disappointed. Merely, I'm a bit surprised,” The mysterious woman smiled sweetly. It was as if Chu Feng's life and death was truly unrelated to her.

“The fact that I am alive will mean that you all will be the ones to die,” Chu Feng narrowed his eyes.

“It seems to me that it has not been long since we last met. Your strength has not increased by much. Since when did you learn how to boast?” The mysterious woman mocked.

“Hehe...” Chu Feng was not angered by the mysterious woman’s mockery. Instead, he laughed lightly.

The Ancient Era’s Elves were confused by Chu Feng’s confident laughter.

Even though the two stone giants Chu Feng had brought with him were very powerful, it remained that there were only two of them.

But, the sensation that mysterious woman gave off was truly unfathomable. They felt that those two stone giants would likely not be able to defeat her.

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

.....

.....

However, right at that moment, rumbles sounded from far away. Following that, the earth started to tremble violently. It was as if there was an earthquake.

In that sort of situation, more and more enormous stone monsters began to appear in the crowd’s line of sight.

“Heavens! Those are all stone monstrous beasts. How could there be that many?!!!!”

Seeing the several thousands of enormous stone monsters walking over like a well-trained army, the Ancient Era’s Elves were all astonished.

As for the people from the Dark Hall, they were all deeply frightened.

After all, those thousands of enormous stone monsters were all

Martial Emperors. If those stone monsters were to join the battle, the superiority of their Ancient Era's ferocious beasts would be completely obliterated.

“Lady Xue Ji, I-let's leave.”

In a panic, someone spoke to that mysterious woman.

However, that mysterious woman ignored that suggestion. At the same time, there was not the slightest trace of fear in her eyes.

Instead, she spoke to Chu Feng in a profound manner. “Not bad. It seems that you have truly obtained a good harvest from the Five Elements Secret Skills. Could it be that World Devastator and Immeasurable, those two trash, have already died?”

“Forget about it, their lives and deaths are unrelated to me.”

“That said, I must admit, your arrival today has saved the lives of those Ancient Era's Elves.”

“Chu Feng... let us meet again.”

After saying those words, the mysterious woman's body shifted, and she disappeared into thin air.

“Lady Xue Ji, please don't abandon us!!!”

In response, the people from the Dark Hall started to panic.

They had come here and attacked aggressively because they were relying on the backing of that mysterious woman. Now that mysterious woman had left, how could these people possibly be a match for the Ancient Era's Elves and that army of stone monsters?

If that mysterious woman were to abandon them, only death would await them.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng ordered, “Kill them all. Leave none alive.”

“Roar~~~”

Chu Feng's words caused the people from the Dark Hall to act as if they were petrified. They stood there stunned. Deep fear covered their previously ferocious gazes.

When Chu Feng's order was given, the thousands of stone monsters began to surround and attack them.

Especially those two rank eight Martial Emperor stone giants. In merely the blink of an eye, they arrived within the Dark Hall's army, massacring them.

Chapter 2031 – Must Be Taught A Lesson

After a violent battle, all of the people from the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were killed.

Massacre. It was a massacre. The army of stone monsters that Chu Feng led had defeated the Dark Hall's army with zero deaths or injuries.

"Guard!" Chu Feng shouted.

After his command was given, those stone monsters surrounded the Elf territory. Like guards, they began to defend this place.

Seeing this scene, the Ancient Era's Elves all revealed shocked expressions. The gazes with which they looked to Chu Feng were filled with admiration.

The army of stone monsters all followed Chu Feng's command. It was an extremely unimaginable matter.

"Chu Feng, where did you obtain these stone monsters? They're actually this powerful?"

At that moment, not to mention the other Ancient Era's Elves, even the Little Princess Xian Miaomiao was startled.

"It's a long story. I've solved the mystery of the Five Elements Secret Skills. The treasures contained within it was this stone army," Chu Feng said.

"You've really solved the mystery of the Five Elements Secret Skills?! Heavens! You are too amazing!" Hearing those words, Xian Miaomiao revealed an astonished expression.

"Miaomiao, hear me out. Currently, this entire stone army listens to my orders. However, I've created seventeen title plates. As long as one conducts a blood oath to have a title plate recognize them as its master, one would be able to command a portion of the stone army."

“Before I came, I had already handed fifteen of the title plates to fifteen Elf Lords of different territories.”

“Later, hand this title plate to the Elf Lord of this territory. Have him make a blood oath with it. Then, he will be able to, like me, command the stone army. With the stone army guarding this place, even if the Dark Hall is to come again, they would not have to fear them,” Chu Feng handed a title plate to Xian Miaomiao.

“It’s actually this miraculous?!” As Xian Miaomiao looked to the title plate handed to her by Chu Feng, Xian Miaomiao revealed an expression of amazement, and began to fondle it admiringly. It was like a playful child had obtained a beloved toy.

“Wait, Chu Feng, you said there’s a total of seventeen title plates. In that case, this stone army here is not all that you’ve obtained? There’s more of them?” Xian Miaomiao asked in astonishment.

“Mn, the stone army numbered a total of a hundred and thirty-eight thousand nine hundred and eighty-one stone monsters. I have split them into sixteen groups.”

“Currently, fifteen of the groups are guarding fifteen of your Ancient Era’s Elves’ important territories,” Chu Feng said with a nod.

“Wow, that’s truly amazing. With that many powerful stone monsters, even if the Dark Hall is to mount a sneak attack against us again, we would not have to fear them,” Xian Miaomiao was overjoyed.

After all, she had personally experienced the might of the stone monsters. Upon thinking of how there were that many more powerful stone monsters, she knew that they would definitely be an enormous assistance to them, the Ancient Era’s Elves.

Even the weakest among them were Martial Emperors. This meant that there were over a hundred thousand Martial Emperors. What sort of concept was this? It was truly unimaginable.

Perhaps the battle between the Ancient Era's Elves and the Dark Hall might have a reversal because of the addition of the stone army.

Even if the Ancient Era's Elves had to continue to remain passive, their casualties would not be that severe.

"However, only two of them are the strongest. From today on, they belong to you," Chu Feng took out another title plate and handed it to Xian Miaomiao. As he spoke, he looked to the two rank eight Martial Emperor-level stone giants behind him.

Indeed, Chu Feng had prepared those two stone giants for Xian Miaomiao. Chu Feng had heard of Xian Miaomiao guarding this territory on his way here. He was worried for Xian Miaomiao's safety, and had deliberately rushed over to find her so that he could bring her back to the Elf Kingdom.

He had created that title plate in order to guard against the unexpected. He wanted Xian Miaomiao to protect herself by gaining control over the two strongest stone monsters.

However, Chu Feng did not expect that Xian Miaomiao's cultivation had increased again. She was already a rank six Martial Emperor. She... was currently able to fight against rank eight Martial Emperors herself.

However, from the battle between Xian Miaomiao and that rank eight Martial Emperor-level Ancient Era's ferocious beast, Chu Feng determined that Xian Miaomiao's battle experience was lacking. While she would be fine against ordinary rank eight Martial Emperors, she would not be able to defeat rank eight Martial Emperors that were stronger than ordinary ones.

As for those two stone giants, they could be said to be extremely powerful existences among rank eight Martial Emperors. After all, even the World Devastator Immortal was defeated by them. Thus, Chu Feng felt very reassured to have them protect Xian Miaomiao.

“You must not refuse this. Come, take it,” Seemingly fearing that Xian Miaomiao would refuse, Chu Feng forcibly pushed the title plate into Xian Miaomiao’s hand.

“What about you then?” Xian Miaomiao looked to Chu Feng worriedly. From the words spoken by that mysterious woman earlier, she was able to tell that the Dark Hall wanted to kill Chu Feng now. Chu Feng was also in a very dangerous situation right now.

“Don’t forget that I’m a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. Even if I am unable to defeat rank eight Martial Emperors, it would not be that easy for them to kill me.”

“Furthermore, those stone giants are too enormous. If they are to follow me all the time, it would be inconvenient for me too.”

“Furthermore, as long as they are beside me, even if I do not have a title plate, I would still be able to order them,” Chu Feng explained with a smile. He was urging Xian Miaomiao to accept his kind intentions.

“Okay then,” Seeing how insistent Chu Feng was, Xian Miaomiao accepted the title plate. She was actually very happy. As Xian Miaomiao was a young girl with a child’s temperament, she felt that it was much more liberating to be able to control two experts at the level of the Ancient Era’s Elves’ Grand Elders than having Ancient Era’s Elves protect her.

“Wow, great sir, you are too amazing! Those enormous fellows actually all listen to your commands!”

At that moment, a little red insect appeared from within Xian Miaomiao’s sleeve and directly landed onto Chu Feng. That little fellow was Lil Red.

“Lil Red, it’s been a while, have you missed your great sir?” Chu Feng held Lil Red in his hand and asked with a smile.

“Oh? You actually have dreams?” Chu Feng was startled.

“Yoh, you’re calling her Miaomiao instead of ‘beauty’ now? Seems like you’re doing pretty well,” Chu Feng said.

“Touching Miaomiao’s body?” Chu Feng started to frown. He asked, “Why would I be touching Miaomiao’s body?”

Chu Feng heard that some dreams are oftentimes prophecies. Lil Red was evidently a mysterious being. It was strange for it to have dreams to begin with. It was even more unbelievable for its dream to oftentimes be of him and Xian Miaomiao.

Chu Feng wanted to know exactly what was with Lil Red’s dreams. If it was an ill omen, then he wanted to know what he could do to prevent it.

“That’s right. Lil Red, why is Chu Feng touching my body? Was I injured?” At that moment, Xian Miaomiao asked curiously. Evidently, she was thinking the same thing as Chu Feng.

“I also don’t know why great sir is touching your body. In any case, not only did he touch it, he even kissed you. Then, without wearing anything, the two of you started to roll around in the bed. It was truly lively,” Lil Red said with a mischievous smile.

“.....” Hearing those words, Chu Feng grew speechless. It turned out that he had been played for a fool by Lil Red. Dream? No, Lil Red was clearly toying with him and Xian Miaomiao.

“Lil Red, you’re courting death here,” At that moment, Xian Miaomiao’s face instantly turned red. She grabbed Lil Red and began to pull it. She was simply trying to pull Lil Red apart.

“Aiyo, Your Highness Miaomiao, Lil Red knows its mistake. Please spare me.”

“Great sir, save me.”

Lil Red’s anguished wailing began to be heard. However, Chu Feng did not try to plead for it. The reason for that was because even if Xian Miaomiao had not planned to teach Lil Red a lesson, he would have done so. That Lil Red was truly too shameless, too lowly, and had to be taught a lesson.

Chapter 2032 – Endless Admiration

Right at that moment, the Elf Lord of this place suddenly shouted, “Your Highness, little friend Chu Feng, could you two let us out?”

Turning towards the grand formation, although the Ancient Era’s Elves inside were mostly beaming with happiness for Chu Feng’s defeat of the Dark Hall’s army, they also had helpless expressions on their faces.

The reason for that was because they were all still trapped in the grand formation, and were unable to come out to celebrate. As such, they could only cheer inside the grand formation. It was quite an awkward situation for them.

“Miaomiao, what’s going on here?” As Chu Feng had arrived somewhat late, he didn’t know how the Ancient Era’s Elves had been trapped inside that spirit formation. That said, he was able to tell that they were trapped because of that golden bell.

“It was caused by Miss Miaomiao. Aiyo, stop pulling me. I’ve even called you ‘miss,’” Lil Red shouted in pain.

“Hehe, I got so happy after seeing you that I nearly forgot about them,” At that moment, Xian Miaomiao scratched her head awkwardly. Then, she shouted to the golden bell, “Come back!”

The golden bell started to rapidly decrease in size. In the end, it then turned into the size of a fingernail and landed on Xian Miaomiao’s hand. Then, Xian Miaomiao put it away in her sleeve.

Seeing that golden bell, Chu Feng’s eyes shone. Likely, even rank eight Martial Emperors would not be able to destroy that golden bell. It might even be able to defend against attacks from peak Martial Emperors. It was most definitely a treasure.

The treasures that the Ancient Era’s Elves possessed were truly miraculous.

“Little friend Chu Feng, that stone army is actually under your control. You are truly amazing.”

At that moment, the Ancient Era’s Elves flocked to Chu Feng. They had seen Chu Feng commanding the stone army to massacre the Dark Hall’s army earlier. Thus, they currently felt endless admiration for Chu Feng.

“Senior, these people from the Dark Hall have left behind quite a lot of belongings. It’s unsuitable to leave them there. It’s better that you all collect them,” Chu Feng said to the Elf Lord with a smile on his face.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you’re planning to leave all of those treasures to us?” Hearing those words, that Elf Lord was secretly delighted.

Originally, he felt that since the Dark Hall’s army was eliminated by Chu Feng, the treasures they left behind should naturally belong to Chu Feng.

However, with what Chu Feng said, it was clear that he wanted to give those treasures to them.

“But... but, how could we...?” The Elf Lord of this territory said embarrassedly.

“Chu Feng said he’s giving them to you, so just accept them. Don’t refuse his kindness,” Xian Miaomiao cast a side eye at that Elf Lord.

“I wouldn’t dare, I wouldn’t dare. How could I possibly refuse his kindness?” The Elf Lord nodded his head repeatedly. Then, he ordered his men to gather the treasures left behind by the Dark Hall. All of the treasures were extremely valuable goods.

Upon seeing this person, the Ancient Era's Elves' expressions all stiffened. Then, other than Chu Feng and Xian Miaomiao, all of the Ancient Era's Elves knelt on the ground and shouted in unison, "We pay our respects to Your Majesty."

"Royal father, what brought you here?" Xian Miaomiao revealed a pleasantly surprised expression upon seeing her father.

"I obtained news that the Dark Hall would likely try to harm you. Thus, I hurried over. Never would I have expected that my presence was not required," As the Elf King said those words, he looked to Chu Feng with a beaming smile. Contained within his gaze was a trace of gratefulness.

Indeed, he had come too late. If it hadn't been for Chu Feng's prompt arrival, his Xian Miaomiao would likely have been met with an accident.

"Chu Feng pays his respects to Your Majesty," Seeing the Elf King, Chu Feng also bowed to him courteously.

"Little friend Chu Feng, please get up. We are allies. As such, we should stand on equal footing. I am unable to bear you acting like this," The Elf King said.

"You are my senior. How could this junior possibly dare to stand on equal footing as you?" Chu Feng shook his head.

"With your talent, your cultivation will sooner or later surpass mine. Your stage is not here. Instead, it's the Outer World."

"Actually, it is my fortune to be able to stand on equal footing with you," The Elf King said.

"Senior, you will always be my senior. This is something unrelated to cultivation," Chu Feng said very respectfully. He was speaking his true feelings.

Hearing those words, the Elf King's heart was moved.

Even though he already knew that Chu Feng was a very modest individual, it remained that the world of cultivators was a world where one's seniority and status was determined by one's strength. A person as outstanding and as thoughtful as Chu Feng was truly rare.

“An army of over a hundred thousand stone monsters with Martial Emperor-level cultivation are protecting our Ancient Era's Elves' various territories.”

After that, the Elf King looked to the stone army and said, “Little friend Chu Feng, you have truly bestowed us Ancient Era's Elves an enormous gift,” Evidently, he already knew about the stone army being posted to defend the various locations.

“Your Majesty, you are flattering me. We are allies. This is only something that I, Chu Feng, should do,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, dare I ask, was the stone army obtained from the Wonderstone Dao Ground?” The Elf King asked.

“Your Majesty, how did you know?” Chu Feng was surprised upon hearing those words..

“Actually, we Ancient Era's Elves have already suspected that the several tens of thousands of wonderstones in the Wonderstone Dao Ground are extraordinary objects.”

“We have attempted to figure out how to use them for a long time. Merely, even though we tried all sorts of methods over the years, they all ended in failure.”

“Never would I have expected for the wonderstones to be related to the treasures left behind by the Five Elements Old Ancestor. In the end, little friend Chu Feng ended up obtaining them,” After saying those words, the Elf King started to look at Chu Feng with admiration.

After hearing what the Elf King said, the Ancient Era's Elves that did not know how the stone monsters came to be all came to a realization.

It turned out that the stone army was made up of the wonderstones from the Wonderstone Dao Ground. The reason why Chu Feng was able to control them was because Chu Feng had solved the secret to the Five Elements Secret Skills that no one else had managed to accomplish.

Upon thinking about it, all of the Ancient Era's Elves present, regardless of whether they were powerful experts or weaker members of the younger generation, all looked to Chu Feng with admiration in their eyes.

The thing that countless people had attempted to accomplish since the Ancient Era, only to fail, was accomplished by Chu Feng. As such, even if they didn't wish to admire Chu Feng, they would have to.

"That's not all there is to it. Not only is Chu Feng able to control the stone army, he also created all those title plates. Holding a title plate, one would be able to control a portion of the stone army."

"Here! With this title plate, one would be able to control all of the stone monsters other than the two enormous stone giants."

"Elf Lord, catch," Xian Miaomiao threw the title plate to the Elf Lord of this territory.

"No, I absolutely cannot accept this. I am extremely weak, how could I accept such an enormous gift?" At that moment, that Elf Lord was overwhelmed and began to act humbly.

Some of the stone monsters in the stone army possessed higher cultivations than his. He truly did not possess the confidence to command that stone army.

Especially when before the Elf King, he truly did not dare to accept such an enormous gift. The way he saw it, even if the title plate would allow one to command the stone army, the one to command the stone army should be the Elf King, and not him, a mere territory's Elf Lord.

Chapter 2033 – Begin The Counterattack

“Little friend Chu Feng is giving it to you. Thus, just accept it. Don’t forget, it is your responsibility to guard the safety of this place,” The Elf King said.

“Yes, Your Majesty. Little friend Chu Feng, thank you for your enormous gift,” The Elf Lord cautiously accepted the title plate. Smiles completely filled his aged face.

Even though he did not dare to accept it, he actually deeply wanted it, as it would allow him to be able to command that stone army. Without a doubt, with the stone army, their battle power here would increase enormously.

“Your Majesty, for the Dark Hall to attack your Ancient Era’s Elves’ various territories this frequently, they most definitely have camps where they station their troops.”

Chu Feng had been to over a dozen of the Ancient Era’s Elves’ territories before coming to this territory.

He knew from them that the Ancient Era’s Elves were forced into an extremely passive state ever since the battle against the Dark Hall had started.

The reason why they had to act so passively was because they could only defend against the Dark Hall’s attacks, and not fight back. As for why that was the case, it was because they did not know where the Dark Hall’s camps were.

“The Dark Hall is extremely cunning. Furthermore, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possesses brilliant world spirit techniques. Not to mention knowing where their camps are, they disappear rapidly after every attack,” The Elf King said.

“That’s indeed the case. While His Majesty is still able to chase after them, we, on the other hand, are simply unable to even catch up to them.”

“This time around, it was that woman by the name of Xue Ji that decided to give up on the Dark Hall’s army that came to attack us. Else, they would likely have been able to escape unscathed,” The Elf Protector said.

“So that’s the case,” Chu Feng pondered for a moment. Then, he said to the Elf King, “Your Majesty, could you help me get in contact with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and senior Zhang Ming?”

Chu Feng knew that the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and Zhang Ming were special among the reinforcements that had come to help the Ancient Era’s Elves. Other than being powerful, they were also Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists.

Thus, after they joined the battle, they were not dispatched to help protect the Ancient Era’s Elves’ territories. Instead, they were tasked to discover the whereabouts of the Dark Hall.

“I can.”

“However, little friend Chu Feng, I cannot leave the Elf Kingdom for too long. My coming to this place was also done secretly. We will likely have to return to the Elf Kingdom immediately,” The Elf King said.

“That’s fine,” Chu Feng nodded.

As the matter could not be delayed, they began their journey to return to the Elf Kingdom immediately. Merely, before Chu Feng left, he turned his head around and to take a glance at the battlefield behind him. His gaze was rather complicated.

“Xue Ji?”

Chu Feng started to ponder after saying those two words. Even though that Xue Ji had escaped from the battle and Chu Feng could be said to have seized total victory, Chu Feng kept feeling that that woman by the name of Xue Ji was even more dangerous than the World Devastator Immortal.

The reason for that was because even after Chu Feng arrived leading the stone army, that Xue Ji did not reveal the slightest bit of fear in her eyes.

Furthermore, Chu Feng felt a faint trace of that Xue Ji's aura from those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

Chu Feng had seen the Dark Hall's Hall Master before. He was extremely powerful and capable of fighting against the Elf King. However, Chu Feng did not sense the Dark Hall's Hall Master's aura on those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts.

As Chu Feng was a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, he guessed that the Dark Hall's ability to control those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts was definitely related to that woman called Xue Ji.

In short, the existence of that woman caused Chu Feng to feel extremely uneasy.

However, as that woman had already escaped, what Chu Feng must do now was to return to the Elf Kingdom quickly to meet up with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others.

After some time passed, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and Zhang Ming, the three Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, arrived at the Elf Kingdom in succession.

At that moment, the Elf King, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and Zhang Ming were all gathered.

They still did not know what it was that Chu Feng wanted to tell them. Although Chu Feng was the first to arrive at the Elf Kingdom, he had entered closed-door training right after arriving.

Calculating the time, Chu Feng had already been in closed-door training for some days now.

Finally, after they waited for a long while, Chu Feng finally emerged from his closed-door training.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you have truly broadened our horizons.”

“Never would I have expected for the treasures of the Five Elements Secret Skills to be the stone army. To our current situation, they could be said to be the most useful,” At that moment, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal was extremely cheerful. He had heard about the matter regarding the stone army from the Elf King. However, after he carefully looked to Chu Feng, he asked, “Hm, where’s the Immeasurable Immortal? Where did he go?”

“Seniors, I have called you all here mainly because I have two things that I wish to tell you all,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, the expressions of the crowd present all turned serious. They were able to tell that what Chu Feng planned to tell them was something important.

“For the first matter, the Immeasurable Immortal is a part of the Dark Hall. Furthermore, he possesses another identity by the name of Zhan Cangtian.”

“He completely revealed himself at the Wonderstone Dao Ground. He admitted to everything, and even tried to kill me together with the World Devastator Immortal. Fortunately, I was prepared. That was why I managed to escape the calamity,” Chu Feng said.

“What? The Immeasurable Immortal is Zhan Cangtian?”

After learning of this matter, it was not only the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and Zhang Ming were shocked, even the Elf King started to frown. Evidently, none of them had expected the Immeasurable Immortal to possess such a dangerous identity.

“Damn it. No wonder no one could find Zhan Cangtian even though he possessed countless enemies. So he actually had another identity as the Immeasurable Immortal.”

“And I, I actually knew that guy for so long. This is truly disgusting!” At that moment, the Snow-haired Immortal started to voice her complaints. It could be seen that the Snow-haired Immortal also deeply loathed Zhan Cangtian.

“Truth be told, I was only able to obtain the Five Elements Secret Skills because of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s deliberate planning. The Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace have submitted to the Dark Hall. They deliberately attacked the Cyanwood Mountain on their orders.”

“Their attack on the Cyanwood Mountain was so that I could obtain the Five Elements Secret Skills and attempt to assimilate them,” Chu Feng said.

“There’s actually such a thing? Then what about the Underworld Palace? Could the Underworld Palace also have submitted to the Dark Hall?” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal asked.

“The Underworld Palace did not submit to the Dark Hall. They should be truly planning to become our allies. Back then, I had already obtained four of the Five Elements Secret Skills. The only one that I lacked was that Underworld Palace’s one. As such, it was reasonable for them to gift me the secret skill.”

“I believe the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had also considered that,” Chu Feng said.

“The Dark Hall is truly treacherous,” After knowing the truth, the crowd all started to frown. The various methods of the Dark Hall had all surpassed their imagination.

This time around, Chu Feng had already been prepared. If Chu Feng had also been deceived by the Immeasurable Immortal, the Dark Hall would’ve gotten away with their schemes.

The people that controlled the stone army would not have been them. Instead, it would've been the Dark Hall instead.

That was something that they did not dare to imagine.

“We must announce the Immeasurable Immortal's identity to the world. We cannot allow him to exploit his identity to endanger others,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn,” The Elf King nodded. Then, he asked, “Little friend Chu Feng, what about the other matter?”

“The other matter is that we cannot continue to act this passively anymore.”

“We must find all of the Dark Hall's camps and eradicate them. We must start our counterattack,” Chu Feng said in a serious manner.

Chapter 2034 – Breaching The Camps

“Little friend Chu Feng, that matter is truly difficult,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said as he shook his head. As for the Snow-haired Immortal, she lowered her head silently.

They had begun to search for the Dark Hall’s camps ever since they had arrived at this place. However, even now, their search had come up empty-handed.

“Seniors, truth be told, I was in closed-door training the entire time before you all arrived so that I could prepare some things.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he took out four masks. Those were all masks that the people from the Dark Hall wore.

“Those are!!!”

Upon seeing the masks, the three Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists’ eyes all shone as they revealed expressions of shock. Unable to contain themselves, they took the masks from Chu Feng and began to inspect them carefully. After a careful inspection, the shocked expressions on the faces of the three Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists grew even denser.

“Unbelievable, truly unbelievable!!!”

“Little friend Chu Feng, your abilities have reached a godly level!!!” At that moment, Zhang Ming praised Chu Feng without holding anything back.

“And I even thought about taking Chu Feng as my disciple before. Looking back at it now, I was truly overestimating my capabilities. Chu Feng, I should instead ask you to become my master. Please accept me as your disciple,” The Snow-haired Immortal was overjoyed. She who possessed an honest nature actually started to joke around with Chu Feng, requesting him to take her as his disciple.

“It would seem that the Dark Hall will likely end up suffering now,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal stroked his beard. A smile filled his face.

“Everyone, exactly what use do those masks have?” At that moment, it was the Elf King who was completely confused.

Although he was extremely powerful, he was not a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. Thus, even though he possessed many detection methods, he was unable to discover what was so fantastic about the masks.

“These masks were deliberately left behind by me when I was massacring the Dark Hall’s army that day.”

“The reason why I was in closed-door training for the past days was to work on these masks. Right now, as long as a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist is urging it, one could discover the people from the Dark Hall through the use of those masks,” Chu Feng explained.

“It’s not ‘could’. Rather, it’s absolutely able to. Upon finding the people from the Dark Hall, no matter how well-hidden their camps might be, they will still be exposed.”

“Your Majesty, little friend Chu Feng is truly your lucky star. Not only did he bring back the stone army that greatly increased our battle power, he has also found the method for us to strike back at the Dark Hall,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal said happily.

“Little friend Chu Feng, it would appear that the person that will determine victory or defeat in the battle against the Dark Hall will be you instead of me,” At that moment, the Elf King was also overjoyed.

He had to stay in the Elf Kingdom to protect it because he was worried that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master would mount an attack against it. As such, there were very few things that he could do to contribute to the battle.

Even though they were forced into a passive state when fighting against the Dark Hall, there was nothing he could do. Other than worrying about it, the only other thing he could do was worry more.

However, today, Chu Feng had brought enormously great news to him. As such, how could he not be overjoyed?

His bellyful of fury was finally able to be released.

After that, Chu Feng and the three other Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists began to move about separately. By relying on the masks, they began to search for the Dark Hall's camps around the various Elf territories.

Sure enough, the masks were useful. One after another, they managed to scope out the Dark Hall's base camps. All those base camps that were discovered would be met with ruthless attacks by them. Even if there were people from the Dark Hall that managed to escape, their numbers were not very large.

At that moment, the Ancient Era's Elves obtained absolute dominance in the battle against the Dark Hall.

With no other option, the Dark Hall's armies all started to retreat. However, they suffered disastrous casualties even in retreat.

.....

At that moment. In a pitch-black location. Only several torches were burning.

Although the light from the torches was dim, it managed to roughly illuminate the general composition of the area.

It was an enormous area. It looked like a palace hall, yet also like an underground tomb. However, one thing was certain; this was an extremely well-hidden location.

As the torches burned, crackling sounds began to be heard nonstop. This caused this dimly lit place to appear somewhat eerie.

However, the eerie sound of the burning torches fell short to the voices that occasionally sounded from below. Although those sounds sounded like yelling, they resembled anguished wailing even more. Those anguished wails contained endless rage and dense killing intent. It was as if demonic chanting were sounding from below. Hearing those sounds, one could feel one's hair stand on end.

At that moment, there were several people in that place. One was the Dark Hall's Hall Master. He was currently sitting on an extremely imposing seat and looking at two people down below. Standing beside him was a beautiful woman. That woman was the mysterious woman by the name of Xue Ji.

As for the two people that the Dark Hall's Hall Master were looking at, they were currently kneeling on the ground and shivering in fear. Upon closer inspection, they were the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal.

"I had thought that the two of you had died. It turns out that you're still alive. If I were you, I would have definitely not dared to show my face again," The Dark Hall's Hall Master said to the two men.

"Lord Hall Master, please listen to me, please listen to me."

"You really cannot blame this matter on us. I never expected Chu Feng to be that cunning. He had already seen through my identity before we set off for the Wonderstone Dao Ground. His bringing me to the Wonderstone Dao Ground was a trap to begin with."

"Fortunately, Lord World Devastator arrived promptly. Otherwise, I would definitely have been killed," The Immeasurable Immortal said.

"Rumble~~~"

Right at that moment, coldness flashed through the Dark Hall's Hall Master's eyes. Then, chilliness began to sweep across the ground. That burst of chilliness blew the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal away, sending them rolling and crawling on the ground. They were ruthlessly blown tens of thousands of meters away, only stopping after they crashed into a wall.

At that moment, that Dark Hall's Hall Master left his seat. He slowly descended from mid air and stood before the two men.

He said, "Chu Feng led the stone army to many of my Dark Hall's camps. The battlefield that was completely controlled by us was reversed because of a single Chu Feng."

"The reason why this happened is because the two of you did not promptly notify me of what had happened. I am able to understand your defeats. But, since you had successfully escaped, why did you not promptly come back to report what had happened to me, so that I could guard against what was to come?"

"Lord Hall Master, this is all my fault. The stones from the Wonderstone Dao Ground were truly too powerful. That day, I was injured by the stones, and was simply unable to journey nonstop. I was forced to quickly heal my injuries. Otherwise, it would end up being detrimental to my future cultivation."

"As for Immeasurable, his physical body was destroyed by Chu Feng. Only his spirit remained. His situation was even worse than mine."

"After I healed my injuries, I ended up creating a new physical body for him, and tried my hardest so that he could retain his cultivation."

"That was why we ended up being delayed for some days. But, we truly never expected so many things to happen in such a short period of time," The World Devastator Immortal explained.

“That’s right. Lord Hall Master, even if Chu Feng had obtained those Wonderstone Dao Ground’s stones, he should have only been able to increase the Ancient Era’s Elves’ battle power.”

“As for those camps that we constructed around the various Ancient Era’s Elves’ territories, they were personally constructed by you. No matter what, they shouldn’t have been able to discover them. Thus, how was it that those camps were attacked?” The Immeasurable Immortal asked in a very puzzled manner.

He had attempted to search for the camps before with his world spirit techniques. However, even though the camps were clearly nearby, he had been unable to sense anything.

Camps like that should have been impossible to be discovered. Yet now, they were all attacked. How did that come to be?

“The camps are hidden because of world spirit techniques. The fact that the camps were discovered naturally means that someone broke through my world spirit techniques.”

“I, to a greater or lesser degree, know the abilities of the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others. With their abilities, it’s definitely impossible for them to break through my world spirit techniques,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“Could it be... the Heaven Reaching Immortal? Could the Heaven Reaching Immortal be helping the Ancient Era’s Elves?” The World Devastator Immortal asked.

Upon thinking closely, he felt that the only person in the Holy Land of Martialism with world spirit techniques comparable to their Lord Hall Master would be the person who was ranked first among the Ten Immortals, the Heaven Reaching Immortal.

Although he was ranked second, and the Heaven Reaching Immortal was only a single rank above him, he knew that the difference between him and the Heaven Reaching Immortal was akin to the difference between heaven and earth; they were simply at two different levels.

Chapter 2035 – Being Struck

“Chu Feng!!!” Hearing those words, surprised expressions flashed through the eyes of the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal. However, soon, their surprise disappeared.

Not only that, the Immeasurable Immortal even said, “It’s possible, it’s extremely possible.”

“Chu Feng was capable of setting up a formation that could withstand attacks from peak Martial Emperors. It is true, his world spirit techniques cannot be looked down upon.”

“Lord Hall Master, that Chu Feng absolutely cannot be left alive,” The World Devastator Immortal added.

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s gaze changed slightly.

After a short while, he said, “I have toyed enough with that plaything Chu Feng. It’s time to destroy him.”

Deep confidence filled the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s eyes when he said those words. Plaything; to him, Chu Feng was nothing more than a plaything, something that he could toy with as he wished. When he was done toying with Chu Feng, he could kill Chu Feng anytime he wished.

However, afterward, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master turned his ruthless gaze toward the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal. “No matter how hard dealing with Chu Feng might be, it remains that he’s a brat. The two of you have lived for thousands of years. Yet, you were toyed with by him. No matter what, you two must be punished.”

Hearing those words, the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal started to shiver. Immediately, the World Devastator Immortal said, “Lord Hall Master, we have not returned empty handed from the Wonderstone Dao Ground. We managed to obtain the true treasure to the Five Elements Secret Skills.”

“What a joke! That stone army is under Chu Feng’s control. Are you implying that you two can seize control of the stone army from Chu Feng?” At that moment, Xue Ji, who had been silent for some time, spoke mockingly.

“No, those stones from the Wonderstone Dao Ground are only a portion of the treasures. The actual treasure is with us.” The World Devastator took out a scroll as he spoke and handed it to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

At that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s eyes shone. After receiving the scroll, he did not open it immediately. Instead, he began to inspect it carefully. Then, a light smile emerged on his face. He said, “If the scroll truly contains treasures, I will not punish the two of you, and will instead reward you.”

“Thank you, Lord Hall Master,” Hearing those words, both the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal were overjoyed.

The World Devastator Immortal even began to ingratiate himself. With a beaming smile, he said, “Lord Hall Master, that scroll is sealed. You will have to undo the seal in order to see the contents.”

“I did not dare to unseal it myself. This subordinate felt that only Lord Hall Master was qualified to see the contents of the scroll. Thus, Lord Hall Master, please unseal it.”

“You’re quite sensible,” Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s laughter was heard from underneath his mask. Then, he extended his hand and began to form a spirit formation. He stroked his hand across the scroll and dispelled the power lingering around it. Then, he opened the scroll.

“Puu~~~”

However, right after the scroll was opened, a liquid suddenly sprayed out from the scroll. Everything happened too quickly. Even though the Dark Hall’s Hall Master dodged it immediately, he was still hit by a portion of the liquid.

Not only did the liquid spray onto his body, it also sprayed onto his face.

“This!!!”

Both the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal were greatly alarmed upon seeing this scene. Even Xue Ji, who was always calm and collected, was slightly surprised.

“Lord Hall Master, are you alright? We truly did not know that there was a mechanism to that scroll,” After the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal managed to react to what had just happened, they hurriedly rushed forward to set up spirit formations to clean up the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Scram!” However, before they could even approach him, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master shouted at them angrily. With a wave of his sleeve, the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal were sent flying once more. When they fell to the ground, they were bleeding from their seven apertures. Not to mention their meridians and veins, even their skulls were completely shattered.

“Lord Hall Master, we did not mean any disrespect, we merely wanted to help...” The Immeasurable Immortal tried to explain in a weak voice.

“Help my ass! This is fucking piss here!” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master shouted furiously. As his voice sounded, the entire region that they were in started to tremble. It could be seen that he was truly enraged.

“Buzz~~~”

The very next moment, the scroll began to flicker with radiance, and writing began to emerge from the scroll.

Although the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had suffered from the scroll, he was still unable to help himself from turning his gaze toward the scroll. However, right after looking at it, he became even more furious.

“Is this the treasure that you two spoke of?!”

In a furious rage, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master threw the scroll toward the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal.

The scroll was thrown with the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s martial power. After it reached the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal, that martial power exploded, destroying half of their physical bodies.

However, even with this being the case, the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal did not dare to heal their injuries. Enduring the pain, they opened the scroll.

Upon looking at the scroll, the two men’s expressions changed enormously.

There was a single sentence written on the scroll.

‘Did you enjoy your granddaddy Chu Feng’s piss?’

Piss. It was indeed piss.

Not only was it piss, it was Chu Feng’s piss on top of that. Furthermore, that piss had landed on the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s body and face.

What sort of existence was the Dark Hall’s Hall Master? He was a genius blessed by the heavens from the Outer World. Even though Chu Feng was also from the Outer World, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had never placed Chu Feng in his eyes. He had felt Chu Feng to be a plaything that he could destroy at any time.

Yet now, Chu Feng had actually sprayed his piss all over the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

As such, how could the Dark Hall's Hall Master tolerate that? How could he not be angry?

Most importantly, Chu Feng's piss was supposed to spray on them.

It was they who had thought themselves to be clever, thus they had not dared to unseal the scroll and open it. Therefore, this disaster was all caused because of them. It was no surprise that at that moment, they were extremely afraid.

"Lord Hall Master, we were wrong, we were wrong."

"Please forgive us, please give us another chance."

At that moment, the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal disregarded the pain that they felt and hurriedly kneeled on the ground to kowtow and beg for forgiveness.

The Dark Hall's Hall Master's methods were something that the two of them knew very well. The reason why they had submitted to the Dark Hall's Hall Master was because he was so extremely ruthless that they did not dare to disobey him.

"You useless trash actually still dare to beg for forgiveness?" The Dark Hall's Hall Master extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. The World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal were lifted into the air. Then, he threw them to Xue Ji's feet and said, "Xue Ji, they are yours to handle. Make sure to punish them properly so that they remember this."

"Understood," Xue Ji turned around and left as she spoke. Strangely, the World Devastator Immortal and the Immeasurable Immortal's bodies began to float, following after Xue Ji.

After hearing from the Dark Hall's Hall Master that they would be given to Xue Ji to be punished, the two men's expression turned extremely ugly. It was as if they were experiencing an enormous terror. They began to beg the Dark Hall's Hall Master for forgiveness nonstop. However, the Dark Hall's Hall Master did not even bother to take another glance at them.

Not long afterward, Xue Ji returned. The Dark Hall's Hall Master had yet to wipe away the piss on his body. Instead, he grabbed his clothes and was smelling it.

"Never would I have thought that Lord Hall Master would have such an indulgence," Seeing this scene, Xue Ji was unable to contain herself from laughing lightly.

"It's not an indulgence. Merely, I wished to remember this smell," The Dark Hall's Hall Master said.

"Remember the smell?" Xue Ji asked curiously.

"The smell of humiliation. As far as I'm concerned, this is an enormous humiliation. This smell will remind me to make sure that I make Chu Feng wish that he was dead," The Dark Hall's Hall Master said those words one word at a time. Overflowing hatred filled his words.

"Lord Hall Master, do not worry. As long as you wish for it, not to mention Chu Feng, we would be able to eliminate even the Ancient Era's Elves," Xue Ji said with a beaming smile.

"Xue Ji, could it be that you've succeeded?" Hearing those words, the Dark Hall's Hall Master was overjoyed. He forgot the displeasure he had been feeling earlier, and instead revealed great excitement.

Evidently, something major had succeeded.

"Yes, I've succeeded," Xue Ji nodded.

"Hahaha, great," After it was confirmed, the Dark Hall's Hall Master laughed heartily. After laughing, he walked over to Xue Ji's side. With a rare gentle tone, he said, “Xue Ji, you are the only person who is actually capable of sharing this Hall Master’s worries.”

After saying those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master extended his arms. He wanted to embrace Xue Ji.

However, Xue Ji only smiled charmingly at the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s incoming embrace. Her body floated into the sky and dodged the embrace. With a smile on her face, she said, “Lord Hall Master, that is piss and not wine. There’s no reason for you to get drunk over it.”

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s eyes narrowed, seemingly somewhat displeased. However, the displeasure soon disappeared, and he suddenly laughed, “Hahaha, I was silly.”

As for Xue Ji, she also laughed lightly. Then, her body floated into the air again and she disappeared.

Now only the Dark Hall’s Hall Master remained in that place. He closed his eyes and sucked in a long breath. It was as if he was smelling Xue Ji’s aroma.

When he opened his eyes again, he said, “There are no women that can escape me. That is already the case in the Outer World. As such, you will be no exception.”

“One day, I will make you serve me in delight.”

After saying those words, his eyes shone.

It was the light of confidence.

Chapter 2036 – Spreading False News

Relying on the masks created by Chu Feng that could track down the people from the Dark Hall, the Ancient Era's Elves unleashed an all-out counterattack against the Dark Hall.

The Dark Hall's camps that were gathered outside the various Ancient Era's Elves' territories were mostly breached by the Ancient Era's Elves. Those that managed to defend themselves from being breached would also immediately flee quickly.

At that moment, the people from the Dark Hall all went into hiding.

However, the Ancient Era's Elves did not stop their attacks on the Dark Hall. After fighting those battles and reversing their fortunes, they turned their focus to the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace.

While it was true that the Ancient Era's Elves had promised Qing Xuantian that they would not exterminate the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace, the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace were actually working with the Dark Hall. As such, even if they were to not eliminate them, they must still crack down on them.

Merely, when the Ancient Era's Elves' army reached the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace, they discovered that all of the elites had left.

Only a group of elders and disciples that did not know the truth remained.

The Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace had become two empty shells. As for the Ancient Era's Elves, they would naturally not attack those innocent people. As such, they could only drop the matter.

However, in order to prevent their allies from being attacked by the Dark Hall, the Ancient Era's Elves began to provide reinforcement troops to the Four Great Imperial Clans and the King Monstrous Dragon Race. Only the Underworld Palace, which possessed the strength to defend themselves, did not receive assistance.

However, surprisingly, the Dark Hall was extremely well-behaved. After their massive defeat, they did not show themselves again.

This caused everyone to feel that the Dark Hall had grown afraid. This also allowed the Ancient Era's Elves to retrieve the sensation of being being absolutely superior, absolutely unrivaled.

However, Chu Feng did not dare to act carelessly. He kept feeling that the Dark Hall had not unleashed their full strength. They had only managed to eliminate the Dark Hall's camps and kill some Ancient Era's ferocious beasts and a small portion of the Dark Hall's experts. They had yet to be able to actually cause harm to the Dark Hall's strength.

At that moment...

At a location several tens of millions of miles away from the border of the Elf Kingdom was a person. That person fell weakly to the ground. He was a Martial Emperor. Furthermore, his cultivation was not weak. He was a rank three Martial Emperor.

However, he was seriously injured. He was wearing a black cloak and a mask. His outfit had revealed his identity. He was someone from the Dark Hall.

Beside that injured Martial Emperor from the Dark Hall were two other people.

One was sitting on the ground, resting his eyes.

As for the other, she was squatting before that Dark Hall's Martial Emperor and saying something to him.

As for those two people, they were Chu Feng and the Snow-haired Immortal.

Chu Feng felt that the Dark Hall would definitely not leave the matters as they were. Thus, he had been relying on the masks to search for people from the Dark Hall the entire time. Today, he finally found one.

Merely, after catching this person from the Dark Hall, Chu Feng did not do anything to him. Instead, he handed him to the Snow-haired Immortal to take care of.

As for Chu Feng, he was sitting cross-legged on the ground with his awareness cast into his world spirit space.

In his world spirit space, Chu Feng was also sitting cross-legged on the ground. Merely, he was sitting before Eggy.

“Milady Queen, when will you wake up? Even though we appear to be holding superiority in the battle against the Dark Hall, I keep having the feeling that it will not be that simple.”

“If you were here now, it would truly be great. You would be able to analyze things with me and give me suggestions,” Chu Feng said those words not only because he was longing for Eggy. Additionally, he was also feeling uneasy.

They had to win this battle. If they lost, it would definitely be a calamity for the Holy Land of Martialism.

Furthermore, as that Dark Hall’s Hall Master was likely Chu Feng’s fellow clansman, he felt that he had an enormous responsibility in this matter. As such, the pressure on Chu Feng’s heart was enormous right now.

In fact, the pressure that he felt surpassed the pressure the Elf King felt.

“Master, I’ve succeeded. Quickly, come look. I’ve succeeded in unsealing his mask.”

Right at that moment, a joyous voice suddenly sounded. Chu

Feng hurriedly cast his awareness back into his body. It was then that he discovered that the Snow-haired Immortal was looking at him with a beaming smile on her face.

This woman who was always grim, unfeeling and deemed to be a witch by others actually had a childlike smile on her face. It was also her who had called out ‘master’ earlier.

“Senior Snow-hair, please don’t call me that. I am unqualified to be your master,” Chu Feng shook his head with a smile.

Ever since she had experienced Chu Feng’s various world spirit techniques, the Snow-haired Immortal, that witch who had wholeheartedly wanted to make Chu Feng her disciple, now wholeheartedly wanted to become Chu Feng’s disciple.

She insisted on following Chu Feng wherever he went. Today, the two of them had finally managed to obtain some results and capture a person from the Dark Hall.

With Chu Feng’s current level of world spirit techniques, he was capable of unsealing the self-detonation formation contained within the bodies of the people from the Dark Hall and remove their masks.

And that... was precisely what the Snow-haired Immortal wanted to learn from Chu Feng. Chu Feng had taught it to her. And now... the Snow-haired Immortal had managed to grasp it successfully.

“Okay, I’ll do as you say. After all, you’re already my master in my heart. Regardless of whether you will allow me to call you that, you will still remain my master,” The Snow-haired Immortal smiled again. Then, she moved to remove that Dark Hall’s expert’s mask.

Seeing the Snow-haired Immortal acting like this, Chu Feng sighed in his heart. Back then, she had nearly tormented him to death. In Chu Feng’s heart, the Snow-haired Immortal was an enormous witch to the core.

Yet now, not only was she calling him master on and on, she was also following his every order obediently like a well-behaved girl. The contrast was truly enormous.

“It’s actually someone from the Heavenly Law Palace. Indeed, the Heavenly Law Palace has joined the Dark Hall,” After removing that Dark Hall’s expert’s mask, the Snow-haired Immortal revealed a disgusted expression. The reason for that was because the old man before them was an elder from the Heavenly Law Palace. He had possessed quite a decent status in the Heavenly Law Palace, and had thus met with the Snow-haired Immortal before.

“Wuu~~~” The old man started to shake his head repeatedly. He did not dare to say anything.

“Rest assured, we have already removed the self-detonation formation you have in your body. You can speak the truth now,” Chu Feng said.

“If I am to tell you the truth, will you spare my life?” That old man asked while trembling with fear.

“If you turn a new leaf, I will spare your life. If you are able to provide meritorious service to assist us in defeating the Dark Hall in the future, I will also reward you,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, my life and death actually don’t matter to me. I merely wish that you can agree to a condition of mine. As long as you agree to it, I will tell you all that I know,” The old man said.

“Please save my family from the Dark Hall,” As he said those words, the old man’s eyes grew moist.

“Very well, I’ll agree to it. If possible, I will definitely save your family,” Chu Feng nodded.

“In that case, I’ll tell you. Little friend Chu Feng, I was originally going to definitely die by coming here. The reason for that was because I planned to pass news to you,” That man said.

“What is it?” Chu Feng asked.

“I am here to tell you all that an ambush lies in wait at the Dark Hall’s headquarters. You all must absolutely not go there,” That old man said.

“What sort of ambush?” Chu Feng asked.

“I am uncertain. My status is very petty and low. I have never even been to their headquarters before. Even the fact that there’s an ambush there is something that I have only heard from others by accident.”

“I have come here with the intention of dying to begin with. The reason for that is because my family are all in the hands of the Palace Master. If I do not die, they will definitely be killed.”

“However, since little friend Chu Feng saved my life, I am willing to turn a new leaf and work for you. But, little friend Chu Feng, you must save my family,” As the old man said those words, he was already weeping bitter tears. He did not appear to be lying. It could be seen that he was deeply worried for his family.

Chapter 2037 – Moving Toward The Tiger’s Mountain

“Rest assured, your family will definitely be saved. Do you know anything else?” The Snow-haired Immortal asked.

“Both the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace have joined the Dark Hall,” After that, the old man spoke more about the Dark Hall. However, it was all information that Chu Feng and the others already knew.

“That’s it. That’s all I know,” The old man nodded.

Hearing those words, a flash of coldness shone through the Snow-haired Immortal’s eyes. She then smashed her palm forward with the intention of killing the old man.

“Paaa~~~”

However, before the Snow-haired Immortal’s palm could land, Chu Feng grabbed her wrist. He said, “Senior Snow-hair, we must keep our promise. Since he has already turned a new leaf, we should give him another chance.”

“But...” The Snow-haired Immortal seemed to want to say something. However, in the end, she said nothing and only smiled. “We’ll do as you say.”

Had it been before, the Snow-haired Immortal would have definitely insisted on her own standpoint. She was vicious and merciless, and would definitely not keep her promise to forgive her enemy. Else, how could she have the reputation of a witch?

However, she now felt enormous admiration and respect for Chu Feng. Thus, she did not dare to refuse Chu Feng’s suggestion.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at this moment, a golden light flew past. It was a Golden Flash Bird.

“It’s His Majesty. He wants us to return immediately,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well,” The Snow-haired Immortal nodded.

After that, Chu Feng and the Snow-haired Immortal brought that old man with them and returned to the Elf Kingdom.

After Chu Feng finished settling the old man down, he hurried to the Elf King. Chu Feng felt that the Elf King must have something important to tell him.

After entering the Elf King’s palace, Chu Feng discovered that the Elf King, the Four Grand Elders and Eight Great Protectors were all present. Even the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others were also present.

This caused Chu Feng’s mind to tense up. These experts had originally all been stationed to guard various locations. Yet, they were now all gathered in the Elf Kingdom. Evidently, something had happened.

“Little friend Chu Feng, Snow-haired Immortal, you two have returned at just the right time. I have good news,” Seeing Chu Feng and the Snow-haired Immortal’s return, the Elf King spoke with a smile, “We have discovered the location of the Dark Hall’s headquarters. We finally have the chance to eliminate them completely.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng and the Snow-haired Immortal looked to one another and started to frown. Then, Chu Feng asked, “Did you obtain that information from the people of the Dark Hall?”

“Little friend Chu Feng, you already knew?” The Elf King asked.

“We also captured a person from the Dark Hall. He came here risking his life. As for his purpose, it was not to scout out information. Rather, he wanted to sacrifice himself to transmit news to us.”

“However, we removed the self-detonation formation on his body and removed his mask so that he could speak the truth.”

“After he was able to speak the truth, we found out from him that the location of the Dark Hall’s headquarters that they let us know about is actually a trap,” Chu Feng said.

“So it really was a trap?” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd began to discuss it spiritedly.

It would appear that they had also managed to guess that it might be a trap set by the Dark Hall after obtaining that piece of information.

“Little friend Chu Feng, even if that’s the case, we must still go. This time around, we must willfully go towards the mountain even though we know that there are tigers in it,” The Elf King said.

“Since we know that a trap awaits us there, we must consider things carefully in advance. Else, if this is to lure us away, we will likely suffer disastrously,” Chu Feng said.

“I have already ordered all of our Ancient Era’s Elves’ elites that can be maneuvered to set out for the Dark Hall’s headquarters together with me.”

“During the period of time that I am away, the Elf Kingdom will activate our Ancient Era’s grand formation. Thus, nothing will happen to our Elf Kingdom in the short term,” The Elf King said.

“Then, what about the other Elf territories?” Chu Feng asked.

“As matters stand, we have no choice but to abandon some of them. We must settle this battle as quickly as possible,” The Elf King said.

“But...” Chu Feng was still worried.

“Little friend Chu Feng, that Dark Hall’s Hall Master resembles you greatly. Although he is not a peak Martial Emperor, he was able to fight against me. Do you know why that is the case?”

“He possessed the same lightning armor and lightning wings as you do. Furthermore... he also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.”

“Thus, although his actual cultivation is only that of a rank five Martial Emperor, he is able to fight against me, a rank nine Martial Emperor.”

“You should know how long I’ve stayed a rank nine Martial Emperor. Even now, I am unable to break through into the Half Martial Ancestor realm. Likely, it will be impossible in the near future as well.”

“However, what about him? Perhaps he might reach a breakthrough to rank six Martial Emperor in a short period of time. At that time, I will be no match for him. Even our Elf Kingdom’s grand formation, as well as the grand formation you’ve set up in the Cyanwood Mountain, would not be able to stop him.”

“At that time, only death would await us.”

“Thus, it’s not that I do not wish to make sure that we will absolutely succeed by waiting to fight them after we have grasped an absolute certainty of victory.”

“Rather, we truly do not have the time for that,” The Elf King said with a serious expression.

Hearing what the Elf King said, Chu Feng grew silent. Indeed... the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed the same sort of power Chu Feng did. Not only had he grasped all the techniques Chu Feng had, he also possessed the same sort of heaven-defying battle power as Chu Feng.

Being only a rank five Martial Emperor, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed the same strength as a peak Martial Emperor. If he were to become a rank six Martial Emperor, he would obtain strength approaching that of a Half Martial Ancestor. At that time, it was likely that no one in the Holy Land of Martialism would be able to contend against him.

And, if he were to become a rank seven, rank eight or even a rank nine Martial Emperor? That would be something truly unimaginable.

“Little friend Chu Feng, we have gone through careful deliberations in order to come to this decision. Apart from this, we have no alternatives.”

“It is truly that we are too short on time, and our opponent is too powerful. As matters stand, we can only stake our all on this fight,” Lord Lianghua said.

“Since that’s the case, then I will listen to Your Majesty’s orders,” Seeing that the crowd was determined, Chu Feng could only nod and comply with their decision. After all, apart from this, he was unable to think of any better method either.

Although everyone was able to see that it might be a trap, this was the only way to defeat the Dark Hall that they could think of.

Thus, after the elite soldiers were gathered, the Ancient Era’s Elves led their elite army of Martial Emperors toward the headquarters of the Dark Hall.

The location of the Dark Hall’s headquarters that they had spread was a very remote location. It was at a very desolate place in the Holy Land of Martialism.

After traveling, they finally arrived at their destination. Furthermore, after searching, they managed to find the Dark Hall’s headquarters.

Merely, it was completely different from what they had anticipated. The Dark Hall’s army and the countless Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts were all present before their line of sight.

There were slaughtering formations placed all over their various camps. It was as if they were already prepared, and were just waiting for the Ancient Era's Elves' army and the stone army to reach this place so that they could battle them.

Chapter 2038 – Bearing Dangers To Save People

Seeing this scene, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal smiled. “It would appear that they have indeed deliberately spread the information of their headquarters’ location. They plan to conduct a final battle with us,”

Hearing what he said, the other people also revealed relaxed smiles on their faces.

It turned out that the Dark Hall had not set a trap for them, unlike what they had thought. Instead, they had decided to face them head-on. To them, this was something that they wished for.

“Something’s amiss!” Right at this moment, Chu Feng started to shout.

“Everything before us is an illusion formed by a spirit formation. There is actually nothing before us,” Chu Feng said.

“What?”

“Little friend Chu Feng, are you certain?” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other world spiritists asked.

No matter what, they were also Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists. Thus, they all possessed special and exceptional observation abilities. However, they had not noticed anything wrong.

In their eyes, regardless of whether it was the buildings, those slaughtering formations or the Dark Hall’s army and the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts, they were all really before them.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Right at this moment, an explosion sounded from above. As the crowd turned to the sky, they were shocked to discover that a torrential rain had suddenly started.

The rainwater was green. It sprinkled lightly down toward them. Not only was the Ancient Era's Elves' army covered, the rainwater covered a range of a thousand miles around them.

“Use world spirit techniques,” In response, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal, Zhang Ming and Chu Feng all unleashed their world spirit techniques, instantly forming spirit formations. They covered the sky with the intention to block the green rainwater.

The reason for that was because the rainwater was emitting a suffocating stink. Merely by looking at it, one could tell that it was no ordinary rain water. Instead, it was liquid poison.

However, the liquid poison was too powerful. It surpassed everyone's imagination, and pierced through the many layers of spirit formations Chu Feng and the others set up. Then, they landed on the crowd.

“Ahhh!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

“Nooo!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

“Damn it! What the hell is this?!”

At this moment, all sorts of screams could be heard. Practically everyone was corroded by the poison.

Their clothes started to melt, and their skins started to burn. Blood and flesh started to become indistinct. Those that were struck by the poison rain were all left in tragic states.

At that moment, the only people that were fine was Chu Feng and the Elf King. Even the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other world spiritists were being tormented by the poison. Even though they used all of their abilities, they were only able to slow down the corrosion of their bodies from the poison, and were unable to remove it completely.

Chu Feng was fine because he possessed a body that was immune to poisons. As for the Elf King, he was forcibly blocking the attacks of the poison by relying on his peak Martial Emperor's strength.

However, others were unable to accomplish the same thing. Those with high levels of cultivation like the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Four Grand Elders were relatively fine. Although they were being corroded by the poison, they were still able to tolerate and resist the poison with their abilities.

However, the situation was worse for those with weaker strength.

For some people, their bodies had already melted completely and only their white bones remained.

Not to mention the army of flesh and bone, even the stone army was uttering howls of grief.

The poison was actually able to corrode even stones. There was simply nothing that could stop it.

At that moment, the Elf King shouted angrily, "Dark Hall's Hall Master, do you dare to come out and fight against me honorably?" Space itself shattered as his shout rang out. It could be seen that he was extremely furious right now.

Even though he already knew that a trap awaited them here, he had not expected the trap to be this powerful. It had managed to directly erase all of their battle power apart from him and Chu Feng.

At that moment, the Elf King was filled with regret. If he had known that the trap in this place would be this powerful, he would definitely not have led the Ancient Era's Elves' elites here. How could this possibly be a battle to determine the outcome? No, this was simply throwing their lives away.

"You wish to fight against the Hall Master? I'm afraid you'll have to be disappointed. Lord Hall Master has simply never been here.”

A mocking voice sounded. It was a female’s voice. It was that Xue Ji’s voice.

Merely, it was only Xue Ji’s voice that was heard. She had not revealed herself.

“Boom~~~”

Right after that voice was heard, the Elf King shot out a fist. Immediately, a blaze filled the area where his fist strike passed, and the space there started to shatter into pitch darkness.

The Elf King had determined Xue Ji’s location through the sound of her voice, and unleashed an attack in that direction.

“Yoh, you’re actually throwing a sneak attack at me? Truly despicable,” However, that Xue Ji’s voice soon sounded again. It was filled with mockery. It was clear that the Elf King’s attack had not managed to hit Xue Ji.

“Damn it!” At that moment, the Elf King was gnashing his teeth in anger. He who was always calm was unable to remain calm anymore.

His subordinates, his clansmen and his friends were all suffering.

The reason for all of this was his mistaken judgement. In fact, even though he was fine now, he was actually also being slowly corroded by that poison rain. If this were to continue, even he would end up sustaining injuries.

He did not care about his own death. However, he did not wish for his clansmen to die. Most importantly, if they were to suffer a complete wipeout here, the people remaining in the Elf Kingdom would die sooner or later too. They would truly be devastated.

That was why he was so anxious. However, regardless of how anxious he was, there was nothing he could do. In this sort of situation, no one would be able to remain calm.

“Go on, be angry. However, your anger will be useless. You will only be able to watch as all those you care about are corroded and killed by the poison.”

“Then, you yourself will be seriously injured. Your cultivation will be damaged. In the end, you will only be able to watch as your Elf Kingdom is wiped out and your beloved daughters are killed.”

“You wished to save the people of the world. However, you’ll only end up dying yourself.”

“Hero? It’s not that easy to become one,” Xue Ji’s mocking voice sounded in succession. It held the air of having an absolute certainty of victory.

“That’s not for certain.”

However, at that moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded. It was at that moment that the crowd noticed that Chu Feng was standing in midair with golden light emitting from his body.

It was world spirit power. Furthermore, Chu Feng had a light smile on his face.

It was... a smile of confidence.

“Chu Feng, what are you planning to do?”

The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others were all startled by Chu Feng’s appearance; they were all able to tell that Chu Feng had sealed himself with world spirit techniques. Even though they were unable to know what Chu Feng’s intention was, they all knew that Chu Feng planned to do something.

“Bang~~~”

Suddenly, a muffled explosion sounded from Chu Feng’s body. Then, his body actually exploded. Blood began to sprinkle down from the sky like rain.

“Chu Feng!!!”

Seeing this scene, the Elf King and the others all revealed extremely shocked expressions.

However, when Chu Feng's blood sprinkled down and landed on the army, they were shocked to discover that the poison that came into contact with Chu Feng's blood actually started to dissipate.

Chu Feng's blood was actually capable of detoxifying the poison!!

Chu feng was using his blood to detoxify the poison for the crowd. Merely, there was too much poisonous liquid, and Chu Feng's blood was limited. Thus, the amount of poison that his blood was capable of detoxifying was pathetically minute.

“Chu Feng, he actually...” After finding out Chu Feng's intention, the Elf King felt endless pain in his heart. For the sake of saving everyone, Chu Feng had sacrificed himself.

Chapter 2039 – Truly Foolish

“My my my, this is truly worthy of the greatest admiration. He actually sacrificed himself to save others.”

“Unfortunately, he remains only a mortal. Even if he did use his world spirit techniques to reproduce more blood, it is still limited. The amount of people that he can save is truly few,” Xue Ji said mockingly.

“Buzz~~~”

After Chu Feng’s voice sounded, light began to shine from the place where Chu Feng had been standing. Soon, Chu Feng’s body began to form anew. He had actually recovered.

Chu Feng’s body had recovered completely. Even his clothes were exactly the same as before. Merely, his complexion had become a bit pale. It could be seen that he had damaged his health by exploding and using his blood to save the crowd.

“Bang~~~”

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng once again made his body explode. Another rain of blood began to sprinkle down with his explosion. He had saved another portion of the army.

Just like this, Chu Feng continued to make his body explode repeatedly. He blew up his body thirty-nine times. When his body recovered after the thirty-ninth explosion, his complexion was ashen, and his eyes were somewhat dim.

Even though Chu Feng possessed an undying and indestructible body, it was very taxing on his spirit power to reproduce his blood repeatedly with world spirit techniques.

After all, he had not just reproduced more blood, he had also reproduced the property of his blood that rendered him immune to poisons.

Thus, this led to his spirit power growing weaker and weaker. Even his soul and source energy were damaged in the process.

Seeing Chu Feng's current state, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal shouted, "Chu Feng, stop! If this is to continue, your body and spirit will not be able to endure it!!!"

However, Chu Feng only smiled lightly at the Weaponry Refinement Immortal's shout. How could he not know that this would be detrimental to his health? However, he could not allow himself to watch and not do anything as the people around him were corroded by poison.

He had to do this. Only by doing this would he be able to save everyone.

"Little friend Chu Feng!!!"

At that moment, the Elf King also wanted to stop Chu Feng. However, he was unable to say it.

After all, he was powerless facing the current situation. The only person capable of saving everyone right now was Chu Feng.

Merely, he deeply detested himself for being useless. As the king of the Ancient Era's Elves, he could only watch as his clansmen were wounded by the poison without being able to do anything to assist them. Instead, he had to place all of his hopes on Chu Feng, a member of the younger generation. This caused him to hate himself bitterly.

"Foolishness," That Xue Ji laughed mockingly at Chu Feng's actions. The way she saw it, it was unworthy for Chu Feng to sacrifice himself to save others.

Besides, even if Chu Feng were to sacrifice himself, he would not be able to save the people present. The reason for that was because Xue Ji possessed a method to obtain certain victory.

“Since you are this ignorant, I shall let you know what it means to despair,” As Xue Ji spoke, a loud sound was heard.

“Rumble~~~”

Following that sound, a large amount of green rain began to rain down from the sky again. Once again, the rain drenched the crowd.

The portion of people that were saved by Chu Feng were once again covered by the poison rain, once again being corroded by the poisonous liquid.

“Rumble~~~”

“Rumble~~~”

“Rumble~~~”

Following that, successive explosions sounded in the sky. With each explosion, a large amount of poison would rain down, showering everyone.

After the continuous downpour of poison rain, Chu Feng’s blood that had covered a portion of the crowd was completely engulfed by the poison rain. All of Chu Feng’s efforts were in vain.

“Noo!!!!!!”

Seeing this scene, the Ancient Era’s Elves’ experts were unable to contain themselves and started to shout hysterically.

Despair. At that moment, despair was visible on their aged faces and in their experienced eyes.

If this were to continue, not to mention a single Chu Feng, even if there were ten more Chu Fengs, they would still not be able to save them.

The reason for that was because the poison rain was coming in cycles. It seemed as if it would continue to rain nonstop. As for them, there was simply no way for them to resist the poison.

Despair. They were in despair. Everyone's faces were covered with despair.

The elites of the Ancient Era's Elves, the numerous experts from the Holy Land of Martialism, the Cyanwood Mountain's nominal elders and the stone army from the Ancient Era...

... they were all being corroded by the poison right now. Furthermore, they were powerless against the poison. All they could do was wait for death.

"Chu Feng, you can continue to attempt to use your blood to save them. I shall see whether you have more blood or I have more poison," Xue Ji's voice sounded. Her tone was filled with mockery.

"Haha..." However, at that moment, the extremely weak Chu Feng actually started to laugh. "Truly foolish."

Hearing those words, Xue Ji asked, "What did you say?" She was truly confused by what Chu Feng meant.

It was not only her. All of the people present were confused by Chu Feng's words.

As matters stood, they were in a completely passive state. It was clearly them who had been foolish. Thus, why would Chu Feng say that Xue Ji was foolish?

Or, could it be that Chu Feng was calling himself foolish? Could it be that Chu Feng was mocking himself?

"I said, you're very foolish," At the moment when everyone was pondering what Chu Feng meant, Chu Feng gave them an answer.

He was not mocking himself. He was indeed insulting Xue Ji.

"It is true that I continuously self detonated to use my blood to save the people here."

"However, I do not only plan to save a portion of the people but rather all of them," As Chu Feng said those words, a flash of determination shone in Chu Feng's eyes.

Then, with one hand, he began to form hand seals, and an invisible ripple began to spread.

Following that, all of the people whose bodies had been covered by Chu Feng's blood started to emit a special sort of light.

As that light shone, nothing special happened. However, a very dense aura began to spread.

It was Chu Feng's aura. Furthermore... Chu Feng's aura was currently fusing with the poisonous liquid.

“What is Chu Feng planning to do?” At that moment, the crowd were still puzzled.

Indeed, that spirit formation was emitting Chu Feng's aura. However, what could that possibly do?

Could it be that Chu Feng planned to use his own aura to neutralize the poison? But... that was evidently impossible.

At the moment the crowd was most puzzled, Chu Feng shouted, “Du Wanwu, are you still not going to wake up?”

“What?” When Chu Feng's words were heard, everyone was startled. They did not understand what Chu Feng meant by those words.

“Chu Feng, is it you?” However, to the crowd's surprise, after Chu Feng's voice sounded, another voice sounded in response.

Most shockingly, that voice sounded from the poisonous liquid. That's right... all of the poisonous liquid was emitting the same voice at the same time.

Hearing that voice, the minds of the crowd tightened, and their bodies trembled.

At that moment, at that time...

... it seemed that they had all realized something!!!

Chapter 2040 – Reversal

“I... I... I...” That voice started to hesitate.

“You are you. You shouldn’t be manipulated by anyone.”

“Come, wake up. My brother, do not forget about your clansmen. They are still waiting for you.”

“If you are to continue on like this, not only will the innocent be killed because of you, your clansmen will also one day be killed by you,” Chu Feng continued.

“No... I cannot kill my clansmen. I absolutely cannot.”

“I cannot!!!!!!”

The voice from the poisonous liquid grew more and more distinct. Then, a struggling intention filled the voice. In the end, that voice started to shout and snarl.

“Buzz, hum, hum, hum~~~”

Following the final shout, the poisonous liquid that covered the crowd started to tremble fiercely.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the poisonous liquid that was corroding the crowd flew away rapidly. It was not only from the crowd; a seemingly infinite amount of the poisonous liquid was flying from the sky too.

It all began to condense in a location not far away from Chu Feng.

Soon, the poisonous liquid turned into an enormous giant. That giant was even larger than the stone giants. However, it was extremely nauseating to look at.

It was formed completely out of the green and gooey poisonous liquid. No organs or face could be seen. Only the poisonous fluid flowing through it. It was emitting a nauseating stench.

However, Chu Feng was able to recognize that it was Du Wanwu.

Seeing Du Wanwu, Chu Feng smiled lightly and said, “Brother, you’ve finally woken up.”

“I’m sorry Chu Feng. I... I unintentionally caused harm to your friends. I’ll heal them right away.”

As Du Wanwu spoke, his enormous hand waved. Immediately, a gale sprung forth. However, most importantly, as he waved his hand, poisonous liquid was once again emitted from all over his body. In a blink of an eye, it covered the bodies of the crowd.

“Noo!!!!”

Seeing this scene, the hearts of the crowd all tightened. Their complexions turned pale.

However, the very next moment, the panicking crowd all stood there stunned.

They were no longer being corroded by the poison. Instead, their bodies that had been covered by the poisonous liquid were being healed.

“Truly miraculous,” Seeing this scene, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others all gasped in admiration.

As the saying goes, whoever started the trouble should end it. However, they truly did not expect that the monster covered with poison was not only capable of harming others with poison, but was also capable of saving others with poison.

Neutralized. No one expected that, at the moment when they were all close to despair, Chu Feng would manage to neutralize the crisis by himself.

At that moment, the crowd finally realized what Chu Feng meant when he said ‘truly foolish.’

It turned out that Chu Feng had already held certainty of victory, he had already thought of a way to save the crowd.

At that moment, the gazes with which the crowd looked to Chu Feng became even more complicated.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had saved them during a time when even the Elf King had been powerless to do anything.

“So that’s the case,” in the moment when the crowd were all overjoyed, Xue Ji’s voice sounded again.

“I truly never expected you to know that brat. Furthermore, you were certain that it was him the moment you saw the poisonous liquid.”

“You were using your blood to neutralize the poison rain not so that you could save the crowd with your blood. Rather, you wanted to use your blood to fuse with the poison so that you could use your aura to awaken him.”

However, that voice was growing more and more distant. It meant that Xue Ji was already escaping the moment she said those words. However, no one knew where she had escaped to.

“Damned demonic woman, I will definitely turn you into a puddle of blood,” At that moment, Du Wanwu let out a furious snarl. It could be seen that he possessed enormous hatred for Xue Ji.

However, when Du Wanwu let out that snarl filled with overflowing killing intent, the Ancient Era’s Elves’ army started to frown. They revealed expressions of fear.

Earlier, Du Wanwu had nearly killed them. Even though Chu Feng addressed Du Wanwu as ‘brother,’ they still felt enormous fear of Du Wanwu.

“Brother, your appearance is a bit frightening. Let me help you recover your physical body,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he began to form a spirit formation that covered the massive form that Du Wanwu currently held.

After that spirit formation was set in motion, the enormous Du Wanwu started to shrink in size. Soon, he regained the appearance of a man. It was Du Wanwu’s actual appearance.

Merely, the current Du Wanwu was naked. Thus, Chu Feng used his world spirit techniques to create clothes for Du Wanwu, and directly covered his naked body.

“Chu Feng, you’ve helped me again,” Du Wanwu looked to his physical body and started to shiver emotionally.

“We’re brothers, do not mention this sort of thing. Helping you... is only what I am supposed to do.”

“Let alone, you will have to help me too,” Chu Feng said with a smile. He was very happy to see Du Wanwu. It was fortunate... that that poison rain had been caused by Du Wanwu. Otherwise, Chu Feng would also have had no way to solve this predicament.

“You don’t know. To be able to regain this appearance is something that I did not even dare to imagine to be possible,” As Du Wanwu said those words, his eyes were already moist.

Without having Du Wanwu tell him, Chu Feng was able to guess that something must’ve happened to Du Wanwu. However, regardless of what had happened, it would definitely be a terrible memory.

“You must’ve been taken advantage of by the people of the Dark Hall when you were refining that Inherited Gu, right?” Chu Feng said.

When Du Wanwu parted ways with Chu Feng, he did so to refine the Inherited Gu that his ancestor had left behind. At that time, Du Wanwu already knew that that Inherited Gu was very hard to control and he might end up becoming a monster.

Indeed, Du Wanwu had become a monster earlier. Furthermore, he had become a monster controlled by the Dark Hall. Thus, Chu Feng felt that a mishap must've happened to him when he was refining that Inherited Gu.

“That is the case. I traveled far away to this place so that I could refine the Inherited Gu and not cause harm to others should I fail.”

“However, never did I anticipate that I would end up being taken advantage of by that demonic woman,” When mentioning this matter, Du Wanwu revealed a face filled with hatred.

“It was only that demonic woman and no one else?” Chu Feng asked.

“There was also that Dark Hall's Hall Master. He set up the spirit formations here, along with some other tricks.”

“However, the actual manipulator was that demonic woman. That woman knows how to use extremely vicious sorcery. She used that to control me,” Du Wanwu said.

“Sorcery?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to frown. From Du Wanwu's words, Chu Feng was able to tell that that woman's so-called sorcery seemed to be even more powerful than the Dark Hall's Hall Master's world spirit techniques.

They were extremely curious as to who Du Wanwu was. Not only did he unleash that extremely frightening poison earlier, his cultivation was actually that of a rank nine Martial Emperor, the same level as the Elf King, a peak Martial Emperor.

Du Wanwu's strength, made it so that they had to take note of him.

Chapter 2041 – Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain

“Seniors, this person is Du Wanwu’s descendant. His name is also Du Wanwu,” Then, Chu Feng began to tell the story of how he and Du Wanwu got to know one another, as well as why Du Wanwu had turned into his current state.

“Haha, in that case, it would seem that it was all because of me that you came to know this Du Wanwu and obtained a body immune to poison,” The Snow-haired Immortal said proudly after hearing about what had happened.

“Eh... I guess you could consider it that way,” Chu Feng smiled wryly. Even though what the Snow-haired Immortal did had ended up becoming a good deed, it remained that her original intention back then had been to experiment with Chu Feng.

Furthermore, if it wasn’t for the fact that Chu Feng was very tough himself, he would’ve already died back then. How could he possibly be alive today?

Yet, the Snow-haired Immortal was so immensely proud of herself. This caused Chu Feng to feel truly speechless.

“Everyone, although I was taken advantage of by the Dark Hall this entire time and was unable to control myself, my consciousness was not in chaos. I know what has happened in this period of time.”

“Thus, not only do I know of the battle between you all and the Dark Hall, I also know that you all have come here today to search for the Dark Hall’s headquarters.”

“Truly?” Hearing those words, the crowd all revealed pleasantly surprised expressions.

They had come here with the intention of staking their all to fight a battle to the death against the Dark Hall. However, they had not expected to end up falling for such a trap.

But now, not only had Chu Feng managed to neutralize the calamity, he had also brought Du Wanwu, a peak Martial Emperor, to join them.

This could truly be said to be a profit from a disaster. If they were to be able to find the Dark Hall's headquarters at this time too, it would truly be great.

"The Dark Hall's headquarters is located in the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain," Du Wanwu said.

"Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain?" Hearing those words, the crowd's expressions all changed. Their overjoyed expressions immediately stiffened.

However, at that moment, the person feeling the most perplexed by this was none other than Chu Feng. The reason for that was because it was not the first time he had heard of the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain. He possessed quite a thorough understanding of the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain. He knew that it was an extremely remote place in the Holy Land of Martialism.

That place was also one of the most well-known forbidden areas in the Holy Land of Martialism. The reason for that was because there was an extremely ferocious type of monstrous beast there by the name of the Ice-snow Phoenix. The Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain was the territory of the Ice-snow Phoenixes. Thus, anyone that encountered an Ice-snow Phoenix in the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain would end up being killed by it.

The reason why Chu Feng knew about the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain was because his friend Tantai Xue had left for the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain after they had unsealed the secret of the Coldsnow Dagger years ago. Furthermore, Tantai Xue's purpose in going to the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain had been precisely to find the Ice-snow Phoenixes.

Recalling that, it had been a very long time since Chu Feng had been separated from Tantai Xue back then.

In this period of time, Chu Feng had shaken heaven and earth, causing numerous major sensations throughout the Holy Land of Martialism.

However, he had received no news of Tantai Xue. She had never once appeared in the Holy Land of Martialism after their separation. Thus, Chu Feng had been worried for her the entire time.

Originally, Chu Feng had planned to go to the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain to search for Tantai Xue when he had time to do so.

However, unexpectedly, things kept happening in rapid succession. As such, he was unable to move about freely.

Thus, he had not had the chance to go and search for Tantai Xue.

“They’ve actually hidden themselves in the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain. No wonder we were unable to find them,” At that moment, an extremely surprised expression appeared in the Elf King’s eyes.

“The Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain is a bit difficult to deal with. Although there aren’t a lot of Ice-snow Phoenixes, they are the most mysterious and most difficult to deal with monstrous beasts in the Holy Land of Martialism,” At that moment, even Lord Lianghua, a rank eight Martial Emperor, revealed a somewhat complicated expression.

In fact, when Lord Lianghua mentioned the name Ice-snow Phoenix, the grand characters present all revealed abnormal expressions. They appeared to have been frightened by the mention of something fearful.

Unable to contain himself, Chu Feng asked, “The Ice-snow Phoenixes really exist?" After all, the Ice-snow Phoenixes were related to Tantai Xue.

"Not only do they exist, they are extremely dangerous. The Dark Hall is truly bold to have actually hidden themselves there. Could it be... that they have eliminated the Ice-snow Phoenixes?"

"Impossible. With the Dark Hall's strength, it is impossible for them to eliminate the Ice-snow Phoenixes."

"Merely... why is it that they are able to set up camp in the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain? Why would the Ice-snow Phoenixes allow them to do so?" The Elf King's eyes narrowed. He started to ponder.

"They used some sort of method to come to an agreement with the Ice-snow Phoenixes. Right now, they are allied with the Ice-snow Phoenixes," Du Wanwu said.

"What? The Dark Hall is allied with the Ice-snow Phoenixes? This is bad," After hearing this, everyone, including the Elf King, started to frown.

Seeing this scene, Chu Feng realized that the Ice-snow Phoenixes were extraordinary beings.

The reason for that was because when the Ancient Era's Elves had discovered that the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace had allied themselves with the Dark Hall, they were only furious. After all, from the beginning, they had never placed the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace in their eyes.

However... after finding out that the Ice-snow Phoenixes had allied themselves with the Dark Hall, they actually reacted in such a manner. It was as if they were confronted with a major enemy. It was clear... that the Ice-snow Phoenixes was a group of thorny existences. They were so thorny that even the Ancient Era's Elves had to face them earnestly.

"Could it be that there is also a peak Martial Emperor among the Ice-snow Phoenixes?” Chu Feng asked.

The way he saw it, the Elf King was a peak Martial Emperor. Unless his opponent was also a peak Martial Emperor, there was no way he would react in such a manner.

“It is not that the Ice-snow Phoenixes possess a peak Martial Emperor. Rather, they possess a special treasure. That treasure is capable of unleashing a peak Martial Emperor-level expert.”

“Furthermore, because it is unleashed by that treasure, that peak Martial Emperor is unkillable and indestructible.”

“Fortunately, the Ice-snow Phoenixes only care about their own territory, and only guard the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain. Else... the true ruler of the Holy Land of Martialism might not necessarily be us Ancient Era’s Elves,” The Elf King said with a wry smile.

“The Ice-snow Phoenixes are actually that powerful?” Chu Feng was startled upon hearing that. An unkillable and indestructible peak Martial Emperor. That would truly be frightening.

“Most importantly, the Ice-snow Phoenixes are an independent group. They looked down upon even us Ancient Era’s Elves. As such, why would they end up forming an alliance with the Dark Hall?” Lord Lianghua, Lord Luokong and the other two Grand Elders all revealed puzzled expressions.

“The Dark Hall’s Hall Master is from the Outer World. No matter how conceited the Ice-snow Phoenixes might be, they are only beings of the Holy Land of Martialism. Perhaps the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was truly capable of presenting something that made the Ice-snow Phoenixes willingly form an alliance with them?” The Elf King said.

Hearing those words, the crowd involuntarily looked to Chu Feng.

They all felt relieved.

No matter how noble they, the Ancient Era's Elves, were, they knew that when compared to Chu Feng, who was from the Outer World, they would simply be incomparable to him. As for the Dark Hall's Master, he was the same as Chu Feng.

"What do we do then?" The crowd all looked to the Elf King.

"As matters stand, there are no alternatives. Even if the Ice-snow Phoenixes have become the Dark Hall's allies, we must still fight that battle," The Elf King said.

"This matter should not be delayed. Everyone, let's set off for the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain immediately. It would be best if we manage to catch them off guard. We cannot allow them time to prepare," Chu Feng said.

"What little friend Chu Feng says is extremely correct," The Elf King nodded. Then, he looked to Du Wanwu and said, "Little friend, thank you for your troubles."

"I did what I was supposed to do. Even if you all do not fight against the Dark Hall, I would still not let that demonic woman get away," Coldness flashed through Du Wanwu's eyes. Then, he began to lead the way for the crowd.

The Ancient Era's Elves' army began to proceed toward the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain majestically.

Chapter 2042 – Icesnow Phoenix

In the same pitch-black palace hall. The Dark Hall's Hall Master was still there. He was sitting on that imposing and domineering seat.

The Dark Hall's Hall Master was still wearing a mask. However, it could be seen from his two eyes that he was very happy.

He placed a lot of trust in Xue Ji. Thus, the way he saw it, as long as the Ancient Era's Elves took the bait, they would definitely be digging their own grave.

The enemies that he feared the most in the Holy Land of Martialism had finally been eliminated.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, a beautiful figure entered the palace hall. Like a celestial fairy, she slowly descended before the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

That woman was extremely beautiful. Her beauty surpassed that of celestial fairies. However, she emitted a demon-like dangerous aura from all over. This woman was Xue Ji.

“My Xue Ji, you've finally returned. If you still hadn't returned, I would have gone out to find you,” Seeing Xue Ji's return, the Dark Hall's Hall Master smiled extremely attentively. This side of him was something that he would only reveal to Xue Ji.

“It's a failure,” Xue Ji said.

“Failure?!” Hearing those words, the Dark Hall's Hall Master immediately stood up. He simply did not dare to believe in his own ears. After calming himself down, he asked, “Exactly what happened? How did it end up being a failure?”

“Originally, everything was going according to plan. The Ancient Era's Elves' army was about to be killed by that Poisonous Substance. However, never would I have expected that Chu Feng actually knew that Poisonous Substance. He used his world spirit techniques to awaken the Poisonous Substance, and helped it recover its physical body. Now, that Poisonous Substance is no longer under my control. Furthermore, it is standing with Chu Feng,” Xue Ji spoke the truth.

“What did you say?”

“That Poisonous Substance actually knew Chu Feng? Furthermore, it managed to regain consciousness, and is now standing on Chu Feng’s side? What’s going on with this? Didn’t you say that you’d managed to control it completely?” After hearing what had happened, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was extremely angry.

The reason for that was because he also knew very well how frightening that Poisonous Substance was. If that Poisonous Substance were to regain its rationality, it would definitely make their Dark Hall its enemy.

Right now, a single Ancient Era’s Elves’ Elf King was already enough to cause him a headache. If a ferocious Poisonous Substance were to be added to that, it would definitely become a thorny problem.

“I had indeed gained control over it. Merely, I never expected that Chu Feng would be capable of awakening it.”

“It could only be said that Chu Feng has surpassed our imagination. This, this matter cannot be blamed on me. After all, I had indeed successfully managed to control that Poisonous Substance,” Xue Ji said.

“If you aren’t the one to be blamed, am I to be blamed then? You had me put forth all my resources to stabilize that monster’s cultivation, to allow it to obtain a cultivation of rank nine Martial Emperor from that poison Gu. In the end, it actually went off to help Chu Feng. I have spent all that effort, but in the end, it was all for that Chu Feng's benefit.”

At that moment, the Dark Hall's Hall Master was truly enraged. He was only holding back because the person standing before him was Xue Ji; if it were anyone else, he would've definitely smashed them to death with a palm strike.

It was truly too infuriating. The person he hated the most right now was Chu Feng. Yet, his plan was actually ruined by Chu Feng again. This was truly intolerable for him.

“What use is there in being angry? I am also extremely angry. But, can that change what has happened?”

“That Poisonous Substance seemed to know that we are located here. Right now, it is leading Chu Feng and the others here.”

“The location where we set up the trap is not far away from the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain. They will soon arrive.”

“Thus, Lord Hall Master, rather than being angry, you should be thinking about how to take care of them.”

“You should know that you are not only facing the Elf King now. In addition to him, there's another rank nine Martial Emperor by the name of Du Wanwu,” Xue Ji said.

“Damn it!” Hearing those words, the Dark Hall's Hall Master was so enraged that he shot out a fist strike. An explosion sounded, and the vast space they were in started to tremble violently.

“Roar~~~”

Right at that moment, ear-piercing roars sounded from below them. Those roars sounded like the voices of demons as they filled the area.

At that moment, the trembling became even more intense. It was as if this place could collapse at any moment.

“Lord Hall Master, I urge you to calm yourself. Do not have your pet eat you before the Ancient Era's Elves arrive,” Xue Ji said with narrowed eyes.

“You only managed to refine this thing after using so many Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts. Exactly how much longer must I wait to be able to use it?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master asked.

“It’ll be soon. As long as we can buy enough time, a month, I will be able to make you the strongest expert in the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“At that time, not only will you become the strongest expert in the Holy Land of Martialism, you will also be able to obtain power that your clansmen in the Outer World do not possess. At that time, you can return to the Outer World impressively,” Xue Ji said.

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s eyes shone. He seemed to have thought of something, and actually managed to calm down from his state of extreme fury. He said, “As matters stand, there is no other way. We can only have our allies block them for us.”

“Those Icesnow Phoenixes are hard to handle. Are you sure they will be willing to help you?” Xue Ji asked.

“Tell them this. As long as they help me, I will definitely heal that girl’s illness.”

“However, if something unexpected is to happen to me, no one in this Holy Land of Martialism will be able to save that girl,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“Very well,” As Xue Ji spoke, she turned to leave.

After Xue Ji left, only the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and the demon-like existence deep underground remained in that place.

“Chu Feng, after I successfully master the demonic technique, I will definitely make you know the consequences of offending me,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master looked to the thing below that was emitting roars nonstop. Deep killing intent filled his eyes.

As the Dark Hall's Hall Master looked downward, his gaze started to change. From anger, joy appeared in his eyes. Furthermore, the more he looked, the stronger he smiled.

Suddenly, the Dark Hall's Hall Master put his hand on his mask. After he removed his mask, a crude face was revealed.

It turned out that this Dark Hall's Hall Master was only a middle-aged man. He had most definitely lived for longer than Chu Feng. However, according to his age, he could still be considered part of the younger generation in the Holy Land of Martialism.

However, his face appeared extremely ferocious and ruthless. Even though he was smiling, his smile only made his treachery and ruthlessness appear even clearer.

“Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, people all feel that you are this era's overlord. However... they don't know that this era's overlord is destined to be me.”

“Not only am I going to become this era's overlord, I will also become the strongest overlord in the history of the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“As for you, so what if you possess some talent? In the end, you will only become my stepping stone.”

.....

Several days passed. The Ancient Era's Elves' army had set foot into the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain. Furthermore, they were rapidly approaching the Dark Hall's headquarters.

However, at that moment, their path was blocked by many enormous birds of ice and snow.

The smallest among those enormous birds were over thirty meters tall. The several largest ones were over a hundred meters tall. Their bodies were composed of ice and snow, and they emitted threatening coldness.

With each movement of their wings, a gale shot forth, creating explosive snowstorms.

As for these enormous birds of ice and snow, they were the most mysterious monstrous beasts of the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain, the Icesnow Phoenixes.

Chapter 2043 – Asking About One’s Friend

Even though these birds were known as the Icesnow Phoenixes, Chu Feng felt that they possessed an enormous difference when compared to the legendary Phoenixes.

To be exact, they looked more like enormous birds covered with ice and snow. However, their strength was definitely not something to be looked down upon.

Most importantly, people from the Dark Hall and the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts that they controlled had appeared alongside the Icesnow Phoenixes.

“Icesnow Phoenixes, I never expected you all to be in cahoots with the Dark Hall. We Ancient Era’s Elves have truly thought too highly of you all before,” The Elf King looked to a white-haired old man among the Icesnow Phoenixes.

Although that old man had the appearance of a human, his body was covered with a layer of frost. The coldness that he emitted from his core was not something that could be concealed.

Judging by his appearance, he should be the leader of the Icesnow Phoenixes. Merely, his cultivation was inferior to that of the Elf King; he was only a rank eight Martial Emperor.

“This is not a place where you all should step foot in. If you are to leave now, we can spare your lives,” That leader of the Icesnow Phoenixes said with an ice-cold tone. From his attitude, it could be seen that the Icesnow Phoenixes seemed to not place the Ancient Era’s Elves in their eyes at all.

However, if one were to carefully think about it, the Icesnow Phoenixes would kill anyone else that intruded upon their territory.

However, from their attitude, it seemed that they were willing to release the Ancient Era’s Elves. Likely, they might also be afraid of the Ancient Era's Elves.

However, right after that Icesnow Phoenixes' leader finished saying his words, someone from the Dark Hall said, "No, you cannot release them."

"Who are you to interrupt when our Clan Chief is speaking?" However, right after that person from the Dark Hall spoke, the Icesnow Phoenixes present all turned their cold gazes toward that person.

That place was a place of ice and snow, a place that was bone-chillingly cold. But, at that moment, everyone felt that the temperature had decreased by tens of degrees.

Furthermore, at that moment, everyone could see that the body of the person from the Dark Hall that interrupted earlier shivered. Then, he did not dare to say anything anymore.

"The Dark Hall is an organization that has done all sorts of evils. For the sake of obtaining their goals, they are willing to sacrifice innocent lives. Today, we, the Ancient Era's Elves, insist that we shall eradicate the Dark Hall on behalf of the heavens."

"If you Icesnow Phoenixes insist on blocking our path, battle today will be unavoidable," The Elf King said.

"Buzz~~~"

Right after the Elf King finished saying those words, light began to shine from that old man's ring. Then, a cold ray of light shot out from that ring and toward the sky.

"Rooooaarr~"

An ear-piercing bird's roar was heard. Then, a two hundred-plus-meter tall Icesnow Phoenix appeared out of thin air.

It was larger than all of the other Icesnow Phoenixes. Merely, it did not possess a physical body. Its body was flickering like a spirit body would. That said, that Icesnow Phoenix was emitting the aura of a rank nine Martial Emperor.

At that moment, it was running its two enormous eyes over the crowd. Its eyes were filled with killing intent. It was as if it would immediately unleash fatal attacks should the Ancient Era's Elves move.

"If you insist on fighting, we Icesnow Phoenixes do not fear you," That Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief said.

"Rumble~~~"

Right at that moment, a loud explosion sounded from Du Wanwu. Then, his body burst apart and shot toward the sky. There, he turned into a poisonous humanoid larger than even that Icesnow Phoenix.

Poisonous liquid flowed through his entire body. Du Wanwu's current appearance was most definitely much more frightening than that Icesnow Phoenix.

"Did you think that we would be afraid of you?" Du Wanwu's coarse and ferocious voice sounded from the sky.

After Du Wanwu said those words, Chu Feng noticed that the Icesnow Phoenixes' gazes also changed slightly.

Even though they concealed it very well, Chu Feng was still able to tell that they were scared after Du Wanwu revealed his strength.

"Since that's the case, I am able to let you all experience the might of us Icesnow Phoenixes."

Even though they were already a bit scared, the Icesnow Phoenixes still unleashed overwhelming killing intent the moment their Clan Chief spoke those words.

Sensing their overwhelming killing intent, the Ancient Era's Elves started to frown. Even though the Icesnow Phoenixes numbered extremely few, they were all elites. At the very least, the several hundred Icesnow Phoenixes standing before them right now were all Martial Emperors.

Even though they possessed a lot more Martial Emperors than the Icesnow Phoenixes, if they were to truly battle the Icesnow Phoenixes, there would definitely be casualties on their side too. In fact, the casualties might even be disastrous in number.

After all, the Icesnow Phoenix that Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief unleashed with his ring was not only a rank nine Martial Emperor. In addition to that, it possessed an undying and indestructible body. That was a real thorny problem.

In that sort of situation, neither the Ancient Era's Elves nor the Icesnow Phoenixes took the lead to attack.

They seemed to know that both sides would suffer disastrous casualties should they start fighting. Furthermore, they would not be able to stop even if they wanted to.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly spoke, "Before we fight, I have a question that I wish to ask. Lord Clan Chief, might you be willing to answer my question?"

"If you wish to fight, then fight. Why bother with superfluous words?" An Icesnow Phoenix shouted angrily. It seemed that they were prepared to fight. No matter what, they would not allow Chu Feng and the others to pass through them.

However, Chu Feng did not give up on asking his question. Instead, he directly asked, "Has a young lady by the name Tantai Xue come to find you all before?"

"Mn?" To the crowd's surprise, the moment Chu Feng mentioned the name 'Tantai Xue,' the Icesnow Phoenixes' expressions all changed. They were even more shocked than when Du Wanwu revealed his strength.

At that moment, the Icesnow Phoenixes all turned their gazes to Chu Feng. As for their Clan Chief, he asked in a serious manner, "How did you know about this?"

“Not only do I know that Tantai Xue went to find you all, I also know that she held a Coldsnow Dagger. Although I do not know why she went to find you all, but if she had, could you all tell me of her whereabouts?” From the Icesnow Phoenixes’ reactions, Chu Feng had determined that Tantai Xue had indeed gone to find them.

“I am her friend,” Chu Feng said.

“You are Chu Feng?” Hearing those words, that Clan Chief was startled. However, soon, his aged eyes revealed an alert expression. He narrowed his eyes and said, “You said you’re Chu Feng? You are deceiving us then.”

“I have heard of this Chu Feng before. However, your cultivation is much higher than his,” That Clan Chief said.

“Utterly ridiculous. There are this many people from the Holy Land of Martialism here. Who among us do not know that he is Chu Feng?” However, once that Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief said those words, the Ancient Era’s Elves and the experts from the Holy Land of Materialism started to ridicule him.

The current Chu Feng was renowned through the Holy Land of Martialism. Furthermore, his portrait had long since spread throughout the entire Holy Land of Martialism. There were extremely few people in the Holy Land of Martialism that didn’t know Chu Feng.

Yet, these renowned Icesnow Phoenixes were actually saying that Chu Feng was a fake. To them, this was truly ridiculous.

Chapter 2044 – The Course Of Events

“Senior, to you, I am supposed to be a peak Martial King or, at the very most, a Half Martial Emperor instead of a Martial Emperor. Is that right?” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, that Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief narrowed his eyes again. He seemed to be pondering something. In the end, he nodded.

“If I am not mistaken, Tantai Xue must’ve mentioned me to you. In fact, several years ago, this junior’s cultivation was indeed not even that of a Half Martial Emperor.”

“However, the person standing before you is the actual me. Furthermore, I believe Tantai Xue should only have a single friend by the name of Chu Feng,” Chu Feng said.

“If you say you are Chu Feng, then you should know Tantai Xue very well,” That Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief said.

“You can ask me about things concerning Tantai Xue. If I am able to answer them, then I should really be Chu Feng. If I cannot answer them, then I am a fake,” Chu Feng said.

Sensing that the situation was amiss, a person from the Dark Hall hurriedly urged, “Clan Chief Icesnow, do not bother with him. That child is extremely cunning. He is stalling for time right now. He must be plotting some...”

“Shut up!!!”

However, before that man could finish his words, the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief shouted angrily at him. His angry shout contained his Emperor’s might. His Emperor’s might knocked that person from the Dark Hall several steps back and made him fall onto his butt powerlessly.

That Clan Chief did not pay any attention to the miserable condition of that man from the Dark Hall. Instead, with a smile on his face, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Then, listen carefully.”

After that, the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief began to ask Chu Feng many questions regarding Tantai Xue. Among them were questions about the experiences that Chu Feng and Tantai Xue had experienced together. As for Chu Feng, he was able to answer all of them easily.

“Little friend Chu Feng, it’s really you!!!”

When the final question was answered, that Clan Chief revealed an overjoyed expression. His body shifted, and he arrived before Chu Feng. He placed his hands onto Chu Feng’s shoulders and smiled joyfully.

Seeing the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief entering their camp and placing his hands on Chu Feng, the Ancient Era’s Elves’ experts started to frown. They were planning to attack.

However, the attentive Elf King hurriedly sent a voice transmission to stop them. As matters stood, he seemed to be able to tell that Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief possessed a special sort of relationship with that young lady by the name of Tantai Xue. Furthermore, after he verified Chu Feng’s identity, he possessed no hostility toward Chu Feng.

At that moment, the Elf King had a premonition that perhaps Chu Feng might be able to take care of the Icesnow Phoenixes, this thorny opponent.

“This is truly what they mean by surging waters flooding the Dragon King’s temple, and one’s family failing to recognize one another,” Sure enough, that Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief was extremely excited. Not only was he looking at Chu Feng without any of his previous hostility, he even had an expression as if he was looking at a close relative. He appeared extremely amiable toward Chu Feng.

“Senior, it seems that Tantai Xue is within your Icesnow Phoenix Race?” Chu Feng was also extremely happy.

From the previous dialogue, he was certain that Tantai Xue had not only come, she should possess a very good relationship with the Icesnow Phoenixes. Else, she would not have told this old man this many things concerning herself.

“That would naturally be the best,” Chu Feng said.

“Wait a moment,” As that Clan Chief spoke, he removed his ring and handed it to a rank eight Martial Emperor-level expert beside him. Then, with a low voice, he said, “If they do anything, kill them.”

After he finished saying those words, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Little friend Chu Feng, follow me,” Then, he turned around to leave.

“Chu Feng,” Seeing that Chu Feng actually really began to follow him, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others were very worried.

“Seniors, please rest assured. I will return immediately,” Chu Feng made a gesture to tell them that he would be fine. Then, without looking back, he followed that old man.

Being lead by that Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief, Chu Feng arrived at the Icesnow Phoenixes’ clan territory. It was a bunch of buildings located in a snowy mountain.

As for the place where Tantai Xue was, it was a tightly guarded and extremely gorgeous castle of ice and snow.

Chu Feng felt that the castle that Tantai Xue was in should be the best castle in the Icesnow Phoenixes’ clan territory.

However, after Chu Feng entered the castle and saw Tantai Xue, he started to frown, and his gaze became very unstable.

The reason for that was because Tantai Xue was lying on top of a bed of ice and snow.

While that bed of ice and snow emitted extreme coldness, it was also flowing with light. One could tell from a single glance that it was a treasure.

If one were to sleep on that bed, not only would one not be affected by frostbite, it would instead provide a great effect for tempering one's body. Not only would one be able to strengthen one's body, one could also increase one's cultivation.

The reason why Chu Feng was so worried was because, even though Tantai Xue was lying on top of that bed, she was sleeping.

Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that Tantai Xue was not just sleeping. Instead, it seemed more like she had been poisoned.

“Little friend Chu Feng, since you are a friend of our Lady Chieftain, I will not conceal this matter from you,” The Clan Chief said.

Even though he had already guessed that Tantai Xue possessed a decent relationship with the Icesnow Phoenixes, he had not expected her to hold such a status among the Icesnow Phoenixes.

Lady Chieftain? Didn’t that mean that Tantai Xue was the leader of these Icesnow Phoenixes?

“That’s right, Tantai Xue is our Icesnow Phoenix race’s actual ruler,” Seemingly knowing what Chu Feng was wondering about, the Clan Chief spoke to confirm it.

“Ssss~~~”

At that moment, even Chu Feng was unable to contain himself from sucking in a mouthful of cold air. Chu Feng rarely felt this astonished. However, this matter had truly surpassed his imagination.

Afterwards, the Clan Chief began to explain things to Chu Feng. From that, Chu Feng came to know a bit of the Icesnow Phoenixes' past.

It turned out that there was actually a special reason why the Icesnow Phoenixes, this group of mysterious monstrous beast, were this powerful in the Holy Land of Martialism.

Like the Ancient Era's Elves, the Icesnow Phoenixes were a race that had existed since the Ancient Era. They were products of the Ancient Era.

Although the Ancient Era was extremely far in the past, the records left behind by the Icesnow Phoenixes allowed them to know that they were not peak existences back then.

On the contrary, they were extremely weak and small in the Ancient Era. They were a small race that would frequently be bullied by others.

One day, the Icesnow Phoenixes offended an extremely powerful race in the Ancient Era, and nearly suffered the destruction of their entire race.

In the end, it was a human expert that saved them. Not only did that human expert save them, that expert had also taken upon himself the identity of an Icesnow Phoenix. That person began to stay with the Icesnow Phoenixes, and started to lead them on a path of conquest. That person allowed the Icesnow Phoenixes, a race that used to be bullied, to play a role in the Ancient Era.

Even though that person was a human, the Icesnow Phoenixes accepted that person as their Chief, and addressed that person as Chief the entire time.

However, one day, their human Chieftain suddenly left. Before leaving, that person took one of the Icesnow Phoenixes' treasures, the Coldsnow Dagger, with him.

Furthermore, that person said to the Icesnow Phoenixes, "If someone is to come here with this Coldsnow Dagger and is surnamed Tantai, that person will be my descendant. Icesnow Phoenixes, you all must treat my descendant well."

After many years had passed, that human Chieftain never reappeared, and his descendants never appeared either. However, the Icesnow Phoenixes remembered this matter the entire time. It was something that they remembered firmly, something that was passed down from their records.

By the words of their ancestors, they said, "Regardless of what cultivation that human Chieftain's descendant might have, regardless of what sort of moral conduct his descendant might have, as long as his descendant is to come find us Icesnow Phoenixes with the Coldsnow Dagger, his descendant shall be our Chief and we shall obediently follow their every order."

In fact, the reason why the Icesnow Phoenixes had guarded the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain the entire time was also because of their ancestors' instructions.

According to legend, long ago, there was a Dragon King's temple in the East China Sea. Several miles away from the Dragon King's temple was a vegetable field. The field was near another temple. The old monk in the temple was good friends with the old man who owned the field. One day, the old man told the old monk that his field was being watered without him watering it. The old monk decided to check it out, and saw that there was a goose-like monster watering the field every day for the 3 days that he surveyed the field. Then, on the fourth day, the monk decided to get his sword to fight the goose monster. He attacked the goose monster and angered it, causing it to flood the region and even the Dragon King's temple several miles away. The Dragon King was angered by the flood and dispatched his troops to attack the goose monster. The goose monster fought with the troops dispatched by the Dragon King for three days and three nights. In the end, it was no match for them, and ended up revealing its true form. It turned out to be the Dragon King's third son, the Third Prince. The Third Prince had been kicked out of the Eastern Sea because he had broken the law. His punishment had been set to three years. For the sake of providing meritorious service, the Third Prince had decided to do good deeds for mortals. However, after being attacked by the old monk, he ended up causing a flood. Furthermore, he had not dared to reveal himself when fighting against the Dragon King's troops. This was why this misunderstanding came to be. Basically... family fighting family because they failed to recognize them.

Chapter 2045 – Removing Poison

Before Tantai Xue arrived here, she had not known that the Icesnow Phoenixes would actually have such an instruction from their ancestors. The reason for that was because the news she had obtained from the Coldsnow Dagger only said that she would be given assistance as long as she could find the Icesnow Phoenixes.

Thus, when Tantai Xue got to this place, and was given the title of Chieftain by the Icesnow Phoenixes, she was extremely surprised, and was a bit unable to get accustomed to it.

However, after some insistence by the Icesnow Phoenixes, she ended up accepting it. Furthermore, she even planned to lead the Icesnow Phoenixes into the Holy Land of Martialism's Overlord Domain to help Chu Feng.

This was also the reason why the Icesnow Phoenixes knew about Chu Feng.

However, good things do not last forever. During the process where the Icesnow Phoenixes were using their special methods to assist Tantai Xue in rapidly gaining cultivation, they actually ended up failing. Because of that, Tantai Xue ended up entering a deep sleep.

However, this sort of thing was something that had happened to the Icesnow Phoenixes before. Thus, they also had a method to handle it.

Thus, at that time, the Icesnow Phoenixes did not panic, and only laid Tantai Xue onto their treasure, the Coldsnow Bed.

They had thought that as long as Tantai Xue recuperated on the Coldsnow Bed, she would one day awaken.

Furthermore, due to the fact that Tantai Xue was asleep, and the Icesnow Phoenixes wanted to wait until she woke up so that she could personally lead them to find Chu Feng, they did not leave to find Chu Feng.

However, as time passed, Tantai Xue remained asleep. Furthermore, her health became worse and worse. The situation already surpassed what the Icesnow Phoenixes had expected.

Feeling helpless, the Icesnow Phoenixes that had not left the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain for tens of thousands of years decided to leave to find powerful world spiritists to help Tantai Xue recover.

The strongest world spiritist in the Holy Land of Martialism was the Heaven Reaching Immortal. However, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was someone that was in closed-door training all year round. Furthermore, he did not have a fixed residence. And, most importantly, he did not concern himself with the matters of the world. Thus, it was simply impossible to find him.

in this sort of situation, the Icesnow Phoenixes decided to settle for the second best, and had gone to search for the World Devastator Immortal's assistance.

However, after the World Devastator Immortal arrived, he was powerless against Tantai Xue's illness.

At the moment when the Icesnow Phoenixes were nearly driven to despair, the World Devastator Immortal recommended the Dark Hall's Hall Master to them.

After the Dark Hall's Hall Master arrived, he managed to stabilize Tantai Xue's deteriorating illness. However, he was unable to wake Tantai Xue.

He said that Tantai Xue's illness was fine. Merely, they would need to slowly nurse her back to health in order to wake her up. Furthermore, he said that he could heal her on one condition — he demanded that the Dark Hall be established in the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain.

Seeing that Tantai Xue's illness had made a change for the better, the Icesnow Phoenixes were extremely grateful. At that time, they reacted as if they had seen their savior. Thus, they agreed to the Dark Hall's Hall Master's request.

Later on, the Dark Hall's Hall Master requested to become allies with the Icesnow Phoenixes. As for that, the Icesnow Phoenixes accepted without the slightest hesitation either.

However, from there, the Dark Hall's Hall Master's demands had grown more and more excessive. In the end, he had even requested for the Icesnow Phoenixes to assist them in taking care of the Ancient Era's Elves.

Naturally, the Icesnow Phoenixes refused this sort of demand. As for the Dark Hall's Hall Master, he was also very tactful. From that point onward, he never requested it again.

However, several days ago, the Dark Hall's Hall Master once again dispatched his men to the Icesnow Phoenixes, stating that the Ancient Era's Elves would come to attack the Dark Hall, and demanded that Icesnow Phoenixes assist in holding them back.

Originally, the Icesnow Phoenixes were planning to refuse his request. After all, no matter how strong the Icesnow Phoenixes might be, they still knew how powerful the Ancient Era's Elves were. As such, they did not wish to become enemies with the Ancient Era's Elves because of the Dark Hall.

However, the Dark Hall began to threaten them with Tantai Xue's health. As Tantai Xue was the Icesnow Phoenixes' weak spot, upon consideration that there might not be anyone capable of saving Tantai Xue should the Dark Hall be defeated and the Dark Hall's Hall Master be killed, the Icesnow Phoenixes ended up agreeing to their request.

That was the reason why the Icesnow Phoenixes had blocked the Ancient Era's Elves' army earlier.

“The Dark Hall’s Hall Master is truly despicable,” After hearing what had happened, Chu Feng cursed out.

“Little friend Chu Feng, why do you say that?” Hearing those words, the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief’s expression changed.

“While it might true that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master alleviated Tantai Xue’s illness, Tantai Xue should have awakened by now.”

“However, the reason why she did not wake up is because there is a kind of poison in her body. It is that poison that makes her unable to wake up.”

“As for that poison, it should have been placed there by the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. As senior said, even if you all failed to increase Tantai Xue’s cultivation, it should only lead to damage to her body and definitely not to her being poisoned,” Chu Feng said.

“There we go. The poison in Tantai Xue’s body was most definitely put there by that Dark Hall’s Hall Master. The reason why he did not wake up Tantai Xue was precisely so that he could use her to control you all,” Chu Feng said.

“Control? Why must he control us?”

“We asked him here to treat our Lady Chieftain’s illness. How could he do this sort of thing?” The Clan Chief revealed an expression of anger.

“If he is to completely cure Tantai Xue’s illness and wake her up, then even if you all are to go back on your words and kick them out of the Ten Thousand Miles Snow Domain, there would be nothing that he could do about it.”

“But, if Tantai Xue’s illness could not be cured, you all would have to rely on him. Thus... he would definitely have to hold a tight grasp on Tantai Xue, his bargaining chip,” Chu Feng explained.

“Damn it. I’ve truly grown more muddled in my old age. I have lived for over ten thousand years, yet I was actually exploited by a member of the younger generation.”

“Not only was I myself taken advantage of, I even harmed Lady Chieftain, and ended up getting her poisoned. I am truly foolish,” After hearing about this, the Clan Chief was extremely furious. At the same time, he started to blame himself.

“Senior, please don’t worry. Although that poison is very strong, it is only capable of keeping Tantai Xue asleep. It will not harm her.”

“After I remove the poison, Tantai Xue will wake up,” Chu Feng said.

“Truly?” Hearing those words, the Clan Chief revealed a shocked expression. Then, he asked, “Little friend Chu Feng, you know world spirit techniques?”

“Then, little friend Chu Feng, how certain are you in being able to remove Lady Chieftain’s poison?” The Clan Chief asked.

“I am ninety-nine percent certain,” Chu Feng said confidently.

“Since that’s the case, I will trouble little friend Chu Feng then. Please remove the poison from Lady Chieftain as quickly as possible,” The Clan Chief urged. He felt extremely uneasy just knowing that Tantai Xue had been poisoned.

However, even though he was urging Chu Feng to quickly remove Tantai Xue’s poison, there were still misgivings in the gaze with which he looked at Chu Feng.

No matter what, he was certain that Tantai Xue's illness was not simple. Else, she would've already woken up.

As for Chu Feng, he was so young. Would he truly be able to wake up Tantai Xue? To put it frankly, he was not confident in Chu Feng.

It was not that he did not trust Chu Feng. Rather, he did not believe that Chu Feng would truly be able to help Tantai Xue regain consciousness.

Thus, even though he was the one who was telling Chu Feng to help Tantai Xue, he only did so as an attempt to try out their luck.

In actuality, he did not possess much hope that Chu Feng would succeed.

Chapter 2046 – Overflowing Killing Intent

Chu Feng began to set up a spirit formation to remove Tantai Xue's poison on the spot.

Merely, the poison was very remarkable and well-hidden. It was actually hidden in her dantian.

Fortunately, it was Chu Feng. If it were any other Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, they would have likely not been able to discover the poison at all.

Due to the poison being so well-hidden, it was very hard to remove. Thus, even for Chu Feng, it took him an entire day to remove the poison.

“This is the poison.”

Chu Feng showed a dust-sized substance to the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief.

The Clan Chief possessed superb eyesight. Even though that substance was extremely small, he was able to tell with a single glance that it was indeed a sort of poison.

“Dark Hall, oh Dark Hall, you are truly wretched!” After personally seeing the poison, Chu Feng was able to see overwhelming killing intent in the eyes of the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief.

Chu Feng understood his killing intent completely. It would be one thing if they had only been deceived. However, at the same time they had been deceived, harm had actually been wrought to their most important person. This was something that they would not be able to tolerate.

“Wuu~~” Right at that moment, a female's voice was suddenly heard.

After that female's voice was heard, Chu Feng and the Clan Chief immediately trembled. It was as if they had been struck by lightning.

After all, other than the two of them, both men, the only other person here, a woman, was the sleeping Tantai Xue.

Awakened. Tantai Xue who had been asleep for a very long time had awakened.

The two of them looked to Tantai Xue. Sure enough, she had awakened. Not only that, she had also propped her body up, and was now sitting up in the bed and rubbing her eyes.

When she opened her eyes and saw Chu Feng, she immediately revealed a disappointed expression.

Chu Feng was startled and confused by her expression.

The Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief was the same. Neither of them understood why Tantai Xue would have a disappointed expression on her face. She should be pleasantly surprised to see Chu Feng.

At the moment when Chu Feng and the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief were confused, Tantai Xue lowered her head and muttered, "Another dream."

Dream. It turned out that Tantai Xue had considered the scene before her to be a dream. That was why she was disappointed.

"It seems you've had a lot of dreams," Seeing that, Chu Feng walked over to the bed and looked to Tantai Xue in a heartfelt manner. He said, "However, this is not a dream. Tantai Xue, it's me, Chu Feng. I have come to find you."

"Chu Feng?" Hearing those words, Tantai Xue immediately raised her head and grabbed Chu Feng tightly. She began to carefully inspect Chu Feng with her eyes.

After inspecting Chu Feng, she became certain that the person before her was indeed Chu Feng, and that she was not dreaming, for the Chu Feng in her dreams would not be this realistic.

“Chu Feng!!!”

After verifying that Chu Feng was before her, Tantai Xue’s eyes started to grow moist. This girl who was always strong actually started to cry.

Seeing Tantai Xue crying, Chu Feng’s heart started to ache. He realized that the poison that she had been given might have had a hallucinatory effect. Thus, even though Tantai Xue had been sleeping the whole time, her days had most likely not been very well either.

While she had been asleep, Tantai Xue had been dreaming the entire time. Tantai Xue was a very smart individual. She knew clearly that she was dreaming. However, she had been unable to break free from those dreams. Likely... that would be an extremely painful experience for her.

Thinking about that, Chu Feng held Tantai Xue in his bosom. He knew that what she needed right now was a warm hug.

Chu Feng, as Tantai Xue’s closest friend, should give Tantai Xue that warm hug so that she could entrust herself to him.

Sure enough, Tantai Xue did not refuse Chu Feng’s hug. Instead, she lay herself on Chu Feng’s bosom. It was as if a lost child had finally returned home.

Furthermore, she was tightly grabbing onto Chu Feng’s clothes, seemingly afraid that Chu Feng would leave.

“I’m sorry. I’ve come late. If I had come sooner, you might not have had to sleep for so long,” Chu Feng said in a very apologetic manner.

Seeing that scene, the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief showed a beaming smile across his face. He was extremely happy because of Tantai Xue’s awakening, and wanted to say a lot of things to her. However, he did not say anything at that moment. Instead, he quietly walked out of the room and closed the door.

He first wiped the corners of his eyes dry. There were two droplets of tears. They were tears of joy. He felt joy from the bottom of his heart to see Tantai Xue waking up.

However, after he wiped the tears from his eyes, the Clan Chief's eyes shone with light. Overwhelming killing intent once again appeared in his eyes.

With a low voice, he muttered, "Dark Hall, I am definitely going to make you all pay."

.....

An entire day had passed since Chu Feng had left, yet there was still no news from Chu Feng.

This caused the Ancient Era's Elves to become worried for Chu Feng's safety.

Even though Chu Feng had left smiling, they were distrusting of the Icesnow Phoenixes. After all, the Icesnow Phoenixes were allied with the Dark Hall.

"Step aside, or hand little friend Chu Feng over right now. Choose one!"

"Else, you all shall suffer the consequences!"

Right at that moment, an angry shout was heard. That shout caused the earth to tremble and the snowflakes in the sky to freeze in place.

It was the Elf King. He had been attempting to negotiate with the Icesnow Phoenixes the entire time. However, the Icesnow Phoenixes had refused to give him a clear-cut answer. Being extremely worried for Chu Feng, he finally spoke threatening words.

"Elf King, I think you are mistaken here. Did you really think that we Icesnow Phoenixes would be afraid of you just because you brought such a huge mob with you?”

“I’ll tell you the same thing as before. If you wish to fight, go ahead and attack us. However, it’ll be as you say, you shall suffer the consequences,” The Icesnow Phoenix with the cultivation of rank eight Martial Emperor spoke confidently.

Compared to the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief, that Icesnow Phoenix was even more unafraid of the Ancient Era’s Elves. Thus, when he spoke, he took a deliberate glance at the enormous rank nine Martial Emperor-level Icesnow Phoenix in the sky.

“Roar~~~”

Seemingly under his control, that enormous Icesnow Phoenix suddenly let out an ear-piercing bird’s roar. Following that, its two enormous wings started to flutter, bringing forth a strong wind.

Blown by that strong wind, overflowing snowflakes and bone-chilling coldness immediately swept the Ancient Era’s Elves’ army left and right.

Fortunately, the Elf King used his own strength to block the wind. Else, merely the wind itself was capable of utterly defeating their army.

“Are you planning to start a war here?” The Elf King asked with a heavy tone. With how much the Icesnow Phoenixes did not place them in their eyes, he would’ve already attacked them had Chu Feng not been in their hands. After all, they had already been prepared to fight against the Icesnow Phoenixes before they came here.

“Think what you wish,” That Icesnow Phoenix with the ring in his hand was still smiling with a disdainful expression on his face.

“Hehehe...”

“We had thought that the Ancient Era’s Elves were bold. Turns out, they’re only this much. Hahaha,” Seeing that the Icesnow Phoenixes were looking down on the Ancient Era’s Elves this much, but the Ancient Era's Elves still didn't attack, the people from the Dark Hall started to loudly mock the Ancient Era's Elves.

Chapter 2047 – From Enemy To Friend

“You bunch of damned animals!” Seeing that the people from the Dark Hall actually dared to mock them, the Ancient Era’s Elves’ experts all drew their weapons. They were planning to attack.

“Stop!”

Before Chu Feng’s return, he could not be certain if any mishap had happened. However, he knew that Chu Feng was in their hands. In this sort of situation, he truly could not attack them willfully.

If the Icesnow Phoenixes truly did something to Chu Feng, battling with them would be fine.

However, if nothing happened to Chu Feng, yet they decided to fight it out on this side and kill the Icesnow Phoenixes, even if Chu Feng was fine now, he would definitely not be fine later.

“Hahaha, come, attack. After all this time, and even after bringing all those stone monsters, turns out all you have is nothing more than false bravado,” The people from the Dark hall continued to mock and laugh.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a figure suddenly descended from the air. When that person descended to the ground, the crowd discovered that it was the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief.

“We pay our respects to Lord Clan Chief,” When the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief appeared, all of the Icesnow Phoenixes bowed to greet him. It could be seen that this Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief possessed an extremely high status among the Icesnow Phoenixes.

Seeing that the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief returned with Chu Feng nowhere to be seen, the Elf King was unable to contain himself, and asked, "Clan Chief Icesnow, where is Chu Feng?"

As for the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief, he did not immediately answer the Elf King. Instead, he retrieved the ring from the Rank 8 Martial Emperor Icesnow Phoenix holding it. After he put the ring on his finger, he pointed to the sky.

"Buzz~~~"

The ring shone with a bright light. As the light enveloped the sky, the enormous Icesnow Phoenix turned into a ray of light and returned into the ring.

When that enormous Icesnow Phoenix disappeared, the bone-chilling sensation and overwhelming oppressive might also disappeared.

Then, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief shouted to his clansmen, "Make way."

Even though the Icesnow Phoenixes were confused as to their Clan Chief's intentions, they did not dare to speak against him. Thus, they immediately moved aside and revealed a wide path.

When even the Icesnow Phoenixes did not understand the intentions of their Clan Chief, the Elf King and the others would naturally be even more puzzled.

"Everyone, little friend Chu Feng is currently waiting for you all in our Icesnow Phoenix clan. Right now, as the Icesnow Phoenix race's Clan Chief, I wish to invite you all as guests to our Icesnow Phoenix clan," The Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief said to the Elf King.

"!!!!"

Hearing those words, the people from the Ancient Era's Elves' allied army were all startled.

What was going on? Weren't they extremely hostile toward one another earlier, to the point where they were going to fight a battle to the death? Why would he be inviting them to be guests now?

This change was too fast, no?!!!

Even though they were very surprised, it remained that the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief had retrieved that enormous Icesnow Phoenix, the only thing capable of being a threat to them. Thus, they were able to tell how sincere that Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief was.

"Thank you for your trouble."

In response, the Elf King began to lead the Ancient Era's Elves' army toward the Icesnow Phoenixes' territory.

"Hey!!!"

"What's going on with you all?! Lord Hall Master told you all to come here to stop them! Why are you letting them pass?!" Seeing this scene, the people from the Dark Hall were all unable to contain themselves.

"Icesnow Phoenixes, listen up," At that moment, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief shouted again. He then turned his ice-cold gaze toward the people from the Dark Hall and ordered, "Kill all of these people from the Dark Hall."

Hearing those words, not to mention the people from the Dark Hall, even the Ancient Era's Elves and the others were stunned. In fact, even the Icesnow Phoenixes themselves were stunned.

What was going on? Not only did they convert an enemy into a friend, they were actually going to kill the people from the Dark Hall, their former allies? This wouldn't be a joke, right?

Could it be that this was a conspiracy?

The Ancient Era's Elves began to ponder.

"Kill!!!!!!!"

Even though the Icesnow Phoenixes were extremely puzzled, they still complied with their Clan Chief's order.

One by one, they took out their weapons and began to massacre the people from the Dark Hall.

“You unfaithful bas...”

“No!!!!”

How could the people from the Dark Hall possibly be a match for the Icesnow Phoenixes? At that moment, other than screaming and crying for help, the only thing they could do was curse at the Icesnow Phoenixes.

However, none of that could change the reality before them. Before absolute power, the people from the Dark Hall and those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts were soon massacred by the Icesnow Phoenixes.

In fact, not even a single intact corpse remained. The only thing that remained was blood frozen atop the ice glaciers.

“Gulp.”

After personally seeing the methods of the Icesnow Phoenixes, the experts from the Ancient Era's Elves' army involuntarily gulped down a mouthful of saliva.

As the saying goes, ‘take what you hear to be false, only believe it when you see it’. Just then, they had seen for themselves exactly how powerful and fierce the Icesnow Phoenixes were.

At that moment, they all felt traces of rejoice in their hearts.

They were glad that they had not waged war against the Icesnow Phoenixes earlier. Else, with the strength of the Icesnow Phoenixes, even if they were able to defeat them, they would definitely have suffered a disastrous amount of casualties.

“Everyone, please.”

At that moment, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief walked to the front of the crowd and began to personally lead the way for the Elf King and the others.

“Your Majesty, this...” Everything had happened too quickly. The crowd was still unable to react to it. Thus, they all looked to the Elf King.

“Haha...” At that moment, the Elf King smiled brilliantly. Then, he said, “It’s definitely our little friend Chu Feng. He once again changed the battle situation by himself. He has once again helped us win another battle.”

“The way I see it, the Icesnow Phoenixes will no longer be our great enemy. Likely, they will instead become our allies.”

“.....”

Hearing those words, the crowd all came to a sudden realization. Upon thinking about it, it was only Chu Feng who could create such an enormous change in such a short period of time.

After confirming that Chu Feng had reversed the battle situation and converted their great enemy, the Icesnow Phoenixes, into their allies, the crowd was pleased beyond expectation, and also endlessly astonished.

Just like that, the Ancient Era’s Elves’ army entered the Icesnow Phoenixes’ territory.

Due to the fact that the Icesnow Phoenixes’ territory was not very large, the army stationed themselves outside. However, the Icesnow Phoenixes treated them like important guests. They prepared top-notch food and wine for the Ancient Era’s Elves’ alliance army.

Neither the food nor the wine were ordinary. Instead, they were capable of replenishing one’s spirit power and martial power. In fact, they were treasures capable of temporarily increasing one’s battle power.

At the moment when the Ancient Era’s Elves’ army was being entertained, the top experts like the Elf King, the Four Grand Elders, the Eight Great Protectors, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and some others were invited into the Icesnow Phoenixes' territory.

In the Icesnow Phoenixes' territory was a vast plaza. All of the Icesnow Phoenixes' upper echelons were gathered in the plaza.

It seemed the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief had an important announcement to make.

Chapter 2048 – Exceptional Treasure

“Everyone, I am truly sorry. I was incompetent, and ended up being exploited by the Dark Hall’s Hall Master,” After everyone was gathered, the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief used a very resounding voice to explain to the crowd how the people from the Dark Hall had exploited them, and what had happened in the process.

Due to the fact that the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief’s voice was extremely resounding, not only did all of the Icesnow Phoenixes hear it, even the Ancient Era’s Elves’ allied army outside the Icesnow Phoenixes’ territory heard it.

“Sure enough, it’s little friend Chu Feng.”

After the Icesnow Phoenixes learned the truth, they were extremely furious. However, as for the Ancient Era’s Elves, they were not only furious. At the same time, they were also feeling great admiration.

Of course, they were not admiring the Icesnow Phoenixes, nor were they admiring the Dark Hall. Rather, they were admiring Chu Feng.

As matters stood, they were absolutely certain that such a dramatic change had happened because of Chu Feng.

It would be one thing if it was in the past. However, Chu Feng had actually managed to convert enemies into friends at such a crucial time. As such, the significance of his actions was completely different.

“Never would I have expected that little friend Chu Feng not only possesses a lot of friends, his friends are all extraordinary people too,” At that moment, Zhang Ming spoke with a beaming smile.

“Indeed,” The Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others also nodded to express their approval. Like Zhang Ming, they also had beaming smiles on their faces.

First it was Du Wanwu, a frightening existence that nearly brought about the complete annihilation of the Ancient Era's Elves' army. Yet... he was Chu Feng's friend.

And now, another of Chu Feng's friends had appeared. This friend of his seemed even more exceptional. This friend was actually the Chieftain of the strongest and most mysterious monstrous beasts in the Holy Land of Martialism.

To have this many friends, and for his friends to be this exceptional, the crowd all felt endless admiration for Chu Feng.

.....

After he finished his announcement, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief began to organize the army of Icesnow Phoenixes. He was determined to join hands with the Ancient Era's Elves to eradicate the Dark Hall for taking advantage of them.

After the troops were organized, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief arrived at the castle that Tantai Xue lived in.

After he entered Tantai Xue's room, he discovered that Chu Feng was still chatting with Tantai Xue. The two of them had smiles on their faces and were chatting very joyously. There was no longer any trace of the sentimental feelings they had revealed earlier.

Upon seeing the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief, Chu Feng walked forward and said, "Lord Clan Chief, let's set off right away."

Even though Chu Feng was here, he knew what had happened outside. He knew... that they must quickly take care of the Dark Hall, that they could not allow the Dark Hall time to prepare.

"Little friend Chu Feng, I actually wanted to tell you to stay here to accompany our Lady Chieftain. You can leave the Dark Hall to us," The Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief said to Chu Feng.

The way he saw it, Chu Feng's strength was limited. Rather than following them into battle, it would be safer for him to stay here.

However, Chu Feng shook his head. He said, "This matter concerns me deeply. No matter what, I must go. Even if my strength might be limited, I must still personally see to the death of that Dark Hall's Hall Master."

"This..." Seeing Chu Feng acting like this, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief appeared to have been placed in a difficult situation. However, in the end, he smiled and said, "Very well then."

"Chu Feng, wait a moment," However, right at the moment when the two of them were about to leave, Tantai Xue suddenly spoke to stop them. Then, she said to the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief, "Senior, I have one thing I would like to request of you. I hope that you will agree to it."

"Lady Chieftain, you are our Chieftain. Whatever it is, you can just command me. As long as I am able to accomplish it, I will definitely do it. Even if it is impossible for me to accomplish, I will also do my best to attempt to accomplish it. I will definitely not go against your orders," The Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief said in a very serious manner. It could be seen that he was completely devoted to Tantai Xue.

Hearing those words, Tantai Xue revealed a relaxed expression. Then, she took an exquisite case from her Cosmos Sack.

"Lady Chieftain, you couldn't possibly be..." Seeing that case, the expression of the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief immediately changed.

"Senior, please allow me," Tantai Xue raised the case up high and abruptly knelt before the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief.

However, before Tantai Xue's knees could hit the ground, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief supported her with his arms. At that moment, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief had an expression of helplessness across his face. He had a wry smile on his face as he said, “That belongs to you. Regardless of what you wish to do with it, I will not stop you.”

“Thank you senior,” Hearing those words, Tantai Xue smiled brilliantly. Then, she opened the case and handed it to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, take a look. Are you capable of refining it?”

A burst of coldness immediately emitted from the opened case.

After the coldness spread out, Chu Feng was able to see that there was a walnut-sized pearl in the case.

At first glance, that pearl appeared like a glass pearl. There didn’t seem to be anything special about it.

However, upon closer inspection, Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously, and intense shock appeared in his eyes.

Chu Feng saw a world of ice and snow in that pearl. Contained within that world of ice and snow were countless amounts of Icesnow Phoenixes. They were spiraling around in that world.

After seeing all that, Chu Feng felt an incomparably strong Natural Energy being emitted from that pearl. That natural energy assailed Chu Feng directly in the face.

Furthermore, that Natural Energy was incomparably pure. It did not possess any berserk nature. Not to mention Chu Feng, even ordinary people would be able to absorb and refine it.

The Natural Energy was truly too dense. It was so unimaginably dense. It could be said to be the densest amount of Natural Energy Chu Feng had ever encountered so far. Most importantly, such a dense amount of Natural Energy was actually not berserk in the slightest.

That was most definitely a treasure, an exceptional treasure, a priceless treasure. Even the Imperial Armaments that everyone wanted to obtain in the Holy Land of Martialism would be greatly inferior to that pearl’s preciousness.

“That is our Icesnow Phoenix Race’s Clan Protection Treasure. It has been passed on from the Ancient Era, and kept safe by our successive Clan Chiefs. It is a cultivation resource that only our Clan Chiefs use,” The Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief said.

“It’s actually that precious?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart tightened. He knew he would be able to obtain enormous power should he refine that pearl. Furthermore, what he needed the most right now was to increase his cultivation. In other words, that pearl was what Chu Feng needed the most.

After sensing the Natural Energy contained within the pearl, the first thing that came to Chu Feng’s mind was that his cultivation would be able to increase again.

But, after he discovered the origin of that pearl, Chu Feng started to hesitate. The reason for that was because that pearl was extremely significant to the Icesnow Phoenixes.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I have heard from Lady Chieftain that you possess a special method that could allow you to refine Natural Energies all at once. Furthermore, you are able to perfectly absorb all of the Natural Energy.”

“The purpose of this pearl’s existence is to increase the cultivation of our Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chiefs. However, the method with which our Icesnow Phoenixes increase our cultivation is by relying on our own Bloodline’s power and training with it.”

“To us, that pearl is actually not extremely effective in assisting with our cultivation. As of now, it is nothing more than a souvenir.”

“If little friend Chu feng is truly capable of utilizing that pearl to perfection and completely refining all of the Natural Energy contained within it, it would be a good thing.”

“Furthermore, Lady Chieftain has already determined to give it to you. Thus, it already no longer belongs to our Icesnow Phoenix Race. Instead, it is yours now.”

“Thus, little friend Chu Feng, you must definitely not decline it. If you’re truly able to refine it, then go ahead and refine it,” The Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief said with a beaming smile. Although he was reluctant to part with the pearl, he still respected Tantai Xue’s decision.

Chapter 2049 – Rank Four Martial Emperor

“Chu Feng, it has always been you helping me. If it wasn’t for you... I would’ve never been able to come here and meet these seniors who have treated me like their relatives. You allowed me to find a home again.”

“Chu Feng, let me help you this one time. As you always say, if you consider me as your friend, don’t act this modest,” Tantai Xue looked at Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

Tantai Xue was someone who rarely smiled. However, today, she had smiled a lot. Today was probably the day that Chu Feng had seen the most smiles from Tantai Xue since the day he had met her.

Seeing Tantai Xue saying it like this, Chu Feng also smiled. He was an understanding person. Thus, he merely smiled, and did not even say thank you to Tantai Xue.

After Chu Feng smiled, he suddenly opened his mouth and directly swallowed the pearl.

“Little friend Chu Feng, what are you doing? Quickly, spit it out.”

“Even if the Natural Energy contained in that pearl is extremely pure, you still can’t do this.”

“Regardless of how pure the Natural Energy might be, if you are to consume too much of it, it will still cause side-effects.”

“Quick, you must spit it out and refine it slowly,” The Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief was greatly alarmed upon seeing this scene.

However, Chu Feng only smiled. Then, he sat cross-legged on the ground, clasped his palms together and closed his eyes.

Chu Feng actually ignored the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief’s advice and began to refine the pearl.

“Senior, let him be. Chu Feng is different from us. He possesses his own method of cultivation,” Tantai Xue said.

“But, even if that is the case, to cultivate like this, is it really fine? Isn’t it too risky?” After Tantai Xue spoke, that Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief no longer tried to stop Chu Feng. Merely, he continued to look at Chu Feng with a skeptical gaze. He still did not believe that Chu Feng would be able to refine that much, pure Natural Energy at once.

However, Chu Feng’s body was extremely special. Thus, after that pearl entered Chu Feng’s body, even the rank eight Martial Emperor-level Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief was unable to see the situation within Chu Feng’s body.

Time passed quickly. Chu Feng had sat for an entire hour now. After an entire hour had passed, Tantai Xue also became slightly worried.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was frowning deeply. Furthermore, his frown was growing more and more creased. This sort of situation persisted for an entire hour.

Fortunately, after that hour passed, Chu Feng’s creased brows started to unfold. Furthermore, a relaxed smile appeared on his face. Soon, he opened his eyes.

“Tantai Xue, you have truly helped me enormously,” After Chu Feng opened his eyes, he immediately got up. He first expressed his thanks to Tantai Xue, and then clasped his fist at the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief, “Senior, thank you for this great gift. Junior will definitely repay senior’s kindness.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, could it be that you’ve succeeded? You managed to completely refine the Natural Energy contained in that pearl?” The Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief looked to Chu Feng with an astonished expression.

Even though he was unable to see through Chu Feng’s cultivation, Chu Feng’s complexion was a lot rosier. This sort of reaction was extremely unusual. At the very least, it meant that Chu Feng had not received any backlash from the pearl.

However, this came as an astonishment for him. Even if Chu Feng could refine that pearl, it shouldn't be this fast, no?

“Senior, please have a look. This is the power bestowed to me by that pearl.”

As Chu Feng spoke, his clothes suddenly fluttered. Then, a boundless aura swept forth.

Upon sensing Chu Feng's aura, not to mention the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief, even Tantai Xue revealed an astonished expression.

Chu Feng's aura was no longer that of a rank two Martial Emperor. Instead, it was that of a rank four Martial Emperor.

Through that pearl, Chu Feng had increased two entire levels of cultivation, and directly became an actual rank four Martial Emperor.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you only managed to increase your cultivation by two levels after completely refining that pearl?” However, after being astonished, the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief was surprised.

The way he saw it, Chu Feng had most definitely completely refined that pearl. However, with how dense the Natural Energy contained in that pearl was, it should not have been difficult for Chu Feng to directly reach peak Martial Emperor. However, Chu Feng's cultivation had only increased by two levels. This made him feel extremely puzzled.

“Senior, my Inherited Bloodline is a bit special. I need a lot of Natural Energy to reach a breakthrough in my cultivation.”

“For ordinary people, they will generally train with mysterious techniques to absorb Natural Energy in order to achieve enlightenment and reach a breakthrough. For them, cultivation resources are only complementary items that can allow them to reach a breakthrough sooner. The reason for that is because, if they cannot achieve enlightenment and sense the opportunity to break through, regardless of how concentrated the Natural Energy contained in their bodies might be, they will still be unable to reach a breakthrough.”

“As for my Inherited Bloodline, its strength is that I will very rarely encounter any bottlenecks during my breakthroughs. Ever since my Inherited Bloodline awoke, I have only rarely reached a wall when attempting to break through. Even when I do, I will easily be able to obtain enlightenment. Thus, as long as I possess sufficient amounts of Natural Energy in my dantian, I will be able to increase my cultivation.”

“However, the disadvantage of my Inherited Bloodline is that I require a frightening amount of Natural Energy to break through. Thus, this leads to me being unable to use mysterious techniques to absorb Natural Energy. Ever since my Inherited Bloodline awakened, I have been searching for external sources of Natural Energy the entire time.”

“Not long after I arrived in the Holy Land of Martialism, ordinary Martial Beads ended up being completely useless to me. I ended up only being able to reach a breakthrough through refining Natural Oddities. However, as matters stand, I am rarely able to find cultivation resources that can increase my cultivation in the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“For the Icesnow Phoenix Race’s pearl that was passed on from the Ancient Era to be able to increase my cultivation by two entire levels is something that even I would not have dared imagine to be possible,” Chu Feng explained to the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief.

“Never would I have thought that little friend Chu Feng would possess such a special Inherited Bloodline. However, the way I see it, that is not a bad thing at all. Instead, it’s a very good thing. For you to not need to comprehend the Natural Energy and the opportunity to reach a breakthrough, it is something that countless people yearn for in their dreams,” After hearing what Chu Feng said, the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief actually revealed a trace of envy in his eyes.

“Tantai Xue, Lord Clan Chief.”

“I am not being pretentious here. You all have truly helped me enormously.”

“Thus, please accept this gesture of respect from me,” As Chu Feng spoke, he began to bow to the two of them.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing? Is there really a need for this?” Tantai Xue was a bit displeased by Chu Feng expressing his thanks again.

Chu Feng laughed and said, “It is not that I am being overly courteous. Rather, I am too excited. You see, not only did I managed to obtain Natural Energy from that pearl, I also obtained a Taboo Martial Skill.”

“Taboo Martial Skill?” Both Tantai Xue and the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief were startled upon hearing those words.

“When we encounter the people from the Dark Hall, I can display it to Lord Clan Chief,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. Let us set off then,” The Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief said happily.

Then, the Icesnow Phoenixes’ Clan Chief, the Elf King, Chu Feng and the allied army began to majestically proceed toward the Dark Hall’s headquarters.

At that moment. In that frightening palace in the Dark Hall’s headquarters. Xue Ji appeared before the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“What did you say?! Chu Feng actually knew that Icesnow Phoenix Race’s girl? Furthermore, the Icesnow Phoenix Race has become allies of the Ancient Era's Elves now?!" At that moment, the Dark Hall's Hall Master revealed an extremely marvelous expression.

He was angry, furious, shocked, and panicky.

He had trusted the Icesnow Phoenixes deeply. He felt that the Icesnow Phoenixes definitely possessed the strength to be able to stop the Ancient Era's Elves for him.

However, he had not expected Xue Ji to bring him this sort of news upon her return.

Chapter 2050 – Have Committed All Sorts Of Evil

“That’s not all. I think that Chu Feng has already woken up that girl. Else, that Icesnow Phoenix old man would not have immediately eliminated the people from our Dark Hall upon his return,” Xue Ji said.

“Chu Feng, it’s Chu Feng again. If I knew this was going to happen, I would’ve crippled him at the Blood Devouring Killing Formation!”

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master was so furious that his complexion turned blue. His veins were all bulging and raging flames filled his heart. He was nearly on the verge of exploding.

Back then, he had simply not placed Chu Feng in his eyes at all. He had felt that the only obstacle in the Holy Land of Martialism that was capable of getting in his way were the Ancient Era’s Elves, that his only opponents were the Ancient Era’s Elves.

As for Chu Feng, a person who was also from the Outer World like him, he had not placed him in his eyes at all. He had not worried about Chu Feng, and had merely considered him to be a plaything.

However, his many plans had now all been ruined because of Chu Feng. If it hadn’t been for Chu Feng, he might have already eliminated the Ancient Era’s Elves, and turned the Dark Hall into the ruler of the Holy Land of Martialism.

“You’re not the only one that underestimated Chu Feng. Thus, you don’t have to blame yourself.”

“The problem we have at hand is that the Icesnow Phoenixes will definitely come to attack us should they find out the truth.”

“Likely, the newly formed Alliance Army will also arrive soon. With our current strength, we will likely not be able to withstand them.”

“Thus... we must withdraw from this place. If we are to withdraw now, if it is only you and I, we will be able to get away,” Xue Ji said to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Withdraw? How could we withdraw? If we are to withdraw now, wouldn’t all of our efforts go to waste?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master looked down below him. His eyes were filled with reluctance.

“Xue Ji, if I were to forcibly refine that thing right now, what would happen?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master asked.

“I’m not certain. However, at the very least, you will not die. Merely, it will be imperfect,” Xue Ji said.

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master narrowed his eyes. He began to enter deep contemplation. After a long while, he said, “Release World Devastator and Immeasurable. Give the order to all the people of our Dark Hall.”

“Tell them, prepare for battle!!!”

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master came to that decision. Xue Ji smiled faintly. Then, without any hesitation, she said, “Got it.”

.....

Soon, the Alliance Army had arrived at the Dark Hall’s headquarters. It was a vast snowy valley.

Merely, countless Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts and people from the Dark Hall were densely packed over the top of the snowy valley.

Some of the people from the Dark Hall were not wearing masks. All those that weren’t wearing masks were familiar faces.

They were the World Devastator Immortal, the Immeasurable Immortal, the Heavenly Law Palace’s Palace Master, the Mortal King Palace’s Palace Master and some of the management elders from the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace.

One thing worthy of being mentioned was that the leader of this group of people was a person who was also not wearing a mask. That man did not conceal his cultivation. He was a rank five Martial Emperor. At that moment, he was standing at the position of the boss. Evidently... he was the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

“What a show. You were originally my allies. Yet, you all are now standing against me with my enemies.”

“Chu Feng, I've heard that it's all because of your good deed.” The Dark Hall's Hall Master looked to Chu Feng with a beaming smile. However, his smiling gaze was filled with killing intent.

Hatred. He felt enormously deep hatred for Chu Feng.

“”What I've done was naturally a good deed. As for you, what you've done are only malicious deeds,” Chu Feng said.

“Malicious deeds? Very well. Since you feel that I've done all sorts of malicious deeds, I might as well do one more malicious deed today,”

The Dark Hall's Hall Master smiled strangely. As he spoke, he waved his sleeve, and a spirit formation flashed through his surroundings. After that spirit formation flashed, a figure appeared before the crowd.

Upon seeing that person, Chu Feng's expression immediately changed. The reason for that was because that person was Emperor Huang's successor, Duan Jidao.

Duan Jidao was extremely thin. Being extremely old already... he appeared completely withered right now. He had the appearance of someone on the verge of dying.

“Chu Feng?!”

When Duan Jidao saw Chu Feng, the Ancient Era's Elves, the Icesnow Phoenixes and the army composed of experts from all over the Holy Land of Martialism, his expression changed.

Suddenly, Duan Jidao started to smile. He looked to the Dark Hall's Hall Master and said, "It would seem that your days are numbered. People have come to avenge this old man."

Upon hearing what Duan Jidao said, Chu Feng's heart immediately tightened. Back then, Duan Jidao had been captured by the Dark Hall together with Yin Gongfu. However, now, only Duan Jidao appeared before them. Furthermore, he said those words. It was evident that Yin Gongfu was no longer here.

"Avenge you? Will that pile of trash really be able to do that?" The Dark Hall's Hall Master smiled mockingly at Duan Jidao's words. After saying those words, he made a grabbing motion with his hand, and Duan Jidao began to fly toward him. Then, he straightened his hand into a blade and pierced it into Duan Jidao's body and grabbed his dantian.

Seeing this scene, Chu Feng immediately shouted, "Release him!"

"Release him? Me, as someone who has committed all sorts of evil, do you really think I will release him?"

"Chu Feng, you must've considered yourself a hero, and considered saving that bunch of trash as your duty, right?"

"Today, I'll let you know how tiny and insignificant you really are. You are simply unable to save anyone I wish to kill," After saying those words, the Dark Hall's Hall Master's hand tightened abruptly. "Bang," he had crushed Duan Jidao's dantian.

However, Duan Jidao did not even utter a single scream, even though his dantian had been destroyed. Instead, he opened his mouth and started to laugh. Then, with an extremely weak voice, he said to Chu Feng, "Little friend Chu Feng, I am someone who was soon to die anyway. Even without having him kill me, I would still have died."

"Merely, Gongfu and the others, they should not have died. Kill that animal and avenge th...”

“Bang~~~”

However, before Duan Jidao could finish his words, his body exploded.

It was the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. Not only had the Dark Hall’s Hall Master crushed Duan Jidao’s dantian, he had also destroyed his body. He had killed Duan Jidao.

“Trash, come and take your revenge. I shall see what you can possibly do,” After killing Duan Jidao, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master started to provoke Chu Feng.

“Kill!!!”

Right at that moment, a furious snarl was heard. Following that, a figure instantly arrived before the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and began to attack him. It was Du Wanwu. Being a rank nine Martial Emperor now, Du Wanwu had taken the initiative to attack the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Perfect timing.”

However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master seemed to have already prepared for Du Wanwu’s attack. At the moment Du Wanwu approached him, his body began to flicker with lightning. Then, his Thunder Wings and Thunder Armor appeared on his body.

Not only that, his body also shifted to the side and dodged Du Wanwu’s attack. Then, he raised his leg and kicked Du Wanwu. He had actually managed to kick Du Wanwu, a rank nine Martial Emperor, and send him flying.

“Sure enough, he possesses a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation,” Seeing that scene, Chu Feng’s eyes narrowed. Seriousness appeared in his gaze.

Even if the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s cultivation had increased to that of a rank seven Martial Emperor after using his Thunder

Armor and Thunder Wings, he should not be able to contend against a rank nine Martial Emperor.

However, not only had he accomplished that, he was also holding superiority over Du Wanwu. This meant that he was the same as Chu Feng, and possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.

Ordinary Martial Emperors only possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. As for him, his heaven-defying battle power was two entire levels of cultivations above that of ordinary Martial Emperors. Naturally, that ended up making up for the difference in their martial cultivations.

Chapter 2051 – Not Needing Help

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, another loud sound was heard. As that sound was heard, a magnificent spark began to fly about in all directions like a torrential storm.

It was the Elf King. He had attacked. The Elf King held an Imperial Armament blade in his hand as he hacked down at the head of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

However, his attack was blocked by the Dark Hall’s Hall Master with a dagger. That dagger was silver in color. Even though it was not shining brightly with light, it was extremely exquisite and emitted a dense Emperor’s might. From that, everyone was able to tell that it was no ordinary Imperial Armament. Instead, it was a top quality Imperial Armament.

“Did you really think that you could defeat me? Earlier, I was only fooling with you. If I become serious, you will not necessarily be a match for me,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master smiled coldly.

Then, he continued to attack. The dagger in his hand turned into many cold rays as he hacked at the Elf King nonstop.

“Humph,” However, the Elf King snorted coldly at the ferocious attacks of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. He had an extremely mocking smile on his face.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Then, the Elf King brandished his blade and collided with the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, fighting blade against dagger.

At that moment, cold rays shot out all over. Their oppressive might was overwhelming. The reason for that was because the two men were not only using Imperial Armaments to fight. In addition to their Imperial Armaments, they were unleashing Martial Skills in continuous succession. Furthermore, all of their Martial Skills were Taboo Martial Skills that contained overwhelming power.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, another loud explosion was heard. As that explosion sounded, a vast and mighty Emperor’s might spread forth.

The body of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master moved back explosively. He was knocked away by the Elf King.

At that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had a very unsightly expression on his face. Even though he had been boasting earlier, everyone was able to tell that the Elf King held the upper hand in their fight.

“Come, again.”

After taking the upper hand in their battle, the Elf King unleashed his attacks once more. The blade in his hand looked like a ferocious beast. Every time it streaked across the sky, ear-piercing whistles would be heard, and fatal attacks would be unleashed.

“Damn it!”

Sensing that the situation was bad, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master hurriedly turned around. Light flashed under his feet. He was trying to escape.

“Roar~~~”

However, before he could get far, a bird’s cry sounded from the direction in which he was escaping. Then, a strong wind filled with snowflakes descended upon him as a two hundred meter-tall Icesnow Phoenix flew toward him with its giant mouth wide open.

“Damned bastards, you all are truly bullying me intolerably.”

“Today, this Hall Master shall let you all know that I am not someone that you, a bunch of trash from the lower realm, can contend against.”

Seeing that his path for retreat had been blocked, the Dark Hall’s

Hall Master no longer continued to flee. Instead, he flew into a rage out of humiliation and shouted angrily. Then, he flipped his wrist and took out another Imperial Armament dagger. He was actually using two identical Imperial Armaments simultaneously.

These two Imperial Armaments were capable of communicating with one another. Thus, after the second Imperial Armament dagger appeared, the strength of the Dark Hall's Hall Master increased greatly. He actually managed to contend against both the Elf King and the enormous Icesnow Phoenix by himself.

In the end, that enormous Icesnow Phoenix was only the embodiment of a treasure. Although it was undying and indestructible, it was no match for the Dark Hall's Hall Master, and would oftentimes be beaten back by him.

On the other hand, the Elf King's strength was outstanding. With him here, even though the Dark Hall's Hall Master had increased his battle power, he was still left in a disadvantaged state.

“As expected of the Elf King. He is truly the fully-deserving... Holy Land of Martialism's number one expert.”

Seeing this match between peak Martial Emperors with their own eyes, the crowd all felt deeply impressed, and began to exclaim in admiration for the Elf King. Even though they were all rank nine Martial Emperors, the Elf King's strength clearly surpassed the strength of others at the same cultivation level as him.

“You all, have you come here to kill us or have you come here to enjoy the show?”

Suddenly, when the crowd was attracted by the battle between the Dark Hall's Hall Master and the Elf King, a mocking laugh suddenly sounded. It was Xue Ji. Xue Ji was standing extremely close to the Alliance Army.

“We have naturally come to eliminate you!!!”

At that moment, Du Wanwu attacked again. The person that he wished to kill the most was not the Dark Hall's Hall Master. Instead, it was that Xue Ji.

“Not bad, that's more like it.”

However, when faced with Du Wanwu's attack, that Xue Ji was smiling. Then, her body shifted and, like the wind, she dodged Du Wanwu's attack.

“That woman!!!”

Seeing that Xue Ji was actually able to dodge Du Wanwu's attack, the expressions of the crowd all changed. Even though she had not revealed her cultivation yet, the fact that she had managed to dodge Du Wanwu's attack was enough to show that she was a peak Martial Emperor.

“If she's a peak Martial Emperor, why did she escape from the territory of the Ancient Era's Elves that day?”

“Could it be that she had already detected that the Elf King was arriving?”

At that moment, Chu Feng was frowning deeply. He was unable to understand why Xue Ji, with how powerful she was, would decide to escape when he had led the stone army to provide assistance to Xian Miaomiao.

After all, no matter how powerful his stone army was, they would still be no match for a peak Martial Emperor.

“Roar~~~”

The very next moment, the Icesnow Phoenixes unleashed their attacks. They were followed closely by the Ancient Era's Elves and the others. Together, they surrounded the people from the Dark Hall to kill them.

As for the Dark Hall, they possessed the greatest amount of Ancient Era's ferocious beasts at their headquarters. Furthermore, all of them possessed very high levels of cultivation. There were even several that were at the level of rank eight Martial Emperors.

Those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts advanced bravely. They charged toward the incoming Alliance Army and began to battle them. They had managed to block all of the top experts among the Alliance Army.

However, the Alliance Army possessed a numerous amount of people. Furthermore, there were the Icesnow Phoenixes. Even though their numbers were not great, each and every one of them possessed powerful strength. They charged into the Dark Hall's army and began to rain death upon them.

At that moment, battle erupted everywhere. Blade rays and sword silhouettes were all covered by violently surging energy ripples. War cries and anguished wailings were interweaved together. Following that, an overwhelming amount of blood began to splatter from the sky.

“Little friend Chu Feng, we meet again.”

Right at that moment, a cold and dark laugh sounded from behind Chu Feng.

Turning his head, two figures appeared behind Chu Feng.

They were the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master. These two rank eight Martial Emperor-level experts had actually not gone to fight against the Alliance Army, and instead came to attack Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, you have nowhere to escape to today.”

Right at that moment, another cold and dark voice sounded. At the same moment as that voice was heard, an extremely strong killing intent assailed Chu Feng.

Chu Feng turned around once again. This time, he discovered that it was actually the World Devastator Immortal.

The Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master, the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master and the World Devastator Immortal, these three rank eight Martial Emperors had actually joined hands to come and take care of Chu Feng.

It could be seen that they had planned this in advance. They all knew how important Chu Feng was to the Alliance Army. Thus, they planned to capture Chu Feng, and then use Chu Feng to threaten them.

“Damn it!!!”

“Bastards!!!”

Right at that moment, angry shouts sounded from the fighting armies.

They were from the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the Ancient Era's Elves' Four Grand Elders. They all noticed that the situation for Chu Feng was bad. Thus, they wanted to rush toward Chu Feng to help him.

However, it was clear that the Dark Hall was prepared. Those Ancient Era's ferocious beasts that they were tangled with simply did not allow them the chance to break free. Overwhelmed with anger, they ended up cursing out loud.

“Chu Feng, do you see this? There's no one to save you now,” The Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master stared at Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

At the same time, the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master and the World Devastator Immortal also revealed ugly smiles on their faces. They were looking at Chu Feng like he was an ant that they could crush to death at anytime.

After hearing what the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master said, Chu Feng also revealed a slight smile. Then, he said, “Who said I needed help?”

“.....”

Hearing what Chu Feng said, and seeing Chu Feng’s confident expression, the three rank eight Martial Emperors’ expressions all turned sluggish. Involuntarily, a burst of chilliness rose from the bottoms of their hearts.

“Zzzzz~”

Right at that moment, a flash of lightning shone in Chu Feng’s eyes.

As the lightning flashed past, Chu Feng’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings emerged simultaneously.

At that moment, Chu Feng revealed a cultivation of rank six Martial Emperor.

As Chu Feng stood in the sky, he gave off a powerful sensation, the feeling of a supreme ruler.

“You!!!”

Sensing Chu Feng’s cultivation of rank six Martial Emperor and his boundless aura, the three men’s expressions immediately changed enormously. At that moment, they were actually panicking and at a loss as to what to do.

They knew of the matters concerning Chu Feng extremely well. When he was a rank two Martial Emperor, he was able to increase his cultivation to rank four Martial Emperor through a special method, and even managed to seriously injure the Immeasurable Immortal, a rank seven Martial Emperor.

And now, Chu Feng had increased his cultivation to rank six Martial Emperor. As such, even though they were rank eight Martial Emperors, they would still be no match for Chu Feng.

“Heaven Taboo: Dao Light Seal!!!”

Sensing that the situation was bad, the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master actually began to move backwards. At the same time, his body started to shine with golden light. Then, a square-shaped golden seal appeared on his palm.

Immediately after he formed the seal, he smashed his palm toward Chu Feng and shot that golden seal at him.

“Boom~~~”

After that golden seal left his hand, it began to rapidly increase in size. In a blink of an eye, it became as large as a palace. As that golden seal shot forth, it shattered even space itself, leaving it a complete mess.

Chu Feng recognized that martial skill. When he had fought against the Heavenly Law Palace's number one disciple, Leng Yue, she had also used that same Heaven Taboo: Dao Light Seal. Merely, the one unleashed by the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master was many times more powerful than the one Leng Yue had used.

“Heaven Taboo: Mortal King Slash!!!”

At the same time as the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master unleashed his attack, the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master also unleashed his attack at Chu Feng. It was also an extremely powerful Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

These two of humanity's strongest experts unleashed their attacks together. Furthermore, they used Heaven Taboo Martial Skills from the get-go. This caught the attention of many people. They all wished to know how Chu Feng was going to block those attacks.

“Roar~~~”

At the moment when the two Heaven Taboo Martial Skill containing devastating power were about to reach Chu Feng, a bird's cry sounded from Chu Feng's body. It was a special sort of bird's cry that belonged to the Icesnow Phoenixes.

Following that bird's cry, a special sort of coldness swept forth from Chu Feng's body and covered Chu Feng.

“Bang~~~”

“Bang~~~”

The two Heaven Taboo Martial Skills landed on Chu Feng and exploded. However, the energy ripples from their explosions were instantly frozen by the chilliness Chu Feng emitted. They were unable to unleash their actual power, unable to cause the slightest bit of harm to Chu Feng.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly shouted.

“Heaven Taboo.”

“Icesnow Phoenix Breaker!!!”

Then, the coldness that Chu Feng emitted started to tremble violently.

“Roar~~~”

Suddenly, the ear-piercing bird's cry sounded once again. Merely, this time around, it was no longer just a single cry. Instead, countless cries sounded in unison.

At the same time as the bird's cries sounded, cold rays shot forth from Chu Feng's body in succession. As they left his body, they rapidly increased in size.

Those were... Icesnow Phoenixes. Even though they were only images, they were all a hundred meters tall, and contained frightening might. At that moment, several thousands of Icesnow Phoenixes were flying toward the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King's Palace's Palace Master.

“Crap!”

Seeing this scene, the expressions of the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master changed enormously. The two of them flipped their palms and both took out Imperial Armaments.

This was the first time that anyone had seen those two Imperial Armaments. However, they contained extremely frightening ancient auras. Likely, the two of them should've just obtained those two Imperial Armaments. It was very possible that they had been given to them by the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

Once those Imperial Armaments were taken out, the two men's battle power increased greatly. However, they didn't unleash counterattacks at Chu Feng. Instead, they began to hurriedly use defensive Heaven Taboo Martial Skills to block Chu Feng's attack.

Like many forts, the two Heaven Taboo Martial Skills completely covered the two men. Their defenses were extremely strong.

It would seem that the two of them had realized that Chu Feng's attack was so strong that it was simply impossible for them to meet it head-on, and it was also impossible for them to escape from it. In that sort of situation, the only thing they could do was withstand it with all their might.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

When the thousands of Icesnow Phoenix images shot into the two defensive martial skills in succession, they emitted ear-piercing rumbles and dazzling energy ripples. When all of that was done, the crowd were shocked to discover that not only had the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace Palace Master's martial skills shattered, the two of them were also nowhere to be found.

There was not even a single bit of the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace's Palace Masters remaining. Even their auras were completely gone.

However, they had most definitely not escaped. Instead, they had been killed. The reason for that was because their Imperial Armaments were still floating in midair.

Furthermore, their Cosmos Sacks were also floating in midair.

Dead. They were most definitely dead. They had been killed by Chu Feng. As for the reason why their Imperial Armaments and Cosmos Sacks remained unscathed from all that, it was because Chu Feng had deliberately kept them intact.

With merely a single attack, Chu Feng had killed both the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master.

"Heavens! What happened earlier?! Those were Icesnow Phoenixes!"

At that moment, the crowd were filled with astonishment. Everyone was able to tell that Chu Feng had unleashed a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill. Furthermore, they were able to sense that Chu Feng's current battle power should only be that of a rank eight Martial Emperor, the same as the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King's Palace's Palace Master.

However, Chu Feng had killed the two Palace Masters with his Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

Most importantly, Chu Feng's Heaven Taboo Martial Skill was evidently a technique of the Icesnow Phoenixes. Chu Feng had actually managed to learn an Icesnow Phoenixes' Heaven Taboo Martial Skill. As such, how could the crowd not be astonished?

"Could that be what little friend Chu Feng meant...?" At that moment, not to mention the others that didn't know the truth, even the Icesnow Phoenixes' Clan Chief revealed a shocked appearance.

Even though Chu Feng had already mentioned to him that he had managed to learn a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill from that pearl, even he had not expected Chu Feng to have learned a martial skill that even the people of his Icesnow Phoenix Race didn't know.

The way he saw it, the Heaven Taboo Martial Skill Chu Feng had unleashed earlier was stronger than all the Heaven Taboo Martial Skills that their Icesnow Phoenix Race possessed right now.

Most importantly, merely by looking at it, he was able to tell that the Heaven Taboo Martial Skill Chu Feng had used should have been extremely difficult to learn, even for him.

Yet Chu Feng had managed to master it in merely two hours. This made him have a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng.

However, the person that was feeling the most complicated right now was none other than the World Devastator Immortal.

The World Devastator Immortal had realized how powerful Chu Feng was. When even the Heavenly Law Palace's Palace Master and the Mortal King Palace's Palace Master were killed by Chu Feng with a single attack, how could he possibly have certainty in being able to defeat Chu Feng?

Truth be told, he had no certainty of victory at all. However, he could not just give up like this, for he must avenge his son. If he didn't avenge his son now, there would be even less of a chance for him to be able to avenge his son in the future.

Thus, the World Devastator Immortal mustered up his courage and said, "Chu Feng, let us settle our grudges." In fact, the normally sissy-sounding World Devastator Immortal actually spoke with a manly voice when he said those words.

As for Chu Feng, he was calmly putting the two Imperial Armaments and Cosmos Sacks away.

Then, he turned around and looked to the World Devastator Immortal, "Indeed, it's time to settle this," After saying those words, intense coldness and overwhelming killing intent appeared in Chu Feng's eyes.

"You!!!!"

When the World Devastator Immortal's eyes met Chu Feng's, his expression suddenly took a huge change. His face turned ashen; it was as if he had received a great terror.

This was not the first time he had seen that gaze. Chu Feng had revealed the same gaze at the Blood Devouring Killing Formation when he had killed the experts of the Ancient Era's Elves before Chu Feng, when he had killed Xian Miaomiao before Chu Feng, and when he had begun to torment and insult Chu Feng.

At that time, he felt it ridiculous that Chu Feng looked at him with that sort of gaze.

However, now, being looked at by that sort of gaze again, he felt his heart trembling with fear.

At that very moment, he realized that he would be no match for Chu Feng, absolutely no match.

Chapter 2053 – Torturing World Devastator

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the World Devastator Immortal turned around. His footsteps moved in rapid succession. With each step, he would leave a flickering imprint of golden light behind in the sky.

Those golden imprints were extremely dazzling. However, they soon disappeared. However, those golden imprints were capable of increasing the World Devastator Immortal’s speed, and allow him to run as if he were flying. In a flash, he had traveled ten thousand miles.

It was a Heaven Taboo Movement Martial Skill.

The World Devastator Immortal had insisted over and over again that he would kill Chu Feng to avenge his son. Yet now, he was actually escaping. Furthermore, he was using a Heaven Taboo Movement Martial Skill to escape. This scene truly came as an enormous shock to the crowd.

“Heh...”

As for Chu Feng, he chuckled coldly at the rapidly escaping World Devastator Immortal. With a smile on his face, he began to chase after him.

Chu Feng was chasing after the World Devastator Immortal one step at a time. He had a very composed appearance. His steps were neither fast nor slow, and looked extremely graceful. However, his speed was extremely fast. He was so fast that even though the World Devastator Immortal was escaping with a Heaven Taboo Movement Martial Skill, he was unable to increase the distance between him and Chu Feng. Just like that, Chu Feng continued to follow behind the World Devastator Immortal.

This sort of situation caused the World Devastator Immortal to panic more and more. causing sweat to cover his handsome face. In fact, even his special clothes were soaked in sweat.

The two men moved further and further away. Currently they had already separated themselves from the battlefield. After leaving the crowd's line of sight, the World Devastator Immortal revealed a difficult expression. It was as if he was making some sort of resolve.

“Paaa~~~”

Suddenly, the World Devastator Immortal stopped moving. Not only that, he even turned around and faced Chu Feng. Just like that, he knelt in midair.

“Chu Feng, I only tortured and humiliated you at the Blood Devouring Killing Formation.”

“But you, you killed my only son that I had painstakingly nurtured. And now you have strangled my hope for living. You have already taken revenge for what I did to you that day.”

“However, if you feel that that is still not enough to satisfy your hatred, I will apologize to you right now. Please, please spare me. Please let me live. I am willing to serve you all and help you all take care of the Dark Hall.”

Surrender. The World Devastator Immortal had actually decided to surrender to Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng smiled coldly at the World Devastator Immortal. He said, “You’ve only tormented me and humiliated me? If that were the case, then it would be true that my killing of your son would’ve sufficed as revenge.”

“However, could you have forgotten about all the Ancient Era’s Elves you killed at the Blood Devouring Killing Formation? You even killed the Little Princess of the Ancient Era’s Elves, Xian Miaomiao. If she didn’t have the means to protect her life, she would’ve already been erased from this world.”

“Yet now, you actually have the nerve to say that you only tormented and humiliated me? You’ve actually completely disregarded all those that you’ve killed. It would seem that you do not consider them to be people at all. Even though they were killed by you, you do not even put that matter to heart at all.”

“However, I might as well tell you this. To me, those people were extremely important. Since you killed them, I will definitely not spare you.”

As Chu Feng said those words, the coldness in his eyes increased explosively. Suddenly, Chu Feng’s body shifted; he arrived before the World Devastator Immortal. At that moment, violently whistling wind could be heard as Chu Feng’s fist smashed onto the World Devastator Immortal’s face like a meteor. It did not stop with a single fist. Each one of Chu Feng’s fists landed straight onto the World Devastator Immortal’s face. In a flash, many fist strikes had landed.

When Chu Feng’s final fist landed, the World Devastator Immortal was already submerged deep into the ground. Chu Feng had actually punched him directly from the sky all the way to the ground.

When Chu Feng retracted his fists, the World Devastator Immortal’s face was not only badly battered, it had changed beyond recognition. Even his skull had been shattered by Chu Feng’s fists. In other words, it was not only his handsome face, his entire head had been destroyed.

“Buzz~~~”

However, a stream of world spirit power suddenly condensed from the World Devastator Immortal’s body. It formed a new head with the same exact appearance as the World Devastator Immortal’s destroyed head.

No matter what, the World Devastator Immortal was someone with renowned world spirit techniques. To him, instantly recovering a portion of his body was only a trifling task.

However, at that moment, the World Devastator Immortal was still grimacing in pain, and his face distorted. It was not because he had failed to recover his face and head. Rather, the pain from Chu Feng's beating was still vivid in his mind.

Chu Feng's fists were no ordinary fists. With each fist, he not only destroyed the World Devastator Immortal's face and shattered his skull, but also inflicted serious damage to the World Devastator Immortal's soul. Thus, even though the World Devastator Immortal had condensed a new head, the pain of his shattered bones was still vivid in his mind.

However, even though he was in so much pain that his face grew extremely distorted, the World Devastator Immortal still squeezed out a smile. He said to Chu Feng, "Have you managed to alleviate your anger?"

"Alleviate my anger?"

"Even if I am to kill you ten thousand times, it would not suffice to eliminate the hatred in my heart."

"However, before killing you, I must make you suffer," As Chu Feng spoke, he took out an item from his Cosmos Sack. It was an invisible spirit formation. Contained within that spirit formation was a pile of sesame seed-like objects. However, they were crimson in color, and emitted fiery light.

"Blazing Heart Poisoning Insect! What are you planning to do with those?!!"

Upon seeing the insects, the World Devastator Immortal immediately started to panic. As a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, he naturally knew how frightening the Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects were. If one were to be bitten by a single Blazing Heart Poisoning Insect, one would feel a blazing pain at the location where one was bitten. Even if one were to turn incorporeal, the pain would not disappear.

Like its name implied, the pain from the Blazing Heart Poisoning Insect reached one's heart and soul. It was a pain that could not be erased.

It would be alright if one were to be bitten once by a single Blazing Heart Poisoning Insect. After all, martial cultivators were able to endure small wounds and pains.

However, the pain brought forth by the Blazing Heart Poisoning Insect was a pain that would increase exponentially the more one was bitten.

At that moment, there were over ten thousand Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects in Chu Feng's spirit formation. The increased pain from over ten thousand Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects was simply something unimaginable and definitely intolerable.

"I created these Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects especially for you."

As Chu Feng spoke, he grabbed that spirit formation and pushed it into the World Devastator Immortal's body. As that spirit formation collided with his body, it immediately shattered and released the over ten thousand Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects. The insects began to crawl all over the World Devastator Immortal's body, biting everywhere.

"Ahh!!!"

Unable to endure the pain, the World Devastator Immortal soon started to scream. His screams grew more and more miserable. As the number of places he was bitten by the Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects increased, the pain that he felt also grew more and more unbearable.

Soon, his flesh started to split open. It was a very frightening sight. However, other than screaming, there was nothing the World Devastator Immortal could do. As such, he did not possess the heart to recover his body.

As for Chu Feng, he stood there watching the World Devastator Immortal being tormented by pain.

One's ability to endure something would always be limited. The pain brought forth by all those Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects was unimaginably frightening. Even if they did not cause the World Devastator Immortal to die from the shock of being overwhelmed by pain, they would still cause him to have a nervous breakdown. That was precisely what Chu Feng wanted to do to him.

“Chu Feng, you ruthless little bastard! Even if I am to become a ghost, I will not let you get away with this!!!”

Overwhelmed with pain, the World Devastator Immortal started to rain curses upon Chu Feng. The way he saw it, he had killed countless people throughout his life. However, he had never used such a ruthless method to torment them. Yet, Chu Feng had done so. Not only had he done so, he had done it to him.

“Ruthless?” Chu Feng snorted lightly. Then, he said, “I only use my ruthlessness on ruthless individuals.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng clenched a fist, and a golden sword appeared in his hand.

That sword was very long. Yet, it was also very thin, needle thin. That sword... was formed with world spirit power.

“Pu, pu, pu, pu, pu~~~”

Then, Chu Feng began to use that sword to pierce the World Devastator Immortal's body all over.

With each pierce, the World Devastator Immortal would let out an even more miserable scream.

At that moment, Chu Feng began to recall the Ancient Era's Elves the World Devastator Immortal had killed one by one at the Blood Devouring Killing Formation. He also recalled the scene where the World Devastator Immortal killed Xian Miaomiao.

Chu Feng grew more and more angry. The speed with which he pierced the needle-thin sword grew faster and faster, more and more ruthless.

Chapter 2054 – Such An End

“I’ll kill you! I’ll kill you!! Ahhh!!!”

“You damned bastard! If I survive today, I will definitely make everyone related to you meet a miserable death by my hands!!!”

Suffering from pain that was growing more and more intolerable, the World Devastator Immortal started to rain more and more curses upon Chu Feng. He felt that he would definitely die today. However, he did not wish to be tormented to death. Since it would be death anyways, he’d rather anger Chu Feng so that Chu Feng would kill him and end his suffering.

“You wish to make me kill you?”

“Haha...”

“Rest assured, I will definitely kill you. However, I will definitely not kill you now.”

Chu Feng had seen through the World Devastator Immortal’s thoughts. As he spoke, he put away the world spirit sword, and then began to form hand seals with one hand. At that moment, dazzling light began to shine from the places pierced by Chu Feng’s world spirit sword.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Following the light, the Blazing Poison Heart Insects that were biting the World Devastator Immortal’s body soon entered the light. They reached the insides of the World Devastator Immortal’s body, as well as his bones and organs, and began to continue to bite him.

“Ahh~~~”

“Noo~~~”

“You damned animal!!!”

“No! You’re a demon!!”

“You damned demon!!!”

The World Devastator Immortal who had finally realized Chu Feng’s intentions let out screams of despair.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, the ground started to tremble violently, as if an earthquake had struck the region. Even the frost and ice that covered the ground started to shatter.

Seeing this scene, Chu Feng immediately started to frown. He subconsciously turned his gaze to the snowy valley where the Dark Hall’s headquarters was located. He was able to tell that the trembling had originated from the Dark Hall’s headquarters.

However, they were truly too far away. As such, Chu Feng was unable to see what was happening over there, and ended up having to use his Heaven’s Eyes.

“Oh no,” After using his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously. An uneasy gaze involuntarily appeared.

His Heaven’s Eyes were fixed onto the summit of the snowy valley, on the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

An enormous change had actually occurred to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. At that moment, dark black organisms covered his entire body. They were actually fusing with his body. As the dark black organisms fused with his body, his power began to rapidly increase.

Most frighteningly, from the depths of the snowy valley, countless such black organisms were flying out and fusing with the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Faced with that situation, not to mention the Alliance Army, even the Elf King was unable to stop the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. They could only watch as that scene continued to unfold.

At that moment, everyone from the Alliance Army that saw this scene revealed alarmed expressions.

The reason for that was because the Dark Hall's Hall Master's aura had already surpassed that of the Elf King. Furthermore, it was still increasing. If this were to continue, he would likely reach the legendary Half Martial Ancestor realm. At that time, there would likely not be anyone capable of stopping him in the entire Holy Land of Martialism.

“Why is this happening?”

“Could it be that that guy trained in some demonic technique?”

At that moment, Chu Feng also felt extremely uneasy. The reason for that was because it was not only the Elf King and the others that were powerless to do anything to stop this, even Chu Feng was powerless. He did not know how he could change the current situation.

“Roar~~~”

Suddenly, the Dark Hall's Hall Master uttered a demon-like snarl. That voice was most definitely not the voice of a human, nor should it be emitted from the mouth of a human.

However, the Dark Hall's Hall Master had clearly uttered that sort of roar.

Most importantly, after that snarl was heard, the black organisms coming from the depths of the snowy valley grew more and more numerous. In merely the blink of an eye, the Dark Hall's Hall Master had turned into a several hundred meter-tall giant monster.

Monster. He was most definitely a monster now. His entire body was black. He possessed countless hands, countless legs and even countless enormous eyes.

His original body was long gone. It had been buried deeply by the monster that now covered him. In other words, the Dark Hall's Hall Master was simply a monster now.

“You shall all die!!!”

Suddenly, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master let out a hoarse voice. Even his voice had changed. It had become more frightening than the voices of monstrous beasts. Not only was it hoarse, it was also emitting dense killing intent.

After his voice sounded, a powerful oppressive might swept forth. Not to mention the Alliance Army that was close to him, even Chu Feng who was far away from him was enveloped by that oppressive might.

“This oppressive might, could it be that he....”

After being enveloped by that oppressive might, even Chu Feng started to panic. The reason for that was because his body was actually unable to move. Furthermore, his cultivation had been bound. In fact, for Chu Feng and the others, they all felt as if they were suffocating.

In fact, it was not only Chu Feng and the others. Even the Elf King, a peak Martial Emperor, was restricted by that oppressive might.

Most frighteningly, it was only the people from the Alliance Army that were bound by that oppressive might. All the people from the Dark Hall were completely fine.

In other words, they who had held superiority in this battle were powerless to fight back now. They were like fishes atop the chopping block, waiting to be trampled upon by the people from the Dark Hall.

Such powerful oppressive might most definitely could not have been unleashed by a Martial Emperor. This meant that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s current cultivation had reached the level of Half Martial Ancestor.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s reaction was relatively better when compared to the others. The reason for that was because the other people possessed dejected expressions. They all felt that they were going to undoubtedly be killed.

“A bunch of trash dared to come and fight against me? Do you all finally realize what it means to strike a stone with an egg?”

“Very good. This is precisely the expression I wanted to see. Go ahead and despair. To dare become my opponent, you all are destined to despair.”

Seeing the expressions of panic and despair on the faces of the Alliance Army, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master uttered a complacent laugh. His laugh resounded through heaven and earth, seeping into the hearts of the crowd.

“Wuu~~~”

However, suddenly, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s expression changed. He actually uttered an anguished wail. Then, enormous hands began to grab his ugly head as he continued to let out painful snarls.

Even though he had obtained a power comparable to that of Half Martial Emperor after being covered with the black organisms, he didn’t seem to have absolute control over that power. That was the reason why he was suffering a backlash right now.

In that sort of situation, the oppressive might that he emitted started to fluctuate in strength repeatedly. However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng and the others were still unable to move.

“Chu Feng, you must’ve never expected this sort of ending, right?”

Right at that moment, a cold and gloomy voice sounded. Chu Feng knew that it was most definitely the World Devastator Immortal.

Chu Feng put forth great effort to turn his head around. He discovered that the World Devastator Immortal was actually managing to endure the pain from the Blazing Heart Poisoning Insects, and was walking toward him one step at a time. Furthermore, he held an Imperial Armament in his hand.

“Damn it!” At that moment, Chu Feng started to frown. Even though he was able to turn his body around, he was simply unable to unleash any of his strength. If this were to continue, he would only be waiting for death.

As for the World Devastator Immortal, it seemed that he feared that something unexpected would happen. As he endured the pain, his footsteps grew faster and faster. In the blink of an eye, he had arrived at a distance only ten meters away from Chu Feng.

Chapter 2055 – It's You

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the World Devastator Immortal raised the Imperial Armament in his hand. His face, which was still mutilated beyond recognition, revealed a malevolent gaze. Like a smile, yet not a smile. He looked to Chu Feng and shouted, “Chu Feng, in the end, you still lost to me. I am going to kill you to avenge my son!”

“Die!!!”

After he finished saying those words, the World Devastator Immortal hacked his Imperial Armament down at Chu Feng. He was planning to hack Chu Feng in two.

“Puu~~~”

Blood splattered all over, drenching Chu Feng's face.

Sensing the warm blood, Chu Feng revealed a shocked expression.

The reason for that was because he was unharmed. However, the World Devastator Immortal's arms were gone. They had fallen to the ground not far from where he stood. Together with his arms, his Imperial Armament had also fallen to the ground.

It turned out that the blood was not Chu Feng's blood. Rather, it was the World Devastator Immortal's blood. The World Devastator Immortal's arms had been instantly sliced off by someone the moment he had planned to hack Chu Feng to death.

At that moment, it was not only Chu Feng who revealed an expression of shock. The World Devastator Immortal also revealed an expression of even greater shock. He stood there as if he was petrified. It was as if he had forgotten about the pain of the insects biting his body.

Stunned. The World Devastator Immortal was completely stunned. He was stunned by the scene before him.

“Chu Feng is not someone that you can kill.”

At the moment when the two men were extremely shocked and puzzled, a sweet-sounding voice was heard. Following that, a beautiful woman appeared between the World Devastator Immortal and Chu Feng.

“It’s you?!”

This woman was extremely and alluringly beautiful. However, it was precisely this woman who had caused Chu Feng’s eyes to open wide in even greater shock.

The reason for that was because this woman wearing a black dress was one of the trusted aides of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, Xue Ji.

“Xue Ji, why are you helping him?”

“You!!!!”

When the World Devastator Immortal discovered that the person who had sliced off his arms and prevented him from killing Chu Feng was actually Xue Ji, the shock in his eyes grew many times stronger. At the same time, he also felt endless fury.

Evidently, this sort of ending was not something that he had anticipated.

“You are not qualified to ask me that question,” However, Xue Ji merely smiled coldly at the World Devastator Immortal’s question. Then, coldness flashed through her eyes as she suddenly waved her sleeve. Following that, black gaseous flames appeared.

After the black gaseous flames appeared, they turned into a black sickle. The black sickle streaked across the World Devastator Immortal’s body and instantly hacked him in two.

When the World Devastator Immortal’s body that was hacked in two fell down to the ground, he no longer possessed any aura. He had died. With merely a single strike, Xue Ji had killed the World Devastator Immortal, a rank eight Martial Emperor.

When the World Devastator Immortal died, his eyes had remained open. He had truly died with remaining grievances.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng was frowning, and his eyes narrowed. When Xue Ji had killed the World Devastator Immortal earlier, he had finally sensed her cultivation. She was a rank five Martial Emperor.

Xue Ji's cultivation was only that of a rank five Martial Emperor. However, Xue Ji, a rank five Martial Emperor, had managed to kill the World Devastator Immortal, a rank eight Martial Emperor, with only a single attack.

This meant that Xue Ji possessed a heaven-defying battle power even more frightening than Chu Feng's. She should possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting seven levels of cultivation.

Ordinary Martial Emperors possessed heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

Chu Feng and Xian Miaomiao only possessed heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.

However, this mysterious woman by the name of Xue Ji actually possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting seven levels of cultivation. That was truly too frightening.

"Exactly who are you?" Chu Feng stared at Xue Ji and asked very seriously. At this moment, all of the unease that he had felt before was confirmed. This woman by the name of Xue Ji was no ordinary character.

"My, my, my..."

"No matter what, we've known each other for years. I could be said to have watched you grow up. How could you not recognize me this quickly?"

Xue Ji then walked toward Chu Feng with a beaming smile on her face. She extended her lily-white hands in a teasing manner and lifted Chu Feng's chin.

To meet such a beauty face-to-face at such close range was something that would cause ordinary people to blush and their heartbeat to accelerate. However, Chu Feng, on the other hand, had a huge change in expression.

“It's you?!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng thought of something. After reaching that conclusion, Chu Feng's heart felt as if it were surging.

The reason for that was because the answer that Chu Feng thought of was truly too astonishing. That answer...

Was that Xue Ji was Chu Feng's other Asura World Spirit.

In other words, she was the Asura Evil Spirit that he had released at the Nangong Imperial Clan.

“You've finally remembered? But, to only recognize me now even after we've seen each other this many times, you have truly and bitterly disappointed me,” Xue Ji released Chu Feng and sighed with feigned disappointment.

However, her sigh caused Chu Feng's body to shiver. Xue Ji had confirmed Chu Feng's speculation. Indeed, she was the other Asura World Spirit in his body.

“You actually managed to take human form?”

“But, you were clearly an Evil Spirit. How did you manage to imitate a human this perfectly?” Chu Feng was extremely puzzled.

The way he saw it, Xue Ji's appearance was extremely human-like. There was not the slightest trace of a world spirit's aura at all, much less an evil spirit's aura.

“Did you really think that servant girl by the name of Eggy was stronger than me?”

“You were mistaken. When the two of us are compared, I am evidently the stronger one.”

“Thus, do not compare me to that Eggy. Furthermore, do not compare me to other world spirits. They are at a completely different level from me,” Xue Ji said.

“Exactly what do you want?” Chu Feng asked with a frown. Even though Xue Ji had saved him, he still felt a great amount of danger from her.

“What do I want? Great question.”

“However, what you should be worried about right now is not me. Rather, it’s that guy from the Dark Hall with the same Inherited Bloodline as you.”

“Right now... he has fused with the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts. Even though he has yet to completely grasp that power, it is only a question of time.”

“I’m afraid that you will all undoubtedly be killed today. However, if you are willing to beg me, I am willing to save your life so that you can die a bit later,” A strange gaze appeared in Xue Ji’s beautiful eyes.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to frown. When Xue Ji had been in his body, Chu Feng had already been able to sense the dense killing intent that she had toward him.

When she had been released from his body, she had felt enormous hatred for him. In fact, she had wanted to kill him back in the Nangong Imperial Clan.

Yet, what sort of situation was this? Chu Feng was right before Xue Ji. Yet, not only was she not planning to kill him, she had instead saved him. Chu Feng was truly confused as to her purpose.

“All of you will die!!!”

Right at that moment, the frightening voice of the Dark Hall’s

Hall Master sounded again. Following that, boundless killing intent surged forth.

“As I said, you should not be worrying about me, but instead be worrying about that guy right now,” Xue Ji said with a beaming smile.

At that moment, Chu Feng hurriedly turned his gaze back to the direction of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. He discovered that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master seemed to have managed to gain control over his power again.

Not only did the oppressive might that suppressed the Alliance Army grow stronger, the suffocating sensation also grew stronger and stronger. In fact, the aura of death could clearly be felt now. It was as if they would be killed the very next moment.

Chapter 2056 – Arrival Of The Moon Immortal

“Moonlight Illumination!!!”

Right at that moment, two female voices sounded.

Immediately following that, a burst of oppressive might descended from the sky and covered the entire region.

Once that oppressive might appeared, Chu Feng and the others were immediately overjoyed. The reason for that was because after that oppressive might appeared, it restricted the movements of everyone from the Dark Hall. As for Chu Feng and the others, they actually managed to regain their ability to move.

Chu Feng and the others were able to break free from the frightening oppressive might of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master because of the oppressive might that suddenly descended from the sky.

It was that oppressive might that had rescued the Alliance Army.

“Could it be?!!!”

At this moment, Chu Feng discovered that the oppressive might that had saved them originated from an enormous moon.

That moon had appeared in the sky out of the blue. Not only did it emit powerful oppressive might, it was also emitting dazzling light. That light possessed extremely powerful offensive capabilities. At this moment, the light was attacking the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Most importantly, that enormous moon greatly resembled the moon at the Moonlight Maze. This caused Chu Feng to think of a possibility. He felt that it was very possible that the person that had saved them was the Moon Immortal who had seized Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies.

“Who is it that dares to stop me?!” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master let out a shout of anger. Then, countless enormous dark black hands shot forth toward the bright moon in the sky.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang~~~”

The might of a Half Martial Ancestor was truly powerful. Being bombarded with attacks, lights began to radiate all around. The peerlessly mighty bright moon actually started to form many cracks. Then, it turned into tens of thousands of light pieces and shattered.

At this moment, two familiar figures appeared from the shattered moon. They were Su Rou and Su Mei.

Not only did Su Rou and Su Mei speak together, their voices were also the same. However, their voices did not belong to them.

Furthermore, the two of them were wearing the same clothes and had the same sort of hairstyle.

Their fluttering long skirts and high bun hairstyles made Su Rou and Su Mei appear to be overflowing with the airs of Immortals and magnificent beings.

When combined with their already beautiful faces and extraordinary temperaments, the two of them looked like actual celestial fairies.

To be exact, they were celestial fairies.

However, that was not the important part. Most importantly, Su Rou and Su Mei were each holding a strange object that looked like a half-moon. Those objects were very beautiful. However, they were weapons, and top quality Imperial Armaments on top of that.

The two top quality Imperial Armaments were not at all inferior to the Hall Master’s two Imperial Armament daggers. In fact, they were even more powerful, and emitted the domineering aura of a supreme ruler.

“An evildoer dares to act this arrogantly? Prepare to die.”

Suddenly, Su Rou and Su Mei unleashed their attacks together. Their Imperial Armaments turned into two silvery lights as they shot toward the Dark Hall’s Hall Master to cut him down.

Once they were unleashed, the two Imperial Armaments rapidly increased in size. From half-moons the size of a meter long, they became enormous weapons tens of meters long.

As they spun, not only did they unleash incomparable might, they were also emitting auras of righteousness. It was as if they were planning to cut down all of the evil and malicious things in the world.

“Evildoer? Mere trash from the lower realm actually dares to speak to me in such a manner? You are simply courting death.”

The enormous hands of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master charged toward Su Rou and Su Mei.

“Clank, clank, clank, clank, clank~~~”

At this moment, they collided with one another. The outcome of the battle was actually hard to determine.

However, the energy ripples from the collision of their attacks were extremely frightening. With earth-shattering power, the energy ripples were like enormous waves.

Not to mention ordinary Martial Emperors, even peak Martial Emperors like the Elf King and Du Wanwu were forced back repeatedly.

In fact, those below the Martial Emperor level of cultivation, regardless of whether they were from the Dark Hall or the Alliance Army, were shattered into nothingness by the vibration of the energy ripples. Only piles of bloody mist remained in the air. The bloody mist dissolved into the cold frost of the region.

In this sort of situation, even experts like the Elf King started to retreat from the battlefield. At this moment, the troops from both parties in the battle were hurriedly retreating.

It was not that they were afraid of dying. Rather, it was that Half Martial Ancestors were truly too powerful. It was as if the entire region would not be able to withstand the power that they had unleashed.

“Those are Half Martial Ancestors. When Half Martial Ancestors are already this powerful, how powerful would Martial Ancestors that possess actual Ancestor-level martial power, be?”

Even though Chu Feng appeared to be calm, a violent rage was surging in his heart. He was deeply awed by the strength of the Moon Immortal and the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Everyone said that the Outer World was the actual paradise for martial cultivators. However, exactly how powerful were the experts in the Outer World? At this moment, Chu Feng seemed to have an idea of their strength.

Right at this moment, Xue Ji said, “Aren’t those two your little lovers? However, it seems like their bodies are being controlled by someone. From their appearance and techniques, the person controlling them should be that Moonlight Maze’s Moon Demon, no?”

Chu Feng ignored her and continued to wholeheartedly focus on the battle.

Due to the fact that he was not powerful enough, he could only be a spectator in such a crucial battle. Even though Chu Feng felt deep hatred for the Moon Immortal going back on her promise and seizing Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies, it remained that she was the only person that could contend against the Dark Hall’s Hall Master right now.

Even though they were unwilling to do so, Chu Feng and the Alliance Army had no choice but to place all their hopes onto the Moon Immortal.

“It’s useless. Even for the Moon Demon, it will still be impossible for it to defeat the Dark Hall’s Hall Master,” Xue Ji seemed to know what Chu Feng was thinking.

“That’s not for certain. Are you unable to see the situation of the battle right now?” Chu Feng refuted.

Chu Feng had been paying close attention to the battle between the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and the Moon Immortal the entire time. At this moment, the Imperial Armaments held by Su Rou and Su Mei had actually fused together and formed a full moon.

After the new full moon-shaped Imperial Armament had been formed, their might had increased greatly. They were no longer existences that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master could contend with. At this moment, the enormous and powerful hands of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master were as weak as tofu. Any hand that encountered the full moon-shaped Imperial Armament would be cut in two.

However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master remained as powerful as before. It was as if he was undying and indestructible. Whenever a hand was chopped off, another hand would immediately appear to take its place. His hands continued to grow and multiply without end.

Suddenly, the Moon Immortal shouted, “You can’t stop me.” The full moon Imperial Armament blossomed with a ring of silvery light. That light was no ordinary light. It was like an unstoppable blade.

At this moment, there was simply no need for that full moon Imperial Armament to come into contact with the hands itself. Instead, as long as the hands came into contact with that ring of light, those enormous hands would be sliced off instantly.

In this sort of situation, even though the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed a monster-like body with an ability to continue to regenerate, he was still unable to withstand the Moon Immortal's attacks.

“Did you see that?” At this moment, Chu Feng was unable to contain himself. He turned his head around and looked to Xue Ji provokingly.

Even though Xue Ji had saved him, Chu Feng would not forget that Xue Ji was part of the Dark Hall. Furthermore, Chu Feng still didn't know what Xue Ji's intentions were. However, there was one thing that Chu Feng knew — Xue Ji was a very dangerous woman.

Xue Ji smiled coldly. “Oh? Are you certain that Moon Demon will be able to subdue that fellow?”

That smile contained deep significance. It was as if she had already seen through the ending of the battle today. As for that ending, it would definitely not be one where the Dark Hall's Hall Master was defeated.

Chapter 2057 – Heart Sunk

“What do you mean by that?” Chu Feng asked with a frown. Subconsciously, he felt that Xue Ji was not joking with him.

As for Xue Ji, she did not answer Chu Feng’s question. Instead, she smiled lightly. It was a very charming smile. However, it was also an extremely unfathomable smile.

“Xue Ji, where are you?! Quickly, get over here!!!”

Right at that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master let out a ear-deafening snarl. He was calling out for Xue Ji.

At that moment, Chu Feng was even more shocked. The reason for that was because Xue Ji was clearly before Chu Feng. Since the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was able to lock onto Chu Feng’s location, how could he not know where Xue Ji was?

Furthermore, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master almost possessed the might of a Half Martial Ancestor now. As such, why would he not be able to determine Xue Ji’s location?

After being surprised, Chu Feng looked to Xue Ji, and discovered that Xue Ji was looking at him with a smile on her face. Merely, her charming smile felt extremely dangerous to Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, seeing that we have been acquaintances with one another for years, I’ll tell you a secret.”

“That so-called Dark Hall’s Hall Master has trained in a kind of demonic technique. As long as that demonic technique devours living things, its strength will increase. Furthermore, the cultivation of the living things it devours does not matter. It would suffice as long as they’re alive. However, the speed at which his cultivation increases will be determined by the quantity of living things he devours.”

“To put it simply, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master plans to devour all living things in the Holy Land of Martialism. The more he devours, the faster his cultivation will increase. That will become the way through which he increases his cultivation in the future.”

“If you wish to stop him, there are two methods to do so. The first method is to prevent living things from appearing before him.”

“As for the second method, it would be to kill him quickly. The reason for that is because the longer he is kept alive, the stronger he will become. Right now, he is still not yet an actual Half Martial Ancestor. However, if he becomes able to completely control that demonic technique, as well as the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts within his body, then, with his world spirit techniques, it would be very easy for him to find out where all the living things in the Holy Land of Martialism are. At that time, there would likely not be anyone that could stop him,” Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

“Why are you telling me this?” Chu Feng asked.

Xue Ji smiled at Chu Feng’s question. Then, her body shifted, and she disappeared.

At that moment, Chu Feng turned his gaze toward the battle between the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and the Moon Immortal.

That battlefield had become an area where even the Elf King, the number one expert in the Holy Land of Martialism, did not dare approach.

However, at that moment, a lump of majestic black gaseous flames actually managed to withstand the Half Martial Ancestor’s might and forcibly arrive beside the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“What is that?”

Upon seeing the black gaseous flames, the crowd present were all startled. The reason for that was because they were all able to sense that those black gaseous flames contained a lifeform. Merely, they were unable to tell what sort of lifeform it was for it to be able to withstand such powerful energy ripples and approach the Dark

Hall's Hall Master.

When the black gaseous flames dissipated into the air, the already shocked crowd were immediately struck dumb. Even the Elf King started to frown. His expression turned even more uneasy.

The reason for that was because those black gaseous flames contained none other than Xue Ji, who had just been beside Chu Feng.

At that moment, it was no longer only Chu Feng; practically everyone present realized that that woman by the name of Xue Ji was even stronger, even more frightening than they had anticipated.

“Moon Immortal, remember this. The next time we meet, I'll have you in my stomach.”

Right at that moment, a strange light emitted from the body of the Dark Hall's Hall Master. It started to spread, and soon covered his entire enormous body.

Strangely, even though the Dark Hall's Hall Master was emitting an overwhelming demonic aura, that light was emitting a vast amount of righteous aura. They were simply incompatible. However, at that moment, that vast amount of righteous aura was protecting the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

Regardless of what sort of attack the Moon Immortal threw at him, she was unable to break through that vast light covering the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

Suddenly, the light intensified. It was so dazzling that one could not even open one's eyes. It was as if the sun had descended onto the surface as a burning sensation arrived alongside the dazzling light.

However, that sensation lasted only an instant.

When the crowd managed to open their eyes again, they discovered that the vast amount of righteous light had disappeared, along with the Dark Hall's Hall Master and Xue Ji.

Not even a trace of their aura remained. It was as if they were never there to begin with. No one knew where they had gone to.

“He actually possessed such a protective treasure?” At that moment, shocked expressions appeared on Su Rou and Su Mei's faces. To be exact, it was the Moon Immortal who revealed that shocked expression.

At that moment, the Elf King and the others were also frowning. Evidently, none of them had expected the Dark Hall's Hall Master to have such a trick up his sleeve.

Today, they had experienced the techniques of the Dark Hall's Hall Master. Even though the current Dark Hall was in a complete mess, they all knew that if the Dark Hall's Hall Master were to make a comeback, he himself would be able to bring about true terror, true catastrophe, upon the Holy Land of Martialism.

However, compared to the Alliance Army, it was the people from the Dark Hall that were in greater despair. They did not expect that their Hall Master would escape by himself at such a time.

No, he hadn't escaped by himself. Their Lord Hall Master had taken one person with him. That person was Xue Ji. However... that already didn't concern them anymore. The reason for that was because they were all left behind.

Suddenly, the Elf King ordered, “Kill all the people from the Dark Hall. Leave none alive.”

Once his order was given, the Alliance Army all started to attack. They began to ruthlessly massacre the remainder of the Dark Hall.

Due to the fact that the disparity between the strength of the two groups was so enormous, there was no need for the Elf King to do anything. At that moment, he turned his gaze to Su Rou and Su Mei. He clasped his fist and said, “Thank you, Moon Immortal, for your assistance.”

However, the Moon Immortal completely ignored the Elf King's courteous action. The bodies of Su Rou and Su Mei shifted and disappeared.

When Su Rou and Su Mei reappeared, they were before Chu Feng.

Upon seeing the familiar Su Rou and Su Mei, Chu Feng felt pained in his heart. However, he was no longer as emotional as he was back then. After all, the Moon Immortal had saved them.

"My apologies," The Moon Immortal said to Chu Feng in a very apologetic manner.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng's expression changed. He revealed a very complicated expression.

"I don't know why you did this. However, I know that you possessed your own justification. I only have one request. Please spare them," Chu Feng said to the Moon Immortal.

"Rest assured, I know that they are very important to you. I also do not wish to continue seeing you lovers being separated like this."

"I promise you that I will guarantee their safety. In the future, I will personally repay them for lending me their bodies," The Moon Immortal said.

Chu Feng reluctantly nodded his head. He was able to tell that the Moon Immortal didn't seem to be lying. Although she had seized Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies, she really didn't appear to be evil. Likely, she possessed some sort of hidden trouble.

However, it remained that Chu Feng's nod was done very reluctantly. Actually, had it been his body that was seized, he would have nodded his head without the slightest hesitation. However, the Moon Immortal had seized the bodies of Su Rou and Su Mei. Chu Feng was unable to make decisions on their behalf, nor was he willing to see their bodies being controlled by someone else.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng said, “If possible, may I request one thing?”

“You want me to eliminate that monster?” The Moon Immortal asked.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded his head again. Actually, he found it embarrassing to ask that. After all, he had viewed the Moon Immortal as an enemy before. However, there was now no other choice.

“Even without you requesting that of me, I would’ve done so. Else, I would not have come here today. However, there is one thing that I must remind you of.”

“I was able to beat that monster today. However, next time around, even I do not have certainty in being able to defeat him,” The Moon Immortal said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart immediately sunk.

Chapter 2058 – Transmogrification Gate

“However, you can rest assured. I will definitely go all-out to find that monster and take care of him. Consider that as my compensation for taking control of your lover’s bodies,” After the Moon Immortal finished saying those words, she disappeared.

Likely, she had gone to search for the Dark Hall’s Hall Master as she had declared she would.

Merely, seeing Su Rou and Su Mei disappearing before his eyes caused Chu Feng to feel extremely complicated in his heart.

Suddenly, the Elf King’s voice sounded, “It would seem that the Moon Immortal is not evil. Your lovers should be fine.” Chu Feng turned around and discovered that the Elf King was standing not far away from him. It would seem that he had heard the conversation Chu Feng had with the Moon Immortal.

At that moment, Chu Feng looked into the distance. He discovered that the massacre of the Dark Hall’s headquarters had already entered its ending phase.

Regardless of whether they were the people from the Dark Hall, the Ancient Era’s ferocious beasts or the elders and elites of the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace that had submitted to the Dark Hall, they were practically all killed by the Alliance Army.

The curtain had dropped for this battle. However, Chu Feng’s heart was unable to be at ease. Instead, it grew even more heavy.

Likely, it was not only him. Instead, everyone from the Alliance Army should be feeling this way. After all, they had all experienced the frightening power of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Your Majesty, I’m afraid that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master will be difficult to deal with. We must make preparations,” Chu Feng said.

“The Dark Hall’s Hall Master should have cultivated a demonic technique. His demonic technique is related to the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. Indeed, it is difficult to deal with. Little friend Chu Feng, if you have any suggestions, speak away," The Elf King said to Chu Feng.

"The demonic technique that the Dark Hall's Hall Master cultivated is not only related to the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts. In fact, it concerns all living things in the Holy Land of Martialism," Chu Feng said.

"Little friend Chu Feng, what do you mean by that?" The Elf King asked.

"The fusion of the Dark Hall's Hall Master with the Ancient Era's ferocious beasts is only a part of it. What he planned to do next is the most frightening. That is, he planned to use the lives of all the living things in this world to increase his cultivation."

"He is planning to refine all of the living things in the Holy Land of Martialism. He does not care about the quality, and instead only cares about the quantity. The reason for that is because the demonic technique that he trained in only cares about the quantity of lives refined," Chu Feng told the Elf King what Xue Ji had said to him.

"Little friend Chu Feng, is what you said for certain? How do you know about this?" The Elf King asked with a frown. He also realized that the situation was bad.

Ten thousand years ago, the calamity brought forth by the Magma Emperor was already an extremely frightening one. However, if what Chu Feng said was true, then another calamity would befall them now.

Living things? That would not only include the humans, monstrous beasts and Ancient Era's Elves. Living things also included plants, flowers, and trees, as well as birds and animals.

Ten thousand years ago, the Magma Emperor had wanted to rule over the Holy Land of Martialism. However, today, that Dark Hall's Hall Master wanted to completely eliminate all living things in the Holy Land of Martialism. He planned to turn the Holy Land of Martialism into a land of death.

Compared to the appearance of the Magma Emperor, the appearance of the Dark Hall's Hall Master was, without a doubt, the true calamity.

"Senior, truth be told, that Dark Hall's Xue Ji is the Asura World Spirit that I released at the Nangong Imperial Clan. She was the one that told me all that," Chu Feng said.

"She's your World Spirit? But, shouldn't she have become an Evil Spirit after you released her? Why am I unable to sense any Evil Spirit's aura from her?" After hearing this, the Elf King was astonished.

"I am also very confused by it. To be honest, I did not know much about that Evil Spirit to begin with. However, it remains that she saved my life earlier. Even though I do not know what she plans to do, and I also feel that she is very dangerous, I feel that what she said was definitely not to deceive me," Chu Feng said.

"It would seem that we must think of a way to handle this matter then," At that moment, the Elf King was frowning deeply. He appeared to have entered deep into his thoughts.

"That's it!! There's a place that could shelter the people of the Holy Land of Martialism."

"Merely, although the Dark Hall's Hall Master is still unable to gain complete control over his power, I feel that he will soon be able to do so. The time that we have to evacuate everyone is truly too short," The Elf King said with a frown.

"There really is a place that could shelter all the living things in the Holy Land of Martialism?" Chu Feng asked.

"There's nothing we can do about the plants and animals.

However, we can evacuate the human and monstrous beast elites.”

“Before the great calamity, if we are unable to stop it, we can only think of a way to lower the damage to its minimum,” The Elf King said.

Chu Feng approved of the Elf King’s opinion. If they really could not stop the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, then decreasing the damage would be the only thing they could do.

“Is the place that you spoke of in the Elf Kingdom?” Chu Feng asked.

“No, it’s not in our Elf Kingdom. The grand formation in our Elf Kingdom is also unable to withstand the assault from a Half Martial Ancestor,” The Elf King said.

“Then... exactly where is it?” Chu Feng asked.

“The place is called the Transmogrification Gate. The Transmogrification Gate is something from the Ancient Era. Unless its master opens the gate, no one will be able to find it. As such, how could one possibly enter it? Thus, that place is definitely safe because the Dark Hall’s Hall Master will also not be able to find it,” The Elf King said.

“There’s actually such a place? Then, exactly where is that Transmogrification Gate? Who is its master?” Chu Feng asked.

“I do not know about the exact location of the Transmogrification Gate. The reason for that is because the Transmogrification Gate has been wandering through the Holy Land of Martialism the entire time.”

“However, I am able to find its general location. As for the owner of the Transmogrification Gate, it is the head of the Holy Land of Martialism’s Ten Immortals, the Heaven Reaching Immortal,” The Elf King said.

“Indeed, it’s the Heaven Reaching Immortal. Did you know that although the Heaven Reaching Immortal is extremely renowned right now, he was only a Gold-cloak World Spiritist before he reached two thousand years of age? Furthermore, his cultivation was also very limited.”

“Thus, the reason why he was able to live for over ten thousand years and reach his current level of strength is because he had managed to obtain a great fortunate encounter.”

“As for his fortunate encounter, he coincidentally saved the previous master of the Transmogrification Gate. That person was at the end of his life. He saw that although the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s talent was not that good, his moral conduct was very good. Thus, he dubbed the Heaven Reaching Immortal the new master of the Transmogrification Gate.”

“It is precisely by relying on the power of the Transmogrification Gate that the Heaven Reaching Immortal reached his current level of strength.”

“Merely, only a very few people know about this matter. Likely, only three people in the Holy Land of Martialism know about it right now.”

“They are the Heaven Reaching Immortal, me and now you,” The Elf King said.

“Never would I have expected the Heaven Reaching Immortal to have such a secret. No wonder no one was capable of finding him,” Chu Feng finally realized why the Heaven Reaching Immortal was so mysterious.

“Your Majesty, since you knew about this, you must be close friends with the Heaven Reaching Immortal, right? In that case, it would seem that the people of the world can be saved,” The way Chu Feng saw it, it was most likely the Heaven Reaching Immortal who had told the Elf King about this secret and the general location of the Transmogrification Gate. As such, their relationship must be special.

Chapter 2059 – Total Evacuation

“The Heaven Reaching Immortal has a very odd temperament. Even though he possesses a decent relationship with me, this is ‘decent’ only when compared to his relationships with others. Thus, in the end, the relationship that I have with him is only at that level.”

“If I have something to request of him, he might decide to help me if he’s in a good mood. However, if I am to bring all these people to find him, I fear that he will not agree to help.”

“However, there is nothing that can be done about this. We have no choice but to test our luck. If he is to decide to ignore the deaths of all the living things in the world, then it could only be said to be a tribulation that we have to go through,” After saying those words, the Elf King revealed a helpless expression.

Even though he had been cracking down on the Dark Hall not long after they had appeared, the current situation had already surpassed the range of his ability. At that moment, he had become powerless.

“Merely, the population of the Holy Land of Martialism is too enormous. There are definitely over a hundred quintillion beings here. It is impossible to move all of them at such short notice.”

“As such, only the elites can be saved. However, even if we only save the people from the major powers, we might still not necessarily be able to make it in time,” After saying those words, the Elf King revealed a sentimental gaze.

At that moment, Chu Feng also felt very unwell. It was not his desire to be unable to save everyone. However, with the situation at hand, it was the only thing they could do.

They all say that the greater the strength one possesses, the greater the responsibility one possessed. Unwittingly, Chu Feng and the Elf King were tasked with the heavy responsibility of saving all living things in the world. The pressure from that was something that only they understood.

“I was unable to do much regarding the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. However, now... perhaps I might be able to do something.”

“I have a method we can try,” Chu Feng said.

“What is it?” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the Elf King was overjoyed.

“To create spatial warships that can travel back and forth through the Ancient Era’s Teleportation Formations,” Chu Feng said.

“Spatial warships?” The Elf King was surprised to hear that. However, he also revealed an anticipating gaze. He was able to tell that the ‘spatial warships’ that Chu Feng spoke of would be extremely remarkable.

Chu Feng continued, “The amount of people that we wish to evacuate right now is too numerous. Furthermore, they must be moved to the location of the Transmogrification Gate in a short period of time. As such, we must create spatial warships that the Holy Land of Martialism currently lacks.”

“Spatial warships are actually very simple. When steered by Martial Emperor-level experts, they will possess the speed of the Martial Emperors steering them. Furthermore, they can sail through the Ancient Era’s Teleportation Formations. Most importantly, spatial warships use a spatial formation to create an isolated space in the warship. With that, more people can enter them, and we will be able to evacuate more people in a short period of time.”

“That’s a great idea. Merely, these spatial warships must require a lot of time to create, right? We might not necessarily have enough time for them,” The Elf King said.

“Due to the fact that the speed of the spatial warships will be determined by the person steering it, it would be fine to make a single steering formation. That is a very easy task.”

“As for the isolated space, it also does not need to be enormous. It would do as long as it was capable of accommodating a sufficient amount of people. Thus, that is also relatively simple. I am able to create ten such spatial warships in a day,” Chu Feng said.

“Ten a day?” Hearing those words, the Elf King was even more shocked. However, he knew that Chu Feng was not someone that would boast. Thus, at the same time as he was shocked, he was more overjoyed.

“That’s great. If it is truly possible, we would be able to save more people,” Even though a catastrophe was about to befall them, the Elf King still revealed an overjoyed expression on his face.

Then, after the Alliance Army finished sweeping up the battlefield, they began to move toward the Elf Kingdom. As for Chu Feng, he began to form the spatial warships with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists.

With the assistance of the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others, Chu Feng managed to create a total of fifteen spatial warships in a day.

Whenever a spatial warship was completed, many high level Martial Emperors would personally board the spatial warships to steer them. They would immediately leave to evacuate elites from all over the Holy Land of Martialism.

Their first destinations were the Underworld Palace, the Cyanwood Mountain, the Four Great Imperial Clans, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Ancient Era’s Elves’ various territories.

Following that, they went to move the various other monstrous beast races and the Nine Powers.

After that, it was the unknown powers. In short... they would attempt to save as many people as they could. They planned to put forth their greatest strength to help others.

Even though the Heavenly Law Palace and the Mortal King Palace had submitted to the Dark Hall, the Ancient Era's Elves still dispatched two spatial warships to save them. After all, the ones that had submitted to the Dark Hall were the elites, whereas the Heavenly Law Palace and Mortal King Palace's elders and disciples that remained were innocent.

However, even with this being the case, they must prevent there being spies from the Dark Hall notifying the Dark Hall's Hall Master that everyone had left for the so-called Transmogrification Gate.

Thus, all of the spatial warships possessed powerful isolation effects. Upon entering them, one would definitely not be able to send any news outside.

Currently, the mission to save the living things of the world was in full operation. Furthermore, the speed of the operation could be said to be lightning fast. However, it was not all smooth sailing.

It was fine for the Cyanwood Mountain, the Underworld Palace, the King Monstrous Dragon Race and the Four Great Imperial Clans, in other words, the powers allied with the Ancient Era's Elves, as they knew the terror of the Dark Hall and believed in the Ancient Era's Elves. Thus, even though they found it very difficult to accept, they still ended up abandoning their respective powers that had existed for tens of thousands of years and gathered up all of their treasures and people from their powers to enter the spatial warships.

However, for the other powers, they did not fully trust the Ancient Era's Elves' words of an imminent calamity.

Chapter 2060 – Refused

At that moment, Chu Feng was steering the spatial warship and moving toward the direction of the Transmogrification Gate. The rescue operation was winding down right now. All of the spatial warships had completed their rescue missions and begun to proceed toward the direction of the Transmogrification Gate.

The reason for that was because it was reported from an Ancient Era's Elves' territory that tracks from the Dark Hall's Hall Master had been found. Fortunately, the Ancient Era's Elves there had already been evacuated. Else, they would have suffered enormously.

The reason for that was because that Ancient Era's Elves' territory had already been turned into ruins. Not only had it been ruined, there was also an appalling scene of devastation left behind.

Thus, it was currently certain that the Dark Hall's Hall Master had begun to attack. Even though there were a lot of powers and a lot of people to be saved still, they had to give up on them.

The reason for that was because all of the spatial warships had received orders from the Elf King. As such, all of the spatial warships were proceeding toward the location of the Transmogrification Gate.

When unleashing his full power, Chu Feng possessed the strength of a rank eight Martial Emperor. Thus, the spatial warship that he steered was extremely fast.

At that moment, the World Spiritist Immortal, the World Spiritist Alliance's Alliance Master and the others that possessed close relationships with Chu Feng were all stunned.

Firstly, they had not expected that during the time when they started the grand formation to isolate themselves from the Holy Land of Martialism till now, so many things would have happened in the Holy Land of Martialism. In fact, it had reached a point where a calamity was about to befall the Holy Land of Martialism.

That being said, they were even more shocked by Chu Feng's strength. None of them had expected Chu Feng to become this much more powerful in such a short period of time.

“Milord, what level of cultivation does little friend Chu Feng possess now?” Feeling curious, the World Spiritist Alliance's Alliance Master turned to ask the World Spiritist Immortal.

Hearing that question, Sima Ying and the others all turned their gazes over. As Chu Feng was steering the warship, it was unsuitable for them to bother him. However, they also wished to know what Chu Feng's current cultivation was. Thus, they could only turn their hopes to the World Spiritist Immortal. After all, he was one of the Ten Immortals, and the strongest person in their World Spiritist Alliance.

“I'm not sure. However, the way I see it, there are less than ten people in the current Holy Land of Martialism that would be able to contend against little friend Chu Feng,” The World Spiritist Immortal said.

“Sssss~~~”

instantly the crowd all sucked in a mouthful of cold air as they looked to Chu Feng again.

While this came as a shock for all of them, for Sima Ying and the others who had known Chu Feng personally back when he was still very weak, they were feeling extremely complicated right now.

Although they had all progressed, it remained that they were of the younger generation, and could not compare with people from the older generations.

However, Chu Feng, someone who used to possess the same level of strength as them, someone who used to be weaker than them, had grown to become so powerful that even their World Spiritist Immortal could not fathom his strength.

Laughing happily, Sima Ying asked Miao Renlong, who was beside her, “Grandpa Miao, say, could this be considered to be witnessing the rise of an overlord?”

“Why’s that? Could it be that Chu Feng, even with his strength, is still unable to become an overlord?” Sima Ying asked in a confused manner.

“No,” Miao Renlong shook his head again, “What I meant is that it was not only you who has witnessed the rise of an overlord, but rather all of us.”

“Haha, Grandpa Miao, you’re so bad. You’re actually teasing me,” Hearing those words, Sima Ying burst into loud laughter. Her laughter was very brilliant, and was exactly the same as it had been years ago.

However, she suddenly looked to Chu Feng again. As she looked to Chu Feng’s back view, her laughter suddenly froze.

Even though she had considered Chu Feng to be her best friend, she suddenly felt unfamiliarity from Chu Feng.

It was not that Chu Feng had done something to her. Rather, she felt that sort of sensation herself.

The current Chu Feng was someone even the World Spiritist Immortal was very respectful toward. For a nobody like herself, could she still remain Chu Feng’s friend?

Thinking about it, Sima Ying suddenly felt heartache, and involuntarily lowered her head in a dispirited manner.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded. “Hey, what are you blanking out for?”

Hearing that voice, Sima Ying’s petite body immediately trembled. She raised her head, and discovered that Chu Feng, who was still steering the warship, was currently looking at her with a beaming smile on his face.

That smile was so very familiar.

Suddenly Sima Ying suddenly felt warmth in her heart. She was so emotional that the corners of her eyes started to grow moist.

It turned out that Chu Feng was still the same Chu Feng. He had not distanced himself because he had become more powerful. It turned out that she had been overthinking things.

“Why aren’t you coming over here to chat with me? It’s very lonely for me to steer the warship myself,” Chu Feng said with another smile.

“Haha, I just didn’t want to disturb you,” At that moment, Sima Ying also smiled brilliantly. As she spoke, she secretly wiped away the tears at the corners of her eyes. Then, she happily ran over to Chu Feng’s side.

Jumping and hopping, she still looked like a little girl. However, she did not notice that there were countless gazes looking at her from behind. Those gazes were all filled with deep admiration and envy.

To be able to be this intimate with Chu Feng was something that countless people could only dream of now.

However, Sima Ying had achieved such a thing. It was not that Sima Ying was lucky. Rather, it was because she had become Chu Feng’s friend during the time when he needed friends the most. She had helped him during the time when he needed help the most.

.....

After continuing on with their journey, the spatial warship that Chu Feng was piloting finally arrived at an uninhabited location.

This was truly an uninhabited land devoid of human habitation. In other words, this place was completely overgrown with vegetation, and simply uninhabited.

However, at that moment, over a hundred spatial warships had appeared in this uninhabited land. Furthermore, all of the spatial warships contained at least several tens of millions of humans or monstrous beasts. The spatial warships that contained the most people contained over a hundred million people.

However, when compared to the population of the Holy Land of Martialism, this was still a very small amount. Thus, when Chu Feng saw that many spatial warships were gathered here, and there were still more spatial warships incoming after they landed, Chu Feng felt grieved in his heart.

Even though he had already known this was going to happen, when all of this actually happened, when he thought of how so many people would end up dying at the hands of the Dark Hall's Hall Master, Chu Feng still ended up blaming himself endlessly.

It was because he was not strong enough; he was unable to protect the lives of the living things in the Holy Land of Martialism.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you’ve finally arrived.”

At that moment, Lord Lianghua, Lord Luokong, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the others appeared. They were awaiting Chu Feng's arrival.

Chu Feng hurriedly descended from the spatial warship and arrived before Lord Lianghua and the others.

“Those people over there, they seem to be the Ancient Era's Elves' Grand Elders, no?”

“Heavens, little friend Chu Feng has become so powerful now. Even the Ancient Era's Elves' Grand Elders are this intimate with him?”

Seeing how the grand characters of the Ancient Era's Elves were being this friendly with Chu Feng, the experts from the World Spiritist Alliance that were still in the warship's isolated space all felt their hearts tremble.

In fact, it was not only them. All of the people from the various other warships were acting the same way.

The reason for that was because even though they were all in their respective warships' isolated spaces, they were able to see everything that was happening outside.

"What's the situation? Is that Transmogrification Gate here?" Chu Feng asked.

"Yes, it's in the vicinity. Furthermore, His Majesty has already taken Princess Miaomiao to go through and contact the Heaven Reaching Immortal. Whether or not we will succeed will all depend on this," Lord Luokong said.

"There shouldn't be any mishap, I hope," Chu Feng said with a slightly worried tone.

"There shouldn't be. After all, countless lives are gathered here. I refuse to believe that the Heaven Reaching Immortal would be so heartless as to refuse to see us," Lord Lianghua said.

"Chu Feng."

Right at that moment, the Elf King's voice sounded. Following that, the space beside Chu Feng started to tremble. Then, two figures appeared. They were the Elf King and Xian Miaomiao.

Merely, this time around, the two of them possessed unsightly expressions on their faces. Especially Xian Miaomiao. She had a face filled with complaints.

Seeing this scene, Chu Feng started to frown. However, he still walked forward and asked, "Your Majesty, how was it?"

At that moment, the Elf King did not say anything. However, he lightly shook his head.

At this moment, the expressions of Chu Feng and the others all changed enormously.

They knew that they have been refused admission.

Chapter 2061 – Paving The Road

Unable to contain himself, Lord Lianghua asked, “Your Majesty, has the Heaven Reaching Immortal actually refused us?”

“I am incompetent. I was unable to persuade him. It’s all my fault,” The Elf King was filled with self-blame.

At this moment, Princess Lingyue stepped forward. “Father, we cannot sit and wait for death. How about we gather all of the people from the spatial warships and have them all ask the Heaven Reaching Immortal with us? I refuse to believe that he would be so heartless to really refuse to save us.”

“It is indeed worth a try. After all, we cannot resign ourselves to fate,” Lord Luokong and the other Grand Elders and Elf Protectors also voiced their agreement.

At this moment, the Elf King looked to the surroundings. He looked to the hundred and twenty three spatial warships that were gathered here, as well as the incoming spatial warships in the distance. His gaze started to change. In the end, he nodded.

As matters stood, he had no other methods either. This was the only thing they could do. Hopefully, by using the power of the people gathered here, they would be able to soften the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s heart.

Thus, Chu Feng, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other world spiritists set up a grand isolation formation ten thousand miles away. They were afraid that there would be people signaling their location to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. After all, one must always be on guard against others.

After they finished setting up the isolation spirit formation, the numerous crowds began to exit the spatial warships. At this moment, people filled this vast uninhabited land. It had truly turned into a sea of people.

At this moment, the people that were confused as to what was happening began to walk toward Chu Feng and the others.

The leaders of the various powers even began to politely greet the Elf King, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal and the other grand characters present. Naturally, many people were greeting Chu Feng and attempting to court favors from him too.

Merely, Chu Feng was in no mood to pay attention to them. At the very most, he merely greeted them with a smile, and was disinclined to bother chatting with them.

Seeing that more and more people were attempting to come over, the Ancient Era's Elves' guards set up a blockade with a cordon around the area. Unless they were actual grand characters, no one was allowed to enter.

Suddenly, Chu Feng heard a familiar voice. "Hey, let us in. We know Chu Feng."

"Chili Pepper, stop messing around. Let's go back. Even the elders are unable to enter, how could we possibly be able to enter?"

He turned toward the direction of the voice, and discovered three familiar faces there. They were being blocked outside of the cordon.

They were the three Underworld Palace's disciples he had encountered at the Gong Ba Plains. They were the brothers Big Radish and Little Radish, as well as the woman by the name of Chili Pepper.

Merely, at this moment, the three of them were being prevented from entering by the Ancient Era's Elves experts.

Chili Pepper had a furious expression on her face and was shouting, while Big Radish was trying to calm her down. As for Little Radish, he was looking around, seemingly trying to find Chu Feng from among the crowd.

At this moment, even though a lot of people wanted to meet Chu Feng, none of them dared to make a big fuss about it. Especially when faced with the Ancient Era's Elves' experts, many people kept a respectful distance from them. Thus, at this moment, Chili Pepper and the others had become the focus of the crowd.

“What a bunch of country bumpkins. You should look at your own status first before proclaiming to know Chu Feng.”

“Who is Chu Feng? He is a grand character that can stand alongside people like the Elf King, the Underworld Palace's Palace Master and the Weaponry Refinement Immortal. How could they possibly know Chu Feng?”

“Don't say it like that. Perhaps they really do know Chu Feng. Merely, Chu Feng doesn't know them.”

“That's true, hahahaha!!!”

At this moment, many people began to mock Chili Pepper and the others. Faced with the mockery from the crowd, not only did Big Radish and Little Radish reveal embarrassed expressions, even Chili Pepper became slightly embarrassed.

Indeed, Chu Feng could now be considered to be someone who stood on equal footing as their Underworld Palace's Palace Master. How could he still consider them his friends?

“Scram immediately. Else, do not blame me for being rude,” Seeing that the crowd were all rebuking Chili Pepper and the others, the Ancient Era's Elf that blocked them was infused with boldness and confidence. As he spoke, he drew his Incomplete Imperial Armament. He had the attitude of attacking Chili Pepper and the others should they not move away.

At this moment, Chili Pepper started to cower. It was not that she was afraid of that Elf Guard. Rather, she was afraid that Chu Feng would refuse to recognize them.

Disappointment. The three of them all revealed disappointed expressions.

However, right at this moment, a stern shout was heard. “Who dares to touch my friends?”

Hearing that voice, everyone’s expressions changed. When the crowd saw the figure behind that Elf Guard, they all felt deep veneration, and revealed emotional expressions. The reason for that was because Chu Feng was the person standing behind the Elf Guard.

“Chu Feng!!!” At this moment, Chili Pepper was overjoyed. She hurriedly charged through the blockade and arrived at Chu Feng’s side.

Following closely behind Chili Pepper, Big Radish and Little Radish also rushed over. That Elf Guard did not dare to stop them anymore.

“Lord Chu Feng, I-I-I truly didn’t know that they were your friends,” Not only did he not dare to stop them, that Ancient Era’s Elf was so scared that he started to shiver in fear.

As matters stood, the Ancient Era’s Elves knew better than anyone else what sort of status Chu Feng possessed.

Yet, he had actually planned to attack Chu Feng’s friends. He knew that he had made an enormous mistake.

“You who lacked eyes, scram,” At this moment, Lord Lianghua shouted angrily. If the situation wasn’t so unstable, he would definitely have punished that guard.

In this sort of situation, that Elf Guard first apologized, and then hurriedly withdrew. He was replaced with another Ancient Era’s Elf guard.

Seeing this scene, the crowd were all stunned. Firstly, they did not expect that nobodies like Chili Pepper and the others would really be Chu Feng’s friends.

More than that, they were even more surprised that not only had Chu Feng admitted to knowing nobodies like them, he was also even that enthusiastic toward them.

At this moment, the ones feeling the most warmth in their hearts were none other than Chili Pepper, Big Radish and Little Radish. They were extremely happy to be Chu Feng's friends. Especially when being looked on by countless gazes of envy, they felt extremely honored.

"It's been a long time since we last met. Big Radish, Little Radish, the two of you have grown much bigger. Chili Pepper, you've also grown more beautiful," Chu Feng smiled as he surveyed the three.

At this moment, countless people were gathered here. However, to Chu Feng, there was nothing more joyous than seeing people he knew.

"None of us could compare to you. You are now a grand character that could stand on equal footing with our Lord Palace Master," Chili Pepper was more bold than the others. As she spoke, she deliberately took a glance at the Underworld Palace's Palace Master.

"You have truly thought too highly of your Palace Master. The current me would need to be under little friend Chu Feng's protection. How could I possibly be able to stand on equal footing with him?" The Underworld Palace's Palace Master said with a smile.

Even though he did not say those words with a very loud voice, it was very vigorous. As such, practically everyone present heard his voice. After hearing it, the crowd were all shocked.

In response, the Elf King said, "When fighting against the Dark Hall, little friend Chu Feng reversed the battle situation many times. The stone army here is also commanded by little friend Chu Feng. His outstanding service in this war is greater than any one of us here."

His words were spoken in the same manner as the Underworld Palace's Palace Master. Although his voice was not resounding, everyone present was able to hear it.

Their intentions were the same. They wanted to announce Chu Feng's service so that everyone would feel deep respect toward Chu Feng. They were planning to help Chu Feng gain prestige in the hearts of the crowd. They were paving the road for Chu Feng to become the overlord.

Chapter 2062 – Temperament Worsened

The Underworld Palace's Palace Master and the Elf King's words came like many thunderclaps that exploded in the hearts of the crowd.

The crowd had already noticed that the stone army guarding the various warships were all Martial Emperors. Merely, the stone army was made up of a lot of stone monsters.

Originally, they had thought that those stone monsters were some hidden power from the Ancient Era's Elves. However, never would they have thought that the stone army was actually commanded by Chu Feng.

“Truly? That stone army is actually commanded by Chu Feng?”

“Chu Feng's battle contributions actually surpassed everyone else in the war between the Ancient Era's Elves and the Dark Hall?”

“Heavens! Chu Feng is actually that powerful now?!”

“Overlord, Chu Feng is most definitely going to become this era's overlord. Sure enough, I was not mistaken.”

“That's right. Countless people have questioned Chu Feng's ability before. However, I firmly believed that Chu Feng would become this era's overlord. Look now, I was correct, wasn't I?”

Sure enough, after hearing about this, the crowd immediately burst into an uproar. Praises toward Chu Feng began to be heard from all around.

At this time, no one talked ill of Chu Feng. At this moment, they only hated that they did not have enough words to praise Chu Feng with.

Even though there were a lot of people here, the amount of grand characters present was actually very limited. The great majority of them were nobodies, people without any reputation.

For nobodies like them, they all wished that they would be able to obtain unexpected success and encounter great fortune. They wished that they would be able to obtain Chu Feng's appreciation by praising him. Like that, they would be able to enjoy a meteoric rise in status and power.

However, at this moment when the hundreds of millions of people present were all praising Chu Feng, there were also quite a few people feeling very complicated.

For example, there was Grandpa Luo's oldest granddaughter, Luo Lian. She could be said to have been one of the earliest people to know Chu Feng in the Holy Land of Martialism. She should have had a very intimate relationship with Chu Feng.

Merely, when she had first met Chu Feng, she had felt disdain toward him, and even insulted him. She had deeply looked down on Chu Feng.

However, she now remained a nobody, whereas Chu Feng had become the mightiest figure in the Holy Land of Martialism, the man that countless women yearned to make their husband.

Regret. She was filled with regret.

Chu Feng had disregarded her enmity and brought her, her grandfather and her little sister Lil Ru to the Southern Cyanwood Forest. Then, following the people from the Southern Cyanwood Forest, they had entered the Cyanwood Mountain. Furthermore, due to their relationship with Chu Feng, they were deeply respected by countless people in the Cyanwood Mountain.

However, she continued to feel that she would never be able to become Chu Feng's actual friend. It was not that Chu Feng looked down on her. Rather, it was because she had looked down on Chu Feng from the bottom of her heart.

In fact, among the vast amount of people present, there were a lot of individuals like Luo Lian.

They were all filled with hatred for themselves for looking down on Chu Feng with their dogs' eyes. Even though they were clearly nobodies themselves, they had looked down on Chu Feng because of their relatively stronger status that they possessed back then.

However, in the end, Chu Feng had become one of the people with the greatest statuses in the Holy Land of Martialism, whereas they remained nobodies. Even if they had managed to obtain some fame, it was all because of Chu Feng's influence.

However, they didn't know that it was only they themselves who were unable to undo the knot in their hearts. As long as they were willing, they would still be able to become close friends with Chu Feng.

When everyone had descended from the spatial warships, the Elf King began to make a serious announcement. "Everyone, I have a matter that I must tell you all about."

"Firstly, it's about the Dark Hall's Hall Master. That man has trained in a demonic technique. The demonic technique that he has trained in requires the refinement of living things in order to increase his cultivation. All of us here are targets that he wishes to kill."

"In other words, we are cultivation resources for him to increase his cultivation with."

"He can actually increase his cultivation by refining our lives?! That Dark Hall's Hall Master is truly reprehensible. Isn't his method too malicious?! How could he still be considered a human?!" After knowing about this matter, the crowd were both astonished and frightened. Then, they began to curse the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

"Most importantly, the Dark Hall's Hall Master possessed the cultivation of a Half Martial Ancestor. All of us here are no match for him. If he is to find this place, all of us will undoubtedly be killed," The Elf King added.

“What?! Half Martial Ancestor?!”

Hearing those words, none of the crowd were able to remain calm. Earlier, they had only rained curses at the Dark Hall’s Hall Master because they felt a sense of security with the Elf King, the Underworld Palace’s Palace Master and the other experts here.

However, upon hearing that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master actually possessed the cultivation of a Half Martial Ancestor, none of the crowd were able to remain calm. At this moment, a disturbance began to run amok through the vast crowd.

“Everyone, please calm down!” Seeing the crowd starting to panic, the Elf King shouted. His voice caused space itself to tremble.

After his loud voice was heard, the panicking crowd managed to calm down. After all, the Elf King was an extremely imposing character.

“Even though the Dark Hall’s Hall Master is very powerful, we are not sitting ducks. We have brought everyone here because there is a person here that is capable of saving everyone. That person is the Heaven Reaching Immortal,” Then, the Elf King began to explain the Heaven Reaching Immortal and his Transmogrification Gate.

He also mentioned to the crowd how his request for the Heaven Reaching Immortal to shelter them had been refused.

Right now, the Elf King wanted everyone to join hands to plead at the Heaven Reaching Immortal together. He hoped that they would be able to move the Heaven Reaching Immortal.

“Heaven Reaching Immortal, we beg of you, please let us in.”

“Heaven Reaching Immortal, please have mercy on us, please shelter us.”

“Heaven Reaching Immortal, I don’t want to die!!!!”

“Immortal, I can die, but please shelter my children. They are not even ten years old.”

.....

.....

At this moment, hundreds of millions of people began to plead to the Heaven Reaching Immortal. Their requests were all different from one another. At this moment, this place had turned extremely noisy, and a cacophony sounded in all directions.

This... was precisely what the Elf King wanted. Only by doing this would they be able to get the attention of the Heaven Reaching Immortal. Only by doing this would the Heaven Reaching Immortal possibly open the Transmogrification Gate for them.

However, no one expected that their pleas would last for three entire days and nights. Over the course of three days and three nights, all one hundred and fifty spatial warships arrived.

Many people had pleaded so loudly over the course of those three days and three nights that their voices grew hoarse. Merely, the Transmogrification Gate was still closed.

No, to be exact, no one even knew where the Transmogrification Gate was right now.

Despair. After those three days and nights, the crowd's hopes had all disappeared. At this moment, all that remained was despair. Even though they were still pleading, they were no longer as vigorous as they were three days ago.

Suddenly, a thunderclap-like curse sounded. It covered the pleading voices of the hundreds of millions of people. “Heaven Reaching Immortal, you are truly a disappointment!”

“There's this many people here; there are elderly and children here. All of them are living and alive. It could be said that they are the future hope of the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“Right now, they have all disregarded their dignities in the hopes of you offering them shelter. Yet, you refused to even let out a fart.”

“You are simply unworthy of being an Immortal. In fact, you’re not even worthy of being a human.”

It was Chu Feng. After waiting for so long with no response from the Heaven Reaching Immortal, Chu Feng was finally unable to contain himself.

Chu Feng’s words came as an enormous surprise to the crowd. Even the Elf King was startled.

At this moment, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was their only hope. For Chu Feng to curse at the Heaven Reaching Immortal like this, wouldn’t he be bringing about their destruction?

At this moment, the crowd all started to panic. Before, even though they were in despair, they still had a trace of hope in the bottoms of their hearts. However, at this moment when Chu Feng cursed at the Heaven Reaching Immortal, they felt that that trace of hope had been extinguished.

At this moment, many of the people present revealed ashen and dejected expressions.

At the same time, there were also a lot of people that felt hatred for Chu Feng in their hearts. Even though their pleading had been useless, they still felt that it was Chu Feng who had ruined their only way to survive.

“Hahahahaha...”

“Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, it’s been many years since we last met, but not only has your cultivation increased, your temperament has also worsened.”

Right at the moment when the crowd were all panicking, aged laughter suddenly sounded from above.

Chapter 2063 – Make An Exception

When that laughter sounded, practically everyone's bodies jolted. They all subconsciously felt that the person that had spoken was the Heaven Reaching Immortal.

But... they had pleaded with the Heaven Reaching Immortal for so long without any response from him. Yet, when Chu Feng cursed at him, he actually responded?

At this moment, some intelligent individuals turned their gazes to Chu Feng. They had all managed to determine the hidden intentions behind the Heaven Reaching Immortal's words. Evidently, that grand character knew Chu Feng.

Faced with the gazes from the crowd, Chu Feng was also very surprised. Although he did know a lot of people, he had never met the Heaven Reaching Immortal.

Confused, Chu Feng turned his gaze to the sky. He knew that the Heaven Reaching Immortal is there.

“Buzz~~~”

Sure enough, the space in the sky started to tremble. Then, a figure appeared.

It was an old man. He was wearing a Royal World Spiritist Cloak. After he appeared, he turned his gaze to Chu Feng and said with a beaming smile, “Little friend Chu Feng, do you still recognize me?”

“Senior, it's really you?! You're still alive?!” Upon seeing the Heaven Reaching Immortal, Chu Feng's expression changed enormously. He was greatly surprised.

Astonishment. He was truly astonished. The reason for that was because Chu Feng really did know that Heaven Reaching Immortal. Merely, Chu Feng had truly never expected the Heaven Reaching Immortal to be someone that he already knew.

If one were to ask who the Heaven Reaching Immortal was, then Chu Feng would have to reference the Nine Provinces Continent.

Back then, Chu Feng had still been a disciple of the Nine Province Continent's Azure Dragon School. Forced against his will, Chu Feng had no choice but to leave the Azure Dragon School. After that, Chu Feng had proceeded toward the Prestigious Villa to participate in the Marriage Gathering. It was in that place that Chu Feng had encountered Zi Ling again.

During the time of the Marriage Gathering, Chu Feng, Zi Ling and everyone else had gone to the Ten Thousand Monsters Mountain. In the Ten Thousand Monsters Mountain, Chu Feng and Zi Ling had intruded into a remnant. The master of that remnant was a Gold-cloak World Spiritist.

To be exact, that Gold-cloak World Spiritist had merely been a remnant thought. However, he had still been so powerful that he could have killed both Chu Feng and Zi Ling back then.

However, that Gold-cloak World Spiritist did not kill Chu Feng and Zi Ling. Instead, he had put Chu Feng through a trial. In the end, Chu Feng had managed to move that Gold-cloak World Spiritist with his passion. At the same time, he had managed to move Zi Ling. That was how Chu Feng and Zi Ling had fallen in love with one another.

Merely, Chu Feng truly had not expected that Gold-cloak World Spiritist to still be alive. Furthermore, he was actually in the Holy Land of Martialism.

The reason for that was because the Heaven Reaching Immortal that stood before Chu Feng was precisely the remnant thought that Chu Feng had encountered in the Nine Provinces Continent's Ten Thousand Monsters Mountain.

"What's wrong? Are you that surprised? Should I be dead instead?" The Heaven Reaching Immortal laughed. Then, he asked, "Why are you the only one here? What happened to your little lover? Weren't the two of you deeply in love with one another?"

"No, she's also here. Merely, she's elsewhere, and is currently unable to be with me," Chu Feng replied honestly.

Upon seeing the Heaven Reaching Immortal, the scene of what had happened back then began to appear in Chu Feng's mind nonstop. Earlier, Chu Feng had possessed hatred for the Heaven Reaching Immortal. However now, he felt an indescribable sort of familiarity toward him.

After so many years had passed, Chu Feng had experienced a whole lot. He was no longer the youngster he was back then. However, he still cherished the memory of the him from back then.

The appearance of the Heaven Reaching Immortal had truly evoked countless memories from Chu Feng. In fact, at this time, Chu Feng began to long for his lover Zi Ling again.

After all, Zi Ling was his lover who had experienced life and death tribulations together with him.

"That's good," The Heaven Reaching Immortal smiled and nodded. Then, he said, "You wish to save those people, right?"

"Senior, may you please help us?" Chu Feng asked.

"I cannot. The Transmogrification Gate possesses its own rules. I cannot allow those mortals to enter," The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng's heart tightened, and the expressions of the other people turned ashen. Originally, upon seeing Chu Feng and the Heaven Reaching Immortal talking to one another cheerfully, they thought that the two of them possessed a superb relationship with one another, and that there was hope for them. However, they did not expect that even Chu Feng was unable to make the Heaven Reaching Immortal make an exception.

“However, if you are willing, I can make an exception this one time and give them an opportunity. However, that opportunity must be seized by you,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“What is that opportunity?” Chu Feng asked.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the Heaven Reaching Immortal moved his sleeves. Then, waves of vast mist started to appear from his sleeves nonstop. Although it appeared to be mist, it was actually a special sort of cold air. However, it was no ordinary cold air, and looked more like it had been formed from some sort of treasure.

After the cold air was released, they began to fuse with one another in midair. In the end, they formed a grand formation. Countless fragment-like objects were drifting about in the grand formation.

“Enter the formation and restore the fragments in the formation into a complete picture scroll. If you succeed in doing so, you would’ve seized the opportunity for me to make an exception. I will then allow everyone to enter the Transmogrification Gate,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“Senior, isn’t this a bit too excessive? When you posed that trial for me back then, you at least allowed me to see the picture first so that I knew how to reassemble the fragments.”

“But, this time around, you’re not even allowing me to see the picture, and are instead giving me the fragments of the picture scroll to begin with. To have me restore the fragments to create a picture scroll, aren’t you deliberately making things difficult for me?” Chu Feng laughed bitterly. The Heaven Reaching Immortal was giving him the same test as last time with slight changes.

Back then, Chu Feng had undergone the test in order to save Zi Ling. Yet now... he was going to undergo this task in order to save the hundreds of millions of lives present here.

“What level of skill did you possess back then, and what level do you possess now? Your world spirit techniques are already this excellent now. Naturally, I cannot present to you such a simple test.”

“Chu Feng, I’ll warn you first. That spirit formation is not something I’ve created. Instead, it is from the Ancient Era. Upon entering it, you will have an hour. If you do not come out within an hour’s time, you will definitely die.”

“However, even if you come out within an hour, your dantian will still be damaged by it. Likely, you will never be able to recover in your lifetime, and your cultivation will not be able to increase.”

“To put it simply, should you enter that spirit formation, you will forever be damaged,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said with a beaming smile.

“What? That spirit formation is actually that powerful?” After hearing those words, everyone was alarmed. That spirit formation was truly frightening. Not only might one die upon entering it, even if one survived, one’s future would be ruined.

At that moment, the crowd all felt extremely complicated. Even though they wished to survive, they did not wish for an exceptional genius like Chu Feng, someone who possessed the potential to become this era’s overlord, to ruin his future because of them.

“Heaven Reaching Immortal, if you’re going to help, then do it. If you’re not going to help, then don’t do it. There is no need for you to deliberately make things difficult for little friend Chu Feng like this!” The Elf King spoke very angrily.

He was not angered by the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s refusal. However, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was actually using Chu Feng’s future to threaten him. This caused him to be extremely furious.

“I’m talking to Chu Feng, and not you. Little friend Chu Feng did not say anything about it, so what are you acting all emotional for?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal was not angered by the Elf King’s shout of anger. Instead, he lightly smiled. Then, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Chu Feng, I’ll ask you this only once. Are you willing to enter that spirit formation for the sake of the lives of the people of the world?”

Chapter 2064 – Why Thank?

Currently, Chu Feng was also frowning deeply and feeling very complicated.

The reason for that was because he had used his Heaven's Eyes to carefully examine that grand formation after hearing what the Heaven Reaching Immortal said. He was not examining the fragments of the picture scroll scattered around the formation, but rather the cold air that the formation contained.

Thus, he had already discovered that the cold air contained within that grand formation was extremely powerful, and truly not to be looked down upon. It was extremely dangerous. Thus, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was not joking around when he said those words.

At that moment, Chu Feng also started to hesitate. After all, if he were to enter that spirit formation, he might really end up ruining his future. However, if he didn't enter it, then the hundreds of millions of people here might end up dying.

In the end, Chu Feng said, "I'll give it a try." When comparing his own future with the lives of hundreds of millions, he had decided to sacrifice himself.

When Chu Feng's words left his mouth, the hearts of everyone present tightened. Not to mention those with a close relationship with Chu Feng, even those that were strangers to Chu Feng felt extremely complicated in their hearts.

Chu Feng was actually going to sacrifice himself for them, people completely unrelated to him!!!

"Chu Feng, have you gone mad?! Don't forget there's still the Moon Immortal! The Moon Immortal might be able to kill the Dark Hall's Hall Master! Thus, there is simply no need for you to ruin your future and endanger your life!"

“Even if that old fart Heaven Reaching Immortal doesn’t open the gate, we would not necessarily die!” Xian Miaomiao shouted loudly.

Voices similar to that began to sound and fall in succession. Practically all of the people that possessed close relationships with Chu Feng were urging him not to do it.

“Lord Chu Feng, we... we appreciate your kind intentions. But, you really shouldn’t brave such dangers for us.”

In fact, some of the people that were strangers to Chu Feng also began to urge him against it. It was not that these people were not afraid of death. Rather, they didn’t want to ruin Chu Feng’s future in order to save themselves. If that was the case, they would rather die.

This was especially true for those people that felt hatred for Chu Feng because they were afraid that Chu Feng had ruined them after he cursed at the Heaven Reaching Immortal. At this moment, those people were filled with guilt and self-blame.

Chu Feng was willing to sacrifice himself for their sake. Yet, they, out of their own selfish desires, felt hatred for Chu Feng. They truly felt themselves to be inhumane, to be a disgrace.

“Everyone, thank you all for your kind intentions. However, with the situation at hand, there is a calamity that is descending upon the Holy Land of Martialism. Even though that calamity might be prevented, it remains that that is only a possibility.”

“I do not wish to bear the risk of gambling on that possibility, for if I am to lose that gamble, everyone might end up losing their lives. Thus, I have decided that I will seize the opportunity the Heaven Reaching Immortal has given me this time around,” Chu Feng said.

“Lord Chu Feng, we truly appreciate your kind intentions. But, you are neither our relative nor our friend. As such, you do not owe us anything. There really is no need for you to ruin your future for our sake.”

After hearing what Chu Feng said, more and more people began to try to persuade Chu Feng. In fact, those that were older and had children were shedding tears.

In their eyes, no matter how powerful Chu Feng might be, he remained only a child. If their own children were to throw their lives away like this, how could they not feel heartache?

Upon thinking of Chu Feng’s parents, they were even more distressed, and began to feel that it was unworthy for Chu Feng to do such a thing.

“As they say, the greater one’s strength, the greater one’s responsibility. I, Chu Feng, am not someone with enormous strength. However, at this time, this responsibility has landed on my shoulders. As such, I must lift it up.”

“It is for no other reason than the fact that I, Chu Feng, am a man.”

“I am merely doing what I should be doing,” Chu Feng smiled.

“Woosh~~~”

Then, Chu Feng’s body shifted. Without looking back, he leapt into the grand formation.

“Chu Feng!!!” Seeing Chu Feng entering that formation, Xian Miaomiao and the others all let out sorrowful shouts.

Although that was only a spirit formation, it was akin to the gates of hell to them. Upon entering it, one would die. Even if one managed to come out alive, one would become a cripple.

Chu Feng entering that place was akin to him crippling himself, ruining his own future.

The hundreds of millions of people present were all shouting sorrowfully. Some among them even started to cry in grief. The voices of weeping, wailing, shouting and gratitude were resonating throughout the region.

Some people even started to kneel on the ground to kowtow to Chu Feng.

They were thinking the same thing as Xian Miaomiao. Chu Feng's entering of that spirit formation meant that he might not be able to come out alive.

As for the reason why Chu Feng did that, it was for them!!!

Suddenly the Elf King shouted, "All of you, quiet down! Do not distract Chu Feng!"

The Elf King's shout came like a thunderclap. It startled everyone.

Even though everything pointed to disaster for Chu Feng should he enter that spirit formation, since he had already entered, they must not cause troubles for him. Even if Chu Feng's cultivation would decrease should he come out, he would, at least, be able to come out alive.

Thus, at that moment, all the shouting and weeping noises stopped. This place where hundreds of million of people were gathered became extremely quiet. The only sound that could be heard was the sound from the grand formation in the middle of the sky.

"Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~"

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng was rapidly assembling the fragments of the picture scroll. He was doing his best to restore that picture scroll.

Not only did Chu Feng not have a lot of time, he was also being assaulted by the frightening cold air the moment he entered the grand formation.

At that moment, not only had the chilly cold air already invaded

Chu Feng's body, it was also entering Chu Feng's dantian. Furthermore, more and more was invading him.

Most importantly, when the cold air entered Chu Feng's dantian, the enormous lightning beasts within his dantian and his blood actually had no response to them. It was as if nothing had happened.

That caused Chu Feng's heart to sink, for it meant that the cold air was so extremely powerful that even his Inherited Bloodline was unable to contend against it. It would appear that his cultivation would truly be damaged.

The reason for that was because the current Chu Feng truly felt that it was extremely difficult to withstand the cold air. He felt as if he could freeze to death at any moment, and then be frozen into a humanoid statue before shattering into pieces.

"Even if I am to die, I must still complete the picture scroll. Else, I would've come here in vain," Chu Feng clenched his teeth and continued to do his best to assemble the picture scroll.

In that moment, Chu Feng had forgotten the pain from the invasion of the cold air. In fact, he had even forgotten about his own body. Before him was only that picture scroll.

Conviction. The current Chu Feng was not relying on his powerful body, nor was he relying on his Inherited Bloodline. Instead, he was relying completely on his resolution, his conviction, to all this.

"Strange."

Suddenly, Chu Feng's eyes flashed. An expression of disbelief emerged in his eyes. Then, as if he had obtained enlightenment, the speed at which Chu Feng assembled the fragment pieces grew faster and faster. Furthermore, his assembly was extremely accurate.

Suddenly, someone was unable to contain themselves and shouted, “Everyone, look! Chu Feng is about to successfully restore that picture scroll.”

The reason for that was because they saw that Chu Feng had managed to assemble half of the picture scroll in that grand formation. Furthermore, the area of the assembled picture scroll was still rapidly increasing.

“That picture, it’s strange,” Upon seeing the picture scroll that was rapidly being completed, the eyes of the Elf King and the other experts all flashed.

They all discovered that there was something strange about it. The reason for that was because it simply did not appear to be a picture. Rather, it looked more like a special sort of diagram.

However, if it was a technique’s diagram, it would appear too simple. Yet, it did not appear to be a treasure map.

“Done.”

Right at that moment, the final pieces of the picture scroll were put in place by Chu Feng. At that moment, a completed picture scroll appeared.

“That is definitely strange. That is definitely not an ordinary picture scroll,” Upon seeing the completed picture scroll, the Elf King spoke with certainty.

“Senior Heaven Reaching Immortal, thank you,” Right at this moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded from that grand formation. From that voice, not only could the crowd hear Chu Feng’s gratefulness, they were also able to hear Chu Feng’s laughter.

At that moment, all the crowd was confused.

Thank you? Why was Chu Feng saying thank you?

Chapter 2065 – I Wish To Go Out

“Thank you? Why thank you?”

At that moment, the crowd were all confused by Chu Feng’s words of thanks.

Right at that moment, with a smile on his face, Chu Feng closed his eyes. He gathered the martial power in his body and began to move it through his body following a special route.

As for the route, it was according to the diagram that Chu Feng had managed to reassemble.

Merely, that cultivation diagram was not something that just anyone could comprehend. However, Chu Feng had managed to comprehend it.

Chu Feng began to cultivate according to the cultivation diagram. Then, a vortex appeared in his dantian.

As the vortex spun, the cold air in Chu Feng’s body began to surge toward the vortex. In fact, even the cold air in the grand formation was being rapidly sucked into that vortex in Chu Feng’s dantian.

In merely an instant, all of the cold air in the grand formation was sucked into that vortex. At that moment, the vortex began to change. It turned into a crystal, covered with frost and emitting an extremely threatening cold aura. However, the crystal also contained an extremely dense amount of Natural Energy.

“Roar~~~”

Seemingly sensing the Natural Energy’s odor, the enormous sleeping lightning beasts in Chu Feng’s dantian abruptly opened their eyes. Then, with mouths wide open, they devoured the crystal.

The very next moment, Chu Feng felt a monumental amount of Natural Energy surging through his body. Then, it entered his dantian and was completely assimilated into it.

It turned out the cold air in the spirit formation was actually Natural Energy. Although it was a sort of very berserk Natural Energy, one would be able to absorb and refine the Natural Energy should one cultivate it according to a special cultivation diagram. As for that... Chu Feng had accomplished it.

Furthermore, it was true that the Natural Energy was extremely rich. Chu Feng was now only a bit away from being able to reach another breakthrough. Even though Chu Feng had failed to reach a breakthrough, the Natural Energy contained in the crystal had provided a great foundation for Chu Feng.

That was why Chu Feng was thanking the Heaven Reaching Immortal. The reason for that was because when he had seen through the cultivation diagram, Chu Feng had realized that the so-called grand formation that would definitely kill or cripple someone should they enter was actually another trial given to him by the Heaven Reaching Immortal.

Not only would his cultivation not be damaged by that grand formation, he would also not die in there. Instead, he would only obtain great benefits from it.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you were actually unable to reach a breakthrough even after refining such a dense amount of Natural Energy?” At that moment, the Heaven Reaching Immortal looked to Chu Feng with astonishment.

“My Inherited Bloodline has always possessed an extremely large appetite. As of now, their appetites are unbelievably enormous.”

“That said, the cold air in senior’s grand formation truly possessed an extremely dense amount of Natural Energy. I am actually only a bit away from reaching a breakthrough.”

“Thus, thank you senior. If it wasn’t for your assistance, it would likely have been extremely difficult for me to find such a dense amount of Natural Energy in the Holy Land of Martialism,” Chu Feng respectfully clasped his fist at the Heaven Reaching Immortal.

“To sacrifice oneself for others. Very few people are capable of doing that. However, when it is for relatives, some people are able to accomplish that.”

“But, to be able to sacrifice yourself for those that are unrelated to you is simply something that I’ve never seen before. However, little friend Chu Feng, you’ve accomplished that.”

“You possess a heart filled with universal love. It is not only the Holy Land of Martialism that needs you. Instead, the entire world needs you. Only when someone like you manages to gain strength could it benefit the people of the world.”

“Thus... that cold air was something that only you deserved.”

“Furthermore, other than you, there would likely not have been anyone else in the entire Holy Land of Martialism that could have refined it.”

“No, I’ve nearly forgotten. That Dark Hall’s Hall Master also seemed to be capable of doing it. However, I would not have presented such a precious thing to that sort of fellow,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said with a beaming smile.

After hearing what the Heaven Reaching Immortal said, the crowd’s hearts were all fluctuating. They were shocked to discover that all the things earlier were only a trial for Chu Feng. After Chu Feng passed the trial, not only was he fine, he had also obtained quite a benefit.

However, for people like the Elf King and Chu Feng, they were not shocked because of that. Rather, from what the Heaven Reaching Immortal had said, they were able to tell that even though the Heaven Reaching Immortal had been in closed-door training year-round, he seemed to be extremely knowledgeable of the situation in the Holy Land of Martialism.

Else, how could he know that the Dark Hall's Hall Master was also capable of refining that cold air?

“Buzz~~~”

Right at this moment, a key appeared in the Heaven Reaching Immortal's hand. He pointed that key at the empty space behind him. Immediately, a golden light began to envelop the area ahead in a circular form.

Being enveloped by the golden light, an enormous gate appeared.

That gate was transparent, and seemed to be forged of crystals and glass. However, without a doubt, the gate was extremely sturdy. It was an indestructible gate.

The space surrounding the gate was being distorted nonstop. It was extremely strange in appearance.

However, when the people present saw the gate, they were all overjoyed. The reason for that was because they all saw the words on top of the gate.

Transmogrification Gate!!!

After the Heaven Reaching Immortal summoned the Transmogrification Gate, he looked to his surroundings and said loudly, “Everyone, look carefully. Look clearly, and remember this moment.”

“Not only is that the Transmogrification Gate, it is also the gate that can save you all.”

“However, this opportunity was fought for by Chu Feng. It is because of Chu Feng that you all will have the chance to enter that gate.”

At that moment, the crowd all turned their gazes to Chu Feng. Even though the crowd did not say anything, gratefulness toward Chu Feng filled their gazes.

Though the Elf King and the others had been trying to establish Chu Feng's prestige to the crowd earlier, they would definitely not do that anymore.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng's conduct and deeds were most definitely engraved in the hearts of the hundreds of millions of people present.

To them, regardless of whether or not Chu Feng became the overlord in the future, they would all treat Chu Feng with the utmost respect. It was not because of how powerful Chu Feng was. Rather, it was because Chu Feng had saved all of their lives.

Chu Feng had used his actions to move the hearts of everyone here.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, the key in the Heaven Reaching Immortal's hand shone with light again. Then, the Transmogrification Gate began to slowly open before the crowd's eyes.

“Little friend Chu Feng, go ahead and enter,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said to Chu Feng. His intention was very clear. He wanted Chu Feng to be the first to enter the Transmogrification Gate.

As the Transmogrification Gate opened, the largest stone in Chu Feng's heart dropped. Thus, he did not try to act courteous, and took the lead to enter the Transmogrification Gate.

Upon entering the Transmogrification Gate, Chu Feng discovered that the inside of the Transmogrification Gate was truly a different world. It was an extremely vast space, with a blue sky, white clouds, green hills and clear waters. There were strange and precious herbs here, as well as the most ordinary little animals. This place could truly be considered to be a paradise in the Holy Land of Martialism.

The reason for that was because the peacefulness of this place had not been ruined by human habitation.

Following Chu Feng, the Elf King, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Xian Miaomiao and the others entered the Transmogrification Gate in succession.

As for the hundreds of million of other people there, they were monitored by the Ancient Era's Elves, and all entered the Transmogrification Gate in an orderly manner.

At the moment when the Transmogrification Gate closed, the suspended hearts of the crowd were finally relaxed. They all felt an unprecedented sense of security in this place.

“Senior, could you open the gate? I wish to go out,” At that moment when the people were all settling down, Chu Feng found the Heaven Reaching Immortal and made such a request.

Chapter 2066 – Significant

“Little friend Chu Feng, the only person that can handle the Dark Hall’s Hall Master in the Holy Land of Martialism right now is the Moon Immortal. If the Moon Immortal is defeated, no one in the entire Holy Land of Martialism will be able to contain him. Other than this Transmogrification Gate, there will not be any safe place in the Holy Land of Martialism.”

“Unless that Dark Hall’s Hall Master leaves by himself, we absolutely cannot leave the Transmogrification Gate. You should understand that too. Thus, why do you want to leave now? What do you plan to do?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked in a very puzzled manner.

“I have a senior that is still guarding the Heavenly Road’s exit from the Eastern Sea Region. I cannot disregard him,” Chu Feng would naturally not forget about the Compass Immortal that had gone to the Heavenly Road’s exit from the Eastern Sea Region to wait for the appearance of spatial cracks.

“So that’s the case,” Hearing those words, the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s gaze flickered slightly. He was still hesitant on whether or not to let Chu Feng out.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a golden flash of light appeared in the distance. Soon, that golden flash of light arrived before Chu Feng.

Upon seeing that golden light, Chu Feng’s eyes immediately shone. The reason for that was because that golden light was a Golden Flash Bird. Furthermore, that Golden Flash Bird was flying around Chu Feng.

That meant that the Golden Flash Bird had come to find Chu Feng.

Upon seeing that Golden Flash Bird, Chu Feng’s gaze immediately turned into one of joy. The reason for that was because practically all of the people related to him that could let out something as precious as a Golden Flash Bird were all in this Transmogrification Gate.

However, there was another person with a Golden Flash Bird that Chu Feng had left his imprint on. That person was the Compass Immortal.

Chu Feng received the Golden Flash Bird. When Chu Feng placed his finger on its forehead, a piece of news immediately entered Chu Feng's mind.

“Little friend Chu Feng, a spatial crack that could lead to the Eastern Sea Region has appeared. Come quickly!”

When that news entered Chu Feng's mind, Chu Feng immediately revealed a brilliant smile.

The Compass Immortal had managed to successfully wait for the arrival of the spatial crack. Merely, Chu Feng had not expected the spatial crack to appear at such a crucial moment.

The appearance of the spatial crack meant that Chu Feng would have the opportunity to return to the Eastern Sea Region, return to the Nine Provinces Continent to undo the Emperor's Tomb and the secret left behind by Qing Xuantian.

“The Heavens are truly helping me,” At this moment, Chu Feng who did not believe in the Heavens was unable to contain himself from exclaiming in admiration and thanking the Heavens.

Originally, Chu Feng had felt that they could only sit and wait for death when faced with the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

It would be great if the Moon Immortal were able to defeat the Dark Hall's Hall Master. However, if she was unable to defeat the Dark Hall's Hall Master, then, it would be as the Heaven Reaching Immortal had said, and all of them would have to stay in the Transmogrification Gate for an extended period of time until the Dark Hall's Hall Master left the Holy Land of Martialism after killing all the living things there. Only then could they return to the Holy Land of Martialism.

However, after the spatial crack appeared, Chu Feng had another choice, another opportunity.

Not mentioning whether or not Chu Feng would be able to obtain anything from Qing Xuantian's Emperor's Tomb, he would be able to awaken the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise, the Four Great Divine Beasts, should he be able to open the Emperor's Tomb.

If Chu Feng was able to find their physical bodies, then he would be able to restore them to being Divine Beasts.

Back then, the Four Great Divine Beasts had contributed greatly to Qing Xuantian being able to defeat the Magma Emperor.

Thus, although Chu Feng did not know what their cultivations were, he felt that it would not be impossible for them to be Half Martial Ancestors. After all, Qing Xuantian was already extremely powerful.

The reason for that was because no one knew what level of cultivation Qing Xuantian had achieved.

"Little friend Chu Feng, what is the happy occasion that could cause you to smile so joyously?" The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked curiously. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had on an extremely serious expression earlier, but revealed a joyous expression upon seeing the Golden Flash Bird. And now, he was unable to contain his smiles. This let the Heaven Reaching Immortal realize that the Golden Flash Bird must've transmitted great news for Chu Feng.

"Long story short, as long as I can return to the Eastern Sea Region, I will have a chance to uncover senior Qing Xuantian's remnants. I will also have the chance to awaken his four Guardian Beasts.”

“Thus, I had asked senior Compass Immortal to wait for the appearance of a spatial crack in the Eastern Sea Region’s Heavenly Road. The reason for that is because I am only able to return to the Eastern Sea Region through such a spatial crack.”

“The Golden Flash Bird earlier was sent to me by senior, the Compass Immortal. He had managed to successfully wait for the appearance of a spatial crack. I am now able to return to the Eastern Sea Region,” Chu Feng spoke the truth.

“In that case, it is truly great news,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“That’s right. Thus, senior, I’m afraid that you must open the Transmogrification Gate for me and let me out,” Chu Feng said.

“Take this. With it, you’ll be able to enter and exit my Transmogrification Gate. After leaving this place, you will also be able to accurately determine the location of my Transmogrification Gate,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal handed a key to Chu Feng.

That key was very peculiar. It greatly resembled the key that the Heaven Reaching Immortal had used to open the Transmogrification Gate. The only difference was that the key used by the Heaven Reaching Immortal was extremely large, whereas the one he gave to Chu Feng was very small, being only the size of a little finger.

Evidently, there was more than a single key to the Transmogrification Gate. And now, the Heaven Reaching Immortal had handed such a precious key to Chu Feng.

“Thank you, senior. In that case, junior shall take his leave now. As for the matter regarding my return to the Eastern Sea Region, senior, please inform His Majesty and the others for me,” Chu Feng did not wish to waste any time, and planned to leave right away.

Then, the Heaven Reaching Immortal personally saw Chu Feng to the entrance of the Transmogrification Gate.

Using that small key, Chu Feng opened a small door at the lower left corner of the Transmogrification Gate.

That door was very small. It was three meters tall. When compared to the main gate of the Transmogrification Gate, it was extremely small. However, it was large enough for one to pass through.

“Senior, I have a question that I am very puzzled by.”

“This Transmogrification Gate is hidden within the space and void. No one could find out where it is. Even if one were to discover its location, one would also not be able to enter. Thus, how did the Golden Flash Bird manage to find me, and even enter it?” Chu Feng asked in a very puzzled manner.

As a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, he could sense how powerful the Transmogrification Gate was. Although Half Martial Ancestors were very powerful, the Transmogrification Gate was still capable of withstanding them.

However, it was precisely such a place that was capable of stopping Half Martial Ancestors that had failed to stop a Golden Flash Bird.

It was the same thing with the Blood Devouring Killing Formation. Like the Transmogrification Gate, it had also been unable to stop the Golden Flash Bird.

Thus, Chu Feng was filled with curiosity toward that mysterious creature.

“The Transmogrification Gate is from the Ancient Era. The Golden Flash Birds are also from the Ancient Era. Both of them possess their own miraculous qualities. However, if you are to ask me about it, I would have no answer for you either.”

“If you wish to know, then you should focus on your cultivation. After entering the Outer World and gaining more knowledge, you might be able to explain these various mysteries. However, for that to happen, you must first continue to survive,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said with significance.

Chapter 2067 – Spatial Crack

“Thank you senior for your advice. Junior shall take his leave now.”

Chu Feng smiled lightly. He understood the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s intentions. The meaning behind the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s words were actually very simple. No matter how powerful he might be, he remained only be a peak Martial Emperor. There were many things in the Holy Land of Martialism for which he had no answers.

To the Heaven Reaching Immortal, he felt that those mysteries could be solved in the Outer World. After all, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master who was from the Outer World knew many things that the people in the Holy Land of Martialism did not.

However, it was impossible for him to enter the Outer World. Thus, he had placed his hopes on Chu Feng. As such, he wanted Chu Feng to put his own safety first, for only by living would he be able to enter the Outer World.

After that, Chu Feng directly proceeded toward the Compass Immortal’s location.

The journey was very far. However, as Chu Feng was extremely excited, he was filled with inexhaustible energy.

His big brother Chu Guyu, his cousin Chu Yue, his masters Qiu Canfeng and Zhuge Liuyun were all in the Eastern Sea Region.

Then there was Huangfu Haoyue, Lady Piaomiao, Qiushui Fuyan, the Azure Dragon Founder, and his big brother, the Monstrous Monkey King.

Chu Feng was finally able to meet all those people that had assisted him before. The more he thought about it, the more excited he became.

Thus, once Chu Feng exited the teleportation formation, he began to journey without resting. He did not wish to waste even a single second.

However, suddenly, Chu Feng stopped his footsteps. As if petrified, he stood in the air.

Below him was a place that had once been the territory of a monstrous beast power. Even though this monstrous beast power had not been a race of the strongest monstrous beasts, it had been an existence that could have been on par with the Nine Powers.

At this moment, the entire territory occupied by that monstrous beast race, an enormous mountain range tens of millions of miles long, was completely leveled.

Furthermore, this place was pitch-black in color, with surging black smoke that emitted a nauseating stench.

“Dark Hall’s Hall Master.”

At that moment, Chu Feng clenched his fists tightly. He detected the aura of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master here.

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master had been here. He was the one who had massacred all the living things in this place. Not only had he killed all of the monstrous beasts from that monstrous beast power, all of the plants and trees, as well as the rare treasures and Natural Oddities hidden deep in the mountain, were gone.

Even though Chu Feng was only seeing the aftermath of the massacre, Chu Feng was able to imagine the scene of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s descent, and his subsequent massacre of this place, after he closed his eyes.

The elderly and the young, including even newborns, and the monstrous beast experts that had given their lives to protect their clansmen, had all let out snarls of despair and anguished wailing when they faced the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master did not show the slightest trace of sympathy. He completely massacred all of them so that he could use their lives to increase his cultivation.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng moved. He continued onward toward the Eastern Sea Region’s exit.

Even though Chu Feng had been going all-out from the very beginning, he was now even faster than he had been before.

It was anger. The anger in Chu Feng’s heart had given him strength.

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master could not be forgiven. Chu Feng would absolutely not let him get away with what he was doing. However, right now, Chu Feng first had to increase his strength. As for that, his only hope in doing so was to proceed for the Eastern Sea Region.

After several more days and nights of traveling, Chu Feng finally saw a familiar figure in the distance. It was the Compass Immortal.

Merely, the Compass Immortal appeared to be extremely weary. Compared to before, he had become extremely thin and pallid.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s heart grew sour. Merely seeing the Compass Immortal’s current appearance was enough to let Chu Feng know how much he had exhausted himself in this period of time.

“Chu Feng, you’ve finally come.”

Although the Compass Immortal was haggard, he was carefully observing his surroundings. Before Chu Feng had even approached him, he had already discovered Chu Feng. At that moment, a joyous smile appeared on his withered face.

After Chu Feng approached, he said in a very ashamed manner, “Senior Compass, I have made you suffer.”

“My, what are you talking about? I was merely guarding this area without eating, drinking or sleeping. It’s merely a trivial matter.

There's no need to mention it," The Compass Immortal smiled indifferently.

However, after hearing those words, Chu Feng felt even greater pain in his heart. As a martial cultivator himself, how could he not know that someone at the Compass Immortal's level would not end up in such a weary state after several months or even several years of not eating, drinking or sleeping.

The reason why the Compass Immortal was in such a haggard state was because he had greatly exhausted his spirit power over this period of time. Right now, his spirit power was practically empty. That was why he was in such a state.

"Chu Feng, what's the situation now? Did you successfully set up that grand spirit formation?" The Compass Immortal asked. Even though he was here, the Compass Immortal was worried about the safety of the people from the Cyanwood Mountain.

"I've successfully set up the spirit formation. Merely, the Dark Hall's Hall Master has trained in a demonic technique that increased his cultivation to that of a Half Martial Ancestor. Even that grand formation would not be able to stop him," Chu Feng said.

"A Half Martial Ancestor? What sort of demonic technique would be that powerful?" Hearing those words, the Compass Immortal revealed an expression of shock. Then, he asked, "In that case, doesn't that mean that there is no one in the Holy Land of Martialism capable of stopping the Dark Hall's Hall Master?"

"No, there's still the Moon Immortal. The Moon Immortal is a powerful existence from the Moonlight Maze. She also possesses a Half Martial Ancestor-level cultivation. Although she ended up seizing Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies, her nature is not evil. Right now, she is willing to help us take care of the Dark Hall's Hall Master."

"Merely, the Dark Hall's Hall Master appears and disappears unpredictably. Furthermore, he is going around and killing the people and living things in the Holy Land of Martialism to refine them and increase his cultivation. If this is to continue, I fear that even the Moon Immortal will not be able to suppress him,” Chu Feng said.

“Then what about the people from the Cyanwood Mountain, and the Ancient Era’s Elves? What are they to do?” The Compass Immortal asked.

“Regarding that, senior can rest assured. There is a miraculous place in the Holy Land of Martialism by the name of the Transmogrification Gate. The Transmogrification Gate’s location is indefinite. Unless one possesses the key, no one would be able to enter it.”

“The master of the Transmogrification Gate is the Heaven Reaching Immortal. Right now, the Heaven Reaching Immortal has opened the Transmogrification Gate and allowed us to take shelter within.”

“Right now, everyone is safe. Furthermore, we’ve managed to save a lot of people too. Merely... the Holy Land of Martialism is too enormous, and its population is too great. As we have limited time, the people we ended up being able to save was also limited in number,” Chu Feng said.

“Others don’t concern me. Their lives and deaths are unrelated to me. As long as our friends are safe, it would be fine with me,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the Compass Immortal heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he began to form hand seals. After he finished, he waved his sleeve, and his world spirit power formed a golden raindrop that scattered behind him.

Soon, a spatial crack appeared.

It turned out that the spatial crack was directly behind the Compass Immortal. Fearing that someone would discovered it, the Compass Immortal had concealed the spatial crack with his world spirit techniques.

Upon seeing the spatial crack, Chu feng started to frown.

The spatial crack was letting out rumbling noises nonstop. It seemed to possess violent energy capable of toppling mountains and overturning seas. Furthermore, there were tens of thousands of lightning bolts striking within it. In short, before even entering the spatial crack, Chu Feng already felt extreme danger from it.

At that moment, Chu Feng started to admire Tantai Xue's ability to willingly enter such a dangerous thing.

Chapter 2068 – Desire To Return Home

“Chu Feng, this spatial crack is not safe at all. It is extremely dangerous. If you are to enter it, you might be able to return to the Eastern Sea Region. However, you might also end up dying.”

“However, I know that you will definitely choose to enter it. Thus, I will not urge you against it. However, I must be the one to open the path for that spatial crack,” After saying those words, the Compass Immortal turned around. He planned to enter that spatial crack.

He was planning to lead the way ahead of Chu Feng, so that if something unexpected were to happen, he would be the one that will die, giving Chu Feng a chance to escape.

“Woosh~~~”

However, at the moment when the Compass Immortal was about to enter the spatial crack, a figure flew into the spatial crack before him.

It was Chu Feng. Not only had Chu Feng flown into the spatial crack, he had also closed off the spatial crack with world spirit techniques in order to prevent the Compass Immortal from following him.

“Chu Feng, stop immediately!!!”

Seeing that the spatial crack was closing, the Compass Immortal tried his best to approach it while shouting at Chu Feng hysterically.

However, it was already too late. Chu Feng seemed to have already prepared for it. His world spirit techniques closed the spatial crack in the blink of an eye. By the time the Compass Immortal managed to reach the spatial crack, it had disappeared completely, and Chu Feng had disappeared with it.

“Idiot, an utter idiot!”

“What you’re doing will simply harm yourself!!!”

At that moment, the Compass Immortal shouted nonstop. The change in his mood even affected the weather.

Black clouds rolled about as violent winds surged and that region had darkened completely.

After all, spatial cracks were separated into benign ones and vicious ones. For benign ones, one would be able to successfully pass through them. However, for the vicious spatial cracks, one would undoubtedly die after entering them.

Chu Feng’s previous actions were equivalent to him cutting off his own way out. If it had been a benign spatial crack, then it would have been fine. However, it had been a vicious spatial crack, and thus, Chu Feng would have no way to return alive.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at this moment, the Compass Immortal suddenly noticed that a faint light was shining behind him. In this darkened region, that faint light appeared especially dazzling.

After approaching it, the Compass Immortal noticed that the light was a spirit formation. The Compass Immortal began to form hand seals with one hand. Only then did he dare to touch the light.

“Buzz~~~”

Upon touching the light, the light immediately scattered in all directions. It was extremely dazzling. At that instant, a piece of information also entered the Compass Immortal’s mind.

“Senior Compass, this key will lead you to the Transmogrification Gate. With it, you will be able to enter the Transmogrification Gate. You must absolutely proceed for the Transmogrification Gate. Only by entering that place will junior feel reassured. As for me... I will definitely return safely.”

After receiving that piece of information, the Compass Immortal noticed that there was a key when he looked at the light again. As for that key, it was the key the Heaven Reaching Immortal had handed Chu Feng, the key that was able to find the Transmogrification Gate and allow one to enter it.

“Chu Feng, you...” Holding that key, the Compass Immortal sighed, and was speechless after being overwhelmed with emotions.

It turned out that Chu Feng had already planned everything out. He had never planned to let him brave the dangers of spatial crack from the very beginning. The reason for that was because regardless of whether it was the key’s spirit formation or the spirit formation that had closed the spatial crack, neither of those could be formed instantly. This meant that Chu Feng had already prepared them beforehand.

Even though he was feeling very uncomfortable, the Compass Immortal did not wish to disregard Chu Feng’s kind intentions. Thus, he grabbed that key and entered the void. He began to search for the Transmogrification Gate as per the indication from the key.

.....

As for Chu Feng, he was currently surrounded by pitch-black darkness. He was within a violent storm.

The lightning here was no ordinary lightning. They were black, extremely ear-piercing, and contained boundless might. It was as if they could split open everything.

The winds here were no ordinary winds. They were golden, and their whistles would rip space itself apart. It was as if they could slice apart everything.

Chu Feng was a rank four Martial Emperor. And, after using his various techniques, possessed a body that was stronger than even rank eight Martial Emperors.

However, if he were to come in contact with the black lightning or the golden winds, he would be annihilated instantly.

At that moment, Chu Feng was certain that the spatial crack that Tantai Xue had entered before was definitely not as dangerous as this one.

The reason for that was because the black lightning and golden winds in this place were simply too frightening. Even for Chu Feng, he must be extremely cautious when moving about among them.

With the cultivations that Tantai Xue, Jiang Qisha and the others had at that time, this sort of place would most definitely be impossible for them to pass through. In fact, not to mention passing through it, they would likely have instantly died upon entering the spatial crack.

Thus, Chu Feng knew that he was very unlucky; the spatial crack that he had entered was an extremely berserk one. However, even with this being the case, he still had to advance bravely.

At this moment, the Dark Hall's Hall Master was massacring the innocents in the Holy Land of Martialism. As such, Chu Feng did not have the time to wait for the next relatively safer spatial crack.

This was the only opportunity that he could grasp right now.

At that moment, not only had Chu Feng activated his Heaven's Eyes, he had also mobilized all of his spirit power to carefully observe his surroundings.

Truly, this was what they meant by listening in the eight directions with six paths before one's eyes. Chu Feng did not dare to relax in the slightest. The reason for that was because he would really be killed should he be struck by the black lightning or golden winds. After all, the spatial crack he had entered was a vicious one.

In that sort of situation, Chu Feng forgot about time, forgot about his friends and relatives, forgot about everything. The only thing in his mind was to continue onward as he dodged the dangers all around.

He didn't know how much time had passed and how many days and nights he had spent traveling in the spatial crack, when a long-awaited light finally appeared in the distance. It was an exit.

Upon seeing that exit, Chu Feng felt his blood racing, his heart and mind surging. In fact, he felt like shouting.

However, he did not do so. The reason for that was because he knew that the more crucial a time was, the more he must not relax. He most definitely could not ruin everything by relaxing his guard at this most important time.

Thus, in an extremely cautious manner, Chu Feng finally walked out of the spatial crack. When he saw light again, he felt completely liberated.

Chu Feng first closed his eyes in celebration for successfully passing through that frightening spatial crack.

At that moment, Chu Feng truly felt as if he had just walked through the gates of hell.

After alleviating his heart and mind for a long while, Chu Feng gradually opened his eyes. He looked to the familiar blue sky and white clouds. He looked to the surging ocean waves, as well as the sea breeze that was blowing through his clothes and long hair. While doing all that, Chu Feng felt a single sensation, only a single sensation — comfort. Everything felt so very comfortable.

Suddenly, a smile that had not been seen for a very long time emerged on Chu Feng's face. It was a smile of joy of returning home.

“Eastern Sea Region, I've returned.”

“My relatives and friends, I've returned.”

“I've returned. I, Chu Feng, has finally returned. Everyone, how are you all doing?”

Even though Chu Feng was not someone from the Eastern Sea Region, to him, the Eastern Sea Region and the Nine Provinces Continent were his home.

After being away for so many years, he was finally able to return home. That sort of excitement was something that Chu Feng was unable to contain.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng turned around and set up a world spirit formation to hide the spatial crack.

Firstly, it would still be a long time till the Heavenly Road opened. As such, the spatial crack would be the only way for Chu Feng to return to the Holy Land of Martialism.

Secondly, the spatial crack was too dangerous. For it to be left there, it would be inevitable that there would be curious individuals who would attempt to enter it. However, with the cultivation of the people from the Eastern Sea Region, they would most definitely be throwing away their lives should they enter the spatial crack.

As such, Chu Feng had to seal off the spatial crack.

As for the spatial crack in the Holy Land of Martialism that Chu Feng had closed, that had actually been a trick to fool the Compass Immortal.

The entrance was not sealed. As such, Chu Feng could still return to the Holy Land of Martialism through it. After all, Chu Feng had planned everything since the very beginning.

“Everyone, are you all doing fine? Wait a moment, I will come and find you all right away.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng took a step forward. With that step, Chu Feng completely disappeared.

With Chu Feng's current level of cultivation, even though the Eastern Sea Region was enormous, he was able to reach any place within it in a very short period of time.

Furthermore, Chu Feng's speed was extremely fast because he was extremely impatient...

...Impatient to return home.

Chapter 2069 – Chu Feng's Return

If one were to ask what place was most sacred in the Eastern Sea Region, then people would definitely answer the Misty Peak.

Not only was the Misty Peak a place that originated from the Ancient Era, with a current master, called Qiushui Fuyan, who was very powerful, most importantly, a major battle had occurred there several years ago.

Even now, that battle was still fresh in the memories of the crowd.

The reason for that was because not only did that battle assemble the Eastern Sea Region's several more powerful powers, it was reported that experts from the Holy Land of Martialism were also among the participants.

What sort of place was the Holy Land of Martialism? That was a place of legends. Yet, several existences from the Holy Land of Martialism had appeared in the Eastern Sea Region not long ago.

Although they were, according to the rumors, only members of the younger generation, they had possessed overwhelming power capable of mass devastation. Fortunately, the Crippling Night Demon Sect's Sect Master Chu Feng had killed them with his heaven-defying power. Else... the Misty Peak would likely have ended up being occupied by the Holy Land of Martialism.

Most importantly, it had been reported that those members of the Holy Land of Martialism's younger generation were vicious and merciless. If they had been the ones that ended up winning that battle, everyone in the Eastern Sea Region might have ended up suffering.

As rumors continued to spread and the truth became more and more distorted, people made those several members of the younger generation from the Holy Land of Martialism into absolute evildoers that could not be considered humans at all. They were simply akin to demons. It was reported that they had even planned to tarnish old grannies, that they were simply worse than beasts.

Even though many years had passed, that battle remained the most controversial topic for the people in the Eastern Sea Region for the past several years.

Thus, even now, people were still enthusiastically discussing the matters from back then. However, the Misty Peak remained a place that ordinary people were not allowed to set foot upon.

That said, there still remained a lot of people that wished to become disciples of the Misty Peak. Thus, there would always be a lot of people gathered outside the Misty Peak every day with the hopes of being able to enter it.

“Move aside immediately. Else, you shall suffer the consequences.”

Suddenly, a stern shout was heard. Looking toward the direction of the voice, four beauties were seen at the Misty Peak’s entrance.

Upon seeing those four beauties, the bodies of the people gathered here all trembled. To a greater or lesser degree, they all revealed alarmed expressions.

Not only were these four beauties extremely beautiful, they were also extremely renowned. It was precisely their fame that frightened the crowd.

The reason for that was because the four beauties were the four disciples of the Misty Peak’s previous master, Lady Piaomiao. They were, respectively, Chun Wu, Xia Yu, Qiu Zhu and Dong Xue.

Thus, practically no one in the Eastern Sea Region dared to offend the four of them, much less here in the Misty Peak’s territory.

Right at this moment, a mocking voice sounded from the crowd. “Four senior sisters, it’s been many years since we last met, your temperaments have all grown.”

“Who is it?! Who dares to be this audacious?! Have you grown tired of living?!”

“That’s right! Who dares to harass our four goddesses?! You are simply courting death!”

Hearing that voice, before the Four Seasons Beauties could respond, people from the crowd immediately shouted.

In fact, the expressions of the Four Seasons Beauties were quite unsightly right now. They turned their angry gazes toward the crowd, seemingly wanting to find the culprit.

In this sort of situation, no one dared to take the blame. Thus, the crowd immediately spread aside. At this moment, only a single person stood there motionlessly.

Not only was he not moving, he was also looking at the Four Seasons Beauties with a smile on his face. His expression was simply that of someone asking to be killed.

“Holy! That brother is truly outrageously bold with lust!”

Seeing Chu Feng standing there motionlessly and looking at the Four Seasons Beauties with that sort of gaze, the crowd were all stunned.

At this moment, there were many people that felt admiration for Chu Feng. They admired his courage, for he was simply using his life to look at the beauties.

However, for the great majority of them, they revealed expressions of people rejoicing in other people’s misfortune. Although they had withdrawn themselves to the side, they did not plan to leave. The reason for that was because what the crowd enjoyed seeing the most was lively excitement.

Especially when there was someone who was so foolish as to provoke the Four Seasons Beauties. As such, they needed to watch that exciting show even more.

After all, the Four Seasons Beauties were not to be looked down upon. Especially that Chun Wu, she was famous for her violent temperament. Last time, there had been a reckless monstrous beast that had spoken words to slightly harass her, and she had ripped his penis off on the spot. She was absolutely violent.

As for this reckless brat, he had actually dared to harass all four of the Four Seasons Beauties at once. As such, the crowd present all wished to see how that brat would die.

Right at this moment, a shocking scene happened. Not only did the Four Seasons Beauties not get angry, they instead stood there as if petrified. In fact, they revealed expressions of disbelief.

After their moment of disbelief, the four of them all smiled. Their smiles were truly beautiful. Never had the people present ever seen the four of them smile in such a manner. However, without a doubt, their beautiful smiles had already charmed all of the men present.

Chun Wu even started to rapidly run toward that man. Then, she leapt directly into that man's embrace and tightly hugged him.

Following her, the other three beauties also ran over. Even though they were not as frantic as Chun Wu, they were also standing beside that man like obedient little animals and looking at him with love-struck gazes.

‘Holy fuck! What the hell is going on?!!!’

This was what everyone present was thinking. Regardless of whether they were men or women, that was what they were all thinking.

Who were the Four Seasons Beauties? They were existences akin to goddesses in the Misty Peak.

Countless men would always be before them, trying to gain their fancy, but they would not even bother to look at them. It was as if no men could enter their eyes.

Yet now, the four goddesses were actually completely captivated by that man. This truly came as an enormous shock to the crowd, making them feel disbelief.

‘Who is that guy?’ At this moment, that was the question in the minds of all the crowd.

Chun Wu was so excited that the sockets of her eyes grew red. As she rubbed her eyes, she asked, “Junior brother Chu Feng, it’s really you? Heavens, am I dreaming?” She did not dare to believe all of this to be real.

“Would the me in your dreams pinch your face like this?” Chu Feng joked around. He extended his hand and placed it on Chun Wu’s fair and elastic cheek, and then pinched it lightly.

“Aiya, it hurts,” Chun Wu moved her face back in pain. However, she was soon smiling even more brilliantly.

“Bastard, it’s really you. And here I thought that you wouldn’t return,” Chun Wu was convinced that the Chu Feng before her was indeed the same Chu Feng she knew. After being convinced, she hugged Chu Feng even more tightly.

“Chun Wu, that’s enough. Junior brother Chu Feng has doubtless returned with great difficulty. The journey must have been exhausting for him. Let’s bring him in to rest first,” Qiu Zhu stepped forward and suggested.

“Mn, that’s right. Quickly, quickly, follow me inside. Master and the others will definitely be extremely extremely happy to know that you’ve returned,” As Chun Wu spoke, she pulled Chu Feng toward the Misty Peak. Her cheerful and lively nature was exactly the same as how she had been back then. There was no change to her because she had grown older.

After Chu Feng and the Four Seasons Beauties entered the Misty Peak, the bystanders all stood there stunned.

It was only after a long while that they managed to alleviate their shock.

“Holy! I did not mishear, right?! Earlier, they called that man Chu Feng?!”

“That’s right! I’ve also heard that. It’s Chu Feng, that man is actually Chu Feng!”

“Heavens! Chu Feng! Chu Feng has returned! I actually managed to see Chu Feng!”

“I am truly enormously fortunate to have been able to see Chu Feng! I can boast about this for the rest of my life!”

Suddenly, the crowd burst into an uproar. Chu Feng’s reputation was truly too enormous. After he stepped into the Heavenly Path, he had become a legend.

In the hearts of countless individuals in the Eastern Sea Region, there was no one that could compare to Chu Feng. Especially among the younger generation, Chu Feng was an existence akin to god, their absolute idol.

That was why the crowd was this excited.

Chun Wu → Spring Dance, Xia Yu → Summer Rain, Qiu Zhu → Autumn Bamboo, Dong Xue → Winter Snow. The four seasons are actual chinese surnames too.

Chapter 2070 – Endlessly Excited

Qiu Zhu and the others planned to first bring Chu Feng to a place to rest, and then inform the others of his return.

However, Chun Wu possessed a very anxious temperament. She pulled Chu Feng and began to lead him toward the place where Lady Piaomiao rested.

That place was a forbidden area. Actually, even they, the Four Seasons Sisters, were not allowed to willfully intrude into that place. The reason for that was because this was currently a special time for the Misty Peak.

“Miss Chun Wu, Lady Piaomiao, she...” Seeing Chun Wu and the others rushing over, the two elders that guarded this place had originally wanted to stop them from entering.

“Don’t stop me. I have an important matter that I must see master for,” However, this time around, Chun Wu did not listen to them and directly charged in.

Normally, the two elders that guarded this place would definitely have stopped her. However, this time around, they did not do so.

It was not that they did not wish to stop her. Rather, when they saw the man behind Chun Wu, they were stunned on the spot.

That elder did not dare to believe what he had seen, and asked the other elder, “That man, is he Lord Chu Feng?”

“It’s Chu Feng. Lord Chu Feng has returned,” The other elder nodded repeatedly. His aged body started to tremble nonstop. From this, it could be seen how excited he was.

“Master, master, quickly, come see who has returned!!!” However, in terms of being excited, the one that was the most excited would remain Chun Wu. Right after entering the palace hall, she began to shout nonstop. From that, one could tell how deeply excited she was.

Being led by Chun Wu and the others, Chu Feng arrived at a side palace hall. At this moment, there were three people in the side palace hall. They were two men and a woman. All of them were people that Chu Feng was familiar with.

These three people were Lady Piaomiao, Taikou and their daughter, the current master of the Misty Peak, Qiushui Fuyan.

“Chun Wu, what are you making a fuss about? Furthermore... didn't I say to you all many times that if there's nothing serious, do not come...”

Lady Piaomiao seemed to be feeling displeased. Thus, her tone was not very pleasing. Upon seeing Chun Wu and the others' arrival, she had planned to lash out at them.

However, when Lady Piaomiao turned around and turned her gaze to Chun Wu, she immediately stood up from her seat. The anger on her face immediately froze, and then changed to joy. In shock, she exclaimed, “Chu Feng?!”

“Chu Feng?” Hearing that name, Taikou and Qiushui Fuyan were also startled. They hurriedly turned their gazes over. When the two of them saw Chu Feng, they also stood up from their seats. Then, taking the same action without prior consultation, they began to walk toward Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng pays his respects to Lady Piaomiao, Senior Taikou and Big Sister Fuyan.”

Upon seeing the three people, Chu Feng bowed and clasped his fist with one hand. He greeted them courteously. The three of them were all people that had helped Chu Feng before. They could be considered to be Chu Feng's great benefactors.

Regardless of how powerful Chu Feng had become, Chu Feng still viewed the three of them as his benefactors, his seniors, people that were very important to him.

“Heavens! Chu Feng, it's really you! You've really returned!”

After verifying that it was indeed Chu Feng, the three of them were unable to contain their happiness, and smiled joyfully. In fact, overwhelmed with excitement, Lady Piaomiao, a person who was always unflustered, actually had reddened eyes.

“Chu Feng, quickly, get back up, get back up. It’s great that you’ve returned, it’s great that you’ve returned,” Lady Piaomiao hurriedly used her shivering hand to lift Chu Feng back up. At this moment, tears began to roll from her eyes.

Those were tears of longing. From that, one could tell how much Lady Piaomiao had missed Chu Feng.

Even though Lady Piaomiao had always been cold and detached toward others, and was a grand character capable of calling the winds and summoning the rains in the Eastern Sea Region, Chu Feng possessed a special position in her heart.

When Chu Feng had first entered the Eastern Sea Region, he had possessed a heavy responsibility but a weak cultivation. Lady Piaomiao could be said to have been someone who had watched Chu Feng grow up. Thus, to her, Chu Feng was like a son.

“Mother, you’re a bit biased, no? When I returned from my distant journey, you didn’t cry for me,” Qiushui Fuyan feigned to be jealous as she spoke with a smile on her face.

“My, I’ve grown old and disappointing,” Lady Piaomiao wiped away her tears in an embarrassed manner. Even though her cultivation was gone, it remained that she was a grand character. For her to cry in public like this, she would naturally feel embarrassed.

“That’s right. Don’t cry. Little friend Chu Feng’s return is an extremely joyous thing. We should be celebrating this.”

“Wait here, I’ll go and tell everyone this great news.”

“Chu Feng, it just so happens that your master and the people from the Crippling Night Demon Sect are all at our Misty Peak.

They will definitely be extremely happy to know of your return.”

“I’ll go and help spread the news too.”

“Me too.”

The Four Seasons Sisters also left following Taikou.

“Taikou, if you dared to deceive this old man, this old man will definitely not let you get away with it!!!”

Not long after Taikou and the others left, a threatening voice echoed outside of the palace hall. Soon, a strong wind arrived. Following the wind, a figure descended on the side palace hall.

For the sake of coming to see Chu Feng, this person had even used a movement martial skill.

When that voice sounded, before that man had even entered, Chu Feng already knew who he was.

Rank six Martial King. That was a cultivation not many people in the Eastern Sea Region were capable of achieving. On top of that, that person had spoken with such a domineering voice. Thus, it was definitely Chu Feng’s master, Qiu Canfeng.

“Heavens! Chu Feng, you, you...” Sure enough, it was Qiu Canfeng. After Qiu Canfeng entered the side palace hall and saw Chu Feng, he was so overwhelmed with excitement that he became unable to speak properly.

Originally, he had thought that Taikou was deceiving him. However, even though he knew that he might be deceived, he had still rushed over. The reason for that was because Chu Feng was an extremely important person to him. To his enormous surprise, Chu Feng actually had really returned.

“Boy, you’ve really returned?” After a long while, Qiu Canfeng finally managed to calm himself. He walked over to Chu Feng and grabbed his shoulders.

Through the hands that were on his shoulders, Chu Feng was able to sense how excited Qiu Canfeng was, as well as how deeply he had missed him.

Although Qiu Canfeng had been trapped in the Emperor's Tomb for many years, which caused Chu Feng to have very few interactions with him, Qiu Canfeng, like Zhuge Liuyun, would forever remain Chu Feng's master in his heart.

“Master, please accept disciple's respect.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng moved a step back and half kneeled onto the ground to bow to Qiu Canfeng.

If the people from the Holy Land of Martialism were to see this scene, they would definitely be feeling disbelief.

What sort of cultivation did Qiu Canfeng possess? He was merely a rank six Martial King. While he might be a peak expert in the Eastern Sea Region, he would be akin to a fart in the Holy Land of Martialism.

But, what about Chu Feng? He was a grand rank four Martial Emperor. Countless grand characters and Martial Emperor-level experts in the Holy Land of Martialism would have to nod their heads, bow and attempt to court Chu Feng's favor upon seeing him. Who would possibly be able to make Chu Feng kneel and bow to them?

However, Chu Feng was actually kneeling and bowing to Qiu Canfeng. As such, how could they not be shocked?!

Merely, Lady Piaomiao, Qiushui Fuyan and the others didn't know that Chu Feng's current level of cultivation was already that frightening, nor did they know about Chu Feng's status in the Holy Land of Martialism being that exceptional.

Thus, they only felt that Chu Feng kneeling and bowing to Qiu

Canfeng was something natural. Not only did they not reveal expressions of shock, they were instead smiling.

Chapter 2071 – Insufficient Knowledge

“Quickly, get up so that your master can have a proper look at you,” Qiu Canfeng hurriedly helped Chu Feng to get back up. At this moment, a pained expression appeared on his face. From that, it could be seen how much he pampered Chu Feng.

Even though Qiu Canfeng did not tear up like Lady Piaomiao, Chu Feng was able to see that Qiu Canfeng’s aged eyes had also gotten red as he started to look Chu Feng up and down.

Qiu Canfeng, one of the Crippling Night Demon Sect’s Four Great Protectors, was the current Acting Sect Master. Who could possibly make him tear up? When had he ever cried?

However, at this time, there were glistening teardrops in his eyes merely because he had managed to see Chu Feng again. From this, it could be seen how important Chu Feng was in Qiu Canfeng’s heart.

“Taikou, I will definitely give you the benefits that I promised.”

“But right now, I must first reminisce with my disciple,” Qiu Canfeng grabbed Chu Feng’s hand. He was unwilling to let go.

“Enough. Say, senior Qiu Canfeng, there’s no need for you to continue to stir up emotions.”

“It must have been difficult for Chu Feng to be able to return. All of us should be celebrating this,” Qiushui Fuyan said with a smile.

Due to his relationship with Lady Piaomiao, Taikou possessed a very prestigious status in the Misty Peak. Practically no one dared to refuse to comply with his orders.

“Senior Taikou, there’s no need to be too extravagant. It would do if you are to call for some familiar faces,” Chu Feng said.

Over the years, Chu Feng had experienced a lot of festive banquets. As such, he had already grown tired of them. As such, he merely wished to be able to reminisce with the people that he missed the most.

“Rest assured, they will all be familiar faces. Those that you do not know will not be allowed to enter,” Taikou said with a smile. Then, he walked out. From his appearance, it seemed that he planned to go and personally watch over the preparation of the banquet.

Following him, Qiushui Fuyan also walked out. From that, it could be seen that they held great importance for Chu Feng as, even for a banquet, the father and daughter had actually both left to personally prepare it.

“Oh, that’s right. Chu Feng, there’s a matter I must tell you about. Your family, the Azure Dragon School, and the people from the Jiang Royal Dynasty have all returned to the Nine Provinces Continent,” Lady Piaomiao said to Chu Feng.

“Why did they leave?” Chu Feng asked.

“They said that the Nine Provinces Continent was their home, that they felt that they would be letting their ancestors down should they not return.”

“However, the way I see it, I think they felt that we would be inconvenienced should they continue to stay here. Thus, they found an excuse to leave.”

“However, you can rest assured. We have been in contact them entire time. As such, everything has been well for them in the Nine Provinces Continent,” Lady Piaomiao added, seemingly afraid that Chu Feng would be worried.

“There’s no harm to it. After all, I must return to the Nine Provinces Continent anyways. It would be fine to meet with them after I've returned," Chu Feng was relieved to know that his family and friends were all fine.

After that, the banquet's preparations were done. All of the people from the Misty Peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect that Chu Feng knew were seated at the banquet.

Xue Xiyue, First Immortal Ya Zhongyun, and many other familiar faces appeared in Chu Feng's line of sight.

The reactions of the crowd were generally all about the same. They were all very happy to see Chu Feng. Different from the people from the Holy Land of Martialism, these familiar faces did not reveal the slightest trace of unfamiliarity when they saw Chu Feng. They did not reveal excessive reverence toward Chu Feng because he had become stronger. Instead, they were very amiable, like family, a true family.

"Chu Feng, did you successfully manage to reach the Holy Land of Martialism? Exactly what sort of place is that legendary Holy Land of Martialism?"

"Did you manage to see Zi Ling and the others? Not long after you left, they all left for the Holy Land of Martialism too."

On the banquet, all sorts of different questions assailed Chu Feng. Although the crowd were all very curious about the Holy Land of Martialism, Chu Feng was able to tell that they were actually all very concerned for him. They wanted to know whether or not he had managed to do well in the Holy Land of Martialism.

As for Chu Feng, he did not refuse any question, and answered each and every single one of them.

However, Chu Feng did not brag about his achievements in the Holy Land of Martialism. Instead, he only explained the things concerning the Holy Land of Martialism to the crowd.

"As expected, my disciple is truly powerful. He actually managed to successfully enter the Holy Land of Martialism. Come, your master shall toast you with a cup of wine,” After knowing that Chu Feng had actually entered the Holy Land of Martialism and managed to return, Qiu Canfeng revealed pride all over his face.

However, although he said he would toast Chu Feng with a cup of wine, he was actually holding a jug of wine. Qiu Canfeng’s forthright attitude remained completely the same.

“Master, this disciple shall offer you a toast of wine too,” In response, Chu Feng put his wine cup away and picked up a wine jug. He stood up and drank the wine with one gulp.

“Good!!!” Seeing that, the crowd began to applaud and cheer. The smiles on their faces grew even denser.

At that moment, the crowd reacted as if they had forgotten their worries. One by one, they were all smiling brilliantly and from the bottoms of their hearts.

Huangfu Haoyue was not only a senior that had left an extremely deep impression in Chu Feng’s mind, he was also the senior that had determined Chu Feng’s fate.

If it wasn’t for Huangfu Haoyue bringing him out from the Heavenly Road and bringing him to the Nine Provinces Continent, Chu Feng would not have become a part of the Chu Family.

Perhaps, everything would be completely different now. Thus, Huangfu Haoyue was one of the people that he felt the most grateful toward.

Before Chu Feng had left the Eastern Sea Region, Huangfu Haoyue had married Qiushui Fuyan here. Thus, he should be living in the Misty Peak. However, although a banquet had been prepared, Huangfu Haoyue was nowhere to be seen. As such, Chu Feng was very puzzled.

“Haoyue is in closed-door training right now. However, judging by the time, he should be coming out from his closed-door training soon,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

“Closed-door training again? Senior Haoyue is truly diligent. Oh, that’s right. Big sister Fuyan, what is senior Haoyue’s cultivation now?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

Back then, Huangfu Haoyue had been the number one genius in the Eastern Sea Region. Although Huangfu Haoyue had been defeated by Chu Feng, he was most definitely the most talented individual in the Eastern Sea Region. As such, Chu Feng was very curious as to what level of cultivation Huangfu Haoyue possess now.

“Haha, mentioning Huangfu Haoyue, he’s extremely amazing. He has long since became a rank nine Martial King. Right now, he is attempting to break through into Martial Emperor realm.”

“If he is to succeed, he will no longer be a Martial King, but will instead become a Martial Emperor,” Qiu Canfeng said with a smile.

“Senior Huangfu Haoyue is truly amazing,” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s expression changed slightly. He was feeling happy for Huangfu Haoyue. Merely, he knew that what was after Martial King was Half Martial Emperor, and not Martial Emperor.

However, it remained that there had never been a Half Martial Emperor in the Eastern Sea Region for many years now. To them, after Martial King would be Martial Emperor. They did not know anything about the Half Martial Emperor realm.

At that moment, as the crowd were all feeling joyous, Chu Feng found it unsuitable to mention this matter. He was afraid that he would affect everyone’s mood. After all, this would indirectly show that the knowledge of the people from the Eastern Sea Region was insufficient.

Chapter 2072 – Ya Fei’s Mishap

“It is truly amazing. If Huangfu Haoyue is to break through, I’m afraid that even you, Chu Feng, would not be a match for Huangfu Haoyue,” Someone said with a beaming smile. His words were indirectly prying into Chu Feng’s cultivation.

As for Chu Feng, he did not wish to appear too arrogant. Thus, he did not brag about how exceptionally powerful he was now, and how Huangfu Haoyue would be greatly inferior to him even if he managed to successfully reach a breakthrough. Thus, Chu Feng only smiled and said, “I naturally cannot compare to senior Huangfu Haoyue.”

“Alas, Chu Feng, you’re still young. Your days are still very long. There’s no need to rush, no need to rush. In the future, the world will be yours,” Taikou began to mediate. He did not wish to ruin the excellent atmosphere here from that sort of topic.

“That’s right, that’s right. Come, let’s drink,” The others also began to toast and drink. They wished to shift from the topic.

“Senior First Immortal, where is Ya Fei?” Chu Feng asked the First Immortal who sat at the edge of the banquet.

The First Immortal was Ya Fei’s grandfather. Originally, he had been a super expert from the Immortal Execution Archipelago. Due to his granddaughter, he had ended up joining the Misty Peak.

It was also precisely because he joined the Misty Peak that he managed to escape from the calamity. Not only did he manage to come out unscathed when all of the experts from the Immortal Execution Archipelago were killed, he also ended up staying in the Misty Peak, becoming a part of it.

Most importantly, after all these years, a matter has been in Chu Feng’s mind the entire time. That was, to help Ya Fei regain a physical body.

Even though Chu Feng was not the one that had destroyed Ya Fei's physical body, it was related to him.

Before leaving the Eastern Sea Region, he had promised the First Immortal that he would find a way to help Ya Fei regain her body.

With Chu Feng's current world spirit techniques, it would be extremely easy for him to restore Ya Fei's body. Thus, Chu Feng wanted to quickly help Ya Fei restore her body. Not only would he have helped the First Immortal attain his cherished desire, he would also be able to undo a knot in his own heart.

Chu Feng had thought about it. Back then, he had been young and frivolous. Out of impulse, he had done many excessive things.

It wasn't only Ya Fei. There was also Murong Wan and Yan Ruyu.

Those three women were not Chu Feng's lovers. However, they had all been tarnished by Chu Feng due to his impulses.

Their purity had been seized by Chu Feng. As such, Chu Feng could not disregard them.

If they were willing, Chu Feng was willing to marry them. If they were not willing, Chu Feng was going to do his best to make things up to them.

"Little friend Chu Feng, I thank you for still remembering Ya Fei. Merely, Ya Fei, she..."

At that moment, the First Immortal stood up. Before he could finish his words, he started to choke with emotions.

Seeing that, Chu Feng turned his gaze to the others. However, at that moment, the crowd were all lowering their heads silently, unwilling to face Chu Feng.

"Big sister Fuyan, where's Ya Fei?" Chu Feng turned his gaze to Qiushui Fuyan. He was certain that something must've happened to Ya Fei. Furthermore, he was certain that all the people present knew about it.

“Chu Feng, you must remain calm,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

“I am very calm. Please tell me what happened to Ya Fei,” Chu Feng asked. He realized from the crowd’s reaction that something had happened to Ya Fei. Furthermore, it seemed to be extremely severe.

“Okay then,” Qiushui Fuyan sucked in a mouthful of air to calm her thoughts. Then, she said, “A year ago, a gate suddenly appeared in the Misty Peak. We are certain that what was behind that gate was the Misty Peak’s most mysterious Immortalization Road.”

“Immortalization Road? Hadn’t the Misty Peak’s Immortalization Road already been discovered?” Chu Feng asked in surprise. He knew quite a bit about the secrets concerning the Misty Peak.

The so-called Immortalization Road was the Misty Peak’s most mysterious and most powerful location. The reason for that was because the Misty Peak recorded that one could become an Immortal upon entering the Immortalization Road.

It could be said... that the Immortalization Road was the core of the Misty Peak, the Misty Peak’s most precious treasure.

However, hearing what Qiushui Fuyan said, it seemed that the Immortalization Road that they knew about wasn’t the actual Immortalization Road. They now possessed a new discovery.

“No, the one before was not the actual Immortalization Road. After all, we had only guessed it to be the Immortalization Road.”

“However, the one that appeared a year ago had the words ‘Immortalization Road’ clearly written on it. Furthermore, it emitted a dense amount of the Ancient Era’s aura. It was most definitely the actual Immortalization Road,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

“Then, what happened?” Chu Feng asked.

“After the actual Immortalization Road appeared, we were overjoyed. After we opened its gates, we were even more pleased.”

“Although we were unable to reach the end of the Immortalization Road, we managed to obtain a lot of gains from it. That Immortalization Road was a sacred place for cultivation.”

“It was also because of that Immortalization Road that Haoyue was able to reach a breakthrough to rank nine Martial King so quickly, and able to attempt to breakthrough to the Martial Emperor realm.”

“However, the accident happened half a year ago. Ya Fei, Yan Ruyu and Murong Wan disappeared when they were training in the Immortalization Road. No matter how we searched for them, we were unable to find them,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

“What?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart tightened. It was not only Ya Fei who had disappeared. In addition to her, Yan Ruyu and Murong Wan had also disappeared.

Originally, Chu Feng had thought that Yan Ruyu and Murong Wan had not attended this banquet because they were not in the Misty Peak. However, he did not expect that they had actually disappeared alongside Ya Fei.

The three women Chu Feng felt the most guilt toward, the three women that he wanted to make up to, had actually disappeared together. How was Chu Feng to make up to them now? He would not even have the chance to do so anymore.

“Why would they suddenly disappear? Are there dangers in the Immortalization Road?” Chu Feng asked. This matter was of great importance. As such, he must deeply investigate it.

“We were unable to find them. Thus, we can only consider it to be a disappearance. There wasn’t any danger at the place we provided them to train in. However, the depths of the Immortalization Road, in other words, the places that we are unable to explore, are extremely dangerous.”

“We felt that it was very possible that the three of them decided to explore the depths and met with an accident while doing so,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

“Ya Fei is only a spirit body right now. How could she be allowed to go train too?” Chu Feng asked in confusion.

“Although we were unable to recover her body, after our efforts, we were able to let her live ordinarily like us with a spirit body. Furthermore, the Immortalization Road possessed a special sort of power that could provide comfort to her,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

“So that’s the case.”

“Then, big sister Fuyan, where is that Immortalization Path? It is possible to open it now?” Chu Feng asked.

“While it is possible, merely, Chu Feng, we have already searched all of the places that we could. The places that we cannot search are truly too dangerous. Furthermore, it has already been half a year. I fear that they’re already...” Qiushui Fuyan knew what Chu Feng was thinking. However, she did not wish to have Chu Feng enter the Immortalization Road because, she herself had been to it many times, and knew how dangerous the depths of the Immortalization Road were.

“Big sister Fuyan, please help me. The three of them are extremely important to me. I cannot allow myself to do nothing after something has happened to them,” Chu Feng said to Qiushui Fuyan with a pleading gaze.

Chapter 2073 – Immortalization Road

At that moment, Qiushui Fuyan was placed in a difficult situation. She knew Chu Feng's personality extremely well. As such, she was afraid that Chu Feng would put himself into danger.

However, it was precisely because she knew Chu Feng's personality that she knew that she would not be able to make Chu Feng change his mind. Thus, she said to Chu Feng, "Follow me."

After Chu Feng and Qiushui Fuyan left, the others present all stood up and followed after them.

Being led by Qiushui Fuyan, Chu Feng soon arrived at the so-called Immortalization Road.

It was a special gate. Even though the gate appeared to be constructed of carved stones, it was actually formed with a very powerful spirit technique.

Most importantly, although the gate did not appear to be special, it gave off a dense amount of the Ancient Era's aura like Qiushui Fuyan had said.

The moment Chu Feng saw the Immortalization Road, Chu Feng started to frown deeply.

Even though it was only a spirit formation gate, Chu Feng was able to tell how powerful the creator of the spirit formation gate was merely by looking at the spirit formation gate.

Chu Feng's strength had advanced by leaps and bounds after this many years had passed. Not only had Chu Feng become a Martial Emperor-level expert, he had also become a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist and was a major character in the Holy Land of Martialism. But even Chu Feng felt a sensation when he stood before the Immortalization Road's entrance gate. That was, the sensation of being small.

"Chu Feng, let me accompany you in there," Qiushui Fuyan said to Chu Feng.

“There’s no need for that. It would do for me to go in there alone. Everyone, do not follow me in,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he stepped onto the Immortalization Road.

At that moment, the expressions of the crowd all turned stiff. They were worried about Chu Feng and wanted to follow him in. Merely, they didn’t want to go against Chu Feng’s desire either. That was why they were hesitating right now.

After a moment of hesitation, Lady Piaomiao said, “Ya Fei and them possessed a special relationship with Chu Feng. He possesses a knot in his heart that was originally capable of being undone by Ya Fei and the others that disappeared. However, now, he can only rely on himself. As such, it might be better that he enter alone.”

“But, inside the Immortalization Road is...” Qiushui Fuyan as well as the others present were still very worried.

“Everyone, have you all forgotten about little friend Chu Feng’s talent? It has been many years now. You all have managed to make improvements to your strength. As such, how could he have not?”

“It might even be possible that the current little friend Chu Feng is already a Martial Emperor,” Lady Piaomiao said.

“I think it’s possible that Chu Feng is a rank nine Martial King. As for Martial Emperor, that’s a bit too far-fetched.”

“After all, even Huangfu Haoyue said that it was very difficult to reach a breakthrough to the Martial Emperor realm. If it wasn’t for the treasures that had been discovered on the Immortalization Road, he would not have had the opportunity to attempt the breakthrough either.”

“Although Chu Feng’s talent is extremely high, it remains that he’s very young,” Qiu Canfeng and the others said. They all felt that Chu Feng was most definitely stronger than them. However, they did not believe him to be a Martial Emperor.

Although it has been several years since Chu Feng had left, to people that had cultivated for hundreds of years like them, several years simply could not amount to much at all. At Chu Feng's level, to be able to reach peak Martial King in several years would already be a miracle. As for becoming a Martial Emperor, that was simply impossible.

Most importantly, Chu Feng had personally said that he would be no match for Huangfu Haoyue if Huangfu Haoyue were to successfully reach a breakthrough.

Thus, from those words, the crowd was able to deduce Chu Feng's cultivation to be still at the Martial King level.

"That's also precisely the reason why he should enter the Immortalization Road. Perhaps he might be able to obtain benefits from it. It might even be possible for his cultivation to increase. Thus, we should let him enter," Lady Piaomiao said.

"That's true," At that moment, the crowd's nervousness was eased. Although the depths of the Immortalization Road were extremely dangerous, they possessed a special sort of power. As they all knew how strong Chu Feng's comprehension was, they felt that Chu Feng might really be able to obtain a harvest from entering the Immortalization Road.

"Boom~~~"

Right at that moment, a loud explosion sounded from afar. Following that, a dazzling blaze soared into the sky.

When that blaze appeared, an enormous oppressive sensation followed suit. That sort of oppressive sensation was something that the people present had never felt before.

After sensing that oppressive sensation and seeing that dazzling blaze, the people present all revealed overjoyed expressions.

One by one, they soared into the sky and began to fly toward that blaze.

Soon, the blaze and that oppressive might started to dissipate. Then, a man appeared in their midst.

That man was Huangfu Haoyue.

At that moment, Qiushui Fuyan was wild with joy. Unable to contain herself, she asked, “Haoyue, you’ve succeeded?”

“Mn, this is Emperor-level martial power. I have successfully broken through to the Martial Emperor realm.”

“I am able to sense Emperor-level martial power now. Merely, the amount that I can make use of is extremely limited. I keep feeling that I am unable to make use of the most concentrated and pure Emperor-level power.”

“In other words, although I am able to use Emperor-level martial power, I am unable to use the actual Emperor-level martial power,” Huangfu Haoyue said with a frown.

“Although you’ve broken through to Martial Emperor realm, it remains that you’re only a rank one Martial Emperor. It is normal that you are unable to completely grasp Emperor-level martial power,” Taikou said.

“That’s right. The most important thing is that you’ve become a Martial Emperor. Now, we no longer have to be afraid of that bunch of Blood Qilins,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

Upon mentioning the Blood Qilins, the crowd present all revealed expressions of hatred. They were impatient to have Huangfu Haoyue teach that bunch a lesson.

Merely, at that moment, Qiu Canfeng’s expression changed. He involuntarily looked to Xue Xiyue who stood beside him.

“Everyone, although Huangfu Haoyue has become a Martial

Emperor, the Blood Qilins still cannot be looked down upon.”

“Earlier, I went to the Everlasting Sea of Blood to scout things out. At that place, I felt an extremely frightening oppressive might. Although I was unable to ascertain things at that time, I am able to do so now. I am sure that the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief has also broken through to the Martial Emperor realm. The reason for that is because that oppressive might felt exactly the same as the one that you brought us,” Xue Xiyue said sternly.

“What? The Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief also broke through to the Martial Emperor realm? It is no wonder the Blood Qilins are acting so arrogantly. In the letter they sent us yesterday, they demanded that we leave the Misty Peak immediately. Else, they would come and kill all of us with their army,” Qiushui Fuyan said with a frown.

Yesterday, Qiushui Fuyan had received a letter. After seeing the contents of the letter, she had thought the Blood Qilins to be extremely arrogant and conceited. However, after hearing what Xue Xiyue said, and considering the time when Xue Xiyue had returned to the Misty Peak and the timing of the letter, she felt that it was very likely that the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief had managed to break through to the Martial Emperor realm, and that they had sent the letter after he had reached a breakthrough.

Now that she thought about it, that was simply no letter. Instead, it was a written challenge.

“What’s there to fear? Haoyue has also become a Marital Emperor now. Even if that Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief is also a Martial Emperor, he would only have the same level of cultivation as Haoyue.”

“If they wish to come, then let them come. This would serve as a perfect opportunity to settle them. I’ll give the order to have our Crippling Night Demon Sect’s army gather here,” Qiu Canfeng said.

“That’s right. We not only have the Martial Emperor senior Huangfu Haoyue here, there’s also junior brother Chu Feng.”

“My junior brother Chu Feng was able to defeat even those fellows from the Holy Land of Martialism back then. How could he possibly fear a bunch of fish that overestimates themselves?” Chun Wu said in an immensely proud manner.

Even though the crowd all felt that Chu Feng was not a Martial Emperor, Chun Wu was still extremely confident in Chu Feng.

Chapter 2074 – Keep Chu Feng In The Dark

“Chun Wu, what did you just say? You said that Chu Feng has returned?” Hearing what Chun Wu said, Huangfu Haoyue’s expression took a huge change. Overwhelmed with excitement, he grabbed Chun Wu.

“Haoyue, I nearly forgot to mention this to you. Chu Feng has indeed returned. He just returned today,” Qiushui Fuyan said with a smile.

“That’s great. Where is Chu Feng now?” I’ll go see him,” After verifying that Chu Feng had returned, Huangfu Haoyue revealed an overjoyed expression. His appearance was even more excited than when he had reached a breakthrough in his cultivation.

“Little friend Chu Feng found out about what happened to Ya Fei and the others. Thus, he has entered the Immortalization Road to search for clues regarding Ya Fei and the others,” Qiushui Fuyan said.

“That, it’s understandable,” After hearing that, Huangfu Haoyue’s smile turned stiff. Not only did he stop smiling, he revealed an expression of worry. He said, “If it is determined that Ya Fei and the others are no longer in this world, little friend Chu Feng will definitely be feeling extremely hurt.”

Hearing those words, many of the crowd all grew silent. They all know that Chu Feng possessed a special relationship with those three women. Furthermore, they were all able to tell that Chu Feng felt guilt toward them.

“Haoyue, this is perfect timing. The banquet that we held for Chu Feng’s return is still here. We’ll go and replenish it so that we can celebrate your breakthrough to Martial Emperor,” Qiu Canfeng said. The other people present also expressed their approval of Qiu Canfeng’s idea.

To them, today could be said to have brought happiness twofold. If they did not enjoy themselves with wine, they would truly have wasted this happy day.

“Everyone, Haoyue just reached a breakthrough. Even though his cultivation has greatly increased, it remains that if the situation is truly as Xue Xiyue said, that the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief has already broken through to the Martial Emperor realm, they could arrive at our Misty Peak at any moment now.”

“If we were all drunk at that time, it would be very inappropriate,” Lady Piaomiao said.

“What mother says is very true. Furthermore, Haoyue just reached a breakthrough. As such, he must properly rest,” Qiushui Fuyan added.

“That’s true. It would not be too late for us to celebrate after we take care of the Blood Qilins,” Qiu Canfeng and the others nodded.

Thus, the crowd scattered. Although the crowd had scattered, Qiu Canfeng and many others remained. They stood guarding the entrance to the Immortalization Road.

They all had a lot of things that they wished to tell Chu Feng. Furthermore, they were extremely worried for Chu Feng’s safety and state of mind.

However, as they did not wish to disturb Chu Feng, they could only guard the entrance and wait for Chu Feng’s return.

Originally, Huangfu Haoyue had wanted to go there to wait for Chu Feng’s return too. However, as there were already so many people waiting for Chu Feng, and Qiushui Fuyan had told him to rest, he ended up returning to his and Qiushui Fuyan’s residence.

“Haoyue, although you’ve become a Martial Emperor, I am still worried should you fight against that Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief,” Just then, Qiushui Fuyan discarded her usual image and laid herself on Huangfu Haoyue’s bosom lovingly.

Although she was the current master of the Misty Peak and held enormous power, she remained only Huangfu Haoyue's wife when before him. As such, the only thing in her mind was worry for her husband.

"Truth be told, if the Blood Qilins' Clan Chief has also broken through to Martial Emperor, it will truly be hard for me to attain certain victory when fighting against him."

"After all, when I fought against him before, I was unable to attain any superiority in the battle. However, as matters stand, we have no other option. We must fight with our backs to the river," Huangfu Haoyue said.

"How about we go and call Chu Feng out? With how powerful Chu Feng's talent is, and how he managed to return from the Holy Land of Martialism, he might also be a Martial Emperor. If the two of you were to join hands, then, regardless of how powerful that Blood Qilins' Clan Chief might be, he would still be no match for the two of you," Qiushui Fuyan said.

"Fuyan, you've just said it yourself. Chu Feng might be a Martial Emperor. However, it's also possible that he might not be a Martial Emperor."

"If Chu Feng is a Martial Emperor, then it would be great. However, if he isn't a Martial Emperor, we would be throwing him into this battle that did not originally concern him for no reason," Huangfu Haoyue said.

"But, Chu Feng is no stranger," Qiushui Fuyan said.

"Indeed. Chu Feng treats us like relatives. However, that is precisely why we shouldn't involve him. If he knew about this matter concerning the Blood Qilins, he would definitely not leave things be. Instead, he would fight alongside us against the Blood Qilins."

"But, you should know about Chu Feng's true identity. His identity is extremely exceptional. If something were to really happen to him, and his father were to find out about it, none of us would be able to escape the blame,” Huangfu Haoyue said solemnly.

“If something were to happen to Chu Feng, it would mean that the Blood Qilins would have defeated us. At that time, we would not be alive. When we’re already dead, what responsibility is there to fear?”

“I know that you just do not wish to involve Chu Feng. You are worried about him, no?” Qiushui Fuyan said.

At that moment, Huangfu Haoyue nodded his head. Then, he said, “Chu Feng has already done enough for us. Chu Feng’s contribution cannot go unnoticed in how we were able to defeat the Immortal Execution Archipelago back then and obtain the status of being the overlords of the Eastern Sea Region.”

“And now, Chu Feng has just returned. If he were to find out that our status as overlords was in imminent danger, what would he think of us? Wouldn’t we, his seniors, be too useless?”

“Haoyue, I understand,” At that moment, Qiushui Fuyan finally truly understood what Huangfu Haoyue had in mind. It turned out that while it was true that Huangfu Haoyue was worried for Chu Feng, he felt ashamed to ask for Chu Feng’s assistance right after his return.

After all, this was the Eastern Sea Region. Huangfu Haoyue was the strongest individual in the Eastern Sea Region. As such, he should be the one to personally take care of this matter. He could not rely on Chu Feng since, after all, Chu Feng was only a member of the younger generation.

“It’s all the fault of that bunch of damned Blood Qilins. Exactly where did they obtain that treasure that allowed them to become this powerful in a short few years? Even when our Misty Peak joined hands with the Crippling Night Demon Sect, we are still unable to take care of them,” Qiushui Fuyan said with a frown.

“Their treasure is extremely powerful. It is precisely because of that that we cannot delay this matter. Sooner or later, their strength will surpass our own,” Huangfu Haoyue said.

“But, judging by the time, if the Blood Qilins truly plan to attack our Misty Peak, they should be arriving very soon. Even if we wish to conceal this matter from Chu Feng, we may not be able to do so,” Qiushui Fuyan said worriedly.

“Indeed. Soon, the Misty Peak will become a battlefield. Thus, Fuyan, there is a matter that I wish to request of you,” Huangfu Haoyue grabbed Qiushui Fuyan’s arms. With a very serious tone, he said, “After Chu Feng comes out of the Immortalization Road, regardless of what sort of excuse you must use, you must bring Chu Feng away from here. While we can die, Chu Feng absolutely cannot.”

“But...” Hearing those words, Qiushui Fuyan’s eyes turned moist. Before imminent battle, how could she have the heart to have her husband and relatives go and fight with their lives while she herself survived?

Right at that moment, worried shouts from a Misty Peak’s elder sounded from outside. “Milord, Milady, the situation’s bad!!!”

“Blood Qilins have appeared and surrounded our Misty Peak from all directions. We are unable to determine their numbers. However, it’s an enormous amount.”

“We fear... we fear...”

“We fear that the Blood Qilin’s entire army has arrived to attack us!!!”

Chapter 2075 – Stairway To Heaven

Hearing what the elder outside said, Qiushui Fuyan's petite body trembled. What she didn't wish for the most had happened. Furthermore, it had happened so quickly.

"They actually arrived this fast?" Huangfu Haoyue abruptly stood up. He dressed himself and began to walk outside. However, when he arrived before the door, he stopped. He turned around and looked to Qiushui Fuyan with a serious expression.

"Fuyan, you cannot let Chu Feng know that the Blood Qilins are attacking us. If Chu Feng is to leave the Immortalization Road, you must bring him away using the teleportation formation."

After saying those words, Huangfu Haoyue revealed a pleading expression. He added, "Absolutely nothing must be allowed to happen to Chu Feng. His battlefield is the Holy Land of Martialism. He can no longer participate in the matters of the eastern Sea Region. Fuyan, I know that having you do this will be extremely painful for you. But.... please!"

After saying those words, Huangfu Haoyue revealed reluctance to part. However, he did not allow Qiushui Fuyan to see that reluctance. Instead, his body shifted, and he disappeared.

Currently, the entire Misty Peak was in an utter mess. They had been caught unprepared by the sudden arrival of the Blood Qilin's army.

However, although that was the case, the military strength gathered in the Misty Peak all started to rush outward. They were prepared to guard the Misty Peak with their lives.

However, at such a time, not only did the master of the Misty Peak, Qiushui Fuyan, not rush out first, she instead proceeded toward the Immortalization Road.

She did not wish to go against Huangfu Haoyue's desires. At the same time, she also did not wish for anything to happen to Chu Feng. Thus, she decided that she would guard the Immortalization Road during this time when the others were fighting with their lives on the line. After Chu Feng exited the Immortalization Road, she planned to bring him away using the teleportation formation.

Chu Feng was inside the Immortalization Road.

The Immortalization Road was very peculiar. After one entered through the gate, one would arrive at a very vast and expansive road. The road itself was formed with crystals that emitted a dazzling golden light.

Furthermore, it was not only just a vast and expansive road. On either side of the road were different sceneries.

Merely, that scenery was somewhat strange. They were very beautiful, stunningly and fascinatingly dazzling.

Furthermore, the further in one proceeded, the more beautiful the scenery became. The reason why it was strange was because there were countless bones of the dead on either side in addition to the beautiful scenery. Those were not only human bones; there were also many different monstrous beast bones.

The number of bones was too numerous. In some places, they piled up to a small mountain.

Most importantly, the scenery on either side was actually all fake. It was simply impossible to set foot into those places. The only actual thing here was the Immortalization Road.

Chu Feng felt that there was some sort of special message in the strange scenery on either side of the road. He felt that it was implying that the Immortalization Road was formed through piling up countless bones, that it was very difficult to become an Immortal, and one would die should one take a wrong step.

However, one thing worthy of mentioning was that the Immortalization Road did contain a special sort of power. It was as Qiushui Fuyan said, that power was not only helpful towards martial cultivation, it also possessed a special sort of nourishment property for one's spirit power. Merely, to the current Chu Feng, the beneficial effects were very insignificant.

Thus, Chu Feng had already arrived at the Immortalization Road's depths. In other words, he had arrived at the place where Qiushui Fuyan and the others did not dare to enter.

Why was he certain that he reached the place where Qiushui Fuyan and the others did not dare to enter? That was because enormous heaven-reaching trees had appeared to either side of the Immortalization Road. There were vines on the trees that dangled downward, decreasing the size of the Immortalization Road.

Most importantly, not only were the vines indestructible, they were also poisonous. Furthermore, the vines would move about irregularly. As long as one came into contact with the sharp thorns on the vines, one would undoubtedly be killed.

However, Chu Feng possessed a body immune to poisons. Thus, the vines' poison would naturally not stop Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng continued to rapidly move onward. Ignoring his body's immunity to poisons, those vines were simply unable to even reach Chu Feng after Chu Feng covered his body with a layer of spirit formations.

“Ya Fei, Yan Ruyu, Murong Wan, the three of you must be alive.”

However, the further Chu Feng went, the more uneasy he felt. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had been probing his surroundings with his spirit power the entire time. However, not only did he not discover any remains from Ya Fei and the others, he was unable to sense the auras of the three women either.

If Ya Fei and the others were to truly have disappeared from the Immortalization Road, then it would mean that they had yet to die. Even if they were dead, it was only possible that they had died in the depths of the Immortalization Road.

Chu Feng truly did not wish for Ya Fei and the others to die.

Furthermore, the three of them were not hot-headed people. There would be no reason for them to charge into a place as dangerous as the Immortalization Road's depths.

Finally, Chu Feng walked out of the area filled with tree vines. At that moment, the Immortalization Road became wider. However, Chu Feng started to frown.

Although the sides of the Immortalization Road were no longer covered with the enormous heaven-reaching poisonous trees, enormous sculptures appeared on either sides of the Immortalization Road.

These sculptures were wearing armor and holding weapons. Each and every one of them reached a hundred meters tall. They looked extremely domineering.

At the moment when Chu Feng appeared, all of those sculptures actually turned their heads toward him. They looked at him with fiendish eyes. Those sculptures actually possessed intelligence.

Most importantly was the auras that those sculptures emitted. They were actually all peak Martial Emperors.

“What is this?”

At that moment, Chu Feng started to panic. He was panicking not because he was afraid of those sculptures. Rather, it was because he still found no trace of Ya Fei and the others even after reaching this place.

With the strength that Ya Fei, Yan Ruyu and Murong Wan possessed, it was impossible for them to pass through those sculptures. In other words, even if the three of them had managed to pass through the poisonous trees, this would be the furthest they could go.

However, there was no trace of Ya Fei and the others here either. Not even their remains could be found. This made Chu Feng extremely puzzled. Exactly where had the three of them gone to?

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a shocking scene occurred. At the beginning, the sculptures had been looking at Chu Feng with fierce gazes. It was as if they would execute Chu Feng should he take another step forward.

However, now, not only were those sculptures no longer looking at Chu Feng with fiendish gazes, they had also turned their heads around. Although they still emitted the auras of peak Martial Emperors, they did not reveal any traces of hostility toward Chu Feng.

“What is this? Could it be a trap?!”

Chu Feng started to frown. He was confused as to what was happening. However, he still continued to proceed onward. Since he had arrived here, Chu Feng was determined to thoroughly investigate this place.

Furthermore, even if these sculptures were peak Martial Emperors, Chu Feng, with his current level of strength, might not necessarily be destined to be killed. While he would not be able to defeat them, he might still be capable of fleeing from them.

As he continued onward, Chu Feng discovered that those sculptures did not make any other movements at all. It seemed that they really did not plan to attack him.

Although Chu Feng did not know what was going on with those sculptures, Chu Feng’s originally cautious footsteps soon started to increase in speed.

The reason for that was because the Immortalization Road was extremely long. If he wished to investigate it, he had to hasten his pace. Else, if he were to proceed at the speed of ordinary people, he would not be able to reach the end even after walking for several tens of years.

Once Chu Feng increased his speed, he started to travel like light. In a flash, he traveled ten thousand miles!!!

Finally, Chu Feng saw the end of the Immortalization Road. Even though he was still very far away from the end, he was able to see an altar-like item at the end of the Immortalization Road.

“Stairway To Heaven?”

After Chu Feng arrived before the altar, he began to inspect the altar carefully. He discovered that there was nothing special about the altar. It seemed to be composed of ordinary stones. There were many cracks in the stones. However, the altar emitted a dense amount of Ancient Era’s aura. Furthermore, there was an stele erected on top of the altar. On the stele were the words ‘Stairway To Heaven.’

Chapter 2076 – Chu Feng's Fury

“This is the end of the Immortalization Road?”

While the name Stairway To Heaven did sound very domineering, after Chu Feng inspected it carefully, he was unable to discover anything special about this Stairway To Heaven.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt a bit disappointed. Originally, he had thought that there would be something extraordinary at the end of the Immortalization Road. However, this altar by the name of ‘Stairway To Heaven’ that appeared before him did not satisfy Chu Feng’s anticipation at all.

“Exactly where have Ya Fei and the others gone to?”

“Or, could it be that this place is not the end of the Immortalization Road?”

Although Chu Feng was disappointed after reaching the end of the Immortalization Road, he was also very worried for Ya Fei and the others.

If Chu Feng was really at the end of the Immortalization Road, then why was he unable to find Ya Fei and the others?

It should be impossible for them to have disappeared like this.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, a stream of a special sort of energy was suddenly emitted from the center of the altar.

Sensing that energy, Chu Feng hurriedly moved back. The reason for that was because that energy was extremely powerful, and simply something that Chu Feng had never sensed before.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, a golden ray of light shot forth straight from the center of the altar and toward the sky. In an instant, it pierced through layers of clouds and reached deep into the heavens.

“Heavens!!!”

At that moment, even Chu Feng was stunned. Deep shock filled his eyes.

The reason for that was because not only was that golden ray of light piercing the skies. Chu Feng felt that it was also penetrating space itself, breaking through the boundaries and entering a new world.

Most importantly, through using his Heaven's Eyes, Chu Feng was able to clearly see what was within the golden light. They were crystal stairs.

That's right, they were stairs. The stairs extended all the way into the depths of the skies.

The name Stairway To Heaven was not an undeserved reputation. It was truly a stairway to heaven.

“Could it be that these stairs lead to the Outer World?”

At that moment, Chu Feng felt extremely excited. He could sense that his blood was racing. It was as if his blood had been ignited.

Where was the place that Chu Feng had always wanted to go? It was the Outer World.

The reason for that was because the Outer World was where his clan was from. Chu Feng always felt that the Outer World was his actual battlefield.

He must retrieve his father's honor. He must retrieve his lost dignity. He must let his clan know that their decision to abandon his father and him was their greatest mistake.

Merely, the Outer World was only a legend even in the Holy Land of Martialism. The people that knew of the Outer World were extremely few. As for a method to enter the Outer World, no one knew about it.

However, the place which the Stairway To Heaven lead was a place which Chu Feng could not see. Chu Feng felt that it was very possible for this Stairway To Heaven to be a divine artifact that lead to the Outer World.

After all, this place was known as the Immortalization Road. What was an Immortal? If one were to leave this world and enter a better world, wouldn't one enter a world of Immortals?

To ordinary people, wouldn't the so-called Outer World be a world of Immortals?

“Ya Fei, Yan Ruyu and Murong Wan, they couldn't have possible ascended the Stairway To Heaven, right?”

At that moment, a speculation appeared in Chu Feng's mind. Ya Fei and the others had disappeared for no reason at all. Furthermore, there was no trace of them on the Immortalization Road. Thus, the only explanation available right now was that the three of them had entered the Outer World through the Stairway To Heaven.

However, Chu Feng did not dare to ascertain his speculation. After all, if Ya Fei and the others had truly arrived here, there would be no reason for them to directly step onto the Stairway To Heaven. Instead, they should have returned to inform Qiushui Fuyan and the others about it.

Even if they were afraid of the vines and felt that they would not be able to return safely, they should have left a letter or some sort of indication before ascending the Stairway To Heaven.

There was no reason why the three of them would leave like this without leaving any hint behind, for this would only cause everyone to be worried for them.

“Perhaps the answer to all this can only be discovered at the end of the Stairway To Heaven.”

At that moment, Chu Feng truly had an urge to ascend the Stairway To Heaven. He wanted to investigate the Stairway To Heaven. It was not only because he wanted to search for Ya Fei and the others. It was also for the sake of entering the Outer World.

However, Chu Feng did not do that. Instead, he turned around to leave. The reason for that was because there was still a lot of things that he had to do. Even if he would enter the Outer World, he must first take care of the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

As such, Chu Feng could only end his investigation of what has happened to Ya Fei and the others here.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at the moment when Chu Feng moved a certain distance away from the Stairway To Heaven, the light that lead directly to the Outer World completely disappeared.

“Truly miraculous.”

At that moment, Chu Feng was certain that the Stairway To Heaven had only been triggered after he had approached it.

Most importantly, when the Stairway To Heaven was not triggered, it looked just like an ordinary stone altar. Even Chu Feng was unable to detect any peculiarity. However, that altar was actually a divine artifact that lead to the Outer World.

Even though Chu Feng was currently a person capable of calling upon the wind and summoning the rain in the Holy Land of Martialism, Chu Feng still felt himself to be extremely small when standing before the Stairway To Heaven.

Afterwards, Chu Feng began to return using the same route he had used to get here. As Chu Feng no longer needed to carefully inspect his surroundings with his spirit power, the speed at which Chu Feng traveled to return became much faster.

However, at the moment when Chu Feng walked out of the Immortalization Road, his eyes shone.

With Chu Feng's current level of cultivation, his perception was extremely sharp. Thus, even though there was a spirit formation in the way, he was able to clearly hear all of the war cries, energy ripples wreaking havoc, and the explosions emitted by martial skills outside of the Misty Peak.

Then, upon using his Heaven's Eyes, Chu Feng saw that there were energy ripples and surging smoke all over. The outside of the Misty Peak had turned into a battlefield.

Qiu Canfeng, Taikou, Xue Xiyue and many of his familiar seniors were all fighting outside.

As for their opponents, it should be a monstrous beast race.

Chu Feng had never seen that race of monstrous beast before. Their entire bodies were blood-red in color, and covered in scales. They should be a sort of sea monstrous beast.

Furthermore, their number was not a lot; they numbered less than the experts from the Misty peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect.

However, the overall strength of this group of monstrous beasts was very strong. At that moment, they were suppressing the Misty Peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect's armies.

Furthermore, one of those monstrous beasts had taken on human form. Even though he had taken human form, his body was still covered with crimson scales. He looked extremely disgusting.

Most importantly, that monstrous beast actually possessed the cultivation of a rank one Half Martial Emperor. In the Eastern Sea Region, that cultivation was most definitely capable of ruling above everyone else.

Fortunately, he was pinned down by Huangfu Haoyue, a fellow rank one Half Martial Emperor. Else, the casualties for the Misty Peak would likely be even more severe.

However, regardless of how powerful Huangfu Haoyue might be, regardless of how he was deemed to be the strongest in the Eastern Sea Region back then, he was still in a disadvantaged position when fighting against the monstrous beast.

“They actually came here to create trouble?! Truly courting death!”

After discovering the situation outside, fury erupted in Chu Feng’s heart. He did not care about where those monstrous beasts came from. However, the fact that they actually dared to bring harm to those that were close to him meant that Chu Feng would absolutely not forgive them.

“Chu Feng,” Right at the moment when Chu Feng was prepared to go out, a figure suddenly arrived before him and stopped him.

It was Qiushui Fuyan. After she appeared, she immediately grabbed Chu Feng’s wrist and said to him with a joyous smile on her face, “Chu Feng, quickly, come with me. I managed to find Ya Fei and the others.”

After saying those words, Qiushui Fuyan began to pull Chu Feng toward the teleportation formation in the Misty Peak.

However, she was simply unable to even move Chu Feng. Confused, Qiushui Fuyan turned around and asked, “Chu Feng, what’s wrong?”

“Big sister Fuyan, that is what I should be asking you. Someone is attacking our Misty Peak. Yet, not only did you not tell me that, you instead tried to deceive me and lead me away, saying that you had found out where Ya Fei and the others were. Exactly what is it that you’re planning?” Chu Feng narrowed his eyebrows and asked in a somewhat angry manner.

Chapter 2077 – Truly Ridiculous

“Chu Feng, you...”

“I...”

At that moment, Qiushui Fuyan started to panic. She did not expect for Chu Feng to already know about what was happening outside even though he had just returned from the Immortalization Road.

However, that was not the important aspect. Most importantly, she discovered that Chu Feng was angry. She had known Chu Feng for so long, but had practically never seen him angry at his friends before. Thus, at that moment, she was startled.

“Big sister Fuyan, I have merely left for several years. Are you all treating me as an outsider already?” Chu Feng asked sternly. He was truly angry.

Chu Feng knew Qiushui Fuyan well. Thus, he naturally knew what Qiushui Fuyan planned to do. Actually, Qiushui Fuyan was thinking for his sake. She was afraid that he would be in danger. Thus, she did not wish to involve Chu Feng, and planned to deceive him and lead him away.

However, Chu Feng was still unable to contain his anger. The reason for that was because if he did not come out at the right time to discover the situation outside, he would’ve been deceived by Qiushui Fuyan. If he were truly to have left this place, then the people from the Misty Peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect would very likely be done for.

Even though Chu Feng was able to tell that the battle seemed to have just began, the outcome of the battle was already decided. Even with the Misty Peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect joining hands, they would still be no match for that bunch of monstrous beasts.

If Chu Feng didn't do anything, the Misty Peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect's joint army, those people that were extremely close to Chu Feng, would likely end up dying today.

"Chu Feng, it's not like that. We were just worried about your safety and didn't want you to..." Qiushui Fuyan hurriedly tried to explain.

"There's no need to explain," However, before Qiushui Fuyan could finish her words, Chu Feng interrupted her. He said, "Big sister Fuyan, in my eyes, you are my relative. I will not truly blame you."

"However... I absolutely cannot allow that bunch of monstrous beasts to attack you all. I do not care who they are. I will absolutely not let them get away with it."

"Big sister Fuyan, carefully and properly watch this. Watch how your little brother will take care of them."

After saying those words, Chu Feng flipped his palm. Not only did he break free from Qiushui Fuyan's hand that grabbed onto his wrist, he instead grabbed her wrist.

Then, as Chu Feng's body shifted, Qiushui Fuyan felt that her surroundings became blurry. By the time her sight returned to normal, her expression had changed enormously.

The reason for that was because she and Chu Feng were now outside of the Misty Peak.

In that sort of situation, Qiushui Fuyan subconsciously turned her gaze to Chu Feng beside her.

Even though she was a Martial King, even though she had traveled with Huangfu Haoyue before, she had never experienced speed as fast as she had just now. They had instantly gone from inside the Misty Peak to the outside without alerting the spirit formation around the Misty Peak.

"Woosh~~~"

Right at the moment when Qiushui Fuyan was staring at Chu Feng, an even more astonishing scene appeared. Chu Feng waved his sleeve. Then, a formless wave swept forth. In an instant, it covered an area of ten thousand miles.

Being enveloped by that wave, Qiu Canfeng, Xue Xiyue, Taikou and all the other people from the Misty Peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect all disappeared. When they reappeared, they were standing behind Chu Feng.

In fact, even the person that they thought to be a Martial Emperor, Huangfu Haoyue, had also been transported like everyone else. With a wave of Chu Feng's sleeve, all of them had lost control of their bodies and appeared behind Chu Feng.

"Heavens!" witnessing that scene, Qiushui Fuyan was stupefied. She no longer knew how to describe her state of mind. She was someone that had trained in martial cultivation for many years. Thus, she had attained some success. However, what Chu Feng had done just now was something that she had never seen before, something that was simply unheard of.

"Chu Feng?!"

"Fuyan?!"

"Fuyan, why would you bring Chu Feng here?!!"

The others did not know that Chu Feng had teleported them next to him. Thus, they had puzzled expressions on their faces. They were confused as to what had happened. Especially after they saw Chu Feng, they all revealed extremely worried expressions.

The reason for that was because none of them wanted to involve Chu Feng in this battle. This was especially true after they discovered that the Blood Qilins were even more powerful than they had anticipated.

"Seniors, it's only a bunch of monstrous beasts. How could I trouble seniors with that bunch of evil animals? Just leave them all to this junior,” Chu Feng said to the crowd behind him with a beaming smile.

“Chu Feng, you... could it be?!!!” The crowd were all shocked upon hearing those words. They subconsciously thought about how they were able to escape from the battle of life and death earlier and arrived behind Chu Feng, and how that might be related to Chu Feng.

But, what had happened earlier was truly too strange and too miraculous. If it was really done by Chu Feng, wouldn't that mean that Chu Feng would, at the very minimum, be a Martial Emperor?

However, many people also revealed expressions of worry after hearing that Chu Feng planned to take on the Blood Qilins by himself.

However, regardless of what the crowd thought, they all subconsciously turned their gazes to Qiushui Fuyan. They all wished to obtain an answer from Qiushui Fuyan.

As for Qiushui Fuyan, she did not say anything. Instead, an incomparably brilliant smile blossomed on her face. She took a glance at Chu Feng, then turned to the crowd and nodded.

“This...”

At that moment, the crowd were all struck dumb. The reason for that was because the intention behind Qiushui Fuyan's movements was very clear. She wanted to tell the crowd to believe in Chu Feng.

Believe in Chu Feng... didn't that mean that Chu Feng was capable of handling the Blood Qilins by himself?

“Brat, where did you come from? You dare to boast so shamelessly, saying that you will take care of our Blood Qilin Race?” At that moment, the Blood Qilins' Clan Chief shouted coldly at Chu Feng. He had heard what Chu Feng said to Qiu Canfeng and the others.

Over the past several years, they, the Blood Qilin Race, had risen in power rapidly. From a small power that was looked down upon by the Misty Peak and the Crippling Night Demon Sect, they had become a huge monster that could withstand both the Misty Peak and Crippling Night Demon Sect by themselves.

It would be understandable if someone didn't know about their Blood Qilin Race. After all, they had emerged in power too quickly. Thus, they did not have enough time to expand their reputation.

However, all those that had heard of them or seen them would all feel great respect toward them.

Yet now, a brat like that actually dared to say those sorts of shameless words. As the Blood Qilin Race's Clan Chief, he would naturally be furious.

"Blood Qilins? You are clearly a bunch of red carps. Yet you actually dare to associate yourselves with the legendary Qilin? How shameless are you all?" Chu Feng said mockingly.

"Ignorant bastard, did you know that our Clan Chief is a Martial Emperor?!"

"Do you know what a Martial Emperor is?! It is an existence that has never appeared in the Eastern Sea Region before! To see such an expert, why are you still not on your knees?!"

"That's right, get on your knees and beg for forgiveness! If you do that, then perhaps our Clan Chief might be in a good mood, and will consider leaving your corpse intact! Else, a sneeze from him would be capable of shattering your body and soul!"

The arrogant and conceited Blood Qilins were extremely furious after being insulted by Chu Feng. One by one, they began to use their Clan Chief to threaten Chu Feng.

"Martial Emperor? Hahahahahaha!!!"

After hearing how the Blood Qilins bragged about their Clan Chief like so, Chu Feng burst into a loud laughter.

Chu Feng was not laughing because he was feeling in a good mood. Rather, it was because that bunch of monstrous beasts were truly too ridiculous, too funny.

Before Chu Feng, they were nothing more than a bunch of ants. Yet, the ants actually felt themselves to be unparalleled; actually did not place Chu Feng in their eyes at all. As such, how could Chu Feng not laugh?

Chapter 2078 – Crimson Jade Pendant

“Brat, what are you laughing about?” Seeing that Chu Feng was actually laughing with such contempt and mockery, that Clan Chief of the Blood Qilins’ expression grew even uglier.

Ever since he had appeared, even Huangfu Haoyue did not dare to look at him with such contempt.

Yet, at that moment, that brat actually did not place him in his eyes at all. He truly felt as if his heart, liver, spleen and lungs were about to explode from excessive anger.

Thus, his shout of anger was not an ordinary shout. Instead, it contained a dense amount of his oppressive might. Even space itself started to tremble.

“Hahaha...”

However, after sensing that oppressive might, Chu feng’s laughter grew even louder. He felt as if a little kitten was trying to display its might before a tiger.

“You damned brat, did you think that I would not dare to kill you?” Seeing that Chu Feng’s attitude remained the same even after he had revealed his oppressive might, the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief was gnashing his teeth in anger. As he spoke, one could even hear the sound of his gritted teeth.

“Martial Emperors are extremely powerful. How about you let me experience the abilities of a Martial Emperor?”

“Come, come, come. I will stand here without moving. You can attack me as you wish. Let’s see if you can injure me,” As Chu feng spoke, he stepped forward.

“Chu Feng, you cannot be careless, he is really a Martial Emperor!!!” Seeing Chu Feng’s action, Huangfu Haoyue and the others were all deeply alarmed. Immediately, they spoke to advise Chu Feng against it.

After all, the strength of the Blood Qilins' Clan Chief was something that they had all personally seen. Even Huangfu Haoyue, a Martial Emperor, found him hard to deal with.

Yet, Chu Feng was actually planning to stand there and allow himself to be attacked? Chu Feng's actions would simply be courting death.

Being shouted at by the crowd, Chu Feng stopped his footsteps. He turned around and said, "Seniors, do not worry about me. If he is able to injure me with his strength, then it would mean that I, Chu Feng, am incompetent." After saying those words, Chu Feng smiled confidently and then continued onward.

After hearing what Chu Feng said, Huangfu Haoyue and the others' expressions all grew stiff.

It was not that their tolerance for surprises was low. Rather, what Chu Feng said, 'If he is able to injure me with his strength, then it would mean that I, Chu Feng, am incompetent,' was truly too shocking.

What sort of strength did that Blood Qilin Clan Chief possess? In their eyes, he was an actual Martial Emperor. If even a Martial Emperor could not injure Chu Feng, didn't that mean that Chu Feng was even more powerful than Martial Emperors?

At this moment, when the crowd were all staring at Chu Feng's back with gazes filled with incomparable shock, Chu Feng had arrived at a distance less than a hundred meters from the Blood Qilins' Clan Chief and stopped.

"Brat, exactly what are you planning?"

However, at that moment, the Blood Qilins' Clan Chief was hesitant to attack Chu Feng. He was confused as to what Chu Feng was planning.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng didn't appear to be pretending to be looking down on him. Rather, it appeared like he was looking down on him from the bottom of his heart. This caused him to feel extremely uneasy. The confidence that he had always had started to sway.

“I’m allowing you to attack me, yet you don’t even dare to do that. You are truly trash,” Chu Feng said mockingly.

“Damned brat! If you wish to die, I shall help you accomplish your goal!” The word ‘trash’ caused the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief to explode with killing intent. Then, he shot a punch at Chu Feng. Surging martial power turned into an enormous golden fist that ruthlessly smashed toward Chu Feng.

At that moment, Huangfu Haoyue, Qiu Canfeng and many others did not dare to continue to watch. They closed their eyes. They were deeply afraid that Chu Feng would be smashed to death by that punch.

“Boom~~~”

However, when that golden fist landed onto Chu Feng, it suddenly exploded.

That explosion was extremely ear-piercing. Following that, a strange scene occurred. At the moment when the energy ripples from the explosion were about to spread, they suddenly disappeared.

Most importantly, Chu Feng was still standing in midair. Not only was he not harmed in the slightest, even his clothes were completely undamaged.

“Yoh, is this the attack of a Martial Emperor? Why is it that the attack was unable to even harm a single hair of mine?” Chu Feng said with a mocking smile.

“This!!!” At that moment, everyone was stunned. Even though the attack from the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief was something that no one other than Huangfu Haoyue was able to clearly see, they had all felt a fatal power from that attack.

To them, that power was not only something they could not withstand, it was also devastating. If they were to be struck by it, they would undoubtedly die.

Earlier, that power had clearly landed on Chu Feng. However, Chu Feng was still standing there, completely unharmed. That was truly too unbelievable.

“G-great!”

“As expected from my disciple, as expected from my, Qiu Canfeng’s, disciple!!!”

At that moment, the crowd were all wild with joy. Qiu Canfeng even started to shout in excitement.

As matters stood, they were completely convinced that Chu Feng’s strength surpassed every one of them. Not only was he a Martial Emperor, he was definitely not an ordinary Martial Emperor.

Else, it would be impossible for him to possess strength that completely surpassed the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief.

He was the person that shot out that fist strike earlier. Thus, he knew best how powerful that punch of his was. Not to mention others, even he himself would be seriously injured should he receive that punch.

Yet, the young man before him was completely uninjured. That made him realize that this young man was most definitely not someone ordinary. At the very least, his cultivation surpassed his own.

“Who is he? He is this old man’s disciple, our Crippling Night Demon Sect’s Sect Master, Chu Feng!!!” Before Chu Feng could speak, Qiu Canfeng spoke proudly. Especially when he said that Chu Feng was his disciple, his aged face was filled with pride as he said those words.

“What?! Chu Feng?! You are Chu Feng?!!!” Hearing the name ‘Chu Feng’, the expression on the Blood Qilin Clan Chief’s face changed enormously.

“No, shouldn’t you have entered the Heavenly Road?! Why would you appear in the Eastern Sea Region?!” The Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief asked in an extremely puzzled manner.

“Humph, my disciple has returned from the Holy Land of Martialism,” Qiu Canfeng said.

“Holy Land of Martialism, he actually successfully entered the Holy Land of Martialism, and even returned safely. No wonder, no wonder,” At that moment, the Blood Qilin Clan Chief’s expression grew even uglier.

Suddenly, with a ‘putt,’ he actually knelt in midair and began to kowtow to Chu Feng. He begged, “Lord Chu Feng, I have eyes but failed to recognize Mount Tai. I was wrong to attack you earlier.”

“Please, please spare my life, please give our Blood Qilin Race another chance. From today on, we will serve you, we will do as you command.”

“This...”

No one expected that the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief would actually kneel to Chu Feng, kowtow and beg for forgiveness. Not only were Qiu Canfeng and the others surprised, even the Blood Qilins were shocked.

The Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief turned to his clansman and shouted, “What are you all still standing there for?! Quickly, apologize to Lord Chu Feng!”

“Lord Chu Feng, please spare us!!!” After hearing the shout from their clan chief, the rest of the Blood Qilins all knelt in midair and began to kowtow to Chu Feng.

“Earlier, you all were trying to kill the people that I consider to be closest to me. Yet now, you all are begging for forgiveness. How am I supposed to trust you all?” Chu Feng narrowed his eyes and fixed his gaze onto the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief.

“Lord Chu Feng, in order to express my sincerity, I will offer you our Blood Qilin Race’s most valuable treasure,” As the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief spoke, he took out an item from his Cosmos Sack. It was a crimson jade pendant.

Upon seeing that pendent, Chu Feng’s eyes immediately started to shine. That pendant contained a special power. To monstrous beasts, it would most definitely be a cultivation treasure that could rapidly increase their cultivation.

However, to humans, that pendant was useless. The reason why Chu Feng was so shocked was not because of the pendant’s special usage. Rather, it was because Chu Feng felt a familiar aura from that pendant.

It was Little Fishy’s aura.

Chapter 2079 – Slaughter With A Single Strike

“Where did you obtain that pendant?” Chu Feng asked solemnly.

“Lord Chu Feng, this jade pendant is our Blood Qilin Race’s clan protection treasure. It is reportedly from the Ancient Era,” The Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief said.

“Bullshit. Speak the truth,” Chu Feng shouted furiously. The reason for that was because he knew that crimson jade pendent was most definitely not the Blood Qilin Race’s clan protection treasure.

“Lord Chu Feng, I am truly not lying to you,” The Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief said firmly. However, his gaze was hesitant.

“Paa~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and a resounding slap landed on the Blood Qilin Clan Chief’s face.

At that moment, the people present all sucked in a mouthful of cold air.

The reason for that was because after the slap landed, the Blood Qilin Clan Chief’s face was twisted. There was an enormous bruise and a large amount of blood was gushing out of his nostrils, his ears, and corner of his mouth. There were even wisps of blood in his eyes.

From that, one could tell how powerful Chu Feng’s slap had been. Most importantly, the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief, a Martial Emperor, was actually unable to even dodge Chu Feng’s slap. From that, people once again experienced Chu Feng’s absolute strength.

However, they didn’t know that Chu Feng had simply not used any power behind his slap. If Chu Feng were to put power behind his slap, the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief would’ve already died. Even his blood would have evaporated on the spot. How could he possibly be able to still kneel before him?

“Y-yes. It’s something that I picked up in the Everlasting Sea of Blood several years ago,” At that moment, the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief no longer dared to lie.

“Y-yes. We have relied on the jade pendant,” The Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief nodded.

Hearing those words, Huangfu Haoyue and the others finally found out the reason why the Blood Qilin Race had been able to increase their strength so quickly in such a short period of time. Even though they knew that the Blood Qilins must have had a treasure that helped them increase their cultivation, they had not expected it to be a simple pendant.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng’s eyes abruptly shrunk. He sensed a dense killing intent being emitted from the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief.

As he looked to the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief, he was able to clearly see that the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief was staring at him with a murderous gaze. Furthermore, he revealed a smile of success.

Furthermore, a dagger had appeared in the Blood Qilin Clan Chief’s hand. That dagger was a Royal Armament. At that moment, it was thrust at Chu Feng’s dantian.

“Crap!!!”

However, Chu Feng smiled coldly. He did not bother to dodge the incoming Royal Armament aimed at his dantian.

“Clank~~~”

Finally, that Royal Armament came in contact with Chu Feng’s body. However, it let out a sound as if it had collided with metal, and was unable to even penetrate Chu Feng’s clothes, as if it had been blocked by a powerful force.

“Damn it!” At that moment, the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief who had staked his all on that surprise attack was gnashing his teeth. He began to gather his martial power and continuously pour it into his Royal Armament dagger. He was determined to kill Chu Feng.

“Snap~~~”

However, after pouring all of his might into the dagger, the dagger actually snapped in two. Yet, Chu Feng was still completely undamaged.

“How could this be?!!!” At that moment, the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief was completely stunned. He knew that there was a definitely a disparity between his strength and Chu Feng’s strength. However, he did not expect for the disparity to be so enormous. He had used all of his strength to mount a sneak attack at Chu Feng. Yet, he was unable to injure Chu Feng in the slightest.

“Foolish dog shit. You truly cannot be spared.”

At that moment, a cold light flashed in Chu Feng’s eyes. Then, with a wave of his sleeve, heaven and earth darkened. At that moment, everyone was able to clearly see that with a wave of Chu Feng’s sleeve, the Blood Qilins’ Clan Chief’s body started to split apart. He first turned into a pile of blood, and then that pile of blood instantly turned into steam. He had evaporated into thin air.

“Heavens! Am I seeing things?!”

At that moment, Huangfu Haoyue and the others were all filled with astonishment.

The reason for that was because all of them had clearly seen what happened earlier. The Blood Qilins' Clan Chief had used all of his power, but had failed to even injure Chu Feng in the slightest.

Then, Chu Feng, with a wave of his sleeve, completely annihilated the Blood Qilins' Clan Chief, leaving not even a drop of blood.

Most importantly, they all felt an extremely frightening aura the moment Chu Feng unleashed his attack. That aura was something they had never felt before.

“Milord, please spare us, please spare us!!!”

Seeing that their Clan Chief had been slaughtered with a wave of Chu Feng's sleeve, the rest of the Blood Qilins were all terrified. One by one, they began to continuously kowtow and beg Chu Feng for forgiveness. If they were begging Chu Feng for forgiveness earlier because they were ordered to do so by their Clan Chief, then they were doing so from the bottom of their hearts now.

“There is no sin to having power. You all could have set up your own power. Yet, you all insisted on killing others to seize their territory. From that, it can be seen that your natures are vicious and merciless. The fact that you all possess vile hearts and ambitions is only one of your crimes.”

“Next, your clan chief was killed. Yet, not only do you all not have the intention to avenge him, you instead started to kneel and beg for forgiveness. From that, it can be seen that you are neither loyal nor devoted. That is your second crime.”

“With merely these two crimes, I will absolutely not spare your lives,” After Chu Feng said those words, he waved his sleeve again.

With that wave, neither heaven nor earth turned dark. There was not the slightest trace of wind above the sea. It was strangely calm.

However, the Blood Qilins were all annihilated in an instant. Not even their remains were left behind.

“Ssss~~~”

Seeing that scene, the people present all sucked in a mouthful of cold air. They were all terrified by Chu Feng’s abilities.

Finally, Qiushui Fuyan was unable to contain herself. She stepped forward and asked, “Chu Feng, exactly what is your cultivation level now?”

“You’re a rank four Martial Emperor? Boy, you are truly amazing. Since you’re a rank four Martial Emperor, why did you say that you’re no match for Huangfu Haoyue when we asked who among the two of you was stronger?” Someone asked in a very puzzled manner.

At that moment, Chu Feng smiled. He then said, “It is not only senior Huangfu Haoyue that I am not a match for. I am no match for all the seniors here. Regardless of what cultivation I might have, regardless of how strong I become, in my heart, I am still a junior before you all. As such, how could I possibly compare to you all?”

“Oh you,” Finally, the crowd understood Chu Feng’s intentions. At that time, they became even more happy.

Huangfu Haoyue walked toward Chu Feng and asked, “Chu Feng, after entering the Heavenly Road, did you manage to meet your father?”

“No, I have not,” Chu Feng shook his head.

“Why? Could it be that you didn’t find the location?” Huangfu Haoyue asked.

At that moment, Huangfu Haoyue knew that Chu Feng must have a hidden trouble that he found hard to mention. Thus, he no longer continued to linger on the topic.

However, there was another question in Huangfu Haoyue’s heart. Thus, he asked, “Chu Feng, logically, since I have broken through from the Martial King realm, I should have entered the Martial Emperor realm. Why is it that I keep feeling that something’s amiss?”

Chapter 2080 – Paying Respects To One's Family

“Senior, the realm of cultivation that you’ve entered is not the Martial Emperor realm. Instead, it’s the Half Martial Emperor realm,” Originally, Chu Feng did not wish to mention that. However, since Huangfu Haoyue asked about it, Chu Feng would naturally have to inform him about it. After all, he couldn’t refuse to tell Huangfu Haoyue and then have him be confused for the rest of his life.

“Half Martial Emperor realm?” Hearing those words, the others were all startled. However, Huangfu Haoyue appeared to be relieved. He had already anticipated that to be the case.

“Seniors, after the Martial King realm is Half Martial Emperor realm. Half Martial Emperors are also capable of using Emperor-level martial power. However, the Emperor-level martial power that they are capable of using is not pure.”

“Only after breaking through peak Half Martial Emperor would one become an actual Martial Emperor and be able to use true Emperor-level martial power,” Chu Feng explained in detail.

“So that’s the case. No wonder I kept feeling that something was amiss. Little friend Chu Feng, thank you for informing me about it,” Huangfu Haoyue smiled. The reason for that was because the doubt in his mind was solved by Chu Feng.

After obtaining new knowledge, the crowd also nodded. At that moment, they all felt as if they had achieved speedy enlightenment, and felt that they were still only viewing the sky from the bottom of a well.

Suddenly, Qiushui Fuyan asked with a serious expression, “Chu Feng, in that case, your cultivation has increased by over a dozen levels compared to before?”

“That’s right. Chu Feng is a rank four Martial Emperor, and not a rank four Half Martial Emperor. Heavens! Boy, the speed of your progress is a bit too fast, no?” After hearing what Qiushui Fuyan said, the others also started to react.

Even though the people here were all very close to Chu Feng, they were all looking at Chu Feng as if they were looking at a monster right now.

In the several years Chu Feng had been away, they had all attained progress in their cultivation. However, only a portion of them had managed to attain breakthroughs in their cultivation. The rest of them had only managed to obtain slight progress.

However, Chu Feng had managed to reach such a degree in a few short years. The speed of his growth caused them to be overjoyed. The reason for that was because this result was something that surpassed their expectations enormously.

At that moment, the crowd all revealed expressions of pride. They all felt proud of Chu Feng.

Of course, they still didn’t know about Chu Feng’s current status in the Holy Land of Martialism. If they knew that Chu Feng was a grand character in the Holy Land of Martialism, their expressions of pride would definitely be even stronger.

Afterwards, Chu Feng chatted with the crowd some more. He came to know that the Blood Qilin Race had indeed only risen in power in the recent years. Several years ago, they had only been an obscure and unknown small monstrous beast race.

Thus, Chu Feng was even more certain that the jade pendant should have been Little Fishy’s possession. Merely, Chu Feng did not expect for Little Fishy’s mere pendant to possess such enormous power. It had nearly caused an unremarkable monstrous beast race to become the overlords of the Eastern Sea Region.

“Little Fishy, oh Little Fishy, you should be from the Outer World, right?”

The person that had made the deepest impression on Chu Feng in the Eastern Sea Region was that little girl who would play around in the water. Her name was Little Fishy.

Little Fishy had revealed her miraculous abilities back then. Later on, Little Fishy had left, saying that she would be going to other places to play. After that, Chu Feng had never seen her again.

Originally, Chu Feng thought Little Fishy to be an existence that possessed a special sort of power. He thought that it was possible that she was a Natural Oddity.

However, as matters stood, Chu Feng felt more and more uncertain the more he thought about Little Fishy. He kept feeling that Little Fishy could not be an existence from the Eastern Sea Region. The reason for that was because her miraculous abilities were something that would be extremely rare even in the Holy Land of Martialism.

After seeing the pendant, Chu Feng was even more certain that Little Fishy likely possessed a remarkable origin. It might be possible... that Little Fishy was from the Outer World. When she left, she had not only left the Everlasting Sea of Blood. Instead, she had left the Eastern Sea Region, left this world.

“If fate has it, I hope that we will be able to meet again,” In the end, Chu Feng placed the jade pendant in his Cosmos Sack.

Although the pendant was extremely powerful, it was only effective for monstrous beasts. Thus, it would have no effect if it were given to Huangfu Haoyue and the others. Furthermore, it was Little Fishy’s possession. Chu Feng felt that Little Fishy would not have left that pendant in the Everlasting Sea of Blood for no reason or cause. It was very possible that she might’ve lost it by accident.

Thus, Chu Feng was determined to keep it so that he could return it to Little Fishy should he meet her again in the future. Even if he were to never meet her again, he could keep the pendant as a keepsake.

At the same time Chu Feng put the crimson jade pendant away, he placed his hand around his neck. On his neck was a hemp rope necklace. If he were to pull the rope, a little black stone would be pulled up from his chest.

There was nothing extraordinary about the little stone or the hemp rope. They were as ordinary as could be.

However, the necklace was something that Little Fishy had gave to Chu Feng as a present. Furthermore, she had made the necklace personally. Thus, Chu Feng cherished it deeply.

After that, Chu Feng chatted with Huangfu Haoyue and the others for a slight bit longer. However, it was truly a very short chat.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng did not forget that the Holy Land of Martialism was still in a deep crisis. Thus, he soon left the Eastern Sea Region and proceeded toward the Nine Provinces Continent.

.....

Back then, it had taken Chu Feng a long time to travel from the Nine Provinces Continent to the Eastern Sea Region. However, with Chu Feng's current cultivation, the distance between the Eastern Sea Region and the Nine Provinces Continent could not be considered far for him.

After traveling for some time, Chu Feng arrived at a familiar location. He had reached the Nine Provinces Continent's Azure Province. Specifically, he had arrived at a place called Leaning Mountain Town. This place was where the Chu Family had originally lived.

However, the current Leaning Mountain Town was desolate and uninhabited. The only things here were graves.

They were graves for the people of the Chu Family. Back then, Chu Feng had offended a lot of people in the Nine Provinces Continent. His family, the people of the Chu Family, were massacred by Chu Feng's enemies.

Afterwards, although the people that had massacred Chu Feng's family were killed by Chu Feng, Chu Feng ended up offending new enemies. In order to prevent the Chu Family's dead from being implicated, their graves were moved many times.

However, in the end, Chu Feng moved the graves of the Chu Family back to Leaning Mountain Town. As the saying goes, one must return to one's roots upon death. Regardless of how that place had changed, it remained the home of the Chu Family.

"Father, grandfather, uncle, I, Chu Feng, have returned to see you all."

When Chu Feng saw those graves, his eyes started to moisten. When he kneeled before the graves, tears involuntarily flowed from his eyes.

Those were not only tears of longing for his family, they were also tears of remorse. The massacre of the Chu Family had always been a knot in Chu Feng's heart. If it wasn't for the fact that he was wild in his youth and did not consider the consequences of his actions, the Chu Family would not have been massacred.

Thus, at times, Chu Feng deeply detested himself. He hated the younger him. It was because of the fact that he had offended others that he had caused the deaths of those that had raised him.

"Who is it that dared to trespass into the Chu Family?!!!"

Suddenly, a shout was heard. Then, over a hundred people appeared from all directions, surrounding Chu Feng.

Those people were all wearing the outfits of the Azure Dragon School. Evidently, they were from the Azure Dragon School. The people from the Azure Dragon School were guarding the Chu Family's graves.

Merely, not only were these people holding weapons, they also had imposing expressions on their faces.

The reason for that was because this place had a spirit formation that Chu Feng had personally set up. It was simply impossible for ordinary people to trespass into that place.

Yet, there was a man who had managed to enter without anyone noticing. As such, they subconsciously felt that that man was not someone to be looked down upon.

Chapter 2081 – Succession Ceremony

“Chu Zhen!!!” Turning his head, Chu Feng discovered a familiar face among the group of people from the Azure Dragon School. That person was Chu Zhen.

“Chu Feng, it’s you?!!” Upon seeing Chu Feng, Chu Zhen’s body trembled. Then, he revealed an overjoyed expression, and quickly walked toward Chu Feng to carefully inspect him from head to toe.

“Heavens, it’s really you! When did you return?! How have you been all these years?!” Chu Zhen was exceptionally happy and excited upon seeing Chu Feng.

“I’ve just returned. I decided to pay my respects to grandfather and the others first,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he asked, “Why would you be here?”

“This place is, after all, our Chu Family’s cemetery. Although there are people from the Azure Dragon School guarding this place, we are still worried about it. Thus, the remaining brothers and sisters of our Chu Family take turns guarding this place. I happened to be the one guarding here this month,” Chu Zhen said with a light smile.

“Lord Chu Zhen, this person... could he be?” At that moment, the others from the Azure Dragon School all walked over curiously. They used gazes filled with reverence and a slight bit of timidity to look at Chu Feng.

“This person is our Azure Dragon School’s world-shaking and all-powerful Chu Feng. Why are you all still standing there? Quickly, pay your respects,” Chu Zhen said with a smile.

“We pay our respects to Lord Chu Feng,” After verifying Chu Feng’s identity, the others from the Azure Dragon School uniformly half-kneeled before Chu Feng to courteously greet him.

Chu Feng's fame was truly too enormous. His fame was not just limited to the Azure Province, but was now known throughout the entire Nine Provinces Continent and the entire Eastern Sea Region.

The name Chu Feng had long since become a legend in the Eastern Sea Region. Thus, even though a lot of people had never met Chu Feng before, they all felt deep admiration and adoration for Chu Feng. Chu Feng could be said to be the idol of countless people.

"Quickly, get up," Chu Feng lightly waved his hand, and those people were all brought back up. Then, with a wave of Chu Feng's sleeve, many Martial Beads landed in those people's hands.

"Heavens! Lord Chu Feng, what are these?! They actually contain such a dense amount of Natural Energy?!"

Once the Martial Beads landed in their hands, the eyes of those people immediately started to shine. They could be considered to be people with decent levels of martial cultivation in the Azure Dragon School, all in the Profound Realm. Thus, they could be said to be experienced individuals that had seen many cultivation treasures. However, they had never seen pearls like the ones in their hands.

"Those are called Martial Beads. Consider them my greeting gift," Chu Feng said.

"Thank you, Lord Chu Feng. Thank you, Lord Chu Feng!!!"

Hearing those words, those Azure Dragon School's disciples once again began to express their thanks toward Chu Feng by bowing to him. Merely by looking at those Martial Beads, they knew that they were extremely valuable items. Yet, Chu Feng had actually given them a hundred Martial Beads each. As such, how could they not be excited? They truly felt that they would become extremely rich just by having those Martial Beads.

"Little brother Chu Feng, you've truly become more and more heroic. Those are some extremely precious treasures to be used as greeting gifts,” Chu Zhen said. There was a trace of jealousy in his words. It was as if he was saying that since Chu Feng had given that many precious Martial Beads to outsiders, he should give him some too.

“Chu Zhen, I’ve already prepared your gift,” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out a Cosmos Sack and placed it in Chu Zhen’s hand.

Chu Zhen received the Cosmos Sack and opened it. Immediately, his expression changed enormously. He was overjoyed, and felt as if he was dreaming.

Merely counting the Martial Beads, that Cosmos Sack contained hundreds of thousands. In addition to the Martial Beads, there were also other treasures. They were all treasures that he had never seen before.

“Little brother Chu Feng, you are truly more and more amazing. You’re actually gifting things this precious so casually. Truly, the gap between you and us is growing greater and greater,” Chu Zhen carefully put the Cosmos Sack away and looked at Chu Feng with an expression filled with admiration.

Back then, he and Chu Feng had both been disciples of the Azure Dragon School. At that time, he had looked down upon Chu Feng and bullied him.

Yet now, the disparity between the two of them was truly as enormous as the heavens from the earth. Even though it had been many years, Chu Zhen always felt ashamed upon remembering what what he had done back then.

“We’re brothers of the same family, you don’t have to distance yourself,” Chu Feng said with a light smile. Then, he asked, “How is the Azure Dragon School doing?”

“Now that you mention it, there will be a grand happy occasion that will happen in the Azure Dragon School today,” Chu Zhen said happily.

“Who is it? Tell me,” Chu Feng said.

“Haha, it’s your big brother Chu Guyu,” Chu Zhen said.

“My big brother?!” Chu Feng was also overjoyed upon hearing such news.

Chu Guyu was originally a disciple of the Qing Province’s Lingyun School. Later on, due to many unforeseen events, he ended up joining the Azure Dragon School.

Chu Guyu had possessed a very decent talent to begin with. Furthermore, Chu Feng had also provided Chu Guyu with a lot of cultivation resources, and the Azure Dragon School had also focused on the cultivation of the people from the Chu Family because of Chu Feng. Chu Guyu’s current cultivation was extremely exceptional in the Nine Provinces Continent. Thus, it did not come as a surprise for Chu Feng that he would be the next headmaster.

Merely, Chu Feng had actually managed to return right on the day when his big brother was to succeed as the new headmaster. It was truly fortunate for Chu Feng.

“Little brother Chu Feng, while it’s good that you want to congratulate him, I fear that the Succession Ceremony would’ve ended by the time we reach the Azure Dragon School. After all... it is already in the noon hours now,” Chu Zhen said with regret after looking to the sky.

“That might not necessarily be the case,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he grabbed Chu Zhen and soared into the sky. He began to fly toward the direction of the Azure Dragon School.

The current Azure Dragon School was filled with excitement. Not only had all of the schools and sects from the Azure Province come to visit and congratulate them, even the Jiang Royal Clan's ancestor and the Ten Thousand Monstrous Mountain's Monstrous Monkey King arrived to offer their congratulations.

It could be said... that all of the grand characters in the Nine Provinces Continent had gathered at the Azure Dragon School.

At that moment, the person sitting in the headmaster's seat was no longer the previous headmaster, nor was it the Azure Dragon Founder. Instead, it was a handsome man. That person was none other than Chu Feng's big brother, Chu Guyu.

"Headmaster Chu, this is our Void School's congratulatory gift. Please accept our kind regards."

At that moment, all the schools and sects were offering their congratulatory gifts. Regardless of who it was, the Azure Dragon School would accept all of their congratulatory gifts. Not only that, they would also present gifts to the people that gave them gifts. Furthermore, the gifts which they would give out would oftentimes be much more precious than the gifts they received.

After all, with the resources provided by Chu Feng, the current Azure Dragon School was extremely rich. It had become the fully deserving overlord of the Nine Provinces Continent. The previous overlord of the Nine Provinces Continent, the Jiang Royal Dynasty, also paled into insignificance by comparison.

"Headmaster Chu, this is my congratulatory gift. Please accept my kind regards."

At that moment, a sweet-looking woman walked over to Chu Guyu and gifted him an ugly-looking straw hat.

If anyone else dared to do something like that, they would definitely be dragged away on the spot and then killed. The reason for that was because it was most definitely a show of disrespect toward the new headmaster.

However, when it was done by that woman, no one said anything. Instead, they all started to laugh.

The reason for that was because that woman was Chu Feng's older cousin, Chu Yue.

Chapter 2082 – School Protection Grand Formation

“You’re no longer a child, why are you still this mischievous?” Chu Guyu cast a side eye at Chu Yue. Then, he smiled lightly and received the straw hat. Not only did he accept the straw hat, he even put it on his head.

“Big brother Guyu, I have gifts too. You must accept them,” In response, more and more of the Chu Family siblings ran forward to present their gifts. Their gifts were not very precious. However, they represented their kind intentions.

At that moment, the smile on Chu Guyu’s face grew even more brilliant. He was even happier than when he had received the gifts from the various schools and sects.

He knew very well how he had obtained his status as headmaster. It was because of his younger brother Chu Feng. Thus, he knew very well how important one’s family was. In truth, there was nothing in his heart that could surpass the importance of these family members.

“Headmaster Chu, I’ve heard that you plan to construct a new group of palaces on Azure Dragon Mountain. I’ve heard that you’ve already chosen the construction site, and are only missing a blueprint for the group of palaces that satisfies you.”

“For that, I have specially invited several famous artisans to work together and design a blueprint for the group of palaces as my congratulatory gift for Headmaster Chu,” An old man presented a blueprint.

“Oh? Let me have a look,” After Chu Guyu received the blueprint, he hurriedly opened it to look it over. The reason for that was because he really did want to construct a group of palaces in the Azure Dragon School. Due to the fact that that group of palaces was to be constructed for the people of the Chu Family, he was especially meticulous about their designs.

Over the years, he had hired many artisans to design countless blueprints. However, in the end, he still hadn't managed to find a blueprint design that satisfied him.

And now, someone was actually presenting him a blueprint as a congratulatory gift. Naturally, he would be extremely interested in it. Upon opening the blueprint, he discovered that the blueprint was indeed extremely well-designed. Although it too had not managed to meet his expectations, he was capable of accepting it.

"Headmaster Chu, how is it? For that blueprint, I invited many secluded artisans. For the sake of requesting their assistance, I have put forth quite a lot of effort," The old man said proudly. As he spoke, he deliberately looked to the several white-haired old men behind him.

Those old men were all commoners without any cultivation. If they were any other commoner, they would definitely tremble with fear and feel extremely uncomfortable upon entering a place like the Azure Dragon School.

However, those old men were different; they were all very calm and collected. Their appearances were those of people that had experienced great things. In fact, even before all these martial cultivators, they still managed to display pride and arrogance.

The reason why they dared to behave in such a manner was because they possessed true ability. Although it was said that world spiritists were omnipotent, they were even greater experts than world spiritists in the aspect of constructing palace halls. The blueprints which they designed were things that world spiritists were incapable of designing.

"It's so-so. If my younger brother Chu Feng were here, he would definitely be able to design something many times better than that," Chu Yue said with curled lips. It was not that she looked down on those artisans, as that was not the sort of person that she was. Merely, she deeply missed Chu Feng. She knew that if Chu Feng were here, they would definitely not be stumped by a mere blueprint for so long.

“Please forgive me for my boldness, but although Lord Chu Feng is amazing, he might not necessarily be superior to these several artisans in designing a blueprint. After all, each and every one of them are experts that have studied that field their entire lives,” That old man who presented the blueprint said.

At that moment, those artisans snorted lightly. It was as if they were declaring that Chu Feng would not be able to design a blueprint that surpassed the one which they had designed.

“What audacity!!!” At that moment, the Monstrous Monkey King was unable to contain himself. He slapped his table and smashed it to bits. He pointed at the old man that had presented the blueprint and the several artisans and shouted, “What is the meaning of this?! Are you saying that my brother Chu Feng is inferior to you all?!”

“No, no, we wouldn’t dare, we wouldn’t dare,” Seeing that the Monstrous Monkey King had grown furious, the old man hurriedly knelt on the ground to beg for forgiveness.

However, those artisans had the appearance of being unafraid of death. They did not kneel to the Monstrous Monkey King, and one among them even said brazenly, “I have also heard of little friend Chu Feng’s reputation. He is definitely a king in terms of martial cultivation, and a grand master in world spirit techniques.”

“However, as they say, people specialize in different things. In terms of martial cultivation or world spirit techniques, we would naturally be incomparable to little friend Chu Feng.”

“However, in terms of designing blueprints for palaces, little friend Chu Feng might not necessarily surpass us.”

“Aiyah! You bunch of damned shameless old farts. Watch how I’ll tear you all apart,” The Monstrous Monkey King was immediately enraged upon hearing those words. He was truly angry because what he could not bear the most were others speaking ill of Chu Feng.

However, right at the moment when the Monstrous Monkey King was planning to attack, the Azure Dragon Founder stopped him. “Monstrous Monkey King, these people are guests. Don’t be rude. Don’t forget what day today is.” His oppressive might swept forth and directly suppressed the Monstrous Monkey King’s oppressive might.

“Monstrous Monkey King, do not forget that today is your brother Chu Feng’s blood brother’s succession ceremony. Do not ruin this harmonious atmosphere,”

“That’s right. No matter what, you are a monstrous beast king. How could you attack ordinary mortals? If this matter were to spread, it would only ruin your reputation,” The Jiang Royal Dynasty’s ancestor and others also spoke out against his actions.

“Humph,” At that moment, the Monstrous Monkey King snorted coldly. He had decided to not attempt to attack again to give Chu Guyu face. As for why he was giving Chu Guyu face, it was because of Chu Feng. However, it remained that the Monstrous Monkey King was extremely furious.

There were this many cultivators and even world spiritists present. Yet, they were actually looked down upon by a couple of ordinary mortals. Naturally, he would feel extremely displeased.

In fact, he was not the only one feeling displeased right now. Many others felt the same way. One among them was Chu Feng’s first master, Zhuge Liuyun.

No matter what, he was a world spiritist. When they had first planned to construct palace halls for the people of the Chu Family, he was the one who had been tasked to design the blueprints.

Merely, as the palaces were meant for the people of the Chu Family, he had placed high requirements on himself. When he failed to even pass the standards he had placed on himself, he had decided to give up on it.

Originally, he had thought that they would be able to ask a world spiritist even more powerful than himself to design an amazing blueprint. Never did he expect that it would be several ordinary artisans that appeared. He was deeply unconvinced by them.

Regardless of how well their blueprint was designed, he was unconvinced by them merely because of their status. Especially after he saw how those ordinary commoners were so arrogant and conceited, he felt even greater displeasure.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, a dazzling light suddenly flashed in the distant sky. Soon, that light grew closer and closer. It was like an approaching sun. It was so dazzling that the crowd were unable to open their eyes.

“This is bad! Quickly, activate the School’s Grand Protective Formation!”

At that moment, the expressions of the Azure Dragon School’s Founder and the others all changed. Merely by looking at it, they knew that that golden light was not something ordinary. Likely, it was the arrival of an enemy. Furthermore, that enemy was most definitely not someone from the Nine Provinces Continent. It might be possible that the incoming enemy was an expert from the Eastern Sea Region.

After the Azure Dragon Founder shouted the order, the Azure Dragon School’s Grand Protective Formation was activated, enveloping the entire region.

After the School Grand Protective Formation was activated, the suspended hearts of the crowd were relieved. The reason for that was because the Azure Dragon School's Grand Protective Formation was something that Qiushui Fuyan, Huangfu Haoyue and many other experts had worked together to set up.

Thus, that Grand Protective Formation was many times more powerful than the Azure Dragon Founder and the others.

Chapter 2083 – Kowtow

After the Grand Protective Formation was activated, a layer of powerful spirit formations sealed off the entire region, shielding them within it.

Furthermore, enormous golden dragons began to emerge from the Grand Protective Formation. Those enormous golden dragons were all over a dozen meters long. The largest one was several tens of meters long. They were all extremely domineering, and actually emitted the aura of Martial Kings.

“Heavens! I have heard that the Azure Dragon School’s Grand Protective Formation is extremely powerful. Seeing it for myself today, it is truly extraordinary.”

At that moment, while the people from the Azure Dragon School and the Jiang Royal Dynasty were still calm, the others that had come to congratulate Chu Guyu were all struck dumb by the Grand Protective Formation.

In fact, even those haughty and arrogant artisans revealed expressions of admiration. Although they did not possess cultivations, they had lived in the world of martial cultivators their entire lives. However, even with that, it was still the first time that they were seeing such a Grand Protective Formation.

At that moment, they possessed a whole new level of respect toward the Azure Dragon School. The reason for that was because the Azure Dragon School possessed the qualifications to make them feel respect.

“Such a grand formation. Even Martial Kings would be seeking death by coming here. I shall see exactly who it is that is ignorant enough to trespass upon the Azure Dragon School during its day of celebration,” said many of the people that had come to offer their congratulations.

“Buzz~~~”

However, that golden ray of light was simply too fast. In the blink of an eye, it had managed to arrive before the Azure Dragon School, before the Grand Protective Formation.

At that moment, the Azure Dragon School's Founder started to frown deeply. He shouted 'Oh no!' in his heart. The reason for that was because regardless of what that golden ray of light might be, it had reached the range of their Grand Protective Formation's range of attack. Yet, that Grand Protective Formation actually did not seem to have the slightest intention of attacking the golden ray of light. It was an abnormal sign.

Then, an even more shocking scene happened. Not only did the golden dragons not attack the golden ray of light, they instead allowed the golden ray of light to continue to approach the Grand Protective Formation.

Most importantly, the golden ray of light treated the Grand Protective Formation as if it was nonexistent. Just like that, it passed through the Grand Protective Formation and arrived at the vast plaza.

“Aiya! This is bad!!!”

Seeing that the golden ray of light had penetrated the grand formation, many people present started to panic. Some among them even turned around to escape.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, the golden ray of light disappeared. When the dazzling light disappeared, the crowd discovered that a little city was actually floating in the sky.

The little city was not very large. However, it was covered with bejeweled jade palaces. Most importantly, not only were those palaces extremely beautiful, there were also many beautiful plants and rare flowers, as well as high mountains and waterfalls.

Beautifully arranged, the city simply appeared like a city where Immortals resided.

“There are actually such beautiful palaces in this world? Today, this old man has truly broadened his horizons.”

At that moment, many of the martial cultivators were still frightened. However, those artisans that didn't fear death all took out paper and pencils to carefully sketch the floating city before their eyes.

“Big brother, is this congratulatory gift to your satisfaction?”

Right at that moment, a laugh was suddenly heard. At that moment, the crowd discovered that two people had appeared at the summit of the floating city's city gates. One was Chu Zhen. As for the other person, it was Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng!!!”

Everyone was enormously shocked to see Chu Feng. They simply did not dare to believe their eyes.

“What? Chu Feng? That is Chu Feng?!” At that moment, the others also turned their gazes toward Chu Feng. Even those artisans turned their gazes to Chu Feng. The reason for that was because Chu Feng's reputation was truly renowned.

“Woosh~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng floated down to the surface with Chu Zhen. He half knelt onto the ground and began to courteously greet his seniors.

“Azure Dragon School's disciple Chu Feng pays his respects to ancestor.”

“Disciple Chu Feng pays his respects to master.”

After paying his respects to his seniors, Chu Feng stood back up and clasped his hand to Chu Guyu, “Disciple Chu Feng pays his respects to Lord Headmaster.”

“You brat, are you planning to make me out as old?” Chu Guyu stood up and ruthlessly hit Chu Feng’s head. Although his appearance seemed to indicate that he was angry, he had a glimmering smile on his face.

As for Chu Feng, he was not angered by Chu Guyu. Instead, he scratched his head and said, “Big brother, is this congratulatory gift to your satisfaction?”

“You made that?” Chu Guyu asked.

“I heard from Chu Zhen that you were to succeed the position of headmaster today. Originally, I was worried about what to gift you. Fortunately, Chu Zhen told me that you were vexed about the construction of a set of palaces. Thus, I decided to create one for you.”

“I like it, I like it a lot. Sure enough, the person that knows me the best is still my younger brother,” After hearing that it was personally constructed by Chu Feng, Chu Guyu’s smile grew even more brilliant.

“Since you like it, then let’s move it to where it belongs,” As Chu Feng spoke, he pointed with his hand. Then, the floating city began to float into the distance. In the end, it landed on a large mountain. That was the place where the set of palaces were meant to be constructed.

“Lord Chu Feng, may I ask how long it took you to design that city?” At that moment, the artisan that had spoken against the Monstrous Monkey King earlier stood forth and asked curiously.

“You’re talking about that city? I don’t know how long my brother Chu Feng took to design it, but I do know that he constructed it instantly,” Chu Zhen said.

“Impossible! That city is that exquisite and refined. Something like that would take at least eight to ten years to construct,” The other artisans also walked over.

“Seniors, are you all artisans?” Chu Feng asked with a smile. It was the first time he was meeting these people. However, looking at their coarse hands, he was able to determine their occupations.

“Yes, Milord, we are,” The artisans clasped their fists. Compared to when facing others, they were extremely respectful toward Chu Feng.

The reason they treated Chu Feng so respectfully was because the city that caused them to gasp in amazement was constructed by Chu Feng. Thus, they felt admiration for Chu Feng from the bottoms of their hearts, for they were incapable of constructing such a city.

“Seniors, it seems like you all are fond of that city?” Chu Feng asked.

“It is truly the peak of perfection. Even if the several of us here were to join hands, we would likely still not be able to construct something like that.”

“Thus, little friend Chu Feng, we hope that you can frankly tell us how long exactly you used to construct that city,” The leading artisan asked.

“I already said it was instant. Why are you all asking again?” Chu Zhen said in a slightly angry manner.

However, Chu Feng stopped Chu Zhen and then said to the old men, “Since seniors are fond of my style, I am able to gift each senior one of my works.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he waved his sleeve. Then, boundless golden world spirit power enveloped the sky.

Chu Feng began to form hand seals with one hand, and started to make an outline at the sky. His speed was so fast that simply no one was capable of following his movements.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng retrieved his sleeve. The golden light in the sky dissipated. At that moment, six palaces appeared in the sky.

The six palaces all stood apart from each other. They each possessed three levels, and were not very large. However, they were extremely elaborate. Not only were there courtyards, there were also flowers, plants and trees. Although they were not as impressive as the city before, they were all unique and exquisite.

Chu Feng waved his hand, and the six palaces landed in the plaza. Then, Chu Feng turned to Chu Guyu and said, “These six palaces are my gifts to the six seniors. Big brother, I’ll have to trouble you with ordering men to bring the six palaces to the six seniors’ homes.”

At that moment, the six artisans revealed complicated expressions in their aged eyes.

“Putt~~~”

Suddenly, the leader of the six artisans kneeled before Chu Feng and began to kowtow to him.

Chapter 2084 – Presenting Enormous Gifts

“Lord Chu Feng, this old man has never felt admiration for another in his entire life as a artisan. However, today, this old man has been fully won over. Lord Chu Feng, please take me as your disciple,” At that moment, that old artisan was so emotional that his cheeks were streaming with tears.

“Lord Chu Feng, please take us as your disciples too,” At that moment, the other five artisans also planned to kneel and kowtow to Chu Feng.

However, this time around, Chu Feng was already prepared. Thus, he prevented them from kneeling to him. That said, he was also able to tell that these six artisans did not care about fame and profit. Instead, they truly adored their work.

Thus, after Chu Feng helped the six artisans up, he made an outline with his palm toward the sky. Soon, a small scale spirit formation appeared. It then turned into six thick books, each landing into the hands of each artisan.

“Seniors, this junior doesn’t have much that I can teach you all. However, since you all are fond of palaces, I have gathered the drawings of the most beautiful palaces that I’ve seen for you all to see. I hope that you all can attain enlightenment from them,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Thank you!!!” At that moment, the six artisans spoke emotionally. The reason for that was because the books not only contained the designs of many palaces they’d never seen before, there was also all sorts information about the details and designs of the palaces. From that, it could be seen how diligent Chu Feng was.

To them, the books that Chu Feng was giving them were simply treasures. Yet, Chu Feng had gifted these sorts of treasures to them so casually. As such, how could they not express their thanks?

“Earlier, who said that my brother Chu Feng’s ability to create palaces was inferior to professional artisans?” At that moment, Chu Yue said with curled lips. As she spoke, she deliberately took a glance at the old man that presented the blueprint design earlier.

“Lord Chu Feng, please spare me, please spare me,” In response, that old man who had presented the design hurriedly knelt on the ground and started begging for forgiveness.

He was extremely scared. He deeply regretted his arrogance and conceit. At that moment, other than feeling deep admiration for Chu Feng’s attainments in building construction, he was also deeply certain that Chu Feng was someone that could drown him to death with a mouthful of spit. Someone like Chu Feng was already no longer capable of being considered a human. He was simply an existence akin to a god. Chu Feng was someone that he could not afford to offend.

“What’s going on?” Since Chu Feng had arrived late, he did not know about what had happened earlier. As such, he looked to Chu Yue.

“No one’s going to kill you. Stop crying. Don’t ruin this happy occasion,” Chu Yue glared at that old man.

“Yes, yes, yes,” After the old man stood up, he wiped his tears and hurriedly ran toward the exit, clearly truly frightened.

“After not seeing you for several years, my kind-hearted and understanding big sister Chu Yue actually also learned to bully others,” Chu Feng looked to Chu Yue with a beaming smile. He had already managed to guess what had happened.

“No, how could I?” Chu Yue smiled sweetly. Then, she grabbed Chu Feng and said, “Little brother Chu Feng, how have you been these past couple years?”

“It’s been good. I merely missed everyone,” As Chu Feng spoke, he looked to his surroundings. At that moment, the people close to him had all walked over and tightly surrounded him.

“Say, little brother, your big brother Chu Guyu is your big brother, but I, big brother Monkey, am not your big brother anymore, is that right?” The Monstrous Monkey King looked to Chu Feng with a joking smile.

“Big brother Monkey, what sorts of words are those? How could I have forgotten about you?” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out a Cosmos Sack and pushed it into the Monstrous Monkey King’s hands.

“Woah! You are truly my good little brother,” After seeing the contents of the Cosmos Sack, the Monstrous Monkey King was so excited that he started to jump up and down. He was truly overjoyed.

“This won’t do. They have all been given gifts. What about us?” At that moment, the others all began to demand gifts from Chu Feng.

“Of course, of course, there’s gifts for everyone,” Chu Feng had already prepared gifts for all those that were close to him. Each and every one of them obtained a gift.

After he gave gifts to all the people close to him, he looked to the unfamiliar elders and disciples of the Azure Dragon School.

He was able to tell that all of these people were extremely afraid of him. However, they all contained gazes of longing in their eyes. It was as if they wanted Chu Feng to take a couple more glances at them and then conveniently give them some gifts too.

“I, Chu Feng, am a disciple of the Azure Dragon School. As such, I would never forget about my Azure Dragon School’s seniors and fellow disciples.”

“Today, I, Chu Feng, have not only returned with gifts prepared for all the seniors, I have also prepared gifts for all my fellow disciples of the Azure Dragon School.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and an overflowing amount of Martial Beads appeared in the sky. There were several tens of millions of Martial Beads.

Then, as if those Martial Beads possessed awareness, the Martial Beads began to land in the hands of the Azure Dragon School’s elders and disciples. Each and every person obtained a lot of Martial Beads.

“Thank you, Lord Chu Feng!!!” Upon receiving the Martial Beads, all the elders and disciples were overjoyed. They began to kneel courteously to thank Chu Feng.

“You’re thanking me already? That’s a bit early,” Chu Feng smiled. Then, his hands began to move, and a grand formation appeared in mid-air.

Then, Chu Feng began to throw materials into the grand formation nonstop. Everything happened too quickly. Simply no one was capable of seeing Chu Feng’s movements.

After roughly an hour passed, Chu Feng finally finished setting up that grand formation. Merely, no one knew what that golden and dazzling grand formation was for.

However, without a doubt, they all were filled with expectations toward that grand formation. Chu Feng was able to construct those beautiful palaces instantly. For him to spend an hour to construct that grand formation, it would definitely be something extremely shocking.

“What is that? Lord Chu Feng couldn’t possibly be constructing palaces for every one of us, right?” Said a disciple with an expression filled with anticipation.

“Stop dreaming. What sort of status do we possess? Lord Chu Feng has already treated us extremely well to present us gifts. How could he spend the time to create that sort of refined palace for us? Besides, there are so many people in our Azure Dragon School; how could he possibly be able to construct that many palaces in such a short period of time?" Someone said. However, they were also unable to take their eyes off Chu Feng's grand formation. Their eyes were also filled with anticipation.

"Scatter!!!"

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly spread open his closed arms. Then, many dazzling rays of silvery light began to shoot out from the golden formation.

There was an enormous amount of silvery lights. They totaled tens of millions. Like silver meteors, they flew through the skies as if they were dancing. It was an extremely dazzling sight.

After the silvery lights floated in the sky for a while, they started to descend into the hands of the Azure Dragon School's elders and disciples.

When the silvery rays of light landed in the hands of the crowd, they were all shocked to discover that they had all received a weapon, a silver sword. Not only were the silver swords beautiful, the words 'Azure Dragon School' were also inscribed on the blade.

"My god! Am I dreaming?!"

At that moment, not to mention the people that were given swords, even the ones that did not obtain swords revealed faces of disbelief.

Tens of millions of swords. They were all exactly the same. Most importantly, none of those swords were ordinary swords. Instead, they were Elite Armaments.

Tens of millions of Elite Armaments. Furthermore, all of them were top quality Elite Armaments. That was something that shocked the crowd endlessly. However, they were even more shocked by how Chu Feng had managed to create all of those swords in merely an hour.

Chapter 2085 – Seeing The Emperor’s Gate Again

At this moment, when the crowd looked to Chu Feng again, they simply no longer had the gaze of looking at a man. Instead, they all had gazes as if they were looking at a god.

In their hearts, only a god would be capable of accomplishing what Chu Feng had just done.

“Chu Feng, may I ask what level your world spirit techniques are at now?” Zhuge Liuyun asked curiously.

“Sssss~~~”

Hearing those words, Zhuge Liuyun immediately sucked in a mouthful of cold air. The reason for that was because he had simply never heard of Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists before.

However, he was certain that it was most definitely an extremely amazing level. His disciple had left him, the master, a hundred and eight thousand miles away.

“The student surpasses the master. Truly, the student surpasses the master,” Zhuge Liuyun said while laughing. In his life, while he had never been the best, he had always been decent. Compared to ordinary people, he was someone extraordinary. However, when compared to real extraordinary people, he was a nobody.

He was someone that had done wrong things before, but had also done correct things before. That said, he felt that the most correct thing that he had ever done in his life was take Chu Feng as his disciple.

“Brother Chu Feng, in that case, what level is your current cultivation?” The Monstrous Monkey King asked curiously.

Upon mentioning Chu Feng’s cultivation, the people present all turned their curious gazes toward Chu Feng. They all wished to know exactly what level of cultivation Chu Feng currently had.

“Ah?!!!” The crowd were all stunned upon hearing those words.

Martial Emperor. In their eyes, Martial Emperors were simply akin to legends. Yet, Chu Feng had actually stepped into the Martial Emperor realm. In other words, the person standing before them was not only a mere Chu Feng, he was also a legend.

After a moment of astonishment, the Azure Dragon School’s Founder said, “Great! Our genius has finally grown up!” Pride filled his face. It was not only him; all of the people present that knew Chu Feng revealed the same sort of expression as him.

“Martial Emperor? Heavens! Chu Feng is actually already a Martial Emperor!”

“It would seem that we can offend anyone but the people from the Azure Dragon School in the future. Not a single person from the Azure Dragon School can be offended.”

Chu Feng’s words were also heard by the people from the other schools and sects. When they looked to the people from the Azure Dragon School, they all started to tremble with fear.

Before, no matter how powerful the Azure Dragon School was, it was only a powerful power in their eyes. It remained that they were people from the same world.

However, the way they viewed the Azure Dragon School had now changed completely. To them, the Azure Dragon School had ascended to a completely different world. It was now a power completely different from them.

“Headmaster Void,” Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly turned his gaze to the Void School's headmaster.

“Lord Chu Feng, what might it be that you need?” The Void School's headmaster hurriedly walked over to Chu Feng's side. Even though he was a school's headmaster, he was extremely afraid of Chu Feng. In fact, Chu Feng was even able to tell that this headmaster's aged body was violently trembling.

“Senior, this junior had taken away things that belonged to the Void School from your Void School in the past. Back then, I had declared that I would make up for them twofold.”

“And now, I think it is time for me to compensate your Void School,” As Chu Feng spoke, he waved his sleeve. Then, over ten thousand Elite Armaments flew out from the spirit formation that he had set up in midair.

Those Elite Armaments were all spears. Furthermore, the words ‘Void School,’ were inscribed onto them.

“Thank you, Lord Chu Feng. Thank you, Lord Chu Feng,” At that moment, the Void School's headmaster was both excited and extremely moved.

He was able to tell that Chu Feng had thought about their Void Sect the moment he had set up that spirit formation. He was truly overjoyed at this turn of events. He did not expect that Chu Feng would still remember their Void School even after so many years had passed.

“Senior, please accept these too,” Right at that moment, Chu Feng took out a Cosmos Sack and handed it to the Void School's headmaster.

“Lord Chu Feng, I absolutely cannot accept this,” After opening the Cosmos Sack, the Void School's headmaster's expression changed enormously. He hurriedly pushed the Cosmos Sack back to Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because not only did that Cosmos Sack contain legendary Royal Armaments, it also contained countless treasures and many martial skills. The value of the Cosmos Sack was over several hundreds of times the wealth that the Void School had.

That gift was too astonishing. The moment he saw it, he was nearly stunned with terror. Naturally, he would not dare to accept them.

“Senior, please hear me out. Although those Elite Armaments are useful, they remain only a small gift. They are nowhere near enough to make up for the assistance that your Void School provided me back then. Thus, those things in the Cosmos Sack are the things that I truly wish to gift the Void School,” Chu Feng forced the Cosmos Sack back into the Void School’s headmaster’s hands.

“Just accept them. They are Chu Feng’s kind intentions, you don’t have to continue to decline. Just accept them. Don’t forget, the Void School is our Azure Dragon School’s ally. In the future, our two powers will have to endure trials and tribulations and enjoy riches together,” The Azure Dragon School’s Founder said with a smile.

“That’s right, just accept them. My brother Chu Feng is not someone who lacks wealth,” The Monstrous Monkey King heckled from the side.

“Alas,” In this sort of situation, the Void School’s headmaster ended up accepting the Cosmos Sack. He had an uncontainable smile on his face.

The things in that Cosmos Sack given by Chu Feng were so precious that they could simply be considered a treasure deposit. Not to mention him, even if the entire Void School was to save up riches for tens of thousands of years, they would still not be able to save up so many treasures.

Yet now, their Void School was actually being given these treasures. He actually only refused them because he found it embarrassing to accept them. However, it would be a lie if he said that he didn't want to accept them.

Suddenly, Chu Feng said to the crowd, "Ancestor, big brother Monkey, big brother, big sister Chu Yue, seniors, I have returned with an important task. Thus, I am unable to stay for long. I'm afraid that I will have to leave right away."

"Really? You're leaving right after returning?"

"That's right. Your return was hard to come by, can't you stay for a couple more days?"

"That's right, you don't have to stay for long, just a couple days would do," Seeing that Chu Feng planned to leave, the crowd all revealed expressions of reluctance, and all spoke to urge Chu Feng to stay.

"If I could, I also wished to stay for a couple more days. Merely, my task is extremely urgent, and concerns the lives of several hundreds of millions of people. I truly cannot delay this matter," Chu Feng said.

"This..." After hearing that it concerned several hundreds of millions of lives, the crowd were unable to continue to urge Chu Feng to stay.

Even though they deeply missed Chu Feng, they were able to tell from his words that he possessed a heavy responsibility. In that sort of situation, as Chu Feng's relatives and friends, they should support him, and must absolutely not burden him.

"Chu Feng, since it's of utmost importance, you should take your leave. As for us, we will remain here. You can come and visit us anytime in the future," The Azure Dragon School's Founder said.

"That's right, go ahead," Following him, the others also started to voice their agreement.

"I will definitely return again," At that moment, the person feeling the most pained would naturally be none other than Chu Feng.

Chu Feng had been away from home for years. It had been many years since he had returned and seen his family and friends. How could he not wish to stay?

In the end, Chu Feng resisted the pain of missing his friends and family and left. As for the place that he proceeded toward, it was naturally the Emperor's Tomb left behind by Qing Xuantian.

The Emperor's Tomb remained the same as before. Merely, the traps and mechanisms that had been so frightening to Chu Feng back then were only a child's tricks to him now.

After Chu Feng entered the Emperor's Tomb, he continued onward and saw all the familiar scenes. What emerged in his mind was not only the anticipation toward the Emperor's tomb. At the same time, there were his memories from back then.

In a blink of an eye, so many years had passed. Chu Feng... was also not the hot-headed youngster from back then.

"I have grown. I wonder if I am qualified to obtain your inheritance now."

At that moment, Chu Feng had arrived before the Emperor's Gate.

A hundred and eight thousand is a distance used to describe an enormous length... kinda like how they use heaven and earth to describe the enormous disparity.

Chapter 2086 – Challenging The Emperor’s Might

The Emperor’s Gate was golden, and yet emitted a golden shine brighter than gold itself. However, it was not made out of simple gold. The reason for that was because it was also emitting a sort of indestructible and sacred sensation.

Upon seeing that gate, one would feel the absolute desire to open it gate and enter. However, that was actually only a hallucinatory sensation. Back then, Chu Feng had been bewildered by it. However, thigns were different now.

“Come on out.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng shot a fist out explosively. A stream of martial power surged forth. “Boom,” it smashed into that Emperor’s Gate.

Chu Feng’s fist was extremely powerful. However, when it smashed into the Emperor’s Gate, the Emperor’s Gate showed absolutely no change at all. It had not even shook in the slightest.

Upon seeing that, Chu Feng frowned slightly. With his current strength, even an Imperial Armament would not remain unchanged after being struck by his fist. Yet, that Emperor’s Gate was capable of accomplishing that. This meant that that Emperor’s Gate was stronger than he had imagined it to be.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the Emperor’s Gate emitted an invisible stream of power. It was Emperor’s might.

The invisible Emperor’s might began to take form. Soon, blue skies, white clouds, rivers and the earth appeared in the places covered by the Emperor’s might. In the blink of an eye, beautiful scenery appeared in the underground world.

Not only that, the scenery was still changing. In the end, a golden ray of light shot out from the scenery. That golden ray of light began to rapidly grow larger. In the end, it took on a humanoid form.

His head reached the blue skies, and his feet were on the earth. Even though his entire body was emitting golden light, and his appearance could not be determined, no one would dare to doubt the strength that he possessed.

As for that, it was the Emperor's might that Chu Feng had not dared to confront, the Emperor's might that he had not even dared to look straight at back then.

“Are you going to be my opponent? I'm afraid that the current you will be insufficient.”

Chu Feng smiled lightly. He was able to tell that that Emperor's might was no ordinary Emperor's might. Although the strength that Emperor's might possessed was only that of a rank one Martial Emperor, it remained a Martial Emperor.

To the Chu Feng from back then, that Emperor's might was something that he could not defeat.

Back then, this Emperor's might had been like a God of War when it had appeared before Chu Feng. It had been an existence that Chu Feng simply could not contend against. It was as if that Emperor's might could kill Chu Feng merely by blowing air at him.

However, when the Emperor's might appeared this time, Chu Feng was capable of not placing it in his eyes.

The reason for that was because the current Chu Feng was no longer the Chu Feng from back then. He was a rank four Martial Emperor that could defeat rank eight Martial Emperors.

“Roar~~~”

Seemingly understanding what Chu Feng said, that Emperor's might let out a roar. Then, he stepped forward. With each step, space trembles. It actually took the initiative to attack Chu Feng.

“Senior, my apologies,” Chu Feng did not attack immediately. Instead, he first clasped his fist toward the Emperor’s might.

Even though it was only an Emperor’s might, Chu Feng felt that it possessed significance. If it were to disappear, it might be gone forever. That would in turn mean that the past would all be in the past, and would never be able to return.

After Chu Feng took the time to clasp his hands respectfully, the attack from that Emperor’s might was about to land on him. A large fist descended from the sky. It was less than ten meters from him.

The powerful impulse of the fist caused Chu Feng’s clothes and long hair to flutter about.

“Haaahh!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng shouted. Then, he clenched his five fingers into a fist and shot it upward.

“Boom~~~”

In an instant, two widely different-sized fists collided.

However, upon impact, the enormous fist immediately disintegrated into pieces. Following that, the Emperor’s might also disappeared.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right after that Emperor’s might disappeared, ten more streams of Emperor’s might flew out. One by one, they turned into enormous golden humanoids.

Merely, not only had the quantity of Emperor’s might increased, their cultivations had also increased. They were ten rank three Martial Emperors.

“Scatter!!!”

However, Chu Feng merely waved his sleeve, and the ten bodies made from Emperor's might were scattered instantly. He did not even give them the time to attack.

The reason for that was because these ten bodies of Emperor's might were different from the one earlier. That Emperor's might was something that Chu Feng had seen before in his youth, something that served as a memory in Chu Feng's heart.

However, those ten bodies Emperor's might did not bear any memory in Chu Feng's heart. As such, Chu Feng possessed absolutely zero sentiments toward them, and would naturally be ruthless in his attacks.

After that, more and more bodies of Emperor's might began to appear in succession. Their numbers also grew greater and greater. However, they were all instantly erased by Chu Feng.

However, as the Emperor's might forming them grew stronger and stronger, Chu Feng ended up having to use his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, unleashing his true abilities.

“Buzz~~~”

After Chu Feng eliminated another group of bodies made from Emperor's might, a total of three hundred forms appeared. This time around, they were not just standing in front of the Emperor's Gate. Instead, they appeared all around Chu Feng, completely surrounding him.

Most importantly, this time around, all of the forms possessed rank eight Martial Emperor-level cultivations. Furthermore, the sensation they gave off was different from the earlier bodies made of Emperor's might. The Emperor's might this time around was emitting dense killing intent.

“Senior Qing Xuantian, you're deliberately making things difficult for others here,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, with a flip of his palm, his Imperial Armament, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, appeared in his hand. Then, he said, “Merely, if that’s all there is, it will be insufficient to stop me.”

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Then, Chu Feng took the initiative to attack. The Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader he held was like a silver dragon. With every slash, it would emit overwhelming destructive power that caused the Emperor’s Tomb to tremble violently. In fact, even the seemingly indestructible walls of the cave started to crack, and a large amount of stones began to scatter downward.

This region of the Emperor’s Tomb was in utter chaos. It had turned into a frightening battlefield.

“Roar, roar, roar, roar, roar~~~”

However, those three hundred bodies of Emperor’s might were absolutely not to be looked down upon either. They did not attack by themselves, and were instead attacking and defending together in a coordinated manner. In fact, they even set themselves up in a formation to attack Chu Feng in groups.

Under these sorts of circumstances, even Chu Feng, who did not place rank eight Martial Emperors in his eyes, started to feel that the situation was thorny. He had to admit that the three hundred bodies of Emperor’s might were the strongest rank eight Martial Emperors that he had encountered so far.

It was not that the three hundred bodies of Emperor’s might were thorny because of their numbers; rather, it was because all three hundred bodies of Emperor’s might were thorny by themselves.

Thus, one could very well imagine how difficult it was to deal with all three hundred of them together.

“Senior Qing Xuantian, you are truly amazing. The Emperor’s might that you left behind with world spirit techniques is already this powerful. This junior could very well imagine how powerful you were back then.”

“However, this junior really does need your inheritance now. Thus, please excuse my offense. Even if this Emperor’s might was meticulously created by you, I must still eliminate it.”

Suddenly, ruthlessness flashed through Chu Feng’s eyes. The moment after that ruthlessness appeared, a boundless amount of crimson gaseous substances appeared in a flash, enveloping the entire region.

It was Chu Feng’s Heaven Taboo Martial Skill, the Profound Firmament Annihilation.

Suddenly, Chu Feng shouted, “Scatter for me!!!”

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Following that loud shout, the might of his Profound Firmament Annihilation burst forth explosively. The three hundred ferocious bodies were all scattered in an instant.

Even though Chu Feng had eliminated them, he did not dare to relax his guard in the slightest.

After all, he had only been able to eliminate those three hundred bodies of Emperor’s might after going all-out, activating his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings and using his Profound Firmament Annihilation, a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

If more bodies of Emperor’s might were to appear now, they would definitely be existences even more powerful than the three hundred just now. Chu Feng... would likely not be able to handle it.

YWL: I have no freaking clue what this means. Rebel: it means what’s lost can’t be regained. Xima: thanks Bee, I earned a 3-hour headache trying to figure that one out!

Chapter 2087 – Meeting Qing Xuantian

“Buzz~~~”

Right at the moment when Chu Feng was extremely worried, the Emperor's Gate suddenly trembled. That trembling greatly resembled the time when the three hundred bodies of Emperor's might had appeared. The only difference was that the trembling this time was even stronger than before.

Although everything happened in an instant, Chu Feng's heart sunk. He subconsciously felt that the situation was extremely bad. However, he did not cower, because he did not wish to give up on this opportunity.

As matters stood, he no longer possessed any certainty of victory. However, he was determined to fight.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

However, the very next moment, a scene that came as an enormous joy to Chu Feng occurred. After that trembling, that Emperor's Gate actually opened.

At the moment when the Emperor's Gate was opened, Chu Feng felt a peculiar sensation. The sensation he felt was that he was standing at the edge of a bottomless cliff, and there was an invisible power pushing him forward. He was on the verge of falling from the cliff. However, at the moment of imminent crisis, a path suddenly appeared on the cliff.

Merely, that path was floating in midair. Chu Feng was uncertain whether that path was real or fake.

Would he really be able to walk safely on that path to the other side and obtain treasures, or would that path collapse the very moment he stepped onto it, making him fall down the cliff?

Thus, even though Chu Feng was overjoyed and saw hope the moment the Emperor's Gate opened, it was only for a moment.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was uncertain as to whether or not he would be able to obtain Qing Xuantian's inheritance, or if he'd be met with another trial after the Emperor's Gate opened.

“Buzz~~~:

At the moment when Chu Feng's head was filled with complicated thoughts, dazzling light suddenly blossomed from within that Emperor's Gate. Soon, that light covered all the surroundings.

When the light gradually faded away, Chu Feng discovered that he was in another world.

This place was no longer the Emperor's Tomb. A clear blue sky and white clouds were above him. Underneath his feet was a boundless meadow.

As a gentle breeze brushed past, the grasses were lifted. Chu Feng could hear birds singing, and smell flowers. It was truly vibrant and filled with life.

“It seems that I have been extremely fortunate.”

At that moment, Chu Feng finally revealed a smile of ease. His suspenseful heart was finally mostly at ease.

He knew that he was currently in a special space, a special illusory world. The reason why it was special was because it was both fake and real.

Most importantly, there was a figure in the distance, standing with his hands behind his back.

That man was wearing plain cotton clothes. The clothes he wore were made of ordinary materials. They were no different from the clothing of ordinary commoners.

However, when worn by that man, those clothes appeared very extraordinary. It was as if even if he stood within a crowd of hundreds of millions, one could still notice him at the very first glance.

That sort of illustriousness was not because of his clothes or his appearance. Rather, it was the aura that he emitted.

At that moment, that man had his back facing Chu Feng. As such, Chu Feng was unable to see his facial features. Only his long, pitch-black hair that draped down from his head to his waist like a waterfall could be seen.

This was an unrestrained and unruly man. He was also a man who possessed outstanding strength. If Chu Feng guessed correctly, that man should be the man whose fame was renowned throughout the entire Eastern Sea Region, and was deemed as the strongest person since the Ancient Era in the Holy Land of Martialism, Qing Xuantian.

“Junior Chu Feng pays his respects to senior Qing Xuantian,” After finally meeting the master of the Emperor’s Tomb, the master of the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills, how could Chu Feng dare to neglect his respect? He clasped his fist toward the man’s back and greeted him.

“Regardless of who you are, regardless of what gender you are, since you’ve managed to reach this place, it means that you possess extraordinary talent.”

“I am Qing Xuantian. Although I do not know if the people of this world still remember my name, all that I have learned and gained came from this land. Since I must leave, it is only natural that I return them to this land for the benefit of later generations.”

After Qing Xuantian said those words, he suddenly waved his sleeve. Then, four gates appeared before Chu Feng.

The four gates possessed different names. They were respectively the Gate of Wealth, the Gate of Martial Skills, the Gate of Weaponry and the Gate of Cultivation.

“The first gate, the Gate of Wealth.”

“The Gate of Wealth contains all of the treasures that I’ve accumulated in my lifetime. You will be able to obtain that wealth by entering the Gate of Wealth.”

“The second gate, the Gate of Martial Skills.”

“The Gate of Martial Skills possesses a certain amount of danger. It contains all of the Martial Skills I’ve learned in my lifetime. If you are to enter it, the Martial Skills will forcibly enter your mind, fusing with you. It has a very high requirement for your body’s constitution. If your constitution is weak and your spirit power insufficient, it is very likely that your body will explode and you will die.”

“The third gate, the Gate of Weaponry.”

“The Gate of Weaponry is even more dangerous. Inside it is a single Imperial Armament. That Imperial Armament originated from the Ancient Era, and is a rarely-seen divine artifact. However, that Imperial Armament is extremely vicious, and possesses a killing nature. If you enter the Gate of Weaponry, you will either subdue that Imperial Armament, or be killed by it. You must consider carefully before setting foot into the Gate of Weaponry.”

“The fourth gate, the Gate of Cultivation. It is the most dangerous of all four gates.”

“That gate is something that I personally refined. It is also the gate which I poured the most effort into. From all the treasures I obtained in my lifetime, I gathered all of the cultivation resources and, through the use of world spirit techniques, changed them into substantial cultivation. Entering that gate, one will be able to obtain a certain amount of cultivation.”

“However, what I’ve done is against the rules of martial cultivation. It is a feat that goes against the natural order, and thus, I ended up failing to accomplish my aim.”

“The reason why I failed is because even though the Gate of Cultivation contains a boundless amount of cultivation, it remains that the cultivation within was formed from Natural Energies. The Natural Energies possess berserk natures. Thus, unless one possesses an extremely powerful constitution, one’s body will not be able to withstand the cultivation within the Gate of Cultivation. Furthermore, even those with an extremely powerful constitution might not necessarily be able to assimilate all of the cultivation within the Gate of Cultivation.”

“That gate is a failure. Originally, it was supposed to be destroyed. However, I was reluctant to do so. After all, it was created through meticulous effort by me.”

“However, I must admit that the Gate of Cultivation is most definitely incomplete. Thus, I have only left that gate as a remembrance for myself. I’d suggest that no one enter that gate.”

“I have said all that I should say. You, who has come here by fate, I hope that you weigh your own abilities carefully, and act accordingly.” After saying those words, Qing Xuantian waved his sleeve once more.

At that moment, heaven and earth started to tremble. Violent winds formed. In that sort of environment, Qing Xuantian’s body turned into a strand of smoke that soon dissipated into thin air.

The moment Qing Xuantian disappeared, the world suddenly started to sway left and right, and started to crumble.

Soon, the shattered sky and earth began to turn into smoke. Like Qing Xuantian from earlier, they began to dissipate into thin air.

At that moment, Chu Feng discovered that he was still in the Emperor’s Tomb. The Emperor’s Gate was still before him. It had not actually opened.

However, there were four other gates below the Emperor’s Gate. They were the Gate of Wealth, the Gate of Martial Skills, the Gate of Weaponry and the Gate of Cultivation.

It was all as Chu Feng had anticipated. The scene from before was both real and illusory. However, the things most important to Chu Feng were real. The reason for that was because they were all right before his eyes.

Suddenly, Chu Feng clasped his fist and bowed. “Thank you, senior Qing Xuantian, for leaving all these behind.”

Chu Feng actually knew that the Qing Xuantian before him earlier had not even been a strand of awareness. It had merely been an image left behind by Qing Xuantian through the use of a spirit formation. As the image was created by a spirit formation, it naturally did not contain Qing Xuantian’s emotions.

In other words, that image of Qing Xuantian had only been a spirit formation, set there to explain the four gates. Perhaps, at the time of Chu Feng’s arrival, the actual Qing Xuantian was no longer in this world.

However, even though the Qing Xuantian before was only an image formed by a spirit formation, Chu Feng still acted extremely respectfully towards him. After all, no matter what, this Emperor’s Tomb was something that Qing Xuantian had left behind. As such, Chu Feng should express his thanks.

Chapter 2088 – Emperor Taboo Martial Skill

“Let me see exactly how many treasures senior Qing Xuantian has left behind.”

After courteously clasping his fist, Chu Feng stepped into the first gate, the Gate of Wealth.

The Gate of Wealth was a special small-scale isolated space. Although it was said to be small, it was not really small. The space was the size of a palace hall capable of containing tens of thousands of people. Treasures densely packed this place from the floor to the ceiling.

“As expected of the Gate of Wealth. The amount of treasures here is so enormous that it is difficult for one to not be shocked.”

Seeing those treasures, even Chu Feng, who felt himself to be very experienced, was unable to contain himself from opening his mouth wide. He was overwhelmed with excitement.

Treasures filled the entire space. It was truly a delight to the eye. They were dazzling with sparkling luster, with all sorts of treasures everywhere

There were materials for concocting medicines, materials for refining weapons and materials for setting up formations.

There were treasures that one could eat, treasures that one could play with, and treasures that one could keep in a collection.

Not mentioning the incredible amount of Incomplete Imperial Armaments there, even the Imperial Armaments that were rarely seen in the Holy Land of Martialism numbered twenty-three. Furthermore, every one of them emitted a dense Ancient Era's aura. As for their quality, none of them were actually inferior to Chu Feng's Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader; they were all top quality Imperial Armaments.

When even the Imperial Armaments were like this, the Incomplete Imperial Armaments were simply too many to count. Furthermore, each and every one of them were top quality items.

In short, this place contained all the treasures that Chu Feng had seen before, as well as a whole bunch of treasures that Chu Feng had never seen before. In fact, there were even several Golden Flash Birds that were rarely seen in the Holy Land of Martialism and deemed to be near extinction.

Seeing those living Golden Flash Birds that were kept within a spirit formation cage, Chu Feng became curious about those little fellows again. It had been a great many years. There was no food in the spirit formation cage at all. Thus, how had those Golden Flash Birds managed to survive for so many years? Could it be that they were the same as Martial Cultivators, and did not need food to survive?

While he was curious, Chu Feng still took all the treasures in this place without the slightest bit of restraint. Even though many of the treasures in this place were no longer useful to him, they were useful to others. As such, he absolutely could not let them go to waste.

After Chu Feng stored away all of the treasures in the Gate of Wealth, his surroundings turned into strands of golden gases that soon dissipated into thin air. As for Chu Feng... he returned to the Emperor's Tomb.

As he looked around, he saw that the Gate of Martial Skills, the Gate of Weaponry and the Gate of Cultivation were still there. However, the Gate of Wealth that Chu Feng had entered earlier had disappeared.

Likely, it was a special trick that Qing Xuantian had left behind. As long as the contents of the gate were taken away, the gates themselves would disappear.

“Senior Qing Xuantian, I bet even the Ancient Era's Elves do not possess as many riches as the riches you left behind.”

Even though the Gate of Wealth had already disappeared, Chu Feng revealed a dense smile as he touched the Cosmos Sack on his waist. His harvest this time around was truly enormous.

“In that case, allow me to experience exactly what sort of Martial Skills senior Qing Xuantian left behind.”

After obtaining the treasures from the Gate of Wealth, Chu Feng started to look forward to the Gate of Martial Skills even more. After all, to martial cultivators, wealth was merely worldly possessions, whereas martial skills that one mastered would become one's ability forever; they were things that others could not snatch away.

Based on what the image Qing Xuantian left with his spirit formation had said, upon entering the Gate of Martial Skills, the martial skills within the gate would be forcibly assimilated with Chu Feng. Even if Chu Feng didn't want to learn them, he would not be able to refuse their entry. Furthermore, it was likely that Chu Feng would directly grasp those Martial Skills.

“Buzz~~~”

As Chu Feng stepped into the Gate of Martial Skills, a burst of vast energy immediately rushed into his head. Even though Chu Feng possessed an extremely strong tolerance, he still felt as if he was about to explode at that very instant.

Chu Feng was someone that had experienced all sorts of pain. Even the pain of his body shattering was something that he had endured before. However, the pain that he felt right now was extremely unbearable even for Chu Feng. At that moment, Chu Feng was screaming.

If this were anyone else, even if it was the Elf King, they might not necessarily be able to endure the pain. The reason for that was because the pain not only placed a heavy demand upon one's cultivation, it also demanded an extremely powerful spirit.

Fortunately, Chu Feng was able to endure it. At the moment when the spirit power that rushed into his head from all sides like violent tides finally stopped, sweat covered Chu Feng's face.

After wiping away the sweat on his face, Chu Feng revealed a slight smile. He knew that the hard times were over, and the good times were just beginning.

The reason for that was because there were many additional martial skills that had appeared in Chu Feng's mind

These martial skills were all Taboo Martial Skills. There were a total of eighteen Earthen Taboo Martial Skills and eight Heaven Taboo Martial Skills.

Most importantly, other than the Earthen Taboo Martial Skills and the Heaven Taboo Martial Skills, there was actually also an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

It was the character 'Emperor', and not the character 'Earth.'

Most importantly, when the martial skills had been pouring into Chu Feng's head, Chu Feng was able to sense that the most powerful among them was not the eighteen Earthen Taboo Martial Skills, nor the eight Heaven Taboo Martial Skills, but rather the single Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

The name of that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation.

"What's going on? That Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation is extremely powerful. It is the most powerful martial skill I've seen. Its power most definitely surpasses that of Heaven Taboo Martial Skills."

"But, aren't the skills above Heaven Taboo Martial Skills supposed to be Divine Taboo Martial Skills? Why would it be called an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill instead of a Divine Taboo Martial Skill? Or, could it be... that this martial skill is a Divine Taboo Martial Skill, but is instead called an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill?”

At that moment, Chu Feng was a bit confused. According to Eggy, there should be four kinds of Taboo Martial Skills: Mortal Taboo, Earthen Taboo, Heaven Taboo and Divine Taboo. The Emperor Taboo was something that Chu Feng had never heard of before.

Although Chu Feng felt that this martial skill by the name of Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation was very likely a Divine Taboo Martial Skill, he did not dare to be certain as to whether or not it really was one. The reason for that was because he had heard from Eggy that Divine Taboo Martial Skills were absolute legends. Even she did not know whether or not they still existed in this world. As such, how could Chu Feng possibly obtain a Divine Taboo Martial Skill and completely grasp it so easily?

“Senior Qing Xuantian is truly powerful. Merely in terms of martial skills, I am already incapable of being compared to him.”

Chu Feng felt that he was greatly inferior when compared to Qing Xuantian. Inevitably, he felt even greater admiration for Qing Xuantian.

Right at that moment, the Gate of Martial Skills that Chu Feng was in started to disappear. Chu Feng did not hesitate, and directly entered the third gate, the Gate of Weaponry.

Inside the Gate of Weaponry. The Gate of Weaponry possessed an area much larger than the Gate of Wealth and the Gate of Martial Skills. Right after entering the Gate of Weaponry, Chu Feng was immediately met with an extremely powerful Emperor’s might.

It was coming from an enormous chunk of black metal. To be exact, it looked more like an enormous sword that was missing a hilt. Placed in the Gate of Weaponry’s isolated world, it reached the sky as it stood in the distance.

It appeared as if it were the ruler of that place, and was intimidating everything in the world with its overwhelming

Emperor's might.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, a vast amount of killing intent was emitted by that enormous sword.

If it were anyone else, they would definitely be extremely frightened upon sensing that killing intent. However, Chu Feng smiled at it. He said, “It would seem that you are that Ancient Era's Imperial Armament.”

“Boom~~~”

Right after Chu Feng's words left his mouth, the enormous sword suddenly started to move. From top to bottom, it slashed toward Chu Feng.

That enormous sword contained an extremely ferocious Emperor's might. At that moment, it was simply not as simple as an attack from a mere weapon. Rather, it was as if the entire sky was collapsing onto Chu Feng.

However, when faced with that sort of attack, Chu Feng did not fear it in the slightest. He held his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader and sliced it upward. Then, a silver blade ray shot toward the sky.

“Boom~~~”

A loud rumble sounded. Chu Feng was not moved in the slightest. However, the enormous sword began to emit trembling cries nonstop. It had been knocked back by Chu Feng's blade ray.

After being knocked back by Chu Feng's attack, the enormous sword stood motionless. At the same time, the killing intent that it emitted greatly decreased. It was as if it was feeling shock after being knocked back by Chu Feng.

Emperor and Earth sounds the same... so... earthen taboo and emperor taboo sound the same...

You don't say... Xima: shhh, let Bee write nonsense. He has a quota to fill

YWL: So... a vertical overhead strike? GNE:So it would seem. Though technically not overhead, as you'd need a head for that

Chapter 2089 – Fusion

Seeing that the enormous Imperial Armament actually had a reaction, Chu Feng was delighted. Although all Imperial Armaments possessed a certain amount of sentience, it was the first time that Chu Feng had seen an Imperial Armament like that sword, a sword that actually revealed its sentience so clearly by attacking someone of its own initiative.

That sort of situation could be described with a single word: miraculous.

“I’ll give you two options. You will either submit to me obediently and serve me, or I’ll properly take care of you first and then make you submit to me,” Chu Feng said to that enormous Imperial Armament. He felt that this Imperial Armament was capable of understanding his words.

“Woosh~~~”

Right after Chu Feng’s words left his mouth, the enormous sword once again started attacking Chu Feng.

“Interesting,” Chu Feng smiled and said, “Seems like you’ve chosen the latter.”

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Then, Chu Feng leapt into the sky. The Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader he held turned into many silver blade rays that whistled through the sky like silver dragons and ferocious beasts that planned to shatter and tear apart everything before their path.

Regardless of how powerful that enormous Imperial Armament sword might be, it remained only a single Imperial Armament. As there was no one controlling it, its power was limited. As such, how could it possibly withstand Chu Feng’s ferocious attacks?

After all, the current Chu Feng was someone that most rank eight Martial Emperors would not be able to match.

At that moment, the enormous Imperial Armament sword was gradually knocked back. The enormous body of the sword started to tremble more and more distinctly as it continued to let out ear-piercing cries.

Toward the end, that enormous Imperial Armament was only trembling nonstop, and stopped trying to attack Chu Feng. Not to mention it's killing intent from earlier, even its boundless Emperor's might from earlier had completely disappeared.

Under those circumstances, Chu Feng stopped his attacks. He narrowed his eyes and stared at the enormous Imperial Armament. He asked, "Are you planning to submit to me now?"

However, that Imperial Armament did not have any reaction to Chu Feng's words. It had chosen to remain silent, as if it had not heard Chu Feng.

"It seems that you want me to put you in order again before you are willing to submit to me," The corners of Chu Feng's mouth lifted into an evil smile. Then, he began to wave the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader that he held in his hand once again.

Chu Feng's attacks this time around were not as simple as merely using his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. The sky and earth darkened as a frightening burst of energy was emitted from the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader.

That energy formed an illusion throughout the region. It was an illusion of a ferocious beast. It had an appearance resembling that of a tiger or leopard, but was several hundred meters in length and contained an extremely frightening power.

It was a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill that Chu Feng had just grasped. It was the first time that Chu Feng was using this Heaven Taboo Martial Skill since it was a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill that he had just inherited from Qing Xuantian.

"Buzz, buzz~~~"

Seemingly realizing Chu Feng's power, and also seemingly recognizing that martial skill, the enormous Imperial Armament sword trembled violently. Even that region of space was affected by its trembling.

Finally, its trembling started to calm down. However, at that moment, the enormous sword was rapidly shrinking in size. In the end, from the size of a colossus, it turned into a two meter-long sword.

After that sword shrunk in size, the gate that Chu Feng was in also began to dissipate. Even though that Imperial Armament had yet to recognize Chu Feng as its master, it was clear that it no longer possessed any hostility toward Chu Feng anymore.

In other words, it no longer dared to emit any hostility toward Chu Feng. Chu Feng had subdued it with his strength.

After the enormous sword shrunk, Chu Feng was able to see its characteristics more clearly. Indeed, that sword did not possess a hilt. It was a broken sword. However, although it was a broken sword, that did not affect its power.

The dense Ancient Era's aura and the air of arrogance that the sword emitted both made it stand out from the masses. It was not only a slight bit more powerful than Chu Feng's Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. Instead, it was much more powerful.

That Imperial Armament was a true top quality weapon among Imperial Armaments. Chu Feng even felt that if that Imperial Armament were to be completed, it would surpass all other Imperial Armaments.

Suddenly, Chu Feng raised his head and turned his gaze to the Emperor's Gate.

The more Chu Feng looked at it, the more marvelous of an expression Chu Feng revealed. The reason for that was because that Emperor's Gate was also not an ordinary Imperial Armament.

“It seems that my guess was correct,” At that moment, a complacent smile emerged on Chu Feng’s face. Even though he was already excited, he became even more excited.

The reason why Chu Feng was so pleased with himself was because he had discovered that that Emperor’s Gate was actually a complete Imperial Armament. However, on top of that Emperor’s Gate, Chu Feng had discovered the traces of an enormous sword.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was also able to find traces of the Emperor’s Gate on the enormous sword. Furthermore, the location where the two traces were found was the location where the sword’s hilt should be.

In addition to that, both the sword and the Emperor’s Gate possessed a spirit formation over them. The spirit formations would not affect the two of them. However, they possessed a special sort of power capable of fusing the two of them.

If Chu Feng guessed correctly, someone had tried to fuse those two extraordinary Imperial Armaments together, making them one extraordinary Imperial Armament. However, that attempt had ended in failure.

Chu Feng felt that it was very likely that it was Qing Xuantian that had attempted to do that.

However, the discovery of those clues was not something that could cause Chu Feng to be this pleased with himself. The reason why Chu Feng was so pleased was because he felt that, with his current world spirit techniques, he might be able to accomplish what Qing Xuantian had been unable to accomplish.

In other words, Chu Feng was capable of fusing the two Imperial Armaments.

What sort of character was Qing Xuantian? He was the person the entire Holy Land of Martialism accepted as the strongest since the Ancient Era.

Chu Feng deeply respected Qing Xuantian. However, Chu Feng also wished to surpass Qing Xuantian. However, for the current Chu Feng, surpassing Qing Xuantian in terms of martial cultivation would be absolutely impossible.

However, if he could surpass Qing Xuantian in terms of world spirit techniques, it would still be something that he could be proud of.

“Senior Qing Xuantian, please excuse this junior’s offense. I am going to fuse the two Imperial Armaments you left behind.”

“However, I think that if you were here, you would also support this junior.”

“Because you are definitely the same as this junior, and would also want to know what sort of weapon these two Imperial Armaments will become after fusing together.”

“Without a doubt, it will definitely be an extraordinary weapon.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng began to set up a spirit formation.

That spirit formation was extremely refined. Chu Feng used tens of thousands of materials to set it up. The spirit formation possessed a total of a thousand three hundred and eighty-nine foundation cores.

Even though Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques were extremely exceptional right now, it still took Chu Feng a total of nine days and nine nights to set up that spirit formation.

Logically, as Chu Feng was in a rush to return to the Holy Land of Martialism, he should not have wasted this much time on a single weapon.

However, Chu Feng felt that those two Imperial Armaments were both extraordinary items. Although they did not possess the same body, he might be able to create a weapon that surpassed Imperial Armaments should he be able to fuse the two of them together into one.

If he possessed a weapon like that, Chu Feng's strength would increase enormously. At that time, he would have a greater certainty in being able to defeat the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

Chu Feng did not wish to let such a great opportunity slip by him.

After Chu Feng finished setting up the grand spirit formation, Chu Feng placed the two Imperial Armaments into his grand spirit formation. Although that Emperor's Gate was still enormous, it was actually the same as that enormous sword. After Qing Xuantian's spirit formation was gone, it immediately submitted to Chu Feng after revealing his might.

Chapter 2090 – The Reemergence Of The Four Secrets

After that Emperor's Gate was intimidated by Chu Feng, it began to, as Chu Feng had expected, shrink in size. In the end, it became a gate that was only three meters tall.

However, even with that being the case, the gate was still very big. Thus, Chu Feng used a special spirit formation to shrink the Emperor's Gate further.

Evidently, Qing Xuantian had used that sort of spirit formation on the Emperor's Gate before, because it was extremely smooth and easy when Chu Feng shrank the Emperor's Gate again. The Emperor's Gate that was originally enormous like a colossus had shrunk to the size of a sword hilt.

After that was finished, Chu Feng tossed the Emperor's Gate into the fusion formation.

Merely, before fusing the two Imperial Armaments, Chu Feng did not attempt to make either the enormous sword or the Emperor's Gate recognize him as their master.

Why did he do that? The reason for that was because masterless weapons were also the purest. What Chu Feng wanted was precisely that sort of purity.

After the fusion formation was activated, it continued to operate for thirteen days.

“Boom~~~”

Finally, the grand formation that was sealed off for thirteen days opened.

After the grand formation was opened, a sword over two meters long appeared before Chu Feng, floating in midair.

That sword was pitch-black in color. Even though the veined patterns from the enormous sword were still present, they were no longer that distinct. It looked like a newly refined Imperial Armament.

That Imperial Armament was not an ordinary Imperial Armament. It was an Imperial Armament created through the fusion of the enormous sword and the Emperor's Gate. Chu Feng had succeeded. He had successfully accomplished what even Qing Xuantian had failed to do, and fused the two Imperial Armaments.

Once that Imperial Armament appeared, even the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader Chu Feng held in his hand started to involuntarily tremble.

It was afraid. The aura emitted by that Imperial Armament caused even Chu Feng's Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader to tremble in fear. However, Chu Feng's Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader was something from the Ancient Era, and a top quality weapon among Imperial Armaments.

Yet, that sword was capable of bringing fear to even the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. From that, one could imagine how powerful that Imperial Armament was. Likely, one would not find a weapon as powerful as that in the Holy Land of Martialism.

That sword was truly a king among Imperial Armaments.

"Truly, never would have I expected you, boy, to be able to accomplish that."

"Not bad, not bad. You have truly broadened the horizons of us four old fellows."

"If Qing Xuantian were to know this, he would definitely be extremely overjoyed too."

"Mn, after all, those two Imperial Armaments are both treasures he obtained from that remnant."

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly heard four voices sounding in his ear. He was startled upon hearing those voices.

Even though it had been a long time since he had heard those voices, it still felt so very familiar to hear them again. Furthermore, those four voices were the voices that Chu Feng wanted to hear the most.

They were the voices of the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique, the White Tiger Slaughtering Technique, the Vermilion Bird Resurrection Technique and the Black Tortoise Armor Technique.

Suddenly, Chu Feng half knelt onto the ground as he faced the sky. Even though Chu Feng was kneeling, his face was covered with a smile.

After all, this moment was a moment that he had looked forward to for a very long time!!!

“Hahaha...”

The very next moment, four laughs sounded from Chu Feng’s body. Soon, four bodies of light flew out from Chu Feng’s body.

Soon, the four bodies of light took shape and became four huge monsters. They were the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise, the true forms of the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills.

Even though it had been many years since then, the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills still appeared to be very domineering when they reappeared before Chu Feng in their true forms.

“Chu Feng, truly never would I have expected that not only did you manage to obtain Qing Xuantian’s inheritance, you also accomplished what even he had failed to do. Do you know how extraordinary those two Imperial Armaments are?” The Vermilion Bird said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile on its face.

“Senior, please explain,” Chu Feng said curiously.

The White Tiger sighed. “Those are things from the past. There’s nothing interesting about them. Chu Feng... all you have to know is that those two Imperial Armaments are both extremely extraordinary. As for you, you've done something even more extraordinary," It said casually.

"How could that do? Chu Feng is currently the true successor to Qing Xuantian. Naturally, we must let him know about certain things," The Vermilion Bird said.

"What Vermilion Bird says is reasonable," The Black Tortoise nodded.

"It's better that I explain it for you," The Azure Dragon smiled lightly. Then, it said, "Back then, it was no coincidence that Qing Xuantian was able to attain his extraordinary accomplishments. He had discovered a complete Ancient Era's remnant in the Holy Land of Martialism, and gained enormous benefits from it."

"Even though Qing Xuantian possessed overwhelming talent to begin with, an undeniable fact, his rapid growth in such a short period of time was actually greatly related to that Ancient Era's remnant."

"Right now, many of the treasures from that Ancient Era's remnant are already in your possession. That said, the Imperial Armament that you managed to refine could be said to be one of the most precious treasures in that Ancient Era's remnant."

"Firstly, there's the gate that Qing Xuantian placed deep in this Emperor's Tomb amidst many layers of spirit formations to find his successor."

"That gate's name is the Fiend Gate. Reportedly, its master was a monstrous beast from the Ancient Era. That monstrous beast was a ruthless evildoer. He was deemed to be an era's demon lord."

"Furthermore, according to the legends, in the hands of that demon lord, the Fiend Gate would cause hundreds of millions of creatures to meet with violent deaths instantly the moment it was opened. After their bodies were all badly mutilated, only their bones would remain.”

“Most importantly, ordinary Imperial Armaments were simply incapable of withstanding the Emperor’s might from that Fiend Gate. Even in the Ancient Era, that Fiend Gate was a nightmare to countless people. Practically everyone below Half Martial Ancestor would be deeply afraid upon seeing the Fiend Gate.”

“However, that Fiend Gate was too nefarious an item. It would end up affecting one’s state of mind. As such, even Qing Xuantian never used it. Instead, he used spirit formations to remove its nefarious nature. It was only after the Magma Emperor appeared that he finally managed to succeed in completely eliminating the nefarious nature of the Fiend Gate. However, at that time, he no longer had the heart to subdue it.”

“As for that sword, it’s name was the Nameless Broken Sword. Although it was called Nameless, it was even more powerful than that Fiend Gate. Reportedly, when it was complete and not broken, it was not an Imperial Armament, but rather an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

“Incomplete Ancestral Armament,” Chu Feng was shocked upon hearing those words.

Imperial Armaments were already extremely rare treasures in the Holy Land of Martialism. As for Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, they were things that he had never even heard of before, much less seen.

“Indeed, it was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. That Ancient Era’s remnant contained a written record of that Nameless Broken Sword.”

“Although we do not know who the first master of that Nameless Broken Sword was, the second master of that Nameless Broken Sword was the master of that Ancient Era’s remnant. He was also an extraordinary person.”

“According to the records he left behind, the Nameless Broken Sword was already in that broken state when he obtained it. Thus, at the time he had obtained it, it was already a broken Incomplete Imperial Armament that was beyond repair, a piece of scrap even.”

“However, that man forged it into an Imperial Armament. However, an Incomplete Ancestral Armament remains an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Even though it was already badly damaged, even though it had lost its original power and greatly depreciated in strength to that of an Imperial Armament, it remained something that ordinary Imperial Armaments could not compare to. Among Imperial Armaments, it could be said to be the king.”

“Back then, Qing Xuantian had used many Imperial Armaments. However, among them, the strongest would naturally have to be that Nameless Broken Sword.”

“But, even though that Nameless Broken Sword was already not something that ordinary Imperial Armaments could compare with, Qing Xuantian still said that he was unable to unleash the true power of that Nameless Broken Sword.”

“We asked Qing Xuantian why he said that before.”

“To which, Qing Xuantian smiled at us and said, ‘Perhaps because the Nameless Broken Sword was originally an Incomplete Ancestral Armament, it is unwilling to allow its master to obtain all of its power after it degenerated into an Imperial Armament,’” The Azure Dragon explained.

Bee... you just said he did that last chapter...

Chapter 2091 – Gate of Cultivation

“Although it was only a joke, we all felt it to be a very feasible theory,” the Vermilion Bird added.

“Never would I have imagined that Imperial Armament to possess such an origin. It’s no wonder it stands out from the masses like that, and actually took the initiative to attack me,” After hearing about the origin of that Imperial Armament, Chu Feng began to cherish the fused sword before him even more.

“Qing Xuantian only managed to subdue that Imperial Armament when he became a rank five Martial Emperor. You, on the other hand, have managed to subdue it at a cultivation of rank four Martial Emperor. Boy, that clearly demonstrates how extraordinary you are,” The White Tiger praised. He seemed to think very highly of Chu Feng.

After all, he was the first of the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills that Chu Feng became acquainted with. In other words, he had met Chu Feng at his weakest. Over the years, Chu Feng’s growth in strength was all clearly seen by him.

“Chu Feng is, after all, someone from the Outer World. It is normal that his talent would surpass Qing Xuantian’s. However, for him to be able to fuse the Nameless Broken Sword with the Fiend Gate into a new Imperial Armament truly has me taken aback. That is something that Qing Xuantian had prepared for for a long time, yet still failed to accomplish,” The Azure Dragon also praised.

Following that, the Vermilion Bird and the Black Tortoise also nodded. The gazes with which they looked to Chu Feng now were all different from the gazes with which they had looked to Chu Feng when they first met him. Not only was there appreciation and admiration, there was also pride in their eyes.

When they had first met Chu Feng, they had looked to him with the eyes of strangers. But now, looking at Chu Feng again, they were no longer looking at him like a stranger. Instead, there was familiarity in their gazes.

Seeing the reaction of the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills and hearing what they said, Chu Feng realized that even though they had been silent all these years, seemingly as if they had lost their awareness, they had actually been conscious the entire time. They had simply been unable to communicate with him due to what Qing Xuantian had done to them. However, they knew extremely well what Chu Feng had experienced.

“Seniors, in that case... am I able to obtain your acknowledgement now?” Chu Feng asked.

“For you to accomplish what you have, you have naturally obtained our acknowledgement. As long as you find our bodies, we will no longer be mere Secret Skills. Instead, we will be able to return to our bodies and serve you.”

“It is not that we are being conceited here, but if you were to help the four of us regain our physical bodies, that Dark Hall’s Hall Master would only be a piece of cake for us,” the White Tiger said confidently.

“In that case, seniors, you all were actually Half Martial Ancestors?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng was overjoyed.

“No matter what, we are Divine Beasts. Although we were created by Qing Xuantian and not natural-born Divine Beasts, it remains that we are still Divine Beasts. If we do not possess the strength of Half Martial Ancestors, how could we have the audacity to declare ourselves Divine Beasts?” The White Tiger gently caressed his whiskers with his claw and spoke in a very proud manner.

“Great! With the assistance of the four seniors, this junior would no longer have to worry,” Chu Feng was extremely overjoyed after confirming that matter.

The thing he was worried about the most right now was the Dark Hall's Hall Master. If the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise were truly capable of taking care of the Dark Hall's Hall Master, Chu Feng would be able to untie that knot in his heart.

“White Tiger, do not speak too determinedly. The cultivation of that Dark Hall's Hall Master was still very unstable at that time. To be exact, he was not yet an actual Half Martial Ancestor back then.”

“If he manages to stabilize his cultivation and starts to massacre the living beings of the Holy Land of Martialism, his cultivation will definitely increase enormously. If he is a rank two Half Martial Ancestor when we meet him again, even we would not be a match for him,” The Azure Dragon said.

“You're joking! How could rank two Half Martial Ancestor be so easily obtained? Do not forget that Qing Xuantian was also only a rank one Half Martial Ancestor back then.”

“Furthermore, the four of us contributed greatly to Qing Xuantian being able to become a Half Martial Ancestor. How could one become a Half Martial Ancestor that easily?” The White Tiger said.

“That was then, this is now. That Dark Hall's Hall Master is even more thorny than that Magma Emperor from back then,” The Vermilion Bird said.

“What? Even more thorny than that Magma Emperor? Don't forget that Magma Emperor was the absolute genius of the subterranean world.”

“Even Qing Xuantian said that the Magma Emperor's talent was extremely frightening. If he had trained a bit longer before emerging into this world, even if Qing Xuantian and the four of us were to join hands, we would likely still not have been a match for that Magma Emperor.”

“As for that Dark Hall’s Hall master, he was unable to even take care of a mere Elf King. Furthermore, he needed to rely on some sort of demonic technique that took him an enormous amount of time to prepare in order to obtain his current strength.”

“Yet you’re saying that that Dark Hall’s Hall Master is even stronger than the Magma Emperor?” The White Tiger refuted.

“It is true that the Magma Emperor came from the subterranean world. However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master originated from the Outer World. Is there even a need for me to declare who among the two of them is stronger?” The Azure Dragon snorted coldly.

“Humph, Outer World, is the Outer World that amazing? You’ve never been there, so how would you know if the Outer World is filled with geniuses like Chu Feng? It might be that the Outer World is inferior to our Holy Land of Martialism,” The White Tiger refuted even more determinedly.

“If the Outer World is as weak as you said, how could Qing Xuantian be so insistent on going to the Outer World?” The Azure Dragon was also furious.

“Perhaps he was wrong and regretted his decision later, but is unable to return,” When mentioning that matter, the White Tiger also felt dissatisfied.

“There’s another possibility. That is, Qing Xuantian failed to enter the Outer World. That is why he never returned,” The Vermilion Bird suddenly said in a very sentimental manner.

At that moment, the Azure Dragon, the Black Tortoise and even the White Tiger grew silent. It could be seen that even though the White Tiger was complaining about it, he actually also possessed deep sentiments for Qing Xuantian.

“Seniors, I feel that with the strength that senior Qing Xuantian possessed, it is impossible that he died. Thus, seniors, please don’t worry about it,” Chu Feng spoke to console them.

“Chu Feng, we will definitely help you take care of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. Furthermore, after taking care of him, we are also willing to continue to serve you. However, there is one thing that we must inform you of beforehand,” the Vermilion Bird said suddenly.

“Senior, please speak away,” Chu Feng said.

“If we were to encounter Qing Xuantian after entering the Outer World, we would like to follow Qing Xuantian. After all... we originally belonged to him,” The Vermilion Bird said.

“That’s true. Chu Feng, although this request is extremely excessive, we are, after all, Qing Xuantian’s Divine Power. It is only with us that his Four Symbols Divine Power will be complete,” The Black Tortoise said.

“What seniors said is very reasonable and fair. This junior naturally has no objection to it.”

“Actually, the assistance senior Qing Xuantian and four seniors have given me is already sufficient. This junior is extremely grateful. As such, how could I have such an extravagant hope?” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Good. Straight and forward, that’s what I like about you. Since that’s the case, let’s leave now,” As the White Tiger spoke, he planned to leave this place.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng turned his gaze to the Gate of Cultivation. “Wait a moment. Before leaving, we cannot forget about the most important thing,” “Chu Feng, are you certain that you want to attempt that? Although your body’s constitution is special, the Natural Energies contained in that Gate of Cultivation have been completely transformed into cultivation. Thus, its berserk nature is extremely frightening. After all... it was a failure,” The Vermilion Bird said.

“That’s right. Qing Xuantian should not have kept that Gate of Cultivation,” The White Tiger said.

The Four Symbols are the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise. They are all creatures in the chinese constellation.

Chapter 2092 – Rank Six Martial Emperor

“Seniors, I appreciate your kind intentions. However, I still wish to give it a try,” Chu Feng said with a light smile. He was already determined; no one would be able to change his mind.

At that moment, the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and the Black Tortoise all understood Chu Feng’s intentions. Thus, they looked to one another.

“Chu Feng, we know that you need power. However, you can gain power by slowly cultivating. You must not throw your life away for the sake of power,” After some deliberation, the Black Tortoise still continued to urge Chu Feng against it.

“You can’t say it like that. Chu Feng’s Inherited Bloodline is very special. Regardless of how berserk the cultivation was, it remains that it was formed from Natural Energy. I feel that Chu Feng should give it a try.”

“If he truly can’t withstand the Gate of Cultivation, it would not be too late for him to immediately withdraw from it. After all, with the constitution of Chu Feng’s body, even if he cannot withstand it, it would not necessarily mean that he will be killed. He should be able to get out in time,” Compared to the other three, the Azure Dragon approved of Chu Feng’s decision.

After the Azure Dragon said those words, the Vermilion Bird hesitated for a while before adding, “In the end, we are only giving our own suggestions. The person who gets to decide what to do will still be you, Chu Feng.”

“Chu Feng, although I am urging you against it, if you have truly decided that you want to attempt it, we will still support you,” The White Tiger said.

“In that case, I will have to trouble seniors. Please wait a while for this junior,” As Chu Feng spoke, he entered the Gate of Cultivation.

Seeing that Chu Feng had entered the Gate of Cultivation, the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and the Black Tortoise's expressions all changed. Involuntarily, they revealed expressions of worry.

However, the Gate of Cultivation soon started to dissipate. When the Gate of Cultivation dissipated completely, Chu Feng was standing there completely unharmed. He appeared exactly the same as compared before he had stepped into the Gate of Cultivation. The only difference was that Chu Feng's spirit appeared to be much better than before.

"Rank six Martial Emperor. Chu Feng, it seems you've succeeded."

Upon seeing the current Chu Feng, the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise all revealed expressions of joy.

They knew Chu Feng's cultivation the best. Earlier, he had only been a rank four Martial Emperor. However, he had become a rank six Martial Emperor now. Furthermore, that cultivation was when he was not using the Thunder Wings and Thunder Armor. This meant that Chu Feng's cultivation had increased. Furthermore, it had increased by two entire levels of cultivation. This most definitely meant that Chu Feng had succeeded.

Merely, upon thinking of how Chu Feng had managed to successfully obtain the power of the Gate of Cultivation without suffering any harm from it, the Four Great Divine Beasts were all astonished.

After all, they had accompanied Qing Xuantian to create all these gates, and knew how frightening that Gate of Cultivation was. It was indeed an incomplete gate. Even Qing Xuantian had not dared to set foot into it.

In other words, Chu Feng had accomplished what was impossible for even Qing Xuantian. As such, how could they not be astonished?

“Senior Qing Xuantian, you have truly helped this junior enormously. Rank six Martial Emperor; when added to my Thunder Wings and Thunder Armor, my cultivation would be that of a rank eight Martial Emperor.”

“Adding on my heaven-defying battle power, I am already able to fight against ordinary rank one Half Martial Ancestors now,” At that moment, Chu Feng was unable to conceal the joy on his face. When he became a rank four Martial Emperor, he had realized that it was extremely difficult for him to increase his cultivation. The reason for that was because the amount of Natural Energies he needed was truly too frightening.

However, Chu Feng had actually managed to increase his cultivation by two entire levels in succession. That came as an enormous surprise for Chu Feng. However, most importantly, the Natural Energies contained in Chu Feng’s dantian were not limited to that.

Based on the Natural Energies contained in Chu Feng’s dantian now, he was not far away from becoming a rank seven Martial Emperor. He must admit that the Gate of Cultivation was the greatest harvest he had gained from this journey.

“Great, great, great. Like this, even without us, you will be able to fight against that Dark Hall’s Hall Master,” The White Tiger said very excitedly. The four Divine Beasts were all feeling happy for Chu Feng.

Although they only possessed one true master, Qing Xuantian, in their hearts, they had followed Chu Feng for so long, and seen all that he had experienced, as well as how he invested himself for his friends. After understanding Chu Feng’s character and moral conduct, they unwittingly started to not only acknowledge Chu Feng, but also to feel deep affection for Chu Feng.

At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts looked to one another. Then, as if they had come to a mutual understanding, they smiled simultaneously. Then, the four of them turned into four rays of light and entered Chu Feng's body.

"Chu Feng, let's go. Grab your weapon, and let's set off to retrieve our bodies."

The Four Divine Beasts said in unison. Even though they had already regained their freedom, it remained that they were still Secret Skills. In other words, they had become a special sort of Secret Skill that could freely enter and exit Chu Feng's body while also possessing their own awareness.

"Okay," Chu Feng nodded. He made a grabbing motion, and that Imperial Armament created by the fusion of the Fiend Gate and the Nameless Broken Sword flew into Chu Feng's grasp.

"Sure enough, it's a good sword," Holding onto the sword that was over two meters long, Chu Feng revealed an extremely dense smile on his face. Before the two Imperial Armaments were fused, Chu Feng had guessed that the fused Imperial Armament would be something other Imperial Armaments could not compare to. Looking at it now, it was as he had expected. This weapon was simply about to surpass the limits of Imperial Armaments.

"Chu Feng, you should give that sword a name. Right now, it belongs to you. It is a unique and unmatched Imperial Armament," The White Tiger said.

"Indeed, I should give it a new name. However, I feel that it is not the time to do so yet," Chu Feng said.

"Not the time? Why is that?" The Four Great Divine Beasts asked in confusion.

"I keep feeling that this Imperial Armament is lacking something," Chu Feng said.

“Lacking what?” The Four Great Divine Beasts became even more curious. The way they saw it, that weapon was simply perfect. It was no longer capable of being described as a top quality Imperial Armament. Yet, Chu Feng said that it was still lacking something? As such, they were truly curious as to what the sword was lacking.

“If I must say it, then I feel that this sword is missing a soul,” Chu Feng said.

“Missing a soul?”

“That’s right, it’s missing a soul. Before fusing them, both the Nameless Broken Blade and the Fiend Gate possessed their own spirituality.”

“Now that they are fused into one, their respective spirits are still present in this weapon. In other words, the weapon possesses two completely different spiritualities.”

“Most importantly, those two spiritualities are inhibiting one another and fighting one another over the rights to the weapon. This leads to the weapon being somewhat inadequate. I feel that... I should form a soul for it, a soul that could suppress those two spiritualities and rule over this Imperial Armament,” Chu Feng said.

“To put it simply, no matter how powerful this Imperial Armament is, it remains only an empty shell. Its true master has yet to enter it,” Chu Feng said.

Suddenly, the White Tiger spoke emotionally, “Heavens! Chu Feng, if you are truly capable of finding this soul you speak of, that Imperial Armament would no longer be an Imperial Armament anymore. Instead, it will become an Incomplete Ancestral Armament,” “That’s right. Qing Xuantian has mentioned before that Incomplete Ancestral Armaments are weapons that possess actual souls.”

“They are weapons that can speak,” The Black Tortoise and the Vermilion Bird added.

“Chu Feng, to tell you the truth, Qing Xuantian also attempted to forge the Nameless Broken Sword and the Fiend Gate into an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

“He also attempted to create a soul. However, in the end, he failed. He felt that unless it was a Half Martial Ancestor-level soul, even if he successfully created a soul, it would still not end up becoming an Incomplete Ancestral Armament, and would only remain an Imperial Armament,” said the Azure Dragon.

Chapter 2093 – Searching For Physical Bodies

“So a Half Martial Ancestor soul is required? That is great to know. Merely, a soul of that level is extremely difficult to refine,” Chu Feng felt somewhat disappointed. Originally, he had been planning to quickly obtain materials to refine a soul for the weapon. However, it would seem that he could only drop the subject now.

“Actually, it’s a very simple task. After you enter the Outer World, there will definitely be a lot of Half Martial Ancestor-level experts. At that time, you can just use the souls of other cultivators,” The Azure Dragon said.

“Isn’t something like that too cruel?” The Vermilion Bird asked.

“What’s cruel about it? If you are to find evildoers and refine their souls, there would not be anything cruel about that. To them, this might serve as a kind of redemption,” The White Tiger refuted.

“In that case, wouldn’t it do if we were to use the Dark Hall Hall Master’s soul?” The Azure Dragon asked.

“That’s feasible. The Dark Hall’s Hall Master has done all sorts of evil. He is someone that should be killed.”

“Furthermore, he is a Half Martial Ancestor in the Holy Land of Martialism. As long as you are able to refine that man’s soul, you would be able to assimilate it into the Imperial Armament,” At that moment, both the White Tiger and the Vermilion Bird expressed their approval.

“No, I can’t do that,” However, Chu Feng shook his head at that exceptionally good proposal from the Four Great Divine Beasts.

“Why’s that?” The Four Great Divine Beasts asked in a confused manner.

“The Dark Hall’s Hall Master must be killed,” A ruthless expression flashed through Chu Feng’s eyes.

At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts all understood Chu Feng’s intentions. Thus, they said no more.

As for Chu Feng, he put that Imperial Armament away and then moved to leave this place.

However, before leaving, Chu Feng sealed this region with his own world spirit techniques.

He was afraid that someone might accidentally enter this place. As he had taken away all of the treasures here, this place was already empty.

If one were to enter this place, one would only be met with danger upon danger. Rather than having the people that enter this place in the future encounter those dangers, he felt that it was better to seal this place off to solve any future troubles.

Through the directions given by the Four Great Divine Beasts, Chu Feng came to find out what had happened back then.

It was as Chu Feng had guessed. Back then, the battle between Qing Xuantian and the Magma Emperor could be said to have been world-shocking. However, with the assistance of the Four Great Divine Beasts, Qing Xuantian had managed to suppress the Magma Emperor completely.

Just when Qing Xuantian was about to obtain absolute dominance in the battle, a spatial crack leading to the Eastern Sea Region had appeared at a place near where the two were fighting.

The Magma Emperor escaped into the spatial crack. As for Qing Xuantian, he followed after the Magma Emperor. Just like that, the two of them had shifted the battlefield from the Holy Land of Martialism to the Eastern Sea Region.

It was also in the Eastern Sea Region that the Four Great Divine Beasts had used their own bodies to seal off the Magma Emperor.

As for what had happened afterwards, Chu Feng already knew about all It.

.....

At Present, Chu Feng had arrived at the Eastern Sea Region, secretly flying above the sea waves.

Although Chu Feng's speed was extremely fast, no one was able to notice his existence. After all, with Chu Feng's current level of cultivation, he was already an existence akin to god in the Eastern Sea Region.

After making inquiries about the matters regarding Qing Xuantian, Chu Feng asked, "Seniors, I have another question in mind. I don't know if seniors might be able to tell me the answer to this question?"

"What is it? Ask away," The Four Great Divine Beasts said in unison. After chatting with Chu Feng, they began to like Chu Feng more and more, and were extremely fond of chatting with him. They would not hold anything back in their chats.

"This junior has obtained the martial skills senior Qing Xuantian left behind in the Gate of Martial Skills. Among them is an extremely powerful martial skill by the name of Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation."

"The Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation's power already surpasses those of Heaven Taboo Martial Skills. I wonder, does that Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation belong among Heaven Taboo Martial Skills, or could it be a legendary Divine Taboo Martial Skill?" Chu Feng asked.

"Haha, it turns out that that's actually what you are wondering about. Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, how could Divine Taboo Martial Skills be that easily obtained? You're thinking too much," The White Tiger burst into loud laughter.

"In that case, it's only a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill then? But, for a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill to be this powerful...” Chu Feng gasped in admiration.

To him, the matter concerning the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation was no longer a question of quality anymore. Instead, it had completely surpassed all other Heaven Taboo Martial Skills.

It was just like that Imperial Armament that he had fused. It had already surpassed all other Imperial Armaments, and was no longer on the same level as them.

“No, the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation is neither a Divine Taboo Martial Skill nor a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill,” The Azure Dragon said.

“Then, what is it?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng became even more curious.

“It is an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. That Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation is also one of the most precious treasures that Qing Xuantian obtained from that Ancient Era’s remnant.”

“Back then, there was a complete record of that Taboo Martial Skill. According to the records, it is a Taboo Martial Skill, an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, that surpasses Heaven Taboo Martial Skills,” The Azure Dragon explained.

“In that case, above Heaven Taboo Martial Skills is not actually Divine Taboo Martial Skills, but instead the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill?” Chu Feng asked in astonishment.

He had firmly believed in what Eggy said the entire time. Yet now, the Azure Dragon and the others had shattered the words Eggy had told him before.

“We, and even Qing Xuantian, are also uncertain about the specifics. However, we have heard about Divine Taboo Martial Skills. The Divine Taboo Martial Skills that we heard about are legends. We do not even know whether or not they actually exist in this world.”

“Thus, we are certain about one thing: above Heaven Taboo Martial Skills should be the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. As for whether or not Divine Taboo Martial Skills actually exist or not, you will likely only find out about them after entering the Outer World,” The Azure Dragon said.

“This junior understands,” Chu Feng truly understood. The reason for that was because Eggy also mentioned that Divine Taboo Martial Skills were legends.

Thus, though incomparable to Divine Taboo Martial Skills, it was reasonable to say that Emperor Taboo Martial Skills were existences above Heaven Taboo Martial Skills. After all, Chu Feng had completely grasped that Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation.

Suddenly, the Azure Dragon said, “Chu Feng, we’ve arrived. It’s right ahead.”

Hearing what the Azure Dragon said, Chu Feng immediately stopped in midair and turned his gaze downward.

Upon first glance, he noticed that the region of water down below him did not appear to be any different from the rest of the water in the sea. Other than the fact that the surrounding ten thousand mile radius was completely uninhabited, there was nothing strange about it.

Thus, Chu Feng activated his Heaven’s Eyes to inspect the sea.

Sure enough, with his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng discovered the abnormality. However, he only discovered it after observing the sea carefully. If he had not observed it carefully, even Chu Feng would not have been able to tell.

“Senior Qing Xuantian’s world spirit techniques are truly exceptional.”

Chu Feng exclaimed in admiration. The reason why this place was so hard to discover was because there was a layer of concealment formations around it. Evidently, the only person who could set up that level of concealment formation would be Qing Xuantian.

“Splash~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng’s body shifted, and the water on the surface of the sea soared into the sky. Like a dragon, he entered the water.

Chu Feng’s speed was so fast that he instantly arrived at the seafloor, a place where no light could penetrate.

Even though this place was pitch-black, and not a single life form was present, Chu Feng was able to clearly see everything around him with his Heaven’s Eyes.

Chu Feng began to set up a spirit formation that could undo the concealment formation. After some time and effort, Chu Feng soon succeeded.

“This!!!”

When the concealment formation was undone, Chu Feng was astonished.

Chapter 2094 – Enormous Change In Expression

The reason for that was because a grand formation sparkling with light had appeared before Chu Feng's eyes.

That spirit formation was enormous. Like a sun placed on the seabed, it brightly illuminated the deep sea.

Most importantly, there were five giant monsters contained within that grand spirit formation.

Among them, four were several hundred meters tall. They were, respectively, the physical bodies of the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise.

However, there was another huge monster contained in the center of the four Divine Beasts. That huge monster was actually several thousands of meters tall, many times larger than even the physical bodies of the Four Great Divine Beasts.

Even if the four Divine Beasts combined, they would only amount to half the size of that giant monster. That monster possessed a humanoid appearance. Its entire body was blazing red in color. It possessed a very fierce appearance like that of a demon. It was truly frightening.

It was different from how monstrous beasts appeared to be frightening. Instead, it caused one to feel fear from the bottoms of their hearts.

“That is the body of the Magma Emperor.”

Right at that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts flew out from Chu Feng's body and stood to either side of Chu Feng. They were staring at the scene below.

“Is that the Magma Emperor? It's actually that enormous,” Chu Feng had actually managed to guess that that huge monster was the Magma Emperor the moment he saw it. However, he was still astonished by it.

Even though it was only the corpse of the Magma Emperor, Chu Feng was able to imagine how frightening the Magma Emperor was when it had wreaked havoc in the Holy Land of Martialism. It was most definitely a true disaster.

“Don’t be afraid. After this much time has passed, it is most definitely dead now. Right now, it is nothing more than a corpse. It poses absolutely no threat,” The Azure Dragon said.

“Then, if I am to undo the spirit formation, will you all be able to fuse with your physical bodies and regain your cultivations?” Chu Feng asked.

“That is the case,” The Four Great Divine Beasts nodded.

“Since that’s the case, let’s begin,” After verifying it, Chu Feng started to undo the spirit formation. He was more impatient than anyone else to have the Four Great Divine Beasts regain their bodies.

After all, they were Divine Beasts, beings above monstrous beasts. They were existences not present in the current Holy Land of Martialism.

The spirit formation here was very exceptional. Even though ten thousand years had passed, it remained very difficult for Chu Feng to unseal it even with his current level of world spirit techniques.

As such, it took Chu Feng three entire days to set up the unsealing formation. After that spirit formation was activated, it took him two entire days to disable the grand sealing formation.

Logically, the spirit formation should have weakened by a lot after ten thousand years had passed. However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng still needed such an enormous amount of effort to undo it. From that, it could be seen how exceptionally powerful that sealing spirit formation was.

Suddenly, Chu Feng clasped his hands together and shouted, “Condense blade!!!”

Dazzling light emitted from his clasped hands. When Chu Feng extended his fingers, the dazzling light began to overflow from Chu Feng’s two fingers. The light formed into a two thousand meter-long blade of light.

Chu Feng waved the blade of light and sliced it at the grand sealing formation down below.

“Rumble~~~”

In an instant, rumbling sprung up everywhere. Violent wind erupted. The seawater started flaring up.

“Scatter!”

Under that sort of frightening situation, Chu Feng’s sleeve waved lightly. Then, all of the abnormal signs happening in his surroundings disappeared. He had returned this place to its former tranquility.

When the flaring seawater returned to normal, Chu Feng’s line of sight was no longer blocked. At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts were so excited that their souls were trembling. To be separated from their physical bodies for so many years and having to survive as Secret Skills, that sort of depression and misery was something that only they understood.

And now, they were finally able to regain their physical bodies and live in their original forms again. Naturally, they would be filled with endless excitement and joy.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, four rays of light flew past. The Four Great Divine Beasts flew toward their respective bodies.

Due to the fact that the speed of the Four Great Divine Beasts was extremely fast, they raised violent waves in the seawater.

After the Four Great Divine Beasts entered their respective bodies, everything grew silent. When the violent waves in the seawater faded away, there was no sound in that region of water at all. It was frighteningly quiet.

However, Chu Feng was staring at the Four Great Divine Beasts' bodies the entire time. Furthermore, he was emitting an aura, the aura of nervousness, from all over him.

He was using his Heaven's Eyes to look. Thus, he was able to tell that the Four Great Divine Beasts were fusing with their bodies. However, it remained that they had been separated from their bodies for ten thousand years, and that they were no longer ordinary souls but instead survived as souls to Secret Skills. Thus, the fusion process was not that simple.

That was why Chu Feng was worried; he was worried that the Four Great Divine Beasts would fail.

“Seems like it's a success.”

Finally, the nervousness that Chu Feng was emitting faded away. In its place was an unconcealable joy.

“Roar~~~”

The very next moment, an ear-piercing roar was heard and the seawater started to rapidly boil.

It was the White Tiger. The White Tiger was the first to resurrect. After it resurrected, it flew toward Chu Feng. Pushing Chu Feng with its head, it rushed out from the seawater instantly.

“Haha, I've revived, I have finally been revived!”

After the White Tiger rushed out from the waters, it began to gallop in the air and roar nonstop. It was celebrating its rebirth.

“Half Martial Ancestor. That is an actual Half Martial Ancestor.”

As for Chu Feng, the smile on his face grew even wider. Standing on top of the White Tiger, he was able to clearly sense how powerful a Half Martial Ancestor was.

In fact, he was even able to sense the legendary Ancestor-level martial power appearing in thin air and following the White Tiger's galloping with an inconceivable speed. It was as if it was ready to be used by the White Tiger at any moment.

This sort of sensation was simply wondrous. After all... it was a power above that of Martial Emperors.

Even though Chu Feng's battle power would also reach that level after using his various abilities, it remained that it was only his battle power, and not his actual cultivation. There was still... a difference between them.

“Pulalala~~~”

Right at that moment, another wave of water soared into the sky and pierced through the clouds.

“Roar~~~”

Soon, another roar could be heard. That roar was actually even more ear-piercing than the White Tiger's roar.

When the waves of water faded away, Chu Feng was able to see that an enormous cyan dragon was flying toward him. It was the Azure Dragon.

Immediately following the Azure Dragon, the Vermilion Bird and the Black Tortoise also flew out of the water.

Merely, when compared to the White Tiger and the Azure Dragon, their emergence was a lot more low-key; they did not let out intimidating roars.

However, even though they had emerged from the waters in a low-key manner, their excitement and joy were still uncontainable. After all, to be able to successfully fuse with their physical bodies was something extremely significant for them.

Rebirth. To them, it was simply a rebirth, a rebirth after ten thousand years.

The Four Great Divine Beasts, led by the Azure Dragon, suddenly said to Chu Feng in an extremely grateful manner, “Chu Feng, thank you, thank you for giving us this opportunity to be reborn.”

“Heavens, the four of you are my seniors. Yet, you’re expressing your thanks to me, a junior. Wouldn’t this simply be akin to cursing my lifespan?” Chu Feng complained with a smile on his face.

“Haha. Boy, you don’t have to pretend. You’re feeling extremely pleased that we are expressing our thanks to you, right?” The White Tiger said with a beaming smile.

Although its body was enormous, and it possessed an extremely ferocious appearance, its current appearance was truly quite adorable. It was like a giant white cat.

“Speaking of it, I am feeling extremely pleased. Seniors, how about you thank me some more?” Chu Feng started to joke around.

“Haha, you wish. I have only ever thanked others once in my lifetime. There’s no twice to it,” The White Tiger laughed heartily. Even though the White Tiger was fond of laughter to begin with, Chu Feng had never seen it laughing this heartily. It could be seen that it was truly happy.

In fact, it was not only the White Tiger that was feeling very joyous. The Vermilion Bird and the Azure Dragon were also very happy. Furthermore, even the Black Tortoise, the individual who was always calm and unflustered, had an unconcealable smile on its face.

“Crap!” However, right at that moment when everyone was smiling and laughing happily, Chu Feng started to frown. His expression changed enormously. Then, he turned his alert gaze toward the sea.

If I’m not mistaken, he clasped his hands together, formed light, held two fingers out from one hand and then the light went out top of his fingers forming an enormous blade of light...

Chapter 2095 – Magma Emperor

Seeing Chu Feng's expression, the Four Great Divine Beasts also frowned. They asked, "Chu Feng, what's wrong?"

"It's alive," Chu Feng said.

"What?" The Four Great Divine Beasts were confused.

"Snap~~~"

"Rumble~~~"

Right at that moment, a lightning strike suddenly flashed through the skies. Soon, the entire sky was covered with black clouds as a violent wind began to blow. In an instant, the area tens of thousands of miles in the sea around them was completely covered by the black clouds and violent winds.

"What is this?" At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts all turned their gazes down below. They were shocked to discover that an extremely frightening aura was being emitted from the sea below them.

"Alive, the Magma Emperor is alive!" Chu Feng shouted.

"Rumble, rumble~~~"

Right after Chu Feng's words left his mouth, four waves of water soared into the sky.

Those waves of water were no ordinary water. Even peak Martial Emperors would not be able to withstand those waves of water. The reason for that was because the water contained Ancestral-level martial power.

The four waves of water were aimed at the Four Great Divine Beasts. In an instant, those waves arrived before them.

"Humph."

However, the Four Great Divine Beasts only snorted coldly at the sudden incoming attack. Without even lifting an arm, their bodies trembled slightly as they unleashed their own Ancestral-level martial power that directly shook away the four waves of water.

“Splash~~~”

Suddenly, the water below started to surge. Then, a huge monster flew out from the water. It was the Magma Emperor.

“It’s actually really alive. How could this be?”

Upon seeing the Magma Emperor alive and standing at the bottom of the sea down below, the Four Great Divine Beasts all revealed alarmed expressions.

Even though ten thousand years had passed, they would never forget how fierce the Magma Emperor was. Although the Magma Emperor had been sealed by the Four Great Divine Beasts, it was mainly only sealed because Qing Xuantian had suppressed it.

And now, Qing Xuantian was not here. Thus, the Four Great Divine Beasts were lacking confidence in being able to take care of the Magma Emperor by themselves.

“Grumble, grumble~~~”

After the Magma Emperor appeared, the heat which its body emitted caused even the surging seawater down below to boil.

Not only that, even the sky turned fiery in color, and space itself started to distort. The frightening heat that was being emitted sealed off the entire area for several tens of thousands of miles around them, and no one could enter that sealed area.

The reason for that was because the heat was simply too fierce. Those below Martial Emperor-level cultivation would simply evaporate upon coming into contact with the heat.

Inferno. This region of several tens of thousands of miles had turned into an inferno.

“That’s the Magma Emperor?”

At that moment, Chu feng's gaze turned serious as it was fixed onto the Magma Emperor.

This existence before him was the Magma Emperor, the demon that had nearly destroyed the entire Holy Land of Martialism ten thousand years ago.

Most importantly, this place was the Eastern Sea Region. The people closest to Chu Feng were in this place. Chu Feng could not allow this fellow to cause destruction here.

"Your grandmother's tits, you four little trash are actually still alive?" Suddenly, the Magma Emperor spoke. However, he spoke with profanity right away. Most importantly, that extremely ferocious and fiendish looking Magma Emperor actually had a childish voice. It was like a little child was swearing at others. Chu Feng was truly taken aback by it.

"Is that really the Magma Emperor?" Unable to help himself, Chu Feng turned his gaze to the Four Great Divine Beasts.

"Indeed, that is the Magma Emperor. It's the Magma Emperor that all the powers in the Holy Land of Martialism were afraid of back then, the Magma Emperor that was planning to enslave all living things," The White Tiger spoke solemnly.

"Chu Feng, you must not be deceived by its voice. Perhaps it might not be very old, but it has harmed countless living beings. This thing before you is fully deserving of the title of demon," The Azure Dragon warned.

"So that's the case," After hearing those words, Chu Feng's gaze grew more serious as he looked to the Magma Emperor again.

A single Dark Hall's Hall Master was already thorny enough. Yet now, a Magma Emperor had appeared too. The pressure Chu Feng felt had doubled. After all, the Magma Emperor was an existence that even Qing Xuantian had failed to eliminate.

Yet, after carefully inspecting the Magma Emperor, Chu Feng's cautious gaze started to change. It turned into one of pleasant surprise.

“Heh...” After that, Chu Feng actually started to laugh.

“Brat, what the fuck are you laughing at?!”

Instantly, the Magma Emperor became enraged. It had thought that Chu Feng would piss his pants in terror after surveying it. For that, it had deliberately unleashed its Half Martial Ancestor-level aura to intimidate Chu Feng.

After all, it had been sealed for ten thousand years. during that period of time, it had not managed to enjoy seeing humans in terror. As such, it wanted very much to feel that sensation again.

However, what was with this? After Chu Feng surveyed it, not only did he not reveal fear, he instead started to laugh. This greatly enraged the Magma Emperor.

At the same time, the Four Great Divine Beasts also turned their gazes to Chu Feng. They were also confused by how Chu Feng could laugh when faced with a great enemy like the Magma Emperor.

“Seniors, before this Magma Emperor was resurrected, I truly did not notice it.”

“However, now that it’s resurrected, I found out that its entire body is filled with treasures,” Chu Feng said.

“Brat, what the fuck are you talking about?”

“Do you fucking know who this Emperor is?!”

The Magma Emperor stared at Chu Feng angrily. It had truly never seen a brat that dared to speak with it so impudently.

Who was the Magma Emperor? It was an existence that everyone in the Holy Land of Martialism feared back then.

“Chu Feng, you must not be careless. That is the Magma Emperor,” The Azure Dragon warned.

“Seniors, I am not lying here. That Magma Emperor is truly a treasure. You all have just been resurrected. Thus, you should properly rest yourselves. There is no need for you all to trouble yourselves with taking care of it.”

“Chu Feng, what kind of nonsense are you talking about? That is the Magma Emperor, the actual Magma Emperor!” The White Tiger was astonished. To them, the Magma Emperor was extremely ferocious. After all, they were present in the bloodbath from back then.

Yet, Chu Feng actually looked down on the Magma Emperor, that enormously dangerous being, this much? It was truly unbelievable, and didn’t seem to be Chu Feng’s nature.

“Seniors, I am not joking around. Leave it to me. I have certainty in being able to take care of this Magma Emperor,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile. When he spoke those words, he did not seem to be joking around. The reason for that was because his eyes were filled with confidence.

“Chu Feng, since you are already determined, we will not interfere.”

“However, I must warn you. Although your battle power is capable of fighting on par with Half Martial Ancestors, you remain only a Martial Emperor. Most importantly, that Magma Emperor is no ordinary Half Martial Ancestor.”

“Back then, Qing Xuantian was someone unparalleled against those of the same level of cultivation as him. Yet, we were needed to help him suppress that Magma Emperor,” The Azure Dragon warned solemnly. It wanted Chu Feng to know how powerful the Magma Emperor was.

“Understood,” Chu Feng smiled and nodded. Then, he began to walk in the air towards the sea below.

How could Chu Feng not know about how ferocious the Magma Emperor was? If he didn't, he would not have panicked when the Magma Emperor was revived.

However now, Chu Feng dared to say those sort of words. Naturally, there was a reason why he was so confident.

Chapter 2096 – Chu Feng Vs. Magma Emperor

After seeing that Chu Feng was really walking toward the Magma Emperor to fight him alone, the Four Great Divine Beasts looked to one another and then began to move slowly toward the Magma Emperor and Chu Feng.

While they would not interfere with Chu Feng's battle, they would still act to save Chu Feng should he be in fatal danger; they would definitely not remain indifferent when Chu Feng was in fatal danger.

At that moment, Chu Feng was less than ten thousand meters away from the Magma Emperor. In fact, they were already very close in range with one another.

Chu Feng was able to clearly see the flames surging from the Magma Emperor's body. Those flames were demon-like as they made threatening gestures. That sort of sensation was something that one could only feel upon personally confronting the flames at close range.

Chu Feng was also able to sense the extremely frightening aura which the Magma Emperor emitted. Especially the heat it emitted; even though Chu Feng was a rank six Martial Emperor and possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation, he still found it difficult to endure.

Sure enough, the Magma Emperor was extremely powerful, more powerful than any opponent Chu Feng had ever faced before. However, after Chu Feng stopped his footsteps, he said in a very calm manner, "Are you prepared to die?"

"Wait. Brat, do you not know the situation you are in now? Do you know who this Emperor is? Do you know what this Emperor has done?" The Magma Emperor was unable to accept Chu Feng completely not placing it in his eyes. Thus, it spoke to question Chu Feng.

“I naturally know who you are. You’re the Magma Emperor that came from the Magma World ten thousand years ago. The Magma Emperor that wanted to enslave all living things,” Chu Feng replied.

“Brat, then this Emperor is even more confused. Since you know who this Emperor is, why would you dare to still continue to boast so shamelessly? Has your head been kicked by a donkey, or was it crushed by a door when you were younger?” The Magma Emperor asked in a confused manner.

“Heh... never would I have imagined that the grand Magma Emperor would actually possess a sense of humor,” After hearing what the Magma Emperor said, Chu Feng was unable to contain his laughter. Then, he said, “Magma Emperor, I know how powerful you are. However, regardless of how awe-inspiring you were back then, your era has already passed.”

“Today... I will end you and avenge the innocent lives you took ten thousand years ago.”

“Motherfucker! The hell is this?! Are all the human brats in this era capable of shooting off their mouths like you? A mere rank six Martial Emperor actually dares to boast of ending this great Emperor? Hahaha, you’re simply trying to kill me from laughter,” The Magma Emperor sneered. His laughter was filled with contempt toward Chu Feng.

“What? Are you saying that Half Martial Ancestors are so amazing that they can despise Martial Emperors?”

“Today, I insist on eliminating you, the so-called Magma Emperor, with my cultivation of a Martial Emperor.”

After Chu Feng said those words, his body shifted. Holding the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, he charged to attack the Magma Emperor.

“Zzzzz~”

Chu Feng’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings emerged together. Instantly, his cultivation increased from rank six Martial Emperor to rank eight Martial Emperor.

“An increase in two levels of cultivations in succession? Seems like you’ve got some tricks. However, you’re still only a Martial Emperor. How could you possibly contend against this Emperor?”

Although the Magma Emperor was surprised by Chu Feng’s increase in cultivation, it still did not place Chu Feng in its eyes. Its body trembled, and then fireballs shot toward Chu Feng like a rainstorm.

The flames of those fireballs were no ordinary flames. They looked like magma, and contained Ancestral-level martial power.

As they flew toward Chu Feng, they caused the wind to whistle like a myriad of demons shouting war cries before conducting their massacre.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~”

Chu Feng was already prepared. His feet moved nonstop as he slashed with his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader. Boundless martial power turned into a whirlwind, forming a defensive wall that forcibly stopped the storm of fireballs the Magma Emperor had unleashed at him.

“Mn, that brat is actually able to withstand my grand Half Martial Ancestor-level attack with merely a Martial Emperor-level cultivation?”

Seeing that Chu Feng had managed to effortlessly block his attack, the Magma Emperor’s gaze shone with surprise.

Even though the attack he had unleashed earlier had only been made casually, and had not possessed actual destructive power, he felt that, not to mention a mere rank eight Martial Emperor, even a thousand rank nine Martial Emperors would have been killed by his earlier attack.

“I got it. Your heaven-defying battle power surpasses that of ordinary Martial Emperors by two entire levels,” Suddenly, a serious expression and astonishment emerged in the Magma Emperor’s flickering gaze.

The reason why it was astonished was because Chu Feng possessed the capabilities to make it astonished. After all, it had seen all the strongest experts in the Holy Land of Martialism from ten thousand years ago. However, never had it seen someone with such a frightening battle power like Chu Feng.

In the moment when the Magma Emperor was astonished, Chu Feng had arrived before the Magma Emperor with his Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in hand.

“Earthen Taboo: Firmament Slash.”

After Chu Feng approached the Magma Emperor, he immediately unleashed the Earthen Taboo; Firmament Slash and sent forth nine consecutive slashes.

The nine crimson slashes whistled past in succession. They were like the sickles that death gods carried on the way to take the life of a demon. Their might was extremely fierce.

“Humph.”

However, facing Chu Feng’s ferocious attack, the Magma Emperor only snorted coldly. It waved its enormous arm and brought forth a burst of wind. That wind was so strong that it directly dispersed Chu Feng’s Earthen Taboo: Firmament Slash.

Ancestral martial power. Although the Magma Emperor’s movement earlier might seem to be simple, it was a violent burst of wind formed with Ancestral-level martial power. Thus, it was extremely mighty.

“Half Martial Ancestor is truly thorny.”

At that moment, Chu Feng started to frown slightly. Although he possessed a battle power capable of contending against ordinary Half Martial Ancestors, it remained that he could only use Emperor-level martial power. He was still unable to use Ancestral martial power.

That might be the so-called boundary between cultivations. Regardless of how powerful Chu Feng’s battle power might be, he remained a Martial Emperor. As Chu Feng was a Martial Emperor, Ancestral-level martial power would not acknowledge him.

Thus, even though Chu Feng was capable of contending against rank one Half Martial Ancestors, he suffered from an enormous handicap in the essential qualities of his martial power.

“Haha, brat, so what if you possess an extremely powerful battle power? A Martial Emperor will always remain a Martial Emperor. You wish to defeat me? That is simply a pipe dream,” After easily blocking Chu Feng’s attack, the Magma Emperor was extremely proud of itself and started to openly mock Chu Feng.

Actually, after the Magma Emperor experienced Chu Feng’s battle power, it was a bit worried. After all, it had never seen someone like Chu Feng, someone who possessed such a frightening battle power, before.

However, after it blocked Chu Feng’s attack with its true power, it managed to regain its confidence. It felt that its worries were unnecessary, because Chu Feng was only a clown that was seeking his own humiliation when standing before him.

“Pipe dream? Are you certain of that?”

Chu Feng’s gaze narrowed. The confidence in his eyes did not decrease. Instead, he revealed an unfathomable smile.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, he once again brandished the Furious Coiling Dragon

Beheader that he held in his hand. His body shifted, and he turned into a ray of light that shot directly toward the Magma Emperor.

“You actually dare to still attack this Emperor after experiencing this Emperor’s strength? You are truly courting death here,” Seeing that Chu Feng was charging toward it, the Magma Emperor revealed a complicated gaze. There was not only anger and killing intent in its gaze. In addition to those was a special sort of sensation.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s actions most definitely trampled upon its dignity. As for that, it was something that the Magma Emperor could not tolerate.

Thus... it had already made a firm resolution to eliminate Chu Feng. Merely... it would not allow people that dared to trample upon its dignity to meet a simple death.

Chapter 2097 – Eternal Nightmare

Chu Feng rapidly approached the Magma Emperor. In the blink of an eye, he was already less than three thousand meters away from the Magma Emperor.

Logically, in a normal situation, Chu Feng would be able to kill his opponent using merely his oppressive might when at such a close distance.

After all, people of Chu Feng's level of cultivation were capable of unleashing their martial power with a single thought. They could call upon the wind and summon the rain, turning a range of ten thousand miles to utter destruction in an instant.

Unfortunately, Chu Feng's opponent was not an ordinary. Instead, it was the Magma Emperor, who was practically undefeated ten thousand years ago. It was a nightmare in the hearts of countless people ten thousand years ago. Even to this day, it was still the most frightening existence in the eyes of countless individuals from the Holy Land of Martialism.

Thus, Chu Feng's oppressive might was simply unable to injure the Magma Emperor in the slightest. Even if he were to instantly destroy everything within ten thousand miles, he would still not be able to cause the slightest bit of harm to the Magma Emperor.

Faced with an opponent like that, the only thing Chu Feng could do would be to fight it at close range using martial skills.

“Bang, bang, bang~~~”

When Chu Feng was less than two thousand meters away from the Magma Emperor, the Magma Emperor was shooting out balls of magma nonstop. Not only were those balls of magma extremely large, they were also very powerful. They were simply not comparable to the fireballs it had shot out earlier.

In that sort of situation, even though Chu Feng was holding the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, he was simply unable to approach the Magma Emperor.

In fact, Chu Feng had to use Taboo Martial Skills in order to ward off the Magma Emperor's attacks.

Although Chu Feng was indeed capable of withstanding the Magma Emperor's attacks after utilizing his various techniques, he was withstanding them with great difficulty.

From a single glance, the superior party and inferior party of the battle could be seen.

"This won't do. That Magma Emperor is too powerful. It's impossible for Chu Feng to be its match. We cannot continue to watch without doing anything," The White Tiger was unable to continue watching the battle. It was very worried that Chu Feng would be injured.

Chu Feng had utilized his Imperial Armament from the very beginning. However, the White Tiger knew that the Magma Emperor had an Imperial Armament in its body too. That Imperial Armament was extremely powerful.

The Magma Emperor had yet to use its Imperial Armament. However, he was already able to suppress Chu Feng. If the Magma Emperor were to use its Imperial Armament, one could very well imagine the consequences.

In fact, the way the White Tiger saw it, it was clear what the outcome of the battle would be. No matter how powerful Chu Feng was, he would still be no match for the Magma Emperor.

However, the Azure Dragon spoke to stop the White Tiger. "Wait a bit longer."

"If Chu Feng is really no match for the Magma Emperor, he would request our assistance." It was not that the Azure Dragon wasn't worried about Chu Feng. Rather, it wanted to respect Chu Feng's decision.

In its impression, Chu Feng was not a reckless individual. Since Chu Feng had decided to take on the Magma Emperor alone, it meant Chu Feng must have his own plan. The Azure Dragon also wished to see exactly what Chu Feng had in mind.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, the Magma Emperor suddenly extended its enormous hand and grabbed Chu Feng.

As the Magma Emperor possessed an enormous body, his hand was like a small mountain crushing down on Chu Feng. Immediately, Chu Feng vomited a mouthful of blood.

“Crap!” Seeing that scene, the Four Great Divine Beasts were all unable to contain themselves. They moved their enormous bodies and arrived before the Magma Emperor. They planned to attack the Magma Emperor to stop it.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng shouted at them, “Seniors, please stay your hands!!!”

“.....” Hearing those words, the Four Great Divine Beasts were all startled. They looked to Chu Feng with confused expressions.

As for Chu Feng, even though his mouth was full of blood, he was smiling calmly. He turned around and said, “I can take care of him.”

“Brat, what did you say? If this Emperor is to just exert a slight bit of strength, I will be able to crush you. Yet, you dare to continue to boast like that?”

“Oh, I got it. You’re afraid that I will torment you. Thus, you want me to let you die quickly. That is why you’re deliberately provoking me.”

“Not bad, not bad. Brat, I must admit that you’re quite smart. Unfortunately, this Emperor is even smarter than you. Trying to plot a scheme against this Emperor? You’re destined to be suppressed by my intelligence,” The Magma Emperor mocked.

“Puu...” At that moment, Chu Feng was unable to contain himself, and spewed out a mouthful of, not blood, but loud laughter.

“I must admit that you’re a very amusing fellow. However, I will still eliminate you, since you’ve done too many evils and are not a good individual,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Your fucking grandmother! Brat, you truly have no shame, do you?” Seeing that Chu Feng dared to continue to insult it, the Magma Emperor was truly enraged. In anger, it said, “If I don’t teach you a lesson, you truly would not know the situation you’re in.”

Seeing that the Magma Emperor was furious, Chu Feng’s gaze grew sharp. With a cold tone, he said, “Magma Emperor, the person who doesn’t know what sort of situation they’re in is you.”

“Remember this moment. From this moment on, I, Chu Feng, will become your eternal nightmare.”

“What did you say?” The Magma Emperor asked furiously. It wasn’t that it was confused by what Chu Feng meant, but rather that it did not believe its ears.

In fact, it was not only the Magma Emperor. The Four Great Divine Beasts were also stupefied by Chu Feng’s words. While they had seen people that were unafraid of death, they had never seen someone court death like this.

“Ahhh!!!”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly opened his mouth and then bit down on the Magma Emperor’s indestructible finger covered in rising flames.

“Snap~~~”

Following Chu Feng’s bite, a shattering sound was heard. Chu Feng had actually managed to damage the Magma Emperor’s body with his teeth.

“Noo!!!”

After the Magma Emperor’s finger was bitten, its expression changed enormously. Furthermore, it let out an extremely ear-piercing snarl.

Its voice was so ear-piercing that it brought forth large waves of seawater on the surface of the sea down below and shattered the space itself.

That sudden, unforeseen event shocked the Four great Divine Beasts even more. They were utterly puzzled by what was happening.

It was only when the Magma Emperor raised its other hand and extended it toward Chu Feng that the Four Great Divine Beasts were stunned. A never-before-seen fear appeared in their eyes.

At that moment, the other hand that the Magma Emperor extended toward Chu Feng was extremely slow-moving. It looked as if it were stuck.

In fact, at that moment, the several thousand meter-tall enormous body of the Magma Emperor was trembling nonstop. Furthermore, the trembling was growing more and more obvious.

When the shattered space returned to normal, the fiery red sky returned to normal. The Magma Emperor’s powerful oppressive might was fading away.

“Brat! What did you do to me?!”

“Stop! Stop immediately! Stop for this Emperor right now!!!”

The Magma Emperor continued to snarl. Even though its voice was still so loud and resounding, it had lost its intimidating might from before.

Most importantly, the extremely confident and demon-like Magma Emperor’s bright, sun-like eyes were flickering nonstop. Panic and fear completely filled its eyes.

“Heavens! What is going on here?!”

At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts slowly recovered from their stunned states. They looked to one another as the shock in their eyes further increased.

The reason for that was because they were surprised to discover that not only had the Magma Emperor’s powerful oppressive might faded away, even its body covered with blazing flames was changing.

The fiery flames that had been like demon claws were disappearing. They were returning to its body. Soon, that magma-like fiery body started to grow dim.

Soon after that, the enormous body of the Magma Emperor no longer possessed the frightening magma or flames. Furthermore, there was no trace of life left in it. It stood there like an enormous rock humanoid.

Chapter 2098 – Rank Seven Martial Emperor

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, the Magma Emperor’s body lost its ability to continue to support itself, and crashed into the seawater.

“Splash~~~”

Enormous waves of water soared into the air. However, the Magma Emperor’s body did not actually sink into the seafloor. It was not because the Magma Emperor had done something. Rather, a layer of majestic and powerful golden spirit power was in the water supporting the body of the Magma Emperor.

It was Chu Feng. That was a spirit formation Chu Feng had set up. He had supported the Magma Emperor with his world spirit techniques.

Not only that, Chu Feng had released his mouth that was biting the Magma Emperor. Furthermore, he had escaped from the Magma Emperor’s grasp.

Chu Feng stood in midair, and his hands were changing nonstop. He was rapidly forming complicated hand seals. His speed was so fast that only blurs of his hands could be seen.

Suddenly, Chu Feng stopped his movement. He pointed to the Magma Emperor below and shouted, “Seal!”

“Rumble~~~”

In an instant, countless golden bodies of light filled with spirit power flew out from Chu Feng’s fingers. They were like chains that grew larger and larger. Each one of them became over a dozen meters thick. Then, they tightly covered the Magma Emperor’s body.

“Snap~~~”

“Snap~~~”

After being shackled by the world spirit chains, cracks started to appear on the Magma Emperor’s indestructible body. It was like enormous stone starting to shatter.

“Bastard! What did you do to my body?! Exactly what did you do to me?!”

The Magma Emperor continued to snarl at Chu Feng. However, compared to before, its voice no longer possessed any intimidation, and had become many times weaker.

Even its fiendish gaze grew many times dimmer.

“Chu Feng, w-what is going on here?” At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts looked to Chu Feng with confused expressions.

They were truly curious as to how Chu Feng managed to force the Magma Emperor, an extremely ferocious existence in their memories, into such an state.

“Seniors, check out my current cultivation and you’ll know the answer,” Chu Feng said to the Four Great Divine Beasts.

“This... how could this be?!” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the Four Great Divine Beasts all revealed extremely wonderful expressions.

At that moment, while utilizing his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, Chu Feng’s cultivation was no longer that of a rank eight Martial Emperor.

Instead, he was a rank nine Martial Emperor!!!

In other words, after Chu Feng canceled his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, the methods that increases his cultivation, his actual cultivation would remain that of a rank seven Martial Emperor.

However, Chu Feng was clearly only a rank six Martial Emperor earlier. This meant that Chu Feng had reached a breakthrough.

The Four Great Divine Beasts were both astonished and excited. Unable to contain themselves, they asked, “Chu Feng, could it be... you’ve used that Magma Emperor’s body to reach a breakthrough?”

“Precisely. The Magma Emperor contained a very dense concentration of Natural Energies. To me, those Natural Energies were akin to cultivation treasures. As long as I am able to come in contact with the Magma Emperor’s body, I would be able to absorb those Natural Energies.”

“Furthermore, the Magma Emperor’s body is extremely special. Its body is completely different from ours. As long as I absorb and refine those Natural Energies, the Magma Emperor will lose control over its body. In fact, even its soul will be affected by it.”

“That is why I said to seniors that I will be able to handle the Magma Emperor by myself,” Chu Feng said with a smile on his face.

“So it was true!” After Chu Feng verified their guesses, the Four Great Divine Beasts revealed extremely excited expressions.

Thinking about it, how ferocious was the Magma Emperor? Back then, even when working together with Qing Xuantian, they were only able to seal the Magma Emperor and attempt to kill it by sealing it away for an extended period of time.

For that reason, the four of them had sacrificed their own physical bodies. If it wasn’t because of Qing Xuantian’s techniques, their souls would have been lost too. Without those techniques, they would not have been able to continue standing here.

Yet now, Chu Feng had actually managed to subdue the Magma Emperor by himself. Furthermore, when he subdued the Magma Emperor, Chu Feng’s cultivation was only that of a rank six Martial Emperor. This made it even more unimaginable.

“Could it be that this is what is meant by there being a weakness to everything?” Overwhelmed with excitement, the Azure Dragon burst into laughter. At that moment, there was a greater sense of admiration in the Azure Dragon’s gaze as it looked to Chu Feng. It truly understood what Chu Feng had schemed.

Chu Feng’s scheme was something that even the Azure Dragon felt astonished by.

“Bullshit! You’re spouting bullshit!!” Suddenly, the Magma Emperor snarled furiously. It evidently could not accept Chu Feng’s statement.

“Magma Emperor, you are indeed very powerful. However, regardless of how powerful you are, you remain only a Son of Magma. To me, Sons of Magma are only cultivation treasures. Thus... you are destined to be restrained by me.”

“However, rest assured, I have said before that I will give you an eternal nightmare. Thus, I will not kill you,” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out the Imperial Armament sword from his Cosmos Sack.

“Chu Feng, could it be that you want to....” Seeing that Imperial Armament sword, the Four Great Divine Beasts revealed even more wonderful expressions in their gazes. They had already realized what Chu Feng planned to do.

“Brat, what are you planning to do to this Emperor?” At that moment, the Magma Emperor had started to panic completely. Even though it was still pretending to be calm, its flickering gaze had betrayed it.

The Magma Emperor had always been extremely confident. However, when facing the current Chu Feng, it was filled with fear.

As matters stood, it was stunned to discover that the brat before it was simply someone that could not be judged with common sense. He was a brat that possessed powers that surpassed one’s imagination.

With merely a single bite, he had completely sucked all of the power in its body dry.

Then, with a mere spirit formation, he had bound its body. Even its soul was restricted.

And now, even though it was deemed to be an absolute genius in the Magma World, the Magma Emperor was nothing more than a sheep waiting to be slaughtered when before Chu Feng. As such, how could it not panic?

“I am going to make you the soul of this sword,” Chu Feng said as he raised that Imperial Armament.

At the moment the Magma Emperor had been revived, Chu Feng had truly felt fear. After all, the Magma Emperor’s ferociousness was akin to a legend.

However, after he carefully inspected the Magma Emperor, Chu Feng became secretly delighted. It was as he had said from the very beginning; the Magma Emperor’s entire body was filled with treasures.

Firstly, the Magma Emperor’s physical body was a cultivation treasure that Chu Feng could absorb and refine.

Chapter 2099 – Incomplete Ancestral Armament

“I am also not frightening you.”

After Chu Feng said those words, he suddenly tossed the Imperial Armament sword he held downward. “Snap,” the sword pierced into the Magma Emperor’s forehead.

Then, Chu Feng clasped his palms together and shouted with a low voice, “Assimilate.”

“Buzz~~~”

In an instant, the spirit formation that bound the Magma Emperor shone much brighter, illuminating the surrounding area like a bright sun.

“Ahhh~~~”

Instantly, the Magma Emperor let out a painful scream of grief.

Miserable. Its current state was truly miserable. Chu Feng’s spirit formation was not a simple weaponry refinement formation. Rather, it was refining the Magma Emperor’s soul.

If Chu Feng wanted to successfully assimilate the Magma Emperor’s soul into the Imperial Armament sword, he would have to refine it, forge and transform it.

Else, if the Magma Emperor’s soul were to be allowed to assimilate into the Imperial Armament sword as a complete entity, it would definitely not obey Chu Feng, and might even use the strength of the weapon to attack Chu Feng. At that time, the gains would not make up for the losses.

However, this sort of refinement, forging and transformation process was extremely cruel. After all, the Magma Emperor’s soul was an actual living soul, and not something that Chu Feng had created.

If it were any other person, Chu Feng would definitely not have the heart to do such a thing. However, as it was the Magma Emperor, Chu Feng was capable of being ruthless.

On their way here, Chu Feng had inquired of the Four Great Divine Beasts about what had happened ten thousand years ago, and came to know about the various crimes that the Magma Emperor had committed.

Although that Magma Emperor possessed an amusing temperament and a childlike voice, it was most definitely vicious and merciless. In fact, it was simply ruthless and heartless.

The lives lost at its hands were too many to count. It would not even spare newborns. As long as it wished to kill them, it would kill anything before it. Wherever it went, it would either force the people to submit to it or leave behind a bloodbath.

Even though ten thousand years had passed, the crimes the Magma Emperor had committed were still unpardonable. Chu Feng did not plan to kill it. Instead, he planned to forge its soul as its punishment.

“Buzz, buzz, buzz~~~”

Soon, that Imperial Armament sword started to tremble. As it trembled, its boundless powers started to wreak havoc through its surroundings. Once again, that entire region was filled with frightening darkness.

This time around, it was not caused by the might of a martial expert. Rather, it was caused by a weapon.

That sort of situation persisted for ten entire days and nights. After ten days and nights passed, the sword stopped trembling, and the Magma Emperor stopped letting out anguished wails.

However, the aura emitted by the sword was now much more frightening than the aura it had emitted ten days ago. The power that was wreaking havoc through the surroundings was no longer

Emperor-level martial power. Instead, it had become Ancestral-level martial power.

It was not only its aura that had changed. The appearance of the sword itself had also changed.

The entire sword had become blazing red in color. Magma-like veins were flowing through it and the sword was also emitting roasting hot flames. It was truly extremely domineering.

“Snap... snap... snap...”

“Rumble, rumble, rumble~~~”

Suddenly, the Magma Emperor’s body shattered and fell into the sea. Slowly, the shattered pieces began to sink.

Its shattered body pieces were like stones now. There was nothing special about it anymore now that the Magma Emperor had died. At least, its physical body had been completely destroyed.

However, the sword was still floating in midair above the surface of the water. The fiery aura emitted by the sword caused the surface of the water to boil and the once ice-cold seawater had already become boiling hot water.

“Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Chu Feng... you’ve succeeded. You’ve actually succeeded.”

“That is most definitely an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. That aura, it most definitely surpasses that of Imperial Armaments.”

The Four Great Divine Beasts spoke in succession. At that moment, they were bustling with life and filled with endless excitement.

After all, even for them, this was the first time that they were seeing an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Furthermore... that was something that Chu Feng had personally refined.

Chu Feng had once again accomplished what even Qing Xuantian was unable to accomplish.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng shouted, “Seniors, step back!”

After Chu Feng’s shout was heard, an invisible burst of power suddenly pushed the Four Great Divine Beasts aside.

While that power was very strong, it was also very gentle. That power managed to push the Four Great Divine Beasts a distance of hundreds of thousands of meters away.

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng had used his power to push the Four Great Divine Beasts away.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, that Incomplete Ancestral Armament suddenly waved itself.

With that slash, a beam of flame was shot forth from the Incomplete Ancestral Armament. It was aimed at Chu Feng.

“Woosh~~~”

However, Chu Feng had already dodged to the side. Even though the attack from that Incomplete Ancestral Armament was extremely fast, it was unable to land on Chu Feng. Chu Feng had dodged it easily.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

However, that Incomplete Ancestral Armament did not just stop right there. Instead, it slashed toward Chu Feng repeatedly. At that moment, soaring flames filled with a powerful might covered the entire sky. Those beams of flames were also leaving enormous whirlpools in the seawater down below.

“Chu Feng, you think yourself clever, eh? Did you think that after refining this Emperor’s body and putting this Emperor’s soul into this weapon, you would be able to make this Emperor submit to you? You are truly overestimating yourself.”

“Even now, this Emperor is capable of killing you,” Suddenly, the Magma Emperor’s voice sounded from the Incomplete Imperial Armament.

“Crap! Chu Feng’s refinement failed. The Magma Emperor’s soul is still there. Furthermore, it is controlling that Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts’ different colored faces all turned somewhat pale. At that moment, they all started to panic. The reason for that was because that outcome was something that none of them had expected.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng stopped dodging the incoming flames. He stood in midair motionlessly, and allowed an enormous beam of flame to sweep through the air and toward his body.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing? Quickly, dodge it!!!”

Chu Feng’s action caused the Four Great Divine Beasts’ complexions to turn green and they began to shout at Chu Feng hysterically.

The reason for that was because they were able to clearly sense the might contained in that beam of flame. It was a power that surpassed rank one Half Martial Ancestors. Even they would not be able to withstand it.

However, just when the Four Great Divine Beasts were panicking, Chu Feng extended his right hand and grabbed that beam of flame.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, a loud explosion sounded, and flames began to flutter about in all directions, swallowing the entire surrounding region.

However, at that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts were dumbstruck.

Through the screen of flames, they were able to see that Chu Feng had managed to block that beam of flame with his hand.

Even though violent flames covered him and were attacking him nonstop, the flames were unable to even burn Chu Feng's clothes.

"I nearly forgot that Chu Feng's actual cultivation is that of a rank seven Martial Emperor now. Using his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, his cultivation is that of a rank nine Martial Emperor. Even though he is still only able to exercise control over Emperor-level martial power and not Ancestral-level martial power, his battle power is already capable of contending against rank two Martial Ancestors."

At that moment, hope finally emerged on the faces of the Four Great Divine Beasts.

Even though the Incomplete Ancestral Armament controlled by the Magma Emperor's soul was very powerful, Chu Feng was not weak either.

"Roar~~~"

Suddenly, an ear-piercing roar resounded through the region. Then, surging flames emitted from the sword nonstop.

Soon, the surging flames took a humanoid appearance. It was over a thousand meters tall. It had the appearance of the Magma Emperor.

"Brat, you want me to serve you? You are simply dreaming. Today, this Emperor shall use the body of your weapon to dismember you into ten thousand pieces and leave you with a miserable death."

After taking on humanoid form, the Magma Emperor charged toward Chu Feng. Its killing intent was overflowing as it covered the entire region with flames.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s body shifted. With lightning speed, he charged directly toward the Magma Emperor.

The Magma Emperor extended its hand to grab Chu Feng. However, Chu Feng’s speed was truly too fast. Thus, it did not manage to grab Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng managed to approach the Magma Emperor. He raised his fist and shot an explosive punch at the Magma Emperor’s chest.

“Boom~~~”

As the punch landed, blazing flames were knocked flying and the Magma Emperor’s enormous body began to sink into the seawater.

“Since you are unwilling to obediently submit to me, I’ll have to beat you into submission.”

Chu Feng’s eyes were flickering with lightning as he fixed them on the seawater. After he said those words, his body shifted again. With a lightning fast speed, he charged into the deep sea.

How could a white tiger turn pale if it’s already white? Xima: Tigers have stripes that are black. Those black stripes turned white.

Chapter 2100 – The Truth Of What Happened Back Then

“Splash~~~”

After Chu Feng and the Magma Emperor fell into the sea, the sea started rolling with massive waves, and steam rose up from the sea.

The water in the sea was boiling and drying up. The speed with which the seawater was drying up was extremely fast. In merely a short moment, the bottomless sea water in that region had completely disappeared.

The water had been evaporated. It was completely evaporated by the frightening heat that the Magma Emperor was emitting.

At that moment, Chu Feng and the Magma Emperor once again reemerged.

However, regardless of how powerful the Magma Emperor was, it could only lie on the dried up seabed and allow itself to be punched by Chu Feng unceasingly.

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

One punch, two punches, ten punches, a hundred punches...

The speed of Chu Feng’s fist was not fast at all. One could see the entire movement of every one of his fist strikes. However, the Magma Emperor was unable to dodge them.

Furthermore, Chu Feng’s fists were extremely powerful. With each punch, the energy ripple from Chu Feng’s punch would cause the distant seawater to be pushed aside. With that, not a single drop of water from the surrounding sea was able to enter that area.

Furthermore, the area in which there was no water grew larger and larger.

Even though they were clearly deep in the sea, it now looked like they were in a vast ravine in the middle of the sea. If ordinary people were to see this scene, they would definitely find it extremely difficult to accept, and feel that they were dreaming.

However, to the Four Great Divine Beasts, this was very normal. At Chu Feng's level of cultivation, he could erase all living things inferior to him in a ten thousand miles perimeter with a single thought.

Furthermore, all of Chu Feng's fist strikes contained boundless power. To be able to push back the vast seawater was merely a small token to his might.

However, that was not the main focus of the Four Great Divine Beasts. They were mainly focused on the Magma Emperor.

As Chu Feng's ordinary and simple punches landed on the magma Emperor's body, the Magma Emperor's body began to dissipate. Its powerful aura also grew weaker and weaker.

At the same time, Chu Feng's fists were interweaved with his world spirit power that continuously assailed the Magma Emperor's body.

The reason for that was because the Magma Emperor's body was no longer an ordinary body. Instead, it was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. If Chu Feng wanted to subdue it, his world spirit power would be of great assistance.

“Bastard! You despicable human! You're actually trying to forcibly control this Emperor! Don't you think you can succeed!!!” Seeing that it was on the verge of collapse, the Magma Emperor let out a roar of irreconciliation.

“Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird, Black Tortoise, are the four of you planning to serve this brat too?!”

“This brat is vicious and merciless, despicable and shameless. If the four of you serve him, you are utterly foolish.”

“I will give you all a chance to break free from your foolishness. Join me and help me kill him! We will become the rulers of the Holy Land of Martialism together! We shall take care of those despicable bastards!” Surprisingly, the Magma Emperor, sensing that it was about to be subdued, actually began to plead for help from the Four Great Divine Beasts.

“Magma Emperor, has your head gone bad after being sealed away for ten thousand years?”

“You’re actually trying to request our help? How shameless could you be?”

The Four Great Divine Beasts mocked. They were enemies with the Magma Emperor, and had tried to kill each other in the past. Furthermore, for the sake of sealing away the Magma Emperor, they had nearly sacrificed themselves.

How could they possibly be willing to help the Magma Emperor to take care of Chu Feng now? To them, that request from the Magma Emperor was simply a ridiculous joke.

“The ones with their heads gone bad are you all! You four foolish things! You’ve already been abandoned by Qing Xuantian, yet you’re still attaching yourselves to the despicable humans! Are you all beings that will die the moment you leave humans?!” The magma Emperor snarled.

“What did you say?! Say it again?!” Hearing those words, the Four Great Divine Beasts’ expressions immediately changed. Unprecedented anger emerged in their eyes.

“Magma Emperor, what sort of nonsense are you spouting?” At that moment, Chu Feng stopped his attacks.

Even though he was declaring that the Magma Emperor was babbling nonsense, he had a feeling that the Magma Emperor should know about something. Else, there was no reason for it to say something like that.

“Heh, brat, seems like you’re interested, eh? If I tell you the filthy things that Qing Xuantian has done and expose his true identity, you’ll release me, what do you think about that?” Said the Magma Emperor.

“You do not have the power to haggle with me,” Chu Feng raised his fist and said coldly.

“Yoh, you’re playing this trick with this Emperor? Did you think that this Emperor would be scared of you?” The Magma Emperor laughed mockingly. It seemed that it was truly not afraid.

“Haha, forget about it. This Emperor is someone that takes pleasure in being benevolent, and is unwilling to see those four dunces being fooled for their entire lives. I might as well tell you all about the truth of what happened back then.”

“However, brat by the name of Chu Feng, listen carefully. This Emperor is going to say these things voluntarily. It is not because I am afraid of your threats,” The Magma Emperor declared.

Then, it said, “Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird, Black Tortoise, the four of you listen carefully. Back then, Qing Xuantian used various methods to separate you all from his body and turned you all into independent life-forms, but not for your sakes. Instead, it was for his own sake.”

“The reason for that is because he discovered a body constitution even more powerful than the Four Symbols Divine Body. If he wanted to gain complete control over that constitution, he had to remove you all from his body.”

“Thus, when the four of you were rejoicing in the fact that you possessed your own bodies and were able to live in this world with freedom, Qing Xuantian was even more overjoyed than you all. He was rejoicing at the fact that he had finally managed to cast the four of you burdens off of him, so that he could obtain an even more powerful Divine Body,” said the Magma Emperor.

“Nonsense! You’re simply spouting bullshit!” The White Tiger snarled.

“Magma Emperor, that lie if yours is too far-fetched, no?” The Azure Dragon said angrily.

“Lie? Haha, are you all still deceiving yourselves? Divine Bodies are granted by the heavens. One’s Divine Body and one’s master know each other extremely well. Only by having confidence in one another will one’s Divine Body be able to increase in strength with oneself.”

“As for you all, since you’ve left Qing Xuantian, exactly what could you accomplish now? Exactly what achievement could Qing Xuantian accomplish after losing you all?”

“Think about it yourselves. To separate you all from his body is something that would only have detriments, and absolutely no benefits to Qing Xuantian. Yet, why did he do that?”

“Was it so that he could give you all lives and freedom? So that you could fight alongside him? That is what you call bullshit. That is what you call lies. He was merely fooling you four idiots.”

“What Qing Xuantian sought was the path of martial cultivation. He wanted to become more powerful. Although the four of you are very powerful, you all are too weak when compared to the Divine Body that he desired,” The Magma Emperor said.

“A bunch of nonsense. We followed Qing Xuantian the entire time. We knew all that he had experienced. There was simply no special constitution or Divine Body that tempted him,” The White Tiger said.

“The four of you have followed him the entire time. However, you are not him. Is there a need for Qing Xuantian to tell you all that he had discovered? Was there a need for him to tell you all and consult with you all when he discovered a new constitution and gained the thought to discard you four?”

“If he were to truly tell the four of you, would you all have been willing to separate from his body? Would the four of you, the Four Symbols Divine Body, be willing to be replaced by another Divine Power?” The Magma Emperor asked.

“No, I don’t believe you, you’re lying,” The White Tiger snarled even louder as it began to lose control over its state of mind.

The Vermilion Bird, Azure Dragon and Black Tortoise’s expressions were also ugly. They were all affected by the Magma Emperor’s words.

Chapter 2101 – Magma Emperor Sword

“Even if you all refuse to believe me, it remains the truth. Qing Xuantian is a through and through despicable and vile individual. He is a hypocrite that has done all sorts of evil behind people’s backs.”

“Our world and this world is separated by a boundary energy. Under normal circumstances, it would simply have been impossible for me to come to this world. Do you all know how I managed to get here? It was precisely Qing Xuantian that helped me get here.”

“You all must be wondering why Qing Xuantian would help me come to this world, right? Actually, the reason is very simple. It’s because the Divine Body that he wanted was sealed in our world. And I, I was able to help him obtain it.”

“I handed over the sealed Divine Body to Qing Xuantian, and he helped me get into the Holy Land of Martialism so that I could become its ruler. That was the condition of the exchange between Qing Xuantian and I.”

“However, never would I have imagined that Qing Xuantian was such a despicable man. He actually decided to go back on our agreement, and started to attack me after obtaining the special constitution from me. He is truly despicable to the extreme.”

“Yet, you all still deem him to be a hero. Pah! He is nothing more than a hypocrite!!!” The Magma Emperor shouted furiously.

At that moment, Chu Feng noticed that the Four Great Divine Beasts had all grown silent upon hearing what the Magma Emperor said.

Their beast faces were growing more and more ugly. Complicated and distressed expressions filled their gazes. In fact, even their enormous bodies were trembling. They had truly believed what the Magma Emperor said.

“A bunch of nonsense. Senior Qing Xuantian is not someone that you can slander.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng smashed his fist into the Magma Emperor. Then, continuous fists began to land onto the Magma Emperor's body.

“Damned brat, you're planning to eliminate this Emperor after hearing what you wanted to hear, is that it?”

“Sure enough, you are the same as that Qing Xuantian. You humans are the most despicable creatures.”

“To make you all slaves is an act of charity to you all. You should all be killed. All you humans should be erased from this world.”

“Hey! Four Symbols Divine Body, why are you all still standing there? Quickly, come and help me; help me eliminate this brat. Could it be that you all are still not tired of being taken advantage of by Qing Xuantian, and want this brat to take advantage of you too?” The Magma Emperor snarled repeatedly.

However, the Four Great Divine Beasts refused to answer it. They were completely silent. It was as if they had experienced an enormous shock.

“Fools. You all are truly foolish. Go and die. With how foolish you all are, only death awaits you.”

“You all will not be able to live for much longer. You were originally a Divine Body, and not actual lives. You all are merely a part of Qing Xuantian that he abandoned. How could you possibly be able to live for long?”

“You all think that you've become Divine Beasts? A bunch of bullshit! You all are inferior to monstrous beasts, ferocious beasts and even the lowliest animals.”

“You all will not be able to live for much longer. If you refuse to work with me, I will not tell you all the method to extend your lifespans. Soon, you all will die,” Seeing that the Four Great Divine Beasts were ignoring it, the Magma Emperor started to insult them.

“Shut your mouth,” Chu Feng’s fists grew more and more heavy. His punches bombarded the Magma Emperor’s body of flame into disintegration.

Finally, the Magma Emperor’s enormous body was finally completely destroyed. The dispersed flames returned to that Incomplete Ancestral Armament sword.

Chu Feng grabbed at that Incomplete Ancestral Armament sword.

“Boom~~~”

Upon holding the sword, the sky started to change color, and an explosion sounded.

“Rumble~~~”

Following that, a pillar of flame shot toward the sky from the sword Chu Feng held. It pierced through the clouds and straight into the endless skies.

Soon, the clouds were evaporated. Even the vast and boundless sky was burned blazing red.

“This is...” At that moment, the Four Great Divine Beasts that were feeling very depressed were also attracted by that scene. They opened their mouths and said, “Forced submission.”

That’s right. Chu Feng was forcibly making that Incomplete Ancestral Armament submit to him. When a weapon was unwilling to submit, a cultivator could, if he or she possessed sufficient strength, use their power to force the weapon to surrender to them.

It was an invisible battle, a battle that bystanders could not see.

However, Chu Feng was actually using his powers to teach the Magma Emperor within the Incomplete Ancestral Armament. He was forcing it into submission.

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, loud explosions sounded from the skies nonstop. Turning toward the sky, the Four Great Divine Beasts discovered that the flames that were shot into the sky were flowing back down with extremely rapid speed.

Finally, the flames gathered in one place and turned into a pillar of flame again. The pillar of flame struck down from the heavenly dome and poured into the Incomplete Ancestral Armament Chu Feng held in his hand.

Afterwards, the sky suddenly became tranquil. Even the Four Great Divine Beasts held their breaths.

The reason for that was because that extremely ferocious Incomplete Ancestral Armament, although still emitting the Magma Emperor’s fiery flames, did not possess any trace of hostility toward Chu Feng.

“Splash~~~”

After a while, loud rumbling sounds began to be heard in that tranquil region. The rumbling noise grew louder and louder.

It was the sound of water!!!

It was the waves. Whilst the seawater in the area had been evaporated, the seawater in the surrounding region had not. At that moment, they were crashing toward that empty region with a might seemingly capable of toppling mountains and overturning seas.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng brandished the Incomplete Ancestral Armament he held in his hand. His body subsequently began to rotate.

“Rumble~~~”

In the blink of an eye, a blade ray covered in flames was shot into the surroundings like a magnificent army of thousands of men and horses.

That blade ray was so powerful that it evaporated the massive incoming waves and beat back the following waves.

“Chu Feng, it’s a success? You’ve actually managed to subdue that Incomplete Ancestral Armament?” The Four Great Divine Beasts landed beside Chu Feng. They were still all looking at the Incomplete Ancestral Armament with gazes filled with disbelief. At that moment, it was as if they had forgotten all the unpleasantness from earlier.

“Mn. However, it remains that this Incomplete Ancestral Armament is controlled by the Magma Emperor. As such, I am only able to forcibly subdue it and make it recognize me as its master, but cannot make it enter absolute submission,” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, not only did you manage to subdue that Incomplete Ancestral Armament, you also managed to subdue the Magma Emperor?” Hearing those words, the Four Great Divine Beasts revealed even more marvelous gazes.

“No, it cannot be considered submitted. It is unwilling to serve me. It is merely being suppressed by my power,” Chu Feng said.

“How could it not be considered to be the case? It is going to be used by you. Thus, it is yours now,” The White Tiger said excitedly, “Chu Feng, you should name that Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

“I’ve already thought of a name. It’ll be called the Magma Emperor Sword,” Chu Feng looked to the Four Great Divine Beasts and said, “Seniors, what do you all think about the name?”

“Magma Emperor Sword?!”

The Four Great Divine Beasts were all startled to hear that name. After all, the Magma Emperor possessed a special significance to them.

However, when they saw the Magma Emperor Sword that was emitting fiery flames acting so obediently in Chu Feng’s hands, they smiled at ease and replied in unison, “That is a great name.”

“It’s decided then,” Chu Feng put the Magma Emperor Sword away.

“Chu Feng, I had originally thought that I knew you extremely well. However, never did I expect that I still do not know you well enough. Boy, you have truly astonished us,” The Azure Dragon said. The other three Divine Beasts also nodded their heads.

“Seniors, if you all are to praise me like this, I will grow conceited,” At that moment, Chu Feng was also very happy and smiling brightly.

However, he was secretly using his Heaven’s Eyes to carefully examine the Four Great Divine Beasts’ bodies.

Chu Feng did not consider the words spoken by the Magma Emperor earlier to be complete nonsense. Actually... Chu Feng trusted the Magma Emperor’s words slightly.

Actually, the reason why Chu Feng had allowed the Magma Emperor to finish saying those things was precisely because he wanted to know about those things.

The reason for that was because he was also very curious as to why Qing Xuantian had decided to separate the Four Great Divine Beasts from his body.

After all, Divine Powers were powers that countless people yearned for in their dreams. If one could gain great control over one’s Divine Power, it would become an extremely strong assisting power.

Over the years, Chu Feng had seen many Divine Bodies. However, he felt that Qing Xuantian's Four Symbols Divine Body was the strongest he had ever seen.

The reason for that was because the Divine Bodies of other people were generally only a single sort of power. However, the Four Symbols Divine Body should possess four different powers; being respectively strength, speed, defense and healing. Those four powers could simply be said to be perfect.

There shouldn't be a reason for Qing Xuantian to renounce such a powerful Divine Power.

Unless... what the Magma Emperor said was the truth.

Chapter 2102 – Moon Immortal Vs. Hall Master

If what the Magma Emperor said was the truth, then, as the Four Great Divine Beasts were born so long ago, they should be near the end of their lifespans too.

That was precisely what Chu Feng wanted to determine with his Heaven's Eyes.

However... after Chu Feng examined them with his Heaven's Eyes, he did not discover any abnormalities; he did not discover any issues with the bodies of the Four Great Divine Beasts.

Thus, Chu Feng was bewildered; he didn't know whether what the Magma Emperor had declared was the truth or not. Thus, he was unable to ascertain whether Qing Xuantian had deceived the Four Great Divine Beasts, nor could he be certain that it was Qing Xuantian that had released the Magma Emperor.

The truth was unable to be determined.

“Chu Feng.”

“Although your actual cultivation is that of a rank seven Martial Emperor, the current you is capable of fighting against rank two Half Martial Ancestors.”

“On top of that... with that Magma Emperor Sword, the Dark Hall's Hall Master is definitely not going to be a match for you.”

“Thus, it is time for you to return to the Holy Land of Martialism to settle everything,” The Four Great Divine Beasts said to Chu Feng.

They were very happy, and had forgotten about what the Magma Emperor had declared. They had managed to completely break free from their depressed state of mind.

Although the delight that they revealed originated from their hearts, Chu Feng felt that they were deliberately hiding their sadness from earlier.

Actually, Chu Feng was capable of understanding it. As they were a Divine Body, they also knew that Qing Xuantian should be inseparable from them. Yet, Qing Xuantian had decided to separate from them.

Furthermore, even though it would be very difficult for the Four Great Divine Beasts to live after losing their physical bodies to seal the Magma Emperor, Qing Xuantian was totally capable of bringing them away with him after turning them into Secret Skills.

After all, he was capable of creating bodies for them before. Thus, he would most definitely be able to recreate bodies for the Four Great Divine Beasts. There was no reason for him to seal them into various locations.

In short, if Qing Xuantian had truly wanted to bring the Four Great Divine Beasts away with him, he would have been totally capable of doing so. However, he had left them behind. This meant that there must have been a reason for him to do so.

The Four Great Divine Beasts were no fools. Thus, they had naturally also managed to guess why Qing Xuantian wanted to abandon them.

Merely... Qing Xuantian was the person that they trusted the most. As such, they did not wish to raise doubts about Qing Xuantian.

The reason for that was because they would still be willing to serve Qing Xuantian should they be able to return to his side. To them, Qing Xuantian was their true master.

Thus, this matter was rather complicated.

Seeing that the Four Great Divine Beasts did not mention the matter, Chu Feng did not bother to ask about it either. Instead, with a smile on his face, he said, “In that case, I will return to the Holy Land of Martialism with seniors.”

After the matter was decided, Chu Feng entered the spatial crack together with the Four Great Divine Beasts to return to the Holy Land of Martialism.

At the beginning, Chu Feng was worried for the Four Great Divine Beasts’ enormous bodies. After all, they were simply too big. In the spatial crack, they would have to avoid the dangers to survive. If one’s body was too big, it would not be beneficial toward one’s travel through a spatial crack.

However, after reaching the spatial crack, the Four Great Divine Beasts’ bodies all began to shrink in size. They Shrank to a size similar to Chu Feng’s.

After they were able to easily control their bodies to dodge the dangers, the frightening spatial crack was simply nothing to fear for them. After all, with the strength of the Four Great Divine Beasts, it was extremely easy for them to dodge the lightning and violent winds in the spatial crack.

As for Chu Feng... he was able to pass through the spatial crack when he was a rank four Martial Emperor. And now, he was a rank seven Martial Emperor. Passing through the spatial crack had naturally become even easier for him.

Although the frightening spatial crack was no longer a problem for Chu Feng, there were still many worries in Chu Feng’s heart.

For example, he was worried about where Zi Ling was, and whether or not she was safe.

For example, he was worried about whether the Moon Immortal was capable of defeating the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, and whether or not she would be captured and refined should she not be able to defeat the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

If the Moon Immortal were to die, it would naturally be a pity.

However, if the Moon Immortal were to die, Su Rou and Su Mei would also end up dying. That was something Chu Feng would not be able to accept.

However, what Chu Feng was most worried about was that, while he had gained the strength to confront the Dark Hall's Hall Master, everything would be of no use should he fail to find the Transmogrification Gate.

After all, the Transmogrification Gate was always on the move, and Chu Feng had given the key to the Transmogrification Gate to the Compass Immortal.

Even though Chu Feng had left an imprint on the Transmogrification Gate before leaving, he had discovered when he left that the further away he was from the Transmogrification Gate, the weaker his perception of the imprint would be. When Chu Feng arrived at the spatial crack and met the Compass Immortal, he was simply unable to sense the imprint at all.

Thus, the only way for Chu Feng to find the Transmogrification Gate was to quickly return to the place where the Transmogrification Gate had been before he left, and search for the Transmogrification Gate there.

Merely... he did not know how fast the Transmogrification Gate would move. Thus, he was uncertain whether he would be able to sense the Transmogrification Gate's location from the place where he had left that day.

.....

Somewhere in the Holy Land of Martialism. The earth was shattering, and mountains were subsiding. Many energy ripples were sweeping across the land, causing dust and thick smoke to rise.

Filling the sky were thick and solid lightning bolts, surging violent winds and black clouds that covered an area of tens of thousands of miles.

That place no longer looked like a world of humans. Instead, it looked more like a purgatory. That place... was a battlefield.

A battlefield between Half Martial Ancestors.

“Dark Hall’s Hall Master, you’ve taken so many innocent lives. Today, I will absolutely make you pay for your crimes.”

Su Rou and Su Mei stood in the sky and were staring down below with their sharp gazes.

As their clothes fluttered in the wind, their surroundings became very frightening. However, the two beauties were completely unphased by their frightening surroundings. At that moment, they were like celestial fairies within purgatory.

To be exact, they were not Su Rou and Su Mei. Rather, they were the Moon Immortal.

The Moon Immortal’s aura was deep and resounding. She was a true rank one Half Martial Ancestor and Boundless Ancestral-level martial power covered her.

“Moon Immortal, you should first determine the situation before speaking such boasting words. The current you is unable to even save yourself. Yet, you actually still dare to threaten me?”

An ice-cold voice sounded. Suddenly, the black clouds down below started to disperse. As the earth reappeared, six huge monsters appeared together.

It was the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. Merely, this time around, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had turned into six huge monsters.

To be exact, only one of them was the actual body. It was the one that had spoken earlier. As for the other five, they were merely clones. However, they also emitted the aura of rank one Half Martial Ancestors.

“It is only your battle power that has managed to reach the Half

Martial Ancestor level. You have yet to become an actual Half Martial Ancestor. Even if you've used your demonic technique to disguise your aura to that of a Half Martial Ancestor, you remain only a Martial Emperor, and are still incapable of controlling Ancestral-level martial power. Thus, you can stop trying to deceive yourself."

"To Half Martial Ancestors, Martial Emperors will collapse at the first blow. You want to rely on your numbers to defeat me? You are simply daydreaming," The Moon Immortal mocked.

"Is that so? In that case, let me experience exactly how powerful you, an actual Half Martial Ancestor, are."

Suddenly, coldness flashed through the Dark Hall's Hall master's sinister eyes. Then, his five clones all soared into the sky and began to unleash attacks at the Moon Immortal.

"Humph."

The Moon Immortal was not afraid in the slightest. She snorted coldly, then waved her sleeves. Boundless Ancestral-level martial power surged forth, forming ferocious giant beasts that confronted the five clones of the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

"Boom, boom, boom, boom~~~"

Fiery blazes filled the sky and the region was covered in destruction once again.

The five clones of the Dark Hall's Hall Master were all enormous in size. Furthermore, they all emitted the aura of rank one Half Martial Ancestors. However, they did not possess Ancestral-level martial power. Instead, they were using Emperor-level martial power.

As for the Moon Immortal, even though she was faced with many enemies by herself, she remained an actual rank one Half Martial Ancestor. Regardless of how powerful Emperor-level martial power might be, it would still be no match for Ancestral-level martial power. Thus, not only was the Moon Immortal not at a disadvantage, she was even slightly holding the upper hand in the battle.

“Hehe...”

However, even though his clones were clearly at a disadvantage, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master not only did not show any concern, he even laughed strangely. Then, he closed his eyes, as if he were sleeping.

Chapter 2103 – Two Hopes

Darkness and light began to interweave with one another. A vortex of light and darkness was formed. The energy of the vortex began to wreak havoc through the world, destroying everything in its path.

The battle between the Moon Immortal and the Dark Hall's Hall Master was truly infinitely close to being able to cause the destruction of the entire world.

To the people of the Holy Land of Martialism, something like this was simply unprecedented.

Logically, no one should be able to approach the battlefield. However, there were several hundreds of millions of people observing the battle.

THE Elf King, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Xian Miaomiao and the others were all here. Even the Compass Immortal was here.

The reason why they were able to observe the battle at such a close range and not be affected by it was because they were in the Transmogrification Gate.

In fact, it was not a coincidence that the Dark Hall's Hall Master and the Moon Immortal were fighting in this place. Although it was very unimaginable, the Dark Hall's Hall Master had discovered the Transmogrification Gate through special means.

Most frighteningly, not only did the Dark Hall's Hall Master find the Transmogrification Gate, he also possessed the means to breach the Transmogrification Gate.

His five clones all contained special power that could break the indestructable and undiscoverable Transmogrification Gate.

Fortunately, the Moon Immortal had made a timely arrival. Else, the Transmogrification Gate would've definitely been breached by the Dark Hall's Hall Master. At that time, the several hundred million people that were hiding in the Transmogrification Gate would definitely have been killed by the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

“Is that the legendary Moon Immortal? That Moon Immortal that has been hidden in the Moonlight Maze the entire time? Never would I have expected the Moon Immortal to be two beautiful young women.”

“Fool! That is Lady Moon Immortal! Don't you spout such blasphemy!”

“Yes, yes, yes.”

“Lady Moon Immortal is so powerful. As expected from a Half Martial Ancestor-level expert. The Dark Hall's Hall Master will not be able to escape from this. We are saved.”

Practically no one among the hundreds of millions of people were able to clearly see the battle between the Dark Hall's Hall Master and the Moon Immortal.

Thus, they could only speculate in their excitement, and determine how powerful the two fighters were from the energy ripples wreaking havoc through their surroundings.

At that moment, it was the Moon Immortal with her Ancestral-level martial power that held the upper hand. The Ancestral-level martial power that she controlled was radiating bright light all around. It was like a sword of justice that cut down the darkness in this area, bringing hope and light to the crowd.

However, the Elf King was frowning. Contained within his deep gaze was unease.

His uneasy gaze was not locked onto the battle in the sky, the battle between the Moon Immortal and the Dark Hall's Hall Master's five clones.

Instead, his uneasy gaze was locked onto the Dark Hall's Hall Master that was sitting on the ground with his eyes closed like he had fallen into a deep sleep.

“So you’ve also noticed it,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal arrived beside the Elf King.

“The Dark Hall’s Hall Master is extremely confident in himself. I keep feeling that something is amiss. Yet, I am unable to make out much of anything. You’re a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, are you able to determine anything from this?”

“Although I do not wish to admit it, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s world spirit techniques surpass my own. I am unable to determine anything either,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“How could that be?” Hearing those words, the Elf King’s frown grew even more tense. After all, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was the number one world spiritist in the Holy Land of Martialism. If even he could not make anything of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s actions, then the Dark Hall’s Hall Master would truly be too powerful.

“It is precisely because I am unable to see through anything that it’s fishy,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“What do you mean by that?” The Elf King asked.

The Heaven Reaching Immortal did not speak of what he had in mind, and instead asked the Elf King, “Those five clones of his were not formed with spirit power. Instead, they contain some sort of special power, a power that could break my Transmogrification Gate.”

“Although I do not know where he obtained that power, it remains that he obtained that power.”

“However... his actual body is covered with a layer of spirit formations that even I cannot see through.”

“Why would he cover his body with a layer of spirit formations for no reason?”

“There must be a secret that he’s trying to hide,” The Elf King said.

“That’s right. He is deliberately hiding something. Unfortunately, even if we managed to discover it, there is nothing that we can do.”

“Right now, we can only resign ourselves to fate, and place all of our hopes on the Moon Immortal,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal sighed.

They were existences standing at the apex of the Holy Land of Martialism. However, in this battle that concerned the future of the Holy Land of Martialism, they were unable to do anything. Naturally, they would feel very depressed.

“No, we still have another hope,” The Elf King said.

“You’re talking about Chu Feng?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked.

“Mn,” The Elf King nodded.

“I’ve heard from that Compass Immortal that the spatial crack Chu Feng went through was a vicious type that contained all sorts of danger. The possibility of Chu Feng being able to pass through that spatial crack is extremely small.”

“Even if he really managed to pass through it, he might not necessarily be able to obtain Qing Xuantian’s inheritance. After all, none of us know what the remnant Qing Xuantian left behind is like.”

“Furthermore, even if Chu Feng really managed to obtain Qing Xuantian’s inheritance, he might not necessarily be able to take care of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.”

“Although we can still place a trace of hope in Chu Feng, it must remain only a trace of hope. Compared to the Moon Immortal, our hope in Chu Feng is truly too uncertain.”

“Unless a miracle is to happen...” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“Heh...” The Elf King laughed lightly. He then said, “It seems that you do not know Chu Feng well.”

“Oh?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal looked to the Elf King. There was a trace of curiosity in his eyes.

“The way I see it, that boy Chu Feng is precisely someone who makes miracles,” The Elf King said confidently.

His confidence was not baseless. Although he could not be said to have known Chu Feng for a very long time, it was not a short time either. He had personally seen Chu Feng accomplishing many impossible things.

“Let’s hope that to be the case,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal smiled. As matters stood, they had reached the moment of a life and death crisis. How could he not wish for there to be someone to save them like Qing Xuantian did back then?

If it were possible, he also wished for that person to be Chu Feng. Merely... he truly felt that it was already too late.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, the rumbling from the sky grew more and more ear-piercing. Even though everyone was in the Transmogrification Gate, they were still able to sense how frightening the outside was.

Not to mention others, even the strongest people in the Transmogrification Gate, the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal, would only be courting death should they try to enter that battle.

After fighting for some time, the Moon Immortal unleashed her Imperial Armament. The Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s five clones had also unleashed their Imperial Armaments; the five of them each held an Imperial Armament in their hands.

Although the Moon Immortal was fighting one against five, she still remained extremely calm and unphased. With the assistance of her Imperial Armament, she maintained absolute superiority in their battle.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the Imperial Armament the Moon Immortal held let out a ray of light. Like a flash of lightning, it shot toward one of the five clones.

“Roar~~~”

Everything happened too quickly. That clone simply did not have time to dodge. It let out a frightening snarl, and then its body shattered into pieces.

The Moon Immortal had killed that clone with a single strike!!!

“Not bad.”

Seemingly sensing that one of his clones had been destroyed, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, who had appeared to be sleeping the entire time, abruptly opened his eyes and looked to the Moon Immortal up above him.

Merely, even though he clearly knew that one of his clones had been destroyed, there was no worry in his gaze. Instead, his gaze emitted a different sort of implication.

Chapter 2104 – Heaven-defying Battle

Power

Sensing the gaze of the Dark Hall's Hall Master, the Moon Immortal said coldly, "No need to worry, I'll come to take care of you right away."

"I know what you're thinking. You want to take care of my four remaining clones, and then come take care of me, isn't that right?"

"Unfortunately, I'm afraid that I cannot give you that chance. After all, I still need them to cut open that Transmogrification Gate," The Dark Hall's Hall Master said.

"It is not up to you to determine whether or not I have a chance. Instead, I am the one who shall seize that chance," The Moon Immortal said. The Imperial Armament she held in her hand grew even sharper, and her attacks grew more and more ferocious.

After verifying that those clones were crucial to breaching the Transmogrification Gate, she became even more determined to eliminate those clones.

"Is that so?" The Dark Hall's Hall Master smiled lightly. Then, his smile suddenly disappeared, and his gaze became ice-cold.

"Boom~~~"

A loud explosion was heard. Immediately, the ground split open. The enormous body of the Dark Hall's Hall master turned into a ray of black light as it soared into the sky. With an unbelievable speed, he charged toward the Moon Immortal.

"Boom~~~"

Everything happened too quickly. Other than an ear-piercing explosion and surging energy ripples, no one in the Transmogrification Gate was able to see what had happened outside.

All they knew was that the Dark Hall's Hall Master had created a ferocious energy ripple after flying into the sky. That energy ripple instantly covered everything in their line of sight.

At that moment, the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal revealed even more unease in their eyes.

“Huu, huu, huu~~~”

Suddenly, violent wind started to blow. The wind seemed to want to disperse everything. The violent wind forcibly blew the black energy ripples away.

At that moment, the crowd in the Transmogrification Gate discovered that the outside that was originally pitch black had returned to normal.

Even though the surface was filled with desolation, as if from the aftermath of a disaster, a blue sky and white clouds appeared in the sky once again.

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

Four explosions sounded. The ground started to quake as four huge monsters fell to the surface. They were the Dark Hall's Hall Master's four clones.

Although the four clones had fallen to the ground, the crowd's gazes were still focused on the sky. They were searching for the Dark Hall's Hall Master and the Moon Immortal.

After searching the vast white clouds, the Elf King and the others all revealed expressions of shock.

There was no longer any huge monster in the sky. Instead, there were three silhouettes.

One among them was the Dark Hall's Hall Master. Not only had he returned to the appearance of a human, he was also covered with his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. With his body covered in lightning, his aura was no longer that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. Instead, it had decreased to that of a rank nine Martial Emperor.

Although his aura had grown weaker, the Dark Hall's Hall Master did not panic. Instead, he had a complacent smile on his face. In his hands were his two Imperial Armaments. He was fiddling with them.

As for the other two silhouettes, they were Su Rou and Su Mei. To be exact, it was the Moon Immortal.

However, a bloody wound had appeared on both of their bodies. Blood was flowing from their wounds.

The Moon Immortal... had actually been injured!!!

“Oh no!”

At that moment, the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal were unable to contain themselves, and blurted out ‘oh no.’ What they did not wish to happen the most had finally happened.

“How could this be?” At that moment, many experts noticed that the Moon Immortal had been injured by the Dark Hall's Hall Master. However, they were extremely confused.

After all, the Moon Immortal clearly possessed a much more powerful aura than the Dark Hall's Hall Master. As such, how could he possibly have injured her?

“Your Majesty, what is going on here?” Confused, the crowd turned to the Elf King.

The battle had already surpassed their ability to understand. For many people, they were simply unable to make sense of what they were looking at. As such, they could only ask the Elf King for guidance.

“The Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s rank one Half Martial Ancestor’s aura is a disguise. His actual cultivation is not that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. It is merely his battle power that has reached the rank one Half Martial Ancestor level.”

“However, the current aura that he is emitting right now really does belong to him. Like Chu Feng, not only does he possess the means to increase his cultivation, he also possesses a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.”

“Thus, while his cultivation is only that of a rank nine Martial Emperor now, and might appear to be inferior to the Moon Immortal, his battle power has already reached rank two Half Martial Ancestor level”.

The Elf King had fought against the Dark Hall’s Hall Master many times. Thus, he knew about his abilities.

Thus, he knew that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was an existence on par with Chu Feng in all aspects. He was truly a genius from the Outer World.

“Heavens!” Hearing the explanation provided by the Elf King, the crowd’s complexions all turned ashen. In fact, some among them were so frightened that they fell onto their butts powerlessly. They were stunned by the news.

“How could this be?” At that moment, the gaze of the Moon Immortal in the sky was also flickering nonstop. She had naturally discovered the heaven-defying battle power that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed. Merely, she was unable to accept it.

“Moon Immortal, what sort of expression is that?”

“Oh, I got it. You’re feeling extremely unreconciled because you, a grand rank one Half Martial Ancestor, was defeated by me, a mere Martial Emperor, right?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master mocked.

“You refused to fight earlier because you were increasing your cultivation?” The Moon Immortal asked.

The Moon Immortal knew that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was not this powerful before. Else, he would not have been hiding from her the entire time.

His current cultivation must have been obtained not long ago. It was very likely that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had not fought alongside clones earlier because he had been increasing his cultivation.

“Did you think that I would be so foolish as to expose myself to you without absolute certainty of victory?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master answered with a question of his own.

“You’re saying that you’d already obtained this cultivation before you came here?” The Moon Immortal asked with a frown.

“I am never someone that does something without certainty. Since I dared to show myself, it means that I have certainty of victory.”

After saying those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master started to attack again. He pointed forward with the Imperial Armament in his hand. Although he was only able to control Emperor-level martial power, his oppressive might caused the Moon Immortal’s expression to change.

The Moon Immortal waved her sleeves and formed a defensive wall before her with her Ancestral-level martial power.

Logically, as Emperor-level martial power and Ancestral-level martial power belonged to two completely different levels, it would absolutely be the Ancestral-level martial power that would come out on top should they collide with one another.

However, at that moment, the ferocious Emperor-level martial power collided directly with the wall formed with Ancestral-level martial power.

“Boom~~~~”

Rumbles sounded from the collision. For the first time ever, the Emperor-level martial power burst through the Ancestral-level martial power and toward the Moon Immortal.

Something that should have been impossible was happening. And this... was the so-called heaven-defying battle power.

“Damn it!”

Sensing that the situation was bad, the Moon Immortal's body suddenly bloomed with a special light. Following that, the surrounding air started to tremble.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, Su Rou and Su Mei who were being controlled by the Moon Immortal both disappeared into thin air.

“Don't you think that you can escape just by entering the void. Before this grand world spiritist, you have nowhere to go.”

After a cold sneer, the Dark Hall's Hall Master opened his arms. Immediately, giant vines began to form all around him.

Those vines were a meter thick, and several tens of thousands of meters long. As the vines spread in all directions with rapid speed, they formed an inescapable net in an instant.

“Mn?” After the vines sealed off the entire region, a surprised expression appeared on the previously confident face of the Dark Hall's Hall Master. Then, his lips lifted into a surprised smile, “Seems like I have underestimated you. You actually possess such a strong escape technique.”

“Dark Hall's Hall Master, I know that you will, sooner or later, return to the Outer World. At that time, I will teach you a lesson,” The Moon Immortal's voice sounded. However, that voice appeared to be from tens of thousands of miles away.

Chapter 2105 – Precisely Chu Feng

“Heh, the Outer World is my domain”.

“When you can’t even win against me here, how could you possibly win against me in the Outer World?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master laughed mockingly.

As he was someone from the Outer World, he felt that he possessed a certain level of power in the Outer World. For the Moon Immortal to threaten him with the Outer World, he felt it to be truly ridiculous.

“The Outer World is enormous, and possesses countless experts.”

“This Immortal will let you know that your bits of reliance in the Outer World are merely a bunch of ants,” The Moon Immortal’s voice sounded again.

“You are truly ignorant,” At that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was tightly clenching his fists. He was angry.

He believed that the Moon Immortal would definitely not be able to contend against him in the Outer World. In fact, none of the people currently in the Holy Land of Martialism would be able to contend against him.

However, the Moon Immortal had declared that she would take care of him in the Outer World. That caused him to feel extremely displeased, causing him to feel that he had been looked down upon.

“Moon Immortal, did you think that this Hall Master was abandoned by the Outer World? Did you think that this Hall Master possesses no one to rely on in the Outer World, and that’s why I’ve come here to flaunt my strength?”

“Let me tell you, you are mistaken. This Palace Master is a genius even in the Outer World. I merely arrived in this place by accident.”

“When you finally reach the Outer World, you will come to discover how much power I possess in the Outer World.”

Suddenly, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master shouted those words out angrily. From those words, it could be seen that he seemed to deeply detest being looked down upon. He was truly infuriated by the Moon Immortal.

However, there was no reaction from the Moon Immortal. It seemed that the Moon Immortal had already left.

“Humph, nothing more than a coward that only knows how to boast.”

“Immortal? Bullshit!”

“You are nothing more than someone who believes in their own lies.”

“You are someone who only dared to chase after me to kill me when I was weaker than you. Now that I’ve become stronger, you ran away faster than even dogs.”

“With merely that bit of capability, you dare to boast about fighting me in the Outer World? Truly ridiculous!” Seeing that the Moon Immortal had left, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master began to mock and ridicule her. He was doing so to alleviate the displeasure in his heart.

It was only after he insulted the Moon Immortal and felt better that he turned his gaze to the distance.

There was clearly nothing in the location that he was looking at. However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s gaze narrowed slightly.

“Transmogrification Gate. Truly miraculous. However, unfortunately... you will not be able to escape.”

Right after the Dark Hall’s Hall Master said those words, his four clones that were standing on the ground all soared into the sky. In the end, they landed in the distance.

“Boom~~~ Boom~~~ Boom~~~ Boom~~~”

The four of them landed in different locations. Like four mountains, they sat there as if guarding something.

“Roar~~~”

Suddenly, the four clones let out ear-piercing snarls at the same time. Then, countless enormous and powerful black hands shot out to grab at the space that they had surrounded.

“Buzz~~~”

Soon, the empty space started to transform and the Transmogrification Gate appeared.

After the Transmogrification Gate appeared, countless more enormous hands emerged from the four clones. Those hands formed fists and began to bombard the Transmogrification Gate.

The Transmogrification Gate was known to be indestructible. However, those fists seemed to contain some sort of special power, as even the Transmogrification Gate was unable to withstand it. At that moment, the indestructible Transmogrification Gate was shaking violently.

In fact, even the insides of the Transmogrification Gate was violently shaking. It was as if the world within the Transmogrification Gate was about to collapse.

“Nooo, this place is going to be destroyed, we will all be killed!!!”

At that moment, the people inside the Transmogrification Gate all possessed dejected expressions.

Despair. Endless despair. That sort of despair was something they had felt before. The reason for that was because the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had been about to breach the Transmogrification Gate earlier.

Fortunately, the Moon Immortal had arrived at the right time. She was the one that had brought the crowd hope and allowed them to be reborn from despair.

However, even the Moon Immortal had been no match for the Dark Hall's Hall Master. Thus, they knew... that there was no one that could stop the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

In that moment, there was only one thing they could do — wait for death!!!

Upon thinking that they would die, even many of the adults started to cry bitterly.

As for the kids, they did not know much about the current situation. However, when they saw that the adults were crying, they too began to cry.

At that moment, chaos and panic filled the vast Transmogrification Gate.

As matters stood, the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal possessed no heart to concern themselves with the panicking crowd.

The reason for that was because they also knew what sort of situation they were in. Indeed, they were facing a great catastrophe. Even if they could calm everyone, they would still not be able to escape the fate of death that awaited them.

“Chu Feng, I know that you're hiding in the Transmogrification Gate.”

“If my guess is correct, the Transmogrification Gate is most definitely filled with sounds of wailing. Regardless of whether it is you, that Elf King or that Heaven Reaching Immortal, none of you will be able to calm the crowd. The reason for that is because you all are also in despair.”

“Go ahead, continue with your despair. That is what this Hall Master wants. This is the consequence of going against this Hall Master.”

“It is precisely the goal of this Hall Master to make you all fall into despair,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master was acting like a spectator as he looked at his four clones breaking that Transmogrification Gate that was said to be indestructible.

“Lord Hall Master, please stop, please stop, I don’t wish to die.”

“Please don’t do this, we have never gone against you. We are willing to submit to you. Please don’t kill us.”

At that moment, many people began to beg the Dark Hall’s Hall Master for forgiveness. Their begging was something that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master could not hear. Furthermore, even if he were to hear them, it would still be useless. However, when faced with death, they still ended up revealing their fatal weakness... cowardice!!!

“You bunch are absolutely disgraceful. All of you, shut up!”

“If I knew that you all were this lacking in dignity, I would have never offered shelter to you all!” Seeing how disgracefully the crowd was behaving, the Heaven Reaching Immortal flew into a rage and cursed out at them.

However, as matters stood, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was no longer imposing anymore. There was only a single person that the crowd feared — the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Chu Feng, when that Transmogrification Gate is destroyed, I will let you know the true disparity between us,” Seeing that the Transmogrification Gate was soon to be breached, dense anticipation filled the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s eyes.

It was naturally the hundreds of millions of lives hiding inside the Transmogrification Gate that he was looking forward to seeing. After all, they were cultivation resources that could help him increase his cultivation.

However, even more than the people, he was looking forward to the timid gaze and expression of despair that Chu Feng would have.

He was determined to make Chu Feng know that, although they both possessed the same Inherited Bloodline, there was an enormous disparity between them.

However, right at that moment, a voice sounded. “Dark Hall’s Hall Master, I trust that you have been well since we last met.”

When that voice was heard, everyone’s expressions turned sluggish. The reason for that was because they were all able to tell, that that voice sounded so very familiar.

Chu Feng, that was Chu Feng’s voice.

“Chu Feng has returned! It’s Chu Feng, he has returned!”

After verifying that it was Chu Feng, the crowd was immediately overjoyed. However, they were immediately disappointed.

While Chu Feng was very powerful, he would only be powerful when compared to them. When compared to the Elf King and the others, Chu Feng was still weaker than them.

And now, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had fought back even the Moon Immortal. Even if Chu Feng was to return, what could he possibly do? At the very most, he would only die together with them.

“Idiot! Why did you return at a time like this?! Quickly, run away!” Xian Miaomiao and some others started to shout hysterically. None of them wished for Chu Feng to throw his life away in vain.

Merely, as they were in the Transmogrification Gate, Chu Feng simply could not hear them.

“Sigh~~~”

Seeing that even Xian Miaomiao and the others were shouting for Chu Feng to escape, the rest of the people became even more certain that Chu Feng’s return was useless. As such, sighs began to fill the Transmogrification Gate.

“Chu Feng?!” Compared to the crowd within the Transmogrification Gate, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had an emotional expression.

He had thought that Chu Feng was hiding inside the Transmogrification Gate the entire time. However, Chu Feng’s voice had clearly sounded from outside.

Merely, even he was unable to determine where Chu Feng’s voice had sounded from. That made him realize that something was amiss.

“Chu Feng, where are you? Get the hell out here, this Hall Master is telling you to come out,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master snarled furiously.

“Since you wish to see me so much, I shall grant you your desire.”

“Buzz~~~”

Right after Chu Feng’s voice sounded, dazzling golden light blossomed above the Transmogrification Gate. Then, four rays of light descend from the sky. Like four lightning bolts, they struck the four clones of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

When the four lightning strikes landed, four explosions sounded, and the ground was shattered.

“What’s going on?!”

The scene that suddenly happened shocked the panicking crowd. When they looked outside, they were even more stunned.

At that moment, four huge monsters had appeared. Those four huge monsters had landed on the Dark Hall's Hall Master's four clones.

Being attacked by the four huge monsters, the four clones were letting out anguished wailings nonstop. They had lost all fighting ability.

“Heavens, those are?!!!!”

When the Elf King and the others saw the four huge monsters, their expressions changed enormously.

The reason for that was because the four huge monsters that were suppressing the four clones were:

The Azure Dragon.

The White Tiger.

The Vermilion Bird.

The Black Tortoise.

The Four Great Divine Beasts!!!

Most importantly, a man was standing on the Azure Dragon's head.

Like the Dark Hall's Hall Master, that man's body was also covered with Thunder Armor. A pair of enormous Thunder Wings also extended from his back.

His arms were folded before his chest. Standing atop the Azure Dragon's head, he gave off an extraordinary aura.

It was the domineering aura of an absolute ruler.

When the crowd saw the appearance of that man, they were all stunned, and their hearts started to tremble.

That man was none other than Chu Feng!!!

Chapter 2106 – Absolute Suppression

“Chu Feng! Everyone, look, it’s Chu Feng!”

“Chu Feng has returned to save us! Lord Chu Feng has returned to save us!”

After seeing that it was Chu Feng, the people in the Transmogrification Gate burst into an uproar.

Their low spirits were completely swept away. Their faces were no longer covered with despair. Instead, they were now wild with joy.

Even though many people were unable to determine Chu Feng’s cultivation, they were able to sense that the aura that Chu Feng was emitting right now seemed to not be inferior to that of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master at all.

“Those... those four Divine Beasts, aren’t they Qing Xuantian’s guardian beasts?”

After seeing the Four Great Divine Beasts, astonishment filled the Heaven Reaching Immortal’s face. Not only had he been alive in Qing Xuantian’s era, he had also personally seen Qing Xuantian before. Thus, he knew very well that the four Divine Beasts before him were undoubtedly Qing Xuantian’s guardian beasts.

“What? Those four powerful existences are actually Lord Qing Xuantian’s guardian beasts?”

“Why would Lord Qing Xuantian’s guardian beasts appear together with Lord Chu Feng?”

Because the Heaven Reaching Immortal said those words with a very loud voice, practically all of the people in the Transmogrification Gate heard it.

After hearing that piece of news, the crowd were all filled with astonishment.

After all, Qing Xuantian was the most powerful expert since the Ancient Era. He was the strongest of the Five Emperors, the Five Overlords.

There were simply too many legends regarding Qing Xuantian. His various accomplishments were well-known throughout the entire Holy Land of Martialism. To practically everyone, the name ‘Qing Xuantian’ possessed a special significance.

“It is not only those four Divine Beasts, little friend Chu Feng’s current aura is not at all inferior to that of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. It would seem that his true cultivation is the same as the Dark Hall’s Hall Master; he has become a rank seven Martial Emperor.”

“Little friend Chu Feng should have obtained Qing Xuantian’s inheritance,” The Elf King was wild with joy and filled with excitement.

“Lord Chu Feng is actually Lord Qing Xuantian’s successor?!”

“Heavens! It’s no wonder Lord Chu Feng is that powerful. It would seem that we will be saved today! We will be saved today!!!”

The crowd was even more astonished upon hearing what the Elf King said. Originally, they were confused as to why Chu Feng would appear together with Qing Xuantian’s four legendary guardian beasts.

However, the Elf King’s words provided the crowd with a reasonable explanation. It turned out that Chu Feng was actually Qing Xuantian’s successor. Although there were people that had made this guess in their minds before, it was now verified.

“Chu Feng, your cultivation actually increased so much?” At that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was extremely surprised. He swept his eyes over the Four Great Divine Beasts. Then, he said, “Those four fellows, they seem to resemble Qing Xuantian’s four guardian beasts.”

“I understand. You obtained Qing Xuantian’s inheritance. That’s why your cultivation has increased,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

Chu Feng did not bother to pay attention to what the Dark Hall’s Hall Master said. Instead, he directly declared, “Dark Hall’s Hall Master, for the sake of your own selfish desires, you have taken countless innocent lives. Are you prepared to receive your death?”

“My, are you implying that you plan to kill me?”

“Hahahaha, what a joke. You are even more ridiculous than that Moon Immortal.”

“Did you really think that just because you possess the same cultivation, the same Inherited Bloodline and the same heaven-defying battle power as me, you’ll be able to contend against me?”

“Chu Feng, I have said it already. Today, I will let you know how enormous the disparity between us is.”

As the Dark Hall’s Hall Master spoke, he put away the two Imperial Armament he was holding in his hands.

Disdain. His actions were absolutely an act of disdain toward Chu Feng. It was as if he was declaring to everyone that there was simply no need for him to use Imperial Armaments when fighting against Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Faced with the contempt shown to him by the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, Chu Feng only laughed lightly and smiled. He was smiling like he was looking at a clown.

“Continue to smile. You will soon be unable to smile.”

“Rumble~~~”

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master began to attack. Surging martial power with might capable of toppling mountains and overturning seas began to assault Chu Feng from all directions.

Although that attack appeared to be invisible and formless, it was actually a kind of martial skill, a formless martial skill.

Ordinary people were simply unable to see the attack within that martial skill. They were only capable of hearing the rumbles that sounded from all directions.

“Humph.”

However, how could such an attack possibly baffle Chu Feng? Chu Feng snorted coldly and smiled. His body trembled, and the surrounding martial power was controlled by him. Like an invisible army of ferocious beasts, that martial power surged outward to attack.

“Boom~~~”

The two streams of martial power collided with one another. Immediately, heaven and earth started to shake. It was as if the end of the world had arrived.

However, both Chu Feng and the Dark Hall’s Hall Master remained standing where they were. Their expressions remained the same. They were both completely unflustered.

“Interesting. However, I’ll make you enter a state of absolute inferiority later,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said. Then, his body shifted, and he began to fly toward Chu Feng.

“Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird, Black Tortoise.”

“Seniors, I’ll be leaving those four clones to you all.”

After Chu Feng said those words, he soared into the sky and collided with the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“No problem.”

The Four Great Divine Beasts used their various body parts, such as the Azure Dragon with its tail or the White Tiger with its claw, to ferociously attack the huge monsters they had pinned down.

The clones of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had already lost their fighting capability after being attacked so suddenly. As such, how could they possibly withstand the ferocious attacks that the Four Great Divine Beasts were assaulting them with?

Soon, they were all destroyed. They were all killed; completely eliminated.

“Amazing! As expected of the legendary guardian beasts!!!”

Seeing the Four Great Divine Beasts effortlessly killing the four clones of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, the crowd began to cheer excitedly.

After all, those four clones were existences that had threatened their safety before. Now that the greatest danger to them had been eliminated, they would naturally be extremely happy.

Right at that moment, the Heaven Reaching Immortal shouted, “Quiet!” Then, with a very serious expression, he said to the crowd, “This battle has only just begun.”

Hearing those words, the crowd uniformly turned their gazes to the sky.

Black clouds densely covered the sky. Lightning flashed and thunder rolled in succession as violent energy ripples swept through the surroundings like diffusing light.

That was... the battlefield between Chu Feng and the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The confrontation between the two men grew more and more intense. The energy ripples created by their martial skills seemed to be planning to rip apart the entire vast sky.

The battle was extremely fierce. For many people, they were simply unable to tell which one of the fighters was Chu Feng, and which was the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. They could only understand what was happening from the explanations provided by the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal.

After finding out about the situation of the battle, everyone started to frown. The reason for that was because... it was Chu Feng that was being suppressed by the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

The two men had both grasped extremely powerful martial skills. However, Chu Feng would always be suppressed in every confrontation.

“This battle is not hopeful.”

At that moment, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was frowning extremely deeply. Although there was an enormous difference in strength between him and Chu Feng and the Dark Hall's Hall Master, he was able to determine the situation of the battle as an observer. Seeing that Chu Feng was being suppressed ever since the actual battle began, he felt extremely uneasy.

Even though the four clones capable of breaching the Transmogrification Gate had been killed, as long as the Dark Hall's Hall Master won, they, the people in the Transmogrification Gate, would sooner or later be killed by him.

However, at the moment when the Heaven Reaching Immortal had a worried frown on his face, he was surprised to discover that the Elf King standing beside him was smiling. Not only was he not worried, he seemed to be very happy too.

Chapter 2107 – Turning The Situation Around

“Are you not worried for little friend Chu Feng?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked the Elf King.

“Heaven Reaching Immortal, this should be the first time that you have seen little friend Chu Feng fighting someone, right?” The Elf King asked.

“Mn,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal nodded his head.

“Then, you should continue to watch it. You will come to understand soon,” The Elf King said with a smile.

“What do you mean by that?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked.

“I have fought against the Dark Hall’s Hall Master many times, and seen little friend Chu Feng battle others several times too.”

“Thus, I have quite an understanding of the two of them.”

“Although their strength is on par with one another, I believe that little friend Chu Feng is superior,” The Elf King said.

“Oh?” Hearing those words, although the Heaven Reaching Immortal was very confused, he still turned his gaze toward the battle between Chu Feng and the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Roar~~~”

Another ear-piercing roar was heard. The Dark Hall’s Hall Master had unleashed another Earthen Taboo Martial Skill. That Earthen Taboo Martial Skill turned the Dark Hall’s Hall Master into a gigantic eagle several thousands of meters tall.

At that moment, that ferocious giant eagle brandished its sharp talons as it pounced at Chu Feng. It was planning to rip Chu Feng to pieces.

However, Chu Feng revealed no fear of the incoming giant eagle. Instead, a sharpness flashed through his eyes.

“Reckless fool, I’ll rip you to pieces now,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master was infuriated by Chu Feng’s gaze. Thus, he unleashed all of his martial power to increase the strength of his attack.

In merely the blink of an eye, the Earthen Taboo Martial Skill unleashed by the Dark Hall’s Hall Master reached a distance less than a hundred meters away from Chu Feng. The powerful might it emitted shattered even the space surrounding Chu Feng.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng’s eyes grew sharper. Then, he flipped his palm.

“Clank~~~”

A ray of cold light immediately appeared. It was a slash. Like a silvery crescent, that slash appeared out of thin air and rapidly increased in size as it collided with the enormous eagle the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had turned into.

“Crap!”

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master was greatly surprised by the silver slash that had suddenly appeared out of nowhere. The reason for that was because that slash appeared less than ten meters from him, and possessed an extremely fast speed. In that sort of situation, he was unable to dodge the slash.

“Rumble~~~”

A loud rumble was heard. Surging energy ripples immediately covered the entire sky.

However, right after the energy ripples began to spread, a burst of violent wind immediately swept forth and forcibly blew the energy ripples away.

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master appeared again. Merely, when his appearance was revealed, the crowd, other than the Elf King, all revealed expressions of disbelief.

For some unknown reason, the Dark Hall's Hall Master that was fighting Chu Feng at a very close range had distanced himself far away from Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng was still standing in his original location. It was only the Dark Hall's Hall Master whose location had changed. In other words, the Dark Hall's Hall Master had been forced far back.

To the crowd's surprise, a bloody wound had appeared on the Dark Hall's Hall Master, who had clearly been suppressing Chu Feng the entire time earlier.

No, it was not only the bloody wound, his left arm had also disappeared. It had been sliced off by Chu Feng's slash earlier.

“Despicable bastard, you actually used your Imperial Armament!”

With merely a thought, the Dark Hall's Hall Master reformed his lost left arm. However, his gaze was fixed onto Chu Feng's Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader the entire time. His eyes were filled with fury.

He had realized that Chu Feng's attack earlier was an Earthen Taboo Martial Skill. However, how could he possibly be injured by ordinary Earthen Taboo Martial Skills?

Chu Feng was able to break through his Earthen Taboo Martial Skill and successfully injure him precisely because he had used his Imperial Armament, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader.

“Who was it that decided that we could not use Imperial Armaments in this battle?”

“Imperial Armaments are weapons. They are an indispensable assistance to martial cultivators. There is nothing wrong with me using my Imperial Armament.”

“As for why you’re injured, you can only blame it on yourself for being too arrogant and conceited. It was you who felt that you could kill me without using your Imperial Armaments.”

“Don’t forget, you were holding your Imperial Armaments earlier. It was you who put them away,” Chu Feng mocked.

“You!!!” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master grew even more furious.

What Chu Feng said was correct. He had originally been holding his Imperial Armaments. It was because he looked down upon Chu Feng that he decided to put his Imperial Armaments away. However, never had he expected that Chu Feng would insult him with that.

“I understand.”

However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master wasn’t a fool. Although he was furious, he realized that he had been able to obtain superiority over Chu Feng earlier not because he possessed absolute strength. Instead, it seemed that Chu Feng had deliberately egged him on.

Chu Feng had deliberately made him feel that he was stronger than him so that he would be overly confident.

Chu Feng had grasped the opportunity of him being overly confident to mount a surprise attack against him. That was how he came to be injured.

“Chu Feng, I have not wrongly accused you. You are truly despicable!!!” After realizing what had happened, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master became even more furious.

He was someone that never did anything that he possessed no certainty in. Regardless of what sort of opponent he faced, he would always plan strategies beforehand so that he could seize the certainty of victory.

However, today, he had fallen for Chu Feng’s scheme, someone that he had looked down upon the entire time. Naturally, he would feel extremely furious.

“Despicable? Is someone like you worthy of calling me despicable?” Chu Feng coldly laughed, “I, Chu Feng, am someone who will never scheme against those that are good and honest.”

“However, against despicable bastards like you who have done all sorts of evil, I, Chu Feng, am someone who will use all kinds of schemes. That is what you call “giving someone a taste of their own medicine.”

Suddenly, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master shouted, “Shut your mouth!!!” Then, he flipped his hands, and his two Imperial Armaments appeared in his hands.

“Yoh, so you’re finally willing to use your Imperial Armaments? But... they will not help you,” Chu Feng mocked.

“Bullshit!!!” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master shouted. Following that, he brandished the Imperial Armaments in his hands. Immediately, martial power began to gather as he unleashed a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

The Heaven Taboo Martial Skill turned into many blade rays that shot forth to slice at Chu Feng. Like a massive army sent forth to behead a person, they swept across the void and toward Chu Feng.

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master was planning to get revenge by giving Chu Feng a taste of his own medicine. Chu Feng had injured him with a slash. As such, he planned to kill Chu Feng with his own slash.

“Heaven Taboo: Heaven Devouring Wind.”

With the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in hand, Chu Feng hacked down directly in front of him. Immediately, a violent wind was sent forth from the Imperial Armament.

As the violent wind spun, space itself started to twist. Like flowing water, the distorted space began to pour into the violent wind.

Under that situation, the violent wind grew larger and larger. Soon, it covered all of heaven and earth. It truly looked as if the sky had been devoured by the wind.

When the slashes sent forth by the Dark Hall's Hall Master arrived, they too were devoured by that violent wind.

It was as if a myriad of meteors were falling from the sky, only to land in the deep, bottomless sea.

“Go.”

“Roar~~~”

Then, Chu Feng pointed at the Dark Hall's Hall Master, and that violent wind began to move. It turned into an enormous wind dragon that pierced through the sky as it moved to suppress the Dark Hall's Hall Master with overwhelming might.

Chu Feng had suppressed the Dark Hall's Hall Master's Heaven Taboo Martial Skill with his own Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

“What a profound martial skill,” At that moment, the Elf King and the others all exclaimed in admiration repeatedly. They were all stunned by the Heaven Taboo Martial Skill Chu Feng had unleashed.

“That is Qing Xuantian's martial skill. I saw him use it before.”

“Actually, that martial skill is not that profound. It is merely that when little friend Chu Feng used it, it is even more powerful,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal explained. Then, he looked to the Elf King and said, “What you said is correct. Little friend Chu Feng's strength is indeed above that of the Dark Hall's Hall Master.”

After hearing those words, the bystanders all discovered that the Heaven Taboo: Heaven Devouring Wind that Chu Feng had unleashed was still spiraling in the sky.

It was only when the Dark Hall's Hall Master unleashed three Heaven Taboo Martial Skills in succession that he managed to neutralize Chu Feng's Heaven Taboo: Heaven Devouring Wind.

However, after the Dark Hall's Hall Master neutralized it, he was already panting and in a very sorry state.

Chapter 2108 – Greatly Expanding One's Horizons

“Heaven Taboo: Ten Thousand Lightning Strikes”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng unleashed another Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

It was another Heaven Taboo Martial Skill he had obtained from Qing Xuantian's inheritance. That Heaven Taboo Martial Skill possessed extremely ferocious might.

In the blink of an eye, many enormous lightning strikes began to strike down from the skies.

The lightning strikes were all several tens of meters thick, and dazzling blue in color. Each and every lightning strike contained extremely powerful might.

At that moment, over ten thousand such lightning strikes were descending from the sky. Furthermore, they were all targeting the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

“Damn it!”

In that sort of situation, the Dark Hall's Hall Master hurriedly turned around to escape. As he began to flee, he unleashed Heaven Taboo Martial Skills to defend against the incoming lightning strikes.

“That Dark Hall's Hall Master is most definitely extremely furious,” The Elf King said with a smile.

“Royal Father, what do you mean by that?” Xian Miaomiao and her older sister ran over and asked with extremely curious expressions.

“To a greater or lesser extent, I understand the character of the Dark Hall's Hall Master. He is different from little friend Chu Feng. Although little friend Chu Feng possesses outstanding strength, he also possesses a humble character. He is neither conceited nor arrogant.”

“However, that Dark Hall’s Hall Master is different. He is extremely conceited, excessively conceited even. When he fought against me, even though I was suppressing him, he still spoke words that showed that he clearly did not place me in his eyes.”

“It was as if he was certain that he would one day turn the situation around and suppress me instead. Of course, he managed to accomplish precisely that,” When mentioning that matter, the Elf King smiled in shame.

“However, little friend Chu Feng is different. Little friend Chu Feng is stronger than the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. However, in the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s eyes, little friend Chu Feng is the same as me, someone inferior to him.”

“He felt that suppressing little friend Chu Feng before was only natural. He felt that as little friend Chu Feng was inferior to him, him suppressing little friend Chu Feng was only a matter of course.”

“Thus, when he was suddenly injured by little friend Chu Feng’s slash, he became extremely furious.”

“As he feels that little friend Chu Feng is inferior to him, he was determined that little friend Chu Feng was only able to injure him by relying on tricks.”

“However now, little friend Chu Feng is no longer going easy on him, nor is he using any tricks. Instead, he is fighting the Dark Hall’s Hall Master head-on with his own abilities.”

“However, the result is that even though the two of them possess the same cultivation, the same Inherited Bloodline, the same level of techniques and the same battle power, little friend Chu Feng is still absolutely dominating the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.”

“This means that little friend Chu Feng’s strength surpasses that of the Dark Hall's Hall Master."

"This conclusion is definitely something that the Dark Hall's Hall Master cannot accept. As such, he will naturally be extremely furious," The Elf King explained.

"Humph, Chu Feng was stronger than him to begin with. Even if he refuses to accept it, it remains the truth."

"Back then, he was only able to bully Chu Feng by relying on the fact that he had cultivated longer than Chu Feng and possessed a higher cultivation than Chu Feng."

"Now that Chu Feng's cultivation is the same as his, he is no longer a match for Chu Feng. Serves him right. Someone like him is a true spineless coward," Xian Miaomiao said angrily.

Back then, she had personally seen the scene of the Dark Hall's Hall Master and the World Devastator Immortal humiliating Chu Feng at the Blood Devouring Killing Formation. It was not only Chu Feng who became extremely furious, even she was extremely furious by what had happened.

And now, Chu Feng was not only able to suppress the Dark hall's Hall Master, he was even making the Dark Hall's Hall Master flee in disarray. To Xian Miaomiao, this not only alleviated her anger, more than that, she... felt happy for Chu Feng.

Back then, Chu Feng's honor was trampled upon.

Today, he was finally able to seize it back himself.

"Hey hey hey, stop running away. Earlier, you spoke so boastfully. Yet now, what is this appearance? It seems that you're letting down those boasting words you've spoken, no?" Seeing that the Dark Hall's Hall Master could only run in disarray from his attack, Chu Feng began to insult the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

Chu Feng did this not only because he wanted to use this method to insult the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

Most importantly, Chu Feng discovered that although the Dark Hall's Hall Master was very smart and powerful, he possessed a fatal weakness — being too conceited.

Not only was he conceited, he refused to allow anyone to question his talent. It was precisely this weakness that Chu Feng wished to grasp and then deliver a punishing attack at so as to bring disorder upon his mind.

“Ignorant bastard, did you really think that you would be able to defeat this Hall Master with only those tricks of yours?”

“Chu Feng, today, this Hall Master shall let you know the disparity between us.”

“Also, you bunch of trash hiding in the Transmogrification Gate. All of you, look carefully.”

“Right now, this Hall Master shall broaden the horizons of you bunch of trash from the Lower Realm. I'll have you all experience strength that you have never seen before.”

The Dark Hall's Hall Master suddenly stopped running away. He raised the Imperial Armaments in his hand. Then, an extremely mighty power began to emit from his body.

That power swept toward all directions and forcibly dispersed Chu Feng's Heaven Taboo: Ten Thousand Lightning Strikes.

Most importantly, the sky was distorting. Soon, an enormous figure appeared in the sky.

It was a giant beast. This giant beast resembled a bear. However, it possessed neither arms or legs. Yet, it possessed an enormous mouth.

When not mentioning that mouth, this giant beast's body was so huge that no end could be seen. Its body covered the entire blue sky. It was as if the giant beast had replaced the sky.

After that enormous beast appeared, an extremely frightening aura began to emit from it, enveloping the entire earth.

The void started to tremble nonstop. The earth was trembling nonstop.

It was the sensation of the descent of doomsday.

“Heavens! What is that?!”

At that moment, many of the people in the Transmogrification Gate were so scared that their faces turned green. They were shivering from head to toe. In fact, some people even fainted on the spot.

Originally, as they were hidden in the Transmogrification Gate, they would not be threatened regardless of what might happen outside.

However, when that giant beast appeared, all of them were able to sense how frightening that giant beast was. The aura which that giant beast emitted was something that not even the Transmogrification Gate could resist.

“That seems to be a martial skill. However, it is impossible for Heaven Taboo Martial Skills to possess such a frightening power.”

“Could that be a legendary Divine Taboo Martial Skill?” At that moment, even the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal were frowning deeply. It was as the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had said, none of them had ever seen such a frightening technique.

At that moment, they involuntarily turned their gazes to Chu Feng again.

However, at that moment, their expressions changed once again.

Although they felt how frightening that enormous beast was, as they were hidden in the Transmogrification Gate, the strength of the enormous beast that they felt was most definitely only the tip of the iceberg. Being outside, what Chu Feng was feeling should be the actual terrifying oppression.

However, Chu Feng's expression actually remained unchanged. He revealed absolutely no fear. This sort of reaction surpassed everyone's Expectations.

Could it be that Chu Feng possessed a method to withstand that huge beast?

Although they felt it to be extremely inconceivable, the crowd still involuntarily thought of that possibility.

In truth, Chu Feng was indeed not afraid of that martial skill. Although it was also the first time Chu Feng had seen such a powerful martial skill, he did possess the means to take it on.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that the martial skill the Dark Hall's Hall Master had unleashed was actually... an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

Chapter 2109 – Incomplete Ancestral Armament

“Trash, why aren’t you saying anything? Are you scared speechless by my martial skill?”

“I might as well tell you. This is an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.”

“I bet a country bumpkin like you has never heard of Emperor Taboo Martial Skills before, right?”

“That’s no problem. Today, I shall show you great kindness, and teach you some knowledge.”

“Emperor Taboo Martial Skills are martial skills that Martial Emperors cannot use. As its name implies, Emperor Taboo Martial Skill are a taboo for Martial Emperors.”

“Thus, only actual Half Martial Ancestors are capable of learning Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.”

“However, this Hall Master is a genius. Although I am still only a Martial Emperor, I have already mastered this Emperor Taboo Martial Skill that is a taboo for Martial Emperors,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master spoke in an immensely proud manner to Chu Feng. His tone was filled with a sense of superiority.

“You should have only just grasped that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, right?” Chu Feng asked.

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was startled. His gaze turned complicated. Cautiously, he asked, “What is it that you’re trying to say?”

“I’m trying to say that your Emperor Taboo Martial Skill should be extremely powerful. However, it seems that you have yet to completely grasp it.”

“Look at it. That huge beast the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill creates should be extremely domineering and mighty. It should give off the sensation of the descent of a ruler upon appearing.”

“But, look at it. It doesn’t even have arms or legs. All it has is a single mouth. It looks like an utter joke. It gives off absolutely no sense of dominance at all.”

“Thus... it is truly a pity for that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill to be defiled by you,” Chu Feng said.

“Bastard! Are you mocking me?” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master asked furiously.

“You’re right, I am,” Chu Feng said with a laugh.

“Snap~~~”

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master immediately clenched his fists angrily. His furious gaze seemed to be capable of shooting out flames. He was truly infuriated by Chu Feng.

However, his anger lasted only a moment. After that moment, he started to laugh strangely. He said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, I’m changing my plans. Today, I will not kill you. Instead, I will make you wish that you were dead. I will make you beg me, kneel before me and beg me to kill you.”

“You’re thinking too much of yourself. You are incapable of doing that,” Chu Feng said mockingly.

“You will soon know whether or not I am capable,” After the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s words left his mouth, the huge beast in the sky suddenly opened its mouth. Immediately, a violent suction began to suck Chu Feng into its mouth.

“Crap! If Chu Feng is to be sucked into that giant beast’s mouth, it will definitely be disastrous!” Seeing that scene, the Elf King, Xian Miaomiao and the others were all deeply frightened.

“Your struggle is useless. Right now... you are nothing more than a puppet. I will be able to toy with you however I wish,” The Dark Hall's Hall Master laughed mockingly.

“That guy.”

However, his laughter suddenly froze. The reason for that was because he was shocked to discover that Chu Feng was not struggling against that suction power at all. Just like that, he allowed himself to be sucked into that giant beast's mouth.

Although Chu Feng was confident, the people that were concerned about his safety were nearly driven mad. For example, Xian Miaomiao and some other girls were crying already.

“Heeaahh!!!”

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly shouted explosively. Then, he raised one hand up and shot an explosive fist toward the giant beast in the sky.

“Snap~~~”

A loud sound was heard. The sound of something shattering actually sounded from the sky covered by that huge beast.

“Snap~~~ Snap~~~ Snap~~~”

Soon, the shattering sounds grew more and more numerous. At that moment, the crowd discovered that countless giant cracks had appeared on that enormous beast's vast body. Those cracks were rapidly extending and interweaving with one another.

“Rumble~~~”

Soon, a loud sound that was never before heard sounded. Then, that beast shattered into pieces. Like countless meteorites, its shattered body began to fall from the sky.

Merely, as its body was formed with martial power, it did not land on the ground. Instead, they turned into streams of martial power that assimilated into the void.

Although the sky was extremely frightening before, it was very beautiful now.

Most importantly, although the giant beast that covered the sky had been destroyed, a special sort of power was still hovering in the sky. Merely, no one had discovered that power.

“Heavens, Chu Feng, he... he actually managed to destroy the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.”

At that moment, even the Elf King and the others were stunned. To them, it seemed as if Chu Feng had only shot a punch toward the beast. How could a single punch possess such power?

Their astonishment was understandable. After all, they did not know that Chu Feng had learned many Heaven Taboo Martial Skills, and even an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill from Qing Xuantian’s inheritance.

Chu Feng’s fist strike earlier was no ordinary fist strike. Instead, it was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

“Impossible, this is impossible!!!”

“You, trash that grew up in this land, how could you have possibly grasped an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill?”

At that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master reacted as if he had received an enormous shock. Although others were unable to tell, he was able to tell that Chu Feng had used an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill earlier.

However, that was something that he was unwilling to admit, something that he could not accept. He had spent great difficulty in order to learn that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. Yet, Chu Feng actually knew an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill too.

Most importantly, Chu Feng’s mastery of his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was actually much more skillful than his own. Chu Feng had managed to easily destroy his own Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, rumbles began to sound from the sky. Turning their heads toward the sky, the crowd was all stunned and felt utter disbelief.

At that moment, many rays of light appeared in the sky. Those lights were interweaving with one another and covering the entire sky.

Most importantly, those lights emitted an aura even more frightening than the aura emitted by that huge beast earlier.

“This is the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation.”

“In this Lower Realm that you look down upon, this Martial Skill was learned by someone ten thousand years ago,” Chu Feng said mockingly.

“Heavens, so Chu Feng actually also grasped a legendary Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. No wonder, no wonder he was able to easily destroy the Dark Hall Hall Master’s Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.”

The crowd burst into an uproar. Seeing the light that filled the sky, the crowd reacted as if they had seen hope. They felt that regardless of how powerful the Dark Hall’s Hall Master might be, he would still be defeated today.

Merely, before that, no one had expected that Chu Feng would make such an enormous improvement.

“Dark Hall’s Hall Master, what other tricks do you have? Feel free to use them. Else... I will be ending you,” Chu Feng said.

“Heh...”

“Hehehe....”

“Hahahaha...”

“Wahahahahaha...”

Suddenly, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master burst into frantic laughter. His laughter was extremely frightening. It simply did not sound like the voice of a human.

“Chu Feng, I truly never expected that trash like you would be able to force this Hall Master into such a state.”

“However, that’s fine. I shall let you all know exactly how powerful the strength this Hall Master really has.”

After the Dark Hall’s Hall Master said those words, his wrist started to shine brightly. It was only at that moment that the crowd discovered he had a bracelet on his wrist.

That bracelet was emitting dazzling golden light. At that moment, that bracelet flew off of the wrist of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and began to float before him.

As that bracelet shone with brightness, an aura even more powerful than the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill swept forth.

“So that’s it,” Upon seeing that bracelet, Chu Feng’s eyes also shone.

He had already realized that that bracelet was an extraordinary item, and should be an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

Chapter 2110 – See Your Performance

“Roar~~~”

Once the Incomplete Ancestral Armament appeared, layers of golden gaseous flames were emitted from within the bracelet.

As the golden gaseous flames surged forth, the bracelet began to hover forward.

Soon, with the Incomplete Ancestral Armament as the center, the golden gaseous flames turned into a giant monster.

It was a golden giant. It was a thousand meters tall, and wore golden armor. Covered with dazzling golden light, it looked like a golden god of war.

Although its entire body was filled with light, the oppressive sensation that it emitted was much more frightening than that of the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill the Dark Hall’s Hall Master used previously.

“Quickly, set up formation!”

In that sort of situation, even though the crowd were all hidden in the Transmogrification Gate, they still rushed to set up a defensive formation to withstand the oppressive might.

Else, merely that oppressive might would’ve been enough to slaughter them.

It was only with the combined efforts of the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal that they managed to block the oppressive might that had managed to enter the Transmogrification Gate. However, even though the two of them were working together, they were still placed under enormous pressure.

“What formidable power. Exactly what is that?”

At that moment, the Heaven Reaching Immortal was frowning.

As the master of the gate, he knew how powerful the Transmogrification Gate was.

Even though the Transmogrification Gate was incapable of blocking all powers, it was capable of blocking the majority of them. As such, the people from the Transmogrification Gate should be safe from harm.

Yet, at that moment, the oppressive might that managed to invade the Transmogrification Gate was already enough to strangle the people in the Transmogrification Gate. If they had not set up formation immediately, there would likely have been a great amount of casualties.

They truly never expected that the Dark Hall's Hall Master would be so powerful. At that moment, they felt fear from the Dark Hall's Hall Master from the bottom of their hearts.

"Chu Feng, today... I will broaden your horizons and let you gain knowledge. I shall let you know exactly what that is," The Dark Hall's Hall Master pointed to his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and spoke proudly.

"Isn't that just an Incomplete Ancestral Armament?" Chu Feng interrupted him.

"You... you actually know what an Incomplete Ancestral Armament is?" The Dark Hall's Hall Master revealed an expression of shock.

"Not only do I know that it's an Incomplete Ancestral Armament, I also know that you should have just subdued that Incomplete Ancestral Armament," Chu Feng said.

"Your eyesight's pretty good. That's right... The reason why I sat motionless when my clones were fighting against the Moon Immortal was precisely because I was using my world spirit formations, as well as my other methods, to subdue this Incomplete Ancestral Armament."

“Logically, it is simply impossible for Martial Emperors to subdue Incomplete Ancestral Armaments.”

“The reason for that is because subduing an Incomplete Ancestral Armament is much more difficult than learning an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said. He was immensely proud of himself as he said those words.

He had said all those things so that he could tell everyone that his talent was incomparable to ordinary people, that Chu Feng could not be placed on par with him.

“I can tell that you’ve spent meticulous effort in order to subdue that Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

“Unfortunately, that Incomplete Ancestral Armament is the same as the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill you used earlier. Like before, you are simply unable to completely grasp it,” Chu Feng said.

“Bullshit!” Seeing that Chu Feng had actually dared to disregard the results of his efforts, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master cursed out at him.

“Heh...” However, Chu Feng was not enraged by the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s curse. Instead, he laughed lightly and then said, “If you insist on deceiving yourself, there is nothing I can do about it.”

“You don’t even have an Incomplete Ancestral Armament, yet you dare to criticize me?! Who the hell do you think you are?!” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master continued to rain curses upon Chu Feng. It was like the Elf King said, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was extremely conceited, and could not tolerate others insulting his talent.

“Haha...” Chu Feng did not answer him, and instead chuckled. However, his chuckle was filled with contempt and mockery. It was as if he simply did not place the Dark Hall’s Hall Master in his eyes at all.

“You are truly someone who will not tear up until you see your own coffin! I’ll let you know how powerful this Hall Master is right away!” As the Dark Hall’s Hall Master spoke, he pointed his hand at Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, the golden god of war that stood before the Dark Hall’s Hall Master raised its enormous arm.

As the arm was raised, an enormous sword extended from its palm. Then, it aimed its palm at Chu Feng and hacked down. Immediately, the sword’s blade was filled with light as it sliced through the void and toward Chu Feng.

The speed was so fast that the sword was simply going to cleave Chu Feng in two from head to toe in an instant.

“Buzz~~~”

However, at this moment of imminent peril, Chu Feng remained completely calm. Suddenly, he raised his arm, and a huge fiery red sword appeared above him.

“Clank~~~”

The sound of a metallic collision was heard as golden light scattered all over. When the golden light began to weaken, the crowd members were all tongue-tied by the scene before them.

The enormous sword that should have been unstoppable was actually blocked. It was blocked by that fiery red sword.

“That aura, it’s not at all inferior to that Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

“Chu Feng, Chu Feng he... he actually also possesses an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

Sensing the mighty aura emitted by the fiery red sword, the crowd members were all pleasantly surprised.

They were no fools. Merely by the might of the fiery red sword, they were able to tell how powerful it was.

If the Dark Hall's Hall Master's bracelet was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament, then Chu Feng's fiery red sword should definitely also be an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

"Chu Feng, how many more methods do you possess that we do not know of?" At that moment, the Elf King's eyes were filled with admiration.

Today, the techniques and methods that the Dark Hall's Hall Master used had all surpassed their imagination. Yet, Chu Feng was able to calmly respond to them in succession.

As matters stood, he finally realized why Chu Feng was so calm and confident. It turned out that he possessed many cards up his sleeve.

"How could this be? You also possess an Incomplete Ancestral Armament?! No... that's impossible! How could you possess an Incomplete Ancestral Armament?! How could such a desolate place possess an Incomplete Ancestral Armament?!"

The Dark Hall's Hall Master was filled with astonishment. His expression was extremely ugly. His cheeks were shivering. He had revealed to everyone that he was unable to accept the fact before him.

In reality, what he was most unable to accept was not the fact that Chu Feng possessed an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Rather, it was that Chu Feng was actually also capable of using his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, because this had completely trampled the last bit of superiority that he possessed.

"Dark Hall's Hall Master, I truly never expected that you would force me into such a state. However, since you've already forced me into such a state, it is time to end this battle."

"Have you made your preparations?"

"The preparations to die," Chu Feng looked to the Dark Hall's Hall Master with a beaming smile on his face.

“Bastard! You dare to use that sort of mocking tone to speak to me?! I’m going to kill you!” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master shouted angrily. That golden god of war turned into a ray of light that flew toward Chu Feng.

This time around, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was not holding back in the slightest. He had gone all-out to kill Chu Feng. As matters stood, he had realized that he underestimated Chu Feng.

He could not hold back. Else, he might end up becoming the person that was defeated today!!!

“Roar~~~”

Seemingly sensing the determination of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, that golden god of war let out an ear-piercing roar.

It’s killing intent was overflowing, and filled the entire region. It’s killing intent was so chilly that even the crowd in the Transmogrification Gate started to shiver.

“It’s time to see your performance. Don’t let me down.”

With a smile on his face, Chu Feng gently caressed the Magma Emperor Sword he held in his hand. Then, seemingly as if the Magma Emperor Sword had realized Chu Feng’s intentions, it turned into a ray of flame as it charged forth toward the golden god of war.

Chapter 2111 – Unbelievable

“Boom~~~”

The fiery sword pierced through the vast sky. Its power was filled with dominance.

Even though many people were unable to see the scene of the fiery sword piercing through the skies, they were able to sense the might it emitted. It was even more fierce than before.

“Paa~~~”

A shocking scene appeared. The golden war of god extended its hand and directly grabbed the Magma Emperor Sword.

“Hahaha, is this your so-called Incomplete Ancestral Armament? The way I see it, it is nothing more than a bluff. This Incomplete Ancestral Armament of yours is a fake, isn’t it?” Seeing that his own Incomplete Imperial Armament had obtained victory with a single strike, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master burst into loud and proud laughter.

“Fake? Lord Chu Feng’s Incomplete Ancestral Armament is a fake?”

After hearing what the Dark Hall’s Hall Master declared, suspicion rose in the hearts of many people in the Transmogrification Gate.

It was not that they did not believe in Chu Feng. Merely, as they were both Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, how could there be such an enormous disparity?

“Boom~~~”

However, the very next moment, that golden god of war’s hand suddenly exploded.

At the same time, a soaring and blazing flame burst forth. In an instant, it completely swallowed a range of ten thousand meters in the sky.

“Boom~~~”

At the moment when the crowd were all confused, that golden war of god’s enormous body had fallen to the ground.

Furthermore, an enormous leg covered with flame was stepping on its body. It turned out... that it had been trampled to the ground by someone.

Upon closer inspection, the complexions of the crowd all turned pale. Their eyes and mouths were wide open. They were struck dumb.

At that moment, a fiery giant stood on the thousand-meter-tall golden god of war’s body. That flame giant was thousands of meters tall, much larger than the golden god of war.

“Motherfucker! If this Emperor doesn’t show you his might, you’d take me as a diseased cat, eh?”

Most shockingly, that flame giant actually spoke.

As the Magma Emperor spoke those words, he lifted his foot and then stomped it down ruthlessly.

“Boom~~~”

A loud explosion was heard. Even the crowd hiding inside the Transmogrification Gate felt an enormous trembling.

As for the outside of the Transmogrification Gate, it was filled with dispersing golden light, and energy ripples that wreaked havoc all around. That golden god of war had been shattered by the stomp.

“No, this is impossible! This is absolutely impossible!!!”

At that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was grabbing his head with his hands. Disbelief filled his face. He was simply on the verge of collapse.

He felt that everything before him was so very unbelievable. It was not because the Magma Emperor Sword was very powerful. Rather, it was because the Magma Emperor Sword was actually capable of speaking.

He knew very well that Incomplete Ancestral Armaments that could speak were actual Incomplete Ancestral Armaments. Furthermore, it was only after an Incomplete Ancestral Armament was completely subdued by its master that it could fight with its own awareness and be able to speak.

And that... was something that he could not accomplish.

Yet... what he had failed to accomplish was accomplished by Chu Feng.

He finally realized that Chu Feng's insults toward him were not because he was overly arrogant and conceited. Instead, it was Chu Feng possessing the qualifications to insult him.

"Everyone, look, that golden giant is gone. It completely disappeared."

"Lord Chu Feng won! Lord Chu Feng has won!!!"

"Amazing! Lord Chu Feng is truly unrivaled!"

Although the Dark Hall Hall Master's Incomplete Ancestral Armament had crumbled apart, the hundreds of millions of people inside the Transmogrification Gate were cheering.

They were all able to tell that the battle was going to end. Chu Feng had defeated the Dark Hall's Hall Master that even the Moon Immortal had failed to defeat.

"No, how could this be?! How could this be?!"

At the moment when the crowd were all cheering, the expressions of the Heaven Reaching Immortal and the Ancient Era's Elves' Grand Elders all changed enormously. Deep fear filled their eyes.

Even the Elf King who would always remain calm and collected had a pale complexion just then. Even his body was trembling slightly.

“Royal Father, what’s wrong?” Sensing that something was amiss, Xian Miaomiao and Princess Lingyue hurriedly supported their father. They had never before seen their father acting in such a manner.

“That is the Magma Emperor, the Magma Emperor that nearly destroyed our Holy Land of Martialism ten thousand years ago,” The Elf King said.

“What? The Magma Emperor? Where? Where?” Hearing those words, the people in the Transmogrification Gate all started to panic. To a greater or lesser degree, fear emerged on the faces of everyone in the crowd.

Even though the Magma Emperor was only a legend, and very few people had actually seen it, to them, the Magma Emperor remained an existence even more frightening than the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Xian Miaomiao looked around and then asked, “Magma Emperor? Royal Father, what are you talking about? Didn’t the Magma Emperor die long ago? Why would the Magma Emperor be here now?”

“That is the Magma Emperor, that over there is the Magma Emperor,” The Elf King pointed to the Magma Emperor with flames rising from its body.

“Impossible, t-t-t-that is actually the Magma Emperor? Isn’t that Chu Feng’s Incomplete Ancestral Armament? Why would it be the Magma Emperor?”

“Exactly what is going on? Could it be that Lord Chu Feng is controlled by the Magma Emperor?”

Hearing what the Elf King said, the crowd all started to panic.

Originally, there were people that thought that the Elf King was joking. However, upon seeing the huge monster with flames blazing from its body, they realized that it greatly resembled the legendary Magma Emperor.

Furthermore, the power that it emitted made it very possible for it to be the legendary Magma Emperor.

At that moment, Chu Feng suddenly said, “You can return now. Your job here is done.”

“Damned brat, how could this Emperor possibly listen to your orders and be controlled by you?” The Magma Emperor let out an angry snarl. It turned around and planned to attack Chu Feng.

“Ahh~~~”

“Noo~~~”

However, before the Magma Emperor could do anything, it let out a miserable scream. Its body began to rapidly decrease in size. Soon, the several thousand meter-tall enormous body had turned into the Magma Emperor Sword that was covered in blazing flames.

“So disrespectful. It would seem... that I will have to properly teach you a lesson again.”

Chu Feng extended his hand and then made a grabbing gesture. The Magma Emperor Sword immediately flew into his grasp. Then, Chu Feng flicked the Magma Emperor Sword, causing it to let out a strange motion.

“Bastard, stop!” The Magma Emperor let out a scream again. This time around, the scream sounded even more miserable.

“You dare to continue to address me as bastard?” Chu Feng raised his hand and flicked the Magma Emperor Sword again. This time around, the motion was even stronger.

“I got it, this Emperor understands, okay? Quickly, stop,” The Magma Emperor let out another miserable scream. However, that time around, it admitted defeat.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng smiled complacently.

If the Magma Emperor had not fused with the Incomplete Ancestral Armament, Chu Feng would really not be able to sort it out.

After all, it was a fellow that did not fear death. To people that were not afraid of death, how could one possibly make it fear anything else?

However, the Magma Emperor had turned into an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Furthermore, it was being controlled by Chu Feng. As such, Chu Feng possessed many means to take care of it.

Earlier, Chu Feng had only flicked the sword lightly. Yet, that had caused the Magma Emperor incomparable pain.

Most importantly, the Magma Emperor was unable to die even if it wanted to. It could only endure that sort of pain.

Furthermore, that pain was simply unbearable. Regardless of how tough someone might be, they would not be able to endure that pain.

As such, it could only give in to Chu Feng. Even though it was extremely unwilling to do so, it could only obey Chu Feng's order.

Even if it was still unreconciled, there was nothing it could do to Chu Feng as the Incomplete Ancestral Armament had already been subdued by Chu Feng. As for it, it was only the Incomplete Ancestral Armament's soul.

Chu Feng would still be able to use the Incomplete Ancestral Armament without its help. However, it would have to endure that sort of pain inflicted by Chu Feng forever. Thus, when weighing the pros and cons, it naturally decided to submit to Chu Feng.

“Am... am I seeing things?”

At that moment, the people in the Transmogrification Gate that were filled with fear earlier were standing with mouths wide open as they stared at Chu Feng. They appeared to have been petrified.

They had all born witness to the scene of Chu Feng teaching the Magma Emperor a lesson. Merely... they felt it to be too unbelievable.

After all, it was the renowned Magma Emperor that Chu Feng was tormenting earlier.

Chapter 2112 – The Outcome Of The Battle

“So that’s the case, so that’s the case,” At that moment, the Elf King revealed an overjoyed expression. He gasped in admiration. “Although I do not know what sort of method little friend Chu Feng used, it appears that he has truly subdued the Magma Emperor, making it serve him.”

“Elf King, what you said is correct. Little friend Chu Feng is truly a miracle maker,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said to the Elf King. A smile covered his face. At the same time, there was also a trace of astonishment.

It would be one thing if it were some other existence that was subdued by Chu Feng. However, this was the Magma Emperor, the legendary Magma Emperor that nearly destroyed the entire Holy Land of Martialism ten thousand years ago.

“So, Lord Chu Feng really, he really subdued the Magma Emperor?”

“Amazing! This is simply godly! Simply too unbelievable!” After hearing what the conversation between the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal, the crowd’s expressions became even more brilliant.

Excitement. An indescribable excitement filled the hearts of everyone present.

“Woosh~~~”

After putting the Magma Emperor Sword away, Chu Feng suddenly extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. Immediately, a ray of light entered his hand.

It was a bracelet. That bracelet was precisely the Incomplete Ancestral Armament the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had been using earlier.

“Dark Hall’s Hall Master, starting from now, you are to answer all my questions.”

“If you do not answer honestly, I will make you suffer,” Chu Feng said to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Even though the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was not injured, he appeared to have completely lost his will to battle.

A Dark Hall’s Hall Master like that did not pose any threat to Chu Feng.

“Trash like you is not qualified to get words out of my mouth,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said.

“Oh?” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he formed a spirit formation on his palm and placed it onto the bracelet.

“You want to sever my connection with my Incomplete Ancestral Armament? It is not that I am looking down on you. Rather, it is truly impossible for you to do that,” The Dark Hall’s Hall Master said mockingly.

“Is that right?” Chu Feng smiled again. Then, he said, “If you had truly managed to completely subdue this Incomplete Imperial Armament, it would naturally be impossible for me to sever your connection with it with the power I currently possess.”

“However, the truth is that you have yet to completely subdue this Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Thus, it would not be hard for me to sever your connection with it.”

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s expression turned stiff. A trace of fear appeared in his eyes.

He felt that what Chu Feng said was very reasonable.

However, upon thinking about it some more, he recalled that Incomplete Ancestral Armaments were different from Imperial Armaments. Thus, it would be very difficult to sever the connection an Incomplete Ancestral Armament had with its master. It would be something impossible to accomplish even for him.

When it would be impossible for even him, how would Chu Feng be able to accomplish it?

No, he absolutely refused to believe that Chu Feng's world spirit techniques could surpass his own.

Thus, the worry that he had in his heart soon vanished. He started to smile, and said to Chu Feng mockingly, "Since you said it that easily, go ahead and give it a try then."

"I shall see exactly how you, trash, can sever my connection with my Incomplete Ancestral Armament."

"I'll satisfy you," As Chu Feng spoke, he exerted strength with his palm. Immediately, it started to shine brightly.

"Puu~~~"

The very next moment, the Dark Hall's Hall Master opened his mouth and vomited a mouthful of blood.

After he vomited that mouthful of blood, the Dark Hall's Hall Master's expression became extremely ugly. Blood was also flowing from his eyes, nose and ears.

Most importantly, his body became extremely weak. In fact, many people were even able to see that the Dark Hall's Hall Master was... trembling. He was trembling uncontrollably.

However, the Dark Hall's Hall Master had no time to concern himself with those things. He raised his head and looked to Chu Feng. "You, you actually..."

At that moment, his eyes were not only filled with anger, but also astonishment. However, it was mostly covered with pain.

Earlier, he had deeply looked down on Chu Feng. However, as matters stood, after he had personally fought against Chu Feng, he had no choice but to admit that Chu Feng was a very powerful opponent.

Not only did Chu Feng's talent for martial cultivation surpass his own, even Chu Feng's world spirit techniques surpassed his own.

He felt extremely unreconciled. The more he admitted the truth, the more pained he felt.

Painful, it was truly painful. This sort of pain did not originate from his body. Rather, it came from deep within his heart.

The pain that was the most difficult to endure in this world was pain from one's heart.

Even for the Dark Hall's Hall Master, that pain was something that he couldn't endure.

"No, this is not real, this is not real!"

Thus, the Dark Hall's Hall Master began to firmly clench his fists and attack the void before him. His attacks shattered the void unceasingly.

He was using that sort of method to relieve himself, to vent his anger and alleviate his pain.

As for Chu Feng, he stood there watching him, watching the struggle of the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

He would not disturb the Dark Hall's Hall Master. To Chu Feng, he would rather watch him, watch this ruthless fellow, suffer torment to his heart and soul for a longer period of time. To him, that could be said to be a sort of punishment; a punishment for taking so many innocent lives.

That situation persisted for an entire hour. Only then did the Dark Hall's Hall Master slowly raise his head. At that moment, he had managed to calm his state of mind to a relatively stable level.

"Chu Feng, I am willing to answer your questions. However, you must first answer one of my questions," The Dark Hall's Hall Master said.

"Speak away," Chu Feng said.

“Why would someone like you be in a place like this? Even in the Outer World, you should be considered to be a genius, no?”

“Why did you come here? Why?” asked the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. A sense of irreconciliation was present in his tone when he asked that question. If it wasn’t for Chu Feng, his plan would’ve been a success.

In the beginning, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had only felt Chu Feng to be someone abandoned by the Outer World, someone unworthy of mention. The reason for that was because he was someone that would be considered to be a genius even in the Outer World. As such, how could Chu Feng possibly compare to him? However, as matters stood, he had changed his opinion of Chu Feng.

He began to face Chu Feng squarely. Merely, even he knew that it was too late to treat Chu Feng seriously now.

“I am unable to answer that question,” Chu Feng said, “It is your turn to answer me now.”

“What is your surname? How did you get here?” Chu Feng asked.

“Haha... you truly act as if you are high and above. Did you think that you were certain you could defeat me?”

“Chu Feng, you are mistaken. I still have a trump card that I have yet to use.”

“As long as I possess this trump card, you will forever be unable to defeat me in this Holy Land of Martialism,” After saying those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master revealed a strange smile.

“Trying to escape?”

Chu Feng realized that the situation was bad the moment he saw that smile. His body shifted, and he arrived before the Dark Hall’s Hall Master while holding the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader in his hand. Using the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader, he slashed at the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Buzz~~~”

However, as Chu Feng’s Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader slashed at the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, a strange light was emitted from the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s body. That light instantly covered him.

That light was extremely powerful. It emitted an overwhelming aura of righteousness. Regardless of how Chu Feng attacked it, he was unable to break through it.

Chu Feng felt a sensation he had never felt before from that light. He knew that... with his strength, it would be impossible for him to break through that light.

Chapter 2113 – Realm of Gods

“Chu Feng, do you realize this now? No matter how talented you are, when before absolute power, you will remain only an ant.”

“I admit that I was defeated in the battle today. I was defeated by you in this one-on-one battle.”

“That’s why I will definitely win next time. Next time, I will truly make you all open your eyes wide in amazement.”

“I will let you all know exactly how powerful of a background this Hall Master possess.”

After saying those words, the light that covered the Dark Hall’s Hall Master suddenly grew even more dazzling. It was so dazzling that even Chu Feng was forced to cover his face and move back.

When that light disappeared, the people were shocked to discover that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had... disappeared.

“It’s that trick again,” Chu Feng started to frown.

That was precisely the method the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had used to escape the Moon Immortal at the Icesnow Plains.

That escape method was extremely powerful. Likely, it was some sort of escaping treasure. Chu Feng was frowning because there was nothing he could do about the escape technique that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Suddenly, rumbles could be heard. Chu Feng raised his head upward, and discovered that it was the Transmogrification Gate opening.

“Chu Feng.”

After the gate was opened, many young and beautiful figures rushed toward Chu Feng.

They were Xian Miaomiao, Sima Ying and the others. Among them, Xian Miaomiao's speed was the fastest. At that moment, she had already arrived before Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, you are amazing. You made that Dark Hall's Hall Master piss his pants in terror. I shall see whether he will dare to act so arrogantly again in the future,” Xian Miaomiao was jumping and hopping; she was extremely happy. It was as if she was feeling very elated.

Lil' Red was standing on Xian Miaomiao's shoulder. Complacency filled its insect face. Bouncing vivaciously, it said, “That's right, that's right. Great Sir is so very awesome. As expected of my Great Sir.”

“Long live Lord Chu Feng, long live Lord Chu Feng.”

“Lord Chu Feng, you are simply our savior. You have saved our lives.”

“Lord Chu Feng, even the Magma Emperor has been subdued by you! You are simply akin to a god to us!!!”

“Finally, an overlord has appeared in our era. That overlord is you, Lord Chu Feng!!!”

“Thank you Lord Chu Feng, thank you Lord Chu Feng!!!”

.....

.....

Chu Feng discovered that, being led by the Elf King and the Heaven Reaching Immortal, many people came out of the Transmogrification Gate.

Seeing that, Chu Feng hurriedly shouted, “Everyone, please hear me out!!! The Dark Hall's Hall Master is still alive. You all cannot exit the Transmogrification Gate yet. Please return to the Transmogrification Gate immediately. The Holy Land of Martialism is still extremely dangerous right now.”

“Ah?!!!” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd were all startled.

However, they soon managed to react to Chu Feng’s words. The people that came out of the Transmogrification Gate hurriedly pushed at the people behind them. They were even shouting, “Quickly, return, we must return. Didn’t you hear what Lord Chu Feng said? The outside is not safe yet. Quickly, return to the Transmogrification Gate.”

Chu Feng’s warning was very useful. The crowd could be said to be extremely obedient toward Chu Feng. Soon, those people that wanted to come out all obediently returned to the Transmogrification Gate.

However, the Elf King and the others still walked toward Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, never would I have expected that you would really succeed. This old man has truly not misjudged you.”

“Say, how did you manage to subdue the Magma Emperor? I am extremely curious,” The Compass Immortal and the others began to praise Chu Feng without holding back. Chu Feng had truly broadened their horizons today.

As for Chu Feng, he was smiling without saying anything. When he saw the Compass Immortal walking out of the Transmogrification Gate, a boulder on his heart finally dropped.

Earlier, he had been extremely worried that the Compass Immortal did not listen to him, and had not gone to find the Transmogrification Gate. And now... he was finally relieved.

“Chu Feng, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master should’ve escaped. What do you plan to do now?” The Elf King asked.

Once the Elf King asked those words, the crowd all grew quiet. Although the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had been driven away by Chu Feng, it remained that he was still alive. The most important matter now was how to take care of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“Seniors, please rest assured. I left an imprint on the Dark Hall’s Hall Master when I was fighting him. That imprint is very well-hidden. I believe that he will not be able to discover it.”

“I am able to pursue him by following that imprint. He cannot escape,” Chu Feng said.

“Was it when you used the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader to injure him?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked in astonishment.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Never would I have expected that you already had a plan in mind, and had already planned ahead at that time,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal gasped in admiration upon finding out that his guess was true.

“That Dark Hall’s Hall Master escaped from the Icesnow Plains using that special technique. As he was able to use it once, he would inevitably be able to use it again.”

“As my strength is was about the same as his own, it would naturally be impossible for me to kill him with a single strike. As such, I had to make preparations ahead of time,” Chu Feng explained.

After hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd did not say much. Instead, deep admiration appeared in their eyes.

Such a trick was something that even they would not necessarily be able to think of. Yet, Chu Feng had thought of it.

Not only did he think of it, he had also managed to accomplish it. That caused them to feel admiration for Chu Feng from the bottoms of their hearts.

“Chu Feng, are we able to assist you?” The Elf King asked.

“I keep feeling that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master might be related to me. Thus... I feel that it’s better that I take care of this personally,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. In that case, are you able to sense where the Dark Hall’s Hall Master is at now?” The Elf King asked.

“I am able to sense his direction. However, as the distance is too great, I am unable to ascertain his position,” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, there is no time to waste. Go ahead and chase after him. You don’t have to worry about us,” The Elf King said.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded. Then, he turned around and left.

He did not bring the Four Great Divine Beasts with him. The reason for that was because, as matters stood, the Four Great Divine Beasts would not be able to help him either.

As for the Four Great Divine Beasts, they understood Chu Feng’s intentions. Thus, they hid inside the Transmogrification Gate with everyone else.

.....

Chu Feng chased after the Dark Hall’s Hall Master continuously for many days without rest.

However, he suddenly stopped at this moment.

The reason for that was because enormous tall walls had appeared before him.

Those walls were glistening with light; they were walls formed with a spirit formation. Those spirit formation walls were extremely firm. They were impossible for even the current Chu Feng to destroy.

However, in the center of that world spirit wall was an enormous gate. Inside the gate... looked like a different world.

Firstly, the flowers, plants and trees inside the gate were all things that Chu Feng had never seen before. Furthermore, most importantly... An extremely dense Ancient Era’s aura was being emitted from that place.

It was as if all the grasses and trees in that place were all from the Ancient Era.

That place was the most famous location in the Holy Land of Martialism. It was also the most dangerous forbidden area.

The Ancient Era's Cemetery, also known as the Realm of Gods.

After Chu Feng stared at the Realm of Gods for a very long time, he carefully took out an item from his Cosmos Sack.

It was a ladle, a seemingly very ordinary ladle. However, when Chu Feng held that ladle before, his Inherited Bloodline had throbbed twice. It had caused a special reaction from his Inherited Bloodline.

Merely, after Chu Feng took a glance at the ladle, he put it away. Then, he raised his head and looked to the Realm of Gods.

“Never would I expect to come to this place by chasing after the Dark Hall's Hall Master.”

Chu Feng sighed emotionally. Back then, Chu Feng had wanted to come to the Realm of Gods before he even set foot into the Overlord Domain.

It was for no other reason than the fact that that ladle brought forth a special sensation to him. That sensation was so familiar, yet so indescribable. As for that ladle, it had originated from the Realm of Gods.

Merely, after Chu Feng entered the Overlord Domain, things had begun to happen unceasingly. He ended up going to a lot of places, to do a lot of things, and did not have the time to do what he wanted to do.

Thus, Chu Feng had not been able to go to the Realm of Gods the entire time.

And now, he was finally here. He had arrived at the place where he had wanted to go the entire time. Merely, upon getting there

Chu Feng was slightly hesitant, and slightly afraid of stepping into the Realm of Gods.

It was for no other reason than the words spoken by the Dark Hall's Hall Master before.

Chu Feng was able to tell that the Dark Hall's Hall Master didn't seem to be joking with him. It seemed that he truly possessed helpers in the Holy Land of Martialism.

However, as matters stood, Chu Feng possessed no alternatives. He must enter the Realm of Gods. Even if enormous dangers awaited him in the Realm of Gods, he must still enter.

Chapter 2114 – Can Only Wait For Death

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng started to move. He turned into a ray of light and entered the Realm of Gods that no one dared to enter.

Upon entering the Realm of Gods, Chu Feng was able to sense the aura of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Thus, Chu Feng did not proceed randomly. Instead, he followed the aura of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

One thing worthy of being mentioned was that Chu Feng did not feel any danger upon entering the Realm of Gods.

Instead, the Realm of Gods was completely different from how he had imagined it to be. This place was not desolate and barren. Instead, there were lush amounts of plants. Furthermore, they were all plants that Chu Feng had never seen before.

Even the water flowing in this place was extra sweet. The reason why Chu Feng knew was because he had been bold enough to drink the water out of curiosity.

In short, everything in the Realm of Gods was very beautiful. This place was so beautiful that it resembled a land of Immortals, a paradise.

Forbidden area? That term seemed to be completely unrelated to this place.

The forest was very dense. It stretched for several hundred thousand miles. For ordinary people, they would not be able to walk through such a forest.

However, Chu Feng was able to rapidly pass through it. After passing through the forest, he entered a vast desert.

“Thump, thump~~~”

After he entered the desert, Chu Feng’s Inherited Bloodline suddenly throbbed twice.

Chu Feng stopped and grabbed the sand on the ground. Even though it was the first time that he had touched this sand, he felt a feeling of familiarity from it.

Even though Chu Feng’s Inherited Bloodline was no longer throbbing, the blood in his entire body was rolling intensely over and over.

It was boiling over. This was the sensation of one’s blood racing.

“This place is most definitely related to my Inherited Bloodline.”

“But, exactly what is it? Who would be able to tell me the answer?”

As Chu Feng looked to the desert as far as the eye could see, his gaze started to tense up.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng moved again. Like a wild dragon galloping through the desert, his speed was not only extremely fast, but he also gave rise to two streams of violent sand smoke that fluttered about in all directions.

Chu Feng continued to chase after the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. Soon, he reached the depths of the desert.

At that moment, Chu Feng gasped at how vast the Realm of Gods was. It truly surpassed his imagination.

Most importantly, his Inherited Bloodline would, from time to time, end up throbbing twice.

That sort of sensation seemed as if it were reminding Chu Feng that this place... was his home.

“No longer moving?”

Suddenly, Chu Feng started to frown. He was able to sense that the Dark Hall's Hall Master was no longer moving. Instead, he'd stopped somewhere.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng did not slow his pace. As matters stood, he had no choice but to continue onward.

After traveling some more, Chu Feng used his Heaven's Eyes to observe the place before him. Immediately, his expression turned sluggish.

Astonishment filled his face. Chu Feng was truly shocked. It had been a very long time since Chu Feng had been so intensely shocked. It was a feeling as if all of the pores in his body were opened.

A large amount of palaces appeared before him. Their numbers were magnificent, and simply boundless. They could not be described with the word 'city.' Instead, they would be better described as a 'country.'

The buildings in that place were all very imposing and domineering, each possessing their own unique charm.

Not to mention that the palaces were impregnable, merely by looking at their physical appearances, one could tell that they were not things that ordinary people were capable of designing. Before Chu Feng had arrived before those vast palaces, even he would not have been able to design palaces like them.

Chu Feng felt that the people capable of designing those sorts of palaces were most definitely extraordinary individuals.

Furthermore, Chu Feng discovered that while the palaces were ancient, they did not emit any Ancient Era's aura.

It meant that those palaces should have been constructed after the Ancient Era.

More importantly, when Chu Feng saw those palaces, his Inherited Bloodline started to throb more intensely.

Although that state did not persist for long, it was the most intense reaction his Inherited Bloodline has had since he'd entered the Realm of Gods.

“It is time to find the answer. Regardless of whether I live or die, I must know what sort of relationship this place possesses with my clan.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng once again started to move onward. Passing through the various palaces, Chu Feng finally arrived before a vast gate, and discovered a familiar figure.

It was the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

“You actually managed to find me?”

The Dark Hall's Hall Master revealed a shocked expression upon seeing Chu Feng.

“I will not let you get away this time around,” Chu Feng said.

“Hahaha, Chu Feng, you are truly amusing.”

“You actually dare to still threaten me in this place? Could it be that you don't know whose territory this Realm of Gods belongs to?” The Dark Hall's Hall Master spoke proudly.

“Could it be that this is your territory?” Chu Feng asked.

“That's right. I am the master of the Realm of Gods. This place... is ruled by me.”

“Although I do not know how you managed to find me, but since you're here, it will save me the trouble of going to find you.”

“Seniors, please show yourselves. Help me eliminate this arrogant and conceited man!” The Dark Hall's Hall Master shouted.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng's body trembled. He was able to tell that the Dark Hall's Hall Master didn't seem to be joking around, nor did he seem to be trying to scare him. Instead, it seemed like he was truly calling for something.

Merely, were there even people in the Realm of Gods? Or... could it be that this place was occupied by his accomplices? Could that be the reason why he said this place belonged to him?

“Rumble~~~”

At the moment when Chu Feng was pondering, the gate behind the Dark Hall’s Hall Master suddenly opened.

At the moment when the gate was opened, Chu Feng’s expression immediately turned stiff.

There were several thousand silhouettes inside the gate. They stood behind the gate in orderly rows.

Those people were not wearing clothes. Instead, they wearing armor weaved with special straw over their naked bodies.

Although those suits of armor did not appear to be domineering, they were emitting a special sort of power. They seemed to be a sort of special treasure.

Furthermore, the parts of those people’s bodies that were not covered by their straw armor were tattooed with special veined patterns. Those patterns were strange. It seemed that they could increase their battle power.

In other words, they were spirit formations; a special sort of spirit formation that not even Chu Feng could grasp.

However, most importantly, those several thousand people were all Martial Emperor-level experts. Furthermore, the great majority of them were peak Martial Emperors.

Moreover, over a hundred of them were Half Martial Ancestors, actual Half Martial Ancestors.

Lastly, the three old men that lead them possessed exceptional auras. Even Chu Feng felt absolutely suppressed when before them.

This meant that those three old men were not only Half Martial

Ancestors, they should also be rank three Half Martial Ancestors. Otherwise, it would be impossible for them to bring forth such an oppressive sensation upon Chu Feng.

“I have truly entered the tiger’s den.”

At that moment, Chu Feng laughed wryly. Even though he had anticipated something like this to begin with, even he felt a sense of despair after actually seeing the accomplices of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

After all, his opponents were too powerful. Faced with those opponents, Chu Feng would not be able to escape even if he wanted to.

“Hehe...” Seeing the despair on Chu Feng’s face, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s mouth rose into a smile. He felt extremely pleased.

Other than trampling Chu Feng the first time he met him, he had been suppressed by Chu Feng in every other encounter.

Especially the final battle. He was even defeated by Chu Feng. That made him, someone who felt himself to be a genius, someone who was extremely conceited, feel extremely unreconciled.

This time around, he was finally able to win against Chu Feng again. He was finally able to suppress Chu Feng again.

At that moment, he had decided to not give Chu Feng the chance to escape and become stronger. He was determined to kill Chu Feng right here.

Thinking about that, coldness flashed through the eyes of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. He pointed at Chu Feng and shouted, “Kill him!!!”

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

After the Dark Hall’s Hall Master gave the order, the thousands of people all flew out from the gate uniformly and surrounded Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng closed his eyes. He was not someone who was fond of waiting for death. However... he knew that when faced with so many rank two Half Martial Ancestors and even three rank three Half Martial Ancestors, the only thing he could do was wait for death.

“We pay our respects to master!!!”

However, those people seemed to not plan to kill Chu Feng. Instead, they seemed to have kneeled and saluted the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

“You all are truly...”

At that moment, Chu Feng opened his eyes. He was furious. He had clearly prepared himself to be killed. Yet, they actually did not kill him. That sort of sensation of being ignored made him feel extremely displeased.

“This???” However, when he saw the scene before his eyes, his eyes shrunk, and his expression changed enormously.

In surprise, he discovered that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had the same expression as him. The mouth of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was opened even wider than his own. It was as if he had received an enormous shock.

The reason for that was because the thousands of people were not kneeling to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. Instead, they were kneeling to Chu Feng.

Those thousands of powerful existences were kneeling to Chu Feng.

Chapter 2115 – Deemed To Be God

“Hey! What are you all doing?! Have you all gone mad?! Do you not even know who your master is?!” The Dark Hall’s Hall master shouted emotionally.

However, right at that moment, one of the three old rank three Half Martial Ancestors shouted back at him, “Shut your mouth!”

His oppressive might immediately sprung up everywhere with his words. Like a scarecrow, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was knocked flying before firmly smashing into one of the distant walls.

Blood sprayed out of his mouth as the sound of bones cracking was heard nonstop.

Merely a single attack had caused the Dark Hall’s Hall Master to be seriously injured.

Then, that old man pointed to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and shouted, “Men! Capture that arrogant man!”

After that old man spoke, several tens of people rushed over. Using special ropes, they ruthlessly tied up the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. They were so fierce and brutal that they simply did not treat the Dark Hall’s Hall Master as a human. Rather, they were treating him like an animal.

“What is going on? Exactly what is going on?! Why are you all treating me like this?!”

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master had gone mad. He was truly confused by the scene before him.

He had thought himself to be the master of this place the entire time. Even if the people here refused to comply with his orders, they should still protect him.

Yet, what was this? He, their grand master, was actually tied up by them. As for Chu Feng... he was actually being worshipped by those people.

“Master, welcome home.”

Suddenly, the three kneeling men spoke in unison.

“Master, welcome home!!!”

After those three old men said those words, the thousands of experts kneeling to Chu Feng repeated their words in unison.

Regardless of their cultivation, their tones were all filled with respect and happiness as they said those words.

It was as if Chu Feng was truly this place’s master, that they were truly waiting for Chu Feng’s return.

“You all... this is?” In fact, even Chu Feng was puzzled.

He had firmly thought that the mysterious experts were the accomplices, the backing, of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Yet, based on the situation now, it seemed to definitely not be the case. Instead, without an exception, they had all gone against the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. It was as if they were his, Chu Feng’s, backing instead.

“Master, we know that you are still confused.”

“However, please follow us. We will bring master to see a certain person. At that time, master will naturally understand everything,” The old man in the lead stood up and pointed to the gate. After that, he began to lead the way for Chu Feng.

Seeing that, Chu Feng did not hesitate, and followed them inside.

Guided by the crowd, Chu Feng entered the depths of the vast country.

Chu Feng suddenly gained a whole new understanding of that place. On his way, Chu Feng was able to see many mighty guards with Imperial Armaments guarding the various junctions. Merely by their appearance, he was able to tell that they were very well trained.

After passing through the various guarded junctions, Chu Feng seemed to have entered the living area of the country. He was able to see children playing, as well as women and other passersby.

However, regardless of whether it might be the guards, the children or the women, their bodies were all covered with special veined patterns, and they were all wearing special straw clothes. They were extremely different.

Most importantly, when they saw Chu Feng, they all half knelt to the ground and bowed to Chu Feng respectfully. Then, they would respectfully say the same words: "We pay our respects to master."

In fact, Chu Feng was even able to sense that for the people with a young age, or those with similar ages as Chu Feng, they would become so emotional that their bodies started to tremble when they saw Chu Feng.

It was as if they were all longing for the day, longing for Chu Feng's appearance.

Even though he felt it was very inconceivable, Chu Feng faintly felt that those people felt great adoration for him.

It had already surpassed the degree of 'master.' It was as if, in their hearts, Chu Feng was a 'god.' That was the reason why they held Chu Feng in such reverence.

"Could it be that I am truly this place's master?"

Chu Feng started to have that sort of way of thinking. The reason for that was because he was certain that these people here were definitely not his clansmen.

It was a feeling that he had, a feeling that he felt from his first glance at these people. Although these people were extremely respectful toward Chu Feng, Chu Feng was certain that they were not his clansmen.

In that sort of situation, Chu Feng became even more determined to know the truth. He wanted to get to know this place.

Finally, Chu Feng arrived before the entrance of a grand palace. When they reached the gates, everyone stopped.

“Master, please go ahead,” The old man leading the crowd pushed open the gate. However, he did not plan to enter. Instead, he indicated for Chu Feng to enter by himself.

Chu Feng first used his spirit power to run over the palace. After discovering that there was no one in the palace, he looked to the people surrounding him. They were all standing around him with heads lowered in a very humble manner. It was as if they did not dare to look Chu Feng in the face.

Their current appearance did not seem to indicate that they were afraid of Chu Feng. Instead, it seemed like more of an act of respect toward Chu Feng.

Thus, at that moment, there was only a single person looking Chu Feng head-on. That person was the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

The Dark Hall’s Hall Master was looking at Chu Feng with a gaze filled with hatred and killing intent. In fact, Chu Feng was even able to hear the sound of his teeth grinding against one another.

It was clear that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master felt enormous hatred for Chu Feng.

“Hey hey hey, what’s going on with you? Didn’t you say that you were going to kill me?” Chu Feng looked to the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and mocked him with a smile on his face.

“Paa~~~”

However, before he could finish cussing out at Chu Feng, a powerful palm landed onto his face.

It was that old rank three Half Martial Ancestor. He had arrived before the Dark Hall's Hall Master out of nowhere.

“Pa, pa, pa~~~”

After the first slap to the face, that old man unleashed successive slaps on the Dark Hall's Hall Master. His slaps caused the Dark Hall's Hall Master to waver left and right. After that, his cheeks were completely mutilated, and his facial bones were shattered.

“My master is not someone that you can insult,” After ferociously slapping the Dark Hall's Hall Master, that old man spoke fiercely.

The gaze which that old man currently possessed was truly frightening. It was as if he could devour someone alive with only his gaze. Even the Dark Hall's Hall Master was frightened speechless by that gaze.

However, when that old man turned around to look at Chu Feng, a smile filled his face. Very respectfully, he pointed to the palace and said to Chu Feng, “Master, please go ahead.”

Chu Feng stopped hesitating. He nodded at that old man, then proceeded to enter through the gate.

Right after Chu Feng walked through the gate, the gate immediately closed.

After the gates were closed, Chu Feng was unable to see the situation outside even when using his Heaven's Eyes. This meant that the palace possessed an isolating effect.

“Master, go ahead and have a seat. As you've returned, there's no need for you to be so restrained,” Right at that moment, an old man's voice suddenly sounded.

Hearing that voice, Chu Feng was immediately startled. It was clear... that there was someone in the palace.

Furthermore... the master of the palace was extremely powerful. He was even more powerful than the three old rank three Half Martial Ancestors outside.

Else, it would be impossible for Chu Feng to still be unable to determine the location of the person who had spoken earlier even after they spoke.

“Rank four Half Martial Ancestor?” At that moment, Chu Feng’s heart was filled with astonishment.

Rank three Half Martial Ancestors were extremely powerful already. Yet, this place actually had a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. In fact, it might even be possible for the person that spoke to possess a cultivation that surpassed rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

At that moment, an enormous wave emerged in Chu Feng’s heart.

This Realm of Gods truly possessed a numerous amount of experts. They were so unimaginably powerful.

One must know that before the appearance of these people, the Elf King was the strongest expert in the Holy Land of Martialism. However, his cultivation was only that of a peak Martial Emperor.

Yet, in this place, there were many Half Martial Ancestor-level experts. As for peak Martial Emperors, they were even more numerous. The strength of the power here truly astonished Chu Feng.

Most importantly, such a formidable power actually addressed Chu Feng as master, and treated him so respectfully.

The respect that they had shown Chu Feng was simply as if they were viewing him as a god.

Chapter 2116 – The Disclosure Of The Truth

“Master, please sit,” That old man’s voice sounded again. However, he still had yet to reveal himself.

“Master, it has only been several years since we last met, yet you’ve actually forgotten my voice?”

Suddenly, an old man appeared beside Chu Feng.

“Senior, it’s you?” Upon seeing that person, Chu Feng revealed an overjoyed expression.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng recognized that old man. He was none other than the blind old man he had met in the Eastern Sea Region.

“Master, please don’t address me as senior. To be precise, I am your servant,” As the blind old man said those words, he bowed to Chu Feng respectfully.

Although the blind old man was truly blind, he seemed to possess an extremely strong perception. Through his perception, he was able to see the entire world.

“Senior, what exactly is going on here?” Chu Feng asked.

“Please stop addressing me as ‘senior’, for that would be equivalent to cursing this old servant to die sooner. If you do not mind, you can address me as ‘Blind Servant,’” The blind old man said.

“Senior is a great benefactor to this Chu Feng. How could I address you as a servant? If you do not mind, I can address you as ‘Blind Uncle,’” Chu Feng said.

Actually, based on the difference in age between the two of them, Chu Feng should be addressing the blind old man as ‘grandpa.’

However, Chu Feng felt that the word ‘grandpa’ possessed too much seniority, and that the blind old man would refuse to accept being addressed as ‘grandpa.’ Thus, he decided to address him as ‘uncle.’

“Since master insists, then please address this old servant as such,” The blind old man said.

“Blind Uncle, exactly what is going on here? Where is Zi Ling right now?” Chu Feng asked in succession.

He knew that the blind old man had taken Zi Ling away a long time ago. Chu Feng had been worried about Zi Ling’s safety the entire time.

“Master, please have a seat. I’ll slowly tell you everything,” The blind old man said.

Hearing that, Chu Feng did not hesitate, and took a seat. He was able to tell that this blind old man would not tell him anything should he not sit.

It was different from before. Chu Feng seemed to really be their master. All the people in this Realm of Gods, regardless of what their cultivation might be, regardless of how much more powerful they were compared to Chu Feng, none of them dared to disrespect Chu Feng.

“I shall start explaining from this place known as the Realm of Gods to the people of the Holy Land of Martialism. This place is the former site of the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“The Chu Heavenly Clan was the most powerful clan in the Holy Land of Martialism after the Ancient Era passed. In their era, no one dared to disobey them. They were the true rulers of this land.”

“The Ancient Era’s Elves that deem themselves to be the rulers now were also extremely respectful toward master’s clan back then. Every year, they would always pay enormous tribute to the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“The so-called Five Emperors after the Ancient Era, if they were placed before master’s clan, they would all be nothing more than ants,” The blind old man said.

“My clan?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng was surprised. He had actually already had the thought that he possessed a special relationship with the Realm of Gods, that the Realm of Gods had a very high chance of being a remnant of his clan. Merely, he did not dare to ascertain anything.

The reason for all that was because the Old Ape that he met on the Heavenly Road had told him that his clan originated from this world. Merely, the Old Ape did not tell him whether remnants of his clan remained in this world. He only said... that the people of this world had already forgotten about his clan.

“Blind Uncle, in that case, are there any of my clansmen left in this place?”

“Why did they decide to enter the Outer World?”

“Moreover, do you have any news of them now?” Chu Feng asked in succession.

“Master, please don’t be anxious. This old servant will explain everything to you,” The blind old man said, “Currently, everyone from the Chu Heavenly Clan is in the Outer World. This old servant possess a low status. Thus, I do not have any news regarding them.”

“As for why they decided to enter the Outer World, it was because a great lord appeared in the Chu Heavenly Clan back then. That person possessed extremely powerful strength that surpassed all of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s previous Clan Chiefs. He was confident that he would be able to let the Chu Heavenly Clan obtain an acknowledged place even in the Outer World.”

“At that time, although the Chu Heavenly Clan was the fully deserving overlord of the Holy Land of Martialism, none of its clansmen were willing to stay in this place for the rest of their lives. Thus, they ended up deciding to proceed for the Outer World together.”

“Back then, everyone from the Chu Heavenly Clan planned to leave. However, they were unwilling to abandon this place. Thus, that great lord ordered us, their servants, to stay here and guard this place.”

“However, that great lord was still worried. He feared that there would be people in the Holy Land of Martialism that would pretend to be people from the Chu Heavenly Clan and ruin the Chu Heavenly Clan’s reputation.”

“Thus, before leaving, he had eliminated the memory of the Chu Heavenly Clan from all the people in the Holy Land of Martialism. Thus, as matters stood, there was no one in the Holy Land of Martialism that knows that the Chu Heavenly Clan was the true ruler after the Ancient Era.”

“All these years, us, the servants, have guarded this place the entire time. We have never set foot outside,” The blind old man explained.

“In that case, the reason why the Realm of Gods possessed its ferocious name, the reason why so many people would die in the Realm of Gods was all caused by you all?” Chu Feng asked.

“Throughout our generations, we have followed that great lord’s order. We are not allowed to let the people of this world know about our existence, or the existence of the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“However, we would also not willfully slaughter the innocent. Merely, for the sake of preventing others from knowing about us, we set up many traps in this place. Many of the people who died here were killed after they triggered the traps, and not because they were killed by us.”

“Of course, we will also warn them before they encounter those traps. Merely, they refused to listen, and insisted on entering. As such, their deaths cannot be blamed on us,” The blind old man explained.

“But, didn’t they say that all the people that set foot into this place will definitely end up dying?” Chu Feng asked.

“That was all falsehoods,” The blind old man said.

“I’ve also heard that this place possessed a special sort of germ. If one were to be infected by it, one would definitely die. Furthermore, all the people that entered this place would be infected by it.”

“Furthermore, it is said that those below the Martial Emperor level will definitely die if they are inflicted by that germ. Is that true?” Chu Feng asked.

“That germ does exist. It is something emitted by a special plant in this place. However, not everyone will be infected by it. Only those that enter the area where that plant is grown will be infected,” The blind old man explained.

“So that’s the case. But, if you all just do not wish for people to know about this place, wouldn’t it be fine to seal this place away? Why go through that much trouble?” Chu Feng asked.

“That great lord said that the gates to this place could not be closed. If we were to close the gates, it would signify that we are afraid. The Chu Heavenly Clan does not fear anyone,” The blind old man said.

“I understand now,” Chu Feng truly understood. His clan was most definitely extremely conceited. They were so conceited that while they did not wish for people to know about this place, they refused to conceal it.

In the end, even though Chu Feng’s clan had left, even though they had wiped away the memories regarding them from everyone...

The Chu Heavenly Clan actually did not wish for the people to truly forget about them.

Thus, even though they had left, they still left behind fear, a fear of the unknown.

Using that fear, they warned the people from the Holy Land of Martialism that regardless of how powerful they might become, there remained a power they could not contend against in this Holy Land of Martialism.

“But, Blind Uncle... why would you be in the Eastern Sea Region back then? At that time... you?” Chu Feng asked.

“This old servant had already known about master’s identity at that time. Furthermore, I have been secretly protecting you ever since the day you were brought out of the Heavenly Road by Huangfu Haoyue. Merely, because Lord Xuanyuan had ordered it, this old servant did not dare to inform you of the truth,” The blind old man said.

“He is your father,” The blind old man answered.

Chapter 2117 – Mountain-like Paternal Love

“My father?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s body trembled. A sensation that he had never felt before filled his entire body.

“Logically, us servants are not allowed to leave this place. It was Lord Xuanyuan who found this old servant and ordered this old servant to protect you. It is only because of that that an exception was made and this old servant was allowed to leave this place.”

“While Lord Xuanyuan had ordered this old servant to protect you... he had also ordered that I must not interfere unless I absolutely must.”

“Lord Xuanyuan said that, for certain trials, you must experience them personally. Only by personally experiencing them would you be able to truly mature.”

“Thus, this old servant naturally could not tell you that he has been protecting you the entire time. The reason for that was because Lord Xuanyuan said that if you are to find out that you had someone protecting you the entire time, you would become overly confident. At that time, regardless of what sort of enemy you faced, regardless of what sort of calamity you faced, you would not be scared.”

“In truth, this old servant has never actually gone out to save you. It could be said that... master’s current level of progress is completely unrelated to this old servant. Master, you have gotten this far by relying on yourself.”

“I think that this is also what Lord Xuanyuan wanted,” The blind old man said.

Hearing those words, the sensation that filled Chu Feng’s entire body grew even more intense. In fact, Chu Feng’s eyes had grown somewhat red.

At that moment, he felt a sensation that he had never felt in his entire life.

It was paternal love. Paternal love from his biological father.

In the past, Chu Feng had thought that he had caused his father to be driven out of the Chu Clan and suffer in the Heavenly Road because he was lacking in talent.

Chu Feng felt that he had let his father down, that he could not expect anything from his father. Even when he entered the Heavenly Road, Chu Feng did not get the chance to see his father.

Chu Feng had not blamed his father. He only blamed himself. He blamed himself for being too weak, so weak that he brought harm upon his parents.

As such, Chu Feng had never thought that his father would do anything for him.

However, today, after hearing what the blind old man said, Chu Feng came to know the truth.

Chu Feng realized that he had not met this blind old man, this grand benefactor of his, by coincidence. Instead, it had been arranged by his father.

It turned out that his father had not abandoned him. On the contrary, he had the blind old man watch over him and protect him from the shadows the entire time.

Even though Chu Feng had suffered quite a bit and received quite a bit of humiliation over the years, and the blind old man had not appeared to help him during those times, it remained that the blind old man had been watching over him.

If Chu Feng had truly faced death, the blind old man would have acted to save him.

Most importantly, it was per his father's orders that the blind old man had protected Chu Feng this entire time.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked with a serious expression, "Blind

Uncle, you said that it was my father that came to find you?" The reason for that was because he had a plan?.

"That is indeed the case," The blind old man nodded.

"When did that happen?" Chu Feng asked.

"It was after you were brought out of the Heavenly Road by Huangfu Haoyue," The blind old man said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng was startled once again.

Logically, the Heavenly Road was the Chu Clan's Forbidden Area. That place should have been a prison for Chu Feng's father.

Chu Feng believed that his father and the Old Ape were both enduring torment in that forbidden area. Else, it would be impossible for their cultivations to be decreasing.

Furthermore, it seemed that the Chu Clan had people monitoring that forbidden area the entire time. That was the reason why they were unable to leave.

Logically, Chu Feng's father should not have been able to leave the Heavenly Road's forbidden area.

However, it would appear that he had been mistaken. Chu Feng's father had clearly left that forbidden area before. Else, how could he have found the blind old man and had him protect him?

Merely, since that forbidden area was incapable of trapping his father, why would his father not escape with the Old Ape?

Wouldn't their cultivations decrease by staying in the forbidden area? If they were to stay there for too long, they would become cripples!

Or, could it be that the person guarding his father was extremely powerful? So powerful that even his father could not escape?

Or, could it be that Chu Feng's father was willing to accept the punishment, that he had decided not to escape even though he was able to?

All sorts of questions hovered in Chu Feng's mind. Merely, even after thinking about it for a very long time, Chu Feng was unable to think of an answer.

“Due to Lord Xuanyuan's order, this old servant was unable to help you too much. I needed to allow you to mature by yourself.”

“However, I managed to see the affection you possessed toward Miss Zi Ling and the others, as well as the determination that they had in helping you.”

“Thus, I took them as my disciples. Using my abilities, I helped them increase their cultivations. It could be said that I have, on your behalf, helped them accomplish their cherished desires.”

“However, their foundations are truly too weak. No matter how this old servant helped them, they were still unable to actually catch up to you, much less help you.”

“In the end, those two boys Jiang Wushang and Zhang Tianyi ended up having master help them instead,” When mentioning that matter, the blind old man started to smile. It was a self-mocking smile. It was as if he was declaring that his disciples were still no match for Chu Feng.

“But, as for Zi Ling...” When the blind old man said those words, his expression changed. He wanted to say something, but ended up hesitating.

Chu Feng realized that something was wrong and immediately stood up to ask, “Blind Uncle, what happened to Zi Ling?”

“Back then, you were being hunted by the Four Great Imperial Clans. Due to being unable to help you, Zi Ling and the others were feeling extremely pained.”

“Furthermore, as I inadvertently mentioned a taboo technique to Zi Ling before, Zi Ling started to have an idea at that time.”

“Later on, when I went to visit them, Zi Ling started to beg me to use that taboo technique to increase her power.”

“Originally, I refused her. After all, that taboo technique is extremely dangerous. However, Zi Ling insisted on attempting it. She said that if she could not share life’s joys and sorrows with you, master, then she would be your woman in vain. That she would rather be dead than alive.”

“When I heard those words, this old servant truly realized the feelings Miss Zi Ling has toward you.”

“In the end, I was unable to win against her, and ended up using that taboo technique,” The blind old man said.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt pain in his heart. He had thought the entire time that it had been good for Zi Ling and the others to stay with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal.

He had not expected that having them stay with the Weaponry Refinement Immortal would cause them such great pain. That was something that Chu Feng had overlooked.

As matters stood, he put himself in their shoes and was able to feel the pain that Zi Ling and the others felt. The more he thought about it, the more pained he felt. Chu Feng felt that he had truly wronged Zi Ling and the others enormously.

“Blind Uncle, what sort of taboo technique is it?” Chu Feng asked.

“It is a taboo technique beneficial to Divine Bodies. That taboo technique originated from the Ancient Era. It was originally one of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s secret techniques.”

“However, that secret technique is useless for the people of the Chu Heavenly Clan, though there would occasionally be Divine Bodies born among us servants. The Chu Heavenly Clan was very fond of us servants. As such, they taught us that secret technique.”

“After using that secret technique, a Divine Body will be able to gain complete mastery over their Divine Power, fusing into one with it. With that, their talent would increase enormously.”

“However, it is also extremely dangerous. Furthermore, one would have to endure pain so great that it is nearly unbearable.”

“Many people have died to that taboo technique due to being unable to endure the pain. Their bodies would explode, and their souls extinguished.”

“As that forbidden technique is incapable of stopping once it is used, one will either come out alive or die while using it.”

“Thus, even for us, we would not dare to use that forbidden technique,” The blind old man said.

Mountain-like → enormous.

Chapter 2118 – Heavenly Bloodline

“Then, what about Zi Ling? Did she use that taboo technique?” Chu Feng asked hurriedly.

“She did,” The blind old man answered.

“Then, what was the outcome?” Chu Feng asked hurriedly.

“Miss Zi Ling managed to come out alive. Merely...”

“Merely?” Chu Feng became even more anxious. From the reaction of the blind old man, he sensed that something was amiss.

However, Chu Feng did not reveal his anxiety. He was afraid that the blind old man would blame himself.

“Although she managed to survive it, she received an enormous backlash from it. It is a backlash that even I am unable to suppress,” Speaking those words, the blind old man revealed an expression filled with self-blame.

Suddenly, the blind old man’s knees bent. With a ‘putt,’ he kneeled before Chu Feng.

He smashed his head to the ground and said, “Master, it is all my fault. I should not have had the impulse to have Zi Ling use a taboo technique that even we cannot control, and I ended up hurting her because of it.”

“Master, I know that you deeply love Miss Zi Ling. This is all this old servant’s fault. Master, please punish this old servant severely!!!” After saying those words, the blind old man ruthlessly smashed his head into the ground again. The power of that smash was so strong that the palace hall started to rumble.

“Blind Uncle, please stand up.” Chu Feng hurriedly lent an arm to help the blind old man up. However, he was unable to move the blind old man at all.

“Blind Uncle, please get back up. I merely wish to know how Zi Ling is now, and whether she is still alive. I do not hold any blame towards you,” Chu Feng’s voice became a bit hoarse. He was extremely afraid that Zi Ling would already be dead.

However, Chu Feng could not reveal his worries. The reason for that was because even though he had been very careful when he had asked those questions, the blind old man had still reacted in such a manner. If he were to show his worries, the blind old man would blame himself even more.

“Uncertain?” Chu Feng became even more anxious. After all, Zi Ling was truly too important to him.

However, even though his heart was burning with anxiety, he still had to consider the blind old man’s feelings. Thus, he asked gently, “Blind Uncle, exactly what is going on?”

“This old servant was truly powerless to deal with Miss Zi Ling’s situation.”

“Thus, I could only request Lord Xuanyuan for help. After Lord Xuanyuan arrived, he took Miss Zi Ling away.”

“Thus, this old servant truly does not know of Miss Zi Ling’s situation right now,” The blind old man explained.

“Never would I have expected that my father would help Zi Ling,” Chu Feng was very surprised. However, his anxiety had been alleviated greatly.

Even though Chu Feng did not know anything about his father, and although his father was a only fuzzy image in his heart, he also felt his father to be an imposing figure. He felt that if his father was willing to help in anything, that matter would definitely be taken care of.

“Although Lord Xuanyuan is a cold and detached individual, he is most definitely not heartless. Else, he would not have left a communication talisman so that I could contact him when needed,” The blind old man explained.

“Since my father is helping, I believe Zi Ling will be fine. Blind Uncle, please stand up,” Chu Feng tried to help the blind old man up again.

“Please punish this old servant severely for making his own decision without consulting master,” However, the blind old man remained extremely stubborn, and refused to stand back up.

“Blind Uncle, you have helped me enormously. Furthermore, didn’t you only agree to Zi Ling’s demand because you wanted to help her?”

“Actually, even if it was me, I would also have agreed to have Zi Ling using that taboo technique. After all, the path of martial cultivation is a path that goes against the way of nature. If one does not take risks, one will not be able to obtain great accomplishments,” Chu Feng said.

“I only possess gratitude toward you,” Chu Feng tried to help the blind old man up again.

However, the blind old man still refused to get up. Instead, he said, “Master, if you are to say it like that, this old servant is even more ashamed.”

“Blind Uncle, is there a need for you to insist on this? Can you not treat me as your master? Can’t you treat me as a junior like you did back then?” Chu Feng asked.

He was actually extremely uncomfortable with the blind old man’s current attitude. He was clearly an extremely powerful existence that surpassed reasonable limits. Yet, he was acting so respectfully toward him, and would even kneel and kowtow to him. Chu Feng was truly unable to get used to it.

Furthermore, in Chu Feng's heart, the blind old man was a senior that he held great respect for. Moreover, the blind old man was a great benefactor to him.

This way of thinking was already deeply rooted in Chu Feng's heart. Thus, it was truly difficult for him to change it now.

"This old servant was born a servant. I was born to serve the Chu Heavenly Clan."

"Although the Chu Heavenly Clan left long ago, and this old servant has become the head of the servants, I never dare to forget my identity," The blind old man said.

At that moment, Chu Feng's heart felt extremely complicated. He had already discovered that the people in this place were extremely loyal and devoted to the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Merely, it was truly rare for these sorts of people to be so loyal and devoted to the Chu Heavenly Clan after they had left this place for so long.

Chu Feng was able to tell that the blind old man's loyalty did not seem to be fake. Instead, it originated from the bottom of his heart. This... was truly remarkable.

"Blind Uncle, please stand up. I still have a lot of things that I wish to ask you," Chu Feng urged again.

"Okay," This time around, the blind old man did not refuse.

"Blind Uncle, let's sit and talk," Chu Feng helped the blind old man to a chair.

"See, this is the way it should be," After seating the blind old man, Chu Feng revealed a smile.

"Master, this old servant knows that you are still confused about a lot of things. Please go ahead and ask me whatever it is that you are confused about. If this old servant knows the answer to your questions, I will definitely answer them,” The blind old man said.

“Blind Uncle, in that case, what’s the deal with that Dark Hall’s Hall Master?” Chu Feng asked.

When Chu Feng mentioned that matter, the blind old man heaved a long sigh. Then, he said, “The Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed an Inherited Bloodline that resembled master’s. Back then, he had accidentally arrived at this place. At that time, this old servant was not present. Thus, my subordinates mistook him for the master of this place, and were extremely hospitable toward him.”

“It was only later that they found out that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was not someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan. Although he is from the Outer World, he belongs to the Ying Heavenly Clan,” The blind old man said.

“Ying Heavenly Clan?” Chu Feng’s gaze flashed.

“Precisely. The Dark Hall’s Hall Master is surnamed Ying, and named Chong. His name is Ying Chong.”

“While he is from the Outer World, and possesses a Heavenly Bloodline, he is not someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan. Instead, he is someone from the Ying Heavenly Clan,” The blind old man said.

“No wonder,” Chu Feng suddenly recalled that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master always wore a headdress on his head. On that headdress was the character ‘Ying.’

Furthermore, from what the blind old man said, Chu Feng came to know that their Inherited Bloodline was truly called the Heavenly Bloodline.

Furthermore, his bloodline should be a bloodline above Imperial Bloodlines.

In the Eastern Sea Region, there were many Royal Clans. Those people all possessed Royal Bloodlines.

In the Holy Land of Martialism, there were the Four Great Imperial Clans. The people from the Four Great Imperial Clans all possessed Imperial Bloodlines.

Likely, there were many Heavenly Clans in the Outer World. The bloodlines that the clansmen of the Heavenly Clans possessed should be Heavenly Bloodlines.

When looking at it that way, it was completely reasonable for Chu Feng's Inherited Bloodline to be able to suppress Imperial Bloodlines. After all, that was a so-called suppression from a higher level.

After ascertaining that the Dark Hall's Hall Master was not someone from his Chu Heavenly Clan, Chu Feng felt a lot more at ease.

After all, the Dark Hall's Hall Master had done all sorts of evil. If he were someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan, Chu Feng would feel responsible. However, since he was not, there was no reason for Chu Feng to continue to have that burden in his heart.

Chapter 2119 – Chu Heavenly Clan

“In that case, how was it discovered that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was not someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan?” Chu Feng asked.

“The people from the Chu Heavenly Clan all have black hair. However, Ying Chong has brown hair. This caused my subordinates to be wary of him. After making inquiries, they came to know about Ying Chong’s true identity.”

“However, master, please rest assured. Although Yin Chong tried to be clever only to end up with an egg on his face, he does not know the true reason why we are here.”

“He felt the entire time that we were subdued by his Heavenly Bloodline, and recognized him as our master because of that,” The blind old man said.

“However, it remains that he has discovered you all. Thus, why have you all not killed him? Do you all not fear that he will spread news of you all when he leaves?” Chu Feng asked.

“If he were someone from the Holy Land of Martialism, we would not have spared him regardless of who he might be. However, it remains that he is from the Outer World.”

“We do not know a lot about the Outer World. All we know is that there are a lot of experts in the Outer World.”

“While we are not people that are afraid of death, we did not wish to invite troubles for our masters. After all, the Chu Heavenly Clan is also located in the Outer World.”

“That is why we decided to accept our error and adapt to it. We ended up letting Ying Chong leave. However, master, please rest assured, we never helped Ying Chong with anything,” The blind old man said.

“The Dark Hall’s Hall Master has done all sorts of evil. He absolutely cannot be spared,” Chu Feng said.

“If master wants to kill him, he will absolutely not be allowed to live. Merely, as master is wearied in the journey here, you should first properly rest yourself now that you’ve returned home.”

“Tomorrow, I will cripple that Ying Chong’s cultivation on master’s behalf. Then, master can personally take him away and behead him before the people of the Holy Land of Martialism,” The blind old man said.

“Very well,” Chu Feng expressed his approval. After all, killing the Dark Hall’s Hall Master here and publicly executing the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed completely different connotations.

Most importantly, should he kill the Dark Hall’s Hall Master before the people of the Holy Land of Martialism, he would be able to bring ease to their hearts and let them be certain that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had died.

After that, Chu Feng asked the blind old man some more questions.

Among them was the question of whether or not there was a formation that could lead to the Outer World in this place.

The result was as Chu Feng had anticipated. There was indeed a formation that lead to the Outer World in the Realm of Gods. That spirit formation was called... the ‘Stairway to Heaven.’

“Did Qing Xuantian leave the Holy Land of Martialism through the Stairway to Heaven?” Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng felt that it was definitely impossible for Qing Xuantian to have secluded himself in the mountains because if he had, he would have definitely revealed himself after the recent events had occurred.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had learned from the Four Great Divine Beasts that Qing Xuantian was not very old when he became the overlord of the Holy Land of Martialism. He had only been a member of the younger generation.

Thus, Chu Feng had deduced that he should not have died. Even if he had been afflicted with some sort of illness, he should still be alive. That was the premonition Chu Feng had.

However, if Qing Xuantian was still alive, he would definitely not be in the Holy Land of Martialism.

If he was no longer in the Holy Land of Martialism, it would mean that he had entered the Outer World.

However, if he had entered the Outer World, then, at that time... the Stairway to Heaven in the Misty Peak should have yet to be discovered.

Thus, the only way there should be a Stairway to Heaven in the Realm of Gods.

“Qing Xuantian was indeed here ten thousand years ago. He had also wanted to use the Stairway to Heaven.”

“His cultivation at that time... was rank one Half Martial Ancestor.”

“With that level of cultivation, he would naturally not be a match for me. Thus, we naturally refused him,” The blind old man said.

“In that case, do you know where he went afterwards?” Chu Feng asked.

“In that case, did a woman come here over a dozen years ago to request the usage of the Stairway to Heaven?” Chu Feng asked.

“Master, actually, when you were in the Elf Kingdom that time, this old servant was also there.”

“Thus, this old man heard the entire conversation between you and the Elf King.”

“We know that the Elf King had entered our Realm of Gods over a dozen years ago. Merely... we do not know anything about Xian Miaomiao's mother," The blind old man said.

"In that case, Xian Miaomiao's mother did not come to the Stairway to Heaven here?" Chu Feng asked.

"If the Stairway to Heaven is activated, it will give off an enormous reaction. It would be impossible for us to miss it," The blind old man said.

"I understand," Chu Feng asked no more questions. He knew that the blind old man would not deceive him.

However, he kept feeling that Qing Xuantian and Xian Miaomiao's mother should have definitely left this place.

'Since they didn't use the Stairway to Heaven here, could it be that they've truly used the Misty Peak's Stairway to Heaven?'

'Or could it be that they've managed to find other ways to leave this place?' Chu Feng pondered.

Afterward, Chu Feng chatted with the blind old man for a long time. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had a whole lot of questions.

It was not only questions about the Chu Heavenly Clan's past; Chu Feng was even very curious as to how the blind old man had taught Zi Ling and the others.

As they chatted, time passed by extremely fast. The bright day turned into night in the blink of an eye.

During that period of time, per Chu Feng's orders, the Dark Hall's Hall Master was tied up and sent to their prison.

The Dark Hall's Hall Master was no fool. As matters stood, he had realized that the people of this place deemed him their master back then because they had mistaken him for someone else.

Their actual master was Chu Feng.

Thus, he was depressed to discover that the person that had entered the tigers' den today was not Chu Feng. Instead, it was him.

“Why would it be like this? I am truly too unlucky.”

“No, that Chu Feng is surnamed Chu. Could he be from the Chu Heavenly Clan?”

“No, it's most definitely a coincidence. How could that guy be someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan?”

Due to the fact that the people of this place refused to speak with the Dark Hall's Hall Master, the Dark Hall's Hall Master did not know about Chu Feng's actual identity, and could only make wild guesses.

Right at that moment, a female's voice was suddenly heard. “What's wrong? When you mentioned the Chu Heavenly Clan, you revealed a trace of fear in your eyes. Could the Chu Heavenly Clan be very powerful in the Outer World?”

When that voice was heard, the Dark Hall's Hall Master immediately revealed an overjoyed expression.

Then, spiritedly, he looked at his surroundings. After discovering that he was not being monitored, he said happily, “Xue Ji, it's you. You've returned. How was it? What did you manage to discover? Am I able to escape?”

“Buzz~~~”

After the Dark Hall's Hall Master said those words, black gaseous flames suddenly appeared from thin air in his cell. After the black gaseous flames appeared, they hovered before the Dark Hall's Hall Master and turned into an exceptional beauty.

That beauty was Xue Ji.

After seeing Xue Ji, the Dark Hall's Hall Master asked impatiently, “Xue Ji, quickly, say something. Exactly how was it? Are we able to escape?”

“There is a Stairway to Heaven here. We can enter the Outer World through the Stairway to Heaven,” Xue Ji said.

“Great, this is great. The heavens are helping me,” Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was overjoyed. Then, his gaze turned cold. Fiercely, he exclaimed, “After returning to the Outer World, I’ll inform my clansmen of the things that happened here. At that time, these ignorant fools will suffer.”

“However, if they are people from the Chu Heavenly Clan, would your clansmen even bother to deal with them after you tell them what you’ve encountered here?” Xue Ji asked.

Hearing those words, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was startled. His gaze became extremely complicated. Cautiously, he asked, “What did you manage to scout out? Chu Feng... he couldn’t possibly really be someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan, right? Could this place be constructed by the Chu Heavenly Clan?”

“This place is a remnant of the Chu Heavenly Clan. As for Chu Feng... he is precisely a descendant of the Chu Heavenly Clan,” Xue Ji said.

“He’s really someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan?!”

“No, why would it be like this?!”

“Why would it turn out like this?!”

After hearing what Xue Ji said, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s expression immediately changed. He became extremely emotional. Contained within his eyes... was the emotion of despair.

Chapter 2120 – Time To Go

“Why would it be like this, why would it be like this?”

“That Chu Feng, he’s actually really someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan?”

“No wonder. No wonder his talent actually surpasses my own.”

After a moment of being overwhelmed with emotions, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was extremely depressed. He looked like a deflated ball.

As for Xue Ji, she stood there watching the Dark Hall’s Hall Master with a light smile on her face. No one knew what she was thinking.

However, she did not continue to ask the Dark Hall’s Hall Master about the strength of the Chu Heavenly Clan in the Outer World.

As she was an extremely intelligent woman, she had already managed to have an idea of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s strength merely by seeing the reaction from the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

Regardless of how powerful the Chu Heavenly Clan might be, it was most definitely a power that the Ying Heavenly Clan could not afford to offend.

Else, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master would not have reacted in such an alarmed and frightened manner.

Suddenly, Xue Ji said, “Lord Hall Master, it’s time for you to go.”

At that moment, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master no longer possessed any of the grandeur he had showed before. All he possessed was the impatience to quickly escape this place.

Revenge? He had already tossed the concept of revenge out of his mind. He no longer dared to even think about revenge.

To the current him, he would be in immense joy if he didn't have to make reprisals.

“Puu~~~”

Right at that moment, a flash of coldness shone through Xue Ji's eyes. Then, her lily-white hand, like a sharp blade, pierced into the dantian of the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

“Xue Ji, you!!!”

Sensing the pain from his dantian and the blood spilling out of his abdomen, the Dark Hall's Hall Master stared at Xue Ji blankly. Evidently... he had never expected something like this.

“What? You still don't understand? Didn't I say that it was time for you to go?” Xue Ji's beautiful eyes narrowed into two beautiful crescents. Her smile was so very charming. Yet, when seen by the Dark Hall's Hall Master, her smile appeared to very wicked.

“No!!!” Suddenly, the expression of the Dark Hall's Hall Master changed enormously. He revealed an unbearable pain.

He was sensing that his cultivation, his everything, was being stripped away from him, being sucked into Xue Ji's body.

Not only was Xue Ji planning to destroy his cultivation, she was planning to absorb his cultivation and deprive him of his power.

“You've been using me the entire time?” The Dark Hall's Hall Master lifted his head and stared at Xue Ji fiercely.

“Why else did you think I would teach you such a demonic technique instead of using it myself?” Xue Ji said.

“Damn you! You've actually used me as an offering for your own cultivation! You only helped me so I could accumulate power for you! You were waiting for this moment so that you could consume my cultivation!” Fury filled the eyes of the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

“You've only found out about that now? You are truly slow,” Xue Ji said, “Actually, I had thought very highly of you. Originally, I had planned to use you for a bit longer, planned to let you live for a bit longer.”

“However, you couldn’t even help me refine all those lives in the Transmogrification Gate.”

“You’ve made me waste all those cultivation resources. As such, I must say that you have greatly disappointed me.”

“How could trash like you possibly accomplish anything great in the Outer World?”

“Thus, you cannot blame me for killing you now.”

“If you want to blame someone, blame yourself for being too useless.”

“I’ll kill you!” Suddenly, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master shouted angrily. He gained strength out of nowhere, clenched his fist and prepared to attack Xue Ji.

“Wuuahh!!!” However, right after he raised his fist, he let out a miserable scream.

At that moment, the body of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master was dismembered, and then pulled into Xue Ji’s palm.

Everything happened too quickly. In merely a short moment, everything was over.

By the time Xue Ji pulled back her palm, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had turned into a pile of bones. His bones were completely dull, as even his source energy was sucked dry by Xue Ji.

Only his clothes, his Cosmos Sack and his headdress with the character Ying on it landed beside the pile of bones.

“Woosh~~~”

Xue Ji swung her sleeve, and the Cosmos Sack was sucked into her sleeve. Then... the clothes of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master began to float.

Xue Ji used the clothes to wipe the lily-white hand she had used to kill the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

While wiping her hand clean, she looked to the pile of bones with a smile on her face and sighed. "It would seem that I'll have to journey to the Outer World by myself."

"However, it should be very interesting," After saying those words, a beautiful and alluring smile emerged on Xue Ji's face.

"Woosh~~~"

Xue Ji's body suddenly shifted. She turned into black gaseous flames that hovered for a while before entering the void and disappearing.

.....

Chu Feng appeared to have fallen asleep.

When he opened his eyes, he discovered that he was on top of a mountain. He was sitting beside a brook.

He extended his hand and looked at the water in the brook. His silhouette slowly appeared in the flowing water.

Chu Feng suddenly discovered that his appearance had turned into that of an eight or nine-year-old child. It was his appearance when he was a child.

Chu Feng then looked around. The scenery was so very familiar to him. Wasn't this the Nine Province Continent's Azure Province? Wasn't this the scenery of the mountain behind the Chu Family?

"Dream? I'm in a dream?"

Chu Feng was an extremely rational person. His rationality allowed him to realize what had happened.

He had chatted with the blind old man for a long time. As it was extremely late by the time they had finished the chat, the blind old man had told him to properly rest himself, and given him a special sort of fruit.

That fruit possessed an effect of soothing one's body and mind. Although martial cultivators would be able to live without eating, drinking or sleeping after reaching a certain level of cultivation, sleeping was capable of helping cultivations rest and soothe their minds.

Thus, Chu Feng ate the fruit and soon fell asleep.

Merely, Chu Feng was too rational a person. His rationality caused him to possess an excessive amount of clear-headedness. Even though he was dreaming, he was still able to immediately determine his situation.

"Chu Feng, what are you doing here? Weren't you told to not come here randomly? Get the hell back."

Suddenly, an excoriating voice sounded. Chu Feng turned around and saw a fair-skinned man rapidly walking toward him.

"Sixth uncle?" Seeing that man, Chu Feng's heart was immediately moved. That man was Chu Feng's sixth uncle, Chu Nanshan.

That sixth uncle had not been very fond of Chu Feng. As for his son, Chu Hongfei, he was someone that had bullied Chu Feng since they were young.

Back then, Chu Feng had been very sick and tired of this sixth uncle. However, seeing him now, Chu Feng felt a powerful sense of closeness.

The reason for that was because this sixth uncle of his had long since passed away. He had died when the Chu Family had been massacred.

"Sixth uncle, I'm sorry. I am the one who caused your death," Chu Feng said with a great amount of self blame.

The massacre of the Chu Family was Chu Feng's eternal pain. He felt that if he had not offended Gong Luyun in his youth, the Chu Family would not have met with their misfortune.

“Chu Feng, what are you talking about? You are cursing me to die here, no?” Chu Nanshan did not know what Chu Feng was talking about, and thought that Chu Feng was cursing him to die. Angrily, he raised his hand and planned to hit Chu Feng.

As this place was Chu Feng’s dream, even if Chu Feng remained rational, he was only a child that had yet to learn martial cultivation here.

Thus, when his sixth uncle tried to hit him, it would have been impossible for Chu Feng to dodge even if he wanted to. Let alone, Chu Feng did not wish to dodge.

“Huu~~~”

Right at that moment, a strong gale swept forth from before Chu Feng. It was aimed directly at the sixth uncle.

That wind was so powerful that not only did it blow away the fallen leaves in the forest, it also blew the sixth uncle back repeatedly.

“Sixth, Feng’er is still only a child. Is there a need for you to lower yourself to argue with him?”

At that moment, a familiar voice sounded beside Chu Feng. Chu Feng turned to the side, and saw a person standing there. Immediately, his heart tightened.

Standing beside him was a man. That person was his adoptive father, Chu Yuan.

Chapter 2121 – Resurrection Secret Technique

“Father,” Upon seeing Chu Yuan, a huge wave immediately surged in Chu Feng’s heart.

“Feng’er, are you alright?” Chu Yuan smiled as he looked to Chu Feng. His gaze was filled with concern.

“I’m fine,” Chu Feng shook his head repeatedly.

“Chu Yuan, for you to pamper Chu Feng like that, you will spoil him sooner or later,” Chu Nanshan said angrily.

“If I cannot protect even my own son, I am unqualified to be Chu Feng’s father,” Chu Yuan said unyieldingly.

“You...” Chu Nanshan gnashed his teeth in anger. However, as his strength was inferior to Chu Yuan’s, he ended up waving his sleeve and swaggering off angrily.

Although Chu Feng knew very well that this was a dream, his eyes still reddened. Especially after he heard what Chu Yuan said, the tears that were swirling at the corners of his eyes bubbled out like a flood.

Although this was only his dream, Chu Feng clearly remembered that this scene had actually happened before.

Although he was not Chu Yuan’s biological son, Chu Yuan had always pampered him like this.

“Feng’er, what are you crying about? Real men should not cry,” Seeing that Chu Feng was crying, Chu Yuan squatted in front of him and gently caressed Chu Feng’s tiny head.

“Father, I have let you down. I have let grandpa down, let the entire Chu Family down. I have caused the deaths of you all. It is I who killed you all,” Chu Feng’s tears and mucus were mixed together and covered his entire face.

The current Chu Feng was no longer the Chu Feng that had shocked the entire Holy Land of Martialism. He had returned to being the Chu Feng that was not even ten years old.

A child with a heart filled with self-blame.

Seeing Chu Feng acting like this, Chu Yuan felt extremely pained.

He said, “Feng’er, don’t say nonsense like that. The person that should be apologizing should be your father, me.”

“As your father, I was incompetent. That is why I ended up being killed.”

“As your father, I was incompetent. That is why I am unable to watch you grow up.”

“Feng’er, I hope that you will not blame father. After all, father is only an ordinary mortal.”

“You have done enough for the Chu Family. If it wasn’t for your protection, the Chu Family would’ve already been completely eliminated.”

“Thus, although you are not my biological son, you are still my pride. You are the pride of everyone from our Chu Family.”

“The path of martial cultivation is extremely hard. We are unable to provide any assistance to you. As such, you can only rely on yourself.”

“But, Feng’er, remember this. You are a man. Regardless of the time, you must remain strong.”

After saying those words, Chu Yuan’s body started to grow fuzzy. Everything surrounding Chu Feng began to become fuzzy.

“Father, don’t leave. Stay with Feng’er for a bit longer!”

“Father, don’t leave Feng’er by himself!!!”

Chu Feng tightly grabbed onto Chu Yuan’s clothes and started to shout.

He knew that... this dream of his was about to shatter. However, he did not wish for the dream to shatter. He did not wish to wake up yet.

However, even though Chu Feng was grabbing onto Chu Yuan's clothes very tightly, Chu Yuan's clothes still faded from Chu Feng's grasp.

Soon, Chu Yuan disappeared. Then, everything before him disappeared, and Chu Feng's surroundings turned pitch-black.

When light reemerged in Chu Feng's line of sight, he discovered that he was no longer by the brook on the mountain behind the Chu Family mansion. Instead, he was in a cozy sleeping chamber in the Realm of Gods.

In the end, he had still woken from his dream.

Chu Feng wiped the corners of his eyes. There were truly tears there.

Although Chu Feng had not cried as miserably as he had in his dream, he remained influenced by his state of mind in his dream, and had ended up shedding tears.

"Master, what's wrong?" Suddenly, the door to the room was opened. It was the blind old man.

"I'm fine," Chu Feng shook his head.

"Master, you're crying?" Although the blind old man was blind, he was able to see everything before him through special techniques.

Seeing the tear stains at the corners of Chu Feng's eyes, the blind old man became extremely worried.

"I had a dream. I dreamed of my adoptive father," Chu Feng said.

"....." Hearing those words, the blind old man's expression changed. He seemed to have thought of something. He said, "Master, there is a secret technique that might be able to revive your family.”

Chu Feng was startled to hear those words. He revealed disbelief in his eyes. After all, the dead could not be revived. That was common knowledge.

However, the blind old man didn't appear to be deceiving him. Thus, Chu Feng hurriedly asked, “There's a way to revive my family? Is what you speak of real?”

“Master, a person possesses three spiritual and seven physical souls. One's physical body is merely a vessel for one's soul.”

“For example, master, if your physical body is destroyed, you are able to instantly create another physical body. Before those with the same level of strength as you, you possess an undying and indestructible body.”

“However, it is actually not master's physical body that is all powerful. Rather, it is master's soul and cultivation that are powerful. That is why you are undying and indestructible to those that are weak.”

“Thus, to people, their soul... is the most crucial aspect in respect to their life and death.”

“Back then, the people that massacred your family were only a bunch of weak people. They all possessed very weak levels of cultivation. They were not much different from ordinary commoners.”

“People like them cannot be considered actual martial cultivators. They do not possess the power that martial cultivators possess.”

“Thus, although the members of your family were killed, they are not truly dead. It is merely their physical bodies that were destroyed, and their souls scattered. For souls like those... they will remain in existence for a hundred years.”

“This old man knows of a method. As long as it's the deceased's relative, and that relative possessed a certain level of cultivation and world spirit techniques, they would be able to search for the deceased's soul."

"As long as the scattered souls are found, and bodies are created for them, it is possible for them to be revived."

"Master, you've fulfilled all of the requirements," The blind old man explained.

"Blind Uncle, there is truly such a method?" Astonishment filled Chu Feng's face. The reason for that was because what the blind old man said was very reasonable, and in accordance with the rules of the world. As a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, Chu Feng felt that it was feasible.

"This old servant would not dare to deceive master. This is the technique," Seemingly already prepared, the blind old man took an ancient scroll from his bosom and handed it to Chu Feng.

Chu Feng opened the scroll and read it carefully. The more he read, the more astonished he became. His gaze began to reveal more and more joy.

"This is feasible, this is feasible!" At that moment, Chu Feng was wild with joy. He was excited like a child.

The reason for that was because his adoptive father and the people from the Chu Family were all extremely important to him.

Although they were not related to him by blood, Chu Feng viewed them as his close relatives, his true family.

Their deaths had become an eternal pain in Chu Feng's heart. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had never thought that the dead could be revived.

However, he had now truly obtained a method to revive them. Furthermore, it was not random speculation, but rather a truly feasible method. As such, Chu Feng would naturally be overjoyed.

“Actually, it is also fortunate that the people that killed your family were only Profound Realm cultivators. If they were Heaven Realm cultivators, there would be no way to save your family members.”

“Furthermore, this technique is something that has never been attempted before. As such, this old servant is uncertain as to whether or not it will actually work,” The blind old man said.

“Regardless, this remains a strand of hope,” Chu Feng held tightly to the scroll, and looked to the blind old man, “Blind Uncle, regardless of whether it works or not, you have helped me enormously.”

As the blind old man had been carrying the scroll with him, Chu Feng was able to tell that the blind old man already knew of his heart’s knot.

Thus, even if Chu Feng had not had that dream, the blind old man would have still told him about that method sooner or later.

“Master, you must not say it like that. This old servant is truly honored to be able to help master out,” The blind old man said with a smile. He was extremely gratified to see how happy Chu Feng had become.

“Milord, this is bad, this is bad!” Right at that moment, someone ran in hastily. After arriving, that person knelt on the ground.

“Someone has opened the Stairway to Heaven,” That person replied.

three spiritual and seven physical souls → Some Daoism thing...

Chapter 2122 – I've Guessed Wrong

“What?” Hearing those words, the expressions of both Chu Feng and the blind old man changed. Then, the blind old man's body moved, and Chu Feng started to feel that his surrounding had turned fuzzy. When his line of sight returned to normal... not only had the two of them left the sleeping chambers, they were also before a vast plaza.

Above the plaza was a grand formation. Inside the formation was a ray of golden light that shot straight into the sky. It seemed that the light was going to pierce through the sky and the heavenly dome.

Within the golden light was a series of steps that seemed to be made of crystal. It was the Stairway to Heaven; it looked exactly the same as the Stairway to Heaven Chu Feng saw in the Misty Peak.

However, there was also difference between them. Many waves of energy were spreading below the Stairway to Heaven unceasingly. The energies were spreading toward the Stairway to Heaven.

This scene had not been present in the Misty Peak's Immortalization Road.

“Who dares activate the Stairway to Heaven without permission? Do you have a death wish?” The blind old man shouted furiously. His serious gaze swept toward the surrounding guards.

A rank three Half Martial Ancestor level old man stood forward and said, “Milord, we do not know who did this.”

“Do not know? You are tasked with guarding this place, yet you actually dare to tell me that you do not know? What use is there in having you all here then?!” The blind old man grew even more furious.

“Hahaha...” Right at that moment, a burst of laughter sounded from the Stairway to Heaven. Then, a voice said, “Seems like the servants of the Chu Heavenly Clan are only at this level.”

“Xue Ji? It’s you?!!!” Hearing that voice, Chu Feng’s eyes instantly narrowed. He raised his head and looked toward the location where the voice had sounded from.

“It’s actually not one of our men?!” At that moment, the blind old man became even more furious.

The blind old man had thought that it was his clansmen that had not behaved themselves and ended up activating the Stairway to Heaven. However, he now discovered that he had guessed wrong.

“You dare use the Stairway to Heaven without permission? You are truly courting death!” At that moment, many people took out their Imperial Armaments and began to fly toward the Stairway to Heaven.

“All of you, stay your hand!” The blind old man hurriedly shouted, “The Stairway to Heaven has already been activated. If you all are to climb the stairs, you will enter the Outer World. At that time, none of you will be able to return.”

“But...” The crowd all stopped, but were filled with irreconciliation.

Right at that moment, that voice sounded again. “Chu Feng, let us meet again in the Outer World.”

“Buzz~~~”

After that voice sounded, a dazzling ray of light descended from the sky, enveloping the region below.

When that light faded away, Chu Feng discovered that the Stairway to Heaven had returned to normal.

“Damn it!”

The blind old man was gnashing his teeth furiously. He then raised his hand and shot a palm strike toward the depths of the sky.

“Boom~~~”

The sky started to tremble. Violent energy ripples immediately covered the entire sky. As the energy ripples wreaked havoc in the sky, it was a truly frightening sight to behold.

The might of that attack was simply indescribable. Chu Feng did not know how powerful the strength of that attack was. However, he knew that if he were to approach the energy ripples, he would undoubtedly be killed.

That said, Chu Feng also knew that even an attack like that would not be able to injure Xue Ji. Xue Ji had already left. Likely... she had already entered the Outer World.

“What were you all doing?! Didn’t I order you all to properly guard this place?! How could you all not know when someone activated the Stairway to Heaven?!” The blind old man shouted at the guards.

“Milord, we...” All of the guards knelt onto the floor. However, they were at a loss as to how to respond. The reason for that was because they had not seen anyone approaching the Stairway to Heaven. When they discovered that something was amiss, the Stairway to Heaven had already been activated.

“We were useless. Milord, please punish us,” Feeling helpless, the guards could only ask for punishment.

“Blind Uncle, please don’t blame them. I am able to tell that they all held their posts with sincerity. It is just that Xue Ji’s techniques are too strange. Thus, it is normal that they would fail to discover her,” Chu Feng pleaded for the guards.

The reason for that was because he had also not discovered any traces of anyone on the Stairway to Heaven before Xue Ji spoke. The blind old man had also not discovered anyone.

However, Xue Ji had actually ascended the Stairway to heaven.

Thus, when even+ they failed to discover Xue Ji, how could these guards possibly be able to discover Xue Ji?

“Master, are you certain that that was Xue Ji?” The blind old man asked.

“There’s no mistaking that voice. It was definitely Xue Ji,” Chu Feng said.

“That girl actually possessed strength that even my perception failed to detect? Exactly how did she get in here?” The blind old man started to ponder.

“It might not necessarily be because she possessed strength that surpassed your own. It is very likely that it is because she possesses special tricks. After all, she is from the Asura Spirit World,” Chu Feng said.

The blind old man heaved a long sigh. He was still extremely unreconciled. Self-blame filled his face.

“May I know where the Dark Hall’s Hall Master is imprisoned? Is it possible for me to see him?” Chu Feng asked the crowd.

“He is imprisoned in the underground prison. I’ll lead the way for master right away,” A guard said.

“There’s no need for that,” The blind old man waved his sleeve. Immediately, wind covered both him and Chu Feng.

At the moment Chu Feng was caught up in the wind, he felt his surrounding growing fuzzy again.

When his line of sight returned to normal, Chu Feng was surprised to discover that he was in the underground prison.

After arriving at the underground prison, the blind old man slowed his pace. He began to guide Chu Feng toward the depths of the underground prison one step at a time.

There were a lot of guards in the underground prison. They were all very powerful, being either Half Martial Ancestors or peak Martial Emperors.

When they saw Chu Feng, they all hurriedly kneeled before him to greet him courteously.

When they were so quick to kneel to Chu Feng, naturally none of them dared to stop Chu Feng and the blind old man. After all, not only was the blind old man the leader of this place, they held Chu Feng as being their master.

“Blind Uncle, may I know exactly what level of cultivation you possess?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

The blind old man was truly too powerful. Originally, Chu Feng had thought that, as he had been able to defeat the Dark Hall’s Hall Master, his cultivation would be among the very best in the Holy Land of Martialism.

It was only after he arrived at this place that he discovered that his cultivation was actually not very powerful at all even in the Holy Land of Martialism. At the very least, a lot of the people here, these people that declared themselves to be the servants of the Chu Heavenly Clan, all possessed more powerful cultivations than him. As for this blind old man, he was simply unfathomable.

“Blind Uncle is truly amazing,” The answer given by the blind old man was more or less what Chu Feng had anticipated.

“I was originally a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. It was only because Lord Xuanyuan’s assistance during the last time he was here that this old servant was able to reach a breakthrough.”

“Else... with this old servant’s comprehension ability, I’m afraid that I would never have been able to obtain my current level of cultivation in my lifetime,” After saying those words, the blind old man smiled happily.

From the blind old man's reaction, Chu Feng was able to tell that he felt not only great reverence toward Chu Feng's father Chu Xuanyuan, he also felt a great amount of gratefulness.

Even though the blind old man was wholeheartedly devoted to being a servant of the Chu Heavenly Clan his entire life, he also possessed his own pursuits toward the path of martial cultivation.

"If my father was willing to help me, how great would that be," Chu Feng said jokingly.

"Lord Xuanyuan most definitely possesses his own intentions for putting master through all these trials."

"However, master possesses outstanding talent that the slow people in the Holy Land of Martialism simply cannot compare to."

"Your battlefield is in the Outer World. Furthermore, with master's talent, you will definitely be a dragon among men even in the Outer World. Very few people would be able to fight against you," The blind old man said.

"I was merely joking. I naturally know that my father is doing all this for my sake," Chu Feng said with a smile.

After finding out about the concern his father had for him from the blind old man, Chu Feng had become increasingly desirous of meeting his father.

Although Chu Feng should be proceeding toward the Outer World now, he first had to return to the Eastern Sea Region and the Nine Provinces Continent before leaving.

Firstly, he must use that secret technique to revive his family.

Secondly, he must enter the Heavenly Road and meet his biological father, Chu Xuanyuan.

As the two men chatted, they arrived before the prison cell that held the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

"This... what happened here?"

Merely, when the prison cell was opened, other than Chu Feng and the blind old man, the expressions of the rest of the people all changed enormously.

After all, only the clothing of the Dark Hall's Hall Master and a pile of bones were in the prison cell.

"Who did this?" An old man who seemed to be the person in charge of the prison shouted at the crowd furiously. He thought that it was the guards that had killed the Dark Hall's Hall Master.

"This subordinate wouldn't dare," The guards all kneeled to the ground.

"Don't blame them. It was most definitely not done by them," Chu Feng waved his hand. However, his gaze was fixed onto that pile of bones the entire time.

"Never would I have expected this to be the case," Chu Feng's eyes narrowed. A trace of a surprised expression appeared in his gaze.

"Master, could it be that you've thought of this?" The blind old man asked.

"I had originally thought that Xue Ji had followed the Dark Hall's Hall Master here, and that the Dark Hall's Hall Master might've followed her into the Outer World."

"However, it is very clear that I have guessed wrong. Xue Ji entered the Outer World by herself. Furthermore, she killed the Dark Hall's Hall Master before leaving," Chu Feng said.

Chapter 2123 – Chu Feng’s Friend

“Judging from this situation, it seems that Ying Chong has been refined,” The blind old man said.

“That’s right. He’s been completely refined,” Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and a gentle breeze brushed past. The seemingly intact bones of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master immediately turned to dust.

It was not caused by Chu Feng’s power. Rather, it was because the bones of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master were truly too weak.

Seeing this scene, the expressions of the guards all changed. With the cultivation that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master possessed, even if he were to turn to bones, his bones should be indestructible. It would be impossible for his bones to be this weak. Those bones were simply much weaker than the bones of even ordinary people that had never embarked upon the path of martial cultivation.

The situation at hand verified what Chu Feng and the blind old man suspected – the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had been completely refined; he had been killed through being refined.

“Xue Ji, exactly what is it that you’re planning to do?” Chu Feng muttered.

He was more and more incapable of seeing through the thoughts of that Asura World Spirit that had originally belonged to him.

The sensation of being unable to see through Xue Ji was extremely unpleasant for Chu Feng. Most importantly, he was unable to ascertain whether Xue Ji... was a friend or a foe.

He suspected that she might be a friend because she had saved him. Furthermore, she had informed him of the demonic technique of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

He suspected that she might be a foe because she had done a lot of things unknown to him.

Most importantly, the killing intent that she had emitted back when she was still in his world spirit space had not seemed fake.

Suddenly, a guard hastily ran over. “Reporting to Master, reporting to Master.”

“Someone has intruded into our territory and has been captured by us,”

“Did the intruder see you all?” The blind old man asked.

“He did,” The guard replied.

“Then why bother asking? Kill him,” The Blind Old Man replied.

“But... that person declared himself to be Master’s friend. Furthermore, he said he has come to find Master,” The guard replied.

“My friend?” Chu Feng and the blind old man were startled to hear those words. They looked to one another, and both revealed confused expressions.

Especially Chu Feng; he felt astonished. The great majority of his friends were all hidden in the Transmogrification Gate. Why would someone come here to find him?

Furthermore, no one knew that he had come here. Even if someone had decided to find him, it should be impossible for them to directly come to this place.

Puzzled, Chu Feng said, “Bring me to see him.”

Being guided by the guard, they arrived at a palace. This was the same palace in which the blind old man had received Chu Feng earlier.

“You all actually brought an intruder to this place?!” The blind old man was slightly angry. After all, this place was also a forbidden area for their clansmen. Only existences of Chu Feng’s status would be allowed to be received in that place.

“Eh... I was foolish. I thought he was truly Master’s friend,” That guard hurriedly kneeled to the ground. Apology filled his face.

“There’s no harm to it. I’ll know from a single glance whether or not that person is my friend,” Chu Feng smiled. Then he said, “open the gate.”

“Creak~~~”

Once those words were spoken, the guards standing to either side of the gate pushed open the gate to the palace.

After the gate to the palace was pushed open, Chu Feng finally saw the person that had declared himself to be his friend. It turned out that that person was indeed Chu Feng’s friend.

It was Wang Qiang.

At that moment, Wang Qiang was sitting on a chair in the palace hall. Without any restraint, he was eating the refreshments the blind old man had prepared for Chu Feng earlier.

He was truly unfettered and unrestrained. It was as if he was truly a guest in this place.

Even though the guards standing beside him were all glaring at him like tigers, seemingly planning to kill him at any moment, Wang Qiang still showed absolutely zero fear.

“Aiyayaya, C-Chu Feng, t-t-t-to see y-y-you still alive, I am t-t-truly overjoyed,” Wang Qiang was immensely happy to see Chu Feng. He wiped his mouth and ran over to Chu Feng.

“Wang Qiang, why would you be here?” Chu Feng asked in astonishment.

Before seeing Wang Qiang, Chu Feng had truly never thought that it would be Wang Qiang that came here. It was not that Chu Feng did not consider Wang Qiang his friend. Rather, he truly never imagined it to be Wang Qiang.

“I-I-I f-followed you h-here. S-seeing that you s-still didn’t c-c-come out a-after a long time p-p-passed, I t-thought something m-might've happened to you. T-t-thus, I came in to s-s-search for you."

"N-n-never would I have ex-ex-expected that y-you're a-a-actually doing pretty well here," Wang Qiang patted Chu Feng's shoulder and spoke with a loud laugh. His actions were truly thoughtless in appearance.

"Hey, b-brother," Wang Qiang suddenly moved to Chu Feng's ear and whispered sneakily, "y-y-you c-couldn't possibly t-truly be their M-m-master, r-right? It s-seems to m-me that t-they are v-very s-scared of you."

"It's a long story. I'll fill you in on the details later," Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he looked to the blind old man and said, "Blind Uncle, this man is my friend. I believe you also know him. He has helped me before. Might it be possible... to make an exception and spare his life?"

"Master, your wish is my command. This old servant will do as you say," The blind old man replied respectfully.

Then, the blind old man made a gesture toward the guards. The guards tacitly understood his intentions, and withdrew from the palace with the blind old man.

When the palace's gate was closed, only Chu Feng and Wang Qiang remained.

"Oh my, my, b-b-boy, y-y-you're actually r-r-really the master of this p-place? H-heavens, t-that blind old man is e-extremely powerful. E-even I c-cannot s-s-see through him."

"N-n-never would I have ex-expected for the Re-Realm of Gods t-to have t-this many ex-ex-experts. No w-wonder all t-th-those that enter this place e-end up dying."

"S-s-say, s-sin-since you have s-so many powerful s-subordinates, w-why didn't you have them a-act sooner? W-why st-struggle with your own l-life on the line to f-fight against th-that D-dark Hall's Hall Master?” Wang Qiang was extremely excited. At the same time, he was also very puzzled.

It seemed that he had only charged into this place because he was worried about Chu Feng.

“Wait a moment. You said that you followed me here, why were you following me?” Chu Feng asked.

“I d-don’t know. I w-was v-very bored,” Wang Qiang said with a mischievous laugh.

“You were protecting me from the shadows?” Chu Feng asked.

“Pah, w-why would I p-protect you? I’m n-not r-re-related to you.”

“I m-m-merely wanted t-to k-kill the Dark H-hall’s Hall M-master and h-h-have them d-deem me the o-overlord.”

“N-never d-did I ex-expect that you w-would return t-the m-moment I planned to stop him. B-because of my b-brotherly camaraderie, I d-d-decided to have you sh-show off your m-might first.”

“Ne-never would I have e-expected you to be so f-foolish to a-actually l-let the Dark Hall’s Hall M-master escape. I w-was cur-curious as to where that g-guy es-escaped to. F-furthermore, s-since you said t-that you could t-track him, I d-decided to f-follow you here,” Wang Qiang said.

“The beginning and the end of your words does not go along with one another. Didn’t you just say that you were not related to me? And now, you’re speaking about brotherly camaraderie? Who are you trying to deceive here?”

“You were hiding your strength the entire time, and following me in the dark. Exactly what are your intentions?” Chu Feng asked in a serious manner.

The way Chu Feng saw it, Wang Qiang possessed no interest in the so-called title of ‘genius.’ Else, with his strength, he could easily obtain it.

Instead, Wang Qiang was someone who would appear and disappear unpredictably. Furthermore, he possessed overwhelming strength that could not be looked down upon. Due to the many confusing things regarding him, Chu Feng was very curious about his identity.

Curiosity, it was pure curiosity. The reason was because regardless of what intentions Wang Qiang might have, Chu Feng felt that Wang Qiang did not possess an evil nature, that he was a worthy friend. However, the prerequisite for that was... that he must be honest.

“F-forget about it, f-forget a-about it, I-I’ll tell you, alright?”

“I, Wang Q-Qiang, have n-never t-thought f-favorably of anyone i-in my l-life. B-but, for s-s-some unknown reason, I th-think fa-favorably of you.”

“Although you fought a-against me, I k-kept feeling t-that you a-are someone w-worthy to b-befriend, that you a-are an h-honest man.”

“Thus, if y-you w-we-were to truly d-die, I m-might e-end up feeling t-that I was m-missing something. Th-thus, you m-must be p-protected by m-me.”

“I-I-I’m n-not being s-stubborn h-here,” Wang Qiang said with his large mouth slanted to the side. The shameless Wang Qiang was actually a bit embarrassed when saying those words.

Chapter 2124 – Wang Qiang’s Past

“In that case, you’ve been following me the entire time?” Chu Feng asked.

“N-no, not the e-entire time. O-only twice. The f-first time was w-when you w-went to that so called Dao T-temple.”

“The o-other time is t-t-this time. I-I would never f-follow you a-all the time. I’m n-not a stalker,” Wang Qiang said.

Seeing Wang Qiang reacting in such a manner, Chu Feng smiled at ease. Although Wang Qiang was ugly, Chu Feng felt him to be quite adorable when he acted like this.

Although there was still confusion in Chu Feng’s heart, he still smiled and said to Wang Qiang, “Actually, I just found out about the things here not long ago myself. However, I am able to tell you about them. That said, you must promise me that you will not tell anyone else about the things here.”

“M-m-my mouth is a-a-ab-absolutely tight,” Wang Qiang pledged with his hand raised. He was very excited upon knowing that Chu Feng was going to tell him about the situation here.

“Very well, I’ll tell you then. However, before telling you, I have another request,” Chu Feng said.

“W-w-what is it?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Exactly how strong are you? Can you tell me the truth?” Chu Feng asked.

The current Wang Qiang only appeared to be a rank six Martial Emperor to Chu Feng. That level of cultivation was already very powerful.

However, Chu Feng felt that that was not Wang Qiang’s true cultivation. The reason for that was because Wang Qiang had said that he came to protect him. In other words, Wang Qiang’s strength most definitely surpassed his own. Else, how was he to protect him?

“F-forget about it. I-I-I’ll t-tell you,” Wang Qiang laughed mischievously. Then, he let out a strand of his aura. Sensing that aura, Chu Feng immediately realized that Wang Qiang’s cultivation was already no longer that of a Martial Emperor.

That aura of his was the aura of a Half Martial Ancestor. Wang Qiang was actually a rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

However, that was not all. After Wang Qiang waved his sleeve, the surrounding Ancestral-level martial power ended up being controlled by him. At that time, Chu Feng sensed that his heaven-defying battle power was not merely capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. Instead, like him, Wang Qiang possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.

That sort of battle power was two levels above ordinary Martial Emperors and Half Martial Ancestors.

Although he had anticipated it, when he actually discovered that Wang Qiang possessed a strength that surpassed his own, Chu Feng still felt extremely shocked.

“Y-you’re a-as-astonished, right? D-don’t be. W-what’s to c-come will make y-you even m-more a-astonished.”

“I am a-able to c-conceal my s-strength from you a-and that b-blind old man b-because I h-have a t-treasure. L-look,” As Wang Qiang spoke, he took out a special burlap sack. That sack appeared to be very badly sewn. It was simply even lousier than clothes that beggars wore.

However, after Wang Qiang put that burlap sack around him, he disappeared. That burlap sack also disappeared.

He had disappeared completely. Chu Feng was unable to even sense a trace of his aura.

“H-how is it? A-amazing, right?” Wang Qiang’s voice sounded. However, Chu Feng was still unable to sense his aura.

“No wonder. No wonder even Blind Uncle was unable to discover you.”

“You, exactly what sort of origin do you have?” Chu Feng frowned.

When disregarding Wang Qiang’s strength, this treasure he had revealed was truly a rare and powerful treasure. How could such a powerful treasure appear in the Holy Land of Martialism?

“Hehe, I-I-I to-told you the fi-first time we met. I am an e-exceptional genius, I am a-amazing.”

“It is o-only you all t-that refused to believe me. How i-is it? Y-you believe me now? I-I’ve stunned you, no?” Wang Qiang said complacently.

“You still didn’t answer my question,” Chu Feng said in a serious manner, “As brothers, you must be candid with me.”

“If you truly consider me your friend, then tell me the truth. Only with that will I able to be candid with you.”

“E-even if you a-ask me, I don’t k-know how to r-respond to you. I p-possess neither a f-father or a m-mother. I a-also do not possess a b-background l-like the one you have.”

“E-either way, ever s-since I was a-able to f-form memories, I d-discovered myself in a ruin. O-other than v-vicious ferocious b-beasts and all kinds of t-traps, there was not a s-single person there.”

“If I wanted to l-leave that place, I h-had to become a Martial Emperor. Thus, I c-could only put my a-all into m-martial cultivation.”

“I-it was o-only after I got o-out did I find out that t-that p-p-place was actually an A-ancient Era’s r-remnant.”

“Even now, no one has discovered that remnant. If you don’t believe me, I can bring you to that remnant.”

“However, I’ve already gathered all the treasures there. Even if you go there, it’ll be for nothing,” Wang Qiang said.

“In that case, you’ve hidden your strength since the first time I met you?” Chu Feng asked.

The reason for that was because if Wang Qiang was telling the truth, then, when Chu Feng had met him at the Sealing Ancient Village, he should have been at least a Martial Emperor. As such, how could Chu Feng possibly have been able to defeat Wang Qiang then?

“Hehe, this great lord enjoys an interesting life. The days of me being in the Ancient Era’s remnant by myself were truly too boring.”

“How was it? My acting ability is pretty good, no?” Wang Qiang patted Chu Feng’s shoulder and said complacently.

“Indeed, it’s pretty good,” Chu Feng expressed his approval. After all, Chu Feng possessed a very strong perception. Very few people were able to keep him in the dark.

However, Wang Qiang, this person with an age similar to his own, was actually able to completely deceive Chu Feng.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile on his face, “Speaking of it, you said earlier that you never thought favorably of anyone other than me, could it be... that you fell for me?”

Hearing those words, Wang Qiang’s expression changed enormously. Then, he immediately released his hand from Chu Feng’s shoulder, and sprayed out a mouthful of saliva before shouting, “Pah! Pah! Pah! Pah! Pah! Pah! Your daddy I am heterosexual, okay?! No matter how handsome you might be, this great sir will still not have any interest in you.”

Seeing such a reaction from Wang Qiang, Chu Feng smiled complacently. This fellow had completely deceived him before. This time around, Chu Feng had finally managed to play him for a fool.

Suddenly, Wang Qiang stopped his emotional state of mind and in a deadpan earnest manner, he said, “C-Chu Feng, l-let me w-warn you. Don’t you th-think of d-doing a-anything to me because of h-how charming I am. E-else...”

“If I, b-by chance, d-decide to f-follow t-through with your desire, you w-wouldn’t be a-able to resist,” As he said those words, Wang Qiang suddenly threw himself at Chu Feng, grabbing Chu Feng’s waist tightly while pushing his face onto Chu Feng’s body. His appearance was truly disgusting.

“Scram!” In response, Chu Feng hurriedly shook Wang Qiang off. Then, he raised his leg and kicked Wang Qiang several meters away.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s entire body was covered with goose bumps. He was extremely disgusted by Wang Qiang. From what had happened earlier, Chu Feng was certain that he was definitely heterosexual, that he possessed absolutely no interest in men.

“L-l-lil newbie, t-trying to play with me?”

“If I c-can’t w-win against you, I’ll d-d-disgust you to death,” Wang Qiang sat on the ground and laughed out loud while slapping the ground.

Although Wang Qiang’s action was absolutely shameless, Chu Feng still had a favorable impression of Wang Qiang. Although this fellow was a weirdo, he was definitely not a malicious person.

Perhaps, it was as Wang Qiang had said, that he had spent too much time alone in the Ancient Era’s remnant. Perhaps that might be why he ended up having such an insane personality.

Thinking about it, if what Wang Qiang said was the truth, then his childhood was truly tragic.

No matter what, Chu Feng have had the people from the Chu Family looking after him. Yet, Wang Qiang... had been living by himself ever since he was able to form memories.

Furthermore, he had been living in an Ancient Era's remnant. Although Chu Feng had not been to the Ancient Era's remnant Wang Qiang lived in, he knew what sort of places the Ancient Era's remnants were.

They were dark, dangerous and frightening. They were places even martial cultivators would fear. As such, there was no need to mention how frightening they would be for a child.

When compared with Wang Qiang, Chu Feng felt himself to be very fortunate.

Chapter 2125 – The Title Of Overlord

After Chu Feng sat down, he pointed to the chair beside him and said, “Come, have a seat. Let me tell you about my story.”

“Coming,” Wang Qiang sat down excitedly. He grabbed a large plate of refreshments with one hand, and with his other hand, began to put them into his mouth nonstop. His eyes were fixed on Chu Feng. He was happily waiting for Chu Feng to tell his story.

Chu Feng then began to inform Wang Qiang about the things that had happened here. He included the matters regarding the Chu Heavenly Clan, the death of the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and Xue Ji’s escape to the Outer World.

The reason why Chu Feng did not conceal anything from Wang Qiang was because he considered Wang Qiang to be his friend. He told Wang Qiang the truth because he trusted Wang Qiang.

Moreover, Wang Qiang had already told his own secret to Chu Feng. As such, it should only be natural that Chu Feng was honest with Wang Qiang.

Furthermore, Wang Qiang possessed outstanding talent, and was most definitely not a frog in a well. As such, Chu Feng wanted to invite Wang Qiang to enter the Outer World together with him. Like that... he would not be alone.

After hearing Chu Feng’s invitation, Wang Qiang asked excitedly, “G-Go t-to the O-O-Outer World t-together? A-Are there a lot of beauties i-in the Outer W-World?”

“I don’t know if there are a lot of beauties in the Outer World. However, the Outer World most definitely possesses an innumerable amount of experts. If you wish to obtain even greater progress on the path of Martial Cultivation, the Outer World is a place that you must go to,” Chu Feng said.

“A-Actually, I-I’ve l-long since grown t-t-tired of this place. S-

Since that t-t-t-trash Dark Hall's H-H-Hall Master is dead, l-let's go then. W-Why the wait? L-Let's go to the Outer W-World right now," Wang Qiang said excitedly. It could be seen that he was filled with anticipation for the unknown Outer World.

"Not yet, there are still some things that must be taken care of here," Chu Feng said.

"W-What are t-those?" Wang Qiang asked.

"The resurrection of my family," Chu Feng said.

"F-Family? Isn't y-your family in t-t-the Outer W-World? F-Fuck, you've c-completely c-c-confused me," A puzzled expression covered Wang Qiang's face.

"My story is very long. If you wish to know more about me, I can slowly tell you about it. However, it must be done while we travel," Chu Feng said with a smile.

Then, Chu Feng found the blind old man and informed him that he planned to leave the Realm of Gods. After all, Chu Feng was impatient to revive his family members.

"Master, it is good for you to leave now."

"The reason for that is because the Eastern Sea Region's Heavenly Road should be opening soon. This is the perfect timing for me to accompany master to see Lord Xuanyuan."

"However, Master, you must not take that vicious spatial crack again. Instead, you should take the safe one," The blind old man said.

"There's another spatial crack that leads to the Eastern Sea Region?" Chu Feng was surprised.

"There is," The blind old man nodded.

Thus, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang left the Realm of Gods.

Although the Dark Hall's Hall Master had been killed, with Chu Feng and Wang Qiang's cultivations, there was practically no one in the Holy Land of Martialism capable of causing harm to them...

...but, for the sake of speeding up the journey for Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, the blind old man decided to leave together with them. After all, he also wished to pay his respects to Chu Feng's father and see how Zi Ling was doing.

However, due to his status, the blind old man would not reveal himself. Like before, he would hide himself.

Chu Feng first arrived at the Transmogrification Gate. He had to announce to the crowd that the Dark Hall's Hall Master had been killed.

Of course, Chu Feng could not tell them the truth as to what had happened. After all, there were too many people here; he could not allow all of them to know about the Realm of Gods, as well as the Chu Heavenly Clan.

The crowd were all overjoyed and emotional to see Chu Feng's return.

As for Chu Feng, he casually told them a story about how he had killed the Dark Hall's Hall Master. Hearing that story, the crowd were even more excited and overjoyed.

After all, the story, the process of how it had happened, was not important. What was important was the fact that the Dark Hall's Hall Master had been killed. That was what the crowd wished for.

After verifying that the Dark Hall's Hall Master had been killed, the Transmogrification Gate was opened. After all, without the threat of the Dark Hall's Hall Master, both humans and monstrous beasts were able to return to their respective powers.

Everyone was going to go home.

Smiling figures filled the entire region. Regardless of whether they were humans or monstrous beasts, everyone's faces were covered with smiles of joy and excitement. Chu Feng was also feeling very happy.

He was happy that he had helped those people survive. He did not feel himself to be extraordinary because he had saved them.

Rather, by saving them and allowing them to return home, allowing the various powers from the various races to be able to continue to exist, this caused Chu Feng to feel that he had helped the people here.

Even though the world of martial cultivation was still cruel and killings would never stop...

Even though the humans and monstrous beasts here had experienced tribulations together and were all smiling right now...

They might, one day, for their own personal interests, slaughter one another. And that... was something that Chu Feng was destined to be unable to prevent.

But, that didn't matter. It was impossible for a single person to save everyone in the world to begin with.

At the very least... Chu Feng had managed to save a portion of the innocent people.

It was already sufficient that he had saved these people.

“Emperor Chu!!!”

“Emperor Chu!!!”

“Emperor Chu!!!”

“Emperor Chu!!!”

.....

.....

.....

After the hundreds of millions of people all walked out of the Transmogrification Gate, they did not immediately leave. Instead, they gathered on the ground in an orderly fashion and looked to Chu Feng, who stood in the sky, with gazes filled with gratefulness and adoration.

Regardless of whether they were men or women, young or old, humans or monstrous beasts, they were all cheering with raised arms.

“What is this?” Confused, Chu Feng looked to the Elf King beside him.

“Haha, I know. Let me explain it to you,” Before the Elf King could speak, Xian Miaomiao interrupted, “It’s like this. The Dark Hall’s Hall Master has been killed by you, and the Magma Emperor has been subdued by you. Thus, the people here wholeheartedly believe that you are the fully-deserving ruler of this era.”

“Thus, after you left, the people unanimously decided to deem you an Emperor, as this era’s sole overlord.”

“After a series of intense discussions, they decided to address you as Emperor Chu.”

“Furthermore, your status in the hearts of the crowd already surpasses that of Emperor Qing. Everyone feels that you are the strongest Emperor, the strongest overlord, since the Ancient Era.”

“However, that’s not the important point. Most importantly, it is I who suggested the name ‘Emperor Chu.’ How is it? Do you like it?” Xian Miaomiao asked as she patted her chest proudly.

“Emperor Chu?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng involuntarily looked to Wang Qiang beside him. After all, Wang Qiang possessed strength that surpassed his own.

“B-b-by o-overlord, it m-means s-someone that has managed to obtain the w-will of the p-people. Chu Feng, you h-have evidently a-a-a-accomplished it,” Wang Qiang said to Chu Feng.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng revealed a surprised expression. He had thought Wang Qiang to be a simple-minded and thoughtless individual. Never did he expect Wang Qiang to say something like that.

The intention behind Wang Qiang's words were very clear. Although Chu Feng's strength was inferior to his, Chu Feng had gained the will of the people, and truly saved the lives of hundreds of millions of people in the Holy Land of Martialism.

As for Wang Qiang, no matter how powerful he was, he had not done anything to help the people of the Holy Land of Martialism. The people that knew of him and his strength were even fewer. Compared to Chu Feng, he was simply insignificant.

Even if he were to stand forth and declare himself to be the strongest in the Holy Land of Martialism, he would likely be met with a rain of curses from the crowd.

Even if he were to fight against Chu Feng on the spot and defeat him, it was likely that no one would acknowledge him still.

After all, it was Chu Feng who had stood forth bravely for them in their time of need. It was also Chu Feng who had fought for the hundreds of millions of people here.

In this world, there were many people who possessed strength. However, not all of them were willing to use their own strength to assist people unrelated to them.

Thus, to the people of the Holy Land of Martialism, only Chu Feng was qualified to be this era's overlord.

In other words, what Wang Qiang meant by those words he said was that he also felt that Chu Feng should take up the title of the overlord.

Chapter 2126 – Journeying Together

“Overlord,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he said, “It’s merely a false reputation.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng looked to the sky. That was a place where their powers were incapable of reaching.

Only by entering the Stairway to Heaven would they be able to enter that place, the Outer World.

The so-called ‘overlord’ in this place, exactly what sort of wave could they possibly cause in the Outer World? That was something that no one knew.

However, Chu Feng had a feeling that the overlords of this place would be nothing more than ants in the eyes of the people in the Outer World.

“Chu Feng, even if it is a false reputation, it is still not something that just anyone could obtain.”

“To the people of the Holy Land of Martialism, it is a belief, a belief that there will be someone who can prevent calamities when they appear.”

“And you, you are someone who is qualified to take up that reputation. You are someone who is capable of shouldering the people’s belief,” The Elf King said.

“Your Majesty, although the Dark Hall’s Hall Master is dead now, the Holy Land of Martialism is a complete mess.”

“For many powers, their homes have already been ruined. Regardless of whether they are monstrous beasts or humans, they will all have to rebuild their homes.”

“And for that... I’m afraid they will likely need the assistance of the Ancient Era’s Elves. Everyone... still needs your assistance.”

“As for me, I will be going far away. Thus... if there really must be an overlord for the people, I feel that you are more suited for that title,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, please don’t joke around. Even if I were willing to accept it, the people of the Holy Land of Martialism would not be willing to bestow me that title.”

“You must not go telling the crowd that I should be the overlord. If you do, I suspect that they will try to drown me to death with their spit,” The Elf King joked.

“Chu Feng, the title of overlord belongs to only you. As such, stop trying to evade it. Even this old man feels that only you are capable of being the overlord,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“Seniors, you are all truly overvaluing this Chu Feng,” Chu Feng said in a somewhat ashamed manner.

If the only person who was able to obtain the will of the people could become the overlord, then that person must be someone who had done things with the intention of benefiting the people in the Holy Land of Martialism.

As for Chu Feng, he had only defeated the Dark Hall’s Hall Master. Furthermore, he had possessed a certain amount of selfishness in the battle between him and the Dark Hall’s Hall Master.

However, in terms of fighting against the Dark Hall’s Hall Master and protecting the people of the Holy Land of Martialism, the Ancient Era’s Elves’ contributions could not go unnoticed. Among them, their leader, the Elf King, was the one who had done the most.

Furthermore, although Chu Feng was still present in the Holy Land of Martialism right now, his heart had already entered the Outer World.

Chu Feng no longer cared about whatever reputation he might possess in the Holy Land of Martialism. However, the Ancient Era's Elves would remain in the Holy Land of Martialism. A great reputation would increase the authority of the Ancient Era's Elves in being able to better govern the Holy Land of Martialism in the future.

“Chu Feng, I know what you are thinking. We Ancient Era's Elves appreciate your kind intentions.”

“The people here are no fools. They are all martial cultivators that possess wisdom. They also possess the ability to differentiate between good and bad.”

“For them to acknowledge you as the overlord means that you are the overlord. Even if you refuse the title, you will still remain the overlord in their hearts,” The Elf King said.

Finally, Chu Feng sighed and reached a compromise. “Forget about it,” he said. After all, what the Elf King said was very reasonable.

Suddenly, the Heaven Reaching Immortal asked, “Little friend Chu Feng, you just said earlier that you'll be going far away; where are you planning to go? Could it be that you're planning to return to the Eastern Sea Region?”

“I'm going to the Outer World,” Chu Feng said.

“Outer World?!” Hearing those words, the crowd present all revealed expressions of shock.

“Chu Feng, you know how to enter the Outer World?” The Elf King hurriedly asked. As he spoke those words, he glanced at his daughter, Xian Miaomiao.

“In the Eastern Sea Region's Misty Peak is a formation by the name of ‘Stairway to Heaven.’ Through that Stairway to Heaven, one can enter the Outer World.”

Chu Feng did not mention the Realm of Gods. Although these people were all people that he trusted, he still did not wish to break the rules of the Realm of Gods.

Chu Feng hoped to be able to leave behind a pure land for the blind old man and the others.

“Little friend Chu Feng, is what you speak of for real?” The Elf King became even more emotional.

“I plan to return to the Eastern Sea Region to take care of some things. After I finish taking care of those things, I plan to directly leave for the Outer World from the Eastern Sea Region.”

“Miaomiao, you should accompany me. I have a feeling that the Outer World will have abundant cultivation resources. With your talent, your future prospects will look better there,” Chu Feng said to Xian Miaomiao.

He had promised the Elf King to take Xian Miaomiao to the Outer World with him. And now, as Chu Feng planned to leave for the Outer World, he would naturally have to take Xian Miaomiao with him.

Furthermore, Xian Miaomiao really did possess a very strong talent. In fact, Chu Feng faintly felt that Xian Miaomiao’s talent surpassed his own. She would definitely be able to gain a foothold in the Outer World.

“Chu Feng, I already know about the things concerning my mother. However, I do not wish to enter the Outer World just yet,” Xian Miaomiao said.

“Miaomiao, you belong to the Outer World,” The Elf King urged.

“Royal Father, I will leave for the Outer World. I also wish to find my biological mother. However, I wish to accompany you and big sister for some time longer,” Xian Miaomiao looked to the Elf King and Princess Lingyue. A reluctance to part filled her beautiful eyes.

“Royal Father, since Miaomiao wishes to stay some time longer, you shouldn’t urge her to leave. Just let her stay for a while longer. After all, she’s still so young,” Princess Lingyue was also reluctant to part with her sister Miaomiao. Thus, she urged her father to let her stay.

“Very well,” The Elf King nodded. As Xian Miaomiao was his own daughter, how could he be willing to see her go? He actually also wished for Xian Miaomiao to accompany them for some time more.

“Miaomiao, even if you proceed for the Outer World by yourself in the future, it would still be best for you to accompany me to the Eastern Sea Region this time around.”

“I’ll bring you to see the formation that leads to the Outer World, so you’ll know how to enter the Outer World when you plan to go there in the future,” Chu Feng said.

“But, isn’t the spatial crack that leads to the Eastern Sea Region a vicious one?” Princess Lingyue asked worriedly.

“I have discovered another spatial crack. This spatial crack is benign in nature and very safe,” Chu Feng said.

“Since that’s the case, let’s all go there together. As little friend Chu Feng will be leaving, we should all see him off,” The Heaven Reaching Immortal said.

“Great, great, great. Let’s all go together. I have never been to the Eastern Sea Region before. I want to see exactly what sort of place Chu Feng grew up in is like. I also want to see Chu Feng’s friends and relatives in the Eastern Sea Region,” Xian Miaomiao said excitedly.

“Since even the Heaven Reaching Immortal plans to go, we naturally cannot be absent,” The Elf King said those words, then took a glance back at Bali Xuankong, Nangong Longjian, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Compass Immortal, the Snow-haired Immortal and the other people with superb relationships with Chu Feng.

Seeing his glance, everyone nodded excitedly. They could be considered to be people that had seen Chu Feng’s growth with their own eyes, people that possessed very deep sentiments for Chu Feng. They would naturally want to see him off now that he was planning to leave. No one would be able to stop them.

“Four seniors, are you all planning to come too?” Chu Feng looked to the Four Great Divine Beasts.

Although Chu Feng possessed an overwhelming status in the Holy Land of Martialism, he had not even been born when the Four Great Divine Beasts had been renowned through the Holy Land of Martialism. Thus, by comparison, they were indeed his seniors.

“Chu Feng, you are our master. We will follow wherever our master goes,” The Azure Dragon said. Its voice was very resounding, and without the slightest amount of restraint. Thus, not only did the Elf King hear those words, everyone present heard those words.

“Ssss~~~”

Hearing those words, many of the people present sucked in a mouthful of cold air.

The Four Great Divine Beasts were very powerful existences; they were four Half Martial Ancestors. Furthermore, they were beings that were already renowned in the Holy Land of Martialism ten thousand years ago.

Although the current Chu Feng possessed the strength to subdue the four of them, the crowd remained fired up upon hearing from the Azure Dragon that Chu Feng was indeed their master. This only served to confirm that this era’s overlord would be none other than Chu Feng.

After it was decided, the crowd began to fly toward the Eastern Sea Region. Not only did the experts from the older generation follow Chu Feng, even the people from the younger generation like Tantai Xue and Sima Ying followed Chu Feng too.

Naturally, Jiang Wushang and Zhang Tianyi were also among the crowd. After all, to them, the Eastern Sea Region and the Nine Provinces Continent was also their homeland.

Chapter 2127 – Father’s Accomplishment

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng and the others finally arrived at the Heavenly Road’s exit to the Eastern Sea Region.

The Heavenly Road only went one way.

It seemed to be for the sake of some sort of equilibrium. As such, there was an enormous power separating the Eastern Sea Region from the Holy Land of Martialism. This made it impossible for people from the Holy Land of Martialism to enter the Eastern Sea Region.

Thus, if one wanted to get to the Eastern Sea Region from the Holy Land of Martialism, one had to do so by entering a spatial crack.

Merely, the spatial crack that the Compass Immortal had discovered earlier was very dangerous. While Chu Feng and the other experts were capable of passing through it, it was extremely difficult for all the others to pass through it. As such, Chu Feng would naturally not make them take that risk of entering the vicious spatial crack.

“Chu Feng, raise your hand,” Suddenly, a voice transmission from the blind old man sounded in Chu Feng’s ears.

Although the blind old man had not revealed himself, he had been following after Chu Feng and the others the entire time. Merely... no one managed to sense him. After all, he was a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. In the Holy Land of Martialism, he was the fully-deserving strongest expert.

“Blind Uncle, you might as well just reveal yourself. Aren’t some of the people here your old friends?” Chu Feng sent a voice transmission to the blind old man.

After all, there were many people in the Holy Land of Martialism that had met the blind old man before. Although it was unknown as to how they had met, it remained that they had met.

As for the Eastern Sea Region, there were even more people that knew of the blind old man. As such, Chu Feng felt that there was no reason for the blind old man to conceal himself the entire time.

“Master, it was different back then. Since this old servant has recognized master, it means that I cannot show even the smallest trace of disrespect toward master.”

“My previous identities were all fake. However, my current identity is real,” The blind old man said.

Chu Feng understood what the blind old man meant with those words. While he could disguise himself back then, he could not do so now. If he did not disguise himself, that would mean that he would have to let everyone know about the special relationship between him and Chu Feng. As such, the blind old man decided that he might as well not reveal himself.

As the blind old man possessed his own apprehensions, Chu Feng no longer tried to urge him to reveal himself.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng waved his sleeve and emitted a layer of spirit power.

Actually, the spirit power that he emitted possessed absolutely no use. He only did what the blind old man told him to do.

“Buzz~~~”

However, after Chu Feng waved his sleeve, an enormous spatial crack appeared out of thin air.

That spatial crack was naturally not summoned by Chu Feng. Instead, at the time when Chu Feng waved his hand, the blind old man had activated that spatial crack.

“This spatial crack!!!”

After seeing the spatial crack, the eyes of everyone present started to shine with astonishment.

The reason for that was because that spatial crack was simply enormous. Not only was it wide and bright, it was also extraordinarily imposing.

How could this still be considered a spatial crack? It was simply a spatial tunnel. It was a spatial tunnel that could pass through the ancient energy separating the Holy Land of Martialism and the Eastern Sea Region.

Furthermore, when comparing the spatial crack the Compass Immortal had discovered with this spatial crack, it made this spatial crack appear even more imposing.

If the spatial crack the Compass Immortal had discovered was a tiny and difficult path filled with thistles and thorns, then the spatial crack before everyone right now was simply a magnificent road that lead to the heavens.

“Chu Feng, how did you discover this spatial crack?” The Elf King asked curiously.

“I managed to discover this spatial crack by chance after returning to the Eastern Sea Region,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Mn?” Merely, after Chu Feng said those words, the expressions of the Four Great Divine Beasts changed slightly.

After all, the four of them had followed Chu Feng the entire time. Even when returning to the Holy Land of Martialism through the Eastern Sea Region, they had used that vicious spatial crack. At that time, they had not discovered such a spectacular spatial crack.

Merely, even though the four of them sensed that something was fishy, they did not question Chu Feng, and pretended as if they didn't know about it.

“This is truly extraordinary.”

“If that vicious spatial crack was only discovered by coincidence, then this spatial crack has simply appeared like a fine work of art,” The Elf King and the others were all exclaiming in astonishment.

Faced with the exclamation from the crowd, Chu Feng could only pretend to smile calmly. After all, it was also the first time he was seeing this spatial crack.

In actuality, Chu Feng was also extremely astonished by this spatial crack. Thus, he secretly sent a voice transmission to the blind old man and asked, “Blind Uncle, how did you discover this spatial crack?”

“Master, this spatial crack was not discovered by this old servant. Rather, it was created by Lord Xuanyuan,” The blind old man said.

“My father?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng was astonished.

“Indeed. Lord Xuanyuan created this spatial crack for the sake of making it easy for me to travel to the Eastern Sea Region,” The blind old man answered.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng became even more astonished. The energy separating the Holy Land of Martialism and the Eastern Sea Region was no small matter.

Yet, his father was actually capable of forcibly splitting that energy apart and opening up a tunnel that connected the Holy Land of Martialism to the Eastern Sea Region. This was truly too inconceivable.

‘Father, exactly how powerful are you?’

At that moment, such a question came into Chu Feng’s mind. At the same time he had that question, Chu Feng felt his blood racing. He was extremely excited.

When he first heard of his father from Huangfu Haoyue, Chu Feng had already felt that his father should be extremely powerful. Else, it would be impossible for him to make Huangfu Haoyue that scared.

However, that had only been Chu Feng's wishful thinking, because he did not actually know what level of cultivation and what sort of strength his father possessed.

Merely, as a son, he felt adoration for his father from the bottom of his heart. As such, he wished that his father would be very powerful.

And now, even though Chu Feng still didn't know what sort of cultivation his father possessed, he became even more certain that his father was definitely very powerful, unimaginably powerful even, after personally seeing the accomplishments left behind by his father.

After all, the tunnel before them was sufficient to prove everything. Such a tunnel, not to mention for the current Chu Feng, even if Chu Feng trained for many years after this, he would not necessarily be able to accomplish such a feat.

Suddenly, Chu Feng said, "Everyone, let's go."

As matters stood, he was even more urgent to meet his biological father.

"Well then, everyone, stop looking at it. Let's go," The Elf King added.

The reason why he had added those words was because, even now, the crowd was still looking at that tunnel. This was especially true for the Heaven Reaching Immortal, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, the Compass Immortal and the Snow-haired Immortal, these world spiritists.

They all had a vague feeling that this tunnel didn't seem to have formed naturally. Rather, it seemed to be man-made.

Thus, they wanted to observe the tunnel to find an answer. Unfortunately... they did not possess sufficient strength to be able to see through the profoundness of the tunnel.

Afterward, the crowd all entered the tunnel created by Chu Feng's father and arrived at the Eastern Sea Region.

After arriving at the Eastern Sea Region, Chu Feng directly led these experts from the Holy Land of Martialism to the Misty Peak.

After all, Chu Feng must let Xian Miaomiao know where the formation leading to the Outer World was located.

Without a doubt, the people on the Misty Peak, for example Huangfu Haoyue and Qiushui Fuyan, were all extremely astonished to see Chu Feng returning with so many experts from the Holy Land of Martialism.

Earlier, they had only thought that Chu Feng was very powerful. It was at that moment that they realized that Chu Feng's power had already surpassed their imagination.

After all, ignoring the rest of the crowd, they were able to see that the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise, the Four Great Divine Beasts, were all standing behind Chu Feng to either side of him. That was already enough to let Huangfu Haoyue and the others know that Chu Feng's current strength and status was already something that no one in the Eastern Sea Region could compare with.

Even in the Holy Land of Martialism, Chu Feng would also definitely be someone with great power.

Merely, they did not know that not only was Chu Feng someone powerful in the Holy Land of Martialism...

... he was even the person that everyone acknowledged the current era's overlord.

Chapter 2128 – Reviving The Chu Family

Although Chu Feng's return came as an enormous surprise to all the people in the Misty Peak, Chu Feng did not plan to stay for long.

He had merely brought Xian Miaomiao and the others to have a look at the Stairway to Heaven, and greeted Qiushui Fuyan and Huangfu Haoyue. He casually told them that Xian Miaomiao and the others might have to use the Stairway to Heaven in the future, and requested that they not try to stop them from doing so.

He also told them about his main purpose in returning to the Eastern Sea Region that time around.

After finding out that Chu Feng had returned to the Eastern Sea Region with the intent to return to the Nine Provinces Continent to revive his relatives, and that he would be leaving immediately after doing so, Huangfu Haoyue and the others decided to accompany Chu Feng to the Nine Provinces Continent.

Although they did not possess any understanding of the Outer World, they were able to realize that Chu Feng would likely be leaving for a very long time.

As such, they all wished to accompany Chu Feng in the limited time that they had.

Thus, the number of people in Chu Feng's group grew even more numerous and powerful.

Majestically, they began to proceed toward the Nine Provinces Continent.

"I truly never would've thought that Chu Feng would've... already become this powerful in merely a few short years."

As Huangfu Haoyue, Qiushui Fuyan and the others looked to Chu Feng, who was at the front of the group of people, their gazes became very complicated.

The reason for that was because, on their way to the Nine Provinces Continent, Xian Miaomiao, Sima Ying, Princess Lingyue and other members of the younger generation from the Holy Land of Martialism had all arrived before Huangfu Haoyue and the others, this group of people from the Eastern Sea Region.

The reason why they went to them was because they wished to know more about Chu Feng's achievements in the Eastern Sea Region from Huangfu Haoyue and the others.

However, at the same time as they were making inquiries about Chu Feng's past achievements, they were also informing Huangfu Haoyue and the others about what Chu Feng had accomplished in the Holy Land of Martialism.

Thus, Huangfu Haoyue and the others already knew of Chu Feng's true strength now, as well as the status he possessed in the Holy Land of Martialism.

They began to recall how Chu Feng had been so weak, how he had truly been someone from the younger generation, and how he had still needed them to protect him before.

And now, Chu Feng had become so powerful. He had reached a level they were simply unable to even touch.

At that moment, exclamations of admiration filled their hearts.

"We're here."

Suddenly, Chu Feng, who was leading the crowd, stopped.

The reason for that was because they had arrived at the Nine Provinces Continent's Azure Province. Furthermore, they were currently in the skies above the Golden-purple City.

Although the Golden-purple City was not the hometown of the Chu Family, it was the place where the people from the Chu Family had been massacred.

If Chu Feng wanted to resurrect them, this would be the best place to do so.

“Seniors, please wait for me here. I will return immediately.”

Then, Chu Feng personally proceeded toward the Azure Dragon School.

He was going there to call for the people of the Chu Family.

He was not doing this for the sake of telling them this great news immediately. Rather, the resurrection secret technique possessed a very important characteristic. That was that it required one's close kin to call for the souls of the dead.

Back then, a lot of people from the Chu Family had been killed. Among them, many were not close to Chu Feng at all.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that if he wanted to resurrect more people from the Chu Family, he would need more people from the Chu Family that possessed close relationships with those that had been killed.

As such, Chu Guyu, Chu Wei, Chu Cheng, Chu Zhen, Chu Yue and the others, the people from the Chu Family that were still alive, would all be absolutely necessary for this.

Chu Feng arrived at the Azure Dragon School and directly told Chu Guyu and the others from the Chu Family why he had returned.

After hearing about this technique, Chu Guyu and the others were all filled with astonishment; they all felt an enormous amount of disbelief.

After all, resurrection was something that they'd never seen before, something simply unheard of.

Even though they found it unbelievable, and found it hard to accept that there would be such a technique in the world, they still decided to follow Chu Feng.

As such, they all arrived at the Golden-purple City.

It was not only the people from the Chu Family that followed him over, the Azure Dragon Founder, Li Zhangqing, Zhuge Liuyun and others also followed him over.

“Heavens! This...”

When the Azure Dragon Founder, Chu Guyu and the others saw all the experts from the Holy Land of Martialism, they were all stunned.

The difference between their cultivations was simply too great. Even though the experts from the Holy Land of Martialism did not deliberately reveal their auras, and were even deliberately concealing them, they still appeared to emit extraordinary airs before the eyes of Chu Guyu and the others.

This caused Chu Guyu and the others to feel as if they were little grasses standing before enormous mountains when they stood before the Elf King and the others. They felt themselves to be extremely small.

“Little brother Chu Feng, those people... they’re all your friends from the Holy Land of Martialism?” Astonished, Chu Yue asked Chu Feng curiously. She began to feel that her little brother was even more amazing than she had thought.

“We are all Chu Feng’s friends,” The Elf King said with a smile. Seemingly afraid that the people from the Azure Dragon School would be afraid, his tone was extremely gentle and friendly.

Following him, the other people also expressed their close relationship with Chu Feng.

“Ssss~~~”

After telling the crowd of their relationship with Chu Feng, the people from the Azure Dragon School were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

Even though they already knew that Chu Feng’s future outlook was very bright, they had not expected Chu Feng to be this overwhelmingly powerful.

At that moment they were astonished, so astonished that they all turned their gazes to Chu Feng, with pride filling their gazes.

After all, they were all people who had close relationships with Chu Feng.

“B-B-B-Beauty, n-ni-nice to meet you. I-I am C-C-Chu Feng’s g-good friend. M-My name is W-Wang Qiang.”

“M-May I a-ask, a-are you Chu F-Feng’s big s-sister?”

Right at that moment, Wang Qiang’s body shifted. Like a phantom, he arrived before Chu Yue.

Although Wang Qiang’s upper body was completely naked, and he possessed an extremely strange outfit, his strength was extremely powerful. As such, Chu Yue did not dare to disrespect him. She answered truthfully, “Senior, nice to meet you. I am Chu Feng’s older cousin. My name is Chu Yue.”

“M-my, d-don’t address me a-as s-s-senior. I m-might even be y-younger than you. C-Come, let’s s-s-s-sh-shake hands,” Wang Qiang extended his filthy and stinky hand with a beaming smile on his face.

To Chu Yue, Wang Qiang was a senior. When he was asking for a handshake, how could she possibly dare to refuse him?

Merely, she did not notice that Wang Qiang’s saliva was about to drool out of the corner of his mouth the moment she extended her lily-white hand.

“Paa~~~”

Seeing that, Chu Feng immediately raised his hand and slapped Wang Qiang’s extended hand away. Then he shouted, “Scram! You’re even trying to take advantage of my big sister Chu Yue? Have you grown tired of living?”

“N-N-Nonesense! A-Am I t-t-that sort of p-per-person?” Wang

Qiang spoke with righteousness. Then his body shifted, and he arrived before Chu Xue. With a beaming smile on his face, he said, “N-N-Nice to meet you. I-I a-am Chu F-Feng’s friend. M-May I know who y-you m-might be?”

Sigh...

Seeing Wang Qiang acting like this, Chu Feng revealed an expression of helplessness. Thus, he decided to ignore Wang Qiang. He turned to Chu Guyu and the others and said, “Big brother, big sister Chu Yue, let’s start.”

“Little brother, is it truly possible?” Chu Guyu asked.

Chu Guyu did not believe that Chu Feng would be able to resurrect the people of the Chu Family. However, at the same time, he truly wished for that resurrection technique to be true.

The reason for that was because even he was uncertain as to whether or not it was truly possible. That said, he also deeply wished for that secret technique to be useful.

Thus, Chu Feng was very scared that the secret technique would fail; that he would not be able to resurrect the members of the Chu Family.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

After thinking about it, Chu Feng immediately started to set up a grand formation. For the sake of preventing a failure, Chu Feng was extremely meticulous in setting up this grand formation. He would make sure to grasp everything and every detail of the formation.

After the formation was completed, Chu Feng and the others from the Chu Family all sat cross-legged above the formation’s core.

After they all entered the formation, everyone closed their eyes. What they had to do was very simple. They merely needed to emit their longing for their relatives and call for their relatives in their hearts nonstop. As for the rest... that would all be left to Chu Feng to take care of.

Suddenly, Chu Feng shouted, “Rise.”

Once he said that word, the fifty-five thousand five hundred and fifty-five white candles within the formation were simultaneously ignited.

At the same time, a strange sort of power began to pulse from the formation.

“That secret technique!!!”

At that moment, everyone’s hearts, regardless of whether they were from the Holy Land of Martialism or the Eastern Sea Region, started to tighten, And their expressions changed.

When the candles ignited, they all sensed that strange power engulfing their bodies.

That was a power that they had never felt before. It was as if their souls were attracted to that formation.

Chapter 2129 – Don't Harm Her

“It would seem that the secret resurrection technique is feasible.”

The Heaven Reaching Immortal's eyes were shining. When he personally felt the power emitted by the formation, he realized that the secret resurrection technique was most definitely not empty words. Instead, it possessed actual usage.

Merely, after an entire day passed, not a single spirit body was seen or had formed.

Furthermore, the great world spiritists like the Heaven Reaching Immortal were also unable to sense the appearance of any souls.

That sort of result inevitably caused the crowd to feel somewhat regretful. More and more people began to feel that this secret resurrection technique would not work.

After two entire days passed, Chu Guyu who was sitting in the formation, opened his eyes.

It was only at that moment that he discovered that Chu Zhen, Chu Yue and the others had all already opened their eyes.

Not only were their eyes opened, they also had disappointed and distressed expressions on their faces.

“Is it a failure?”

At that moment, without needing anyone to tell him, Chu Guyu realized that the secret resurrection technique seemed to have failed.

Hearing those words from Chu Guyu, many people present nodded their heads, even though they were unwilling to admit that the secret resurrection technique had failed.

After verifying that it had failed, Chu Guyu revealed extreme sorrow in his eyes.

Even though he never placed too great of a hope in the secret resurrection technique to begin with, they had still placed hope in it.

Thus, even though they knew that it might fail, they would inevitably still feel grief when it actually did fail.

“Little brother,” Suddenly, Chu Guyu’s gaze turned sluggish.

He discovered that while everyone else had opened their eyes, Chu Feng had not. His body was emitting world spirit power that fused into that spirit formation nonstop.

After hearing Chu Guyu’s call, Chu Feng also opened his eyes. He smiled lightly, then said, “Let’s try it again.”

After he finished saying those words, Chu Feng closed his eyes again and continued to operate the secret resurrection technique.

Seeing that, Chu Guyu and the others closed their eyes again too.

Just like that, Chu Guyu and the others persisted for one day, two days, three days...

When there was still no sign of any soul or spirit body on the seventh day, everyone started to give up hope. They felt that the people from the Chu Family would likely not be able to be revived.

However, Chu Feng continued to persist. He continued regardless of who it was that tried to urge him to stop.

“Little brother, I know you want to revive father, grandfather and the others. We too wish for that.”

“But, we must also recognize reality. It is time for you to stop. If you are to continue with this, you will bring harm to your health.”

Chu Guyu stood before Chu Feng and urged him to stop. At that moment... everyone was surrounding Chu Feng.

“I understand. But, let me continue, let me continue for one more day. If it is still useless then, I will give up.” Chu Feng opened his eyes and spoke with a smile on his face.

Although his smile appeared to be very relaxed, his expression was actually slightly ugly.

He had been keeping the formation activated for seven days and nights straight. As such, it was very taxing on Chu Feng mentally. His body was on the verge of collapse.

After all, that formation was different from ordinary spirit formations. Thus, even though Chu Feng's perseverance was very strong, and his spirit power very powerful, he would likely still collapse if this were to continue.

However, even with this being the case, he still forcibly persisted. As such, he would naturally cause the crowd to become very worried and saddened by his actions.

Right at that moment, Huangfu Haoyue said, "Chu Feng, if you want to persist, we will all approve of it. Merely, I'm afraid that there won't be enough time."

"Senior, please rest assured, I can still persist," Chu Feng said.

"No, I'm not talking about your health," Huangfu Haoyue said.

"Then?" Chu Feng asked.

"It's the Heavenly Road. Aren't you planning to enter the Heavenly Road?" Huangfu Haoyue asked.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng's pupils immediately shrank. Then, he asked, "The Heavenly Road is about to open?"

"That's right. If you wish to go there, I'm afraid you must leave immediately," Huangfu Haoyue said.

At that moment, Chu Feng looked to the secret resurrection technique before him. His heart felt very complicated. He actually knew that he had failed. Merely... he did not wish to give up this easily.

However, it would appear that he now had no choice but to give up. The reason for that was because he must first go and meet his father before entering the Outer World.

However, the blind old man had already used the communication talisman Chu Feng's father had given him. As such, there was no way to get in contact with Chu Feng's father.

If Chu Feng wanted to see his father, the only way he could do so was to enter the Heavenly Road, then find the Chu Family's forbidden area in the Heavenly Road.

As for the Heavenly Road, it only opened once a year. If Chu Feng missed this opportunity, he would have to wait for another year.

“Seniors, please go and rest in the Azure Dragon School for the time being. After I return from the Heavenly Road, I would like to make another attempt at this secret resurrection technique,” Chu Feng said to the crowd.

“Chu Feng, do you really not need us to accompany you?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked.

Chu Feng shook his head. He looked to the Four Great Divine Beasts and said, “It would do with the four of them accompanying me.”

After that was decided, Chu Feng and the Four Great Divine Beasts began to fly toward the Eastern Sea Region again.

On their way there, the blind old man that had concealed himself the entire time also revealed himself. After all, their speed would be much faster should he be the one leading the group.

“Isn't this person?”

Upon seeing the blind old man, the expressions of the Four Great Divine Beasts all changed. They naturally recognized the blind old man. After all, they had experienced everything with Chu Feng.

Merely, the four of them were astonished by the blind old man's aura.

Even though they had followed Qing Xuantian in the past, they had never met someone as powerful as the blind old man.

As for Chu Feng, he did not conceal this matter from the Four Great Divine Beasts, and instead informed them about the blind old man's identity.

After hearing about Chu Feng's identity, the Four Great Divine Beasts were all extremely astonished. None of them had expected Chu Feng to possess such a noble and grand status.

They had not expected such a strong power in the Holy Land of Martialism to only be Chu Feng's clan servants.

"Master, after you see Lord Xuanyuan later, it would be best that you tell him about the Moon Immortal."

"Actually, this old servant had originally planned to retrieve Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies from the Moon Immortal after acknowledging my relationship with you."

"Merely, ever since the Moon Immortal escaped from her battle against the Dark Hall's Hall Master before the Transmogrification Gate, this old servant has been unable to find any trace of her at all. As such... we can only ask Lord Xuanyuan for his help in the matter." The blind old man said.

The blind old man knew that Chu Feng and the Four Great Divine Beasts were going to enter the Outer World. In the future, they would be fighting alongside each other in the Outer World. As such, he did not try to conceal anything, and spoke directly before the Four Great Divine Beasts.

"It would be best if my father is willing to help us," Chu Feng naturally wished to help Su Rou and Su Mei retrieve their physical bodies.

However, after hearing what the blind old man said to Chu Feng, the gazes of the Four Great Divine Beasts all revealed various degrees of change. They looked to one another, and then secretly consulted with one another. Then the Azure Dragon spoke. "Chu Feng, there is a matter that I think it is time for us to inform you about.”

“Senior Azure Dragon, what might that matter be?” Chu Feng asked.

“It’s regarding the Moon Immortal,” The Azure Dragon said.

“Moon Immortal?” Chu Feng was startled. However, upon recalling how the four of them had followed Qing Xuantian, he determined that they were likely present when Qing Xuantian came in contact with the Moon Immortal, and should possess a better understanding of the Moon Immortal than him. Thus, he said, “Seniors, please go ahead and tell me whatever it is that you all want to say.”

“Chu Feng, if you are able to capture the Moon Immortal, please don’t harm her,” The Azure Dragon said.

Chapter 2130 – Re-entering The Heavenly Road

“Why?” Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng actually felt that the Moon Immortal’s nature was not evil. Although she had forcibly seized Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies, Chu Feng felt that she should have her own difficulties that she found hard to mention.

Thus, even if the Azure Dragon and the others had not requested it, he still did not plan to harm the Moon Immortal.

However, since the Azure Dragon and the others pleaded for leniency for the Moon Immortal, Chu Feng felt that there should be a special reason.

“We promised Qing Xuantian that we would not tell anyone about his relationship with the Moon Immortal.”

“As such, we can only tell you that Qing Xuantian and the Moon Immortal possessed an extraordinary relationship.”

“Thus, Chu Feng, could you please give us face, give Qing Xuantian face, and not bring harm upon the Moon Immortal?” The Azure Dragon pleaded.

At that moment, Chu Feng came to an understanding. It turned out that the Azure Dragon and the others were pleading for the Moon Immortal because of Qing Xuantian.

Even though Chu Feng already knew that the Moon Immortal possessed a relationship with Qing Xuantian, he had not expected it to be an extraordinary relationship.

“If the Moon Immortal is willing to return Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies, I will naturally not harm her. However, if she refuses, my hands will be forced.”

“After all, Su Rou and Su Mei are my beloved women,” Chu Feng did not speak too inflexibly.

Regardless of whether the Moon Immortal was good or evil, it remained that she had forcibly seized Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies. If she refused to return their bodies, Chu Feng would not be polite with her just because she had saved him before.

After all, those were Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies.

"If the Moon Immortal refuses to hand over Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies, even if you are willing to spare us, the four of us would absolutely not let her get away with it," The Azure Dragon said.

The Vermilion Bird, Black Tortoise and White Tiger also nodded at the Azure Dragon's words. They had expressed their viewpoints.

Seeing that, Chu Feng smiled lightly. He felt joy in his heart. Although the Four Great Divine Beasts had pleaded for the Moon Immortal for Qing Xuantian, they had not forgotten him, their new master.

.....

Eastern Sea Region. At a sea called the Heaven Sea. Countless people were already gathered in that place.

The reason all those people had gathered was because that was the place where the Heavenly Road would open every year.

"Rumble~~~"

As rumbles began to be heard, waves began to surge above the sea. Then, an enormous whirlpool began to appear.

As the whirlpool spun, the waves grew even more ferocious. The size of the whirlpool began to expand unceasingly. In the end, countless enormous whirlpools practically covered the entire sea. It was truly a magnificent sight.

"Bang~~~"

"Bang~~~"

“Bang~~~”

“Bang~~~”

Suddenly, many thick beams of light began to shoot out of the whirlpools explosively. After being shot out from the whirlpools in the sea, the beams of light gathered together in the sky and formed a golden-bright and dazzling grand formation.

That grand formation was enormous. The top of it reached the clouds, whereas the bottom entered the sea. It looked like a tall, golden wall that separated the world. At the same time, it looked like a bright sun that stood between heaven and earth

In that sort of situation, an entrance soon appeared in the center of the formation.

At that moment, deafening shouts sounded from the vast crowd. Everyone was filled with excitement.

The reason for that was because they all knew that it meant that the Heavenly Road had officially opened.

Merely, although the crowd was filled with excitement from the opening of the Heavenly Road, none of them dared to actually set foot into it.

The reason for that was because everyone knew that while the Heavenly Road was capable of bringing them to the legendary Holy Land of Martialism, the Heavenly Road was also extremely and frighteningly dangerous.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, space suddenly started to tremble. Everyone felt that the world seemed to be trembling violently. In fact, those with lower levels of cultivation directly fell from the air and into the sea down below.

“What’s going on?”

At that moment, many people started to panic. Even the old senior-level characters revealed expressions of panic.

Although the sensation they felt lasted for merely an instant, it was like the arrival of doomsday. As such, everyone felt lingering fears in their hearts.

Merely, no one knew that the trembling from before was caused by the sonic boom created through rapid movement.

At the moment when everyone present was alarmed, Chu Feng, the blind old man and the Four Great Divine Beasts had successfully entered the Heavenly Road.

The first thing they were met with after entering the Heavenly Road was pitch darkness. They felt as if the place was a bottomless pit. However, as they continued onward, light soon appeared before them. It was a deep blue glimmer. That glimmer was created by some sort of floating object.

That deep blue object emitting light was the size of a watermelon. Furthermore, more deep blue objects could be found throughout that vast world as far as the eye could see. That place did not resemble an isolated space at all. Instead, it seemed more like a starry sky. It was very beautiful and mysterious.

As they continued onward, horrifying anguished wailing soon began to be heard. Following close behind that were many vengeful spirits seeking their lives.

Everything was exactly the same as the first time Chu Feng stepped onto the Heavenly Road. All of these were things that one must experience after setting foot onto the Heavenly Road.

Merely, back then, Chu Feng had felt uneasy after seeing those things. However, now... he was completely calm.

Even if there were truly dangers on the Heavenly Road, there would rarely be anything capable of causing harm to Chu Feng given how powerful he was at the moment.

Furthermore, the blind old man, a rank five Half Martial Ancestor, was with him.

Most importantly, Chu Feng felt that... his father would know that he had entered the Heavenly Road.

The reason for that was because he would never forget who it was that dispatched that powerful guardian statue to save them when he and Tantai Xue were met with difficult opponents.

It was the Old Ape. However, Chu Feng knew that the Old Ape must've acted per his father's instructions.

'Father should know that I've come to find him, right?'

'Will father be willing to see me this time?'

Recalling the scene from the past, Chu Feng became even more excited and nervous.

He was excited because he wanted to see his biological father. He was nervous because he was afraid that his strength would be insufficient, and that his father would end up refusing to see him again.

With that sort of nervousness filling his heart, Chu Feng finally arrived before that magnificent gate.

That gate appeared exactly the same as before. It was wide open.

However, differently from back then, two guardian statues were standing on either side of the gate now. They appeared very impressive.

At that moment, Chu Feng stopped before the gate and cast his gaze to one of the two guardian statues. With a smile, he said, "It was you that saved me back then."

After saying those words, Chu Feng set foot into the gate.

Everything was the same as it was back then. After entering the gate, they were met with pitch darkness. Even though Chu Feng was a rank seven Martial Emperor and a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, his techniques were still unable to accomplish anything in that place.

Like a blind person, he could only continue onward toward the faint light that he could see ahead. Chu Feng and the others moved toward that light.

When they finally managed to arrive before the light, Chu Feng grew even more excited.

It was the light of a fire. There was a bonfire there. However, that was not the important aspect. Most importantly, sitting beside the bonfire was an extremely thin ape wearing shabby looking clothes.

That... was the Old Ape.

Chapter 2131 – Finally Meeting Father

“Senior.”

Chu Feng was extremely excited to see the Old Ape. This was especially true when he discovered that the Old Ape still possessed an unfathomable depth that he couldn't see through even now.

“So you've come, Chu Feng.”

After the Old Ape saw Chu Feng, he stood up. His mouth lifted into a light smile.

Compared to back then, his reaction was completely different. Back then, the Old Ape had had an extremely cold and ferocious attitude when he looked at Chu Feng.

However, his attitude was now filled with amiability. It was as if... he had been awaiting Chu Feng's arrival the entire time.

“This old servant pays his respect to Milord,” Seeing the old ape, the blind old man hurriedly kneeled to greet him.

“Woosh~~~”

However, before the blind old man could actually kneel, the Old Ape waved his sleeve and lifted the blind old man back onto his feet.

“There's no need to be overly courteous. Quickly, go in with Chu Feng,” The Old Ape said. As he said those words, he glanced at the Four Great Divine Beasts. He said, “However, as for the four of them, their statuses are too low. As such, they are not allowed to enter the Chu Clan's Forbidden Area.”

After he finished saying those words, the Old Ape sat back down in a cross-legged position beside the special bonfire.

Normally, the Four Great Divine Beasts would definitely be enraged if someone would dare to speak to them in such a manner. However, when those words were spoken by the Old Ape, the four of them did not dare to reveal any trace of anger. Instead... they obediently sat down by the bonfire.

After all, the Old Ape was an existence that even the blind old man could not compare to. Likely, no one other than the Old Ape himself knew how powerful he really was.

However, regardless of how powerful the Old Ape might be, it was certain that he would be able to kill them with merely a spit if he wished to.

The Four Great Divine Beasts were not foolish. Thus, how could they possibly dare to act imprudently before such a powerful existence?

At that moment, they became even more convinced of Chu Feng's noble status. At the same time, they began to look forward to their journey to the Outer World even more.

Chu Feng and the blind old man continued onward. Merely, as the two of them continued onward, they soon arrived before Chu Feng's tombstone.

That tomb had been set up for Chu Feng, and had been used to deceive the people of the Chu Clan.

Back then, it had been destroyed by that fellow by the name of Chu Kongtong. However, it would appear that the tomb had since been restored.

When Chu Feng looked at the tombstone again, he was filled with joy.

It was not because of the tombstone. Rather, it was because of the person standing beside the tombstone. Beside the tombstone was a beautiful woman.

Her beauty and air of elegance was like that of a celestial fairy. She was none other than Zi Ling.

Not only was the current Zi Ling completely unharmed, her aura was much more powerful than before. She had become a rank one Martial Emperor.

Although that level of cultivation was greatly inferior to Chu Feng's current level of cultivation, it was already enormous progress when compared to the Zi Ling from back then.

"Zi Ling," Upon seeing Zi Ling, Chu Feng hurriedly rush to her and placed his hands onto her shoulders. Then, he surveyed her from head to toe, "Let me see if my foolish little girl is fine."

"Rest assured, I'm fine," Zi Ling smiled sweetly. Then, she looked to the blind old man and said, "Master, please rest assured too. I am completely healed."

"That's great, that's great," The blind old man nodded repeatedly. A smile covering his face.

The blind old man was not a heartless person. No matter what, he had instructed Zi Ling and the others before. Thus, he possessed a considerable amount of affection for Zi Ling and the others.

"However, Miss Zi Ling, this old servant has now identified myself to Master. As such, you no longer need to address this old servant as master, because this old servant is unworthy of that address," The blind old man said.

Hearing those words, Zi Ling wanted to say something. However, it seemed that she then recalled something, and decided to say nothing.

Instead, she looked at Chu Feng and said, "Chu Feng, go on ahead. Your father is waiting for you."

Hearing those words, Chu Feng's heart immediately thumped.

"Zi Ling, my father is willing to meet me now?" Chu Feng did not dare to believe his own ears. After all, this was extremely important to him.

"Don't be foolish. Go on in, that's your father that's waiting for you,” Zi Ling said with a smile.

“Very well,” Chu Feng nodded repeatedly. He was able to understand what Zi Ling meant by her words. His father must have wanted him to go in alone.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s heartbeat suddenly started to accelerate. He felt as if his heart was about to jump out of his throat.

Over these years, Chu Feng had experienced all sorts of things, and set foot into all kinds of dangerous places.

However, never had he ever been so nervous.

‘Lord Father, exactly what sort of person is he?’

‘Will he like me?’

All sorts of questions began to hover in Chu Feng’s heart.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, the dark scene before Chu Feng started to brighten. A stone table and two stone chairs appeared not far ahead of Chu Feng.

Furthermore, a middle-aged man was sitting on one of the stone chairs.

That man was not very tall, robust or handsome. Especially his outfit; he was wearing very plain and unadorned clothing. It could be said that he appeared extremely ordinary.

However, to Chu Feng, this man appeared very imposing. He was so imposing that simply no one could be compared with him.

It was as if this man was the most powerful man in the world. Regardless of what other people thought, this was what Chu Feng felt.

“Chu Feng pays his respects to Lord Father.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng knelt onto the ground and respectfully kowtowed to the man before him. He knew... that the man before him was most definitely his father.

After all, at that very moment, his bloodline's power was throbbing.

"We are father and son, not strangers. There is no need for you to do that sort of thing," Once Chu Xuanyuan's words left his mouth, Chu Feng actually started to float. Unable to control himself, Chu Feng started to float toward the stone chair beside Chu Xuanyuan.

At that moment, Chu Feng noticed that Chu Xuanyuan had simply not even moved. However... it was clear that the power that covered him was emitted by Chu Xuanyuan.

Chu Feng was brought to the stone chair and seated on it by that power.

"You must be extremely wearied by your journey. You should eat some food to replenish your physical strength," Chu Xuanyuan personally picked up a dimsum and handed it to Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng noticed that dimsums and fruits covered the stone table. Although those dimsums and fruits were all very simple, they were all the things that Chu Feng loved to eat the most.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt a sniffle in his nose. He was able to tell that those things were... most definitely meticulously prepared by his father.

"Thank you, Lord Father," As Chu Feng spoke, he received the dimsum his father had handed him.

"Enough with the 'Lord Father'. I am your father, and you are my son. You are my flesh. There is nothing more related than the two of us in this world."

"Thus, it would do if you just addressed me as 'father'. There is no need for too much etiquette between father and son," Chu Xuanyuan said with a light smile. His smile was filled with affection toward one's child.

“Yes, father.” At that moment, Chu Feng stopped acting reversed, and smiled with ease. Then, he bluntly grabbed a dimsum and took a large bite.

It was not that Chu Feng was hungry. Merely, he wished to taste the dimsums that his father had prepared for him. The reason for that was because this was the first time he was eating something his biological father had prepared for him.

“Buzz~~~”

Right after the bite of dimsum entered his mouth, Chu Feng sensed a warm aura filling his entire body.

Chu Feng, who had been feeling slightly exhausted, was immediately filled with energy and his face became radiant.

That dimsum was absolutely not an ordinary dimsum. It contained a special sort of power that was much more effective than even the most powerful medicinal pellet Chu Feng possessed.

That sort of dimsum, not to mention the Eastern Sea Region, was something that not even the people in the Holy Land of Martialism could possibly make. At that moment, Chu Feng felt the diligence of his father. The reason for that was because he knew that both the dimsums and the fruits were most definitely personally created by his father.

Chapter 2132 – The Vast Outer World

Suddenly, Chu Xuanyuan apologized. “Feng’er, for you to be orphaned these years, it was because your father was incompetent. I have made you suffer,”

Chu Feng let go of the dimsum in his hand. With an expression filled with self-blame, he said, “Father, you must not say something like that. Senior Ape has already mentioned to me what happened back then. Even though I do not know the details, what I know that it was I, your son, that implicated you and mother.”

“You are but a child, how could you be at fault? The ones at fault are the Chu Heavenly Clan,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, exactly what happened back then?” Chu Feng asked.

“I know that you have a lot of questions in your heart. Don’t be anxious, father will slowly explain everything to you,” Chu Xuanyuan smiled lightly. Then, he said, “Firstly, you need to understand this vast and boundless world of martial cultivation.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart was immediately moved. The vast and boundless world of martial cultivation was something that Chu Feng had wished to know about, but had never been able to know about.

Now, would he really be able to know about it?

“Presently, the known world of martial cultivation is roughly separated into three realms; Upper, Ordinary and Lower.”

“After the Ancient Era, due to the difference in talent that people possessed, the different races and clans started to live in different worlds.”

“The martial cultivators of the Lower Realms possessed the worst talent. Following that were the martial cultivators from the Ordinary Realms. Compared to them, the martial cultivators of the Upper Realms possessed much better talent.”

“The so-called Outer World means being outside of a known world. To the people living in the Lower Realms, the Upper Realms would be considered to be the Outer World, whereas the Ordinary Realms would also be considered to be the Outer World.”

“And now, the world that we are currently in is known as the ‘Ancestral Martial Lower Realm,’” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“The Ancestral Martial Lower Realm, the world that we live in, is the lowest tier world?”

“No wonder. No wonder that Dark Hall’s Hall Master acted so arrogantly, and refused to put the people of the Holy Land of Martialism in his eyes,” Chu Feng finally realized why that Dark Hall’s Hall Master had been so conceited.

He also understood the reason why the Dark Hall’s Hall Master addressed the people from the Holy Land of Martialism as ‘trash from the lower realm.’

It turned out that the people from the Holy Land of Martialism and the Four Sea Regions were truly living in a lower realm.

“In theory, that is the case. However, there are always exceptions to everything. It is not absolutely true that people capable of surpassing the experts from the Ordinary Realm or the Upper Realm cannot appear in the Lower Realm. After all, our Chu Heavenly Clan originated from this Ancestral Martial Lower Realm.”

“In fact, there are excellent individuals entering the Ordinary Realms through Stairways to Heaven from the Lower Realms every year.”

“Furthermore, the people from those Lower Realms all know about the matters regarding the Ordinary Realms and the Upper Realms. However, no one in the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm knows about them.”

“The Ancestral Martial Lower Realm is one of the very few Lower Realms that have already separated from the Outer World. Do you know why that is the case?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“It’s because of our Chu Heavenly Clan. Our Chu Heavenly Clan sealed off the only Stairway to Heaven that could lead to the Ordinary Realms,” Chu Feng said.

After all, apart from the Stairway to Heaven in the Eastern Sea Region’s Misty Peak, the only other known Stairway to Heaven in the Holy Land of Martialism was the one in the Realm of Gods. However, due to the existence of the blind old man and the others, practically no one from the Holy Land of Martialism would be able to use that Stairway to Heaven.

Thinking of that, Chu Feng felt that it was very unfair. After all, this meant that it was the Chu Heavenly Clan that had eliminated the privilege the people of this world should possess to enter the Outer World.

“That is merely a part of it. However, that is not the main reason why,” Chu Xuanyuan smiled lightly, “If true experts were to rise, they would not be stopped by others.”

“Father, you’re saying that... the cultivators from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm are inferior to those from the other Lower Realms?” Chu Feng asked.

“That is the case,” Chu Xuanyuan sighed, “Other than our Chu Heavenly Clan, the talent of the people from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm is truly lacking. Not to mention that these people are unable to enter the Outer World, even if they were able to enter the Outer World and arrive at the higher Ordinary Realms, they would only be enslaved or bullied by others.”

“Think about it. The well-known figures of this place, if they were to enter the Ordinary Realms... they would become the weakest existences. How lamentable would that be?” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng nodded.

“However, that is not the important matter. Do you know why this world is known as the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“Why?” Chu Feng asked.

“According to the legends, in the Ancient Era, this place... was the birthplace of martial cultivators.”

“The legendary Fate Primogenitor was born here,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“In that case, the legend that the Blind Uncle told me about regarding the Ancient Era is true?” Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng had not forgotten the story that the blind old man told him the first time he had met him at the Eastern Sea Region’s Everlasting Sea of Blood.

“The Ancient Era is too distant. Who knows what things from that time are real and what are not?”

“However, regardless of whether the legends are real or not, it is still extremely lamentable for a Lower Realm to decline to such a state.”

“Thus, you cannot blame others for looking down on the people from this place. Whether or not one is conceited and arrogant is the other’s business. However, if one is weak, one would not be able to blame others for looking down on them.”

“If they did, they would only be deceiving themselves,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“What father says is correct,” Chu Feng truly felt what his father said to be reasonable.

It would be the fault of the strong if they looked down on the weak. However, if one was weak, one would not be able to stop oneself from being looked down upon. After all, being weak could not serve as a justification.

“Thus, Feng’er, you must also understand this. Although you might possess outstanding talent in this place, is deemed to be an exceptional genius, and is also truly above all the others, you must absolutely not be conceited.”

“The reason for that is because you are living in the weakest Lower Realm among all the Lower Realms. Yet... you should originally belong to the Upper Realm,” Chu Xuanyuan reminded Chu Feng in a very serious manner.

“Father, you’re saying that the Chu Heavenly Clan is... not located in the Ordinary Realm, but rather the Upper Realm?” Chu Feng asked.

“Not only is the Chu Heavenly Clan located in the Upper Realm, it is also the ruler of an Upper Realm,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Never would I have expected my clan to be so powerful,” Chu Feng gasped with admiration.

Even though Chu Feng detested the Chu Heavenly Clan, as he was still a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan, he still felt pride upon knowing that his Chu Heavenly Clan possessed such a high status.

While there was hatred, he only hated those that had deliberately made things difficult for him and his father. He could not forget about the foundation conquered by his seniors, nor could he forget about the origin of the blood flowing through his body.

Chu Feng could imagine how difficult it had been for the Chu Heavenly Clan to walk out from a Lower Realm and become the rulers of an Upper Realm. That journey upward had most definitely been filled with difficulties. Likely, they had paid a considerable price to do so.

That status might be something that countless seniors had obtained with their blood. As such, he should respect all of it.

“Feng’er, do not limit your vision to only that. While the Upper Realm is very powerful, in the vast Outer Realm, there are countless Upper Realms.”

“Furthermore, above the Upper Realm are many Starfields,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Starfields?” Chu Feng’s eyes shone.

“If the Lower Realms, Ordinary Realms and Upper Realms could all be considered to be stairs in the sky, then a Starfield would be a region of the starry sky.”

“Every Starfield would be ruled by a very strong power. The ambition of the Chu Heavenly Clan is to become the ruler of a Starfield,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Sssss...”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng was unable to contain himself from sucking in a mouthful of cold air. Even though he had already guessed something of the sort, it was only at that moment that he truly realized how vast the world of martial cultivation was.

Even though Eggy had always mocked Chu Feng for being a frog at the bottom of a well, saying that he had seen but the tip of the iceberg, he had never expected there to be so many martial cultivators in the vast world.

Not to mention a single person, the entire Ancestral Martial Lower Realm would likely only be a chestnut in the vast sea when compared to the Outer World. After all, the sky possessed countless stars.

Chapter 2133 – What Happened Back Then

“Next, I’ll tell you about our clan, the Chu Heavenly Clan,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng listened even more earnestly; he was very curious about his clan.

“The Chu Heavenly Clan originated from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm. I believe you already knew about this.”

“And now, the Chu Heavenly Clan is a clan that possesses a certain amount of status in the Outer World. I believe you should have realized that too.”

“What I’m going to tell you is about two grand individuals that have appeared in our Chu Heavenly Clan in its history.”

“The first is called Chu Yetianhong.”

“The other is called Chu Hanxian.”

“Chu Yetianhong is an Ancestor-level character to our Chu Heavenly Clan. He is the one that brought our Chu Heavenly Clan out of this Lower Realm to the Ordinary Realm. Furthermore, he is also the one that lead our Chu Heavenly Clan to battle our way into the Upper Realm and seize the status of ruler.”

“However, even though tens of thousands of years have passed since then, the Chu Heavenly Clan still remains an overlord of an Upper Realm. From this, it can be seen how powerful our Ancestor Chu Yetianhong was. His great contribution to our Chu Heavenly Clan is something that no one can compare to.”

“Chu Hanxian is the person with the greatest talent after Chu Yetianhong. His strength has even surpassed that of Chu Yetianhong. He was the hope of the Chu Heavenly Clan to ascend to become a ruler of a Starfield.”

“Unfortunately... Chu Hanxian entered another Starfield. Ever since then, our Chu Heavenly Clan has never received any news from him.”

“Although what happened to Chu Hanxian was regretful, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan all deeply remembered all that he had contributed to our Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“That is especially true for you. You should remember him. The reason for that is because Chu Hanxian is my father, your grandfather,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Grandfather?” Chu Feng had thought his father to be someone amazing. Never had he ever expected that his grandfather was even more amazing than he had imagined.

“Father, is there really no news of my grandfather? Has he died?” Chu Feng asked in a deeply concerned manner. Without mentioning how powerful his grandfather was, merely the fact that it was his grandfather caused Chu Feng to deeply hope that his grandfather was alive.

“I searched for him before. However, I did not manage to find anything. Unfortunately, everything seems to indicate that your grandfather is most likely no longer alive.”

“You do not have to concern yourself with matters regarding your grandfather, nor do you need to meddle in them yourself,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart trembled. Even though his father did not say it explicitly, Chu Feng was able to tell that there was most definitely some sort of secret to his grandfather’s disappearance.

“Chu Feng, what you need to know now is that our bloodline is a single bloodline in the Chu Heavenly Clan. Your grandfather only had a single son, me, and I also only have a single son, you.”

“Us father and son should have been enjoying endless glories and honors in the Chu Heavenly Clan. Not mentioning the contributions your grandfather made toward our Chu Heavenly Clan, I am also not a nobody.”

“However... we have been reduced to being punished in this place, this forbidden area that devours one’s cultivation,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, exactly what happened back then? Please tell me,” Chu Feng asked again. He truly wanted to know the truth about what happened back then.

“Back then, the one who caused the two of us to be driven out from the Chu Clan and sent to this forbidden area was I, your father.”

“As for all of this, it was caused by a rule of the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“When a child is born to our Chu Heavenly Clan, they will undergo a test of talent. That test is very important, because it determines one’s future treatment in the Chu Heavenly Clan, which in turn will decide one’s fate.”

“As you are my son and Chu Hanxian’s grandson, not to mention the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan, even people not of the Chu Heavenly Clan paid special attention to your talent. That test of one’s talent could be said to be widespread news known to everyone.”

“Furthermore, in order to taunt their might, the Chu Heavenly Clan even invited a vast amount of guests so that they could publicly test your talent before all those people.”

“Unfortunately, the result of the test was not satisfying at all,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, how was the result of my test?” Chu Feng asked curiously. As this concerned him, Chu Feng was naturally very curious.

“If your test results were ordinary, it would be decent. If your test results were better than ordinary, then it would have been excellent. If your test results were worse than ordinary, it would mean that you were inferior. However... your test result was none of the three,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“None of the three?” Chu Feng revealed a surprised expression.

“In other words, it meant that you did not possess our Chu Heavenly Clan’s bloodline, that you did not possess any talent,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“I... I am actually such trash?” At that moment, Chu Feng was filled with astonishment.

While Chu Feng was deemed an exceptional genius in the Eastern Sea Region and the Holy Land of Martialism, he was actually trash that did not even possess any talent in his own clan.

Chu Feng found it somewhat difficult to accept such a disparity.

“Father, something’s amiss. If the result of the test was true, then I should not possess any Inherited Bloodline. But...” Chu Feng tried to explain.

“But you actually do. However, the result of the test from that time was precisely like that. It is also true that... you did not possess our Chu Heavenly Clan’s Inherited Bloodline at that time.”

“In other words, you can consider it as being evidence of your test from back then being tampered with by someone. At the very least, I am firmly certain that your test was tampered with.”

“At that time, I demanded that we test you again. Merely...” Chu Xuanyuan suddenly stopped and sighed.

“Father, what happened?” Chu Feng hurriedly asked.

“Back then, although your grandfather was renowned for his ability in the Upper Realm, he had also created many enemies. There were also enemies present that day. Seeing that you did not possess a heaven-defying Inherited Bloodline, some among them started to publicly insult you.”

“You are my son, thus, how could I possibly tolerate you being insulted by others? Thus... your father ended up killing all those that dared belittle you.”

“Our enemies were enraged by my actions, and demanded an explanation for my actions. Furthermore, it just so happened that there were many people who disliked me in the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“While being attacked by others doesn’t matter, our fellow clansmen from the Chu Heavenly Clan actually also started to attack me. That was the most frightening aspect.”

“Thus, in the end... we father and son were banished from the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Strictly speaking, we father and son cannot be considered to be members of the Chu Heavenly Clan now,” Chu Xuanyuan said with a wry smile.

“We... are people that have been banished from the Chu Heavenly Clan?” Chu Feng revealed a shocked expression.

Earlier, he had been proud to be a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan. Never would he expect that he was already no longer a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Chu Xuanyuan smiled lightly. Then, he pointed at Chu Feng’s forehead and lightly poked at it. Chu Feng felt that his forehead became somewhat warm.

Then, Chu Xuanyuan took out a mirror and handed it to Chu Feng. He said, “Feng’er, remember this symbol. This is the humiliation that the Chu Heavenly Clan, our clan, have inflicted upon us.”

Upon seeing the mirror, Chu Feng’s heart immediately tightened. His expression took a huge change. Then, overflowing amount of indescribable anger surged out from his heart.

On his forehead was a character. That word seemed to be a brand. The character read ‘trash.’

“We father and son are people that have been expelled from our clan,” As Chu Xuanyuan spoke, his forehead started to shine. Then, the character ‘trash’ also appeared on his forehead.

“That is the brand that the Chu Heavenly Clan placed on us father and son. That branding is on our souls. It is impossible to be erased.”

“Even if that brand is capable of being erased, the humiliation that the Chu Heavenly Clan inflicted upon us is ineradicable,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Damn it.”

Seeing the character ‘trash’ on Chu Xuanyuan’s forehead, the anger in Chu Feng’s heart surged by many times over. He became much more furious than when he saw the character ‘trash’ on his own forehead.

At the same time, Chu Feng’s heart felt much more complicated.

Back then, his father had unleashed a massacre just because someone insulted him. Although this moved Chu Feng, this also caused Chu Feng to feel greater self-blame.

There was no need to mention how much his father loved him. However, if his talent wasn’t so weak, if his weakness hadn’t been taken advantage of by others, they would not have ended up in their current state.

At that moment, Chu Feng truly realized that what the Old Ape said back then was actually true. His father had indeed been deprived of his honor by him.

Everything was caused by him.

Chapter 2134 – Heavenly Lightning Bloodline

“Actually, we father and son were already expelled. It would’ve been fine should we have left the Chu Heavenly Clan. However... due to our clansmen attacking us, we ended up losing even our liberty, and ended up being put under house arrest.”

“It would be one thing if we were to be imprisoned in some other place. However, of all the places, they decided to imprison us here. This place... is our Chu Heavenly Clan’s forbidden area. In this place... when speaking of it pleasantly, we are imprisoned here. However, they are actually planning to dispose of us father and son,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Damn it! The people from the Chu Clan all deserve to die!” After knowing the truth, Chu Feng gnashed his teeth in anger. His killing intent was overflowing. At that moment, Chu Feng truly had an urge to eliminate everyone from the Chu Clan.

“Very well, it’s right to be furious. If you did not have staunchness and that temperament, you would not be a man, much less my, Chu Xuanyuan’s son, and Chu Hanxian’s grandson.”

“Feng’er, you must remember this humiliation. This humiliation was inflicted upon us by the Chu Clan. If we wish to erase this humiliation, we can only do it ourselves.”

“Back then, if you possessed outstanding talent, then even if I were to openly massacre others, our Chu Clan’s Clan Chief would consider the future, and not treat us father and son like this.”

“You must know that if I hadn’t sent you out back then, then, with the constitution of your body from back then, you would’ve definitely died in this forbidden area,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, what must I do?” Chu Feng asked.

“You must naturally prove yourself. You must prove yourself to the people of the Chu Heavenly Clan, to all the people in the world, and to yourself that you, Chu Feng, possess talent that is not inferior to anyone.”

“However, before that, you must understand your Inherited Bloodline,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Bloodline?” Hearing the word ‘bloodline,’ Chu Feng felt his blood start to flare up uncontrollably.

His Inherited Bloodline was something that Chu Feng had wanted to understand for a very long time. And now... he was finally going to obtain an understanding of it.

“Our Chu Heavenly Clan’s Inherited Bloodline is known as the Heavenly Bloodline. The Heavenly Bloodline is also known as the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline.”

“The Heavenly Lightning Bloodline is composed of nine enormous lightning beasts. It is a noble bloodline far superior to Imperial Bloodlines.”

“Possessors of the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline all possess a common trait. That is, from birth, they are destined to possess overwhelming talent superior to ordinary people.”

“Feng’er, I believe that you have already experienced that first-hand. The current you... as long as you possess sufficient cultivation resources, you will be able to increase your cultivation. Bottlenecks? You practically never experience any bottlenecks. Even if you are to experience any, you will soon break through them. Is what I said correct?” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“That is indeed the case,” Chu Feng nodded repeatedly.

“The possessors of the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline are destined to surpass ordinary people. However, they are not omnipotent either. If you are to continue like this, it would not be hard for you to become a Half Martial Ancestor. However, it is practically impossible for you to become a Martial Ancestor,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Chu Feng's eyes grew large. With a serious expression on his face, he asked, "Why?" After all, this matter concerned his future.

"That is the weakness of the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline. If one is to continue to use that talent nonstop, one's future accomplishments are destined to be limited," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"Father, is there a way to fix that?" Chu Feng asked.

"Feng'er, don't worry. For our Chu Heavenly Clan to possess our current level of accomplishments, we most definitely possess a way to resolve that."

"It is actually very simple. That is, we are to train in a special sort of mysterious technique. That sort of mysterious technique is capable of fusing with the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline. After training in that sort of mysterious technique, we will lose the overwhelming talent and meet bottlenecks with each breakthrough in cultivation. Only through using our own comprehension will we be able to make a break through the bottlenecks."

"Furthermore, during the crucial moments of our breakthroughs, the mysterious technique will let out its distinct power and bring forth a calamity."

"Only those that manage to withstand the calamity will be able to truly reach a breakthrough."

"Precisely because of the special aspects of these mysterious techniques, they are collectively known as 'Self-punishing Mysterious Techniques.'"

"Self-punishing Mysterious Techniques?" Chu Feng's heart trembled.

"By self-punishing, it meant punishing oneself for not using one's comprehension to obtain a cultivation that others obtained through painstaking effort," Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Self-punishing Mysterious Techniques; never would I have imagined that our Inherited Bloodline would be this complicated,” Chu Feng only knew that his Inherited Bloodline was very powerful. However, he did not expect for it to possess so many characteristics.

Today, he felt as if he had greatly broadened his horizons, and obtained a whole new understanding of his Inherited Bloodline.

“There are no free lunches in this world. What one pays and what one obtains are directly proportional to one another. To try to obtain harvests without paying anything is simply a pipe dream.”

“Thus, even for the Self-punishing Mysterious Techniques, there are different levels to them. According to the difference in level, one’s future accomplishments will also be destined to be different.”

“From weak to strong, the Self-punishing Mysterious Techniques are respectively the Mortal Punishment, Earthen Punishment and Heaven Punishment.”

“The Mortal Punishment is the most common type of Self-punishing Mysterious Technique. With each breakthrough in cultivation, the mysterious technique will automatically draw out the enormous lightning beasts from one’s Heavenly Lightning Bloodline to bombard one’s body,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“It’s actually having the enormous lightning beasts attack oneself?” Chu Feng was extremely astonished. After all, he knew how powerful those enormous lightning beasts were.

He had rejoiced the entire time that those enormous lightning beasts were his bloodline, and not his opponents. However, if he were to train in that Mortal Punishment Mysterious Technique, wouldn’t it be equivalent to having the frightening enormous lightning beasts become his opponents?

Merely thinking about it caused Chu Feng's hair to stand on end.

“The Mortal Punishment Mysterious Technique is the most ordinary. The majority of those who possess Heavenly Bloodlines in the Outer World all train in the Mortal Punishment Mysterious Technique.”

“Compared to those who train in Mortal Punishment Mysterious Techniques, those who train in Earthen Punishment Mysterious Techniques will be met with more difficult bottlenecks and more powerful calamities. At that time, one would no longer just be punished by one's Inherited Bloodline. Instead... the Earthen Punishment Mysterious Technique will give rise to Divine Lightnings from the earth to strike your body.”

“No matter how powerful the enormous lightning beasts might be, it remains that they belong to you. Even if they are to punish you, they will not try to kill you. However, the Divine Lightnings from the earth are foreign to you. They will show no quarter when attacking you.”

“Precisely because of that, only those with superb talent and possessing a certain amount of confidence and courage dare to train in the Earthen Punishment Mysterious Technique.”

“As for the Heaven Punishment that is above the Earthen Punishment, it is even more dreadful. Not only are the bottlenecks so difficult that it is akin to scaling the heavens, the Divine Lightnings from the depths of the Outer World are also not something that the Divine Lightnings from the earth could compare with.”

“Not to mention the cultivators themselves, when Divine Lightning strikes, everything around the cultivator will be destroyed.”

“Thus... very few people dare to cultivate the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique,” Chu Xuanyuan explained.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng expressed his approval. Merely by hearing it, he was able to tell how frightening the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique was.

“Furthermore, due to the fact that the three Self-punishing Mysterious Techniques have different levels, they possess different cultivation levels at which they can be trained.”

“For Mortal Punishment, one would be able to practice it in the Martial King realm.”

“For Earthen Punishment, the Half Martial Emperor realm.”

“For Heaven Punishment, the Martial Emperor realm,” Chu Xuanyuan explained.

“Father, I am already a rank seven Martial Emperor now. I can no longer train in Mortal Punishment or Earthen Punishment. Could it be... that father did not mention this matter to me for so long because you’ve already made preparations beforehand to have me train in the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique?” While Chu Feng appeared to be calm, cold sweat had long since covered his brow.

Even though his father had not been with him the entire time, he was able to tell that his father had been observing him from the shadows the entire time. In other words, his father’s decision to let him be by himself was a kind of nurture.

His father had never given up on him. He had merely been nurturing him, nurturing his ability to survive with an even stricter method.

That said, his father still wished for him to obtain good accomplishments. For his father to mention these things to him now... meant that his father had already thought of the Self-punishing Mysterious Technique that he should practice—the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique.

He truly never expected for his father to be this ruthless toward him, for his father to actually plan to have him train in the most difficult Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique.

Although Chu Feng also wished to obtain better accomplishments, when he thought about it from a different angle, how could his father not be afraid that he would be struck to death by the Divine Lightning?

However, Chu Xuanyuan smiled lightly at Chu Feng's question.

Then, he said, "No, what you will be training is not the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique."

"Instead, it's Divine Punishment!!!"

Chapter 2135 – Divine Punishment

Mysterious Technique

“Divine Punishment?”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart immediately shivered.

Merely by listening to the name, Chu Feng was able to tell how frightening it would be.

“By Divine Punishment, it means that it is a Self-punishing Mysterious Technique above Heaven Punishment.”

“If Mortal Punishment draws upon the lightnings from one’s bloodline, Earthen Punishment from the earth and Heaven Punishment from the sky...”

“Then, Divine Punishment will no longer only be drawing upon lightning at all. Instead, a Divine Tribulation will descend upon you.”

“The descent of a Divine Tribulation will cause destruction to both heaven and the earth. It is a sort of power that surpasses one’s ability to endure.”

“However, if you wish to reach a breakthrough, you must withstand that sort of power. You will only be given two choices, success or failure. Furthermore, if you are to fail... not even your soul will remain.”

“If the other Self-punishment Mysterious Techniques unleash punishments that are still within one’s ability to endure.”

“Then, the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique will unleash punishments that surpass one’s ability to endure.”

“Thus, those that train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Techniques will all obtain a true transformation with every breakthrough,” Chu Xuanyuan explained.

“Father, has there been anyone that has successfully practiced such a powerful Self-punishment Mysterious Technique before?” Chu Feng asked in a serious manner.

“The Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique is not something that just anyone can attempt. As far as I know... only two people have ever trained in it,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Who are they?” Chu Feng hurriedly asked.

“Those two people...”

“One is your grandfather, Chu Hanxian.”

“As for the the other, it is I, your father, Chu Xuanyuan,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Ah,” Chu Feng was startled upon hearing those words. Originally, he had thought about finding an excuse to refuse. However, upon hearing those words, he was unable to find any excuse to refuse.

Both his grandfather and father had trained in that Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. Furthermore, they had both succeeded. If he were to choose to cower at this point, he would truly be an utter disappointment.

Not to mention how others would view him, he himself would also feel that he had disgraced the honor and reputation of his grandfather and his father.

Furthermore, after knowing that his father and grandfather had both trained in that Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, Chu Feng also started to feel interest toward the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique from the bottom of his heart.

“Feng’er, back then, your grandfather did not force me to train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. As such, I will also not force you.”

“The reason I mention this to you right now is so that you are given the opportunity to choose. Heaven Punishment and Divine Punishment, you decide which one you want to train,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Divine Punishment,” Chu Feng said without the slightest hesitation. He had long since made the decision in his heart.

“Why? Are you not afraid of death?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“I am. I don’t think there’s anyone that would not fear death,” Chu Feng said.

“Then, why did you still insist on choosing the Divine Punishment?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“Father, I am not arrogant, conceited or acting recklessly. I merely wish to obtain better achievements. I wish to prove myself.”

“The path of martial cultivation is a double-edged sword to begin with. If one wishes to reach a greater distance, one will have to undergo greater danger.”

“Although the path that I plan to take is a dangerous path, I am not the first one to take this path. Before me, my grandfather and my father have already walked that path. Thus, by comparison... the path is already much safer now that it has come to me.”

“At the very least, I know how to walk the path. Thus... there is no reason for me to not choose the Divine Punishment,” Chu Feng said.

“Well said. As expected from my son,” At that moment, a smile filled Chu Xuanyuan’s face.

“Feng’er, your way of thinking is correct. Although the Divine Punishment is very dangerous, one will also be able to obtain a greater harvest from it.”

“The wielders of Heavenly Lightning Bloodlines all possess identical characteristics. I believe you’ve also seen that brat from the Ying Heavenly Clan. He possessed all the power that you possess right now. For example, there is the Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings that can increase one's cultivation. Then, there's the heaven-defying battle power."

"However, the power of Heavenly Lightning Bloodlines will be transformed in the Martial Ancestor realm. After reaching the Martial Ancestor realm, the nine Heavenly Lightning will fuse into one. This is commonly referred to as the Nine Lightnings Fusion.

"After the Nine Lightnings Fusion, one will be able to form a Lightning Mark. Those that trained in Mortal Punishment Mysterious Techniques will form a Mortal Mark. Earthen Punishment Mysterious Techniques will form an Earthen Mark, and Heaven Punishment Divine Techniques will form a Heaven Mark."

"As for Divine Punishment Mysterious Techniques, it will form a Divine Mark."

"The different sorts of Lightning Marks will show others how powerful the possessor of the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline is, as well as what sort of Self-punishment Mysterious Technique they trained in."

"However, that is not the important aspect. Most importantly, the more powerful one's Lightning Mark, the stronger the power it will bring to its master. Their future accomplishments will also be greater."

"In other words, one's Lightning Mark symbolizes one's status and strength. When you form a Divine Mark, very few people will dare to disrespect you."

"The reason for that is because not everyone possesses the courage to train in Divine Punishment Mysterious Techniques, nor are they something that just anyone can practice, or something that one can learn just because one wishes to learn it," Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, I understand.” After hearing of the profoundness of the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, Chu Feng had become extremely impatient to know exactly what the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique was like.

“Feng’er, have you really made your decision?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“I’ve decided. I am going to train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique,” Chu Feng said.

“Since that’s the case, I, your father will teach you the cultivation method for the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique,” As Chu Xuanyuan spoke, he placed his finger onto Chu Feng’s forehead.

“There will be a slight pain. You’ll have to bear with it,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, light shone on Chu Xuanyuan’s finger. Then, a boundless power entered Chu Feng’s head from Chu Xuanyuan’s finger.

“Wuu~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng immediately felt a sort of unbearable pain entering his head. It was a sensation where he felt as if his head was about to explode.

However, that was only the beginning. The pain in his head soon spread through his entire body.

At that moment, Chu Feng realized that the pain didn’t seem to be as simple as entering his body. Instead, it seemed more like it was trying to fuse with his soul and his bloodline. From today on, it would be destined to live and die together with him by becoming part of him.

Finally, everything stopped. Chu Feng was covered with sweat and gasping for breath. Even though the pain had passed, Chu Feng still felt lingering fears.

“Father, is that the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique?” Chu Feng asked Chu Xuanyuan.

He discovered that the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique was different from all the mysterious techniques that he had trained in before. For other mysterious techniques, one would merely need to follow a designated cultivation path with one’s martial power. With that, one would be able to stabilize one’s cultivation and increase one’s strength.

However, the so-called Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique was completely different. It was a method that completely fused with one’s soul.

In other words, Chu Feng had yet to attempt to train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. However, if he were to train in it, he felt that his Inherited Bloodline would definitely become completely different.

“That is the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. How are you feeling?” Chu Xuanyuan asked with a smile.

“This feeling is extremely good. I feel that my Inherited Bloodline, my soul and even my physical body were all promoted.”

“I truly wish to experience the true charm of the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique right now,” Chu Feng said.

What Chu Feng said was the truth. He was truly impatient to completely grasp the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. He wanted to further increase the strength of his Inherited Bloodline.

“Since you wish to experience the charm of the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, go ahead and train in it,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, doesn’t this Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique require one to become a Half Martial Ancestor to train?” Chu Feng asked in astonishment.

Although the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique had fused with Chu Feng’s soul and bloodline, it had yet to completely fuse with Chu Feng.

Chu Feng was able to sense that it was not up to him to decide if the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique fused with him. Instead, it was decided by his cultivation.

With Chu Feng’s current cultivation, it was impossible for him to completely fuse the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique with his bloodline. However, should he reach the Half Martial Ancestor level of cultivation, even if he were then to be against it, the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique would automatically fuse with his body. At that time, he would not be able to stop it even if he wanted to.

“Indeed, you need to become a Half Martial Ancestor,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“But, my cultivation is still insufficient,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s simple. I, your father, will help you set foot into the Half Martial Ancestor realm right away,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Chapter 2136 – Rank One Half Martial Ancestor

As Chu Xuanyuan spoke, he flipped his palm. Then, a jadeite-like gem appeared on his palm.

“Refine this, and you’ll be able to directly become a Half Martial Ancestor,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, this gem...” Chu Feng received the gem. Excitement filled his heart.

Over the years, he had refined countless Natural Oddities and cultivation resources. However, this was his first time seeing something that contained such a dense amount of Natural Energy.

Truth be told, with Chu Feng’s current cultivation, it would most likely be impossible for him to find any cultivation resources appropriate for him in the Holy Land of Martialism.

However, the gem that Chu Xuanyuan had just handed him was actually capable of helping Chu Feng reach rank one Half Martial Ancestor directly from rank seven Martial Emperor. To be able to reach three breakthroughs at once was something that Chu Feng had not even dared to imagine before.

“All these years, your father has never helped you with your cultivation. The reason why I did that is because I wanted you to be able to personally experience things for yourself so that you can temper your heart.”

“This time around, you can consider this compensation from your father.,” Chu Xuanyuan said with a light smile.

“Thank you father,” Chu Feng stood up and courteously bowed.

“Didn’t I say that there’s no need to be so overly courteous, as we are father and son? Go ahead and refine it.”

Chu Feng tossed the gem he held in his hand, opened his mouth and bit onto the gem. Then, he sat down in a cross-legged position and began to refine the gem.

Soon, surging Natural Energies began to flow through Chu Feng's body. They began to pour into Chu Feng's dantian nonstop; they, were all being refined by Chu Feng's Divine Lightnings.

Under such circumstances, Chu Feng's cultivation began to increase nonstop. Rank eight Martial Emperor, rank nine Martial Emperor...

At the moment when a total of eight lightnings were surging out from Chu Feng's body before entering his body again, Chu Feng's cultivation reached rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

Everything was as Chu Xuanyuan had said. The Natural Energies contained in that gem were truly capable of allowing Chu Feng to directly reach rank one Half Martial Ancestor from rank seven Martial Emperor.

Without using his Thunder Armor or Thunder Wings, or any other method to increase his cultivation, Chu Feng currently gave off the aura of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. He had become an actual Half Martial Ancestor-level expert in one go.

Furthermore, it was not only Chu Feng's cultivation that had increased to rank one Half Martial Ancestor. He had also obtained another level of heaven-defying battle power. In other words, his heaven-defying battle power was now capable of surmounting six levels of cultivation.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng waved his hand. Immediately, the surrounding Ancestral-level martial power surged forth and entered Chu Feng's body, waiting to be used by him.

“How do you feel?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“I am finally able to grasp Ancestral-level martial power. As expected from Half Martial Ancestor, they are truly incomparable to Martial Emperors.”

“Furthermore, my battle power is currently capable of surmounting six levels of cultivation. I am not just only a bit stronger than before. This sort of sensation is truly fabulous,” Chu Feng said excitedly.

“Half Martial Ancestors are naturally more powerful than Martial Emperors. As for your heaven-defying battle power, while it is correct to say that it is capable of surmounting six levels of cultivation, it would be more reasonable to say that it is capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation?” Chu Feng was puzzled.

“Those capable of becoming Martial Emperors all possess heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. Not to mention the Upper Realm, even in the Ordinary Realm, Martial Emperors are countless.”

“In the Outer World, the Martial Emperor realm is a dividing line. Only those capable of becoming Martial Emperors are considered to be qualified to be considered martial cultivators. All those that fail to step into Martial Emperor realm are known to be extremely inferior in the Outer World. They are people that are looked upon with disdain by others.”

“As for Martial Emperors, since they all possess at least a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, your heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting six levels of cultivation is only capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation when compared to even the most ordinary Martial Emperors.”

“Furthermore, the opponents that you will face in the future will definitely not be Martial Emperors or those below them. They will all be people with cultivations surpassing Martial Emperor. Thus, from this point on, you must remember this. Even if your opponent is only ordinary, your dominance would only be a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Never would I have expected that the Martial Emperors that were capable of covering the sky with their hands in the Holy Land of Martialism are only people that have just become qualified as martial cultivators in the Outer Realm.”

After hearing his father’s words, Chu Feng came to realize even more why the Holy Land of Martialism, the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm, was the weakest among the countless Lower Realms. It turned out that the cultivators there were utterly inferior when compared to cultivators in the vast Outer World.

“Feng’er, you are still young. After you enter the Outer World, you will discover that... even though you possess three additional levels of heaven-defying battle power when compared to ordinary Half Martial Ancestors, you are not the strongest among those of your generation.”

“Not only are there many Heavenly Clans in the Outer World, there are also, in addition to the humans that possess Heavenly Bloodlines, monstrous beasts that possess powerful Inherited Bloodlines.”

“Furthermore, when you reach the Outer World, you will discover that the actual Divine Bodies there are also extremely powerful,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Could it be that Divine Bodies in the Outer World are so powerful that they can contend against our Heavenly Bloodlines?” Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng had encountered many Divine Bodies in the Holy Land of Martialism. Although they were very powerful, Chu Feng only felt them to be powers on par with Imperial Bloodlines. When compared to his Inherited Bloodline, they were much inferior. In fact, they were simply not on the same level.

“That differs from individual to individual. The weak Divine Bodies would be the same as the ones you met here. They are only comparable to Imperial Bloodlines. In fact, some of them are inferior to even Imperial Bloodlines.”

“However, by the same account, there are Divine Bodies that are extremely powerful. Not to mention those that are capable of contending against our Heavenly Bloodline, some Divine Bodies have grasped powers that surpass even ordinary wielders of Heavenly Bloodlines.”

“In the Outer World, there are a relatively large amount of such Divine Bodies,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Suddenly, Chu Feng took a long sigh.

“Feng’er, what’s wrong?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“Having lived in this world for so long, although I always knew how small and ignorant I was every time I looked to the vast starry sky, when the truth is verified, when it is determined that I am truly small and ignorant, that sensation is truly unpleasant,” Chu Feng said with a wry smile.

He was able to realize that while he remained an exceptional genius in this place, he would become an ordinary person upon entering the Outer World.

Even though he had a Heavenly Bloodline, there were many people that could contend against him in the Outer World.

In fact, there were many people much more powerful than him. It would be extremely difficult for him to become the strongest among the younger generation.

What awaited him was destined to be a challenging journey.

“Feng’er, there is also a difference between the strengths of one’s Heavenly Bloodline. As the Self-punishment Mysterious Technique that you trained in is the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, you will obtain a Divine Mark when you become a Martial Ancestor and obtain the Nine Lightnings Fusion.”

“At that time, even in the Outer World, you will still be a brilliant nova.”

“Merely... even though you are only nine levels of cultivation away from becoming a Martial Ancestor, it is an extremely difficult cultivation journey.”

As Chu Xuanyuan spoke, he took out another twenty gems that contained a dense amount of Natural Energy. He tossed those gems to Chu Feng and said, “Refine all of them at once.”

“Yes,” Chu Feng did not hesitate and directly refined all twenty gems completely. However... he did not manage to successfully reach a single breakthrough. His cultivation... remained that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

He was able to sense that the dense amount of Natural Energies were gathered in his dantian. Originally, those Natural Energies would have been enough for him to reach a breakthrough.

Merely, there was an invisible wall separating the Natural Energies from his Inherited Bloodline. If that wall was not broken through, his Inherited Bloodline would not be able to refine the boundless Natural Energies. In turn, Chu Feng would not be able to reach a breakthrough in his cultivation.

At that moment, Chu Feng realized that Natural Energies no longer remained the most crucial aspect to him reaching a breakthrough in cultivation.

From this point forward, his cultivation journey would become completely different.

Chapter 2137 – A Mission

“The Natural Energies contained in your dantian right now are sufficient enough for you to reach rank three Half Martial Ancestor.”

“However, you are unable to even reach rank two Half Martial Ancestor. And that is you... being bottlenecked. You will need to rely on your own comprehension of the way of martial cultivation and think of a way to use your Inherited Bloodline to break through that bottleneck.”

“However, after you reach a breakthrough, you will not be able to directly reach a breakthrough in cultivation like you did before.”

“You will bring forth the arrival of a catastrophe, Divine Lightnings capable of causing massive destruction will descend from the sky to strike at your body.”

“Only by withstanding them will you be able to truly reach a breakthrough. The reason for that is because... you have successfully learned the highest level Self-punishing Mysterious Technique — the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique!!!”

“That said, there is also an extremely important matter that I must remind you of. Although it will be much more difficult for you to reach a breakthrough in cultivation after learning the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, the Natural Energies you need to reach a breakthrough in cultivation will continue to be more and more frightening.”

“I will not continue to provide you with cultivation resources. I have already given you all that I can. You must go and search, scramble for and seize the remaining cultivation resources yourself.”

“That can be considered the special sort of nurturing method of our family. That is also what your grandfather had me do back then,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, I understand. I will absolutely not disappoint you,” Chu Feng said.

Chu Feng knew very well that while the cultivation path for the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique would be very difficult, the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique was most definitely a rare treasure. He was only able to train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique because of his father.

This could be considered a blessing, a blessing from his father.

However, more than that, it was a sort of expectation, an expectation that his father had toward him.

What Chu Feng must do was not disappoint the expectations his father held toward him. He planned to obtain his father’s acknowledgement with the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. At the same time, he must obtain acknowledgement from everyone else.

However, if he truly wished to be acknowledged, he couldn’t rely on his father alone. Thus, Chu Feng had already made the decision that he would work hard by himself to make each and every following breakthrough.

“Very well. You are worthy of being my, Chu Xuanyuan’s, son,” Seeing that Chu Feng did not cower in the slightest when faced with such a difficult path for cultivation, Chu Xuanyuan smiled with joy and pride.

“I already know that you plan to go to the Outer World. Thus, there are some things that I must tell you first.”

“While the Chu Heavenly Clan are heartless toward us father and son, we father and son cannot be disloyal to the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Everything cannot be generalized. While there were indeed people from the Chu Clan that secretly attacked us father and son, it does not mean that all the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan wish to bring harm upon us.”

“In fact, when the Chu Clan’s Clan Chief decided to imprison us father and son in the Chu Clan’s forbidden area, there were many people in the Chu Clan that pleaded for us.”

“Thus... upon entering the Outer World, should you encounter people from the Chu Heavenly Clan, it would be best that you not treat them with hostility.”

“However... if there are people from the Chu Heavenly Clan that wish to cause you harm, you must not be benevolent toward them either,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, please rest assured, I understand your intentions. What I am going to do is not to take revenge against the Chu Heavenly Clan. Instead, I am going to make them realize that their decision back then was mistaken.”

“However, if there are people from the Chu Heavenly Clan that wish to cause me harm, I will absolutely not be lenient toward them. Regardless of whether they might be people that might attack me in the future, or people that secretly attacked father before, I will definitely not spare any of them,” Chu Feng said earnestly. As he spoke those words, a faint coldness flashed through his eyes.

“Very good. To be able to distinguish between gratitude and grudges, that is what my, Chu Xuanyuan’s, son should be like.”

Seeing Chu Feng’s reaction, Chu Xuanyuan nodded his head in satisfaction. Then, he said, “After you exit this place, the place that you will arrive in will not be the Upper Realm where our Chu Heavenly Clan is located. Instead, it will be the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“The Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is a place that all of the people from the Lower Realms under the administration of our Chu Heavenly Clan must reach.”

“Thus, every year, there will always be countless people from the Lower Realms entering the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm to start tempering themselves anew.”

“The implication behind the name Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm precisely means to refine and temper oneself hundreds and thousands of times over. If one cannot pass through the trials in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, one will not be able to enter the Upper Realm, and will end up staying in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for the rest of their lives. At the very most, they will be able to enter the other Ordinary Realms. However, even if they do, they will remain unable to enter the Upper Realm without sufficient qualifications.”

“Precisely because of that, the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm has set up a Hundred Refinements Stage. The Hundred Refinements Stage is the place that practically all the people entering from the Lower Realms must reach.”

“The Hundred Refinements Stage is normally closed, and will only be open once every year. In other words, all the people from the Lower Realm that reach the Hundred Refinements Stage within that year will end up cultivating together in the Hundred Refinements Stage.”

“After the gate of the Hundred Refinements Stage is opened, the people from the Lower Realm will be ranked according to their strength.”

“Every year, the various powers outside of the Hundred Refinement Ordinary Realm will wait outside of the Hundred Refinements Stage for that ranking.”

“They will choose their disciples according to that ranking list. Without a doubt, the people from the Lower Realm with a higher ranking will be more highly sought after.”

“If you are to directly enter the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm through the Stairway to Heaven from the Realm of Gods, you will be able to directly reach the Hundred Refinements Stage.”

“However, I do not suggest that you go and strive for a high place on the ranking. After all, you do not belong to the Lower Realm. Instead, you belong to the Upper Realm. Thus, there is no significance in you competing with a bunch of people from the Lower Realm.”

“Thus, I’m going to give you this,” As Chu Xuanyuan spoke, he hand a world spirit key to Chu Feng.

“Father, this is?” Chu Feng asked.

“This world spirit key is capable of helping you create an opening through the spirit formation around the Hundred Refinements Stage. After entering the Hundred Refinements Stage, you do not have to stay there. Using this key, you can leave that place and experience the outside world,” Chu Xuanyuan explained.

“Got it,” Chu Feng carefully put the key away. However, he suddenly thought of something, and asked, “Then, what about the Eastern Sea Region’s Stairway to Heaven?”

“The Eastern Sea Region also possesses a Stairway to Heaven?” Chu Xuanyuan asked in astonishment. He evidently did not know about that.

“There is indeed one in the Eastern Sea Region,” Chu Feng said.

“The track of the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm’s Stairway to Heaven’s teleportation has already been changed. Unless the Stairway to Heaven that you mentioned was set up by an extremely powerful person, unless that Stairway to Heaven was able to conceal itself from everything, it would still lead to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, in that case, can you give me another world spirit key? I have a friend here. If she is to enter the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and decide to not stay in the Hundred Refinements Stage, I hope...”

“That’s no issue,” Before Chu Feng could finish, Chu Xuanyuan took out another world spirit key and handed it to Chu Feng.

“Thank you father,” Chu Feng received the world spirit key and expressed his thanks emotionally.

As a world spiritist, Chu Feng was able to tell how powerful that world spirit key was merely by looking at it. If his father had not handed him a world spirit key, he would likely also be unable to leave the Hundred Refinements Stage.

As for the second world spirit key, he had requested it for Xian Miaomiao.

“Feng’er, although the Ordinary Realm cannot compare to the Upper Realm, it is still definitely not something that the Lower Realm can compare with.”

“Entering the Ordinary Realm from the Lower Realm means entering a new world. Before you obtain a certain amount of strength, it would be best that you not provoke powers that are extremely strong.”

“Among them, you must pay attention to a power called the Infant Soul Sect. It is the most dangerous among all the powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. When you encounter them, you must be extra careful. You absolutely cannot afford to be careless toward them,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Infant Soul Sect?” Chu Feng felt a burst of cold upon hearing that name. He felt that that sect was most definitely not a righteous sect. Thus, Chu Feng said, “Father, please rest assured. I will definitely be careful.”

“Mn,” Chu Xuanyuan nodded. Then, he said, “Although you will have to be low-key after entering the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, father will still hand you a mission.”

“What is the mission? Father, please tell me,” Chu Feng said.

“Eliminate the Infant Soul Sect,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Ahh?!!!” Chu Feng was immediately stunned by those words.

Chapter 2138 – A Request

“Why do you want me to eliminate the Infant Soul Sect? Could it be that there are grudges between you and the Infant Soul Sect, father?” Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng was surprised. He did not expect that his father would want him to eliminate the Infant Soul Sect after warning him about how dangerous it was.

However, he felt that his father most definitely possessed a reason to give him such a task. He felt that the most likely reason would be that the Infant Soul Sect was his father’s enemy.

“There are no grudges between the Infant Soul Sect and me. Merely, the Infant Soul Sect is an evil power. Do you know why they are called the Infant Soul Sect?”

“The reason for that is because everyone in the Infant Soul Sect uses the souls of newly born infants as cultivation resources. The longer the Infant Soul Sect continues to exist, the more innocent infants will die by their hands. Thus, the Infant Soul Sect should be eliminated,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“They truly deserve to die,” Chu Feng detested those that bullied the old, weak, sick or disabled the most. Furthermore... the Infant Soul Sect was a power composed of people that harmed innocent infants.

Thinking about it, lives that have just been born to this world, before they could experience the wonders of this world, before they could even get to know this world, ended up being killed by those fiends. Oh how cruel the people from the Infant Soul Sect must be.

“While the Infant Soul Sect should be eliminated, there are a lot of powers that use those sorts of malicious techniques to cultivate. It is extremely difficult to eliminate all of them.”

“Thus, to help the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm eliminate evil is merely one of the reasons why I want you to eliminate the Infant Soul Sect. Apart from that, there’s another reason that’s the most important,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, please continue,” Chu Feng said earnestly.

“In order to nurture outstanding members of the younger generation, the Chu Heavenly Clan has also used some extreme measures. That is, they will have their younger generation accept and complete missions.”

“As far as I know, there are many missions in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Thus, even though the Chu Heavenly Clan exists in the Upper Realm, there are also people from the Chu Heavenly Clan in the Ordinary Realms. Furthermore, they are mostly members of the younger generation.”

“Furthermore, there is a rule in the Chu Heavenly Clan. As long as the Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation are daring enough to enter the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and carry out missions there, they will no longer be protected by the Chu Heavenly Clan. Even if they should encounter fatal dangers, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan will not interfere.”

“In other words, when in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the life and death of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation will only be their own problem.”

“With all that said, one of the highest level missions, one that is the most difficult, is to eliminate the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s Infant Soul Sect.”

“Merely, so far, none of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation have been able to eliminate the Infant Soul Sect. On the contrary, many of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s elites from the younger generation were killed by the Infant Soul Sect.”

“As time passed, the Infant Soul Sect no longer feared the Chu Heavenly Clan. After all... they remained safe even after killing so many of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s geniuses,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“It is the Chu Heavenly Clan that has deliberately ignored the Infant Soul Sect? They have done so... all for the sake of nurturing their younger generation?” Chu Feng asked.

“You’re right. The Infant Soul Sect could be said to be a power that has done all sorts of evil in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, if the Chu Heavenly Clan wishes to eliminate them, it would be an effortless task for them.”

“The reason they have not eliminated the Infant Soul Sect and instead tasked their younger generation with eliminating the Infant Soul Sect repeatedly, is precisely because they hoped that there would be a younger generation from the Chu Heavenly Clan that could eliminate the Infant Soul Sect.”

“Ever since the mission to eliminate the Infant Soul Sect appeared, there has not been a single member of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation capable of completing that mission,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, I understand your intention,” Chu Feng said. He truly understood.

Eliminating the Infant Soul Sect was a mission that none of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation was capable of accomplishing.

If Chu Feng was able to accomplish it, it would mean that he would’ve given the Chu Heavenly Clan a ruthless slap to the face. After all, he was deemed to be trash that did not possess the Heavenly Bloodline of the Chu Heavenly Clan; he was someone that had been stripped of his status as a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

“There is an age requirement for eliminating the Infant Soul

Sect. Members of the Chu Clan older than forty are not allowed to accept that mission. Feng'er, your age is still well within the requirement. After all, you are not even thirty years old."

"However, you do not have to accept that mission from the Chu Heavenly Clan. It would do if you were to just eliminate the Infant Soul Sect directly. After all, you are nominally no longer a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan."

"That said, to the Chu Heavenly Clan, regardless of who it is that did it, it would be a disgrace for the Chu Heavenly Clan as long as it is a member of the younger generation younger than forty years old that eliminates the Infant Soul Sect," Chu Xuanyuan said.

Sure enough, what he had in mind was exactly what Chu Feng was thinking. He planned to humiliate the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Although he did not plan to kill people from the Chu Heavenly Clan, Chu Xuanyuan wanted the Chu Heavenly Clan to know that their decision back then was a mistake.

"That said, Feng'er, I have a matter that I must warn you about. While I sent someone to secretly protect you in this place, once you enter the Outer World, I will absolutely not act to help you. You must rely on yourself for everything," Chu Xuanyuan warned Chu Feng in a very serious manner.

"I understand. I will absolutely not do anything reckless. Although the actions of the Infant Soul Sect are truly infuriating to the heart, I will definitely not make them an enemy before I possess sufficient strength to take them on," Chu Feng said.

"Mn, in that case, go on ahead to the Outer World. I have already taken Zi Ling as my disciple. When it is time, I will have her assist you in the Outer World," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"Father, you've truly taken Zi Ling as your disciple?" Chu Feng was overjoyed.

Chu Feng did not know how powerful his father was. However, he was able to guess that his father must be extremely powerful.

If Zi Ling truly became his father's disciple, Zi Ling's strength would definitely advance by leaps and bounds. To both Chu Feng and Zi Ling, that would be something good.

"Why would I lie to you about something like that? Zi Ling's foundations are pretty decent. If she is properly nurtured, she will be able to attain accomplishments even in the Outer World."

"However, Feng'er, there are actually a lot of people who possess decent foundations. However, if they are unable to expand upon them themselves, it would all be useless. The reason for that is because there is no one in this world with the time to assist others to expand their foundations. Zi Ling belonged to the sort that needed another's assistance."

"Thus, I think that you should be able to understand why I am helping her," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"I understand."

Chu Feng naturally understood that Chu Xuanyuan was spending that much effort to help Zi Ling because of him. After all, Zi Ling was his lover.

"It's good that you know. Zi Ling's potential needed me to develop it. However you... you must develop your potential yourself."

"Actually, I am able to wholly nurture you and let you leave after you are capable of contending against others."

"However, I fear that while you might be able to become very powerful in a short period of time under my umbrella, your future prospects will instead be limited. If that is the case, the gains will not make up for the losses."

"After all, one must look at the long-term. Thus, I hope that you are able to understand my intentions," Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, please rest assured. I will definitely go and comprehend the path of martial cultivation diligently,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn, I know that my Feng’er is a person with perseverance. That part of you resembles both me and your grandfather,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Hehe...” Chu Feng laughed proudly. He felt those words to be the greatest praise.

After all, both his grandfather and his father were grand existences with renowned reputations in the Outer World.

“Father, you said that you will no longer help me once I reach the Outer World. I am still not yet in the Outer World now, are you able to still help me?” Chu Feng asked.

“Feng’er, if you want more cultivation resources, you do not have to bother asking,” Chu Xuanyuan said decisively. His tone was very cold and grim. It seemed that he was determined to not help Chu Feng increase his cultivation.

“Father, please rest assured. I will only rely on myself for my cultivation. I will not ask you for assistance.”

“What I wanted father’s assistance with is something else,” Chu Feng said.

“What is it? Go ahead and tell me,” Chu Xuanyuan said after finding out that it was not related to Chu Feng’s cultivation.

Chapter 2139 – Good Or Bad

“I have three things that I wish father’s assistance in.”

“First, I hope that you can help me find out where the Moon Immortal has gone to. She has seized Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies. I wish to seize them back from her.”

“Second, I hope you can help me check out the Four Great Divine Bodies to see if there is anything wrong concerning their physical bodies. The reason for that is because the Magma Emperor declared that they would not live for long. Yet, I was unable to discover anything wrong with their bodies,” Chu Feng said.

“The Moon Immortal has already entered the Outer World. If you wish to search for her, you’ll have to do so in the Outer World,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Entered the Outer World?” Chu Feng revealed an astonished expression.

“She should not have used the Stairway to Heaven. Instead, it should have been some sort of treasure that let her enter the Outer World.”

“Stairways to Heaven are formations that can be used many times. However, the method she used to enter the Outer World should be a sort of treasure that can only be used once,” Chu Xuanyuan explained.

“In that case, does that mean that the Moon Immortal is currently in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s Hundred Refinement Stage?” Chu Feng asked.

“That might be the case, yet might not be the case. It depends on who created her treasure, and where that treasure will take her.”

“That said, that so-called Moon Immortal is someone from the Outer World to begin with. Furthermore, her nature should be good. Else, she would not have assisted you. She did not help you out of righteousness. Rather, it was because she felt that she owed you.”

“I don’t think someone like her will harm Su Rou and Su Mei. Thus, you do not have to worry about them too much,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“I understand,” Chu Feng was very surprised. He did not expect the Moon Immortal to be from the Outer World. However, since his father said it like that, there would definitely be no mistake about it. Thus, he continued to ask, “Then, what about the Four Great Divine Beasts? Do they really possess fatal dangers?”

Chu Feng wanted to know about the situation with the Four Great Divine Beasts. This was also why he decided to bring the Four Great Divine Beasts here with him. Chu Feng had wanted to have his father check out the Four Great Divine Beasts from the very beginning.

After Chu Feng said those words, Chu Xuanyuan turned his gaze toward the direction where the Four Great Divine Beasts were. After surveying them for some time, he said, “The Azure Dragon, the White Tiger, the Vermilion Bird and the Black Tortoise are the legendary Four Symbols Divine Beasts. If they truly exist, they should possess overwhelming strength. How could they only be mere Half Martial Ancestors?”

“Thus, those four that you know are merely lifeforms created from the separation of a Divine Power.”

“They are not Divine Beasts, nor are they Sacred Beasts. In fact, they cannot even be considered to be beasts.”

“They should have been a Divine Power that accompanied their master. If they cannot accompany their master, they should have disappeared,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“In that case, they truly will not be able to continue to live for long?” Chu Feng asked.

“If it is to continue like this, they will indeed not be able to live for long. If you want them to continue living, you’ll have to have them abandon their physical bodies and freedom to return to becoming secret skills that would exist in your body,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

At that moment, Chu Feng grew silent. He did not know how he was to mention such a thing to the Azure Dragon and the others.

After all, if Chu Feng were to tell them that, it would mean that the Magma Emperor hadn’t been lying, that Qing Xuantian had truly abandoned them.

“I possess the method to turn them back into secret skills so that they can return to your body. If you wish for them to continue to exist, you must tell them the truth.”

“Furthermore, Feng’er, although they are not the legendary Four Symbols Divine Beasts, they do indeed possess Four Symbols Divine Power. They are extremely powerful among the many Divine Powers.”

“I do not understand why their master would brave dangers to his life to separate them from his body, to personally strip himself of his exceptional gift,” Chu Xuanyuan said in a puzzled manner. Evidently... he still did not know about the matter concerning Qing Xuantian and the Four Great Divine Beasts.

“Father, I heard this is what happened...”

Chu Feng told Chu Xuanyuan everything regarding Qing Xuantian, the Four Great Divine Beasts and what the Magma Emperor said.

He wished for his father to help him analyze the situation and figure out exactly why Qing Xuantian decided to abandon the Four Great Divine Beasts.

After all, with all the things that Qing Xuantian had done, he did not resemble an evil person no matter how Chu Feng saw it.

“The way I see it, that Magma Emperor’s words cannot be fully trusted. However, they possess a certain degree of credibility.”

“After all, what martial cultivators seek is power. To make decisions for stronger power is something that martial cultivators oftentimes face.”

“For example, Feng’er, if there is a bloodline even more powerful than your Heavenly Lightning Bloodline, a bloodline that could allow you to grow stronger faster, would you abandon your Heavenly Lightning Bloodline?” Chu Xuanyuan asked Chu Feng.

“I...” Chu Feng didn’t know how to answer that question. He had never thought of something like that. As such, he was at a loss as to what he would end up doing.

“I think that you would decide to abandon your Heavenly Lightning Bloodline. There is nothing disgraceful about that. For example, there’s your friend, Jiang Wushang. To speak of it pleasantly, his Inherited Bloodline gained a promotion from Royal Bloodline to Imperial Bloodline.”

“However, the truth is that he abandoned the power that his parents bestowed upon him. The reason for that is because he wished to pursue an even stronger power.”

“If one were to judge it from a certain viewpoint, he might appear to be in the wrong. However, no one blamed him for it. Instead, all of his clansmen viewed him as their pride. Why is that? The reason for that is because he had obtained the power that everyone yearned for.”

“The way I see it, that is the same reason why Qing Xuantian abandoned the Four Symbols Divine Power; in order to pursue an even stronger Divine Power,” Chu Xuanyuan explained.

“Father, in that case, you mean to say that senior Qing Xuantian was not a bad person?” Chu Feng asked.

“One’s moral character cannot be determined from one’s surface.”

“For example, if there are two men.”

“One man is very honest and kindhearted. He has done many good deeds and secretly helped a lot of people. Merely, due to the fact that he did not seek fame and riches, he did everything secretly, not letting anyone know about it.”

“Furthermore, he deeply loved his wife. However, his wife betrayed him, and even wanted to kill him to swallow up his wealth and property with another man.”

“After that man discovered what his wife planned to do, he was filled with grief. Thus, he got into an argument with his wife, and tried his hardest to keep her. However, he accidentally ended up killing her.”

“After others found out about this, he naturally would have to explain himself. However, due to the fact that he did not possess any proof, no one trusted him.”

“Instead, people all started to declare that he had a bad moral character, that he killed his good wife and was even making excuses for his actions to slander his wife. They felt him to be a degenerate among men, someone lower than pigs and dogs. Furthermore, many of the people that were cursing him were people that he had helped.”

“As for the other man, he appeared to be very good toward his wife, and very good toward others; he appeared to be very kind and charitable, doing all the good things.”

“Many people praised him as a great philanthropist, praised him as having a great moral character, and even told their children to learn from him.”

“However, he was actually someone who would frequently beat up his parents and his wife. He was someone that would frequently entrap his friends in the shadows, someone who would frame another for their money, someone who killed innocents for their wealth. Merely, no one knew about all these things that he did.”

“Say, which of the two men do you think is good?” Chu Xuanyuan asked Chu Feng.

Chapter 2140 – Ranked Third

“It’s naturally the former,” Chu Feng said without the slightest hesitation.

“You are naturally able to determine who is good since you know the truth. However, if you do not know the truth, and can only judge from how things appear on the surface, how would you know whether that Qing Xuantian is good or bad?” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, thank you for your advice. I understand now,” Chu Feng truly understood. Chu Xuanyuan’s intentions were very clear. He was telling Chu Feng not to jump to conclusions regarding whether someone was good or bad before knowing about the truth of what had happened.

One such example would be Qing Xuantian. He must not deem him a good man just because all of the legends said that he was a good man.

Likewise, he should not deem Qing Xuantian to be a bad man just because of what the Magma Emperor said, and because Qing Xuantian had abandoned the Four Symbols Divine Power.

In that sort of situation, Chu Feng was more willing to believe that Qing Xuantian was a good man.

After all, it was true that he had obtained a lot of benefits from Qing Xuantian.

Merely, even though Qing Xuantian had helped him, Chu Feng only felt gratitude toward Qing Xuantian, and not blind adoration.

After all, what Chu Feng had obtained were also things that he had obtained with a great amount of effort. Qing Xuantian had not unconditionally provided assistance to him of his own accord.

Suddenly, Chu Xuanyuan said, “Although I do not know what sort of character Qing Xuantian is, there are certain aspects that can be determined.”

“What are they?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Qing Xuantian is very amazing. I believe that he most definitely entered the Outer World successfully. Merely, he did not use the Stairway to Heaven, but instead used a method similar to that which the Moon Immortal used.”

“The reason why I feel that he is very amazing is not because he successfully entered the Outer World. Rather, it is because he was able to obtain that sort of height by himself in this sort of place with a talent that is not extremely high.”

“After all, at that time, he only possessed an ordinary heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng expressed his approval. In terms of talent, the Qing Xuantian from back then was truly inferior to him. Else, he would have been capable of defeating the Magma Emperor as a rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

Chu Feng’s true cultivation right now was also only that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. However, after using his various abilities, Chu Feng was able to contend against even ordinary rank six Half Martial Ancestors, much less ordinary rank one Half Martial Ancestors.

His strength was much stronger than Qing Xuantian’s.

“However, it is precisely because of that that I am certain that Qing Xuantian had not completely comprehended the Four Symbols Divine Power’s true power. At the same time, he also did not know how powerful the Four Symbols Divine Power was,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, you mean?...” Chu Feng seemed to have thought of something.

“What I mean is that Qing Xuantian most likely regretted his decision in the future. Regardless of what sort of Divine Power he might have obtained, it would not be more powerful than his Four Symbols Divine Power,” Chu Xuanyuan said with a smile.

“Father, in that case, the Four Symbols Divine Power is a very powerful sort of Divine Power?” Chu Feng asked.

“I once came across a Divine Powers ranking chart.”

“The top ten Divine Powers on the ranking chart have never once appeared in our Starfield.”

“However, the Four Symbols Divine Power was ranked third on that ranking list,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Ranked third? The Four Symbols Divine Power is actually that powerful?” Chu Feng revealed an astonished expression.

He had truly never expected the Four Symbols Divine Power to be that powerful.

After all, the vast Outer World contained a countless number of martial cultivators. Thus, there would naturally be a countless amount of Divine Powers too.

The Four Symbols Divine Power was ranked third. In other words... the Four Symbols Divine Power was the third strongest existence among all the various Divine Powers.

“That ranking was not mistaken. However, according to the various rumors of what happened back then, Qing Xuantian’s talent could be said to be overwhelmingly brilliant. However, if he were to be placed in the entire Outer World, he could only be said to be extremely mediocre, and even weak.”

“The only explanation for that would be that he had yet to completely grasp the power of the Four Symbols Divine Power. That was what caused him to mistakenly think that the Four Symbols Divine Power was very weak and inferior to the other Divine Powers.”

“Looking at it that way, that Qing Xuantian is quite lamentable. He spent so much effort to obtain a stronger power. Yet, he did not know that what he tried so hard to abandon, tried so hard to replace, was actually the truly strong power,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“If that truly is the case, then it is truly a bit...” Chu Feng suddenly felt that Qing Xuantian was lamentable too.

If the Four Symbols Divine Power was truly ranked third among the Divine Powers, then regardless of how powerful the Divine Power he had obtained back then might be, it would still be inferior to the Four Symbols Divine Power.

“Feng’er, if we are to look at it from this angle, then our banishment to this place could also be said to have brought us fortune.”

“After all, you are currently the master of the Four Symbols Divine Power. If such a Divine Power were placed in the Outer World, countless experts would disregard everything to madly scramble for it,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Indeed,” Thinking about it that way, Chu Feng was able to realize how precious the Four Symbols Divine Power was even more.

“However, father, if the Four Symbols Divine Power is to continue to exist, they can only return to being Secret Skills. But, it seems that they will not be able to truly reveal their power as Secret Skills,” Chu Feng said.

“Secret Skills are naturally unable to truly unleash the strength of a Divine Power. However, if they are to return to being a Divine Power, they would be able to unleash their true power,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, are you telling me to help them find Qing Xuantian and have them return to Qing Xuantian’s body?” Chu Feng asked.

“Foolish child. How could you give away a third ranked Divine Power to someone else? You must know that it is something that you can only encounter, and not seek after.”

“Thus, rather than having them return to Qing Xuantian, why don’t you become their true master and have them truly work for you?” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, you!!!” Chu Feng had thought of a possibility, However, that possibility came as an astonishment for Chu Feng.

“That’s right. I want you to grasp that Divine Power and become a Divine Body,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“But, father, I already possess the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline. How could I... become a Divine Body on top of that? Could it be... that you want me to abandon my Heavenly Lightning Bloodline?” Chu Feng asked.

“No, I want you to grasp the Divine Power while being a possessor of the Heavenly Lightning Bloodline,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“To grasp two powers at the same time, this... is it truly possible?” Chu Feng revealed even greater astonishment. However, he also revealed great anticipation.

Chu Feng had envied Divine Bodies before too.

Even though Chu Feng now realized how powerful his Inherited Bloodline was, and no longer felt envy for Divine Powers, Chu Feng still felt a great yearning toward the third ranked Divine Power.

Most importantly, if Chu Feng truly obtained the Four Symbols Divine Power and truly grasped the Four Symbols Divine Power, he would be able to let Qing Xuantian know that he was mistaken to renounce his Four Symbols Divine Power.

Like that... he would also be able to obtain revenge for the Four Great Divine Beasts.

Merely, was something like this truly possible to accomplish?

Chapter 2141 – Four Symbols Divine Power

“In theory, it is possible. Merely, it is very difficult to accomplish.”

“However, Feng’er, just think about it. Since Divine Powers are capable of separating themselves from their original masters’ bodies, by the same logic, they should... be able to be transferred to other people’s bodies.”

“In fact, there are already many people capable of allowing a person to grasp multiple Divine Powers and increase their strength in that manner.”

“However, it appears that the body constitution of the Divine Bodies seems to be innately different from us who do not possess Divine Powers.”

“Thus, Divine Powers were capable of being transferred to other Divine Bodies. However, it is very difficult for them to be transferred to ordinary people.”

“However, I know of a person who is capable of accomplishing that. After you arrive in the Outer World, you can go and search for that person. If he is willing to help you, you will have the chance to become the true owner of the Four Symbols Divine Power.”

“You will be able to become a super expert that possesses both a Divine Power and a Heavenly Lightning Bloodline,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Who is that person?” Chu Feng asked.

“Ox-nosed Old Daoist,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Ox-nosed Old Daoist?” Chu Feng remembered that name.

“That’s right, that is his name. Merely, that fellow is very difficult to get along with. If you wish to have him help you, you’ll have to put forth a great amount of effort.”

“However, those are all things for the future. What you must do right now is persuade the Four Symbols Divine Power to obediently return to being Secret Skills,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, should I go and do that now?” Chu Feng said.

“Go ahead,” Chu Xuanyuan waved his hand. Then, Chu Feng felt his surroundings turn fuzzy. When his sight returned to normal, he had arrived at the location where the Four Great Divine Beasts were.

The Old Ape seemed to have realized something with Chu Feng’s arrival. He stood up and went deep into the forbidden area.

At that moment, only Chu Feng and the Four Great Divine Beasts remained.

“Chu Feng, how was it? Did you meet your father?” The Four Great Divine Beasts asked with great concern upon seeing Chu Feng.

“I did. Seniors, I have something that I wish to speak with you all about,” Chu Feng said.

“What is it?” The Four Great Divine Beasts asked together. Their gazes turned serious. They all realized that something was amiss for Chu Feng to say that he had something to tell them the moment he returned.

“If the four of you are to continue on like this, you might not be able to live for long,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, the Four Great Divine Beasts immediately grew silent. They seemed to all have thought of a lot of things after hearing only those words.

Naturally, what the Magma Emperor said was among the things running through their minds.

At that moment, Chu Feng saw extreme grief in the eyes of the Four Great Divine Beasts.

However, even with that being the case, the Four Great Divine Beasts looked to one another, then raised their heads. With smiles on their faces, they said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, if that is the case, we’re afraid we will not be able to accompany you into the Outer World.”

“That said, even if the four of us are to accompany you, we would not be able to provide any assistance to you. We might even have to be looked after by you. This is actually a good thing. At least, we would no longer be your burden.”

“Chu Feng, the four of us truly hope that you can make great accomplishments in the Outer World, that you can show your clan that their decision to cast you here was an enormous mistake.”

They were pretending to be happy, they were most definitely pretending to be happy. However, their blessings were from the bottoms of their hearts. They truly wished that Chu Feng would be able to accomplish great things.

“Seniors, if you all are willing, you all will be able to accompany me into my Outer World campaign.”

“There is a method that can allow you all to continue to live. Merely... I’m afraid that you all will have to return to being Secret Skills again,” Chu Feng said truthfully.

“Chu Feng, is what you said the truth? There is truly a way to allow us to continue to be Secret Skills?” Hearing those words, the expressions of the Four Great Divine Beasts changed enormously. A trace of excitement appeared on their faces.

It could be seen that the four of them also wished to continue to live and not die like that.

Merely, they knew very well that they were no longer the same as they were before, that it was very difficult for them to return to becoming Secret Skills. Compared to before, it was many times more difficult now. In fact, it could even be said to be impossible to accomplish.

“My father is capable of helping seniors return to being Secret Skills,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well, if it’s possible, we’ll have to trouble your father,” The Four Great Divine Beasts nodded.

“I’ll go and inform my father right away,” Chu Feng turned around and prepared to leave to find his father.

Suddenly, the White Tiger said, “Chu Feng, wait a moment,”

“Senior White Tiger, what’s wrong?” Chu Feng turned around and asked.

“After entering the Outer World, do not bother to find Qing Xuantian. Before, I did not believe it. However now, I am certain that he has truly discarded us for the sake of power,” The White Tiger forced a bitter smile as it said those words.

Chu Feng noticed that the Azure Dragon, Vermillion Bird and Black Tortoise also had the same sort of expression.

“I think that senior Qing Xuantian must have had his own difficulties,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, we know Qing Xuantian’s character better than you. For some things, we have also thought about them before. Merely, we were unwilling to accept them, and did not wish to speak of them.”

“However, we now have no more illusions about them. From today on, we will wholeheartedly follow you. Although we will no longer be able to communicate with you like this, it is still a fortunate thing for us to be able to fight together with you,” The Azure Dragon said.

“That’s right. Being an abandoned Divine Power, it is our luck that we can continue to live. Moreover, we are lucky enough to accompany a master like you,” The Vermilion Bird added.

“Seniors, I’ve heard from my father that there is someone in the Outer World that is capable of transferring Divine Powers to ordinary people.”

“In other words, after we reach the Outer World, there is a chance in having seniors return to being a Divine Power. If you all are willing, I hope to become your new master,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, is what you said the truth?” The Four Great Divine Beasts revealed expressions of excitement.

“Definitely,” Chu Feng said.

“Great, this is truly what we hoped for,” The Four Great Divine Beasts said in unison. They revealed ecstatic expressions.

Seeing that the Four Great Divine Beasts were so excited to be able to serve him, Chu Feng felt joy from the bottom of his heart.

“Great. In that case, I’ll go and call my father to have him help seniors return to being Secret Skills,” Chu Feng prepared to go and call for his father “Four sirs, thank you all for looking after Chu Feng these years,” Right at that moment, Chu Xuanyuan’s voice sounded. At that moment, the gazes of the Four Great Divine Beasts all changed. The reason for that was because Chu Xuanyuan was standing right beside Chu Feng.

Upon seeing Chu Xuanyuan, the Four Great Divine Beasts all revealed serious expressions. They were all able to tell that Chu Xuanyuan was so powerful that his strength was simply incapable of being estimated.

“Those words are reversed. In terms of looking after, it is Chu Feng who is looking after us,” Facing Chu Xuanyuan, the Four Great Divine Beasts acted very modestly.

“You all can rest assured, it is most definitely the correct choice to choose Feng’er as your master,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“We also think that to be the case,” The Four Great Divine Beasts said in unison.

“If you four are ready, we can begin now. The reason for that is because even I am uncertain how long you all can remain in your current forms,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“We’ll have to trouble you,” The Four Great Divine Beasts said.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Then, Chu Xuanyuan began to move his arms, and many streams of boundless power began to appear. In an instant, they covered the entire region.

At that moment, the dazzling light caused Chu Feng some difficulty to keep his eyes open. Merely, the light persisted only for a moment before disappearing.

When Chu Feng opened his eyes again, he discovered that the Four Great Divine Beasts’ bodies were still present. However, they had died.

The reason for that was because their souls were no longer in their bodies. Instead, they were floating in the sky. They had once again returned to being Secret Skills.

“Thank you,” The Four Great Divine Beasts said to Chu Xuanyuan.

“If thanks must be said, it should be me who should thank you all. After all, after entering the Outer World, I will have to trouble you four with looking after Feng’er,” Chu Xuanyuan said with a light smile.

“Please rest assured. We will definitely give our all to protect Chu Feng,” After the Four Great Divine Beasts said those words to Chu Xuanyuan, they all started to fly toward and enter Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng was able to sense that the four Secret Skills that he had lost had once again returned to his body; Chu Feng had once again grasped the power of the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills.

Merely, Chu Feng was unable to calm his heart. He knew that his father was very powerful. However, he had never expected for his father to be this powerful. In merely an instant, he had turned the four Great Divine Beasts back into Secret Skills.

“Father, thank you for helping me with this,” Chu Feng suddenly said to Chu Xuanyuan. He was not saying those words out of courtesy. Rather, he felt gratefulness from the bottom of his heart, “You’re thanking me already? In that case, are you going to thank me for this too?” As Chu Xuanyuan spoke, he flipped his palm, and a strange substance that appeared to be made of light floated out of his hand, “This is?” Seeing that substance, Chu Feng’s eyes shone. Even though he did not know exactly what that substance was, Chu Feng was able to tell that it was a very powerful spirit formation.

Chapter 2142 – Chu Feng’s Mother

“Resurrect my family?” Chu Feng looked to the spirit formation in his father’s hand with a stunned expression. His heart was tense, and his mind was filled with explosive excitement.

“As long as you bring this formation to the Golden Purple City and unleash it there, you will be able to gather the souls of your adoptive father and the others. If you are to then create bodies for them, you will be able to resurrect them.”

“For you, that should not be a difficult task,” Chu Xuanyuan looked to Chu Feng with a smile and said, “Feng’er, you should be capable of accomplishing that, right?”

“Yes. As long as their souls are gathered, I will be able to revive them.”

“Merely father, I... I truly don’t know how to thank you for this.”

Chu Feng was truly excited upon receiving that formation from his father. He had not expected that his father would prepare such a gift for him.

An enormous gift. To Chu Feng, this was most definitely an enormous gift. To Chu Feng, his greatest desire was to revive his family.

He never thought that his father would have already prepared the resurrection technique for him.

Furthermore, Chu Feng had a feeling. Even though he had failed when he attempted to resurrect the Chu Family before, he felt that the spirit formation his father had prepared for him would definitely succeed.

“Between father and son, there is no need to express thanks. If there are any thanks to be given, it should be me who should thank the people of the Azure Province’s Chu Family. Regardless of how they were, it remains that they were the ones that looked after you and nurtured you as a child,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Seeing his father like this, Chu Feng felt wholly that his father was a great man.

The people from the Chu Family had not treated him well. Yet, Chu Feng’s father felt grateful toward the people from the Chu Family.

This meant his father was someone who could distinguish between gratitude and grudges, someone who possessed a heart that harbored gratefulness toward others.

It was just like how the Chu Heavenly Clan had clearly abandoned both his father and him. Yet, Chu Feng’s father still told him to not carry out revenge against everyone from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

He stated that it was not the Chu Heavenly Clan that were in the wrong. Rather, it was only the people that had persecuted the two of them.

“Feng’er, you said that you have three things that you wished my assistance with, what is the third thing?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“Father, the third thing is about the world spirit in my body,” Chu Feng said.

“You’re talking about that Asura World Spirit by the name of Eggy, right? What about her?” Chu Xuanyuan asked.

“Eggy was sealed by my mother. Even now, her cultivation remains sealed, and she is unable to recover it. In the Holy Land of Martialism, I coincidentally ran across an energy. I used that energy to help recover a portion of Eggy’s cultivation.”

“However, even now, Eggy remains asleep. I feel that her condition is a bit fishy. I hope that father can inspect her for me,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well, let me have a look.” As Chu Xuanyuan spoke, he placed his finger on Chu Feng's forehead.

Suddenly, Chu Feng's heart moved, and he revealed a shocked expression. His father was actually prying into his world spirit space.

Originally, Chu Feng was planning to release Eggy from his world spirit space and then have his father look at her. However, it would appear that it was unnecessary.

"Mn, a small problem," Chu Xuanyuan retrieved his finger and said with a light smile.

"Father, you're saying that Eggy will be fine?" Chu Feng asked.

"Feng'er, there is no issue with your world spirit technique. Merely, the spirit formation that sealed your world spirit is too complicated."

"That Asura World Spirit's original cultivation should be that of a rank seven Martial Emperor, the same level of cultivation as you possessed before."

"However, when the world spirit technique is completely undone, and she regains consciousness, her cultivation should at least be that of a Half Martial Ancestor. Do you know why that is the case?" Chu Xuanyuan asked.

"Why?" Chu Feng hurriedly asked. The reason for that was because he was truly confused.

"Isn't the speed at which she increases her cultivation after devouring source energies extremely slow?" Chu Xuanyuan asked.

"It is," Chu Feng nodded.

"That's the crucial aspect. It is not that she was so extraordinary that she needed more source energy than other world spirits."

"Instead, everything was caused by that world spirit technique. That world spirit technique has been devouring the source energies and putting them aside for her.

“In other words, once that world spirit formation that has sealed her power disappears, that little world spirit will be able to break out of her cocoon, attain rebirth and become much more powerful than before.

“While it is true that that spirit formation has harmed her by sealing her cultivation and made her, a Martial Emperor, become extremely weak, that spirit formation is actually also helping her.”

“The reason for that is because if she were to increase her cultivation by herself, it would not necessarily be faster than having the world spirit formation help her accumulate power.”

“Merely, Feng’er, your World Spirit Techniques are still insufficiently powerful. It is because you tried to forcibly undo her seal without sufficient power that you caused her to enter a deep sleep.”

“However, there is no major concern. Merely, she will be sleeping for a relatively long time. Your mother did not try to deliberately make things difficult for you. As long as you are determined to remove the spirit formation that sealed her, the spirit formation would eventually be removed. Merely... as you do not possess sufficient strength, it will take a long while for you to undo that spirit formation,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“In that case, the spirit formation will be completely undone after Eggy wakes up? Furthermore, she would have become a Half Martial Ancestor?” Chu Feng asked.

“That is the case,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“That’s great,” Chu Feng firmly believed what Chu Xuanyuan said. Thus, he was certain that nothing would happen to Eggy. As such, a major boulder weighing down on his heart was lifted.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked, “Father, where is my mother?”

However, right after Chu Feng asked that question, Chu Xuanyuan’s expression changed, and his gaze grew complicated.

In fact, at that instant. Chu Feng felt as if he had fallen into a glacial-filled ravine. Coldness began to assail his body as it covered his surroundings.

However, that coldness only persisted for a moment, and did not cause any change to the objects nearby.

At that moment, Chu Feng's heart tightened. The reason for that was because that coldness and his father's complicated gaze disappeared at the same time. This meant that it was very possible that it was his father that had unleashed that coldness.

This made Chu Feng realize that the matter concerning his mother... seemed to be somewhat complicated. That was the reason why his father would have such a response when he asked where his mother was.

"Feng'er, I've mentioned to you before that this place is a Lower Realm, that the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is an Ordinary Realm, and our Chu Heavenly Clan exists in the Upper Realm. Furthermore, I've also mentioned that every world is a star, and that the stars of a region form a Starfield."

"As for your mother, she is in another Starfield. She is not someone from our Starfield."

"As for your mother's name, I cannot tell you that right now. Likewise, I also cannot tell you where she is now."

"However, I'll promise you this. When you obtain the Chu Heavenly Clan's acknowledgement, when you are able to allow me to leave this place, I will tell you everything about your mother," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"Very well, father. I understand what I must do," Chu Feng nodded.

At that moment, Chu Feng's heart felt very heavy.

Even though his father did not state it clearly, he was able to faintly tell that there seemed to be a need of a certain amount of power in order to take care of his mother's matters.

It was likely no longer something on the Chu Heavenly Clan's level. Likely, it was so important that even his father could not do anything about it.

Chapter 2143 – Nine Heavenly Lightnings

Stage

“Feng’er, it is about time now. You should be leaving now,” Suddenly, Chu Xuanyuan said to Chu Feng.

“Father,” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart immediately sunk. Seeing his biological father before him, Chu Feng was truly reluctant to part.

Even though he had been here for some time, Chu Feng still felt that the time had passed too quickly.

Furthermore, once they parted, no one knew how many years it would be until they saw each other again.

“Feng’er, this place is the Chu Heavenly Clan’s forbidden area. There are people from the Chu Heavenly Clan monitoring this place. As I proclaimed that you’ve died, you cannot stay here for too long.”

“Furthermore, after returning to the Outer World, you must not tell anyone that you are my son. At least... you cannot mention it before I inform you that you can,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, please rest assured. The Chu Heavenly Clan has already abandoned me. From that very moment, I was already no longer a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan. Thus, I will not be so shameless as to proclaim myself to be a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“However, I will not change my name, the name of Chu Feng. After all, that is the name that you and mother gave me. While I might not care about it elsewhere, I am insistent on using this name to campaign in the Outer World.”

“However, I will comply with father’s instructions, and not declare who I really am,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn,” Chu Xuanyuan nodded.

“Merely, father, what must I do in order to let you leave this place?” Chu Feng asked.

“Feng’er, this place is simply unable to trap me to begin with. I have only come here for the sake of training.”

“Only by being here will I be able to comprehend certain things. Only by comprehending them will I be able to discover what I want to find.”

“Before attaining comprehension, I will not be leaving this place,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Chu Feng was startled to hear those words. However, he soon revealed a smile on his face, and said, “I understand.”

Chu Feng truly understood. In other words, as not even the Chu Heavenly Clan could trap his father, no one would be able to harm his father. As such, the worry that Chu Feng had toward his father also vanished.

“Old Ape, are the preparations ready?” Suddenly, Chu Xuanyuan spoke toward the depths of the forbidden area.

“Feng’er, this person here is called Old Ape. You should address him as Uncle Ape. Your Uncle Ape is someone who has campaigned all over the world with your father. Although he is much older than me, he is my closest brother,” Chu Xuanyuan introduced Old Ape.

“Chu Feng pays his respects to Uncle Ape,” Chu Feng hurriedly greeted the Old Ape respectfully. After hearing what his father said, Chu Feng felt a greater respect for the Old Ape.

“Your father has prepared a gift for you. I, as your uncle, will naturally also have to prepare you a gift.”

“Merely, this gift might not necessarily be something that you’ll like,” The Old Ape said.

“What is it?” Chu Feng asked.

“Follow me,” As the Old Ape spoke, he began to walk toward the depths of the forbidden area.

After they journeyed for a short moment, Chu Feng saw the blind old man and Zi Ling again. However, at this moment, the thing that caught his attention the most was an unusual flight of steps.

The reason why this flight of steps was unusual was because it was very large, and each step seemed to be made of glass. There were a total of nine such steps.

Chu Feng felt an usual power from this flight of steps. It seemed to be a kind of testing instrument.

“Feng’er, these stairs are known as the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps. These are the steps that all the Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation will have to ascend upon reaching twenty years of age.”

“The Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps mainly tests the willpower of a wielder of a Heavenly Lightning Bloodline. The reason for that is because willpower is the most crucial aspect of a Heavenly Lightning Bloodline’s cultivation.”

“After all, what is required on the path of martial cultivation is perseverance. That is especially true for us, the possessors of Heavenly Lightning Bloodlines. As long as we train in the Self-punishing Mysterious Technique, we will be punished by lightning with each breakthrough in our cultivation. While one’s body constitution is one aspect to resisting the lightning punishment, one’s willpower is the most important matter.”

“As for this Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps, it will resonate with your Heavenly Lightning Bloodline, bringing you great pain with each step that you ascend.”

“That pain will affect your movements. Retreating will be very easy. However, it will be very difficult to continue to ascend.”

“In other words, the more steps you manage to ascend, the greater your willpower is, and the higher your future accomplishments might be.”

“Although you have long since passed the age when the test is to be conducted, it would still be fine to undergo the test now,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, in that case, what sort of result do people generally obtain from this test?” Chu Feng asked.

“Their results are all different. The majority of people will be able to ascend to the third step. Of course, there are those that are weaker, and cannot even ascend onto the second step. For the people of our Chu Heavenly Clan, they were all able to ascend to the second step. The great majority of them were able to ascend to the third step.”

“As for the fourth step, only about twenty percent of the people in our Chu Heavenly Clan were capable of that.”

“As for the fifth step, it is even lesser, numbering less than even ten percent.”

“It is much much fewer for the sixth step. Those that are able to reach the sixth step would all be emphasized by the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“As for those capable of reaching the seventh step, they were known to be exceptional geniuses even in the Chu Heavenly Clan. They would be able to enjoy an endless amount of glory and obtain the best treatment from the Chu Heavenly Clan. After all, even the Clan Chief of our Chu Heavenly Clan only managed to reach the seventh step,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked, “Father, what about you then?”

“This... hehe...” Chu Xuanyuan seemed to not know how to respond and merely chuckled.

“Both your father and your grandfather managed to reach the ninth step. They are the only two people in the entire Chu Heavenly Clan’s history who have managed to reach the ninth step.”

“As for the eighth step, only a single person managed to reach that in the entire Chu Heavenly Clan’s history. That was the ancestor of the Chu Heavenly Clan, Chu Yetianhong.”

“Merely, as the eighth step remains the eighth step, it would naturally be inferior to the ninth step,” The Old Ape said.

“In that case, my father and my grandfather are even more powerful than the Chu Heavenly Clan’s ancestor?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng looked to his father. Pride filled his face.

“It’s merely a test. It wouldn’t be able to prove much. Regardless, the person that has contributed the most to the Chu Heavenly Clan remains our ancestor, Chu Yetianhong,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, in that case, can I attempt it now?” Chu Feng asked. He was filled with impatience to attempt that test.

“You can start whenever you’re ready. If you feel that you are unable to continue, then just come back. Although it is only a trial, it still possesses fatal danger should you force yourself to continue.”

“Practically every year, there are people who overestimate themselves, and they die on the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps,” Chu Xuanyuan warned.

“Father, please rest assured. I am not someone who overestimates my abilities,” Chu Feng nodded with a smile. Then, he stepped onto the first step of the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps.

“Step~~~”

“Roar~~~”

Right after Chu Feng stepped onto the first step, that glass-like step immediately let out a roar. Following that, lightning appeared from the step and entered Chu Feng's body through his feet. The lightning connected with Chu Feng's Heavenly Lightning Bloodline.

At that moment, a pain that Chu Feng had never felt before filled his entire body. Chu Feng felt as if his entire body was going numb.

He felt as if his entire body was being struck and tormented by lightning from inside to outside.

However, this sort of pain was something that Chu Feng could tolerate. He bit down upon his teeth and took two consecutive steps upward. In a blink of an eye, he arrived at the third step.

When he reached the third step, it was no longer a single bolt of lightning entering his body. Instead, there were three lightning bolts entering his body.

The pain and torment from the three lightning bolts was much stronger compared to that of a single lightning bolt.

However, they were still unable to stop Chu Feng; Chu Feng continued to proceed upward.

Chapter 2144 – Disappointing Result

“Step~~~”

“Step~~~”

Chu Feng took two more successive steps. After those two steps, he arrived on the fifth step.

At that moment, Chu Feng was already sweating profusely, and his complexion had turned pale. The pressure was even harder to withstand than he had anticipated. The pain was even more painful than he had anticipated.

However, Chu Feng did not stop. His foot moved upward. Once again, he took two successive steps and arrived on the seventh step.

The seventh step was something that extremely few people in the Chu Heavenly Clan managed to reach. All those that reached the seventh step would be deemed dragons among men, and be respected by everyone. Even those with status in the Chu Heavenly Clan did not dare to neglect the members of the younger generation that managed to reach the seventh step.

After all, even the current Chu Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had only reached the seventh step.

However, that was not Chu Feng's goal. Chu Feng raised his foot with great difficulty and stepped onto the eighth step.

“Step~~~”

Success. Chu Feng successfully stepped onto the eighth step. He had surpassed the Chu Heavenly Clan's current Clan Chief and countless others.

After all, only three people had ever stepped foot onto the eighth step in the history of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

They were his grandfather, Chu Hanxian.

His father, Chu Xuanyuan.

And the Chu Heavenly Clan's ancestor, Chu Yetianhong.

However, Chu Feng had a goal from the very beginning. That goal of his was not the eighth step. Instead, it was the ninth step.

Chu Feng wanted to reach the same height as his grandfather and his father. Else, he would feel that he had disgraced his grandfather and father's reputations, and brought dishonor upon the inheritance from his father.

Thinking about that, Chu Feng clenched his teeth and began to move his right foot that was still on the seventh step. The right foot of his did not stop on the eighth step. Instead, it began to proceed toward the ninth step directly.

“Step~~~”

Finally, Chu Feng's foot landed. However, it did not land on the ninth step. Instead, it landed on the eighth step.

At that moment, Chu Feng's legs were trembling violently. It was as if he was on the verge of losing balance, as if he would collapse at any moment.

However, Chu Feng's physical appearance was still relatively better off than what he was feeling. The pain brought forth by the eight lightning bolts were simply not something that ordinary people could withstand.

At that moment, Chu Feng's lips had turned purple. He felt powerless from head to toe. He did not even have the strength to move a single step. Furthermore, as the ninth step contained enormous pressure, it would be extremely difficult for Chu Feng to step onto it.

“Feng'er, do not force yourself,” Right at that moment, Chu Xuanyuan's voice sounded. He was able to determine that Chu Feng had reached his limit.

As for Zi Ling, the Old Ape and the blind old man, none of them dared to say anything because they were afraid that they would affect Chu Feng. As such, they could only gaze at Chu Feng with worried expressions.

After hearing his father's voice, even though Chu Feng was clearly unable to take another step forward, he suddenly felt as if all the blood his body was boiling and surging. He suddenly felt that there was a strong surge of power in him.

Thus, with his left foot on the eighth step, Chu Feng began to lift his right foot and stride toward the ninth step.

“Step~~~”

It landed. Chu Feng's right foot landed onto the ninth step. He had successfully ascended to the ninth step.

“Ahh~~~”

However, right after Chu Feng's right foot landed onto the ninth step, he let out a loud shout. It was a painful scream.

“Boom~~~”

Following that, a loud sound was emitted from the ninth step. Like an arrow that was shot out from a bow, Chu Feng was knocked flying.

However, even though Chu Feng started to fly, he was not shot off. Instead, he started to float over the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps.

After that, the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps let out nine lightning bolts that charged to attack Chu Feng.

“Crap!”

Seeing that, Chu Xuanyuan's expression changed. His body immediately shifted, and he flew toward the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps.

“Roar~~~”

At the moment Chu Xuanyuan approached, the nine lightning bolts that had shot out from the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps turned into nine enormous lightning beasts that moved to ferociously attack Chu Xuanyuan.

Although those nine enormous lightning beasts were not as astonishing as those from the Heavenly Bloodline's abnormal sign, their might was still unstoppable. Their power already surpassed that of Half Martial Ancestors.

“Scatter!”

Chu Xuanyuan waved his sleeve. Immediately, space itself started to tremble as golden ripples appeared. The nine enormous lightning beasts turned into countless rays of lightning that scattered in all directions before exploding.

Then, Chu Xuanyuan extended his hand and grabbed. Chu Feng was grabbed by him. His body shifted, and he brought Chu Feng back to the ground.

“Rumble~~~”

After Chu Feng and Chu Xuanyuan landed on the ground, the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps also shattered. The frightening aura from before disappeared completely.

At that moment, what remained of the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps was a pile of shattered glass. There was nothing special about it anymore.

“Chu Feng,” At that moment, Zi Ling, the Old Ape and the blind old man all rushed toward Chu Feng with worried expressions on their faces.

Snapping sounds were being emitted from Chu Feng's body nonstop. Those were sounds of bones shattering.

In fact, it was not only his bones that shattered. Chu Feng's muscles, veins and organs were all shattered as well.

However, after being treated by Chu Xuanyuan, Chu Feng's body was soon restored to what it was before. His ugly expression also returned to being rosy. In fact, he appeared even more energetic than before.

"Feng'er, you're too reckless," said Chu Xuanyuan after seeing that Chu Feng was fine.

However, Chu Feng suddenly knelt onto the ground with an expression of self-blame. "Father, I am useless. I have shamed you."

Even though Chu Feng had also managed to reach the ninth step, he had been unable to stand firmly on the ninth step. Thus, Chu Feng knew very well that his final record was only that of the eighth step.

"Shamed me? In the entire Chu Heavenly Clan, how many people were able to reach the eighth step?"

"Not to mention the current Chu Heavenly Clan's younger generation, even counting past results, only a few people were able to accomplish that."

"However, my Feng'er has accomplished that."

"Feng'er, you have not shamed me. Instead, you have brought honor to me," Chu Xuanyuan helped Chu Feng back up with a smile on his face.

"But..." Chu Feng still had an expression of self-blame on his face.

The way he saw it, his failure in attaining the same height as his father and grandfather meant that he had tarnished the bloodline that he had inherited from them, and brought dishonor upon their reputations.

Chu Feng felt that their powerful bloodlines had entered a decline when they reached him.

“Feng’er, I’ve said it before. That is only a test, and cannot represent one’s final strength.”

“Throughout history, there were many people with great results from the test that ended up with mediocre accomplishments.”

“However, there were also many that only managed to reach the third step, but ended up attaining very high accomplishments.”

“A test remains only a test. On the path of martial cultivation, while one’s talent is very important, one’s investments and efforts are equally important.”

“Do not forget this. Regardless of whether it is your grandfather or I, neither one of us are able to replace Chu Yetianhong in the hearts of the people of the Chu Heavenly Clan. Chu Yetianhong is the person with the greatest accomplishments, and the person who contributed the most to our Chu Heavenly Clan.”

Chapter 2145 – Surpassing The Old

“Mn.”

Chu Feng nodded. He naturally understood his father's intentions. His father was trying to tell him that the result from his test would not necessarily represent how much he would accomplish in the future. However, the self-blame Chu Feng felt in his heart did not decrease.

“Chu Feng, it is late now. You should leave soon. That said, there is one thing that I must remind you of,” Chu Xuanyuan looked to Chu Feng's Cosmos Sack and said, “That Evil God Sword of yours is special. You will likely not be able to control it. However, you should not discard it either. In short, just make sure to be careful when using it.”

“Father, is that Evil God Sword really an Imperial Armament?” Chu Feng asked.

“Imperial Armament? The strength of that weapon cannot be weighed with the ranking of weapons. That said, that sword is very nefarious. If you are able to use it properly, it will become your assistance. However, if you fail to use it properly, it will become a weapon that will end up killing you.”

“That said, it remains a rare treasure. Since you managed to encounter it, it is your fortune. If you were to discard it, it would be a great pity,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, I understand now. I will not discard the Evil God Sword. Instead, I'll be careful with it,” Chu Feng said.

“As for whether it would be fortune or misfortune, it will depend on your ability to control it. If you are truly unable to control it, do not force yourself. There is no harm in discarding it,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“I understand,” Chu Feng nodded again.

“Mn, Feng’er, go ahead. Go and temper yourself in the Outer World,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Father, Uncle Ape, Zi Ling, I’ll be going now,” Chu Feng looked to the three people there with him. Regardless of whether it was Chu Xuanyuan, the Old Ape or Zi Ling, they all had expressions of reluctance to part in their eyes.

Chu Feng was able to tell that the three of them were unwilling to part with him too. This was especially true for Zi Ling. Even though she had a sweet smile on her face, the rims of her eyes were already red.

In Chu Feng’s memory, Zi Ling was not a girl fond of crying.

Chu Feng had truly decided to leave. Even though there were many questions left in his heart, Chu Feng did not plan to ask his father about them.

His father had told him about a lot of things today. From those, Chu Feng was able to tell that his father wanted him to rely on himself. As such, he would comply with his father’s desire.

Chu Feng’s martial cultivation path would be very difficult in the days to come. However, Chu Feng was determined to rely on himself. He would no longer rely on his father.

“Feng’er,” Right at that moment, Chu Xuanyuan’s voice sounded.

Chu Feng turned around, and saw that Chu Xuanyuan was looking at him still. With a light smile on his face, Chu Xuanyuan said, “Although I am unable to tell you things concerning your mother right now, you must know that your mother loved you deeply.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s nose started to sting. Tears were about to bubble out of his eyes.

He naturally knew that his mother loved him deeply. Else, why would she go through great pains to leave behind world spirits for him?

Merely, when his father personally said those words, Chu Feng felt extremely moved. His longing for his mother started to slightly go out of control.

“Father, I know. I will work hard in my cultivation so that we can bring mother back,” Chu Feng said those words with a smile. He did not cry. He had made the decision at that moment that he would never cry regardless of what sort of hardships he might end up encountering in the future.

He must be strong, even stronger than before. The reason for that was because he knew that the road to the future would become even more challenging.

However, he must continue to move forward, for he had no other choice. For the sake of his family, he must work hard.

Chu Feng and the blind old man left the forbidden area. However, they did not immediately return. The reason for that was because they must continue onward through the Heavenly Path. Only after entering the Holy Land of Martialism would they be able to use that tunnel to return to the Eastern Sea Region.

At that moment, it had been some time since Chu Feng and the blind old man had left. However, Chu Xuanyuan, Zi Ling and the Old Ape were still standing there. Their gazes were fixed onto the direction in which Chu Feng had left.

After Chu Feng left, Zi Ling was unable to contain her tears. Her tears completely drenched her beautiful cheeks.

As for Chu Xuanyuan, he naturally did not cry. In fact, not even the rims of his eyes grew red. However, there was a great amount of reluctance to part in his eyes.

“You’re worried, no? If you’re worried, you can call him back right now.”

“You should know that the Outer World cannot be compared to this place. The perilousness of that place is many times greater than this place,” The Old Ape said to Chu Xuanyuan.

“I am naturally worried. After all, he is my son. However, it is precisely because I love him that I cannot keep him by my side. Else, I will only be holding him back,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“That’s true too. After all, you have relied on yourself all the way ‘til here too. Your father also did not help you either,” The Old Ape said.

“Indeed. If he is to have someone to rely on, it is inevitable that his efforts will waver. Even if he possesses even better talent, he would not be able to display it.”

“Only through having no one to rely on, having no way to retreat, would one’s potential be aroused. I am doing all this for his sake,” Chu Xuanyuan said.

“Rest assured. Feng’er’s potential is already very good. After all, the eighth step is not something that just anyone could reach.”

“Furthermore, his personality has been tempered very well over the years. With his talent and personality, he would be fine even after entering the Outer World,” The Old Ape said.

“Who said that was the eighth step?” Suddenly, Chu Xuanyuan spoke with a smile on his face. There seemed to be a hidden implication behind his smile.

“What’s going on?” At that moment, the Old Ape’s pupils shrunk. He sensed that something was amiss.

Zi Ling revealed a confused expression. She was perplexed by the conversation between the Old Ape and Chu Xuanyuan.

“This Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps was personally created by me. Didn’t you notice that there are differences compared to the Chu Heavenly Clan's Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps when I had you prepare it?" Chu Xuanyuan asked with a light smile.

"How could I possibly see through your tricks? Quickly, tell me, exactly what did you do?" The Old Ape hurriedly asked.

"I did not wish for Chu Feng to become overly conceited. Thus, I decided to deliberately strike at his confidence. This will make him more cautious in the Outer World."

"Thus, the pressure from that Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps was much stronger compared to ordinary Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps. The eighth step was actually the ninth step," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"In that case, Chu Feng had already stepped onto the ninth step?" The Old Ape asked.

"Of course. Not only did he step onto it, he also stood there very firmly," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"Then, what about that ninth step? If this Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps' eighth step is already equivalent to an ordinary Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps' ninth step, then what about that ninth step? What was with that?" The Old Ape asked.

"The ninth step would naturally be the tenth step," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"Ah? In that case, the Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps that Chu Feng ascended today was the Ten Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps in that remnant that not even you could ascend?" The Old Ape revealed a face filled with astonishment.

"Indeed. Although Chu Feng failed to truly ascend it, it remains that he managed to touch it with his foot. The me back then was unable to even touch it," Chu Xuanyuan said.

"Haha, if that is the case, then it would mean that Chu Feng's talent is not inferior to yours and your father's. Instead, his talent surpasses both of you,” The Old Ape was very excited. After all, this was no small matter.

“Strictly speaking, that is the case. Although it is only willpower, that sort of willpower is not something that ordinary people could compare with.”

“Feng’er has truly surpassed us,” Chu Xuanyuan revealed an expression of pride.

Chapter 2146 – Resurrection Again

“Hahaha, great, this is truly great. I had originally thought that Chu Feng being able to ascend to the eighth step was already pretty decent.”

“But it turns out this Nine Levels Heavenly Lightning Steps was actually strengthened. Chu Feng’s performance actually surpassed even yours.”

“Haha, surpassing the old, this is most definitely surpassing the old. Great, this is truly great,” The Old Ape was extremely excited, and smiling widely from being incapable of concealing his happiness. In fact, he was even slapping his thigh.

At that moment, Zi Ling had managed to understand what had happened from the dialogue. At that moment, she was also smiling sweetly. She was truly feeling happy for Chu Feng.

“Zi Ling, Feng’er will meet great hardships after entering the Outer World. However, you will not necessarily be able to live more comfortably than him here.”

“Likely, you will not be able to rest for all of the following days. The intensity of the training that I’ve prepared for you will surpass everything that you’ve ever experienced.”

“However, this is the only path that you can take to become stronger. I will remold your Divine Power. It will be a pain that you’ve never experienced before.”

“If you wish to attain a rebirth, you must first transform yourself. If you wish to transform yourself, this is the only method.”

“Are you prepared?” Chu Xuanyuan said as he looked to Zi Ling.

“Mn,” Zi Ling nodded her head resolutely. Unwavering determination flashed through her beautiful eyes.

.....

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng finally arrived at the Eastern Sea Region's Nine Provinces Continent.

He once again arrived at the Golden-purple City. He discovered that all the people present that day did not proceed to the Azure Dragon School to rest. Instead, they all remained in the Golden-purple City to wait for Chu Feng's return.

The reason for that was because after they saw Chu Feng's return, the expressions of the crowd all turned serious.

After seeing Chu Feng returning by himself, Xian Miaomiao stepped forward and asked, "Chu Feng, where are the Four Great Divine Beasts?"

Thus, as Chu Feng explained what happened, he revealed the Four Great Supreme Secret Skills.

"This... they were turned into secret skills?" Xian Miaomiao asked in astonishment. The others also revealed expressions of shock.

"To be exact, they've returned to being secret skills. They were only resurrected for the sake of helping me. However, they were unable to keep that sort of state for an extended period of time. Returning to being secret skills is currently for the best," Chu Feng explained.

"So that's the case," Hearing Chu Feng's explanation, the crowd revealed relieved expressions.

"Chu Feng, this is strange, your aura!!!" Right at that moment, Xian Miaomiao looked at Chu Feng with an astonished expression. Her beautiful eyes were opened extremely wide .

"Chu Feng, you... you're actually a rank one Half Martial Ancestor now?" At the very next moment, all of the crowd were astonished. They discovered that Chu Feng's aura was no longer that of a rank seven Martial Emperor. Instead, he had become an actual rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

“W-W-What the hell is w-w-with this? You w-w-were away f-for only a s-short period of time, y-yet you gained three l-levels of c-cultivation. A-Are y-you trying to k-k-kill me here?” Wang Qiang also had an expression filled with astonishment.

Originally, as Wang Qiang was already a rank one Half Martial Ancestor, he was much more powerful than Chu Feng. However, Chu Feng had now managed to catch up to him.

“It is because of my father’s help,” Chu Feng did not conceal this matter from the crowd. After all, they all knew that he had entered the Heavenly Road to meet his father.

“Ssss~~~” At this moment, everyone sucked in a mouthful of cold air.

Those that knew Chu Feng all knew how difficult it was for him to reach a single breakthrough in his cultivation. It was already extremely unimaginable that Chu Feng was able to become a rank seven Martial Emperor.

However, Chu Feng’s father had managed to let him become a rank one Half Martial Ancestor that easily. From that, the crowd were able to conclude how powerful of a person Chu Feng’s father was.

“Chu Feng, what kind of fun did you enjoy in the Heavenly Road? Quickly, tell me about it. I have never been through the Heavenly Road before,” Xian Miaomiao asked with a curious expression. Of course, she was mainly asking that because she wanted to know about Chu Feng’s father. This girl was truly filled with curiosity.

As for Chu Feng, he did not bother to conceal anything. He answered all the questions from the crowd. After all, the people here were all people he trusted. Although they were not related to him by blood, they were, to Chu Feng, no different from relatives.

Suddenly, Bai Ruochen asked, “Chu Feng, in that case... are you planning to leave for the Outer World now?”

Once Bai Ruochen’s question was heard, the entire crowd grew quiet. Regardless of whether they were men or women, young or old, they all revealed expressions of reluctance to part.

Chu Feng was not someone that could be kept in this pond. Entering the Outer World was something he would do sooner or later. Furthermore, he had already done all that he should do here. As such, it was indeed time for him to leave for the Outer World.

“Yes, I’ll be leaving. However, before leaving, I must first revive my family members,” As Chu Feng spoke, he landed in Golden-purple City.

Seeing that, the crowd all revealed serious expressions. Worry could be seen in their eyes. At that moment, everyone turned their gazes toward Chu Guyu, Chu Yue and the others from the Chu Family.

“Little brother, don’t bother attempting it again,” Chu Guyu arrived beside Chu Feng.

“Little brother Chu Feng, the dead cannot be revived. You shouldn’t cling to the dead like this. It will end up holding you back.”

“Chu Feng, you still have a lot of things that you must do. Furthermore, everyone’s deaths cannot be blamed on you. Thus, you don’t have to continue to blame yourself.”

Chu Yue, Chu Zhen and the others also arrived beside Chu Feng and began to persuade Chu Feng against it in succession.

It turned out that everyone was worried that Chu Feng would harm himself and even die by insisting on using the resurrection secret technique repeatedly.

After all, everyone had noticed how determined Chu Feng was when he used the secret resurrection technique last time around.

If it wasn't for the fact that the Heavenly Road was about to open before, it was likely that no one would be able to persuade Chu Feng to stop. Thus, they truly did not wish for Chu Feng to continue to attempt using the secret resurrection technique to revive the Chu Family.

They were all afraid that Chu Feng would fail again should he try once more, that he would refuse to give up and ruin his grand future prospects here.

"I know what you all are thinking," Seeing the worried expressions of the crowd, Chu Feng started to smile.

"However, you all can rest assured, because it is definitely going to succeed this time around. The reason for that is because this resurrection technique is something that my father gave me," As Chu Feng spoke, he flipped his palm and revealed the spirit formation that was presented to him by his father.

"That is?" Seeing that spirit formation, everyone's gazes started to shine.

However, Chu Feng did not give the crowd the time to ponder it. Instead, he directly activated the spirit formation. The reason for that was because he was extremely determined to resurrect the Chu Family as quickly as possible.

"Buzz~~~"

Once the spirit formation was activated, a dazzling light immediately covered the entire region. Following that light, layer upon layer of ripples visible to the naked eye began to be emitted from the spirit formation.

The ripples were very strong. Everyone was able to sense that the spirit formation Chu Feng was using right now was many times more powerful than the secret resurrection technique Chu Feng had used before.

However, the extremely powerful energy ripples did not affect any object or harm any of the people present.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Not long after the ripples began to spread, transparent bodies of light soon began to fly toward it.

The bodies of light grew more and more numerous. Furthermore, they started to fuse with one another. Soon, they formed many complete bodies of light.

To be exact, those were spirit bodies.

Chapter 2147 – Overwhelming Emotions

“Heavens, t-t-that’s my father!”

Suddenly, someone among the Chu Family’s younger generation shouted and began to jump in excitement. Silent tears began to roll down that person’s eyes.

Following that moment, more and more bodies of light began to appear. Each and every one of them were people from the Chu Family that died back then.

In fact, even Chu Feng’s adopted father, Chu Yuan, his big uncle, Chu Renyi, and the former Family Head, Chu Yuanba, appeared.

One by one, familiar silhouettes began to appear.

“It actually worked. It actually worked!”

Seeing their family members that had died all appearing, all of the Chu Family’s younger generation started to shiver and were all overwhelmed with emotions.

Not to mention them, even the bystanders revealed expressions of astonishment. They had seen many things. However, they had truly never seen anything like resurrecting the dead.

At that moment, the person that was the most emotional was none other than Chu Feng. However, he had to suppress his excitement.

Although the souls of these people had been gathered, they were in a state of unconsciousness.

At that moment, Chu Feng was continuing to activate the formation his father gave him while forming physical bodies for everyone. Only by having the souls enter the bodies would he be able to resurrect them.

In fact, with Chu Feng’s current strength, forming bodies for others was something extremely simple for him. In merely a moment, he would be able to form several hundred bodies.

However, due to the fact that they were all people from the Chu Family, Chu Feng was extremely attentive when forming bodies for them, which made it so that it took him a long time to form a single body.

“Chu Feng, if you do not mind, may I help you?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal stepped forward and said to Chu Feng.

“I’ll trouble you, senior,” Chu Feng said with a nod. The Heaven Reaching Immortal was, after all, the number one world spiritist in the Holy Land of martialism. Thus, Chu Feng was confident in his abilities.

“We’ll help too,” Following that, the Weaponry Refinement Immortal, Snow-haired Immortal, Compass Immortal and World Spiritist Immortal, these Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, also stepped forward to assist Chu Feng.

Perhaps it was due to the fact that they knew what Chu Feng wanted, but it took them much longer to form physical bodies than Chu Feng. Of course... in exchange for their slow speed, they were able to form even more exquisite bodies.

In the end, all of the bodies were completed, and all of the souls were instilled into the bodies.

Merely, after the souls and bodies were fused, the bodies were still not breathing. They had yet to be truly resurrected.

The reason for that was because regardless of what sort of technique Chu Feng might use, he would not be able to restore their pulse.

“Chu Feng, what are we to do now?” The Heaven Reaching Immortal asked Chu Feng. Although the Heavening Reaching Immortal, according to his name, should possess heaven reaching abilities, he was powerless when faced with such a situation.

At that moment, Chu Feng frowned and said, “I also don’t know.”

He truly didn't know. After all, Chu Feng's father only told him to form bodies and place the souls into the bodies to resurrect the people of the Chu Family.

He had done all that now. Furthermore, each and every body was formed so perfectly. Yet, none of these people showed any signs of reviving.

For the sake of letting them revive sooner, Chu Feng attempted several methods. However, they were all useless.

As of now, Chu Feng had exhausted all of his abilities. However, these people remained dead. This caused Chu Feng to feel that he was powerless.

“But, the souls have already been gathered. Could it be that even this will not suffice?” At that moment, the people from the Chu Family started to panic. Some of the females were so worried that they started to tear up.

Earlier, they had not believed that the resurrection technique would work. However, after actually seeing their family members' souls, and how their souls had entered their newly formed physical bodies, they all felt that their family members would be able to be revived.

Yet, after reaching this point, their family members had yet to be revived. This caused them to be filled with anxiety.

“Bang~~~”

Right at that moment, the spirit formation that Chu Xuanyuan had given Chu Feng suddenly exploded. It turned into silvery light that soared into the sky, covering it.

Then, the silvery light began to sprinkle down from the air before gently falling onto the bodies of the people from the Chu Family.

“Wuu...”

After the silvery light entered their bodies, the previously-motionless Chu Family members started to breath. In fact, they even started to emit sounds.

Finally, all of the people from the Chu Family opened their tightly closed eyes, and woke up.

“They’re alive, they’re alive!!!”

Seeing that, everyone present started to shout emotionally.

Resurrection, something that surpassed one’s imagination, was actually possible.

“Father!!!”

“Mother!!!”

“Grandfather!!!”

“Little brother!!!”

“Little sister!!!”

At that moment, all of the Chu Family’s younger generation that were alive were unable to contain themselves. While wailing with tears, they threw themselves at their newly revived relatives and tightly embraced them.

Tears were falling down like rain. At that moment, their longing for their family members was all unleashed.

“Father.”

As for Chu Feng, he immediately arrived before his adoptive father Chu Yuan’s side. Chu Guyu had also followed him.

“Guyu, Feng’er.”

“What is going on? I... didn’t I die?”

“Or, could it be that I was muddleheaded, and ended up dreaming all of that?” Chu Yuan was confused by the situation before him.

“Father, you indeed died. However, you were resurrected. It was Chu Feng, my little brother Chu Feng, that resurrected you all,” Chu Guyu said.

“Resurrected? Everyone from our Chu Family was resurrected?” After hearing what Chu Guyu said, Chu Yuan began to survey his surroundings. It was only then that he discovered that the people that had been massacred back then, including those that he saw being killed before his very eyes, were all standing there.

Merely, like him, those people all had perplexed and confused expressions on their faces.

“Who are those people? They...”

Suddenly, Chu Yuan revealed a frightened gaze. He had discovered the people from the Eastern Sea Region and the Holy Land of Martialism.

Even though those people had all concealed their cultivations, Chu Yuan was able to determine that they were extremely powerful merely by looking at them. After all, after one’s cultivation reached a certain level, one would emit an aura that surpassed that of ordinary people.

“Father, please don’t be afraid. Those people are all Chu Feng’s friends. They were brought here by Chu Feng,” Chu Guyu explained.

“Feng’er, they are truly your friends?” Chu Yuan had an astonished expression on his face. He did not dare to believe his ears.

Even though his son Chu Feng was indeed very powerful in his memories, it should be impossible for him to be that powerful, no?

How could he possibly become acquaintances with so many powerful people? In Chu Yuan’s eyes, those people were simply akin to gods. They were most definitely not existences that belonged to the Nine Provinces Continent.

“No, it’s greater than friends. Chu Feng is a benefactor to all of us. We all owe our lives to him,” Xian Miaomiao said with a smile.

While Xian Miaomiao spoke those words jokingly, they were the truth. Thus, many people nodded their heads upon hearing her words.

In fact, the King Monstrous Dragon Race’s Clan Chief even added, “My dear friend, you have truly adopted an amazing son. Your son is currently the most powerful existence in this world.”

“Most powerful?”

“Heavens! Exactly how powerful did my Feng’er become?” Chu Yuan looked to Chu Feng. Excitement filled his gaze.

He had come to believe all this, come to believe that it was Chu Feng that had brought them all back to life. Merely, how powerful must one be in order to resurrect the dead?

Although Chu Yuan was incapable of determining Chu Feng’s strength, he knew that the current Chu Feng was so powerful that he had most definitely surpassed his imagination.

“Chu Feng, he...”

The conversation between Chu Yuan and Xian Miaomiao was also heard by the others from the Chu Family. When they realized that it was truly Chu Feng that had resurrected them, the gazes from the people of the Chu Family all became extremely complicated.

Back when Chu Feng was young, no one in the Chu Family other than Chu Yuan and Chu Guyu thought highly of Chu Feng. Even the Family Head, Chu Yuanba, had been like that.

Back then, a great majority of them beat and cursed Chu Feng. Regardless of whether they were adults or children, they all bullied Chu Feng.

Even though Chu Feng proved his talent with his strength later on and started to gradually obtain the acknowledgement and respect of the Chu Family, none of them expected that Chu Feng would become so powerful.

None of them expected that he would actually become the most powerful expert in the world!

At that moment, they were filled with overwhelming emotions.

Chapter 2148 – Departure Banquet

“Father, regardless of what sort of cultivation I might have, I will always remain your son,” Chu Feng said to Chu Yuan.

“That’s right. You are my son. You will forever be my son,” Chu Yuan nodded his head repeatedly. He was truly feeling proud of Chu Feng.

“Big brother, father and the others have just woken up. They should properly rest themselves. You should bring them back to the Azure Dragon School first,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well, we’ll be returning to the Azure Dragon School right away,” Chu Guyu said.

“Father, I forgot to mention this to you. Big brother is currently the Azure Dragon School’s headmaster,” Chu Feng said to Chu Yuan.

“Really? Guyu joined the Azure Dragon School? Furthermore, he became the headmaster?” Chu Yuan asked in astonishment.

“Yes, that’s right,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Great, this is great. My two sons truly make me proud,” Chu Yuan said happily.

While Chu Yuan knew that he had died, he had felt very muddleheaded in death, and did not manage to possess much of any awareness.

Over the years, he felt as if he had dreamed a long and hazy dream. However, there was no substance to that dream.

Thus, he did not know about the things that had happened over the years. As such, he would naturally be extremely happy to be met with this much good news right after being revived.

Afterward, Chu Feng, as well as everyone from the Chu Family and the many guests from the Eastern Sea Region and the Holy Land of Martialism, all proceeded toward the Azure Dragon School to rest there.

In order to celebrate the revival of the people from the Chu Family, as well as to welcome the many guests, the Azure Dragon School naturally held a grand banquet.

Furthermore, Chu Feng sent invitations to the Crippling Night Demon Sect, the Jiang Royal Dynasty and many other powers.

To Chu Feng, this might be his final banquet before entering the Outer World. Thus, he wished to see the people that had helped him before.

Finally, all of the guests from the Eastern Sea Region and the Nine Provinces Continent arrived. As such, the banquet officially began.

In the banquet, regardless of whether they were elders or disciples, grand characters or new disciples, everyone was filled with excitement and happiness.

Not to mention that the Azure Dragon School had managed to invite over this many legendary grand characters from the Holy Land of Martialism.

The pride of their Azure Dragon School, Chu Feng, was actually so heaven-defying that he could even resurrect his family members that were killed. He was simply omnipotent.

Most importantly, the important guests that came for Chu Feng were all extremely extravagant. They bestowed everyone from the Azure Dragon School grand gifts.

Regardless of whether they were elders or disciples, they all obtained many gifts. Naturally, this made them extremely overjoyed.

After all, treasures casually given by those grand characters were all capable of being things that they could not obtain in their entire lifetimes.

During the banquet, Chu Feng gave a general description of what had happened over the years to Chu Yuan.

Actually, Chu Feng was not the one who personally told Chu Yuan what had happened. Xian Miaomiao and the others were truly talkative.

When the people in the Nine Provinces Continent came to find out what Chu Feng had experienced and accomplished, they felt even greater admiration for Chu Feng.

The younger generation that once grew up alongside Chu Feng all realized that the distance between them and Chu Feng was truly growing further and further apart.

If they were to be said to have just learned how to run on the ground, then Chu Feng was already soaring in the ninth heaven.

Suddenly, Chu Yuan asked in a very shocked manner, “Feng’er, you’re going to the Outer World?” Reluctance to part filled his gaze.

He had already come to know that Chu Feng had become the overlord of this world. In this world, there was already no one capable of fighting against Chu Feng.

As Chu Feng carried a heavy responsibility, he was prepared to make for the vast and starry sky, the so-called Outer World.

“Yes father, I am going to the Outer World. However, I will one day return. I will return to see you and everyone else,” Chu Feng said.

“Feng’er, I know that I am unable to stop you. Thus, I will only tell you one thing. After entering the Outer World, you must be careful. There is nothing more important than your life,” Chu Yuan said with great reluctance.

“It’s enough, Feng’er is someone with great prospects. As his father, you should support him.”

“Come, Feng’er, grandfather will offer you a toast of wine. I hope that you will be able to accomplish what you have done here in the Outer World too,” Chu Yuanba raised his wine cup to toast Chu Feng.

Back then, Chu Yuanba had not thought highly of Chu Feng. It was only after Chu Feng gradually emerged in power and gained honor for the Chu Family that he started to think highly of Chu Feng.

And now, after knowing about Chu Feng’s various achievements, Chu Feng had already become the pride of the Chu Family in his heart.

He was very glad that he had decided to allow Chu Yuan to adopt Chu Feng in the end.

“If someone must offer a toast, it should be me offering grandfather a toast,” Even though Chu Yuanba had not treated Chu Feng well, Chu Feng did not blame Chu Yuanba, nor did he blame the others from the Chu Family. The only thing he felt toward them was deficiency. Thus, after Chu Feng finished drinking that cup of wine, he said to Chu Yuanba, “Grandfather, I was the one in the wrong back then. It was all because of me that caused you all to die.”

“Alas, Feng’er, what are you saying? Let the past be the past. Aren’t we all properly living now?” Chu Yuanba said indifferently with a smile on his face.

“That’s right. Chu Feng, no one blames you for what happened back then. After all, it was not your fault to begin with. It’s those vile people that were the ones at fault,” The others from the Chu Family also voiced their opinions.

In response, Chu Feng smiled lightly. Suddenly, he grabbed a large jug of wine, and swept his gaze over the crowd.

His family: Chu Yue, Chu Yuan, Chu Guyu and the others...

His masters: Zhuge Liuyun and Qiu Canfeng.

His seniors from the Nine Provinces Continent: the Azure Dragon Founder, Li Changqing, Monstrous Monkey Brother and the others...

Those from the Eastern Sea Region: Huangfu Haoyue, Qiushui Fuyan, Lady Piaomiao and the others...

From the Holy Land of Martialism: Baili Xuankong, Dugu Xingfeng and the others...

As well as the seniors from the various powers: the Azure Dragon School, the Jiang Royal Dynasty, Misty Peak, the Crippling Night Demon Sect, the Cyanwood Mountain, the King Monstrous Dragon Race, the World Spiritist Alliance, the Elf Kingdom and the others...

When Chu Feng saw those familiar faces, the scenes of what had happened back then seemed to flash before his eyes once again. Chu Feng's mouth lifted into a smile.

He said, "Seniors, all of you are people that have helped me, all of you are benefactors to me. In fact, many among you are people that have saved me before."

"I, Chu Feng, am only able to be here this day because of you all. Even thousands of words would not be able to express my gratitude toward you all."

"Seniors, I, Chu Feng, shall offer you all a toast here," After saying those words, Chu Feng gulped down the entire jug of wine.

In response, all of the seniors that had helped Chu Feng also grabbed a jug of wine each and gulped down the wine. They did not regret helping Chu Feng. The reason for that was because helping Chu Feng had been worth it in the end.

After gulping down that jug of wine, Chu Feng grabbed another jug of wine. He looked to Wang Qiang, Jiang Wushang, Zhang Tianyi, Xian Miaomiao, Bai Ruochen, Sima Ying, Tantai Xue and the many fellow members of the younger generation, “This toast is for my good brothers and friends. It is for the trials and tribulations that we all have endured together through the years.”

“Toast!” Xian Miaomiao and the others all stood up and toasted with Chu Feng.

On this night, the crowd drank all the way till dawn.

In fact, this banquet continued for ten days and ten nights straight.

Chu Feng knew that this was the final time that he had to accompany these friends and relatives. Thus, he cherished this moment even more.

However, there was no such thing as a never-ending banquet in this world. As such, even though the crowd was reluctant to part, even though there were people shedding tears, the banquet still ended up ending.

After the banquet ended, Chu Feng proceeded toward the Eastern Sea Region’s Misty Peak.

Chu Feng was prepared to leave. There were many people that followed him to see him off.

Practically all the people capable of following him went with him. They were all planning to see Chu Feng off personally.

However, not everyone was able to enter the Immortalization Road. After all, the path to the Stairway to Heaven on the Immortalization Road was very dangerous.

In the end, only a small portion of the people were able to see Chu Feng off in the Immortalization Road.

“Miaomiao, keep this. After entering the Outer World, if you do not wish to stay in the Hundred Refinements Stage, you can use this to escape from the binding of the Hundred Refinements Stage,” Chu Feng handed the world spirit key to Xian Miaomiao.

“Mn,” Xian Miaomiao accepted the key with a beaming smile.

“After reaching the Outer World, use this to contact me,” Chu Feng also handed her a Golden Flash Bird.

“Okay,” Xian Miaomiao nodded again. Then, she said to Chu Feng, “You must be well. Make sure to not die. Don’t make it so that there is no one in the Outer World for this princess after she arrives.”

“Definitely,” Chu Feng nodded with a smile.

“H-Hey, e-enough of the d-d-dillydally. A-A-Are we g-going or not?” Suddenly, a voice was heard. It was Wang Qiang.

Merely, the current Wang Qiang was already above the clouds and standing on the Stairway to Heaven. The Stairway to Heaven had been activated, and Wang Qiang had ascended onto it.

“Seniors, Chu Feng shall take his leave now,” Chu Feng clasped his fist toward the crowd.

“Safe journey,” The crowd also clasped their fists.

Chu Feng smiled again. Then, his body shifted, and he flew toward the Stairway to Heaven. With rapid steps, he began to ascend it. Soon, he caught up to Wang Qiang.

“D-D-Do you s-see that? If w-we g-go any f-f-further, this S-Stairway to Heaven w-will send us to the O-Outer World.”

“A-At that t-time, we will be completely l-leaving this place. A-Are you p-p-p-prepared?” Wang Qiang pointed toward the top of the Stairway to Heaven. The energy ripples in that place were somewhat different.

Chu Feng took a glance downward. He was filled with reluctance to part. However, in the end, he turned around and said, “Let’s go.”

“Woosh~~~”

Once Chu Feng said those words, the two men both soared ahead.

“Buzz~~~”

When the two men stepped onto that region, waves of power began to pound against them from below the Stairway to Heaven.

“Woosh~~~”

When the light coming from below covered Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, the two of them were quickly brought to the depths of the sky. Soon, their figures disappeared.

When the Stairway to Heaven calmed back down, all the people present knew that Chu Feng... had already entered Outer World.

Chapter 2149 – Newcomer

Everything in around him was rapidly changing. However, Chu Feng was not moving at all. It was as if his hands and legs were restricted; as if he was in a river current, and could only blindly follow it.

However, Chu Feng was able to see the changes happening to his surroundings. At the beginning, his surrounding had been covered with golden light. However, the golden light soon turned into darkness. Even though it had turned to darkness, there were many faint lights passing through him nonstop. In fact, he was even able to sense that there were a lot of such lights; so many that they were simply innumerable.

Merely, the speed at which Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were traveling was simply too fast. As such, Chu Feng was simply unable to see anything clearly.

However, Chu Feng had a guess in his heart. He felt those lights to be stars. Chu Feng had already left the Eastern Sea Region. To be exact, he had left the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm and entered the vast starry sky.

That is, he had entered the Outer World.

“Buzz~~~”

Finally, the place before Chu Feng was no longer an endless tunnel. Instead, a ray of light appeared.

That ray of light appeared like the bright sun. Blazing heat was soon felt.

Soon, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were basked in the light and heat. It was as if they had entered the sun itself. That sort of feeling was very unpleasant.

However, that feeling persisted for only a split second before disappearing. At the same time, the dazzling light also disappeared.

Soon, Chu Feng discovered that the binding feeling on his hands and legs had also disappeared.

Furthermore, when he looked to his surroundings, he was joyous to discover that he was currently on a sea floor.

“We’ve a-a-arrived at the O-O-Outer World?” Wang Qiang asked Chu Feng. Unconcealable excitement filled his face.

“Wouldn’t we know once we go out?” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, his body shifted as he and Wang Qiang rapidly soared upward.

“Splash~~~”

Waves of water splashed across the sea as Chu Feng and Wang Qiang soared into the sky like two dragons.

However, there was no one in their surroundings. Above them was a vast blue sky and white clouds. Below them was a sea as far as the eye could see. The waves of the sea surged high into the sky and rumbled as they crashed back into the sea.

“T-the h-hell?! I-I-Isn’t this the E-Eastern Sea R-Region?!” Wang Qiang’s mouth was wide open. He had a disappointed expression.

“No, this place should be the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Chu Feng said.

“H-How do you k-know that?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Sense the Natural Energies in this place. They’re so plentiful and dense. Not to mention the Eastern Sea Region, even the Holy Land of Martialism is greatly inferior to this place,” Chu Feng said.

After hearing what Chu Feng said, Wang Qiang closed his eyes and began to carefully sense the Natural Energies in his surroundings. Then, he opened his eyes and revealed an excited expression. He said, “It’s t-true! In t-that case, this place is r-really not the Eastern Sea Region but the H-H-Hundred R-Refinements O-Ordinary Realm?”

“T-Then, where are we at now? Is this t-the H-Hundred Refinements S-Stage or w-whatever that y-you spoke of? B-But, why are o-only the two of us h-here?” Wang Qiang asked curiously.

“There’s only two possibilities for that...”

“One, this place is enormous. Thus, even though we are in the Hundred Refinements Stage, we are unable to find anyone in our surroundings.”

“Two, the Stairway to Heaven that we used avoided the guidance power. Thus, while we are in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, we have simply bypassed the Hundred Refinements Stage,” Chu Feng explained.

“T-That’s true. F-Forget about it. D-Doesn’t matter w-where this is, let’s g-go check t-things out,” Wang Qiang surveyed his surroundings. Then, his body shifted. He pointed to a direction and said, “Come, l-let’s go t-this way. It’s c-closer to the coast.”

After he finished saying those words, Wang Qiang began to proceed toward the direction he chose.

‘Quite skillful.’

In response, Chu Feng praised in his heart. Although they were both world spiritists, being able to differentiate one’s surroundings and determine which direction was closer to the coast when placed in the middle of a vast sea like this was not something that everyone could accomplish.

While Chu Feng was able to accomplish it, he did not expect that Wang Qiang would also be capable of it.

After seeing that Wang Qiang possessed this sort of ability, Chu Feng grew a bit more confident. After all, it would be beneficial for the two of them to possess more abilities when entering this unknown Outer World together.

The two men flew toward the direction Wang Qiang had indicated. Sure enough, as they approached the coast, a city came into view.

The city was not very large. However, there were plenty of people moving about in it. It was a very lively city.

After seeing the people in the city, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were both extremely excited. It was as if they had discovered a new world.

Although they were all humans, it remained that the people of this place were from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

The first thing Chu Feng did was to survey the cultivation of these people. He wanted to have a general understanding of what sort of cultivations the people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm possessed.

Upon surveying the crowd, Chu Feng discovered that the people in this city, regardless of their gender or age, were practically all martial cultivators. As for their cultivations, they numbered from high to low.

However, a thing worthy of being mentioned was that even the weakest adults were Martial Kings. Furthermore, there were a lot of Half Martial Emperor-level experts.

Of course... there were also Martial Emperor-level experts. Merely, they numbered very few.

Furthermore, whenever a Martial Emperor appeared, the rest of the people looked to them with gazes of reverence. This meant that Martial Emperors were people with a certain amount of status in this place.

It should also be pointed out that the majority of the people in Chu Feng and Wang Qiang's line of sight that were capable of becoming Martial Emperors were older than a hundred years old.

As rank one Half Martial Ancestors, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were much superior to the people here.

Merely, as the two men did not deliberately reveal their auras, no one took notice of them.

After all, the two of them were only two young men in their early twenties. They were still very young even for the younger generation.

To the people that had lived for hundreds or thousands of years, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang could not even be considered youngsters. In fact, they were no different from two babies.

“W-What’s this? H-Here I t-thought this p-place would be a-a-amazing. Turns out i-it’s only this much.”

“With o-only these g-guys here, I can c-crush a w-whole bunch w-with a s-single f-f-fart. S-Sigh, t-this is n-no c-c-c-challenge at all,” Wang Qiang said with a disappointed expression.

“We’ve just arrived here. What we are seeing here is merely the tip of the iceberg. As such, we naturally cannot determine much from this.”

“Furthermore, Martial Emperors were grand existences in the Holy Land of Martialism. They are not people that were easily encountered.”

“Yet, this place is merely a city. However, this mere city possesses Martial Emperors. Doesn’t this mean that this place has a lot of Martial Emperors?”

“The way I see it, the people here might only be ordinary martial cultivators. For ordinary martial cultivators to be able to become Martial Emperors, that in itself is extremely extraordinary,” Chu Feng said.

“I-If y-you say it like that, it d-does seem to b-be the case,” Wang Qiang felt what Chu Feng said to be very reasonable.

“Clank~~~”

“Clank~~~”

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, an ear-piercing tolling of bells could be heard. They were sounding from the direction of the sea.

“This is bad! It’s the people from Luyang’s Pavilion. Everyone, quickly, run away.”

After hearing that bell, two distinct reactions emerged from the people in the city. One was panic, and the other was joy.

Chu Feng discovered that some people were already kneeling on the ground. They were kneeling and kowtowing in the direction where the tolling was coming from. They were all people with joyous expressions on their faces.

“Quickly, we gotta go, we gotta go.”

At the same time, the people that had panicked expressions on their faces hurriedly escaped to take shelter.
